RULE III. The Board shall appoint a Chairman pro tempore, who shall perform the duties of the chair in the absence of the Chairman.

RULE IV. The Chairman shall preserve order, and shall decide questions of order subject to an appeal to the Board.

RULE V. Every member when he speaks, shall address the Chair standing in his place. No member shall speak more than twice in any one debate on the same day without leave of the Board.

RULE VI. When two or more members rise at once the Chairman shall name the member who is first to speak.

RULE VII. No motion shall be debated until the same is seconded, and it shall be reduced in writing if desired by the Chairman or any member, delivered at the desk and read by the Chairman or Clerk, before the same shall be debated, but it may be withdrawn any time before decision or amendment.

RULE VIII. When a question is under debate, no motions shall be received but to adjourn, for the previous question, to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a certain day, or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they stand arranged.

RULE IX. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order. That and the motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

RULE X. The previous question shall be in the form: "Shall the main question now be put?" But no motion for a reconsideration shall be in order unless made on the same day, or succeeding day, on which the vote was taken, nor shall any question be considered more than once without unanimous consent.

RULE XVII. After the ayes and nays are called upon any question, and after the question is stated from the Chair, and the Clerk directed to call the roll, no member shall be entitled to speak on the question.

It shall be stated in the form, "Shall the main question be now put?"

RECONSIDERATIONS

RULE XXVI. A motion for reconsideration may be made by any member of the prevailing side within one day after the question was determined, but if such motion be laid on the table it shall there remain.
