Novi Fights Back in '58 by Incorporating

Editor's Note: Following is the seventh in a series of articles concerning the various artificial boundaries that affect people and officials living within the circulation area of

Its southern boundary being whittled away by Northville and a large chunk of its northwest territory lost to the new city of Wixom, Novi Township finally got its own in-corporation movement off the planning boards late in 1957.

Viewed by some as the "closing of the barn door after the horse has escaped" and as a senseless urban step for a largely rural area by others, petitions for village incorporation nevertheless were filed early in December, 1957--two weeks after Wixom voted to

Three areas of what was or had been Novi township territory were excluded from the incorporation plan. They were: that part of Novi which had become Wixom city property, three sections of land (including Northville Estates) on the southern boundary, and part of Brookland Farms subdivision. Brookland Farms and Northville Estates subdivisions were excluded because they did not yield the necessary signatures on the incorporation petitions. And excluded areas adjacent to Northville resulted because they were either already part of Northville city or up for annexation to that city. Brookland Farms, located northwest of

With the dawning of the new year, the then Novi township supervisor, Frazer Staman, held out hope that Novi through village incorporation could protect its boundaries from further encroachments. "I think 1958 may be

He saw approaching changes, especially in new developments, that could rally a new esprit de corps in the community.

History proved him only partially correct. Meanwhile, the late Wixom Mayor Joseph Stadnik was making his predictions: "The people of Wixom have consolidated their four corners into one solid mass. The first village council and appointed officials have given Wixom the preamble to good government, and if the new city officials will continue what has been started, the flow of government shall not be interrupted." And some Wixom citizens would now question the validity of his prediction as well. In March, 1958 Novi citizens voted 509-442 to incorporate as a village-an historic occasion making Novi the largest (in acreage) village

HOMES FOR SENIORS—When Plymouth first began planning for low cost housing for senior citizens many people warned that they could become future slums. Today, however, they view the development as "high class apartments" ideally suited for older people on limited incomes.

BUDGET HEARING on Northville Pu. Schools' near $3.25-million budget is set for 8:30 p.m. Monday. The public hearing is scheduled during the school board's regular meeting which begins at 8 p.m. in the board offices.

ONE-TON LOSS-Collectively, members of the Northville Weight Watchers class meeting Thursday nights at Northville First Presbyterian Church since last January now have registered a one-ton loss. Mrs. Ruth Krammer. leader, announces, a picnic celebration is planned for October 17. Her Friday morning class of housewives at the church, which began later in the spring, has lost a total of 600 pounds.

PRELIMINARY COST estimates aired before township trustees Tuesday night peg the cost of the proposed 11,220square foot township hall-fire hall complex at $446,340. Currently the architect is finalizing cost estimates before a formal presentation is made to the board. The complex is to be built on the northeast corner of Six Mile and Win-

APPOINTMENTS to the planning commission and water and sewer board were approved by township trustees Tuesday. Bernard Baldwin was reappointed to a three-year term on the planning commission and Neil Winters was named to a three-year term and Ralph Raymond to a two-year term on the water and sewer board, expanding the board from three to five members.

CITIZEN OPINIONS were evenly divided as to the manner of developing the small park area obtained by the city from Michigan Bell Telephone on North Center street. Some wanted simply a nature area planted with trees and flowers; others a tot-lot with swings; and others an open lot for general play. The council compromised: there will be a small area for tots, a nature area and benches for relaxation.

Such a time now exists as our nation struggles with its conscience and seeks ways to achieve equality of opportunity for all its people.

No where has the inequity been more glaring than in the public education system where the wealth of a district determines how much shall be spent per pupil, what facilities shall be available, what opportunities for learning provided.

Busing within a district has experienced a rocky reception. Busing between districts threatens to inspire chaos.

Certainly, this artificial method cannot be classified as the answer to our nation's problem of achieving equality. And anyone who would declare it a solution has no concept of the problem.

It is, in one sense, a transferral of responsibility from adult to juvenile shoulders.

In the field of education, at least, we must start where the Governor has appealed that we should — with a revision in our method of financial support of schools.

And in a process that will be slow, and sometimes painful, we must achieve a truly integrated

The madness that surrounds the decision to undertake a complex system of busing is almost unbelievable. It introduces new financial responsibilities at a time when we are unwilling, or incapable of, providing monies for far more important educational tools.

Freeze Assessments?

Editor's Note: City of Novi councilmen recently adopted by split vote a resolution asking the county equalization department to freeze assessments and thus complement the President's 90day price-wage freeze.

Resolutions are adopted by Councils for one of three reasons. First, to commend; second, to condemn and third, as is the case of this resolution, to advise our County, State and Federal representatives of the community's feeling on a given issue.

There is no question in anyone's mind that we have reached a saturation point in taxation. There seems to be a question as to how to "level off." One such method is the subject of this resolution; and, that is to "freeze" assessments. It is not intended and certainly cannot be a panacea for all the inequities that now exist in the assessment rolls of the various communities.

It appears to this writer that we have created an artificial value in our property assessments. It is difficult to believe that a house that in 1965 sold for $30,000 would in 1970 be worth $40,000. The politician states, with some honesty, that taxes have not gone up and he is right; but, assessments have and therein lies the problem.

If we have frozen wages and prices, then by all that is holy, let us freeze assessments. Let us stop the merry-goround, get our bearings and, with some foreplanning and intelligence, rebuild our economy.

> LOUIE CAMPBELL COUNCILMAN, CITY OF NOVI

NO...

The Oakland County Equalization Committee is aware and cognizant of the Presidential order placing a freeze upon all wages and prices for a period of 90 days ending November 20, 1971. This, of course, in no way affects assessments in Michigan which are based on valuation as it exists on tax day, December 31 of each year. Under Section 27 of general property laws, it says in part: "Not withstanding any other provisions of law except as here-inafter provided, property shall be assessed at 50 percent of its true cash value in accordance with Article 9, Section 3 of the Constitution"

The final value a particular property may be estimated to have by the local assessor is the only end product of the many forces in the economy and the judgment of the informed buyers and sellers in the marketplace. To freeze assessments at last year's quotation in the market would be disastrous in the long term and would constitute a retreat from reality by those who are charged to maintain and uphold the law.

Further, county equalization ensures each property owner equal protection under the 14th Amendment of the U. S. Constitution.

All that is necessary to halt government spending is for government to hold their budgets at the present level. Obviously, this would stop all development in the community as government couldn't put in improvements for water, sewer, roads, etc.

The equalization department will continue to insure that equity is achieved and maintained in accordance with the constitution, laws, and courts of Michigan.

'72 Election Looks Like Smorgasbord

LANSING — A statehouse veteran looking forward to the November, 1972, General Election recently suggested that the contest for the U.S. Senate and for Michigan's 21 electoral votes may become of secondary interest by election day. The more interesting battle can be for a Senate seat...

He spoke only half in jest, for there was some truth in the observation.

Barring unforeseen circumstances, Michigan will probably go for whomever the Democrats nominate for President next year. The state's electorate has never really liked Richard Nixon. That leaves only the contest between Sen.

Robert Griffin and whomever the Democrats pit against him to stage a state-wide race for elective office. CONTRASTING WITH this rather skimpy national contest card is a smorgasbord of meaty issues now being prepared for the public in the form of constitutional amendments and one proposed law. If those now circulating petitions around Michigan all have their way, Michigan voters will decide in November, 1972: -whether they want to abolish one of the two houses of the Legislature and give the state a one chamber legislative body.

The reform proposal is different from the others, however, in that it would be in the form of a law rather than a constitutional amendment. It would have much the same effect as an amendment, however, since the courts have ruled once the people vote a law in or out, only another vote of the people can change that MUCH EMOTION would also be generated if the handgun ban, now pushed by Detroit Mayor Roman Gribbs, gets on the ballot.

Gribbs says the ban is needed to reduce on the Motor City's astronomical murder rate. But many Michiganders can be expected to strenously oppose any attempt to restrict the ownership of guns in any form, and the so-called "sportsmen's lobby" can be expected to put all its effort into shooting down the proposal.

There are other issues that people are talking about as well, and some other petitions are being circulated. Those we've mentioned have the most prominent support

And if they all get on the ballot the publicity they generate could turn the campaign next year into truly the most "issue oriented" campaign this state has ever seen.

Weak Believers, Weak Churches!

Reverend Bruce Stine Tri-Lakes Baptist Church

Jesus came to this earth in gentleness and mercy. Not one sinful person was brought into judgment by Him as were Ananias and Sapphira by Peter. Yet, when this world sees Jesus Christ again He will have eyes as a flame of fire to consume wicked!

In the light of this the Church of Jesus Christ ought to be honest with men. Sin should be sin. Men are sinning today. Drunkenness, cursing, looking upon nakedness, and sexual sins are common. God is not blind! God hates sin as much today as he did when He destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah with fire! The Bible says, "Be sure yours sins will find you out" and that man will stand in judgment for every idle word he speaks.

Why does all this sinning continue? The Bible teaches that man is in a rebellious, defiant state. Man separated from God, is an enemy of God, under the condemnation of death. He must be reconciled to God through death, the death of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

Many are teaching the "Fatherhood of God" over all men. The only "Fatherhood of God" the Bible speaks of is the relationship true believers have with God. Jesus told those denying the truth, "Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do." (John 8:44). God created man and man rebelled against God. He committee treason and the death penalty awaits him. John the Baptist asked the people of his day, "Who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to

Are you saved? Jesus said, "Ye must be born again." What is this "saved" or born again business modern church members ask. These are the words the Bible uses. The modern church has it's own idea for man's condition. It says that man has lost his way, his direction is a little mixed up. Make yourself a disciple and find some sincere thinking people and everything will be all right.

No wonder this generation has coined the phrase, "Tell it like it is." They do not want to be spared! The truth hurts but so does the surgeon's knife when an operation is necessary. The Bible has the facts about sin and salvation, judgment and hell. Blood will be on the preacher's hands on the judgment day if he does not "Tell it like it is!"

America Repent! Accept the truth or perish!

the cleaning crew is at work, or a few executives catching up on Whatever the reason, the lighted windows glow with purpose.

It's after hours. Yet most of the windows are bright. Perhaps

The dark windows are blank, austere and forbidding. What difference one flick of a light switch can make! People are like the windows of this building. Some, radiant with the joy of living, find days full, happy and useful. They are fun to be around. Others, gloomy and sad, find life lonely and meaningless. Their company is tedious.

What makes the difference? Where can you turn if life seems troublesome? You can't flick a switch to change an attitude. The secret is in your church. Worship and study there, and welcome the living presence of God into your heart and mind. Your whole life will be lighted and your days filled with new happiness. Tuesday Wednesday Thursday

GIANT MUSHROOMS—They're found in the woods alongside Novi Road and can measure up to 35 and 40 inches in diameter. Called "puff" mushrooms, they're completely edible. Here three Novi boys, Steve Hellwege, Peter Meyer, and Randy Satterfield (kneeling) display three specimens of the giant mushrooms they found behind their homes. The test as to whether they can be eaten is the color. If they're a snowy white on the nside, cut them into strips, soak overnight in salt water, roll in flour and salt, fry, and put them on your steak or pizza.
