Indian Image Reversed

By ROLLY PETERSON
Our senses have been inundated with a particular image of the American Indian. He's a savage, he has been told, who rampaged ruthlessly through the west in pioneer days, plundering homes, raping white women and scalping people with utter viciousness.

In our history books, he has been given a minor role in the development of this country, the role of obstructionist, and backwoodsmen such as Jim Bridger, Kit Carson and Daniel Boone have been glorified for their majestic individuality.

That image, rightly so, is reversed in a landmark work by Dee Brown, an historian whose knowledge of the American Indian is particularly personal and sweeping. The name of Brown's book is "Bury My Heart at Wounded Knee."

For perhaps the first time the story of development of the west is told from the standpoint of the American Indian—the Arapahoes, the Sioux, the Comanches, the Modocs, the Navahoes, etc.

Each chapter focuses on a particular tribe, their lives and how they were changed with the coming of the white man. Largely, the story in each chapter is the same—the Indian falls to the white man with discouraging and tragic regularity.

The white man makes a treaty promise, then promptly breaks it. He disembowels Indian men, women and children, steals their land, herds the survivors onto desolate reservations, then starves and ridicules them.

Ready for Memorial Weekend

The nine parks of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority—including nearby Kensington—are ready for the three-day Memorial Day holiday weekend and will offer a variety of recreation for the residents of this area.

Kensington Metropolitan Park, covering 4,500 acres near New Hudson, will have swimming available at both Maple and Martindale Beaches for the holiday weekend starting Saturday, May 29.

Maple Beach will be open daily, while Martindale Beach will be open weekends only until completely staffed on June 12 and then both sites will provide swimming along Kent Lake through Labor Day, Monday, September 6.

Both beachhouses have heated showers, dressing rooms, coin-operated lockers for clothes checking, first aid station, food service. Swimming is permitted only at the beaches when lifeguards are on duty. County health department officials test the water weekly to insure that it is safe for swimming. Kent Lake is also popular with boaters, sailing craft, canoeists and fishermen.

The Island Queen, popular 60-passenger sternwheeler, makes 45-minute tours around Kent Lake starting on Saturday, May 29, with the summer schedule from Wednesday through Sunday and on holidays. The Island Queen leaves the east boat launching site from noon through 6 p.m. and charges are 25 cents for children (under 12) and 50 cents for adults.

Private charters are available mornings and after 7 p.m. on regular scheduled days. More than 13 large picnic areas are available, all with stoves and tables. Many sites have shelters and playground equipment. Advance registration is requested of picnic groups of 50 or more persons and NO RESERVATIONS are available.

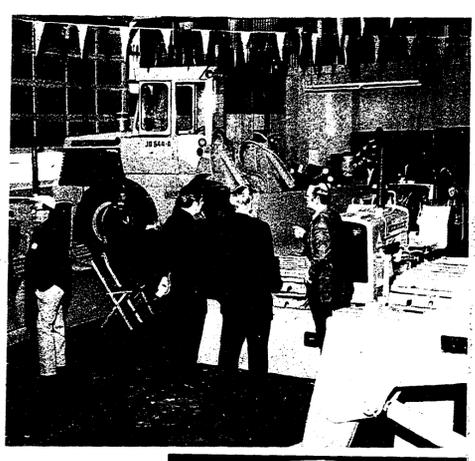

Other Kensington Park facilities include an 18-hole Saturday May 22, 4-H and Junior Horse Show, J. D. Donohue Farm, Gregory. (Follow the signs north out of Gregory 2 miles. Entry fees: all classes $1.00, High Point Trophies for junior and senior riders. Senior 21 and under, junior 13 and under. For information contact: Ken Smith, Stockbridge, 48265.

To solve the problem of patrolling 15,000 acres of remote land, of the Miramar Naval Air Station, near San Diego, California, the Marines have put fighting men back on horseback. These mounted leathernecks are riding some of the few cavalry horses owned by the Defense Department, and have adopted a "learn-as-you-ride" philosophy.

Los Caballeros 4-H Club is presenting the 10th annual benefit horse show on May 22, beginning at 8:30 a.m., at the 4-H Fairgrounds in Pontiac (corner of Perry Street and Walton Boulevard).

An open show featuring English, Western and contest classes, the show admission is $1. Admission will be refunded to participants. Barbara Scheffer is the events judge. Sally Saddle permits are issued without charge and good for the 1971 season at the park office or by attendants at the launch ramps in the summer months. Rental craft are available at the Boat Rental Building for nominal charges. Motors are limited to 5 horsepower on crafts rented from the park and there is a 10 mile per hour speed limit on Kent Lake. No water skiing is permitted and gasoline and bait are not available at the park.

'Singles' Invited to Launch Club

By JEAN DAY
A NEW club is making its debut on the Northville scene — the Northville Singles. It's being organized for the "over 30" group with the first meeting scheduled for 8:30 p.m. Friday, June 11, in the scout-recreation building.

One of the organizers, Mrs. Lois E. Turner, explains that the group hopes to "fill a void" in this area. Future activities and meeting times will be determined by those attending the first session. Tentatively, the club will meet either every Friday or every other week.

"Some of us had attended Parents Without Partners meetings in other areas," Mrs. Turner explained, "but had not found them exactly what we wanted." They then contacted Northville Recreation Director Robert Prom and are forming under the Northville Recreation Program.

Donation at the meeting will be $1. Single men or women over 30 may obtain more information from Mrs. Turner, 349-9969; Mrs. Vivian McKeever, 349-5069; or from Mrs. Dorothy Sheffield, 624-4262, in Walled Lake.

GRADUATION Night Party — the traditional "gift" of Northville parents to their graduating seniors — is scheduled to follow the ceremonies June 15. Mothers working on the project are becoming concerned, however, as donations from the seniors' parents have been slow in being sent.

(Parents of graduates all are asked to help with the donation of $5 or more.)

With entertainment costs soaring for the all-night event (10:30 p.m. until 4 a.m.) the committee needs to be able to count on funds. The group is tightening costs on decorations and other details to provide top entertainment — Steve Hunter, a disc jockey, and the Cold Sweats band.

Checks should be sent to Mrs. Harold Wright, 19850 Westhill. She may be reached at 349-1276; or Mrs. Bernard Bach, 349-2306, may be contacted for more information. This is the party for ALL seniors following commencement.

MISS Florence Panattoni, director of instruction in the Northville School System, left Tuesday for England on what might be called a "busman's holiday." She explains that she is taking her vacation now to join a group from Oakland University which will visit the Infant Schools in England.

Pointing out that these schools seem to be having "extreme success" with their learning program, Miss Panattoni was most enthusiastic about the project, making it plain that while this is "vacation" her personal and professional interests are intertwined.

In a group of eight, she will visit schools in Leicestershire, Bristol and Harrogate. She returns May 31.

FARMINGTON Musicals, an affiliate of the National Federation of Music Clubs, boasts three Northville members, including Composer Charlene Slabey. Because it would like to have more Northville women as members, it is inviting area women with an interest in fine music to attend an annual membership tea. Tea will be from 1 to 3 p.m., June 2, in the Farmington Community Center. The program will be presented by Mary Dulmage, soprano, and Betty Monahan, violinist.

Program chairman for the tea is Mrs. Donald McDaniel, outgoing club president. Hostesses are members of the 1970-71 executive board: Mrs. Archie Mallette, tea chairman, Mrs. Donald McDaniel, Mrs. Notestine, Mrs. James Skillman and Mrs. Richard Truitt. Interested women may call Mrs. McDaniel, 851-1933, for tea reservations.

The musicale, the only group of its kind in the Northville area, is making plans for a guest luncheon for scholarship winners of 1971 at noon May 26 at Raleigh House. The students will perform.

Program chairman for the day will be Mrs. Albert Pluecke. Mrs. Don McEachin and Mrs. Jerry Weiss are luncheon chairmen. Mrs. Skillman will be installed as president; Mrs. McDaniel, vice-president; Mrs. James Roberts, recording secretary; Mrs. George Kaston, corresponding; Mrs. Donald Wilson, treasurer.

WEIGHT Watcher Ruth Krammer, who leads both a Thursday evening and a Friday morning group at Northville Presbyterian Church, called in to report that the new group has lost more than 1,300 pounds, working toward the ton mark.

Steering Group Sets Drug Program Goals

A two-prong program with primary emphasis upon prevention of use of drugs by young people was set as the goal of Northville's new Community Drug Action Committee at the first steering group meeting last Tuesday night.

Mrs. Robert Lang was named chairman. The new group met earlier this month as a composite representative of schools, students and the community to deal with the problem of drug abuse locally.

From the group of about 40, a steering committee was named to formulate a program to be presented to the Drug Action Committee June 7. At this meeting the committee was named to formulate a program to be presented to the Drug Action Committee June 7. discussed summer activities, including a "Jobs for Kids" program, possibly a street dance and a small summer theatre program.

David Graft, high school government teacher who participated in the DARTÉ (Drug Abuse Reduction Through Education) workshop program in Wayne County Intermediate School District, has agreed to survey students to see who wish jobs this summer and what their interest areas are.

These could go beyond cleaning and lawn care to include help with French lessons or such sports as tennis, the steering committee felt.

The Community Drug Action Committee's other aim will be to work in the area of job for the drug addict.

Members of the steering group are Mrs. Alvin Wistert, vice-president; Mrs. Robert Bogart, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Glen Deibert, recording secretary; and Mrs. Samuel McKeever, treasurer. Mrs. H. O. Evans was nominating committee chairman.

In charge of picnic arrangements are Mrs. Wistert, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Kalin Johnson and Mrs. E. O. Weber.

Other members of Northville's Alpha Nu Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma attending the third annual Alpha Nu State Convention last week-end at Ramada Inn in Benton Harbor.

At the banquet Miss Palmer participated in the President's Rose March.

Sunday a memorial service was held for 31 members who have died during the past year. Miss Palmer placed two white roses in the vase of red ones in memory of Mrs. Orpha Moshier and Mrs. Thad Knapp, who was an honorary member of Delta Kappa Gamma.

An undergraduate major in biology at the University of Michigan will be in Sparta where Mr. Quay is the high school principal.

Members of the branch's own literature study group will present a program, "Lyrics in Protest," under the direction of Mrs. William A. Rube. The group will use poetry and historical sketches to trace the development of American social protest from earliest times to the present.

Those participating are Mrs. William A. Fisher, Mrs. Norman Norgren, Miss Patricia Dorfman, Mrs. Richard Albee, Mrs. John D. Campbell and Mrs. Michael Maliner.

Any area women who are interested in the program should contact Mrs. Fisher at 349-3420.

REFLECTIONS — An evening of dinner, dancing and entertainment at the Raleigh House in Southfield filled Thursday for Northville High Seniors. Theme for the Senior Prom was "Reflections," based on the song by the Supremes. Decorations for the evening were highlighted by a gazebo built by students and posters keyed to the 1890 to 1920 era. Music for dancing was provided by the Johnny Wallace Five and included a female vocalist. The prom, the last major social event before graduation ceremonies, was well-attended by seniors who took one last chance to reflect on their high school years.

Staff Named By Swim Club

Northville Swim Club announces the appointment of a new manager for the 1971 season, and his staff.

Dane Trimball, previous manager of Castle Gardens Swim Club in Livonia, is the new manager. Ben Lauber is returning for the second year as instructional director; he is Northville High School's swimming coach.

Assistant instructional director will be Tom Thompson, a Northville High senior. Dave Wright is to be head life guard, serving with Curt Saurer, Joe Boland, Jeff Platak, Ann Thomas, Connie Mohr, Lee Kuschmaul, and Lorrie Deibert.

Trimball, a water safety instructor with the state certification, also is a certified teacher of skin diving and snorkel swimming. A high school and college swimmer, he was national finalist in J. C. championships. He received his BA degree in education this year. He was assistant swimming coach of the AAU swim club.

Lauber, W.S.I. instructional director in the Northville schools year round swim program for all ages and abilities also will head the club competitive program. His assistant, Thompson, is a swim team member and high point scoring and state finalist, a member of the AAU team and holds a senior life saving certificate.

Head Guard Wright is a Red Cross certified W.S.I., a senior life saving certificate holder and co-captain of the N.H.S. swim team.

Through a new ruling, memberships are available only through the club. It is anticipated that the membership will be closed by 1972.

To be eligible for the dean's list, a student must have a minimum grade point average of 3.5 on a 4.0 scale and carry a minimum of 12 credits with no grade below B and no incompletes.

'Inner-Lib' Talk Set

"Inner-Liberation" is seen as the solution for women's discontentment by Mrs. Jill Renich, founder of Winning Women, Incorporated, who will speak at the May meeting of Christian Women at noon next Thursday, May 27, at the Mayflower Meeting House in Plymouth.

Mrs. Renich's husband is the Reverend Fred C. Renich. She is an author, lecturer, teacher and mother and presently is heard on "Radio Stations." Her latest book, "To Have and To Hold," will be put in January 1972.

"Liberation," believes Mrs. Renich, "comes from within... real freedom is a spirit, not a situation."

The Winning Women organization evolved accidentally from inspiration given Mrs. Renich as she realized the needs of women while living in Australia. She reports seeing the discontent among so many women with their lot — married women dissatisfied with marriage and single women dissatisfied with their freedom.

Any interested women of the area may make luncheon reservations with Mrs. Dean Ward, 349-3456.

Members Entertain Plymouth AAUW

Plymouth Branch of the American Association of University Women will hold its last general meeting of the year at 7:30 p.m. today (Thursday) at Plymouth Junior High West on Sheldon Road.

Members of the branch's own literature study group will present a program, "Lyrics in Protest," under the direction of Mrs. William A. Rube. The group will use poetry and historical sketches to trace the development of American social protest from earliest times to the present.

Those participating are Mrs. William A. Fisher, Mrs. Norman Norgren, Miss Patricia Dorfman, Mrs. Richard Albee, Mrs. John D. Campbell and Mrs. Michael Maliner.

Any area women who are interested in the program should contact Mrs. Fisher at 349-3420.

Communities Mourn Loss of Slain Teenagers

"Events may frustrate ourselves but not the plan of God; in this we can be joyful."

Those words of the Reverend Father John Wyskiel, associate pastor of Our Lady of Victory church, were representative of messages delivered in Tuesday services as the communities of Northville and Novi mourned the loss of two of its young citizens—Kathy Radtke and John (Jack) Keyes.

Both were slain last winter. (See related story on Novi, Page 1.)

Funeral service was conducted Tuesday morning at Our Lady of Victory for Kathy, 17, and a memorial service for both her and John, 19, were held that afternoon at the First Presbyterian Church.

Novi High School, where Kathy was a junior, and Novi Elementary School, where Kathy's mother, Mrs. Robert

G. Radtke is a secretary, were dismissed for the day. A funeral procession from the Thayer Funeral Home in Farmington to Northville, escorted by Novi police patrol cars, carried Kathy's body to Our Lady of Victory following a short prayer at the funeral home by Father Wyskiel.

The procession, several blocks in length, motored slowly along Main Street in Northville at 10 a.m. Tuesday. Probably the longest ever seen locally, the procession attracted numerous observers.

Rosary was recited at 8 p.m. Monday. Six students served as pallbearers: Mike Esch, Charles Otwinik, Richard Fisher, Ron Fokes, Brad Johnson and Joe Barnes.

With fellow students, family and friends and relatives of the family, and residents of both communities present for the funeral service, Father Wyskiel reminded his audience that "We start our celebration of death as a completion of what began in Christian Baptism."

"Baptism," he said, "begins initiation into the Lord; death and resurrection begin a new life."

"Although we mourn here on earth—mainly because we see potential, a flower not brought to bloom—we mourn for ourselves and the love taken from us."

Father Wyskiel's referred indirectly to the slaying with the words, "Basically, we have this hope—that even through men's human events, men cannot interrupt the plan of God."

Burial followed the service at Glen Eden Cemetery. "Let us now regain our Christian composure and allow our sorrow to heal with the strength that comes to these who love God and trust in His mercy," said the Reverend Lloyd Brasure, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, at the afternoon memorial service.

He noted that the memorial was done in "the affectionate and loving remembrance of work and job of school and learning and growing to a place of usefulness in the world."

Noting that two teenagers had sat in the Presbyterian Church balcony "for worship and prayer together" the Sunday before their disappearance, Mr. Brasure asked mourners to "let the sunshine in your life for this is a day for rejoicing in the knowledge that God loved Jack and Kathy, and now cares for them beyond the bounds of our limited sight."

Visitation and cremation of John Keyes took place several weeks ago through the Casterline Funeral Home. Private committal service followed.

Kathy's parents live in Novi at 2804 West LeBoeuf Drive. John's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Keyes, live in Northville at 142 Randolph Street. Kathy's mother, Mrs. Robert G. Radtke, is a secretary, were dismissed for the day.

Rosary was recited at 8 p.m. Monday. Six students served as pallbearers: Mike Esch, Charles Otwinik, Richard Fisher, Ron Fokes, Brad Johnson and Joe Barnes.

With fellow students, family and friends and relatives of the family, and residents of both communities present for the funeral service, Father Wyskiel reminded his audience that "We start our celebration of death as a completion of what began in Christian Baptism."

"Baptism," he said, "begins initiation into the Lord; death and resurrection begin a new life."

"Although we mourn here on earth—mainly because we see potential, a flower not brought to bloom—we mourn for ourselves and the love taken from us."

Father Wyskiel's referred indirectly to the slaying with the words, "Basically, we have this hope—that even through men's human events, men cannot interrupt the plan of God."

Burial followed the service at Glen Eden Cemetery. "Let us now regain our Christian composure and allow our sorrow to heal with the strength that comes to these who love God and trust in His mercy," said the Reverend Lloyd Brasure, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, at the afternoon memorial service.

He noted that the memorial was done in "the affectionate and loving remembrance of work and job of school and learning and growing to a place of usefulness in the world."

Noting that two teenagers had sat in the Presbyterian Church balcony "for worship and prayer together" the Sunday before their disappearance, Mr. Brasure asked mourners to "let the sunshine in your life for this is a day for rejoicing in the knowledge that God loved Jack and Kathy, and now cares for them beyond the bounds of our limited sight."

Visitation and cremation of John Keyes took place several weeks ago through the Casterline Funeral Home. Private committal service followed.

Kathy's parents live in Novi at 2804 West LeBoeuf Drive. John's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Keyes, live in Northville at 142 Randolph Street. Kathy's mother, Mrs. Robert G. Radtke, is a secretary, were dismissed for the day.

A funeral procession from the Thayer Funeral Home in Farmington to Northville, escorted by Novi police patrol cars, carried Kathy's body to Our Lady of Victory following a short prayer at the funeral home by Father Wyskiel.

The procession, several blocks in length, motored slowly along Main Street in Northville at 10 a.m. Tuesday. Probably the longest ever seen locally, the procession attracted numerous observers.

Rosary was recited at 8 p.m. Monday. Six students served as pallbearers: Mike Esch, Charles Otwinik, Richard Fisher, Ron Fokes, Brad Johnson and Joe Barnes.

Budget OK'd But Cut Seen

A record-high city budget approved Tuesday night might conceivably be reduced next week to wipe out a projected 3 millage increase.

In approving the budget by a 4-1 vote Councilman Paul Folino cast the dissenting vote, the council called for a special meeting next Monday to hear a committee study report on the police department in hopes that the budgeted outlay for this category can be pared by $9,000 to $15,000 and thus make unnecessary a millage increase of from 10.3 to 10.6.

Technically, by approving the budget, which includes a $770,850 general fund expenditure, the council fixed the current 10.3 millage rate. Budget approval at Tuesday's public hearing was required by city charter.

However, councilmen are confident that a possible millage reduction next week is not likely to draw citizen protest. Even if the millage rate is rolled back to 10.3, taxpayers will still face a tax increase because of the higher cost of services provided by the county this year. That factor increased from 1.32 to 1.42 (Wayne County) and from 1.27 to 1.48 (Oakland County).

The council split vote occurred after Councilman Folino proposed (it was not supported) that sufficient funds be transferred from the public improvement budget to the general fund to maintain the current 10.3 millage rate. Fellow councilmen were sympathetic to Folino's suggestion that the current millage rate be maintained but the public improvement budget to do it.

(The general fund is supported by property taxes, while the public improvement fund results from parimutual monies at Northville Downs. The public improvement budget calls for an outlay of $450,000—none of which is earmarked for the general fund.)

Strongest objection to Folino's proposal came from City Manager Frank Ollendorf, who said "I can appreciate your (Folino) intentions but I must disagree with your method."

Ollendorf said to use parimutual funds would be "like living on overtime." Noting that "the track may not always be there," the city manager said he would be fiscally unsound for the city to become dependent on monies that may one day not exist.

"It seems to me," said Mayor A. M. Allen, "that it would be better if a reduction in salaries were made instead of using the parimutual fund. There is a limit on how much you can raise salaries." (See police salary negotiations story elsewhere on Page 1.)

"Maybe we should hold the line on salaries," Folino replied. "It just seems somehow along the line the city must give up something to economize."

Taking the position that the budget—already pared down from his original proposal that would have meant an excess of 11 mills is an economist's dream, Allen said, "fat" Ollendorf reminded councilmen that to say that the city can economize by holding down salaries means the employees are doing the economizing. It was at this point that Councilman Kenneth Rathert reminded fellow members that his committee studying the makeup of the police department had nearly completed its work. In view of the fact that recommendations coming out of that study could lead to a reduction in the police force, Rathert said, "I am not recommending that we cut the police force. I am recommending that we cut the budget."

Following the meeting, councilmen are expected to meet with representatives of the police department to discuss the budget and the possibility of a millage reduction.

The council is expected to meet again next Monday to hear the police department's report on the budget and the possibility of a millage reduction.

Police Pact Signing Near
With six weeks remaining before the contract between the City of Northville and its police department expires, spokesmen for both sides said Tuesday they are confident a settlement will be reached soon.

"In a couple of weeks the contract should be settled," City Manager Frank Ollendorf said. "There is no major disagreement on any of the issues."

Parolman Howard Reeves, president of the Northville Police Officers Association (NPOA), commented that "negotiations are going smoothly. There is a good relationship and cooperation between both sides."

Among the contract items on which tentative agreement has been reached is the salary schedule for patrolmen with a starting salary of $9,000 to a top of $12,000 after three years.

Longevity pay of $40 per year goes into effect after the fifth year. Currently, the starting salary is $8,250 to a top of $10,478 after three years. Agreement has also been reached on a number of other items.

Strongest objection to Folino's proposal came from City Manager Frank Ollendorf, who said "I can appreciate your (Folino) intentions but I must disagree with your method."

Luncheon to Honor Students Youth Day Concludes 'Michigan' Activities

Northville in full spring bloom greeted dignitaries from Sparta on Monday, Exchange Day Monday, a highlight of annual Michigan Day festivities. An innovation this year, a Youth Day program for representatives of all schools to be held Saturday at the scout recreation building, will conclude the celebration.

After welcoming ceremonies at the city hall and a Rotary luncheon at Northville First Presbyterian Church, Sparta Village Mayor Charles Roy Titus, with three Sparta councilmen and Police Chief Robert Apel and their wives were taken on a tour of the area by their Northville hosts.

In Monday's sunshine, Mrs. Donald Ware, Michigan Week chairman, commented, "Northville was a picture you wouldn't believe."

The group visited the all-purple gardens at the H. B. Putnam home on Seven Mile Road, Northville school and the Northville Downs before touring the Shadbrook subdivisions where Mrs. Jack Scantlin, representing the Northville Historical Society, served punch in her garden.

The expanded racetrack facilities were shown the guests by John Carlo. Monday morning women guests and their hostesses visited Mrs. John Burkman for a tour of her authentic Victorian home on Base Line.

Joining the officials for the Rotary luncheon was Sparta High School Principal LaGene H. Williams, Sparta's assistant principal here, who visited the high school with two seniors from Sparta, Sparta High School, with a student body of 800, is a little smaller than Northville's, which has 1,050, according to Principal Fred Holdsworth, who visited Sparta in the exchange. Sarah Homer and Steve Elkins, accompanied him.

Acting Mayor Paul Folino, Councilman Charles Lapham, Police Chief Samuel Elkins, City Manager Frank Ollendorf and their wives served as official hosts. Tables at the Rotary luncheon were decorated with red rose arrangements by Lila's Flowers.

Sparta Mayor Titus, Councilman Henry Beverwyk, William Bloom and Howard Emmons were wearing string ties to mark that community's 150th anniversary, which will be celebrated in August.

Before leaving Monday afternoon, the visitors were presented with samples of a new Northville product, mild-flavored fudge sauce from The Northville Laboratories.

For their community, they were given a flowering crab tree to plant. Mrs. Ware announced that the sale of flowering crab trees downtown Saturday yielded a profit of $25, which is being given to the city for Joe

From Lobster to Parachutes Merchants Aid Auction

Items as "far out" as a three-man parachute jump (entertainment for a fair or party) or as useful as a picnic table are among the $1,600 worth of merchandise and services donated by area merchants for the Channel 56 Auction being held all this week.

Almost as remarkable as the generous assortment of items is the fact that they have been gathered by a five-member team brought together by Mrs. Donald J. Kuzilla of Kings Mill.

After watching last year's auction which raised operating funds for the non-profit television channel, she decided she would help in 1971. She solicited Mrs. Albert C. Phelps, Mrs. David Lee Keller, Mrs. Neil Wasserman and Mrs. Richard Johnson to work with her. Acting Mayor Paul Folino, Councilman Charles Lapham, Police Chief Samuel Elkins, City Manager Frank Ollendorf and their wives served as official hosts.

At Northville High 'Mame' Opens Four Day Run

"Mame," the musical currently playing at Northville High School, opens its second performance tonight (Thursday) with curtain time set at 8 p.m. The show, which opened Wednesday, runs through Saturday.

Tickets for performances, which begin nightly at 8 may be purchased at the high school. Prices are $2 advance and $2.25 at the door.

Starring Sandy Richmond as Mame, Jim Zezas as Vera Charles, Debbie Guido as Agnes Gooch and Bubby Eddy as little Patrick Dennis, the show is positively the biggest undertaking Northville has attempted, according to Robert Chapel, director.

"It will undoubtedly be the closest thing to Broadway that Northville High School can present," he said. Based on the novel "Auntie Mame" by Patrick Dennis and the play by Laurence Lee, "Mame" rishes heading into the swinging jazz age of the 20's through the depression-filled times of the '30's to tell the story of how an eccentric aunt raises her orphaned nephew.

"Mame" ran for over four years on Broadway, playing to "standing room only" audiences. The musical includes up-beat tunes as well as quiet speeches between Mame and Patrick. Receiving many awards the show was voted the best musical on Broadway in 1966 and won the "Tony" award.

Included in the cast are Craig Barnard portraying Patrick Dennis as a young man; Andy Bonomi, Beauregard Burnsides, Doug Mowat, Ilo Reese Lenheiser, Dwight Babcock, John Regenhart, M. Lindsey Woolsey, Doug Boor, Upson, and Theresa Buckmaster, Mrs. Upson.

Jennifer Thomas plays Peggy Ryan, Tim Johnson, Peter Dennis, Sirkka Kupiainen, Madame Brantini, Bonnie Tillikka, Mother Burnsides, Linda Kierdorf, Sally Cato, Miss Eddy, Cousin Fan, and Art McHardy, Uncle Jeff.

Bill McGuire is the doorman, Eric Johnson, elevator boy; Scott Stevens, messenger; John Jerome Stager, manager; Andy Walter, Gregor and Richard Shank, Leslie Brasure, Barb Cuppett, Laurie Dagher, Lori Deibert, Karen Dyke, Missy Eddy, Robin Fox, Pat Kaim, Jackie McCann, Karen Sepp, Betty Jo Terry, Rene Weiser, Bev Wisert and Lori Tellaan.

Students who handle properties and sets are members of the stage crew. Bishop Gumbleton is the auxiliary bishop and vicar general of the Archdiocese of Detroit. His speech is entitled, "The Graduate Looks At His Priorities." Forty years old and a native Detroit, the Bishop assists Cardinal John P. Dearden as Vicar for Parishes and organizer of parish vicariates designed to implement the Vatican II directives.

Bishop Gumbleton is a graduate of Sacred Heart Seminary, Detroit, St. John's Provincial Seminary, Plymouth, and the Pontifical Lateran University in Rome, where he earned a doctorate in canon law.

Two Livonia clergy will also participate in the graduation ceremony, offering the invocation and benediction. They are the Reverend E. H. Reinhardt of Nativity United Church of Christ, and the Reverend Fred W. Balke of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church.

Schoolcraft's founding president, Dr. Eric J. Brader, will preside over his last graduation. He retired at the end of June. The school's President-Elect, Dr. C. Nelson Grote, will be a special guest at the ceremony.

Others participating include Mrs. Jane K. Moehle, board chairman; Paul Mutnick, board vice chairman; B. William Secord, board treasurer; L. Clarke Oldenburg, board secretary; Dr. Robert Keene, vice president for instruction; Jon P. Adams, dean of vocational-technical instruction; and Edward V. McNally, vice president for student affairs.

Special honors will be announced during the ceremony and three new campus buildings will be dedicated. Music will be performed by the College wind ensemble and the 40-voice chorus, under the direction of Wayne Dunlap and Bradley Bloom, respectively.

A reception for all guests will be held in the Waterman Campus Center immediately following the ceremony.

Other members of the stage crew are Scott Evans, John Coleman, Jane McCullum, Rick LaRue, Jeff Kappier and Les Kushnall.

"The students have all worked extremely hard on the performance of Mame," Chapel commented. "I have never worked with a finer group of kids and feel they have much to be proud about."

Other members of the stage crew are Scott Evans, John Coleman, Jane McCullum, Rick LaRue, Jeff Kappier and Les Kushnall.

Sunday at Schoolcraft College Commencement Set

Commencement exercises for nearly 250 graduating students will be conducted at Schoolcraft College on Sunday, May 23.

Bishop Thomas J. Gumbleton will be the principal speaker as the College honors its sixth graduating class. Parents, friends and the public are welcome at the ceremony to be held in the main gymnasium at 2 p.m.

Activities Mark Week

By NANCY DINGELDEY

Michigan Week always brings a flurry of activity to Wixom, especially among the younger set. Two very excited little ones, all scrubbed and shined, had the honor of presenting our visiting Mayor with a plaque honoring their city.

Deborah Young of Mrs. Moore's afternoon Kindergarten class and David Menzel of her morning class were chosen in the annual contest to be the Wixom children's representatives at the Tammy Prover and Jeffrey Fawcett were runners-up.

The children drew pictures and then wrote a little story about what they liked in Michigan. They were then voted on by the other elementary classes.

As King Queen of the City for Michigan Week, she will also ride on the fire truck in the Youth Day Parade and will probably be their biggest thrill.

The fourth, fifth and sixth grade class drew posters as their project for Michigan Week. Brian Nissen, Kelly Haragan, Dolly Marshall, Cher-El Fawcett were winners in the fourth grade while Heidi Schimmel, Janine Spencer, Nancy Musynski and Carla Poyner were chosen as fifth grade winners. A dual poster made by Chuck Green and Brian McHenry and one made by Pam Barron won in the sixth grade division. The posters can be seen hanging in the various businesses in Wixom. They were also used as decorations at the Goodfellow Dance.

Let's keep the fingers crossed these past beautiful sunny skies hold out long enough for the big weekend coming up. There has been a lot of rain and for those who get lost, mislead or did not get into town, they will be available at City Hall prior to the judging.

Special thanks go to the following people for helping to make Mr. Woodruff and the rest of the day a success: Tom Holloway of the "Dollars" Companies for the hot dogs and coke and to the Patrons of Youth: The Howard Coes, Gunnar Mettala, Merritt Marshall, and the Law Coes, Birch Park Improvement Association the Joe Cahillans, the Vern Spencers, Mayor and Mrs. Florence Melchior, and the Dingeldeys, the Hickory Hill Civic Association, the Detroit and the Summer Camp. Mr. C. M. Smith and Edward Rose & Sons.

The Goodies started off the week with a grand draw that was a huge success. Mrs. Janet Dickey of Wixom was being the youngest grandmother; and Mrs. MacDermid, daughter-in-law of Florence Melchior, was being the mother with the most daughters present. The program closed with everyone singing "Living for Jesus."

The Men's Fellowship continued to grow. The second meeting last Monday showed an attendance of 23. The men are encouraged to attend this week.

Thirty representatives from Northville and the Sparta communities met Monday night for a mid-way dinner in Lansing. Northville Councilmen Walter Nichols, serving as mayor pro tem, and Kenneth Rutherford, with their wives, represented Northville in Sparta. Joining the dinner group were Mayor and Attorney Philip Ogilvy.

Today officially is Education Day of Michigan Week, which has been marked in the schools as children created pictures and posters of their state. Friday is Hospitality Day, theme of the "1971 celebration," will be residents asked to welcome visitors to the state.

Sunday was observed as Spiritual Foundation Day in local churches. At Northville Presbyterian Church, the Reverend Lloyd Brasure pointed out that settlers in the 26th state included Christian missionaries whose work is preserved in historic schools and churches, many of which were underwritten partially by the U. S. Department of the Interior for education of Indian children.

Youth Day Saturday will have a "first" for Northville as 22 youth representatives are served luncheon at the scout-recreation building. For the first time, too, the band was treated to a snack after its appearance at the city hall welcome Monday.

The club, and many other civic organizations, participated in "clean-up" last Saturday which saw members picking up roadside litter. Earlier that morning the celebration officially began with the washing of downtown streets by the fire department.

Jaycees Set Award Night

The fifth annual installation banquet of the Novi Jaycees and Jaycee Auxiliary will be held Saturday at the Headliner in South Lyon. The banquet begins at 8 p.m.

New officers for the 1971-72 will be installed and state and local awards presented.

Two members of the auxiliary have already been honored with awards presented at the state convention held in Grand Rapids. Ronald Cowden of 41679 Sycamore placed in the top 10 for the Outstanding Jaycee in the state, and Denny Wolcott of 24077 Gene Denny Court placed in the top five for the Spokette in the Year. Mrs. Wolcott is current president of the auxiliary.

"The Novi Jaycees and Auxiliary is proud of Mrs. Cowden and Mrs. Wolcott and the contributions they have made to Novi," Mrs. Douglas Thrust, spokesman, said.

Occupational Report OK'd

The final report of the Occupational Education Advisory Committee has been approved by the Wayne County Intermediate School District Board of Education.

The committee has recommended the initial establishment of four Area Occupational Centers in Wayne County with space for approximately 10,500 students in vocational-technical programs. The centers would also be available for adult education and community college programs.

The comprehensive study of occupational needs and programs was completed by a committee of 100 members in vocational-technical education and community college programs.

Members of the panel will be: Selma Goode, chairman, of the 12th Senatorial District for the Welfare Reform Coalition for the past six years and the mother of four children; and Mrs. Sue Haggerty, recipient of wellars who returned to education as a welfare grant.

Also included will be Reverend Lovell Schrupp, chaplain of the Evangelical Home for children and the aged in Detroit, a home for welfare recipients maintained only by state funds; and Jack Hoffman, assistant to the publisher of the Northville Record. A question and answer period will also be held after the discussion.

Panel to Discuss Welfare Reforms

A panel discussion on "Welfare Reform" will be held Wednesday, May 26, at 8 p.m. in Our Lady of Victory social hall.

The presentation is open to the public and is sponsored by the Christian Service Commission of the parish.

Members of the panel will be: Selma Goode, chairman, of the 12th Senatorial District for the Welfare Reform Coalition for the past six years and the mother of four children; and Mrs. Sue Haggerty, recipient of wellars who returned to education as a welfare grant.

Also included will be Reverend Lovell Schrupp, chaplain of the Evangelical Home for children and the aged in Detroit, a home for welfare recipients maintained only by state funds; and Jack Hoffman, assistant to the publisher of the Northville Record. A question and answer period will also be held after the discussion.

Society Taps Wixom Man

Richard D. McArthur of Wixom was one of 168 new members recently initiated into the Michigan Beta Kappa scholastic honorary society.

Admission to the nation's oldest academic honorary society is open to graduating seniors. Invitations are extended on the basis of academic excellence and personal evaluation by the student's field.

Phi Beta Kappa was the first society to use Greek letters as its name.

The Wixom recipient, a senior in chemistry, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. McArthur of 3180 Branch Court.

Thefts, Vandalism Top Police Reports

In Northville . . .
A 19-year-old Livonia girl was taken to St. Mary's hospital Monday afternoon after she lost her balance and fell off the motorcycle she was riding.
Ann Wade was treated for lacerations to both legs, cuts and bruises and released.

According to city police reports, Miss Wade was a passenger on a motorcycle driven by James V. Williams, also of Livonia. She told police the bike shifted sideways causing her to lose her balance.
The accident took place on Novi Road, just north of Eight Mile, shortly after 4 p.m. Monday.

A lawn mower valued at more than $100 was taken from a garage at 929 Jeffery Drive.
Police reports said the garage was broken into over the weekend.
A glass patio door at 1087

Allen Drive was damaged Saturday afternoon when unknown persons threw a rock through it. Police said the cost of repairing the door exceeds $100.
A student at Northville High reported to police the theft of a camera, light meter and black leather camera case. Reports stated the equipment was stolen from the auditorium May 11 between 9 p.m. and 10 p.m.

Fomer Court. The ticket stemmed from an injury accident April 28.
Leaving the scene of a property damage accident resulted in a $39 fine for Edward B. Hotchkiss of 537 Randolph. He was ticketed by city police April 25.

In Novi . . .
Donald Damon of 40691 13 Mile was sentenced Friday by Judge Martin Boyle of the 52 District Court to the year probation for unlawful entry at Len Sill Boran, 1830 Novi Road, on April 30.
Damon, son of an employee at the station, pled guilty to the charge of unlawful entry before Boyle on April 30.
Missing was $125 in cash, police report.

Laura N. Swiercz pled guilty last week to a charge of aiding and abetting in the break-in of Campbell Machines on February 5. She appeared before Judge William P. Hampton in the Oakland County Circuit Court and was bound over for sentencing on June 1.
Her accomplices James L. Kelly, who had been arrested at the scene in February, was found guilty of unlawful entry and entering by a jury in Hampton's court and also was ordered for sentencing June 6.

24 Booths Reserved For Fair

Twenty-four of the 30 booths that Northville Fair Manager Jerry Stone hopes to have operating under the "big top" were reserved at the first meeting held last week.
Northville Community Chamber of Commerce Fair, August 6-8.
The response by local organizations was enthusiastic, Stone, who said he was sure that the remaining six booths would be filled shortly. He set a mid-July deadline for reservations, but warned that it was strictly a "first come, first serve" situation.
Most of the tent booths will be games of chance. Although three organizations will sell items, Stone said that the management of a professional company, but operated by the sponsoring organization. Profits will be split approximately 50-50.
Space for commercial display booths under the clubhouse are still available and reservations may be made by contacting N. C. Schrader at 349-1838.
Non-profit organizations wishing to sponsor booths to raise funds for their group should contact Stone at 349-4843, or by calling Northville Downs, 349-1000.
In addition to the games, Stone said fair entertainment will include 20 rides, a dunk tank and pony rides, the Hell Drivers, Diamond Riders, and a 4-H Club horse show.

New officers will be in the cadet category until they have completed basic training. Oleson explained, and are authorized to wear a badge.
Items still being negotiated include:
—gun allowance for corporals and dispatchers; —guaranteed minimum pay for overtime;
—salary schedule for corporals and dispatchers; —guaranteed minimum pay for overtime;
—gun allowance for carrying weapons while off duty ($150 per year has been offered by the city) with council reserving the right to change rules to not require weapons be carried during off duty hours;
—establishment of an employee-management committee to study the pension plan;
—improved health insurance;
—expanded disability pay.
Oleson said the NPOA's request for two-man cars has been dropped. "The city will not be expanding the police force and there is no need at the present time to add more men."

Inflation hasn't changed the price of ashes.

Inflation hasn't changed the price of ashes.
But it has changed the price of your home. For example, if you bought a $18,000 home in 1963—today it's worth about $24,200. Don't be left with a costly pile of ashes. See me about a State Farm Homeowners Policy that will cover your home for all it's worth — and keep it that way with automatic Inflation Coverage.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Detroit Common Council President Mel Ravitz told Northville's Presbyterian Men's Club last week that it would be a "tragic mistake" to sell the 865-acre Maybury site for "just another development of houses".

And he added that Detroit wouldn't consider selling the rolling acreage located just west of Northville between Seven and Eight Mile roads "if it weren't for our desperate financial condition".

The eloquent Ravitz didn't have much to say that hasn't already been reported about the status of Maybury, but he did suggest that local residents could boost the development of the site as a state park by contacting their congressmen and senators.

For local residents that would be Congressman Marvin Esch in the township and Jack McDonald in the city. The former's local address is 200 E. Huron, Ann Arbor, while McDonald can be contacted at 2822 Farmington Rd., Farmington, U. S. Senators Philip Hart and Robert Griffin receive mail at U. S. Senate Office Building, Washington, D. C.

There's no question that the State Department of Natural Resources is enthusiastic about acquiring Maybury and converting it into Wayne county's first state park. But there is a shortage of money and matching federal funds will be needed. That's where Michigan's U. S. Senators and the congressmen representing this area in Washington can help.

While Ravitz expressed confidence that the state would become the new owner of Maybury and the site would eventually become a "showplace for year-around recreational pursuits," he did not close the door on that possibility that it might yet fall into the hands of private ownership for housing development.

He noted that his resolution restricting the sale to either the state or some other recreational authority did not win council support.

Instead, the Detroit council declined to limit the bidding, but only to acknowledge that money is not the only consideration in selecting the buyer.

Admittedly, the city of Detroit has established Maybury as a $3 million credit on its books, so it isn't likely it will be sold for less. "It's really worth a lot more", Ravitz stated.

Ravitz also put in a strong plug for SEMCOG (Southeastern Michigan Council of Governments). Currently its chairman, Ravitz sees the organization as a "regional United Nations".

"It's not another government and does not levy a tax", he noted. Instead it provides a source for information and accumulation of ideas for governments of all sizes to help one another.

One such project is a study of the growing and acute problem of disposal of solid waste. Ravitz believes that solutions to such community problems will eventually establish the utility of SEMCOG and assure its continued existence.

A warning from John Miller the nurseryman: better water those trees. Even if there's rain this week (as predicted), the extremely dry spring threatens to kill many trees unless proper watering takes place.

Miller recommends slow, prolonged soaking about every four or five days.

GOOD...

The value of a university as a unit of "living and learning" is reflected in its prime components: the students. Their commitment to the search for knowledge indicates the value of the university as a living institution, and more important, as a living situation. In everyday living we are learning constantly; by interaction with others our experiences guide us into new realms of thought. We are intellectually challenged to question issues, re-evaluate opinions, and form new ideas.

The learning process through human interaction is severely inhibited by a separation of the sexes in the living and learning community. Sexually segregated living restricts communication between the sexes to a social basis: the date, the party, etc. Consequently in this situation there is a tendency for each sex to categorize the other sex under generalized headings such as "prospective date," "past date," "not interested." Because of the lack of freedom to communicate on an everyday level, each sex does not see the other sex as they commonly are—as people.

In co-educational residence halls, a male and female student can share ideas on a continuing friendly basis without the competition and jealousy that develop from a strictly social relationship. The two students view each other not as "potential steadies" but as people—two individuals with unique ideas receptive to new knowledge. Living in close proximity with the opposite sex cultivates a natural and casual atmosphere conducive to the exchange of knowledge, which constitutes our learning.

The realistic informality of co-educational living provides learning experiences to exercise the student's responsibility and judgment derived from ever-increasing knowledge. The value of a university with this ease and BAD...

There is a time for laughing and a time for crying, and at college the time is for learning. Anyone privileged enough to be able to attend college should not waste time in foolishness that can be acquired after graduation during business hours, coffee breaks, etc.

Art of Study must be learned and practiced. Distraction does nothing for study nor does it help mental processes. It is impossible for any student to assimilate everything in a class room or library as they must concentrate and memorize. Where is there a better place than in one's own room, without exorbitant activities?

Today, the moral issue is nil. Not many years ago smoking was taboo. So what did that habit get them? A bigger spending budget and emphysema. So what will Co-Ed Dorms get them? Nothing!

Co-Ed dorms are an excuse with no rewards, they are as harmless as L.S.D. Sure it is fun "playing" house but the results can be disastrous, in more ways than one.

Let there be separate dorms. Let there be some interesting mysteries left. Stark reality is morbid.

Cleaning City Everyone's Job

To the Editor: This is in regard to the letter "Dirty Town Disturbs Her".

I received a similar letter and was unable to answer it direct because there was no return address. There is no telephone listed under this name, no water bill listing, no voting record, in fact, I explored other avenues of information to no avail, so I wrote a letter to the Editor quoting the letter I received and also my answer and then, not the exact wording but a similar letter appeared in The Record today, May 13th, so here is my answer in the childlike manner of the writer's letter.

Dear Friend: Your letter received. I am glad you know about our pretty books. We wish more Northville people would look at them. Yes, we are proud of our awards and books. I am not happy because you are sad.

I did tell the truth. The books prove it with the before and after pictures — of how our City takes care of the fallen leaves in the fall, the snow in the winter, the sidewalks that have been fixed, paving done, new trees planted, old buildings removed, new ones built. Ordinances passed, the many things Organizations do, and I could go on and on, but I think what you have seen is only the part of our City where thoughtless people throw papers, popcorn boxes, cigarette butts and even cans in the streets.

Questions Survey

To the Editor: When I gave information to the school census taker I supplied the usual information about children's names and ages. When asked about vacation preferences for year-round school my response was that none of these choices was acceptable. In the work shop I attended, Mr. Spear said I could indicate my opposition to year round school by checking the box which said no scheduled choice was acceptable. He also pointed out that if I checked that box it would be pointless to vote in order of preference. The three statements in order of priorities. After talking to others who had been interviewed by the school census taker I became aware that my response was judged and evaluated, coded and regarded on a sheet I was not given the opportunity to examine after it was completed. I still do not know how my response was judged and evaluated. I gather these were coded as 6 and 7, one of which would indicate that I was unco-operative. People seem to have been asked questions differently. Some were even pushed to make a choice of vacation times streets. You see, keeping a City clean is everybody's job. The citizens who live and work on these streets could help if they would sweep up the litter and put it in the litter cans.

REALTOR WEEK—Members of the Western Wayne Oakland County Board of Realtors will celebrate "Realtor Week" May 23-29. Officers of the area organization, which includes Realtors in Northville and Novi, got together for an official signing of a proclamation by Northville Mayor A. M. Allen. They chose the new entrance sign to the city and adorned it with one of their "Realtor" signs. Pictured are: (front, l. to r.) John Hussey, Vice-President; Daniel R. Wants 'Fair Play'

Letter to the Editor: The Record provided a valuable insight last week when it mentioned the tendency of any school board to become "a closed corporation." It is for this reason that candidates Gucken, Chinni and LaMortaux should be interviewed and not merely labeled. Since members of the community may have some reason to feel some dissatisfaction with their schools an effort should be made to probe and assess the ideas of these candidates who are expressing some common community concerns, viz. "The Year Around School Concept."

I would like to appeal to The Record's sense of ethics and fair play which they have so often demonstrated in the past and recommend that they:

1. Read a biographical sketch to determine whether these candidates are qualified to represent our school district.

2. Compare this information with what is learned or known about the other three candidates.

A process is needed that will provide the community with a dependable source of factual information.

Dumont F. Hixson Jr.
EDITOR'S NOTE—For the past 15 years The Record has compiled and published the information suggested above by Mr. Hixson at every local election. It will do so again for the June 14 school board election.

$84.4 Million in Quarter Realtor Sales Climb 60%

More buyers are buying and sellers selling through a Realtor in western Wayne and Oakland counties than ever before in history.

First quarter sales and listing figures for 1971 released recently by the United Northwestern Realty Association-Western Wayne-Oakland County Board of Realtors indicate members sold property worth in excess of $84.4 million during the quarter.

The soaring increase was attributed to the recent lifting of artificial restraints experienced by the real estate market during the past two years. "All along we've been tagging our sales results as good despite the restraints of a less than ideal national economy and the financing conditions in 1969-70."

"Now we're beginning to find out what happens without them."

A first quarter total of 3600 residential units sold through the Board's Multi-List includes a 1968 sales completed in March. The nearest one-month record in number of sales was recorded in May 1968 when 1259 homes were sold by UNRA-WWOBC members.

Owners of more than 6400 homes gave exclusive listings to members of the Board during the year's first quarter.

Nearly 2800 of the total were listed in March. Previous monthly record was set in May 1970 when 2177 listings were taken.

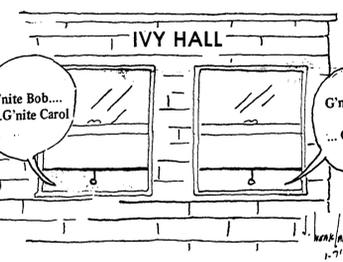

The unusually high first quarter statistics experienced by the UNRA-WWOBC again assures its claim as the county's most successful Realtor Board in terms of the numbers of completed sales and listings.

While not the largest Board in terms of membership, the Board does have approximately 2500 members all of whom subscribe to a strict Code of Ethics.

Each also must complete educational requirements above those necessary simply to attain a real estate license.

'Incumbents Are Deaf To Voters Wishes'

To the Editor: In last week's paper, the three incumbents for the school board placed an advertisement that claimed they represent the TOTAL community.

Far from representing the community, they have shown complete disregard for the voters' wishes. Look at their record:

Opposition Gets Vote

To the Editor: I certainly agree with last week's editorial in the Northville Record when it admonished the present Board of Education for holding secret meetings, handpicking candidates (I assume he was referring to Reinhardt), criticizing the Record for publishing the YRS Opposition viewpoint, and for criticizing a candidate for his alleged conflict of interest (where there really is none).

What puzzles me is: why, after this obvious contempt for the people of this community, the Record recommends rewarding the offenders by re-electing them. Just in case someone someday awards such a medal I offer the following resolution to be transmitted therewith:

Whereas, the Novi Board of Education, duly elected (or appointed) by the people to represent the people, ascribes to itself the task of discerning what the people should know and should not know; and

Whereas, these officials deem it proper to conduct a growing number of "executive sessions" "study meetings" and "workshops" to discuss those subjects that an "unintelligent" public would not understand or appreciate; and

Wildcats Nip Saline But Drop 3 Games

Novi's varsity nine defeated visiting Saline Thursday, 11-7, only to lose both ends of a double-header at Country Day Saturday—9-0 and 1-4.

Thursday's triumph followed a loss last week Tuesday to Chelsea, 6-2.

An explosive second inning provided the Wildcats with the victory punch over the Hornets as Novi pushed across four runs on three hits.

Pat Ford waited out a walk in the lead off slot of that rally and went to second on a single laid down by Steve Bosak.

A left field error put Ford on third and he galloped home on a ground out by John Pantalone while Bosak stole from second.

Joe LaFleche drove in Bosak with a single, stole second and came around on a single off the bat of Gary Colton.

Football Novi Thinclads Split Mentor M.C. Lead

Eddy W. McLeod, a 25-year-old veteran teacher with a degree in physical education from Michigan State University and experience on the 1966 Rose Bowl team from that school, will be the mentor coach of the Novi football team.

McLeod served the Michigan Spartans as varsity center for three years before he graduated with a major in social studies and a minor in physical education in 1968.

He taught special and physical education in Fairborn, Ohio, a suburb of Dayton, and coached the wrestling team there before signing a contract to come to Northville as a social studies teacher with coaching responsibilities.

He will finish the current semester at Fairborn before starting here in the fall.

His boss, Shonta, is no stranger to football or Northville but is a newcomer to the head coaching position, having taken over from Coach Al Kluckhaver after last year's losing season.

A veteran of both the Northville school system and the Boston Patriots, Shonta served as an assistant football coach himself two years ago under the current athletic director, Robert Kucher.

Novi Thinclads Split Pat Boyer Qualifies for State

Novi thinclads split their final two meets of the season last week as they rolled to a 68-50 victory Monday over South Lyon and dropped a 62-56 contest Thursday to Pinckney.

The week's showing left track coach Del Munsen with a 3-5 showing for the season. Saturday, at regional competition held in Flint's Houston Stadium, Pat Boyer won the 220-yard dash (11.4) and the 100-yard dash (11.4).

Other winners were Dave Miller in the two-mile (11:05.5), Jim VanWagner in the 440-yard dash (56.5), Duane Miller in the 880-yard run (2:14.4), Boyer in the high jump at 6'0", and Kirk Rosey in the mile at 4:52.2.

Both relay teams also notched first places as the milestix (Miller, Jim Wilenski, Bob Clift and Jim VanWagner) raced to a 3:46.1 and the 880-relays (Randy Woodward, VanWagner, Wilenski and St. John) were clocked at 1:40.

Gary Collins captured a second in the shot put with a loss of 38' 73/4". VanWagner earned second in the long jump (19' 4") and Boyer finished second in the 120-high hurdles at 18.3. Wilenski grabbed second in the 180-low hurdles at 22.5.

The Wildcats took the top three places in the high jump Thursday against Pinckney as Boyer leaped 5' 8", Steve Lukkari 5' 6" and Don Cook 5' 6".

Lukkari soared to an 11-foot mark in the pole vault against Pinckney while other firsts were turned in by VanWagner in the long jump at 19' 6 1/2", Duane Miller, in the 880-yard run at 2:12.3, Kirk Rosey, in the mile run at 5:00.7, and Miller, Wilenski, Clift and VanWagner in the mile relay at 3:49.4.

Novi JV Nine Rides Four Game Win Streak

Novi's junior varsity nine stretched its winning streak to four games Monday by upsetting the Eagles, 10-9, at Hartland Monday.

Monday's victory over Hartland saw the Wildcats steal an even dozen bases and they nicked hurlers Tom Larsen and John Benning for four hits and eight walks.

The local pitching staff — Tom Ford, Gene Reske and Dave Brown handed out nine hits and 10 walks to the opposing squad which failed to capitalize on its five-hit advantage.

In the nighttime, the local juniors went wild in their 9-0 destruction of Country Day as Gene Reske worked a one-hitter with no walks.

The best of five local hits were produced by Smith and LaFleche, each of whom smashed a triple.

The Wildcats streak had its roots in a Thursday shut-out over Saline.

"It was a well pitched ball game, definitely dominated from the mound," said Coach Weinburger, whose hurler, Dave Brown walked one man and gave up two hits for seven innings.

The Wildcats nicked Saline's Ronny Miracle for six hits.

Northville Golfers Place Fifth in 'B'

John Hlohenec, John Marshall, Brian Mills and Mark Krause stroked their way to a fifth place finish last Friday as Northville completed with 24 other schools at the Class B regionals held on the Burroughs golf course in Brighton.

"We played very well," said Coach Al Jones of his team's performance. "We could have made the top three and gone on to the state finals, but I was still very pleased with the way they played."

The team championship went to Detroit Austin, whose four golfers covered the 18 hole course in 315 strokes. Cranbrook was second with 318 strokes. Northville had 320 strokes in taking fifth place.

"The interesting thing about the meet was that we were still fifth after the first nine holes, but we were two strokes ahead of Austin who went on to win the whole thing," said Jones.

Mark Krause had the low score for the Mustangs as he shot under par in three rounds (82, 82, 82) and was the only player in the tournament to achieve that accomplishment.

On the familiar contours of the Meadowbrook course, however, the Northville margin of victory was much more decisive.

John Marshall and Brian Mills led the Mustangs with a pair of 41's; John Hlohenec carded 7 pars and two triple bogeys for a 43; and Bob Simmons an Tim Single had 44's to bring the Northville total to 213 strokes.

The youthful Mustangs were participating in the Wayne-Oakland League championships at Bloomfield Hills Andover. And as if their inexperience weren't problem enough, even the luck of the draw seemed to be working against them as they found themselves pitted against some of the finest talent that the league could provide.

The predictable results were that all of the Mustangs were eliminated in the opening round of play.

Spinning took a seven man squad to Andover, a team that consisted of four sophomores and three freshmen. Of the seven no one had ever participated in a major meet before and only John Jerome had seen anything that resembled regular duty throughout the season.

Jerome, Mark Robinson and Chris Johnson represented the Mustangs in singles competition, while Tom Millington and Ian Dingwall formed the number one doubles team and Bob Wright and Wendell Wegeng were at the second doubles slot.

Mustangs Tied for First Snap 3-Game Losing Streak

The Mustangs snapped a three-game losing streak Monday as they edged Milford's Redskins, 10-9, and grabbed a share of a three-way tie for first place in the Wayne-Oakland baseball league.

By upsetting Milford, thus averting an earlier 3-2 defeat, Northville sweetened its record (10-3) in the league and no doubt be quite happy to put in its bid, along with the Redskins and West Bloomfield, for the W-O championship.

Milford's earlier win over Northville was the local square's first league defeat. A double-headed disaster against Clarkston Saturday, 4-0 and 6-2, marked the second and third losses.

Coach Chuck Shonta won't mind a three-game losing streak if it means the Mustangs are going to be better than they were before the side was retired.

Other than Bach's triple Mustang batters were unable to nip pitcher Brad Harris for any other extra bases except for the bat of Bart Taylor in the second inning. That effort died as Taylor was left stranded with a pair of strike-outs.

Bach gave up two hits, walked two, and struck out six Reskins in gaining his seventh win of the season.

About his three earlier losses Shonta was philosophical: "Our kids just weren't ready for any of those games," he said.

"We played Churchill on prom night and the kids weren't thinking about the game at least not as hard as they were about getting out of there. Consequently, we lost by one run.

"Against Clarkston," the coach continued, "we just weren't hitting. I think when you get three hits in two games it tells you something about the way you're playing."

Those three hits were singles by Bach and Jeff Moon in the first game and by Kenny Lach in the second. Moon hurled that first game. (Clarkston 6-2), giving up eight hits and one walk while dealing out six strike-outs.

Northville's two runs were turned in by Scott Stuart and Kurt Suckow who tripped around on walks and errors in the top of the second and third innings.

The second game the Mustangs went zip before a Clarkston onslaught that clipped hurler Scott Evans for four runs on six hits. Evans dealt four walks and six strike-outs.

JV Nine Dumps Milford

With Rod Crane hurling a three-hitter here Monday night, Northville's JV nine easily dumped Milford 3-0 in a league-leading 10-0 victory to avenge an earlier, heart-breaking defeat.

The upset triumph came on the heels of double defeats at the hands of Clarkston in a double-header Saturday, a 1-4 loss to Livonia Churchill Thursday and a 4-2 win over West Bloomfield last week Monday.

In taking the pitching credit for the triumph over Milford—his fourth against three losses, Crane saluted his 3-0 with six strikeouts and five walks.

The junior Mustangs led their victory in the first inning with two runs and then capped the scoring with a single run in the bottom of the sixth.

In the first inning, with John Forrer and Crane both on base having picked up walks and with two outs, John Sherman unhooked a single that pushed both runners across. It was an error, a single off the bat of John Krich and a pitcher's error that made Krich a scorer in the sixth.

The triumph was sweet medicine for the local nine which previously had lost to three-batters to Milford in eight of its 11 games.

Crane was on the mound last week Monday when Livonia Churchill had a 7-6 record—just behind Kettering which trailed Milford and Clarkston.

Three-for-four performance by Bob Oginski that Northville edged West Bloomfield last week Monday. Crane fired five strikeouts, walked six while dealing but two hits. Oginski picked up a triple and two singles to lead the loss.

Crane was on the mound last week Monday when Livonia Churchill had a 7-6 record—just behind Kettering which trailed Milford and Clarkston.

Softball Tryouts Scheduled Here

Northville Recreation Director Robert Form has announced try-out dates in three divisions of summer diamond activity.

Wednesday is the date for class 'E' boys between the ages of 14-16 to show their skills on the Northville school diamond at 6 p.m.

Girls between the ages of 14 and 17 will try out for area softball teams Saturday at 10 a.m. on Henry Ford Field.

From advised that players who make the team will participate in Livonia leagues.

Thinclads Place Third 5 Mustangs Qualify for State

Five outstanding members of the Northville track team qualified for the State Class B championships this weekend and the Mustangs grabbed third place in the team standings at the Clarencieux Regionals last Saturday.

Royal Oak Shrine won with 39 points, Lutheran West had 38, and Northville had 31 1/2.

"The meet was particularly hard on John," said Redmond. "He had a good chance to win the 100 and 200 at the state this year, before he got strep throat. I was glad that he was able to come back and qualify for the long jump, though, with his first week of recuperation from his lay off he'll be able to come up with a good effort," at the championships.

Other Northville second places were provided by Dave Wright in the 880 (2:04.0) and Rick Bell in the two mile run (10:12.0).

Wright and Mitchell also qualified for the state finals in other events. Wright turned in a time of 51.2 seconds to take third place in the 400 and Mitchell skinned over the 180 yard high hurdles in 20.1 seconds, also good for third place in the 100.

Northville's scoring was rounded out by the mile relay team of Wright, Wayne Enders, Phil Guio, and Brock Cole, which finished fourth with a time of 3:38 and by Bob Barger, whose jump of 5'11" earned him fourth place in the high jump.

Northville's other two victories came in the field events. Bob Barger and Rick Pickren both cleared the bar in the high jump at 5' 10" and the Mustangs took first and second in that event. Barger was awarded the win on the basis of fewer misses.

In the shot put it was senior John Coleman who took the victory with a put of 45' 2". Coleman led a Northville sweep in shot, discus, hammer and javelin. Coleman and Robbie Stoddard took second and third place.

The meet was noteworthy in that two members of the Northville team established school records. Senior hurdler Dave Mitchell added his name to the record books as he turned in a time of 15.3 seconds in finishing third in the 120 yard high hurdles. The old record of 15.2 seconds was set by Ron Gloetzer in 1968

Novice Fires Hole in One

It happened a month ago, but novice golfer Jim Nowka, 1570 Bradner road, is still smiling with pride.

He scored a hole-in-one on the 165-yard seventh hole at Hawthorn Valley. A long hitter, Jim used a nine iron for the ace.

A Northville township resident, Jim has been playing golf for two years. His ace peaked him to 45 for nine holes.

Girls between the ages of 14 and 17 will try out for area softball teams Saturday at 10 a.m. on Henry Ford Field.

From advised that players who make the team will participate in Livonia leagues.

Andover Wins, 74-41

Northville's track team suffered a 77-41 loss to Bloomfield Hills Andover last Tuesday. For the Mustangs it was a bitter loss and for Andover it was a somewhat hollow victory.

Coach Ralph Redmond's Mustangs entered the meet deprived of the services of their two outstanding sprinters, John Stuyvenberg and Jamey Carter, and Andover capitalized on their absence, sweeping all three places in the 100 and 200 yard dashes and beating Northville in the 880 yard relay.

"We just didn't have the whole team," Redmond said, assaying his team's defeat. "With Stuyvenberg and Carter in there it would have been a different story. I think we might have beat them."

From the start of the season Redmond had been pointing to the meet with Andover as being crucial in determining the Wayne-Oakland league championship.

Midway through the season Northville was undefeated, while Andover had lost one to Waterford Kettering, a team the Mustangs defeated without much difficulty. But then Stuyvenberg and Carter contacted respiratory illness and Northville fell to Milford and entered the Andover meet with a severely handicapped team, and there were no sprinters.

It was the absence of Stuyvenberg that contributed most heavily to the Bloomfield Hills victory. Over the past three years Stuyvenberg has been undefeated in Wayne-Oakland league competition in the 100 and 200 yard dashes and the long jump.

With Stuyvenberg gone, Andover won all three of those events as they took ten firsts while the Mustangs were able to win only four.

Two of those Northville victories were the personal contributions of Dave Wright, Wright, who is having an outstanding year. Munson tied the 880 with a time of 2:04.3 and then came back four events later to take honors in the 440

Clues Found Budget OK'd

Continued from Page 1, Novi wrapped and tied in a plastic through the hole. Apparently, according to Novi Detective Grubb, changes in the lake temperature and currents worked the body loose of the concrete block and it floated to the surface.

The body was identified by a neighbor and through a Novi high school ring worn by the victim and a scar on the heel of her foot. Kathy's father, Robert, a Bell Telephone Company employee, was at work when the body was discovered.

Because the lake is so secluded, with but three cottages in the vicinity, and because heavy snow and ice covered the lake last winter, police believe that the killer was familiar with the area and that he was probably driving a four-wheel drive vehicle to enable him to negotiate lake access roads and the lake itself.

Tracks of a four-wheel vehicle were found in the vicinity of where John Keyes' body was found inside his car at the foot of a "lovers lane" near Napier and Five Mile roads.

Obviously, the killer "knew the area," said Grubb. If he drove from Napier to Grand River, north up Milford road he would pass 40 small lakes.

Why did he pick that lake? "He just wouldn't go driving around aimlessly with a body in his car and risk the chance of being stopped," Police believe the killer may have been an outdoorsman—perhaps having camped or fished in the Crotched Lake area. He may have been driving a truck camper, police said.

They identified the rifle as a bolt-action (firing either short or long 22-caliber shells) Ranger model—at least 15 to 20 years old. The shower curtains—or what appeared to be shower curtains—were white in color and contained a yellow gold swan design. Anyone having knowledge of these articles—or anything else that might aid in arrest of the killer—is asked to call Detective Grubb at 349-2444.

Rewards totaling nearly $10,000 are being offered.

Freel's selection marks his fourth since joining the Sears subsidiary in 1966.

Probably half of the dogs in Northville Township are unlicensed, according to Township Clerk Eleanor Hammond who reports that 1,653 homes were visited during the recent dog survey.

With data still being compiled, Mrs. Hammond estimates that "about half of the homes visited have dogs and probably half of the dogs are unlicensed."

She reminds dog owners that they have until the end of this month to purchase licenses without penalty.

Through the remainder of the month licenses may be purchased either by mail or by a personal visit to the township hall at a cost of $2. After the June 1 deadline licenses will cost $4.

Before licenses may be purchased, dog owners must produce evidence that their dogs have been vaccinated.

Most Prefer May For Planting Roses

Faced by unpredictable fall weather, most Michigan gardeners prefer to set out new rose plants in May.

Michigan State University rose experts offer the following advice to help insure good growth of roses planted this month.

LOTS OF SUN Pick a site that gets lots of sunshine. Roses grow best where they have full sunshine all day.

PLANT HANDLING When you buy your rose plants, inspect the roots. If they are dry, soak them in water for an hour or two before planting.

PLANT SPACING Plant spacing is important for maximum growth and flowering.

PLANT HYBRID TEA, grandiflora, andantha and floribunda roses about 2 1/2 feet apart in Michigan. Space hybrid perpetuals 3 to 5 feet apart and climbers from 8 to 10 feet apart.

ROSES—When pruning roses don't leave bare stubs. Cut off each cane close to its point of origin—either the plant crown or a main cane—

Thoroughly mix the soil from the holes with the organic matter, says Carlson. Use one part of peat moss or leaf mold to four parts of soil.

He notes that it's a good idea to prepare soil in advance so that you can plant roses as soon as you get them.

Check the roots again when you are ready to set out the plants. Cut off all dead or injured growth. Also, remove broken or dead canes and, if necessary, cut long canes back to about 12 inches. Don't overdo it—shorter cutting can never flower again.

Protect roots from drying. Never expose them to the sun or to drying winds. Carry the plants in a bucket of water or

For bush and climbing roses, mound the soil up around the canes to a height of 8 or 10 inches. Mounds for miniature roses should be 3 to 4 inches high. Remove the soil mound when all frost danger is past.

cover the roots with wet burlap.

SETTING THE PLANTS The first step is to place a small pile of soil in the center of the hole. Then set the plant on top of the pile and spread the roots down the slope.

Make sure that the bud union (where the top of the plant was grafted onto the rootstock) is one to two inches below ground level.

Gently work soil around the roots to give them good contact with the soil. When the roots are covered, add water to help settle the soil. Then fill the hole.

TENDER PLANTS Seeds should be sown when the soil has warmed and almost all frost danger is past.

For earlier planting, hot caps or other means of frost protection are necessary. Spring frost chances in the central and lower parts of the Lower Peninsula are: Last week of April—100 percent; first week of May—75 percent; second week of May—50 percent; third week of May—25 percent; and Memorial Day—zero percent.

Trees Need Drainage

When planting a tree, good soil and adequate drainage are important. The soil should be at least two inches above the existing roots.

When the hole is dug, add a layer of good soil on the bottom.

When the tree is in a ball of soil, wrap the ball—along with the wrapping—in a tub of water.

After setting the roots in the hole, Davidson advises adding soil to fill two-thirds of the hole and packing it down firmly.

Then fill the rest of the hole. Build a small, circular dam of the soil the same diameter as the hole. This will serve as a water reservoir.

According to Davidson, trees should be watered thoroughly, using at least one gallon of water, after planting.

"Watering should continue at least once a week during the growing season," he says. "Unless there has been an inch of normal rainfall."

Soon after planting, a mulch of straw, peat moss, decayed leaves or other mulching material should be spread around the tree.

"Two or three inches of mulch, spreading out as far as the branches extend, will keep the roots cooler, hold soil moisture during the summer and guard against frost damage in winter," says Davidson.

Where you locate the plant depends on your own taste, and certainly on the location of your home. Some plants have limitations according to their need for sun or shade.

One of the main advantages of container gardening is plant rotation. You can bring potted plants indoors for a special effect, or move them to different locations in your yard.

You can move indoor plants from room to room, and to some extent from sunny part of the room to darker corners temporarily.

Since vegetables aren't necessarily for show, the container may be anything from an old wheelbarrow to a plain plastic bucket or garbage can.

Vegetables grown in containers include string beans, beets, zucchini, Swiss chard, cucumbers (trained to grow up a pole), onions, carrots, peppers, tomatoes and herbs and spices.

Crop Problems Seen With 'No-Tillage' Soil

No tillage? Better check your corn and first says Duane Girbach, Livingston County extension agent.

Problems with no-tillage corn production cost, savings of $8 to $14 per acre, more moisture saved, less soil erosion, easier double cropping, food and cover for wildlife.

Disadvantages include a lower soil temperature and the possibility of increased insect, rodent and disease problems. Seed germination may be slower in the spring.

House briefing on domestic programs Tuesday.

Attending from this area by special invitation were Representative Marvin R. Stempien (D-Livonia), House majority floor leader, and Representative Clifford H. Smart (R-Walled Lake), House minority leader.

The conference was held on Tuesday in the East Room of the White House, starting with a briefing by President Richard Nixon at 10 a.m.

In addition to the President, Cabinet level officials participating in the conference included John Connally, Secretary of Treasury, George Romney, Secretary of Housing and Urban Development; Elliot Richardson, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare; and Clark MacGregor, counsel to the President for Congressional Relations.

The Administration was assisted in planning the meeting by the National Conference of State Legislative leaders of which Stempien and Smart are members by virtue of their leadership in the Michigan House.

Williams points out that with no-tillage systems annual grasses often become dominant in fields previously troubled by broad-leaved weeds.

After two or three years of no-tillage farming, the annual grass problem often shifts from foxtail and other species to tall panicum.

"Systems with decreased tillage rely on herbicides more and put more pressure on the herbicide system used for weed control," Williams concludes.

Corn can be planted with no tillage after a sod crop anywhere in Ohio—the internal drainage of the soil is adequate for crop growth without the drainage, according to reports from Ohio State University.

These viewpoints emphasize that no-tillage can boost yields in many cases but it doesn't guarantee higher CONTAINER GARDENING—Shown here is one type of the many popular containers used by gardeners who specialize in container gardening. Clay pots are probably still the most used container, but plastic pots (front left) and styrofoam pots (front center) are gaining in popularity. These containers are available in many shapes besides the "standard pot" shown here.

Apartment Dwellers Can Pot Green Thumb Being an apartment dweller or not having any yard space shouldn't keep you from growing flowers, vegetables and even some fruit. You can be a container gardener.

Is Love Missing?

Reverend Weldon Kirk Brighton Church of Christ

Our youth see the need in our society and cry for love. Is love missing from our lives?

I think most people today feel that they are loving, and they know love; but let us look at this love for a moment and see if this is the love that Christianity is known for.

Is the emphasis placed on what we want for self and what self wants for others, or is it devoted to the needs of others?

Paul said, that in the last days, men would be lovers of self, lovers of money, lovers of pleasure, etc. (I Timothy 3). Is this what your life is devoted to? Self-centered people will destroy any home or any nation. What senator would you admire: one who does everything for himself, or one who does everything for others.

John said, "He that loveth not, knoweth not God, for God is love" (I John 4:8). We have in our churches what each feels is truth, but which may have become dead tradition, because of the spirit of Christianity being lost to selfish ends.

Paul described Christianity as "Faith working through love" (Galatians 5:6). Through salvation is the free gift of God to those who accept through faith, it must be an obedient faith (James 2:17).

We could never do enough to merit God's gift, but there is a condition to be met to accept it. We must prove our faith through a life of love, which our world needs so desperately.

Bill Softens Pay Hike Chagrin

Discipline in the schools, or rather what some see as lack of it, is becoming of topic of major concern at the dinner table, the local pub and social gatherings.

Corporal punishment, which is regulated in most states, is not a thing of the past.

"At a time when students' rights have become a national issue—and when many educators are seeking new ways to make learning a more joyful, humane experience—the reality of life in numerous classrooms around the country is still rooted in nineteenth-century notions of discipline," said Newsweek this week.

Then Newsweek tells about the situation in Dallas, Texas schools. Corporal punishment of students is condoned and the paddle, which reportedly went out of school with the graduation of grandfather, is being used with blistering success.

What is happening, one might ask, so that the public is demanding corporal punishment in one form or another? Indications are a backlash is setting in. The Dr. Spocks and the humanists be damned. Let's have the good old days.

You know what is needed. The teacher walks around the classroom, looking for a student with gum in his mouth, or one with a hangover that doesn't strike the teacher's fancy, then bend him over a desk and lace him good.

What's accomplished? A sore behind, an indelible lesson for the student, and the indignation of class embarrassment. Don't get out of lock step. Shape up in all respects or there'll be more of the same tomorrow.

Makes sense? Positively. A good teacher is one whose students sit ramrod straight all day long while the teacher pours facts into his head, like a little vial just waiting to be filled.

The next step, to assure this discipline, is a requirement that teachers be at least 6'4" and 200 pounds and capable of slugging a baseball 400 feet.

And how about arming the teacher with brass knuckles, or a night stick? That way he can keep your kid in line because you readily admit you can't handle him at home and God only knows someone must give the kid some discipline.

Oh, it's Johnny down the block who's causing all the trouble. Your kid's a good boy? Well hallelujah, then give Johnny what he deserves.

Babson Report

Explains Dollar Dip In European Market

THIS MONTH a sudden storm blew across European money markets, creating a potentially hazardous situation for the Free World's monetary structure and especially for the American dollar. A plethora of dollars swamped the central banking system of West Germany, plus a few other major countries to a lesser degree. It did not happen overnight; it had been building for some time. But the acute stage came with speculative swapping of U. S. currency for German marks and Swiss francs, and to some degree for monies of other leading Free World nations.

OUR NATION'S leaders being unable or unwilling to curb domestic inflation and quell the dollar outflow in our balance of payments, the erosion of the status of the American dollar reached crisis stage. The problem was two fold: (1) Flight from the dollar, and (2) speculation that the West German mark and the Swiss franc would be revalued upward relative to the dollar.

Since the U. S. either could not or would not come to grips with the forces combining to tarnish our country's currency and precipitate unilateral devaluation of the dollar would compound an already serious inflation and unemployment problem some of the European nations, in effect, devalued the dollar for us.

Switzerland and Austria raised the value of their currencies by 7 per cent and 5.05 per cent respectively. The net result of these upward revaluations of the Swiss franc and the Austrian schilling was tacit devaluation of the dollar in relation to these two currencies.

On the other hand, West Germany, Holland, Belgium, and Luxembourg took a less direct route. They chose to allow their currencies to "float" on the open market. The resultant value gain in these monies vs. the dollar had the same effect, at least temporarily, lowered the value of the dollar

LANSING — Irritation and chagrin about pay increase for legislators would be reduced if a proposal by Sen. Robert Richardson, R-Saginaw, becomes law. Taxpayers were irritated earlier this year and legislators were chagrined when a $2,000 per year pay increase was permitted to become law at the same time the same legislators were looking for ways to cutback the payroll and reduce expenses so the state would not sink so far in the red financially.

Raises were approved by the State Officers' Compensation Commission, which is required by law to meet shortly after the November election in even numbered years. It works out the pay scale for the next two years for legislators, the Governor and the Supreme Court justices.

Complainants felt the raises should have been proposed and either accepted or rejected before the election, rather than just after, so that the people could have made their part of the election campaign.

SENATOR RICHARDSON Out of Horse's Mouth

Fair Show Opens Thursday

Continued from Page 3-B Palomino's, Appaloosa's, Quarter Horses and Hunters. In Equitation there are Saddle Seat, Stock Seat, Hunt Seat and A.H.S.A. medal classes in these three divisions. Sessions each day will start at 8 a.m., 1 p.m. and 7 p.m. Judges will be Tony Amaral, Frank D. Chapot, Thomas S. McCray and Mrs. Helen Crabtree.

introduced legislation which would require the commission to make its recommendations by April 15 of election years. The Legislature would then have until November 1 to either accept or reject the raises. Richardson feels his proposal would "eliminate the present concern that the electorate is somehow given a 'fast shuffle' through the device of a late determination and almost impossible effort to reject raises.

"Those legislators seeking reelection would be answerable to their constituents for the new proposed salary level prior to the election," he says. "This could restore a great deal of confidence by the people in the elective and legislative process."

THE MANY PITFALLS which lie in the path of prospective home buyers would be covered over quite a bit by legislation being pushed by a suburban Detroit legislator.

State Representative Joseph Forbes, D-Oak Park, introduced a bill which would require that prospective home buyers be told what's wrong with the house, what it costs to operate the house and what kind of a profit the home seller will make.

Anyone who bought a home and then found the law governing the sale had been violated could either cancel the sale or seek court damages within 18 months of the sale.

UNDER THE FORBES bill, persons selling a house would be required to disclose all housing code violations in the house and information on taxes, heating, insurance and other costs.

The real estate dealer would have to disclose the amount paid for the property by the present owner, any repairs which have been made, and the length of time the present owner has held the house. Also, where a dealer is involved, the house would have to be covered by a warranty in compliance with all applicable codes.

"It must be recognized that an individual seller may not be financially able to bring a home into compliance," Forbes says. "However, a real estate dealer should be able to do so."

A REAL THREAT for harassing

a seller could develop if the bill became law. A buyer could threaten court action for real or imaginary failure to comply. Deficiencies the seller did not know about could develop after a sale to haunt him.

Forbes feels Michigan "badly needs" this legislation.

"Facts have shown that home buyers commonly do not know all the facts," he says. "If they don't ask, they aren't told. If they do ask, in many instances they are only told half-truths at best."

"Once they sign the purchase papers, they are stuck."

"THEY HAVE PRACTICALLY no real recourse under the law. Unfortunately, it is the low income family, who can least afford to be bilked, who is hurt the worst."

Forbes says some speculators make an "enormous" profit selling homes to low income families. "An average profit of 109 per cent was indicated by a recent study in Detroit," he says. "This inflated price is borne by the low income families, or in the case of welfare recipients, by the State Department of Social Services and the taxpayers of Michigan."

BIG WINNER—Theresa Carter beams as she sits atop the grand prize pony she won in a drawing that concluded Youth Day festivities in Wixom Saturday. On hand to congratulate her are Representative Clifford Smart (right) and Senator Carl Pursell, who were judges in the pet show earlier.

COURTESY DAY Invitations replaced the traditional traffic tickets in Wixom Friday as policemen stopped passers-by with requests that they attend the serving of coffee and doughnuts in the city hall. Chief George Von Behren stops an unidentified potential guest on Pontiac Trail above as part of the seven day Michigan Week festivities.

Novi Orders Roll For Sewer District

Novi councilmen voted unanimously Monday night to connect the lateral system with availability down-stream. The interceptor, part of an extension of the Wayne County sewerage system, is due for completion, "in all probability" by mid-December, Crupi said. Those to whom it is available will have six months to tap in, he added.

figures were not final. The $1,260 assessment fee, plus $10 per front foot, is merely a recommended figure, the mayor said, and may be changed by the city assessor when he makes up the roll. Properties that front on two sewer laterals within the district, it was pointed out, will only be charged for one frontage. "I can't guarantee that it'll be the shortest one," Crupi said, "but it won't be both."

"We have to build this sewer," said Mayor Joseph Crupi. "We can build it by ourselves or the state will come in and do it for us. Either way it must be built. The only other alternative is to shut down all operations—commercial, industrial, residential—in that entire area."

lacks an assessor. "We'll have to appoint one," said Crupi Monday night. He said he had no one in mind. The post has been vacant since Manager-Assessor Dallas Zonkers quit his dual post several weeks ago. Minor assessing chores have been handled in the meantime by Deputy Assessor Ann Marchewicz, but it is uncertain, according to Crupi, whether she is legally able to assume the duties required of a city assessor, such as spreading a special assessment roll.

Proposed figures under which a special assessment roll will be prepared set a tentative tap charge at $1,260 plus $10 per running foot of land fronting the sewer. An additional charge of $703 earmarked for payment of a trunk line coming up from the southeast, also must be paid by those using the new sewer, according to Crupi, but is a separate charge from the special assessment. This makes the total tap fee, for those in the special assessment district, $1,963 plus $10 per front foot, it was pointed out.

dismissal first from his staff and then by reading it in the newspaper before he was informed by the superintendent. At no time prior to board action had (Hartman) been informed by the Superintendent that he was to be released, said the principal. To date the board has not publicly stated reasons for the dismissal, which was recommended to the board by the superintendent in June. Hartman, who said he would be willing to meet with the board if it could benefit the school district, pointed out that the teachers' concern dealt primarily with the manner in which he (Hartman) had been notified of his dismissal. (He is to finish out the present school year and may, if he chooses, remain in the district as a teacher.)

Board Letter Withdrawn Principal Huddle Seen

A rebuttal letter to Junior-Senior high school teachers was withdrawn by the Novi Board of Education Monday night after a private meeting between the board, superintendent and ousted principal Gerald Hartman was requested. Board President Bruce Simmons read the letter he and Superintendent Thomas Dale had received from teachers criticizing the board's method in handling the dismissal of Hartman and then requested that the superintendent sign the signature of Assistant Superintendent T. Richard Hendrickson. The Hendrickson letter lauded the teacher complaints, failed to specify the signature of Assistant Superintendent T. Richard Hendrickson. The Hendrickson letter lauded the teacher complaints, failed to specify the signature of Assistant Superintendent T. Richard Hendrickson.

Concerning a newspaper column (Top of The Deck) criticizing the board's growing number of executive or secret meetings, President Simmons bristled and said such meetings would continue in the future. About 56 percent of these meetings, he declared, "concern personnel matters that require private discussion. Superintendent Dale, referring to the same column, said he didn't particularly care that his name was mentioned but that he disliked reference to himself when it concerned the millage question. (The column took the superintendent to task for Continued on Page 6-A

Class Sizes Could Soar

Average classroom sizes could shoot up to 40 students next year, it was disclosed Monday as the Novi Board of Education heard of a candid public report of what is likely to happen if the 5-mill proposition is defeated in June. Citizens attending the meeting agreed. Superintendent Thomas Dale, who indicated that he disclose in advance of the election the alternatives to a millage hike, said he would prepare a substitute immediately. That substitute report is likely to contain a list of program cuts that would be necessary with a millage failure. On the basis of earlier board discussion, it is likely likely will show that elementary school and the new middle school cannot open a development and that revenue, and that art, physical education, music and several other school programs will be slashed. Council increases in the mayor's proposals totalled $7,410. Councilmen voted to allow for revision of Wixom's master plan.

Local Fund To Honor Slain Girl

Friends of the Robert Radtke family have launched a scholarship fund drive in the name of Kathy Radtke and are soliciting monies for this purpose. Nearly $426 have already been contributed. A college scholarship will be awarded to some Novi graduate who might not otherwise be able to enter college. While it has not definitely been established, scholarship probably will go to one of Kathy's classmates, who next year will be seniors. Persons wishing to contribute are asked to make out their checks to the Kathy Radtke Scholarship Fund. They may be sent to the Radtke home at 23941 West LeBoist in Novi.

Memorial Parade Set for Monday

Plans for a Memorial Day Parade on Monday were underway this week in Novi as area citizens and service groups prepared to honor the war dead and salute the parade theme — "A Day to Remember."

MURDER WEAPON—This .22-caliber rifle has been positively identified by police as the weapon that killed 17-year-old Kathy Radtke of Novi and her 19-year-old boyfriend, Jack Keyes of Northville. A Ranger model, it has a bolt action and can handle a tubular magazine with up to 17 shells. There is a black plastic trigger guard which may be a replacement, along with stock, from a Marlin product. The weapon, which held no serial number, may be between 15 and 30 years old and was kept in excellent condition before the killer, or killers of the Novi teenager dumped it into northwestern Oakland County lake sometime last winter.
