Novi Police, Volunteers Search for Kathy...

Thirty-six hours after 17-year old Kathy Radtke was reported missing a search party of more than 100 policemen, local volunteers, and fellow employees of the girl's father launched an extensive search of the Northville Township area where the body of Kathy's boyfriend was found. Led by Novi Police Chief Lee BeGole, the search party was aided by helicopters and police dogs. Kathy was still missing Wednesday morning.

Parents Wait and Pray 'Perfect' Girl Missing

She's just the most perfect daughter - that's about all you can say," a tearful Novi mother said Tuesday afternoon while praying that her missing 17-year-old daughter will be found alive. They telephoned their son, a college student, to see if he might have any idea where she might have gone. He, too, was mystified and returned home to be with his parents. It was noon Monday when the Radtkes learned that Jack's body had been found. When their daughter, a Novi 11th grader, was last seen she was wearing bell bottom pants, a long-sleeved T-shirt with Mickey Mouse drawing on the front, her 1972 Novi class ring, and Jack's ring. Kathy was one-year-old when the Radtkes moved to Novi from Kansas. Mr. Radtke is employed by Michigan Bell Telephone Company in Farmington. Tuesday afternoon fellow Bell employees of Mr. Radtke joined Novi police and others in launching an intensive search of the township area where Jack's body was found. Meanwhile, the parents waited and prayed... in a house, said Mrs. Radtke, that Kathy had "always filled with happiness."

Sewer Tap Dispute Explained by Crupi

As a result of statements made recently by Guardian Photo President Warren J. Coville, Novi Mayor Joseph Crupi felt it necessary Monday night, to deliver "a clarification of the situation the city is in with Guardian Photo for the benefit of the press and public." Crupi referred to a discrepancy between city authorities and Coville as to the number of sewer taps the Nine Mile plant should be paying for. Currently the facility, which uses over 30 million gallons of water a year, is operating under a permit for six sewer taps as per an agreement Coville claims he has with the city. Crupi, who said Monday night he had been unable to find such an agreement, or any record of it, claims the company should be charged for "in the neighborhood of 100 taps."

Planners Table Site Plan Request

Worried about water retention problems, Novi planners delayed last week Wednesday a request for site plan approval from Practical Home Builders for its development west of Orchard Hills subdivision along 10 Mile. The board's main hang-up was over the possibility that drainage from the proposed development would run into the Walled Lake Creek and from there into Meadowbrook Lake - long a source of complaint from local residents because of silting and other erosion problems. Sheldon Wagner of Practical Home was authorized to work with Robert Shaddock, representative of city planning consultant, Vilcan Lemar, to come up with a water retention plan. No date was set as to when the plan would be due.

Rose Requests Wixom Verdict

Wixom councilmen will consider the change of a zoning stipulation which limits apartment buildings to 25 feet at a public hearing February 23. Councilmen will grant either the ordinance change, a variance, or a flat denial to the petition from Edward Rose and Sons of Detroit for the right to build apartment buildings in excess of the two stories mentioned in Wixom ordinances.

The Rose petition concerns a multi-million dollar apartment complex planned for the area south of Pontiac Trail and Beck Road. Wixom Councilmen passed the matter on to the Board of Appeals in their January meeting. The board, upon the recommendation of City Attorney Gene Schnelz, denied the request on the basis that they did not have sufficient authority to grant the variance.

At the time, conversation between the board and planners indicated to grant a variance was "virtually rewrite the ordinance" in that it would provide precedent for cases to appear in the future. "All we ask," said Edward Sheehan of the Rose Company, before council Thursday night, "is to get about the task at hand, which is development."

Sheehan said that his company would build either two stories or 2 1/2 - whichever the council directed - but that he wanted to start the development as soon as possible. "If we go to two story buildings," said Sheehan, "we will lose much of the open space currently planned for the development. As it is, there are 18 to 20 acres of park area provided, and a person can walk from the farthest extremity of the development to the community building, which is in the center, without leaving an open area."

In other business Thursday night, councilmen: Tabled the December budget report until Mayoral Assistant Robert Case can explain certain questions raised by Councilman Robert Dingley. Dingley questioned various items pertaining to salary and supply bills. Granted $250 to the Walled Lake program of Youth Assistance. The money according to Case will be used along with similar amounts contributed from neighboring communities, to rent office space.

Appointed Lloyd Croft to a renewed term on the Board of Review. Croft, whose term will run for three years, is currently serving on the board. Granted permission to Fire Chief Robert Potter to advertise for bids on a new fire hose.

Pet Clinic Slated Here Oakland County will operate a vaccination clinic Saturday in Novi and February 27 in Wixom. To secure a 1971 dog license, any owner in the state must produce a certificate proving vaccination good for one year administered after January 1, 1971 or for two or three years not to expire before December 31, 1971. Such certificates will be available at the clinics to be held between 1 and 4 p.m. in the respective city halls. Fee is set at $2. Dog licenses will also be available for a fee of $1 for males and unsexed and $2 for females. On March 1, 1971 license fees will jump to $5, and $7.50.

Council Asks For Drawings

Wixom Councilmen voted unanimously Thursday night to contract with the Oakland County DPW to prepare engineering plans on both of the new two phases of the city's sewer extension program. The move came after councilmen had considered a letter sent to them by R.J. Alexander, director of the Oakland County DPW, estimating prices of both phases as well as a combination price. Alexander's letter included quotations of aid revenues that the city could expect to receive.

Alexander pegged the cost of building both phases simultaneously at $671,000. Of that figure $323,000 could be expected from grant funds, Alexander said. Councilman Robert Dingley took exception to the word "expected" saying that the city would be ruined if the expected didn't happen and taxpayers were faced with the entire $671,000 cost. "For a town with 2,000 people in it and with the taxes we have, and as high as those taxes are, I don't see how we can even go to the $370,000 to build phase three," he said.

Alexander's estimate for construction of phase III was put at $370,000, with $177,550 expected from grant funds. Mayor Gilbert Willis quoted a letter addressed to him from Representative Clifford Smart as saying that "you can be reasonably positive of your funds being granted."

Willis went on to explain that there were $105 million earmarked in state coffers, and that of 242 petitions requesting $602 million, Wixom was 34th on the list. Alexander said that should the city put off its decision for five years, prices would probably jump by 60-75 percent.

Councilman Gunnar Mettala emphasized that the city was not obligating itself to build anything by ordering engineering plans. "If the city decides that the price is beyond our means," said Mettala, "the bonds will not be sold and we can get out of the contract." If constructed, the two new phases would provide capacity for an additional 7,000 people. Total engineering cost for the two projects, according to Mayor Assistant Robert Case, is $30,000.

In other business Thursday council voted unanimously to ask city engineers Pate Hirn and Bogue to estimate cost on engineering drawings of a drainage and retention system proposed for the area facing the southwest portion of Loon Lake. The system, recommended by Councilman Val Vangieson on the basis of research done by his Environmental Studies Committee, calls for curb and gutter drainage in the Bell Coney-Nightingale-Flamingo area, with catch basins at regular points and a retention basin or pond to act as a final dropping out point for sediment and debris before emptying into the lake. One of the most important things is to slow the velocity of the water down. Up to a point the slower it flows the more particles will drop out.

Astronauts Hosts to Visitors

By Jean Day
SUNDAY'S BLASTOFF to the moon of Apollo 14 held first-hand excitement for Northville residents who were in Cape Kennedy, Florida, to witness the launch operations. Mr. and Mrs. Donald P. Boor of Woodhill Road were invited as guests of Astronaut Stuart A. Roosa. They had met Roosa and his wife, Joan, on a quail hunting trip in Georgia. They saw Mrs. Roosa and other friends, Astronaut Ron Evans (Roosa's back-up man) and his wife at a party honoring the three moon-bound astronauts' wives Friday night. The Boors also had tentative plans to meet Robert Bogart, who was to leave from Northville Saturday, but as Fran Boor commented Tuesday on their return, "with 7,000 people there, this was impossible."

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Quigley, Jr., of Edenderry Drive, also had been invited to attend the launch, took a "train check" until the Apollo 15 launch scheduled for July. They hope then to go south with their family to see the blastoff which will be commanded by their friend Alfred M. Worden, who is from Michigan. Last weekend the Quigleys attended the Michigan Press Association meeting in Lansing instead. (He is in public relations at General Motors.) MEN'S NIGHT programs with husbands as special guests are becoming increasingly popular with local women's groups as they provide opportunity for husbands to be included in community events. Northville Woman's Club, which renewed the custom of inviting husbands to a dinner meeting three years ago, has a top-quality program in The Friars, vocal octet of the University of Michigan, this Friday evening at Northville First Presbyterian Church. The evening of music is to follow a buffet dinner at 7 p.m. Mrs. Leonard Klein, president, expects more than 125 members and husbands to attend. Mrs. Douglas Bolton and her committee are in charge of transportation and reservations. Mrs. C. T. Cuppert, Jr., and members of the social committee are in charge of table arrangements and decorations.

Mrs. Keith Wright, program chairman, will introduce the Friars, who have sung to audiences around the world as part of the world-famous University of Michigan Glee Club. Their repertoire of timeless standards, rock, pop and folk music was being heard also in New York this week as they flew there Monday to perform at NBC's banquet honoring the 50th anniversary of WWJ radio. Average age of the student singers is 20 - noted as "an important factor in the creation of the lively, exuberant performances audiences have come to expect." KING'S MILL Women's Club is bringing the "Jills from Bloomfield Hills," honors vocal and bell-ringing ensemble from Andover High School in Bloomfield Hills, for its first men's night program scheduled for 8 p.m. next Thursday, February 11, at the clubhouse. Northville Resident Clarence A. Luchtman directs the Jills - who are marking their 16th anniversary. In this time The Jills have made more than 1,000 appearances, singing for more than a million people. They were featured at the New York World's Fair, at the Canadian Exposition in Montreal and recently were guest performers for the U.S. Army troops at Fort Knox, Kentucky. Mrs. Harry V. Odle, of the King's Mill Club, adds that all adults of the townhouse are invited and that punch and cookies will be served.

AN AFTERNOON tea for the Daughters of the British Empire at the home of Mrs. Alan Brailsford, Clement Court in Northville's Lexington Commons, is planned to introduce new and prospective members to officers of the organization from 2 to 4 p.m. next Wednesday, February 10. Attending will be Mrs. Russell Skitch, of Grosse Pointe, state president; Mrs. William Chisholm of Birmingham, past national president; and Mrs. Arthur B. Hillegas, past national vice president. Daughters of the British Empire is a non-profit, non-sectarian and non-partisan philanthropic organization of national scope of women of British ancestry. Mrs. Brailsford notes that the ancestry can be derived from a grandparent or by

Murphy Sisters Share Art Talent

Two talented sisters, Rowan and Darlean Murphy, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Murphy, 576 Reed, an interest in art which already has become a career for Rowan and appears destined to be one for younger sister Darlean. Rowan, a 1965 graduate of Northville High School and a 1969 graduate of the University of Michigan with a bachelor of fine arts degree, joined the staff of Film Central as associate in graphic arts in Saline, Michigan, November 19. Last month her sister, Darlean, was accepted as an art major at Eastern Michigan University by Kingsley Calkins, art department head. Darlean also is a Northville High School graduate, class of 1969. Rowan Murphy joined the Saline firm to coordinate its existing graphic projects as well as create new products. She just previously spent six months in California compiling a portfolio of experiences for later graphic presentation. She already has enjoyed acclaim as a free lance artist as her paintings are becoming well known in the Ann Arbor area where she now has an apartment. She participated in a joint exhibition with two other artists at an Ann Arbor interior decorating salon. In January, 1969, two of her paintings were reproduced as posters published by Seri-Graphics in Ann Arbor. Her paintings were displayed and sold at the 1970 invitational Ann Arbor Art Fair. While still a student at University of Michigan, carrying eight hours of painting classes, she was employed full time as assistant graphic artist at the U. of M. audio-visual education center. The quiet young artist also is a student of astrology and refers to her personal astrological chart to explain her own abilities, saying, "The moon in Aquarius indicates creative trends." The Saline Reporter, in a December feature article, and Film Central, who introduced the artist at a Christmas-season coffee, both feel Rowan's recent sketches indicate a great deal of creativity.

School to Seek 2.5 Mill Hike

From all indications, it looks like voters will be asked on March 6 to approve an additional 2.5 mills on top of the 17 mills up for renewal to finance Northville public schools' operational budget for 1971-72. Superintendent Raymond Spear said he expects the board of education to approve the millage rate at its meeting Monday night.

"Monday's board meeting begins at 7 p.m., one hour earlier than usual, to allow trustees to attend the Northville Economic Development Committee meeting at the high school where the Doxidis study will be presented at 7:30 p.m."

"We have had several meetings on the budget for this year and have discussed what we anticipate next year's budget will be," Spear said. "The board is in general agreement that we must ask for an additional 2.5 mills."

The additional millage, if passed, will bring the total school millage to 38.4. Presently the district can levy 35.9 mills but chose to levy only 33.9 this year due to increased state equalized valuation (SEV) and increased state aid.

Spear said the extra 2.5 mills is needed (over and above the two mills voted but not levied this year) because the anticipated costs of operating the district next year "represent more money than can be raised with the anticipated SEV increase, state aid increases and renewal of the 17 mills which has expired."

The superintendent said he expects a 17 per cent increase in student enrollment for the 1971-72 school year.

Here Monday Night Study Reveals Future

The results of a five-year study envisioning a 21st century metropolitan Detroit area will be presented Monday night at the Northville high school auditorium under the sponsorship of the Northville Economic Development Committee.

School and community officials from Northville, Novi, Salem and South Lyon have been invited to hear the report on the Urban Detroit Area Research Project commissioned by the Detroit Edison Company and widely known as the "Doxidis" report.

Community citizens are also urged to attend the meeting which begins at 7:30 p.m. E. B. Clark, administrative

Boyfriend Slain Police Still Hopeful In Search for Kathy

LATE REPORT - Even though 60 hours had elapsed since Kathy Radtke's disappearance, Wayne County detectives were still hopeful Wednesday noon that the 17-year-old Novi girl would be found alive.

Search for the missing girlfriend of a murdered Northville youth continued Wednesday morning as Wayne County Sheriff's detectives sifted clues that might lead them to the slayer. Missing is a Novi High School honors student, 17-year-old Kathy Lynn Radtke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Radtke of 23931 LeBost in Willowbrook subdivision, who was last seen Sunday night with John (Jack) Milton Keyes, Jr., 19, whose frozen body was discovered Monday morning in Northville Township.

The youth, son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Keyes of 142 Randolph Street, was "shot twice, in both cheeks," detectives said following an autopsy Tuesday. Initially, detectives suspected that the boy might have been beaten as well but the autopsy findings gave no such evidence, they said.

Detectives fear that Kathy may have been abducted, possibly killed by Keyes' slayer. Nevertheless, they still held out hope Wednesday morning, that "we'll eventually find her alive. That's from the premise that she may have a jacket and her purse." An intensive search late Tuesday of the western part of Northville Township by area police, volunteers, and fellow Michigan Bell Telephone employees of the girl's father, failed to uncover any leads.

She was last seen wearing lavender bell bottom pants, a purple long-sleeved T-shirt like blouse that contained a Mickey Mouse drawing on the front. Described by friends as a "very pretty girl," she has long blond hair, is 5' 7" in height and weighs about 110 pounds, detectives said.

The girl's jacket was found beneath the head of her boyfriend's body, discovered inside his car parked on a country lane, more than a quarter-mile east of Napier Road and a quarter-mile north of Five Mile Road - adjacent to the Detroit House of Correction property.

The boy's jacket is missing. According to Detective Sergeant Harry Cummings of the Wayne County Sheriff's Department, the youth's body was frozen when discovered by his brother, Christopher, 21, and a close friend, Ronald Baggett of 20825 Napier Road. The bottom half of his body was clothed, he said.

Cummings said the body was "half in the front seat of the car, half in the back." A sleeping bag, owned by the youth, the missing girl's scarf, and a 22-caliber shell casing were found inside the 1967 Mustang, he said.

The car and all other evidence was immediately taken to the department's headquarters for study. Fingerprints were lifted from the car. The boys who discovered the body told The Record they began searching for the victim Monday morning. They looked in the Napier Road area because, they said, Jack was known to have parked there on a previous occasion, and they feared Jack and Kathy might have been overcome by carbon monoxide. They found the car and the body about 10:10 a.m.

Both said they saw tire prints of what looked like those of a jeep near the victim's car. The driver's window of Jack's car was rolled down, they said.

KATHY RADTKE

JOHN KEYES, JR.

Ronald Baggett and the victim were members of Northville's 1969 graduation class. "He was my closest friend," said Baggett, who last saw the victim at the Keyes home about 7:30 p.m. Sunday night.

City Moves to Ban Disposable Bottles

Joining what is expected to be a county-wide movement, the Northville City Council Monday night proposed an ordinance that would prohibit sale here of non-returnable beer and pop bottles.

The proposed ordinance will come up for public hearing on February 15. Similar municipal action, suggested by community leaders at an intergovernmental conference last November, is expected to be taken by many-if not the majority-of the cities within Wayne County.

A letter from representatives of the United Steel Workers, District 29, noted that thousands of men and women are dependent upon the can industry for their jobs. It urged Northville not to take action banning cans.

Edward Krietz and Jean Dykstra, representatives of the Environmental Action Committee, suggested adoption of an ordinance that would ban cans because of handling but he saw it as no great problem.

"The bigger (bottling) companies," he said, "have both kinds of bottles now."

Abraham, who Monday received council approval for a take-out beer and wine license, said he recognized the problem created by non-returnables. He doubted, however, that the ban would wipe out the problem altogether.

using the ban of non-returnable bottles-as well as metal cans. The proposed Northville ordinance does not affect cans.

Quoting a letter by City of Wayne Mayor Patrick J. Norton, Ollendorff explained: "The group (representatives from 29 county communities) that met on November 19th did agree that ordinances passed by communities on an individual basis would not properly effect a solution to the (pollution) problem. We all felt that the really important work must be done by the state legislature. However, we all know that legislation at a state level was introduced last year and failed to get proper support. Therefore, it was concluded that action taken by all or most of the communities in Wayne County would have an important effect on public opinion and there by support the legislature in taking similar steps."

According to Ollendorff, plans call for Wayne County Communities to take similar action concurrently. Thus, Northville's proposal, if approved, would ban non-returnables as of January 1, 1972, he said.

All five members of the Northville council appeared to support the proposal. The ordinance is not likely to eliminate all pollution caused by

NEWS BRIEFS

SCHOOL BOARD members will meet an hour earlier than usual Monday night with the meeting beginning at 7 p.m. Following the meeting trustees will adjourn to the high school where they will attend the Northville Economic Development Committee meeting which begins at 7:30 p.m. Scheduled for the committee's meeting is a presentation and discussion of the Doxidis report on the urban Detroit Area Research project.

TOMORROW, FRIDAY, is the deadline for registering to vote in Northville Public Schools' March 6 millage election. Voters may register at the township or city hall in the area in which they live. Property owners and non-property owners are eligible to vote in the election with all votes counting the same, Earl Busard, business manager, said. It's almost certain the district will ask for and additional 2.5 mills over the 17 mills up for renewal.

NEGOTIATIONS with Detroit officials for emergency transfer of prisoners from the over-crowded county jail to the Detroit House of Correction (DeHoCo) have been launched by a board of commissioners committee. The transfer, if it becomes a reality, is seen as a temporary measure to reduce the county jail population while a proposed facility in Westland is established. DeHoCo is located in both Northville and Plymouth townships, on either side of Five Mile Road.
