TIPS ON HOW TO BAR-B-QUE A ROAST

Developer Draws Ire of Village Oaks Citizens

"You expect a few problems when you move into a new house. But when you have paid $44,000 for that house, you expect a little more in the way of workmanship. But this is ridiculous. When you pay as much for a house as we have for this, you shouldn't have to put up with the kind of things we have to put up with."

John Polca moved into his home in Village Oaks almost a year ago and the sentiments he expresses are those of a growing number of Village Oaks residents who are fed up with what they feel is a "shoddy" workmanship and a "shoddy" attitude on the part of the developer of the Village Oaks subdivision...

City officials already are well aware of what having Village Oaks "for you" can mean. In the recent millage election, three of the four Novi precincts voted the tax hike. But Village Oaks, along with the other subdivision residents in precinct two, had enough voting power to override that veto and pass the millage.

Adjacent to the existing Wayne County sewer trunk, sewage flow in excess of capacity for handling sewage, the Novi city council looks steps Tuesday to examine the existing situation in Novi to that of Farmington a few years ago, Sheldon said. "This is the only way to get things going, Farmington let themselves get caught with a shortage of sewer taps and development has been bogged down there for the past ten years. It's important to always have capacity available."

City Annexes Seven Parcels Of Township

Novi Township was reduced from eight parcels of land to one—Brookland Farms subdivision—midnight Tuesday, May 23, as the seven outlying township parcels were officially annexed to the city.

MEMORIAL DAY PARADE — Novi Boy Scouts are framed by the gates of the old cemetery on Novi Road as they march into the cemetery to participate in the city's Memorial Day observances Monday. Father Leslie Harding of the Holy Cross Episcopal Church pronounced a prayer in memory of those who have given their lives to their country in the armed services. After the Novi Cemetery ceremony, the parade marched to Orchard Hills Cemetery on 12 Mile Road where a second ceremony was held.

Sewer Tap Shortage Novi May Build Treatment Plant

Faced with the prospect of having to call a halt to further development due to a lack of capacity for handling sewage, the Novi city council looks steps Tuesday to examine the existing situation in Novi to that of Farmington a few years ago, Sheldon said.

Atlas stated that a possible location for the facility might be near the existing holding tank just south of Nine Mile Road. Such a location is purely tentative, as is the entire project, he pointed out. The Johnson and Anderson study of the feasibility of continuing plans for a water treatment facility will deal with four basic features: —a review of existing sanitary facilities and service districts, as well as current capacities; —an assessment of the present status of expansion to the Wayne County system that would benefit Novi;

Open Outdoor Center

Formal dedication of the Walled Lake School District's new Outdoor Center will be held at an open house Sunday, June 4 from 11 to 4 p.m. The center is located off Steeth Road, one half mile east of Wixom Road.

February, 1972, was built at a cost of $354,000 and is one of the first in Michigan to be owned and operated by a school district. The center forms the nucleus of a 2,500-acre ecology and nature study area. Since 1957, the district's sixth grade classes have participated in a week-long, live-in outdoor education and conversation program.

Wixom Hosts 5-Ring Circus

The circus is coming. Residents in the Novi-Wixom area will have an opportunity to see an honest-to-goodness, old-fashioned circus, when the Carson and Barnes Circus comes to Wixom Saturday, June 24. Sponsored by the area Kiwanis clubs, the circus will set up stakes and pitch its tent on Maple Road, just west of Wixom Road, in Wixom.

Complete with five rings, the Carson and Barnes Circus is billed as the largest wild animal show in the United States and is the only five ring circus on the road. There will be shows at 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. under the giant "big top," which holds 3,000 people. Tickets are on sale at the Wixom Co-op and Frazier Stamen's Insurance Agency in Novi, or may be purchased from members of the Walled Lake Jaycees, South Lyon Kiwanis, or Novi Little League. If purchased in advance tickets are $2.50 for adults and $1.25 for children. Tickets purchased at the door will cost $3 and $1.50.

Being a Northville Jaycette means being involved—in projects that range from the institution of a Jaycee Auxiliary chapter at Detroit to service on a Little Misses contest locally.

Mary Hilton's election to the state secretary post places her on the seven-member state board. She is the first Northville Jaycette to serve on it.

The DeHoCo group plans to help the Jackson prison Jaycees collect cancelled stamps to sell to collectors who will sell them overseas.

She's most enthusiastic about the organization of a Jaycee Auxiliary chapter at DeHoCo, which had to be approved by Governor Milliken.

In addition to helping women prisoners provide a better life when released, the Jaycettes hope to involve district chapters in getting more furnishings for DeHoCo cottages and to supply clothing for the women.

PROFITS FROM a hot dog stand can buy an amazing variety of items for a school, including $1,000 worth of field trips, landscaping, a large-type typewriter, a banquet speaker and awards and prizes.

Since the money came from the students, we felt it should be used for their direct benefit," explains retiring president, Mrs. Milton Koenig.

The field trips include a tour of Metropolitan Airport for first graders, museum trips for second and third graders.

In addition, $200 was allocated for improving the landscaping between the elementary and the junior high annex.

sitting rooms at Kerr House, the senior center at 211 Cady, now are furnished, as well as the main floor. Chairs are needed, however, to use the tables upstairs for cards.

Kerr House is open every Wednesday afternoon from 1 to 5 p.m. for seniors to drop in. Members have painted the basement and plans call for installation by the recreation department of a pool table and dart board.

She hopes that drop-in hours may be extended soon. The center now has a telephone for seniors to use when they need to be picked up, etc.

A collector of clocks will be the featured, inspirational speaker at the meeting of the Dearborn-Plymouth Christian Women's luncheon at noon next Thursday, June 8, at Mayflower Meeting House.

Magazines, such as "Better Homes and Gardens," are on the scrouge list. Copper and paper, too, are needed. Mrs. Smith is hoping to get her message to commercial firms that, she says, throw away such items.

She adds that she will share wallpaper and cloth donations with the shop and homemaking teachers as the junior high hopes to teach wallpapering next year and the homemaking department uses fabric for study notebooks.

"We depend an awful lot on students' ingenuity," says Mrs. Smith, but others look upon her scrounging project as developing ingenuity. The donations, she points out, make it possible to save budget money for items that can't be scrounged.

"If you are going to throw it out, and you're not sure if we want it," she concludes, "please call and tell me about it." Mrs. Smith can be reached at Cooke Junior High, 349-3400, or at home during the summer, 474-2431.

Art Classes at Cooke Utilize 'Scroungings'

"Don't throw it away—your trash is our treasure," says Mrs. Smith. That's the plea Cooke Junior High art teacher Dorothy Smith makes regularly in her art classes as they work with bits of plastic, carpeting and wood to create mosaics, scenes, gameboards and even wastebaskets of discarded Packing materials, especially squigly-shaped Styrofoam, make "fantastic" art material, Mrs. Smith enthusiastically displays a paper mache mask with Styrofoam features.

Carpeting remnants new are used to decorate the outside of large ice cream containers to make wastebaskets. They also are flooring for the set designs her classes have made. Windows in the sets are created from donated x-ray film. Contact paper and wallpaper books are used in this way also.

With much new housing under way in the area Mrs. Smith is especially interested in getting wood scraps to use for gameboards, for mounting copper art, for backing weaving pictures and for painting projects.

"We need, but I don't think we can get them as girls, old drawing boards," says Mrs. Smith as she explains how she then could take painting and sketching classes outside.

A recent windfall was a quantity of balsam wood rescued from a discarded custodian who knows of Mrs. Smith's scroungings.

"She is a real scrounger," agrees Principal Ron Her, with who points out that her "scrounging" has supplied five classes a day, or 300 students a year, with art supplies at a total cost of about $750 a year—or $2.50 a student.

Year Round School: 'Try It, You'll Like It'

GEORGE JENSEN

"Try it, you'll like it." When George Jensen concluded his remarks with this TV cliché he wasn't trying to be cute; he seriously meant that a year-round calendar, given a chance, may relieve some school headaches painlessly.

Jensen, who lives in North Carolina, is chairman of the National School Calendar Study Committee, a non-profit, volunteer organization created in 1960 to encourage nationwide investigation and discussion of the present school calendar.

The last two Year Round School information centers will be held tonight (Thursday) at Moraine Elementary School and Tuesday, June 6, at Main Street School.

Both centers will be open from 7 to 9 p.m. Representatives from the Year Round School Steering Committee will be available to answer questions about the 45-15 experimental program slated to begin July 31 at American Elementary.

Twenty-one new students were enrolled in the program following last week's meeting on year round school. To date, 130 students in grades kindergarten through five have volunteered for the program.

Emphasizing that he is not a professional educator but rather a businessman, Jensen said he is convinced, based on successful similar programs elsewhere, that the 45-15 plan has three basic advantages:

1. It provides a more congenial, exciting educational climate for children. 2. It permits teachers to sustain their teaching enthusiasm throughout the year while offering either part-time or full-time employment. 3. It provides for more prudent use of facilities and equipment, thus stretching the tax dollar.

Hearings Set On 3 Requests For Rezoning

Three public hearings on rezoning petitions were set for July, another rezoning request was tabled and three proposed ordinances were recommended for adoption Tuesday night by township planners.

A request from Bernard Gieberman to rezone approximately 61 acres on Haggerty Road south of Six Mile Road to permit construction of townhouses and a similar request for rezoning Dun Rovin Golf Course to construct 1,072 townhouses on 137 acres was tabled until June 27.

Township engineer William Mosher told planning commission members both rezoning requests would be "impossible to develop without sanitary sewers in the area."

Two other rezoning requests were set for public hearings July 19. One is a petition from Richard N. James to rezone a lot on the corner of Seven Mile and Valencia to permit construction of a two-family colonial building.

A proposal from Richard W. Svatora, 5160 Six Mile Road, to rezone from residential to business a parcel at Six Mile and Napier roads was set for public hearing the same date.

Svatora told commission members he plans to convert an old schoolhouse on the northeast corner of Six Mile and Napier into a lounge "that will cater to the family person."

Tuesday night planners also held public hearings on three proposed ordinances and without support or objections from the audience, recommended adoption of the three to the township board.

Ordinances cover signs in all zoning classifications, room counts in multiple family zoning districts and loading and unloading facilities in industrial areas.

In other action Tuesday, planners accepted with changes a preliminary site plan covering 372 multiple family units submitted by Multicon-Thompson-Brown to be constructed on Six Mile Road north of Northville Commons.

Approved a site plan submitted by Levitt and Sons for a maintenance building and storage yard on Gerald Avenue north of Seven Mile, and tabled for review by the engineer and land planner a site plan from Arthur Jahn who has indicated he plans to construct a restaurant on Northville Road, north of his A&W drive-in.

DEADLINE for filing petition to run in the August 8 Northville township primary is 4 p.m. Tuesday, June 20. Posts open include supervisor, treasurer, clerk and two trustees. Voter registration for the election closes at 8 p.m. Friday, July 7. Township offices will also be open Saturday, July 1, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. for registration, officials announced. Township offices are located at 301 West Main Street.

"YOU CAN count 'em on one hand," commented Robert Benson, personnel director, this week. He's referring to the five openings for teachers in the Northville school system. All are replacement teachers with no new positions, he added. Applicant inquiries average over 150 per month and he noted that "because of the number of good students of the district will be the benefactors."

DAYS of having to explain that the college's common name (Schoolcraft College) is different from its legal name (Northwest Wayne County Community College District) are over. The State Board of Education has voted unanimously to approve the college's new legal name, "Schoolcraft Community College District."

CONSIDERATION of bids on two police cars was to have been taken up by the city council meeting yesterday (Wednesday) in a special meeting. In addition, the council was to review a proposed site plan for the mill pond property which may be donated to the city by the Ford Motor Company.

ALTHOUGH development of the recently state acquired Maybury property has not yet begun, spokesmen for the Michigan Department of Natural Resources report that plans are being drawn up now for that development. Meanwhile, it was announced that the new state facility, located between Seven and Eight Mile roads west of Beck, will be named "Maybury Suburban State Park."

"I'M A BOOSTER" proclaims the orange-and-black decal to be distributed as Northville High School band members seek donations door-to-door from 9 a.m. until noon this Saturday in a final "push" for summer band camp. The Northville Mustang is pushing a marching band drum on the round decal.

Absentee Ballots Available Now

Absentee ballots for the June 12 school board election may be obtained beginning Thursday at the Northville Board of Education Offices, 303 West Main Street. Registered voters may pick up the ballots between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. daily. THE NORTHVILLE RECORD—NOVI NEWS

Thursday, June 1, 1972

MEMORIAL PARADE—Under sunny skies Monday, the Color Guard leads the traditional Memorial Day parade through downtown Northville on its way to the community's two cemeteries where services saluted the war dead. Although the parade included a larger contingent of participants this year, fewer citizens were on hand to watch it.

Local Citizens Speak Out

Why Busing Opposition?

"We moved to Northville because we wanted them to walk to school," declares Mrs. Robert S. Frelick in discussing Detroit school busing proposals and how they would affect her family. She is one of a majority of area residents who are concerned about the changes that would occur in their children's daily living patterns if busing should be effected.

Mothers question what it would do to small children's feelings of security with one expressing concern for the children who would be shipped out of Detroit into strange and sometimes hostile communities. How young children could participate in after-school activities and take piano or ballet lessons also was cited. Others pointed to the expenditure of money on busing instead of quality of education as "not making sense."

Another newcomer and former teacher, Mrs. H. Lynn Stringer, who came from Ohio, shares Mrs. Frelick's feelings as does Mrs. William Bohan, who says, "I'm very, very opposed because I don't think it would accomplish a thing. Children here can walk for special activities like Brownies. You go to school in the community you live in. It's the home environment that should be changed, you don't change a child's living pattern in six hours in school."

How would they work out ballet lessons, swimming? You wouldn't want a little child to get home at 4:30 p.m. or later. Mrs. Bohan also said her feeling was not "a prejudice thing," pointing out that the family has friends of other races. She says that these friends also do not want their children bused for the same reasons—that small children need to be in neighborhood schools. The friends, she said, represent the upper middle class blacks. Mrs. Bohan points out that moving small children around

Infectious Hobby Chicken Coop's Winner

Automobile restoration is contagious and, like the common cold, it hangs on long after the bug first appears. And there's no real cure...except maybe an empty pocketbook. Take Ray Jackson of Northville Estates, for example. The bug got to him back in 1963, nearly a decade ago, and he's still nursing the infectious hobby, just as are thousands of other men and women across the country.

Father John Wittstock Mark's OLV Anniversary

Our Lady of Victory Church Celebrates 50 Years

When Our Lady of Victory Church marks its golden anniversary this weekend the celebration actually will be recalling Catholic services here dating as far back as the late 1880's. It was in the late 19th Century when priests from neighboring Milford traveled to Northville to celebrate mass in the homes of parishioners. History shows that on May 25, 1887, the Reverend F. Broegger offered mass in a home located on West Dunlap Street. Two years later the Reverend James A. Halley replaced Father Broegger. One morning a month the priest would take the train from Milford to Northville, offer mass, and then hire a horse and buggy and drive to Wayne for a similar service.

Activities marking the 50th anniversary of Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church will be held this weekend at Northville Downs. The two-day event starts Friday at 4 p.m., continues to 11 p.m., and then resumes Saturday at 9 a.m. continuing until 11 p.m. Both admission and parking will be free. General Chairman Robert Hodson emphasized. Activities will include a spaghetti dinner, served from 4 to 8 p.m. Friday; bingo; drawings with prizes up to $1,500 cash; continuous food and beverage concessions; children's rides; booths and games feature such things as a bake sale, home-made gifts and crafts, boutique, white elephant, duck pond, and a celebrity booth.

Father Halley held many raffles, using articles donated by Northville businessmen. The Ladies Altar Society busied itself making aprons, holding card parties and sponsoring sleigh rides. Church dinners, at first prices at 25 cents, were raised to 50 cents when Father Halley discovered it was easier to feed 50 people at 50 cents than 100 people at 25 cents.

Richard C. Barron of Northville has been promoted to assistant vice president switching systems for Michigan Bell, the company has announced. Barron is presently division switching systems manager of the company's Gnat division in Detroit, a post he has held since 1966. He replaces David K. Wenger who becomes general plant manager. Wixom Names New Garbage Collector

Come July 1 Wixom will have a different garbage-trash collector. The city council last week voted to award a contract to the current collector, G.R. Chapel.

Based on interpretation of the bid specifications, Wixom officials concluded that Frenchy's proposal was more encompassing. Big difference in its service will be that Frenchy's will pick up bulk trash regularly as opposed to the present practice of picking it up on specified dates.

One of these concerned a proposal of David Cleary, city manager of Coopersville, who suggested that a special committee be established within the Michigan Municipal League to deal specifically with the problems and concerns of smaller municipalities.

Legally speaking, high schools will be graduating their first batch of adults this year.

Assuming most high school seniors are either 18, or rapidly approaching the newly proclaimed age of seniority, the average graduate of the class of 1972 is fully three years ahead of his predecessors.

The '72 grad doesn't have to wait until he's 21 to borrow money, own property, vote, run for office or buy alcoholic beverages.

And with the emphasis on equality of the sexes, the student has just as great an opportunity for success as the 'he' graduate.

Realistically, the lower legal level opens few new doors for today's youngsters.

But their opportunity for success may be the greatest in recent history.

The Class of '72 doesn't have to introduce new ways to make money, reach the moon or build a skyscraper to have its impact forever felt on society.

Its members are entering the arena of adulthood when an older generation is struggling to change opinions that associate white-good, strength with power, misfortune and poverty with weakness, and that view new ideas or conflicting theories with suspicion.

The Class of '72 could be best remembered for its contribution to the world through its attitude.

May its members be color-blind, gun-shy, rumor-deaf, open-minded, peace-loving and very, very tolerant of the generation it will succeed.

Again this year the Northville Jaycees will sponsor a Fourth of July celebration including a parade and fireworks.

The local service organization spends a great deal of money and a lot more time to make this traditional holiday one that the entire community can enjoy.

Because the Jaycees cannot possibly finance the project without assistance they appoint a finance chairman whose job it is to come up with enough money to meet all the bills.

This year Henry C. Tull, 43721 Galway Drive, is the man seeking the money help. He's soliciting business, industry and civic-minded citizens.

If you'd like to help, send him a check made out to the Northville Jaycees.

Ban Power Boats On Inland Lakes?

JOHN R. ELLSWORTH

YES...

I am opposed to the existing powerboat situation on small lakes.

I have been a lake dweller for years and have seen powerboats run by youths not yet allowed to operate minibikes. I've watched every safety standard of boat operation, written and unwritten, violated.

Many are to be commended for the practical, considerate, and careful operation of their craft. But, it is the weekend guest, the invited launchee, the untrained, unknowing menace who frightens me. I have seen boats overpowered with fantastic hull speeds unable to operate at capacity on a small lake, but still trying.

Clockwise, counter-clockwise, figure-eights, power runs and the sheer exuberance of flat out power seems now to be the outlet for evading the checks and balances of our society. In the summer past, my neighbors and I were told point blank, to pull in our swimming rafts and watch our kids in the water—that the lake was for boaters.

The Sheriff's department enforces the ordinances to the best of its ability. Sane and prudent powercraft operators observe and respect the small, sailcraft and canoe. But, God help and forgive the one who must someday observe the consequence of his power prop and the swimming child.

Leo R. Sullivan
Brighton Area Resident

NO...

The Great Lakes are far more polluted than are our inland lakes.

Sewage, industry and citizens throwing garbage and bottles and cans in lakes and streams will pollute them far more quickly than will a boat with a motor.

Stiffer laws are needed to curb all kinds of pollution. I'll grant that there should be controls on how much oil and other discharges should be allowed from a boat. With outboard engines, gas-oil mixture is important. If mixed in proper proportions, there will be very little pollution.

If money is needed for enforcement of controls, then raise the price of registration for boats. I can see no need to ban motor boats on lakes and streams, but I am willing to pay to keep our waters free from pollution.

Common sense by drivers of boats and keeping sewage from lake-side homes out of the lakes are the best answers to the problems.

Monk's Bread

By JACK W. HOFFMAN

Forgive my chauvinistic sense of humor but I find a recent temporary setback of the Jaycee Auxiliary just too precious to hide under a rug.

An enterprising group of young women who are constantly looking for new challenges, the Jayceettes came up with the beautiful idea of organizing an auxiliary chapter at nearby Detroit House of Correction—the state's only penal institution for women.

Women prisoners at DeHoCo spend from a few weeks to life at the prison for crimes ranging from shoplifting to murder.

For men, however, the institution is a place for "shorttimers" only, with those doing longer stretches taking up residence at other institutions such as Jackson.

So the chapter envisioned at DeHoCo is to be a Jaycee auxiliary only...sort of a foster club with indirect affiliation with the guys making up a Jaycee chapter at Jackson.

Only one other prison auxiliary exists in the entire country, I'm told, and it is in Alabama. Another is being organized in Florida.

The Michigan Jaycee Auxiliary project has the blessing of Governor William Milliken on down through the chain of command to the top honchos at the prison.

And because of their close proximity to the women's half of DeHoCo, located off Five Mile Road in Northville Township, local auxiliary members are counted on heavily for assistance needed in getting the project off the ground.

The Jayceettes have been meeting regularly with the inmates, since December, emphasizing to the gals behind bars that the organizational experience will help prepare them for their return to society upon release.

Naturally, the gals at DeHoCo are delighted.

Anyway, as so often happens to any good project, everything was moving along smoothly—when inmates electing their own temporary officers and establishing by-laws and constitution—when, boom, a setback!

With the installation and chartering in the offing, the president-elect, apparently anxious either to put her fledgling club experience to work or to visit her counterparts at Jackson, crawled over the prison fence and escaped.

Perhaps she just wanted to get outside and form a chapter of her own. Why else would she take nine other gals along in her flight over the fence?

Whatever the reason, the embarrassing situation was met with a smile from a Jaycee chauvinist: "She (the president-elect) may not have had real Jayceette potential but you must admit she did show initiative."

Clash Over YRS Plan

To the Editor:
For two weeks we have seen assaults on the voluntary extended school year program from the household of a would-be board of education member. Since the attacks do not seem well-informed, it would be interesting to know if Mrs. VanderMolen need for more classrooms is imminent.

It is akin to playing ostrich with head in the sand. The public recently rejected a bond issue which would have provided more classrooms. One would expect a somewhat higher level of awareness of the need for alternatives from a board candidate.

Obviously, at the end of the extended school year experiment, the board will have to decide about continuation, expansion or cessation. But so long as we have special state and federal support we have a unique opportunity, unique in the entire metro-Detroit area, to try something that may improve our children's education. I will have to wait two years for my child to participate but hope it will still be functioning.

I note with dismay that Mrs. VanderMolen fails to cite any research evidence to support her claims of lowered quality, excessive costs, etc. In any event, she need not volunteer her children for the program while others of us who support it have a chance to try.

Regards,
Robert G. Crumpton

To the Editor:
It is obvious that a greater awareness of the learning process needs to be attained if we will be able to objectively evaluate the Year-Round School Proposals. School officials cloud the issue by arguing cost factors, when in reality, they know that additional staff must be hired, which will result in additional expense to the school district. However, the real issue is the control of education by the local residents of Northville. Voters have rejected the concept of Year-Round School by a majority, but they are ignored by the Board.

We need this type of scientific research conducted before considering the case of Year-Round Schools. However, the voters should adhere to the wishes of the majority by denying the continuance of the current proposals.

Asks Court Repair

To the Editor:
I have written to the Board of County Road Commission of Wayne County (Co. Mr. Gordon Van Patten, 7th Floor City County Building, Detroit, 48226) about the clay courts in the Northville Athletic Area of Edward Hines Park. They are not available for use now and will not be until July—if then. Maintenance is the problem. Rumor has it that they might be seeded with grass—no longer to be used as courts. I recommended that asphalt or concrete be applied (if not require constant maintenance and would be available for play at all times. At the same time maybe minor repairs could be made to the four existing concrete courts. I urge that other interested citizens submit their suggestions to Mr. Van Patten.

Passage of Millage Seen Vital to School

To the Editor,
As a concerned citizen and graduate of Northville High School, I am most interested with this millage incident. I was shocked when I read it had been voted down.

Concerning all you citizens who voted against the millage, I've been unable to figure out your position. If voting down the issue was a stand against busing, against year-round school, an answer to your financial woes this was not the issue or the answer.

I'm afraid that many of you fail to realize the extent of the damage the action would have on the community as well as on the students. If the millage is voted down again then the young adults of our schools will have no extra curricular activities. Can you imagine a school with no outside activities. High school is a drag to a large majority of students and to deprive them of outside activities would make school unbearable. These young adults would have nothing to do and would go through high school with half an education.

I'm very serious about the last point because I can't imagine Northville without activities. You must think of the student, of the opportunities which open to them through extra-curricular activities. Students travel, compete and most important, they find themselves."

In conclusion I hope that your better judgment prevails on June 12 and you vote in favor of the Millage. Thank you.

To the Editor:
Proposal No. 1 on the June 12th ballot asking for the approval of a mill will assure the continuation of the extra curricular activities our junior high and high school students now enjoy. This is an integral part of their education and to deprive them of these activities for an average tax increase of fifteen dollars would seem very foolish indeed!

Denial of the request will result in a cut-back to a five hour class day. This will create a variety of restrictions in the curriculum. For many it will mean that they will be unable to take a foreign language, or complete college requirements in the usual time.

Urges 'Year-Round'

Continued from Record. learned while on a three-month summer vacation. And for the slow learner this regression is even more pronounced and harmful, he added.

Teachers, as well as parents, can attest to the fact that children must spend two to six weeks at the start of the new school year reviewing lessons just to catch up to where they were prior to the summer vacation, he said.

And Jensen viewed this period of review a tragic waste of time—a period when the child should be moving ahead in his learning process.

"Under 45-15," said Jensen, "teachers have told me that the time spent reviewing is negligible, so the progress through school is more productive."

Oppose Busing

In any move, she said, noting that she experienced this situation in the family's move here, children miss the security of a familiar building.

"It's been a setback," she stated, saying she felt her youngster had really "lost a year" as she tried to find new friends.

Mrs. Stringer points to the need for operating money so "desperately needed in Detroit" and says she doesn't feel busing can be allowed under these conditions.

"Children learn what they live," she adds, saying that "money can buy awareness."

Parents of older students also voice concerns about busing Mrs. E.O. Weber, wife of a former Northville school board member, said she could not approve of her daughter "going into Detroit."

She mentioned that there also have been reports recently that busing inner city children to other areas has not improved their education, that studies are showing these children are not getting as good grades.

"I really don't feel I should say anything, though, for it's the people with the little children that should be the ones to voice concern," she said.

"I feel very strongly about this," comments Mrs. William McDermott, saying, "We should stop and examine our conscience. Why do we want to drag out little people.

"Neither would we permit our children to go into the city."

She points out that as a nurse she is aware that public health authorities have been working on the problem of inner city children's life for many years. She feels that inner city schools have to change, but that children can't be taken out of their environment.

One of the first area residents to become active in anti-busing was Mrs. Fred Millard, Jr., of Ridge Court. She is the Northville representative on the Tri-County Citizens for Intervention in Federal School Action No. 3235.

Mrs. Millard has set up two information meetings locally—the first in February brought out 22 people, but the next, May 1, brought out 130.

She became involved, she said, because she has four children in school. Her sixth grade daughter is active in 4-H work while one son has an after-school job and another has woodworking and gardening after school.

"I didn't see how they could do all these things if they were going to be riding from dawn to dusk," she explained last week, adding that many stories are told about "bottles and drugs being passed around on buses."

Mrs. Millard, who still was in the hospital when contacted last week, temporarily has had to be inactive, but she says several other residents have been aiding her in getting 51 memberships in the

In his name, $1,454 was added to the Civitan International Foundation scholarship program. Announcement of the honorarium was made during the Michigan District Civitan convention at Schuss Mountain.

Hopping, who lives at 18165 Jamestown Circle, is one of the five trustees of the national foundation which was established in 1962.

Under this program, scholarship grants are awarded to deserving seniors and graduate students. Applications for the scholarships are being accepted now for next year, the 1972-73 winners already having been announced.

Hopping has been active Civitan member since 1945. In that period, he has served in numerous local, state and national Civitan offices—including having served as president of the Detroit Civitan Club, oldest club in Michigan; lieutenant governor of the Michigan district of Civitan; and in 1963-64 national president of the world-wide organization.

In 1970 Hopping was instrumental in formation of the Civitan Club in Northville.

The Northville club, which presently has approximately 20 members, meets weekly (Thursday at 8 p.m.) at the Kings Mill clubhouse of Northville Road.

Northville club members, who with Hopping, attended the state convention at Schuss Mountain, included John Winters, Arthur Muzinger, Charles Schaeffer, Herbert Henstock, and Robert Cervin.

Based on the number of members attending and the distance traveled, the Northville club was singled out as the club "best represented" at the convention.

Club spokesmen have announced that applications for the coveted All-American Family selection are now being taken.

Civitan is one of several sponsors of the awards, which will be televised nationally in September.

Persons wishing to nominate a Northville area family for this honor must submit an entry application by July 1.

Applications and details about the All-American Family contest may be secured by contacting Louis Hopping, 349-2066.

SPECIAL MEMORIAL—VFW Commander Jerry Rotta assists Brownie Stacey Harrington in tossing a wreath into the stream at Rural Hill Cemetery Monday as parade participants paused to pay their respect for the servicemen who have died at sea. Following this special memorial the parade continued on to the Veterans Memorial for the Memorial Day services.

In Township Sunday Fires Damage School

Firemen from three departments battled two separate blazes Sunday night which damaged buildings at the Wayne County Training School on Five Mile and Sheldon roads in Northville township.

Arson is under investigation as the possible cause of both blazes, township officials say both the cottage and central classroom building where the fires occurred are structurally sound and will be repaired.

Both of the brick buildings also suffered extensive smoke and water damage.

Firemen from Northville and the township of Plymouth were called to assist the training school fire department at 8:07 p.m. to extinguish the fire blaze which was reported about 7:30 p.m. in cottage 19 on the northeast end of the school.

The fire started on the second floor of the cottage in one of the student's rooms.

Students living in the two-story building were evacuated and no injuries were reported.

Officials said the oldest students at the school were housed in the cottage where

Junior Olympics Set

The 10th annual Junior Olympics will be held at Walled Lake Western High School Saturday, June 3, beginning at 7:45 a.m.

Sponsored by the Novi, Farmington Hills, and Walled Lake Kiwanis Clubs, the junior olympics are open to boys and girls in the fifth through ninth grades. Elimination meets have been held at schools in Novi and Walled Lake, and the champions from those meets will battle it out for area honors Saturday.

The Kiwanis clubs will award some 600 medals and ribbons to the best athletes at the affair and special trophies will be presented to the top six girl athletes and the top six boy athletes.

Charles Lukkari is president of the Novi Kiwanis. Walled Lake Western track coach Bernie Stafford will coordinate the track and field events, he has for the past nine years.

Novi May Build Plant

Continued from Novi 1 —a tabulation of the land suitable for development within the service limits of the existing sanitary facilities and the sanitary capacity required to service that land; and —preliminary designs and cost estimates for such a facility.

The council authorized the expenditure of not more than $2,500 to pay for the preparation of the report.

"Unless we want everything to stop dead as far as construction and development are concerned," said Councilman Donald Young, "we're going to have to proceed with this study."

Annex Parcels

Continued from Novi 1 election which, township officials believe would result in none of the territories being annexed.

The request was denied, however, as the Boundary Commission stated it could find no legal authority to allow boundary adjustments or additions of land to annexation positions which are not contiguous with lands proposed for annexation.

In announcing their reasons for allowing the seven parcels to be annexed to the city, the Boundary Commission made note of the influence of urban growth and development and the need for suitable urban-type services—sewer and water.

We find that Novi Township does not have the capability of providing these services except under contract with some other unit of government, stated the Commission and that these urban-type services can more economically be provided by a unit of government—the City of Novi.

Other reasons given by the Commission for granting the petition were:

- the proposed annexation is not in conflict with existing land use plans; and
- the geography of the area poses no problems in the supplying of governmental services.

4,588 Acres!

Brighton Park Area's Gigantic

What is the second largest recreation area in southeast Michigan?

If one would respond with the Brighton Recreation Area at 4,588 acres, he would be correct. But the general response, however, is "where is the Brighton Recreation Area?"

Nestled in gently rolling hills about five miles southwest of Brighton, the Brighton Recreation Area is only second in size in southeastern Michigan to the Pinckney Recreation Area, which has 9,344 acres.

Although the Brighton park is bigger than nearby Kensington Metropolitan Park, the largest park in the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority's chain, it is not as intensely developed.

But the park does offer a wide variety of recreational activities and facilities.

A clean grassy beach at Bishop Lake off Bishop Lake Road has parking for 300 cars, in addition to ample picnic space, beach house and restroom facilities.

The park part of the Department of Natural Resources network, has a wealth of campgrounds, both modern and primitive. In addition, it even has a 50-acre site for group camping.

The modern campground, located near Bishop Lake, has facilities for 149 camps, including hot and cold showers, flush toilets, electricity and drinking fountains.

For those who like "rough it," the park has three spots for primitive camping containing about 130 campsites.

The primitive camps, located near Appleton Lake, Murray Lake, and Walker's Point, are kept fairly well-mowed. Although there is no electricity, hand-operated water pumps and chemical toilets are available at all three sites.

Costs for both the modern and the primitive sites are nominal. A motor vehicle permit is required at all camp sites. Daily permits are $1 while an annual permit, good for 1972 in any state park, are available for $5.

In addition, there is also a Senior Resident Annual Permit available to persons 65 years of age or older for $1.

Camping fees are $1.50 per day at the primitive camp sites and $2.50 per day at the modern campground. Campers are limited to a 15-day stay during the period from June 15 through Labor Day, but there is unlimited renewal of permits outside of these dates.

According to Ernest Botke, park manager, camping permits are issued on a "first-come, first-serve" basis. Reservations are not accepted in any state park.

For boating enthusiasts, the recreation area has a number of lakes. Power boats are prohibited on the Chilson impoundment, Botke said, because it is a small lake.

Boat rentals are also available at the concession stand located at Bishop Lake beach. Rowboat rentals are 75 cents an hour with a minimum of two hours of use. Daily rates for rowboats are $4.50 per day on the weekend and $2.50 per day on weekdays.

Canoe rentals cost $1.50 an hour with no minimum. A $5 deposit is required for both rowboats and canoes.

Fishing in season is permitted in the recreation area, Botke said. The lakes are stocked with a variety of fish, including bass, pike, perch, bluegills and some trout.

Seven miles of hiking trails can be found near Bishop Lake. One trail, two miles long, can be taken in one hour, while the five-mile trail takes two and one-half hours to complete.

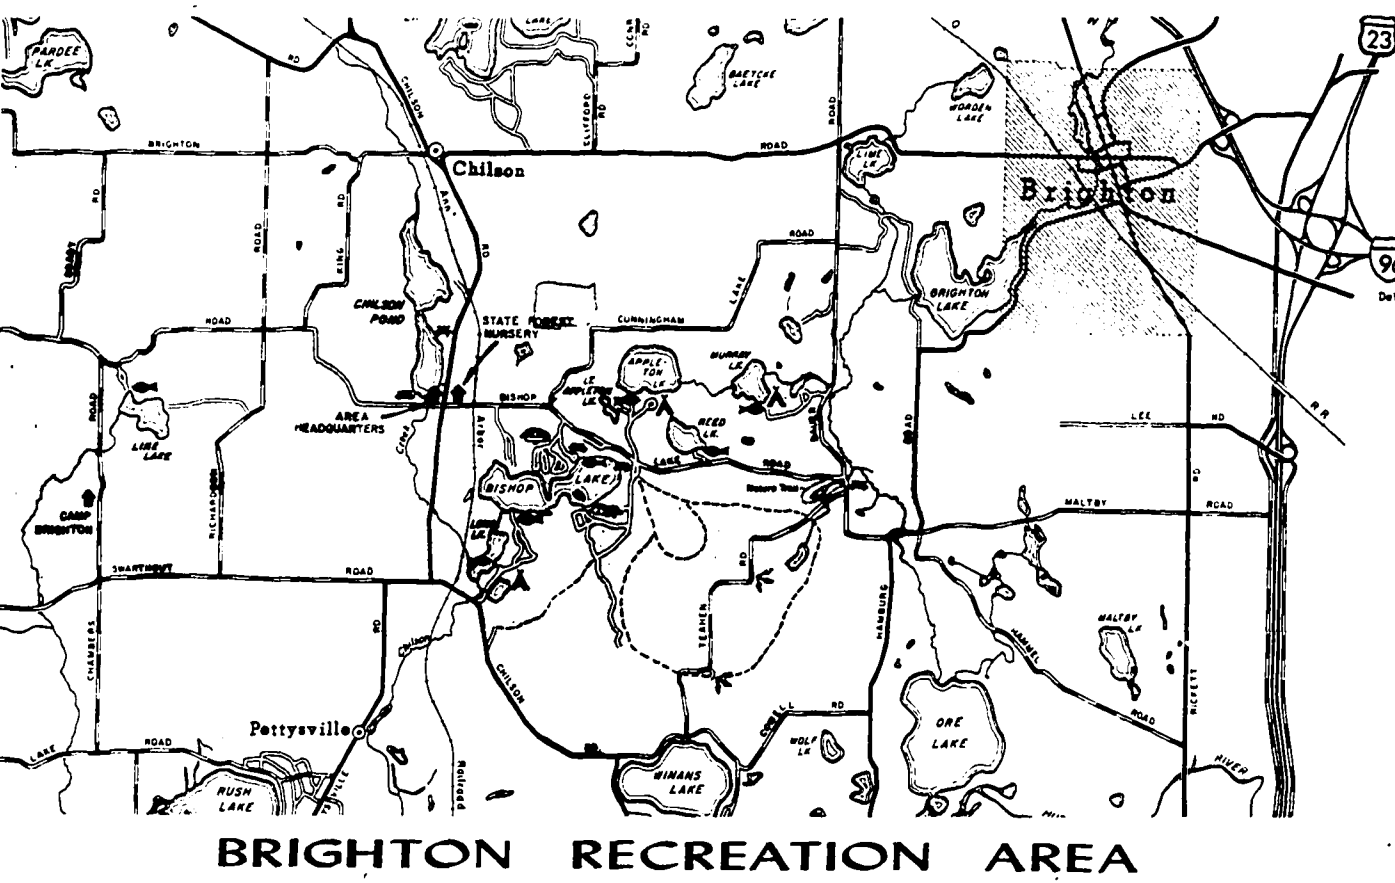

The Department of Natural Resources recently acquired and added 80 acres to the recreation area, Botke said.

He explained that trails would be opened on the property and a stable is expected to be in operation there by the start of summer.

The Brighton Recreation area features one of the few "off road vehicle" areas in the state park system. Botke explained the area, 50 acres in size, has been receiving heavy use.

Heavy use periods for the park are mainly holidays, Botke explained, although the park is used extensively from about May 1 to October 31.

The party strengthened itself in both areas, adding at least one seat in Congress and "adding" seats in both the Michigan Senate and Michigan House.

Things aren't that clear cut in real life, of course, but sophisticated map drawers operating with the knowledge of which areas favor one party and which favors the other can make quite a difference.

IN THE HOUSE, the Democrats had an equally difficult time doing anything with their majority of 58 because a number of the more conservative Democrats were angry with the party leadership over such issues as busing.

AT THAT POINT, with elections drawing closer, Federal Judge Damon Keith said enough was enough and decided the Legislature would never agree on a plan.

The drawing of districts to increase representation in a legislative body is done through a careful analysis and dividing up of strength.

Youth Showing Interest in Politics

WELLESLEY HILLS, Mass.—During the latter part of the 1960s and up until quite recently, the general impression in many parts of the country was that our youth wanted nothing to do with "the establishment" or anybody connected with it.

political observers looked for not more than a 15 percent registration of the new voter eligibles. They pointed out that in the four states where those under twenty-one had previously been given the franchise, participation had been at an extremely low level.

survey was made of 102 cities in 35 states, revealing that 1,215,390 under twenty-one registered in the last six months of 1971 alone.

Even when the twenty-sixth amendment to the U.S. Constitution reduced the voting age to eighteen a year ago, politicians did not expect the nation's young to be of an influence in this year's elections—federal, state, or local.

It was felt that expanding the franchise for those under twenty-one to all states would not produce any sizable shift in the attitude of the young.

Before the November elections, according to estimates of the Youth Citizenship Fund, at least 60 percent of those under twenty-one may well be registered.

But now it looks as though American boys and girls have never really left the establishment, even though many of them feel a strong need for corrective action for problems that their elders have so long permitted to go unsolved.

There have, however, been stirrings of real change. Recently a

Baseball Myths Fanned

Did the mighty Casey strike out and throw Mudville into sunless gloom because wrong eye-dominance or ill-timed blinking prevented him from hitting the baseball?

This suspicion exists after reading an informative new booklet, "What Research Tells the Coach About Baseball," compiled by Guy G. Reiff, professor of physical education and athletics at the University of Michigan.

Published by the American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation, the 40-page booklet accomplishes several things:

It provides statistically verified and performance tested techniques that can help young players and even professionals.

It explodes a great many myths that enrust conventional baseball strategy—the reliance on sacrifice bunts, starting pitchers, and cleanup hitters appears to be mistaken, for example.

Some highlights from Professor Reiff's study: Batting—Select the heaviest bat that you can swing the fastest and utilize these four basic fundamentals:

1. Use a dramatic, fast, and powerful rotary action of the hips; 2. Straighten the leading forearm immediately at the beginning of the swing and utilize a quick and powerful wrist action; 3. Use a fairly stable head action, coupled with a tracking action of the eyes; 4. Keep the length of stride constant on all pitches.

Researchers have found several factors virtually universal in such great hitters as Ernie Banks, Ted Williams, Stan Musial, Henry Aaron, Willie Mays and Mickey Mantle—no matter how different their various batting styles may appear to be.

"Pitching—The relative lack of research on pitching leaves a great deal of mystery surrounding a factor generally conceded to be 65 to 85 per cent of winning baseball.

Professor Reiff says a review of basic body mechanics unique to pitching indicates that young pitchers should avoid these mistakes:

Throwing or pivoting with the foot on top of the pitching rubber, thus losing body stability and speed of forward movement derived from pushing off the front of the rubber (Newton's third law, "for every action there is an equal and an opposite reaction").

Incomplete extension of the throwing arm in the wind-up, resulting in a smaller arc and less velocity.

Sleeping across the body with the striding foot, resulting in a closed rather than an open position before release—affecting control, velocity, and follow-through while increasing risk of soreness or injury.

Landing on the heel rather than on the forward part of the striding foot, with similar results.

A pitcher who can throw hard and impart 1,800 revolutions per minute to the ball can make it curve up to 17.5 inches, research indicates.

Strategy—Statistician Earnshaw Cook in his book "Percentage Baseball" documented his conclusions that baseball teams should:

1. Always start a relief pitcher, remove him for a pinch hitter on his first turn at bat, but substitute a starting pitcher; 2. Avoid the sacrifice bunt, which significantly decreases the chances for scoring; 3. Use the hit and run play, the most powerful and least exploited strategy in baseball; 4. Arrange the batting order so that the eight most productive players appear in descending sequence of ability.

Juvenile Players—Competition in organized boys baseball programs, subject to continuing controversy, appears to have no adverse effect on normal physical and psychological development. It is recommended that pitchers of age 9 to 14 years pitch no more than two innings a game and that curve balls not be thrown prior to age 15.

Good supervision is essential, and guidelines for baseball programs are available through the American Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation, Washington, D.C.

Ours Is A Material World

Reverend Bruce Stone
Pastor,
Tri Lakes Baptist Church, Brighton

Today men are bound to earth, to the temporal. We are walking by sight, not by faith. We are out to make a way for ourselves. Everything around us compels us to do this way. We are tied to the material: charge cards, newspapers, magazines, radio and television, all claim our time and try to control most of our thinking. Advertisers strive to give us the latest ideas to save time and money yet we seem to have little of either. Why?

Somehow every generation is made to believe they are the greatest, the wisest, the most likely to succeed! In areas of technology men are wise today. Goals in life drive us to do many things yet our search for happiness and contentment somehow escapes man. Material advantages leave man feeling inadequate.

Reader, have you seriously considered the wisdom of the Bible? Has the material and temporal become too important in your life? Is this our basic trouble? The Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God tells us, "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God, and his righteousness, and all these things will be added unto you."

Matt. 6:33. Notice the word FIRST. Will you love Jesus? It could mean a new, different and satisfying life for you! The Apostle Paul, surely one of the most successful and wisest men who ever lived, instructs us in Colossian 3:2: "Set your affections on things above not on things on the earth." Are we too self-sufficient to take instruction?

The Christian is under total obligation to serve God. Note Paul's instructions to Christians: "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God." Col. 3:1. We might ask, "for what reason?" So in the day of adversity you might be able to do just that! With God's help, practice it today.

HIS FEET ARE ON THE GROUND!

This man can see for many, many miles, but he's not up in the clouds; his feet are on the ground!

The Church gives man stability too—a broader vision. It lifts up his eyes to see God and the eternal values of love, truth, justice and service which God inspires. It gives him a divine perspective from which to view his job, his family, his country—his life!

But the Church always keeps that man's feet on the ground! It accepts him for what he is—regardless of the clothes he wears or the job he holds. It looks into the face and sees if for what it is—a devilish cancer which only God can cure. It keeps a man's feet on the ground while it lifts his eyes to see beyond the horizon.

And this is what the Church can do for you! It can give you greater vision. But it's not up in the clouds; It keeps your feet on the ground!

WE PUT THINGS WITHIN EASY REACH!

Reaching people is the goal of all forms of advertising... some are successful and some are not. But of all forms of advertising available, only one has the distinction of being able to consistently reach those people who are ripe for responding to the advertiser's message. This, of course, is the Classified Advertising section of your newspaper. Why? Because your Classified section is aimed at a pre-sold audience... people read the Classified Ads because they are already in the market to buy! It isn't necessary to convince them that they should buy a home or an automobile or rent an apartment, or look for a job or engage the services of an electrician... they are already convinced of their need... what they want is someone who can ANSWER that need.

It is also the only people-to-people medium that is available to every member of the community! Individuals turn to the Classified Ads every day to buy or sell items ranging from pets to power mowers, and bicycles to motor boats. And the Classified section is the only place they can reach so many people at such a low cost.

So if you're a businessman or an individual who wants to reach out and pick people who are ripe for your messages, put that message in the Classified Advertising section of this newspaper.

CONFERR—Conferring on the site of the fourplex theater, underway in the Freeway Shopping Center at the eastern edge of Novi off 10 Mile Road...

Work Starts On 4 Cinemas

Groundbreaking ceremonies last week marked the official start of the Farmington 4 Cinemas, a completely automated fourplex theater designed to set new standards of viewing ease and comfort.

Completion, according to Sol Krim, president of Krim Theatrical Enterprises, Southfield, is scheduled for September.

Farmington 4 Cinemas is being constructed in the Freeway Shopping Center at the Thompson-Brown Farmington Freeway Industrial Park...

Designed by Robert B. Alpern Associates, Architects-Planners, of Birmingham, the $600,000 Farmington 4 Cinemas is being constructed by Bernard Crank, General Contractors, Oak Park.

Located in the Freeway Shopping Center, the new theater company will provide the added convenience of parking for almost 700 cars.

The burgeoning center, developed by Novi Holding Company, presently has but three units still available for occupancy.

The fully automated theater will house the most modern equipment available. It will include unique new projectors that employ lamps

Brighton Park Area Continued from Page 1-B He pointed out the week of July 4 was one of the heaviest of the season last year...

Improvements for the park are now on the drawing boards, the latest of which will be construction of new beaches at Bishop Lake.

Presently a well and toilet facilities are under construction in the Chilson picnic area. Builders pointed out the area would not be available for open until the toilet facilities are complete.

Residents Threaten K&B Shutdown

Already deluged with complaints from irate Village Oaks residents, the development firm of Kaufman and Broad found itself faced with yet another antagonist Monday as citizens from Lakewood...

and necessitated moving the meeting to the Community Building, but that he has had these feelings about Kaufman and Broad for some time. The council took no direct action on the Lakewood requests...

those promises have been false. Also irritating to the Lakewood residents is the matter of maintenance fees. "We're paying approximately $30 per month for maintenance..."

PICKET LINE—Residents of Lakewood, the condominium portion of Kaufman and Broad's Village Oaks development, staged a protest Sunday at the developer's condominium sales office...

Kaufman and Broad

'We'll Take Care Of All Problems'

Kaufman and Broad developers of Novi's 638-acre Village Oaks complex has been the target of much abuse lately, and at least a portion of that abuse, they feel, is undeserved.

"We're building virtually a new city in Novi," says John Tedesco, 29 years old and President of the Michigan division of Kaufman and Broad.

"When you develop an area as large as Village Oaks is you expect problems. We don't deny that there are problems out there, but we do deny that we don't care about them and have no intentions of taking care of them."

"The crux of the matter is that we have a huge investment in Novi. We have a vested interest in making Village Oaks pleased with us. We have a lot of houses to sell yet out there."

Criticism of developers is almost commonplace. But the dissatisfaction of Village Oaks residents with Kaufman and Broad has risen from a mere undercurrent of rumblings to the point where legal action is being threatened.

"The rumblings surfaced last week in a front-page article in the Novi News and have steadily increased in crescendo ever since that point where the Novi city council was asked Monday to suspend Kaufman and Broad's license until they have taken care of all outstanding complaints."

"The thing that really hurt," Tedesco said Friday referring to the newspaper article, "is that statement that we have a 'shoddy attitude' and don't try to solve our problems. I think it's unfair to say our attitude is 'junky.' We've spent untold hours and money in trying to take care of all the complaints as quickly as possible."

Complaints listed by Village Oaks residents in last week's Novi News article included drainage problems, faulty construction, and the overcrowding of the swimming pool and clubhouse as well as the lack of parks.

For City of Novi Adopt '72-'73 Budget

Over the objections of Councilmen Edwin Pressnell and Denis Berry and with a minimum of citizen comment, the Novi city council adopted a record-high 1972-'73 budget Monday.

The two officials elected Monday will join five others on the seven member college board.

Also adopted were budgets for four individual city departments. In addition to the general fund budget, the council approved:

• A budget of $213,602 for the Department of Building and Safety, up from $151,600 last year.

• An operating budget of $82,050 for the Water Department, up from $71,225 last year.

• An operating budget of $52,250 for the Sewer Department, up from $45,700; and

• A total budget of $151,200 for the Highway Department (Department of Public Works), an increase of $36,200 over the 1971-'72 budget of $115,000.

In presenting the budget City Manager George Atlas pointed out that the city receives a relatively small percentage of the overall tax billing. "If you live in a $50,000 house," he told citizens at the hearing, "you only pay $162.50 per year for the operation of the city."
