Work Starts On 4 Cinemas

Groundbreaking ceremonies last week marked the official start of the Farmington 4 Cinemas, a completely automated, fourplex theater designed to set new standards of viewing ease and comfort.

Completion, according to Sol Krim, president of Krim Theatrical Enterprises, Southfield, is scheduled for September.

Farmington 4 Cinemas is being constructed in the Freeway Shopping Center at the Thompson-Brown Farmington Freeway Industrial Park, 10 Mile just west of the I-96 Grand River exit.

It will be one of the first new theaters in the state to provide continental seating. (There will be a center bank of seats only. Aisles will be on each side against the walls.)

According to Krim, a third generation theater entrepreneur, aisles will be wider spaced and more steeply pitched to eliminate viewing obstructions "regardless of how high the hairedo is on the lady sitting in front of you."

Farmington 4 Cinemas will accommodate approximately 1,000 patrons in its four separate "mid-sized" auditoriums located on either side of a common lobby.

By being able to present four different features simultaneously, it will provide a diversification of entertainment fare that will appeal to adults, full family groups, and the younger set all at the same time.

The fully automated theater will house the most modern equipment available. It will include unique new projectors that employ lamps in place of the old carbon units, instant automatic switching from one projector to another, and full one-hour (rather than the outdated 20-minute) run times.

With the opening of this and a new Triplex Theater rapidly nearing completion in the Brighton Mall, Krim Theatrical Enterprises will become actively involved in the exhibition phase of the business. (For the past 12 years, they have been primarily landlords - rather than theater operators.)

Designed by Robert B. Alpern Associates, Architects-Planners, of Birmingham, the $600,000 Farmington 4 Cinemas is being constructed by Bernard Cronk, General Contractors, Oak Park.

Interior decoration will be by Dee Finsilver and Shirley Pollock. Located in the Freeway Shopping Center, the new theater complex will provide the added convenience of parking for almost 700 cars.

The burgeoning center, developed by Novi Holding Company, presently has but three units still available for occupancy. Among the firms neighboring the new theater will be a 5-story Holiday Inn, Park Place Lounge and Restaurant, 19 shops and boutiques - 16 of which already have been leased and are in operation.

The $2-million service center, developed by Novi Holding Company, services both the general public and the over-40 industrial-commercial firms located in the Thompson-Brown Farmington Freeway Industrial Park, Michigan's first Class "A" Certified Industrial Park.

He pointed out the week of July 4 was one of the heaviest of the season last year, with 26,321 visiting the area that week. Sunday, July 3, saw about 5,851 people using the facilities.

Roughly 502 cars were turned away that week because of insufficient parking facilities.

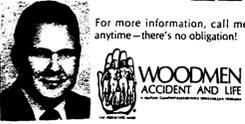

Improvements for the park are now on the drawing boards, the latest of which will be construction of new beachhouses at Bishop Lake.

Presently a well and toilet facilities are under construction in the Chilson picnic area. Buick pointed out the area would not be opened until the toilet facilities are complete.

FOOD GOES FURTHER WHEN BOUGHT AND SERVED BY THE OUNCE

We've been receiving a number of questions on AVERAGE SERVINGS and the image of a size of a serving differs from person to person and family to family. But there is general agreement among dietitians and food supervisors on the size of "average serving" or "standard portion." You might use them as a guide in making comparisons. However, ideally the serving size should be adjusted to the needs of the individuals within each family. Keep this in mind!

The average serving of meat, fish or poultry is 3 ounces of lean cooked meat without bone. Unless it is much uncooked, this is derived from 4 ounces of raw lean meat without bone. There is approximately a 25% water and droppings loss in cooking. An 8 ounce glass is an average serving of milk. The 2 ounce serving of cereal is a standard portion. When we come to the yield of cooked meat from one pound of raw meat, here's another guide: Chop or steak... 10 oz. or 2-3 servings. With bone and fat... lamb or pork chops, ribs, sirloin or port tenderloin steaks... 5-7 oz. or 1-2 servings. With little fat and little fat-trimmed beef and veal... 9-12 oz. or 3-4 servings. Ground meat...

One ounce is an average cereal serving poured from the box. Cooked cereals absorb water, so weight more served than when dry. Puffed cereals are served in 1/2 ounce portions. When we come to the yield of cooked meat from one pound of raw meat, here's another guide: Chop or steak... 10 oz. or 2-3 servings. With bone and fat... lamb or pork chops, ribs, sirloin or port tenderloin steaks... 5-7 oz. or 1-2 servings. With little fat and little fat-trimmed beef and veal... 9-12 oz. or 3-4 servings. Ground meat...

Beef, lamb or pork patties... 3-4 oz. or 1-2 servings. Roasts for oven cooking... With bone and fat... beef ribs, loin, chuck, lamb shoulder, leg, pork, fresh or cured... 6-9 oz. or 2-3 servings. Without bone... 10 oz. or 2-3 servings. Cuts for pot-roasting, simmering, braising, stewing... With bone and fat... beef chuck, pork shoulder... 6-8 oz. or 2 servings. Residents Threaten K&B Shutdown

Already deluged with complaints from irate Village Oaks residents, the development firm of Kaufman and Broad found itself faced with yet another antagonist Monday as citizens from Lakewood, the condominium portion of the 640-acre Village Oaks complex, descended en masse on the Novi city council to request that the developer's license be lifted and all further construction be halted immediately.

In addition, William Winters, spokesman for the Lakewood group, informed the council that the residents have picketed the K&B sales office and are filing a law suit charging the developer with fraud and misrepresentation. Their complaints fall on receptive ears, and particularly receptive was Councilman Raymond Evans. "Personally, I'm past the talking stage with Kaufman and Broad," Evans stated after listening to the complaints. "They've violated the building codes and they've violated plat approvals. It's getting so that K&B thinks they are bigger than the city."

Evans added that he was not responding specifically to appease Monday's large turnout which completely filled the council chambers and necessitated moving the meeting to the Community Building, but that he has had these feelings about Kaufman and Broad for some time.

The council took no direct action on the Lakewood requests. Many of the complaints involved contractual matters between the individuals and the developer and therefore are not liable to city jurisdiction. Complaints regarding violations of city ordinances would be just cause to shut K&B down, City Attorney Howard Bond advised the council, but should be documented in order to avoid legal retaliations.

Winters told the council that he would compile a list of such violations and present them Monday to the council for its action.

According to one councilman, who chose to remain anonymous at this point, direct action could be forthcoming. In addition to Evans' vote, three other councilmen are ready to lift K&B's license, he said—four votes is a majority on the seven-man council. Essence of the Lakewood complaints is that Kaufman and Broad has failed to live up to its contractual agreements.

"When we were sold these condominiums," Winters told The Novi News Sunday, "we were told that we'd have air-conditioners, landscaping, sidewalks, frost-free refrigerators, and prompt attention to individual requests for repairs. Up until the last five days, I would say that almost 100 percent of those promises have been false."

Also irritating to the Lakewood residents is the matter of maintenance fees. "We're paying approximately $30 per month for maintenance," Winters added, "and there's been no maintenance. Until they finish the landscaping there's nothing to maintain, but we're paying for it anyway."

Representatives of Lakewood met with Kaufman and Broad President John Tedesco and Sales Manager Donald Alexander last week and received a verbal commitment to provide all the items that had been contracted for.

Work forces were substantially enlarged and the construction pace was increased, but the work was not completed by the deadlines set by the Lakewood representatives, resulting in the picketing of the sales office Sunday and Monday's appearance before the council, as well as the decision to proceed with the law suit.

Representing the condominium owners in their legal proceedings is Daryle Salisbury, an attorney as well as a Lakewood resident.

"There just haven't been any suits against condominium developers," Salisbury said Sunday and Monday's appearance before the council, as well as the decision to proceed with the law suit.

PICKET LINE—Residents of Lakewood, the condominium portion of Kaufman and Broad's Village Oaks development, staged a protest Sunday at the developer's condominium sales office on Haggerty Road. Claiming Kaufman and Broad has failed to live up to its contractual agreements, the Lakewood residents attempted to influence potential buyers away from the development.

Kaufman and Broad

'We'll Take Care Of All Problems'

Kaufman and Broad developers of Novi's 638-acre Village Oaks complex has been the target of much abuse lately, and at least a portion of that abuse, they feel, is undeserved.

"We're building virtually a new city in Novi," says John Tedesco, 29 years old and President of the Michigan division of Kaufman and Broad. "When you develop an area as large as Village Oaks is you expect problems. We don't deny that there are problems out there, but we do deny that we don't care about them and have no intentions of taking care of them."

"The crux of the matter is that we have a huge investment in Novi. We have a vested interest in making Village Oaks pleased with us. We have a lot of houses to sell yet out there."

Criticism of developers is almost commonplace. But the dissatisfaction of Village Oaks residents with Kaufman and Broad has risen from a mere undercurrent of rumblings to the point where legal action is being threatened.

The rumblings surfaced last week in a front-page article in the Novi News and have steadily increased in crescendo ever since that point where the Novi city council was asked Monday to suspend Kaufman and Broad's license until they have taken care of all outstanding complaints.

"The thing that really hurt," Tedesco said Friday referring to the newspaper article, "is that statement that we have a 'shoddy attitude' and don't try to solve our problems. I think it's unfair to say our attitude is 'junky.' We've spent untold hours and money in trying to take care of all the complaints as quickly as possible."

Complaints listed by Village Oaks residents in last week's Novi News article included drainage problems, faulty construction, and the overcrowding of the swimming pool and clubhouse as well as the lack of parks.

As evidence of their intentions to solve all problems, Kaufman and Broad point to their Complaint Department.

"We have four full-time people who do nothing all day long, five-days a week, but make certain people's complaints are resolved," said Robert Theison, executive vice-president of the Michigan Division.

"The problem is that people don't report their problems to us, they go to the city. When the problem with the chimneys arose we didn't have a single complaint registered."

"We can't solve problems we know nothing about."

An unusually wet spring has hampered efforts to repair drainage and grading problems, claims Dan McMullen, K&B's chief engineer.

"All the grading has been done to the specifications of Novi's city engineers (Johnson and Anderson)," adds Theison. "Our grading doesn't pass until J&A says so."

Again Theison admits that drainage problems exist. Last November Johnson and Anderson submitted a punch list of drainage items to be completed, but because the frost had already set in the ground work on the list had proper contractor, one copy placed on a large board indicating outstanding orders, and one copy filed into company records.

When the contractor completes the job, he has the homeowner endorse his work order and sends it back into the company.

"Any developer who has more than five work orders over two weeks old," explains Mrs. Jan Rubin, head of the Complaint Department, "gets a delinquent tag and we hold up payment on all checks until he gets caught up."

"We know there will be construction complaints," says Theison, "and we've given a lot of thought to this service department. We haven't just gone about this thing in a helter-skelter manner."

If the Service Department has failed, K&B officials contend, it is due in part to the homeowners.

"We had a major problem with the chimneys and the city made us go in and change all of them," Theison reported. "The problem is that people don't report their problems to us, they go to the city. When the problem with the chimneys arose we didn't have a single complaint registered."

Four Seek Seats In School Election

When voters of the Novi School District go to the polls Monday in the annual school election they will be choosing two board members from a slate of four candidates that includes an 18-year-old.

No propositions are to be considered.

Names of eight candidates for six-year terms on the Oakland Community College board of trustees, however, will appear on the ballot.

Seeking election to two four-year posts on the Novi Board of Education are:

- James T. Assemany III, 4640 10 Mile Road; William A. Moak, 2278 Chestnut Tree Way; Mrs. Sharon Pelchat, 41910 Aspen Drive; and LaVerne DeWaard, 22871 Gilbar Drive.

The latter two candidates are incumbents.

The seven nominees for the community college board of trustees include two incumbents, Lila Johnson of Huntington Woods and George R. Mosher of Birmingham, and the following five challengers:

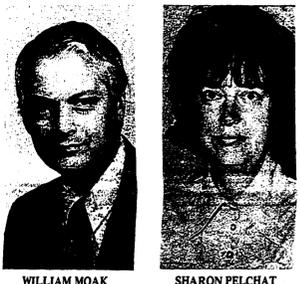

- Colin Chapin of Franklin; Dante DiVito of Farmington; J. Harold Ellens of Farmington; Hope Frey of Bloomfield Hills; Rosemary Hart of Royal Oak; and William M. Letzel of LaRue Village.

The two officials elected Monday will join five others on the seven member college board.

Also adopted were budgets for four individual city departments. In addition to the general fund budget, the council approved:

- A budget of $213,602 for the Department of Building and Safety, up from $151,600 last year;
- An operating budget of $82,050 for the Water Department, up from $71,225 last year;
- An operating budget of $52,250 for the Sewer Department, up from $45,700; and
- A total budget of $151,200 for the Highway Department (Department of Public Works), an increase of $36,200 over the 1971-72 budget of $115,000.

Adopt '72-'73 Budget

Over the objections of Councilmen Edwin Pressnell and Denis Berry and with a minimum of citizen comment, the Novi city council adopted a record-high 1972-73 budget Monday.

Following a public hearing, the council by a 5-2 vote approved a general fund budget totaling $70,250, up from $66,250 in the current budget.

Also adopted were budgets for four individual city departments. In addition to the general fund budget, the council approved:

- A budget of $213,602 for the Department of Building and Safety, up from $151,600 last year;
- An operating budget of $82,050 for the Water Department, up from $71,225 last year;

- A total budget of $151,200 for the Highway Department (Department of Public Works), an increase of $36,200 over the 1971-72 budget of $115,000.

In presenting the budget City Manager George Atlas pointed out that the city receives a relatively small percentage of the overall tax billing. "If you live in a $50,000 house," he told citizens at the hearing, "you only pay $150.50 per year for the operation of the city. The majority of your taxes go to support the schools."

The city levies 6.5 mills for operational expenses, 5 mills for the library, and an additional one mill, recently approved by Novi voters, for road construction and maintenance.

The 1972-73 budget was adopted without change from the one submitted by the city manager, although Councilman Pressnell raised several objections. Trust of Pressnell's objections was that salaries in the city manager's department were too high and salaries in the builders department were too low.

Novi High School

Grads Hear McDonald

Exposing a "renaissance of human values," United States Congressman Jack McDonald delivered the keynote address at the fourth annual Novi High School commencement ceremonies Tuesday night.

"This is a very traditional evening," he told them, "but there is one important break with tradition this time. You are fully franchised citizens of this United States. High school graduates have always had responsibilities, but for the first time most of the graduating class of 1972 has rights as well."

"Your idealism must not be allowed to destroy the freedom which permits your idealism to exist. Dissent all you wish in your quest for a renaissance of human values, but protect with your life the enduring principles of honesty with your self and others, tolerance for the ideas of others, and freedom for others to pursue their destinies."

The Reverend Leslie Harding of the Holy Cross Episcopal Church delivered the invocation. The benediction was said by the Reverend Charles Fox of St. John's American Lutheran Church.

Ceremonies began five minutes before eight o'clock as the high school band under the direction of Gordon Selzer played the class song - "We've Only Just Begun."

The seniors then entered to "Pomp and Circumstance," again played by the high school band.

Takes Bride in Flint

A romance that began while both were attending graduate school at University of Michigan led to the marriage May 29 in Flint of Dr. Kathryn Ann Knudson and Gary Thomas Gryswiewicz.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Knudson of Flint, received her undergraduate degree from U of M in 1968 and her degree from medical school in May.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Gryswiewicz, 131 South Ely Drive, is a 1963 graduate of Northville High School and a 1967 graduate of Michigan State University where he was an Evans scholar. He is a 1971 graduate of University of Michigan law school.

Nass was recited in Latin—the Gregorian chant—at the 10:30 a.m. ceremony at St. Matthews Catholic Church in Flint. Soloist was Carol Burgfort. The altar was decorated with blue and white bouquets.

For the single ring ceremony the bride wore a white satin gown with a portrait neckline and long, full sleeves gathered at the wrists. Lace trim interwoven with blue ribbons adorned the gown and the full-length cascade bouquet.

Mrs. Steven York, Timothy York, was ring bearer.

Bruce Gryswiewicz was his brother's best man. Ushers were Steven York, Tom Sheedy, Jack Stringfield and Dikron Ornekian.

A dinner reception followed at Frankemuth with guests going on to the Knudson home for champagne and cake. The 175 guests attended from England, Iowa and Wisconsin as well as from Detroit suburbs.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length pink crepe gown while the bridegroom's mother chose a long mint-green crepe.

The bride changed to a light blue street dress and matching coat for a wedding trip to San Francisco where the newlyweds will live. She will be serving her internship at Mott Hospital in San Francisco. She was affiliated with Alpha Epsilon Iota sorority for women in medical school at U of M.

The bridegroom will work at Arthur Anderson law firm in San Francisco.

In Our Town

By JEAN DAY

IT'S JUNE—and the year is winding down for most organizations as annual meetings and installations precede the recess for summer.

New on the scene this past year was the Northville Band Boosters Club, which sponsored at least eight projects to raise funds for sending band members at the high school to a summer band camp.

What seemed a dream to many last fall when the group organized will be a reality for 100 students in August. With parents paying half the cost, $17.50, band members who will be in ninth through twelfth grades next fall will go to Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp August 28 through September 3.

Six women who formed the Band Boosters last fall have been largely responsible for the project's success. Heading the boosters was Mrs. E. O. Weber. Without her, the others declare, the project—her idea—never would have succeeded.

"She spent mountains of time," comments Mrs. Theodore Heckler, vice-chairman. Other workers were Mrs. Robert Crane, Mrs. Orin Howe, Mrs. James McCurdy and Mrs. H. O. Evans.

"Pearl Weber spent untold hours throughout the past months," agrees Mrs. Howe.

Projects began with the sale of pumpkin bread on the downtown streets the Sunday before Thanksgiving. The Boosters then supplied Northville's santa for the merchants' association. In the meantime, the boosters began making and selling brownies every Tuesday at the high school.

A card party at OLV, a lemon bread sale in March, a millionaire party and band concerts followed. Final "push" was the sale of booster decals last Saturday which netted $903.66.

Final plans for camp, to which high school band director Robert Williams will accompany the group, were to be made at a parents' meeting this week. It is hoped that the boosters will be an ongoing organization.

"When we see the kids take off in the bus for camp, we'll really feel we have accomplished something," comments Mrs. Heckler.

PARENTS OF Northville High seniors who have been planning the annual party to follow graduation exercises June 13 are among the busiest at school year-end.

Party chairmen Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Pitak have been overseeing a well-organized committee, which is to be commended for its decision to purchase gift certificates from local merchants for party prizes. The Pitaks explain that it was felt the merchants had been asked for donations so often that it would be more fair to use any remaining money after expenses this way.

It also gives the lucky graduates opportunity to choose what they'd like.

NORTHVILLE'S Class of 1972 has been remaining funds in its class treasury for dual good purposes. It donated $320 to purchase 80 tickets for "Charley's Aunt," being produced at Lydia Mendelssohn Theatre in Ann Arbor July 7-10 as a memorial to Judith Z. Chapel.

It is being produced by Robert Chapel, who was her husband and a former teacher at Northville High School.

Class president Scott Evans Tuesday presented 50 tickets to Robert From, recreation director, for the senior citizens to see the Saturday performance. Remainder of the class funds will go to the school library.

FOR PASTOR and Mrs. Charles Boeger this has been a busy spring. In April and early May they enjoyed a three-week trip to Europe, the gift of members of St. Paul's Lutheran Church congregation when they celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary last summer.

Upon their return, they attended the graduation May 20 of their son, Kenneth, from Concordia Teachers' College in Seward, Nebraska, where Kenneth received his B.S. degree and an assignment to teach at Zion Lutheran School in Cleveland, Ohio, next fall.

A week later, on May 26, their oldest son, Charles, Jr., serving with the U.S. Army in New Orleans, received his M.S. degree from Louisiana State University. Another son, Paul, received his associate of arts degree and was graduated from Concordia Lutheran Junior College in Ann Arbor May 27.

Their oldest daughter, Lorri, is being graduated from Northville High School Tuesday. After that, the Boegers will have a few moments to relax before the marriage of son Kenneth in Cleveland July 30.

A "FLEA MARKET" with baked goods and handmades as well as resale items will be held from 1:30 to 5 p.m. Sunday, June 11, at Northville Convalescent Home, 520 West Main Street.

Senior Citizen Needs Viewed

Special needs of the more than 15,000 senior citizens living in the Schoolcraft College District will be the focus of a survey to be conducted by the college during July.

Aim of the project is to determine if senior citizens have educational or other needs which Schoolcraft can provide or assist in providing. It is being co-sponsored by the Schoolcraft College Foundation and the University of Michigan's Institute of Gerontology.

Director of Community Services Ron Griffith said the idea for taking a comprehensive survey was proposed by members of an advisory committee recently appointed by Schoolcraft President C. Nelson Grote. Its function is to advise the college on ways it can better serve senior citizens.

Griffith said the college would help conduct the study and compile its results. He is hopeful that at least one program and possibly a number of new programs can be offered by Schoolcraft in the fall, based on survey responses.

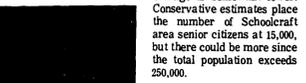

Senior citizens comprise 9.7-percent of the population, nationally. In the newer suburban areas, such as the college district, the percentage is somewhat lower. Conservative estimates place the number of Schoolcraft area senior citizens at 15,000, but there could be more since the total population exceeds 250,000.

Mrs. Theresa Dixon, R.N., director of nursing at Northville State Hospital, since December of 1969 and formerly that hospital's director of nursing education, was elected president of the Detroit District, Michigan Nursing Association recently.

At the district's annual banquet at the Latin Quarter in Detroit, Mrs. Dixon said, in her acceptance speech, "The professional organization exists in the society. It is, then, this District Nurses' Association's responsibility to strive to bring about more professional solidarity among nurses in this area. Strengths inherent in a unified group of nurses can be mobilized and utilized to raise the standards of health for all citizens."

Mrs. Dixon, a graduate of Grady Municipal Hospital School of Nursing in Atlanta, Georgia, holds master of science degrees in psychiatric nursing and in administration from Wayne State University. She has held numerous offices in nursing and allied health organizations.

THERESA DIXON

Members of the advisory committee represent four cities within the college district: Mrs. Gladys Grosjean, Plymouth; Emil Schroeder, Garden City; Mrs. Richard Sharon, Northville; and George Van Husen, Livonia.

Mrs. Betty Andrews of Plymouth serves as an at-large member of the advisory group. She is a University of Michigan graduate student in the Institute of Gerontology. Carl Johnson of Northville serves as the Schoolcraft College Foundation representative to the committee.

According to Griffith, volunteer survey takers and workers headed by Mrs. Andrews will make personal contacts with individuals and groups to insure broad response to the poll. They will visit senior citizen social centers and nursing homes, meet with church groups and gather information from as

Open House Honors Couple

An open house Sunday afternoon at the home of their younger son marked the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Shoebrieger, who were Northville residents until they moved to Millford seven years ago.

Mrs. Shoebrieger, the former Cora DeKay, was born in Northville Township and married her husband, an Edmore, Michigan, native who was employed at Maybury Sanatorium, June 2, 1922, in Ann Arbor.

Their son, Clifford, and his wife hosted the reception for old friends, neighbors and relatives at their home at 303 Pennell. The Shoebriegers also have a son, George, of Davsburg.

In addition to their Methodist church affiliation, the Shoebriegers have been active in Northville First Methodist American Legion, Orient Chapter 77, Eastern Star, and Pilgrim Shrine of Plymouth No. 55.

He retired from the Wayne County Training School where he had 30 years' service as a plumber. The couple enjoys fishing—including making new minnie.

They also are able to travel north with their trailer, taking along their French poodle, Milton.

Assisting their daughter-in-law with the reception were her two nieces, Marie Domin and Deanna Mireau, who prepared food for 80 to 100 guests, many of whom the honorees had not seen for many years.

All four of the couple's grandchildren attended, including Miss Domin with her fiancé, Joe Harak; Mrs. Mike (Deanna) Mireau and her husband; Donnie and children, Terry Domin and Sean Mireau.

Bond, Mill Hikes On Ballot Monday

LYNN VANDERMOLEN RICHARD LYSINGER MARTIN RINEHART DR. ORLO ROBINSON

More than 2,000 of the 6,300 registered voters are expected to go to the polls Monday to cast ballots for three of seven school board candidates and vote on one county-wide and two local questions.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. in the board of education building, 303 West Main Street. Voters should use the rear entrance of the building.

Voting machines, instead of the usual paper ballots, will be used.

Issues on the ballot include one mill for an indefinite number of years to finance four Wayne County vocational-technical centers, a one mill for one year request for operation of the local district and a request for a $700,000 bond issue which will not require an increase in the debt levy.

The millage request to finance school operation is expected to bring the voters to the polls Monday, school officials say.

A 1.5 mill request and a $145-million bond issue were defeated last year. School officials placed the pared down bond issue on the June 12 ballot while citizens petitioned the board to put the requirements of the county before it could go into the sewer. He saw no difficulty in meeting interceptor specifications.

Generally, councilmen were enthusiastic about Mergraf's request, particularly because it could enhance the possibility of industrial development of adjacent property.

In a related action, council also authorized to begin proceedings to establish a special assessment district in the Center Street area, opposite the Bell Telephone station, for extension of water and sewer lines.

This waste water, he emphasized, would necessarily have to meet the requirements of the county before it could go into the sewer. He saw no difficulty in meeting interceptor specifications.

Mergraf Oil

Utilities Sought

A proposal to establish a special assessment district to permit extension of water and sanitary sewer lines to the Mergraf Oil Company property east of the railroad received council approval of intent Monday night.

Specifically, if the proposal becomes a reality, sewer and water lines would be extended from near the department of public works property to the northern edge of Mergraf's property.

Mergraf would, under this proposal, be required to pay for the total installation (estimated at $20,000) under a multi-year installment with a provision for a payback of a portion of the cost as other properties tap into the line.

Major discussion at Monday's city council meeting concerned the kind and amount of effluent Mergraf would be dumping into the sanitary sewer system.

It concluded with an agreement that no formal action is to be taken pending approval by the county, particularly because it could enhance the possibility of industrial development of adjacent property.

According to Jack Swain of Mergraf, installation of a sewer line will eliminate unsightly and hazardous holding ponds currently used by the company. These ponds hold water resulting from waste oil that Mergraf obtains from major industrial plants and then recycles.

Can City Own Right-of-Way?

How can two street rights-of-way be vacated and still come under city ownership as park property?

This question was posed by Mayor A.M. Allen Monday as he directed the city attorney Monday to "find a way" to vacate Carpenter and Horton streets, between Maplewood and Hill streets, and yet retain city ownership.

Neither of the two streets exist except as rights-of-way in this block where they open space several lots as open space-neighborhood park.

City Manager Frank Ollendorf, who has received permission from adjacent property owners to vacate the rights-of-way, recommended eliminating the street and alley rights-of-way to prevent the possibility of vehicular traffic eventually using them.

Ollendorf's proposal would leave an easement for pedestrian traffic, thus reserving walking and service access to the interior park area. The easement he has in mind would not permit in-

NEWS BRIEFS

NOISE was the only reported citizen complaint about the professional motorcycle races held at Northville Downs nearly two weeks ago. Most complaints, officials reported, came from citizens living several blocks from the Downs. No problems in crowd behavior, praised by Councilman Paul Vernon, were reported. Council ordered the city attorney to consider modification of the city's vehicular racing ordinance which permits four races a year.

OFFICERS of the Northville (city) Building Authority were re-elected at the authority's annual meeting last week. They are: Russell Amerman, chairman; Robert Freyd, treasurer; and Jack Hoffman, secretary.

A NON-PUBLIC hearing on legal sufficiency of annexation petitions involving the city and township of Northville will be held next week Wednesday morning in Lansing before the Michigan Boundary Commission. Purpose of the hearing is to formally review the validated petitions and examine the accompanying map of the area in question. Representatives of both the city and the township are expected to attend the June 14 hearing, at which time the public hearing on the annexation probably will be scheduled.

PURCHASE of two new replacement police department patrol cars from John Mach Ford, at a price of $3,510.27 each and a $525 trade-in, was approved by the city council at a special meeting last week. Mach was the lone bidder. Other dealers could not guarantee delivery prior to introduction of new models in the fall.

The first period runs from July 10 through July 21 with the second beginning July 24 through August 4.

Cost is $20 for district residents which includes all activities including food for the overnight and milk at each day's lunch. Campers will be expected to provide a sack lunch each day.

Also scheduled is a full program of swimming instruction offered at the Walled Lake Western Pool. The fee is $8 per child for a two week period covering everything from aqua-tots to lifesaving.

Other recreational activities are being offered throughout the district including baton and gymnastics. If you did not receive a blue brochure listing the various programs being offered, you may call the community education office at 624-0200 for further information.

Coming up... another production of the interlake Musicals.

"Ring Around the Moon," a three act comedy by Jean Anouilh will be presented Friday and Saturday, June 16 and 17 at Western's E.V. Ayres Auditorium. Curtain time is 8 p.m. Tickets will be available at the door for $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children under 14.

The annual school election for the Board of Education is this Monday, June 12. Polls open at 7 a.m.

County to Ask 26 Prizes Set for Parade

Wayne County's Board of Commissioners plan to ask the voters to renew a one-mill operating levy in the August 8 primary election and to approve a half-mill construction levy in the November final election.

The board voted to put the two property levies on the election ballots at its June 1 meeting.

The proposal on the August 8 ballot will seek to renew an expiring one-mill levy for another five years. One mill equals $1 per $1,000 of state equalized valuation, amounting to $5 per year on property worth $10,000.

Revenue from the levy totals about $12.5 million annually and helps finance operation of many county services, such as Wayne County General Hospital, the Child Development Center, courts, correctional facilities and parks.

"Renewal of this millage is the only way to avoid disastrous cutbacks in all county services," said Robert E. FitzPatrick, chairman of the Board of Commissioners.

He said a potential deficit of $12.5 million this year, and the Board of Commissioners already has imposed stringent measures on all county departments. Further cutbacks would impose hardships on many thousands of people when they need services most.

The one-mill was renewed once in 1968 and is due to be levied for the last time on December 1, 1973.

The half-mill levy (50 cents per $1,000 of equalized valuation) planned for the November ballot would be used for construction.

The Board of Commissioners did not accept a Ways and Means Committee recommendation that the levy be earmarked specifically for construction and staffing of correctional facilities and be continued for up to 25 years.

Duration of the levy and its specific purposes will be spelled out when the board adopts the actual ballot proposition prior to the November election.

Commissioners also approved, with minor reservations, the recommendations of a correctional needs study conducted by two consulting firms.

The study recommended construction of a new downtown jail to house 750 inmates by 1975 at a cost of some $21 million, and construction of additional jail facilities by 1980, bringing the total cost to about $40 million.

The Board of Commissioners has set a target date of next January 1 for the start of construction as a result of a Circuit Court order which virtually requires that new jail facilities be built.

At the June 1 meeting, the board also directed that bids be sought for the preparation of schematic drawings for the new downtown jail facility.

The board plans to use federal omnibus crime control funds to pay for the drawings.

Twenty-six prizes and trophies will be awarded in eight categories in the annual July 14th parade sponsored by the Northville Jaycees.

Three cash prizes will be awarded to the best musical units in the parade.

Theme of this eighth annual parade, according to Parade Chairman Sam Hall, will be "America's Leaders in Review."

The parade will be held Tuesday, July 18, beginning at 10 a.m. at the intersection of the 12 mile parade route will again start and finish at the same place.

Parade units will be judged in the following categories:

- Band, marching unit, musical group, float, antique automobile, equestrian and special unclassified judges awards. In addition, five ribbons will be awarded to the five best decorated bicycles participating in the parade.
- All parade units will be judged by a panel of community leaders, according to judging Chairman Pat Dustin.

Prefer Single Book

Residents served by Michigan Bell in communities covered by the West and Northwest area telephone directories have indicated they prefer a single telephone book for their combined area.

John Peard, local Michigan Bell manager, said the company's statistical research group mailed questionnaires to representative samples of both residential and business customers in the West and Northwest communities asking their directory preferences.

Wixom Policeman Honored

Officers from Milford, Wolverine Lake, Wixom, Novi, and Walled Lake were eligible for the honor. In seeking nominees Program Director Arthur Cronin approached the chiefs of police of the communities involved and received their nominations.

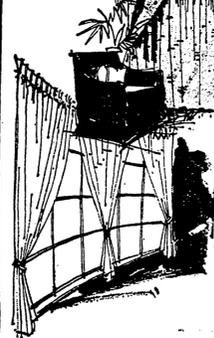

Other nominees for the award were Ralph Fluhart of Novi, Gerald Pastula of Wixom, Alfred Galloway of Wolverine Lake, Ralph Smith of Walled Lake, and Raymond Cinar of Milford.

Sprenger has served with the Wixom Police force for the past five years. After serving three years in the United States Navy Shore Patrol, he enrolled in the Oakland County Police Academy in November of 1967. Sprenger returned to school in 1970 where he completed a 240 hour Criminal Investigation Course in 1970.

A patrolman until January of this year, Sprenger was promoted to the rank of sergeant in the Wixom police department reorganization and assumed the newly-formed duties of investigator. Sprenger, 29, is a Wixom resident. He is married and has two children.

1. The proposal to require pre-payment of the total school tax would place a burden upon the taxpayers of the district, which is not proportionate to the suggested benefits. Several considerations are in order:
First: Taxpayers are already paying up to seven months in advance.
Second: I don't see how taxpayers will achieve any savings if they personally have to pay the interest instead of paying it through the school board.
Third: The information that a taxpayer should pay in advance in order that the District can invest and accrue that interest does not seem fair. There are already too many funds: pensions, social security, etc., where the individual loses out on the interest he could personally accrue to such investments.
2. The millage was defeated by a two to one margin. This is decisive. I appreciate the energy and efforts of many residents who have asked the community to reconsider their vote and we will have the response on June 12.
My own efforts will be directed towards the establishment of a budget which matches the community's will. If the school board wishes to keep faith with the community and the confidence that elections do mean something, it should set policies which are consistent with the will of the voters. In my opinion, you diminish the importance of the vote by continually re-scheduling elections until you get the results you want.
Bond issue: The bond issue will not result in the increase of the present tax rate. Voters should be aware that the defeat will be used as an argument to introduce compulsory year-round school, a plan which has been overwhelmingly rejected many times, in many ways.
3. The rejection of millage, implies the willingness to accept some inconvenience resulting from the necessary economy measures. One problem is the question of priorities. In the matter of priorities I will be guided by a survey which I am presently tabulating designed to obtain the voters' decisions and preferences in this sensitive area.
A detailed, line item review of the budget is also required, if sensible judgments are to be made. I do not have this detailed information, but it will be the first order of business for the new board member, since he has not had the volume of information available to incumbents.
4. Governor Milliken's tax reform plan will abolish property tax and substitute a flat rate income tax as a source of revenue for the schools. On balance, the flat rate income tax is a better index of the ability to pay than is the property tax. Consider the senior citizen who lives on a fixed income; the reform will be of great benefit to him. We all hope to be senior citizens—and so, one day, we will be able to experience the benefits of people who suffer a loss of income due to illness, unemployment, etc., which also benefit. Further, the inevitable inequity arising from unequal assessment of property values of various homes is, for the most part, averted. All reforms have disadvantages also, but the Governor's plan is more equitable than the existing property tax.

money and pay interest when funds are available at no additional cost to the taxpayer.
2. It is true that the property tax as a method of school funding is discriminatory because poorer districts with less property value will generate less tax than wealthy districts at equal tax rates. Governor Milliken's proposal to eliminate property taxes in favor of an increase in state income tax and a value added tax on business seems to me to be the best solution to date.
3. I believe an alternative to cross-district busing is a revision of school financing. Governor Milliken's proposed tax reform will equalize school districts financially resulting in equal educational opportunity. This will eliminate one of the major reasons for cross-district busing.
4. No.
I believe school funds are for building, equipping and operating the schools, not for building roads. Although I am 100-percent in favor of the road improvement program now planned for Novi, I am also 100-percent in favor of improvement of our school system and I do not believe tax dollars earmarked for schools should be used to improve roads. Not only is the school exempt from assessment by state law, but also tax dollars collected in the Novi School District would be used to benefit all Novi residents, some whose tax dollars are going to finance other school districts.

1. I wholeheartedly support collection of local property taxes in July. We currently collect property taxes in January which necessitates borrowing money to finance the first six months of the budget. The interest on the borrowed money this year was about $9,000 which is a cost item to our taxpayers. Most of this could be saved by July collections. I would be willing to have the Board of Education underwrite the city's additional cost of posting the tax rolls twice a year.
2. This is a complex question with many different proposals before the people of this state. We recognize and I support a need for more state funding of public education. Our Lady of Victory Catholic school, and nine honors awards were presented in graduation ceremonies June 1.
Sarah Kunst received the award for all-round excellence, and Patricia Suddendorf, the principal's award.

Janet L. Van Atta, granddaughter of Mrs. Fred E. Van Atta, former long-time resident of Northville, has received the certificate in data processing awarded by the Certification Council of the Data Processing Management Association.

Not only is the school exempt from assessment by state law, but also tax dollars collected in the Novi School District would be used to benefit all Novi residents, some whose tax dollars are going to finance other school districts.
3. Personally I'm opposed to cross-district busing, as I'm convinced by research, that the education of all youngsters will not be enhanced. I resent public education being used as a tool to solve our society's ills. This is a broadly based problem as it is an economic concern, not an educational or racial question. To solve the dilemma it would seem prudent to increase state funding of education in the more disadvantaged districts.
Also, communities in all major metropolitan regions should encourage even distribution of all levels of economic housing so as not to force the poor or upper income families to concentrate in give regions.
4. I feel we as a board should give some money for the improvement of Taft Road. I realize the school traffic is quite heavy on that road, but it is also heavy on some subdivision roads. If we start spending money in road repair, I'm afraid we will lose sight of what we are in business for—and that is to educate our children.
I appreciate this opportunity to express my views on a few issues. Keep in mind that questions 2 and 3 are out of the jurisdiction of the local board of education. If I'm re-elected it will be a great opportunity for me to serve our children in providing them with the best education that our tax dollars can provide.

road improvement program now planned for Novi, I am also 100-percent in favor of improvement of our school system and I do not believe tax dollars earmarked for schools should be used to improve roads. Not only is the school exempt from assessment by state law, but also tax dollars collected in the Novi School District would be used to benefit all Novi residents, some whose tax dollars are going to finance other school districts.
3. Personally I'm opposed to cross-district busing, as I'm convinced by research, that the education of all youngsters will not be enhanced. I resent public education being used as a tool to solve our society's ills. This is a broadly based problem as it is an economic concern, not an educational or racial question. To solve the dilemma it would seem prudent to increase state funding of education in the more disadvantaged districts.
Also, communities in all major metropolitan regions should encourage even distribution of all levels of economic housing so as not to force the poor or upper income families to concentrate in give regions.
4. I feel we as a board should give some money for the improvement of Taft Road. I realize the school traffic is quite heavy on that road, but it is also heavy on some subdivision roads. If we start spending money in road repair, I'm afraid we will lose sight of what we are in business for—and that is to educate our children.
I appreciate this opportunity to express my views on a few issues. Keep in mind that questions 2 and 3 are out of the jurisdiction of the local board of education. If I'm re-elected it will be a great opportunity for me to serve our children in providing them with the best education that our tax dollars can provide.

1. I wholeheartedly support collection of local property taxes in July. We currently collect property taxes in January which necessitates borrowing money to finance the first six months of the budget. The interest on the borrowed money this year was about $9,000 which is a cost item to our taxpayers. Most of this could be saved by July collections. I would be willing to have the Board of Education underwrite the city's additional cost of posting the tax rolls twice a year.

How to cool it when the heat's on.

Insulate Now!

Enjoy Added Heating Comfort and Savings Next Winter.

Not only does insulation keep cool air inside and warm air out for greater summertime comfort, but next winter it will do just as good a job keeping the cold out. Insulation will save you money, too... save on fuel costs in winter and save on air conditioning costs for summer cooling. Insulation makes good sense no matter how you heat your home.

When you get ready to insulate, call an experienced dealer that specializes in the installation of insulation. Or, check with your builder or builder supply store. Consumers Power Company neither sells nor installs insulation, but has long recommended it for greater comfort and economy.

Major sources of income for the general fund are $170,159 in state shared revenues and $16,500 in federal employment program.

Biggest outlay in the operation of the city goes to the police department where $302,000 in revenues will be directed, an increase of $120,000 over last fiscal year.

The police department receives approximately 45 percent of the total general fund budget.

Other proposed general expenditures for the city manager was $17,000.

Both Presnell and Berry stressed that their objections were in regard to the position itself and in no way involved the specific individuals.

Other members of the council supported leaving the manager's salary as originally proposed.

They are going to keep good personnel within the city and prevent other cities from banding our good employees away," said Councilman Louis Campbell "we're going to have to pay to stay."

Whereas Presnell and Berry proposed lowering the city manager's salary, the council is going to raise it to $25,410, up from $23,725; city hall and other buildings, $16,250, down from $27,966; department of public works-non-highway, $1,640, down from $42,660; fire department, $86,535, down from $93,630; and parks and recreation department, $9,500, up from $7,000.

The proposed rates were too low, they argued, to attract qualified personnel to the city to fulfill the rising demands in man-hours in the department.

Mayor Joseph Crup supported the pay hikes, but the remainder of the council remained firm on the figures as originally proposed, claiming the fringe benefits, such as a city car, sufficiently raised the base salaries.

Property taxes are expected to produce $94,400, up from $439,385 last year. In addition the city expects some $22,750 in revenue from township properties annexed to the city last week. Other

A DOLLAR'S WORTH—Reverend Guenther Branstner of Northville United Methodist Church poses with a display of staple foods at the church altar. The 300 pounds of food were borrowed last week from Kroger's to illustrate to his congregation how much a dollar "buys" for Bangladesh relief. He explains that the food sent is government surplus and shipping is subsidized. In the fund appeal the two weeks prior to his display, the Reverend Branstner says, $25 was collected. With the display, $120 was donated.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Next Monday a second attempt will be made to win voter support for operating millage and a bond issue for the Northville public school system.

Both proposals failed in April; both have been reduced in an effort to reverse the result, both are important to the present and future welfare of the local schools.

In these days of high property taxes, uncertainties involving education ranging from busing to tax reform coupled with normal taxpayer opposition to any tax hike a smart gambler would never risk any cash betting on the success of these requests at the polls.

But a concerned group of citizens and a conscientious board of education are hoping the odds-makers can be upset.

The stakes are important in Northville, or any community, where education plays such a vital role in the lives of both parent and youngster.

Last April the board asked for a 1.5 mill hike for one year to maintain school operations at their present level. The proposal was soundly defeated, 889-585.

In the minds of those closest to school affairs the defeat left little hope that a second attempt to win passage could succeed. So cuts, mostly in the area of extra-curricular activities, were proposed.

But a hastily-organized citizens' group collected more than 1,100 signatures on petitions calling for a request for a one-mill increase for one year for operating expenses.

Admittedly, they reasoned, this may not be enough to avoid some cuts, but hopefully the belt-tightening will not be so severe and will not eliminate one complete aspect of the school educational program, such as varsity athletics, debate, cheerleading, a sixth hour, etc.

The board has made no promises. Obviously, it must maintain the position that 1.5 mills are needed, otherwise it would have sought just one mill initially.

But one mill is better than none.

Undoubtedly, there are many reasons why voters denied the first request. Some simply cannot afford to pay more taxes. Others do not believe that the board needs more money to maintain the present level of school operation. Others are angry and concerned over recent court decisions involving busing between districts to achieve racial balance and they are demonstrating their protest at the polling place.

Yet, it is unrealistic to believe that a "NO" vote will serve to solve any of these objections.

Admittedly, the chief function of a school program is to educate; but anyone who would maintain that the candy-coating of extra-curricular activity isn't an important part of the learning medicine has forgotten his school days.

The pursuit of hobbies, the competition of debate and athletics, the feeling of participation create a spirit that inspires many youngsters to achieve in all areas of school life.

Without this spark interest and desire could be reduced or die entirely.

And who would want to predict that a community without a full program of extra-curricular activities in its school system would not have greater problems and expenses on its hands?

Or would one suggest that the board profits from seeking more tax dollars? Would any person sitting on a school board today want to propose a tax hike to his fellow citizens if he could avoid it?

But if he accepts his responsibility to provide the community with a quality educational program, can he do otherwise?

And, finally, what have we gained in the form of an "anti-busing protest" (if this is a reason for some of the "NO" votes) by diminishing the quality and endangering the welfare of our own local school district?

Perhaps, Northville school district voters will reverse themselves next Monday. Maybe their protest has been recorded and now they will provide what is needed to continue normal operations.

If so, it will be an upset victory, and one that will preserve an ingredient that has long made Northville the kind of town that so many people have chosen as "a good place to raise a family".

Proposition Two on next Monday's ballot will not increase taxes. It will permit the school board to sell bonds to obtain money for school renovation, elementary site acquisition and site options, architectural fees and various improvements to existing buildings.

Originally, the board had requested $1.45 million for its present and future building plans. This proposal came much closer to passing than the millage request, probably because it doesn't boost taxes.

Now the request has been reduced to $750,000. It still includes the purchase of one elementary site and the renovation of several buildings and facilities, but includes money for future site options rather than enough for acquisitions.

If we are to provide space for the growing school population, we must plan for the future. The money is needed; the growth is already on us. State-financed bonding permits such loans to be retired by maintaining the same millage now levied for building programs.

Thus Proposition Two will not add new taxes, yet it is essential for the board to obtain taxpayer support if a program to provide necessary classroom space for students is to be accomplished.

Vote "YES" on both Proposition No. 1 and No. 2.

Voters will also find a special "Proposal A" on Monday's ballot seeking a one mill limit to operate vocational-technical educational programs in the Wayne-Oakland-Monroe-Washtenaw counties' area.

Four vocational-technical training centers are proposed (one near Plymouth) to train junior and senior high school students in some 40 different occupations.

Unlike such programs now offered at the college level (Schoolcraft, for example) these centers would be strictly for high school youths, particularly those who do not seek further education after high school.

It is proposed to build and operate the facilities on a maximum one-mill levy in the four-county area.

It has been pointed out that the high school drop-out rate is increasing and that about 35 per cent of the youngsters in the Northville system who graduate do not seek further education. A voc-tech program could reduce the drop-out rate and provide youths with job skills.

Some 20 per cent of Northville's junior and seniors would be eligible for the vocational program while continuing to take basic subjects at the high school.

The program has the support of the Northville board of education and should also be given voter approval.

YES...

The old terminology of dating is definitely behind us. Very rarely does the male of our species find enough courage to pick up the phone, or more rare yet, to come face to face with a girl and ask the question, "Would you like to go out this week-end?"

It seems to be much more common these days to find a carload of girls and a carload of boys headed in the same direction. These segregated groups eventually end up at a party in someone's house or an open field whichever the case may be.

Eventually, couples finally begin to pair up and one is usually not driven home by the same party who picked them up.

Also—at least around our school—it seems the "going steady" fad has declined. Students seem to be more independent today and do not find the idea of going steady as appealing to them as the liberties of being unattached.

I enjoy being around many different people and feel much more comfortable around many people in an atmosphere where the stuffy "pleases and thank yous" of formal dates are absent.

However, it would be nice to just once have someone say to you, "Would you like to go out to dinner and then catch a flick?" and end up somewhere other than McDonald's and a living room with a color T.V.

NO...

Not only do I believe that dating is still in style, but I feel that this custom is necessary to future generations to come.

It is one of the best times of a young person's life. It gives a young man the opportunity to accompany someone he likes, to protect, and to show affection. It gives a young woman a chance to accept or decline, to be accompanied, to be protected, and to show affection in return.

There are so many places to go, and things to do available to today's young people. Most young men have good transportation at their fingertips. With all that there is to do, there is no reason why dating cannot be a modern, stimulating, and exciting experience.

People actually need dating. It provides the machinery for young men and women to be with each other—which eventually leads to a life-long companionship. Dating provides fun and it is a constructive channel for the emotions of young people.

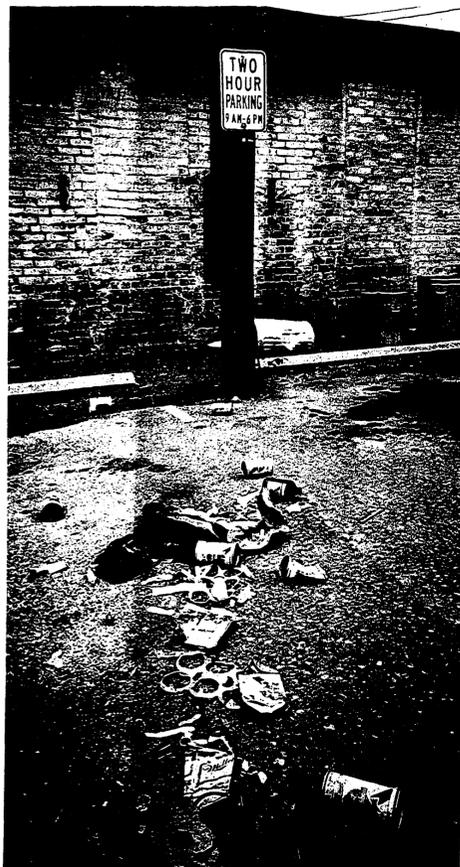

Dating can offer someone a challenge, laughter, heartbreak, and many pleasant memories. I really cannot believe that something that offers so much, can ever be called out of style.

Beautifying Northville

In Northville Robinson, Rinehart And Gucken

Four candidates seek two four-year terms and three seek a single two-year term on the Northville Board of Education in Monday's annual school election.

All seven are competent, in this newspaper's judgment, and are to be complimented for volunteering their services in the education of our children.

Nevertheless, three of the candidates, in our opinion, have the added credentials that set them apart from the others. Carrying our strong support are incumbents Dr. Orlo Robinson and Martin Rinehart, and Mrs. Sylvia Gucken. Robinson and Rinehart are running for four-year terms, Mrs. Gucken for the two-year term.

The two incumbents have impressed us with their performance, as they have others of the relatively few who regularly watch and listen as the board deliberates and reaches its decisions twice monthly.

They are intelligent, reasonable members whom we are proud to support. (Three propositions also will appear on Monday's ballot. See Speaking for Myself elsewhere on this page).

Of the two other four-year candidates we are impressed, too, with R. M. Lysinger, a relative newcomer to our community. He offers the kind of qualifications that would benefit any board of education. If we were not so convinced by the proven performance of the two incumbents, this newspaper would not hesitate in giving Lysinger its endorsement.

Mrs. Gucken, who did not receive this newspaper's support in her bid for election a year ago, impresses us because, unlike some candidates, she has shown a continual interest in the school system.

By frequently attending board meetings and by otherwise actively participating in school matters following her defeat a year ago, she demonstrates that her interest is not a transient one.

We hope all of the losers in Monday's election will follow Mrs. Gucken's lead by continuing their active interest in the school system and try again for election another year.

In Novi DeWaard, Pelchat

Novi school voters face, we believe, the fortunate dilemma of trying to pick the best two of four good candidates for the board of education.

Both incumbents have served admirably and the two challengers are well qualified. All of them share a common, involved interest in providing the best possible education for children.

Thus, we are convinced Novi residents will be well represented with the election of any one of the four candidates: James Assemany, William Moak, Mrs. Sharon Pelchat, or LaVerne DeWaard.

Although we have no strong preferences, nevertheless this newspaper favors the two incumbents because of their proven ability as

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) has done a lot of dumb things.

Like letting the Russians watch our rockets take off... and return home.

Or like planning to let our astronauts crawl around in space with a bunch of Communists.

But by far the dumbest of them all was to blast into space a picture of a naked man and a woman... and then telling us about it.

Not the run of the mill, mind you, but a gold-plated engraving showing all the accoutrements of two humans in the buff.

Well, not exactly all. The artist apparently ran out of courage when she got to the lower anatomy of the female.

NASA sent the pornographic plaque into space last February aboard Pioneer 10, the first of our spacecrafts that are to sail beyond our solar system and into the never-never land.

In fairness to NASA, it wasn't the space agency that dreamed up this dirty picture.

The blame rests with a covey of smart-alecky astronomers who figured such a plaque would tell something about earthlings to the freaks in space who might find it. Of course no one's likely to find it for awhile because the experts say it will be about 80,000 years, give or take a few centuries, before Pioneer 10 reaches the vicinity of the nearest star.

It wasn't enough that the astronauts didn't have the decency to put some clothes on their picture. They had to have the nude woman drawn shorter than the man; and they gave an Oriental face to the female and Negroid facial features for the male.

And to top it all off, they let the male wave his hand in sort of a Nazi-like salute.

To make matters worse some newspapers even published the picture, a few air-brushing out the more obscene parts.

Lots of good people naturally fired off letters to the newspapers and to NASA, angrily denouncing them for sending this filth into space. "It's bad enough that we've got to put up with it here on earth; why in the world must we force it on others?"

Female liberationists, however, were the loudest in their criticism. They found the picture "sexist," and they charged the government with being a purveyor of male chauvinism, mostly because the female in the picture was shorter and wasn't waving like the male.

It was racist, too, others charged. Blacks were mad because the nudes looked white, and whites were mad because they looked like blacks.

And that Nazi salute so infuriated one writer that he insisted another spacecraft be sent up to destroy the Porny Pioneer 10.

Like I said before: NASA has done some dumb things.

The dumbest was to tell humans about the picture. If it had kept its mouth shut, we'd all go to our graves long before the spacecraft reaches its destination, believing we were born with clothes on.

Gans Gets Doctorate

Marvin Gans, 40, Schoolcraft College director of athletics who has been on leave for the past year, was awarded his Ph.D. from the University of Utah Saturday during the university's 100th annual commencement.

While at Utah, Dr. Gans majored in health, physical education and recreation, with a minor in educational administration.

His doctoral thesis was titled, "Sequental Steps in Planning Facilities for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Athletics."

While at Utah, he maintained a 4.0 grade point average, serving as a member of the American Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation and as junior college physical education curriculum chairman.

Married with three children, Dr. Gans received his BA degree in 1955 from Hunter College in New York and his MA degree in 1956 from the University of Michigan. In 1964 he was awarded his Ed.S. degree from U-M.

Dr. Gans joined the Schoolcraft staff in 1964, the first year the college was opened for studies.

Commencement speaker Saturday was Esther Peterson, former Assistant Secretary of Labor. The June graduating class at the University of Utah numbered about 3,000. The University has an enrollment of 23,000 students.

Millage, YRS Discussed

To the Editor:

Free education. That's what's written in our constitution. But why, if people vote not to pay more money, do I lose going to one of my six classes next year? The sixth class is important to lots of students. If six classes are many other valid reasons for an early graduation.

The administration says if classes are cut, then requirements would be cut also, but that doesn't help the situation. A very large quantity of classes are offered at Northville, but what good is it if we don't get a chance to take as many classes as possible?

The upcoming millage election is important for the equal important sports program. I'm not debating whether the property tax is constitutional for paying for education. But it is unfortunate that some people, because it's the only tax which they are able to choose how much they pay or don't pay, vote "no" on every millage that comes up. And it's the student who doesn't have anything to say about it who gets hurt.

Time after time during recent years, the school board has asked the taxpayers to sacrifice and approve millage increases because they, the school administration, could not manage to live within the school system tax income.

The school millage has increased 44 percent during the past ten years and assessed valuations have increased tax levels even more. In our own case, the total tax increase has been 386 percent over the past ten years. Now the school board wants even more.

Only a few weeks ago the taxpayers overwhelmingly rejected a tax increase and in effect said, let's have a little equality of sacrifice. This year, we taxpayers have our incomes controlled by the government and so the school administration should also make their present income do the job. Get busy fellows, negotiate a little harder at the bargaining table, forget about the big increases for the administrators, cut down on administrative personnel, do the job within your present income like we taxpayers have to do.

As was expected the school administration recanted true to form by cutting the curriculum items, the extra-curricular activities, etc. At the same time, teachers are asking a 7% percent salary increase and coincidentally, the next bargaining session is set for June 14th, just two days after the millage election. This would indicate the millage is requested for salary increases, not for the welfare of the students.

I am again going to vote against the millage increase and I would suggest that those people who are not happy with the negative vote, direct their anger at the school administration for not doing a proper job of cost control.

The taxpayer is tired of doing all of the sacrificing. I am also going to vote to reject the bond issue. It would appear that the school administration is doing maintenance work on bond issues rather than out of general operating funds. In effect the school administration has taken another unvoted tax increase in this way. I feel that maintenance is normal operating expense and I want no part of approving payment of operating expense from a bond issue.

Donald C. Young Jr.

To the Editor: On June 12, Northville speaks! It tells us that its future depends on its young people! Will it tell us that Northville is judged by the kind of school system it helps develop? Will it realize that a reduced educational program is the first step toward community deterioration?

Having moved to Northville only three years ago, I will remember our first and immediate concern before we selected Northville as our place of residence. We asked, "How good are its schools?" Will we be able to give a positive answer to the same question when someone asks after June 12?

Will our property values be maintained because of our superior schools? Will Northville be progressive enough to take a careful look at its future and vote an additional one (1) mill for operating expenses for one (1) year? I know all of these are challenging questions - How about it Northville?

Otto C. Leu 18129 Pinebrook

To the Editor:

If you are tired of inflation, high taxes, corrupt politicians, and other similar nonsense, then busing and Year-Round School are simply the last straws that have frustrated the American voter. Busing is a final blow to the sanctity of the neighborhood school concept that we all hold to a high level of esteem. It is the ultimate insult to the intelligence of the average American citizen. Politicians have failed to give our children quality education, so rather than bearing their own burdens, they are forcing our children to bear the load of their mistakes.

Year-Round School Proposals in Northville are an indication that the voters are losing control of their local school system because these proposals have been rejected by a majority, but they continue to be included as a foot-in-the-door tactic used by school officials ignoring the wishes of the community.

We need to change our educational system to provide quality education for all children. Busing fails to provide the answer, because it is simply a politician's shuffle of the same old cards, and the sending of our children to the ghetto areas of Detroit fails to produce equal education. Manipulating days in the Year-Round Proposal fails to enrich the learning process because new teaching methods are not proposed, and the proposal does not include the proper design aimed at measuring the learning results achieved when compared with the more traditional approach.

Busing and Year-Round School Proposals are two examples of how self-seeking politicians are frustrating the desires of a majority of honest Americans seeking to work faithfully within our democratic political system. Dr. Larry VanderMolen, 18355 Jamestown

To the Editor:

Taxpayers of Northville! Are you tired of high property taxes to support our schools—and yet you want to be sure this community has good schools?

There is a simple solution to this dilemma!!! On Monday, June 12, members of the Northville Education Association will be near the polls with two petitions.

These petitions call for changes in the state constitution to guarantee property tax relief, and adequate money for good schools.

Both changes are needed to give you the property tax relief you want—and still maintain good schools. Remember—on Monday, June 12—sign two for tax reform.

Northville Softball

Top Squads Post Wins

Powerful. That's the word for the Northville Men's Softball League.

Last year's champion—Northville Lumber—established itself as one of the top squads in the Detroit area, but this season the Lumbermen have already lost one game and are only in second place in the league's tough American division.

Two challengers to the Lumber's supremacy have arisen. Don Thompson's Choo-Choo Car Wash squad is composed of some of the members of last year's Lumber team augmented by some standouts from Plymouth.

And from South Lyon comes Lipon's Sporting goods—a team that swept the chamionship in a strong Men's State League in Brighton last year and is looking for new worlds to conquer this summer.

All three teams—the Lumber, Choo-Choo Car Wash, and Lipon—were active last week and all three posted victories as the Car Washers maintained a half game lead over the other two in the league standings.

In the only other American division skirmish Exotic Plastic and Rubber topped B.C.A. Trucking 12-4.

Over in the National Division the Ford Valve Plant topped Novi's Village Oaks squad 14-11, John Mach Ford edged C.A.T. Diesel Power 6-5, and the Presbyterian Men's Club was swamped by both the Northville Newcomers 19-11 and the Northville Jaycees 18-4.

Choo-Choo Car Wash wasted no time whatsoever in demolishing Renwick, Grimes, and Adams Insurance, as they blasted out 14 hits and 12 runs in the opening frame and then coasted to an 18-3 triumph.

Brian Gillis got the Car Wash off to a good start by blasting Bob Wall's first pitch for a home run. Jerry Inslaid also collected a round tripper for the Car Wash, and Ken Kisbett and Joe Hay went three for three, collecting three and two doubles respectively.

Northville Lumber registered a decisive 19-4 triumph over the Plymouth State Home squad but the game was hardly a rout. The Lumber led 5-4 after three innings, but then broke loose for five runs in the fourth and three more in the fifth to pull away for the victory.

Stan Nirider and Steve Juday stroked doubles and the Lumber's big fourth inning, and Nirider also collected a second inning home run to claim batting honors for the Lumbermen with three hits in three trips to the plate. Jim Williams homered for the Home.

Lipon's was hard-pressed but managed to hang on to defeat Civitan-Castlerine 6-4. The South Lyon team got a triple, two singles, and two doubles in the first inning to score four times before the first out, but then saw lead disappear as Civitan-Castlerine scored three in the third and one more in the fifth on Norban's four-bagger to tie the score at 4-4.

Lipon's pushed across two runs in the bottom of the fifth to regain a 6-4 lead they never relinquished.

Ed Hook doubled twice in three trips to the plate to pace Lipon's, while Norban added a single for his home run to lead hitting honors for the losers.

B.C.A. Trucking hurler Joe Hawpher held Exotic Plastic and Rubber scores for the first three innings, but the P&R team erupted for 12 runs over the final three innings. Named to the Trainers 12-4, Brad Cole, Todd Hayes, and Scott Stuart hammered round trippers for Exotic Plastic and Rubber. Roger Atchinson had two doubles and a single in four trips to the bat for the B.C.A. squad.

In the National division games, the Northville Newcomers took over sole possession of first place by defeating the Northville Presbyterian Men's Club 19-11, while previously unbeaten Village Oaks dropped a 14-11 decision to the Ford Valve Plant.

The Newcomers broke open a 5-6 game with the Northville Presbyterian Men's Club with a 12-run fourth inning and then coasted to a 19-11 victory. Philippeau's four for four performance, including a Newcomer batter, Rick Curt homered for the Men's Club. Village Oaks scored in every inning, but it wasn't until the top of the fifth that a seventh inning rally to win 14-11. Higley and Gramlich stroked four-baggers for Village Oaks. Wolfstrom, Ken Deibel, and Philip each collected three hits for Ford Valve.

John Mach Ford finished his scoring by the fourth inning with a home run to top C.A.T. Diesel Power 6-5. John Mach's three hits in three trips topped the winners. Coe had three singles and a double for his part to pace the men from C.A.T.

It was home run derby for the Northville Jaycees in their 18-1 shelling of the Presbyterian Men's Thursday. Ron Heller, Paul Vandenberg, and Ron Reitenour each collected four-baggers, but Jim Belz and Rick Bonner each had a pair of circuit clouts.

STEVE BOSAK

BOB PISHA

Pisha, Bosak Gain All-SEC Honors

Bob Pisha was tabbed for first team honors and Steve Bosak was named to the second team as the Southeastern Conference All-Star baseball team was announced last week.

Pisha, a 6'3", 225 pound catcher, spearheaded the Novi High School offense this spring, clipping the ball at a .370 rate in conference games and at a .390 pace in the overall season.

With the naming of Pisha as All-SEC catcher, it marked the second consecutive year in which the all-league backstop has come from Novi. Last year Tom VanWagner topped the honors.

Named to the second team was Steve Bosak. A fleet, sure-handed centerfielder, Bosak shored up the Wildcat's balchashes and hit .359 in conference competition. He had a .383 average overall.

Both Pisha and Bosak are seniors.

Named to the honorable mention list was pitcher-outfielder John Pantalone. League champion Chelsea and runner-up Milan dominated the first team. The Bulldogs, who won the conference title with a sparkling 13-1 record, placed four men on the starting team, while runner-up Milan (9-5) had three players on first team.

In addition to Pisha, Dundee's hard-hitting outfielder Rick Deibel and South Lyon's singles-hitting centerfielder Chip Parham rounded out the first team selections.

The Chelsea players named to the first team were pitcher Wayne Welton (who was also the all-conference quarterback), first baseman Jeff Daniels, shortstop Randy Brier, and outfielder Kim VanSlambrouck.

The only sophomore to make the starting nine was Milan's third baseman, George Armstrong, who also capped the conference batting crown with a lacy .451 average.

Jaycees, Novi Inn Top

Novi Softball League

Novi's Jaycees and the Novi Inn remained in an undefeated lead for first place in the Novi Men's Softball League by virtue of victories in last week's games.

But Novi Heights, one of last week's co-leaders, dropped from both first place and the ranks of the undefeated as they were topped by Novi Inn in the first showdown clash of the season.

The Novi Heights-Novii Inn contest highlighted the week's action. Dick Penna was on the mound for the subdivision squad, while Butch Shoemaker received the starting nod for the Inn.

And for the first inning at any rate it seemed that the Heights team would win the important contest. Jim Pelkko and John Heinen stroked first inning singles and Bill Lassila doubled them both home to give the Heights a quick 2-0 lead.

Singles by Jim Kuptz and Bob Engel narrowed the gap to 2-1 in the Inn's half of the second, but Heights nine regained their two run advantage in the fourth as Lassila crossed the plate on Dan Fessler's two-base hit. Again the Inn cut the lead to one run with a tally in the fifth as Shoemaker singled in Ray Brooks, who had doubled and then in the bottom of the sixth the men from the bar broke the game wide open with a six-run outburst.

Big blow out rally was Tony Olivich's second round tripper of the year, which gave the Inn a 4-3 lead—his first lead of the game. The subdivision nine rallied for a single tally in the top of the seventh, but it wasn't enough, as the Inn took an 8-4 triumph in the first important game of the season.

The Jaycees joined the Inn in first place with an identical 3-0 record by stopping the Novi Inn 2-1-5.

The Jaycees got off to strong start by tallying four times in the first inning as Ray Icenog and Jerry Fortenberry stroked doubles and Doug Thrush and Jim Price belted triples. But when the first inning was over, it was the Police who held the lead, 5-4.

Singles by Brown, Corubb, Tobel, and Father Harding and a two-bagger off the bat of Ed Butler sparked the cops' first-inning blitzing of Jaycees ace Jim Price.

But the first inning rally was the only offense the police could muster as Price limited them to no runs and just four hits the rest of the way.

The Jaycees, meanwhile, were clubbing the cops consistently. By the time the game was over the Jaycees had stroked 26 hits and sent 21 runners across the plate. Fortenberry and Chuck Gramlich paced the winners with four hits in five at bats and Gramlich collected his first four-bagger of the season.

In the only other game of the week the M.O. Air Filters tendered the Northville Burger Chef squad 30-2.

If the burger-men were discouraged by the fact the Filters scored five runs in the first and six runs in both the second and third, they were thrown into deep despair by a ten-run fifth-inning Filter outburst.

Finally, in the top of the seventh the Burger Chef squad broke into the scoring column with a pair of runs, but by that time the Filters had 30 and the game ended 30-2.

Denny Skvrace's two hits in three at bats paced the losers, while the Filters were paced by Big Ted Battistone and Ron Balogh. Battistone went five for five and socked his third home run of the season to tie the Jaycees' Doug Thrush for the league leadership, while Balogh collected three hits in three at bats—two of his three safeties being home runs.

By Bob Moore
Rowing is a sport for people of all ages and all conditions. As a matter of fact, rowing was first a necessity with ancestors who could not depend on power vehicles. But rowing as a sport has a long history. The earliest established sculling race first took place in England. In 1716, as today, competitors raced from London Bridge to Chelsea. The Doggett's Cut and Budge is the name of the race and it is an event in the lives of those who live near the river.
Did you know that our men's SUZUKI motorcycles at MOORE'S MOTOR SPORT INC. 21091 Pontiac Trail, So. Lyon, 437-2888, carries a 12 month-12,000 mile warranty? We don't forget you after the sale. Mustangs Nearly Blow District Title - Again

Deja-vu. That feeling you've been there before. Northville baseball coach Chuck Shonta had it Saturday and who could blame him?

It was exactly one year ago that Shonta and his Northville Mustang baseball team breezed into the seventh inning of their district championship game with Chelsea on the bright side of a 5-1 score only to see the Bulldogs score four times on a succession of walks and errors to send the game into extra innings.

Two frames later, the Northville hurler was struck by another spell of wildness, loaded the bases on walks, and then grooved a pitch that was promptly belted over the fence to give Chelsea the victory the Mustangs three innings earlier seemed to have in the bag.

Saturday's events were almost identical.

Fifth inning, Northville leads 6-4. And Scott Evans is sailing along on one-litter. But then the same wildness set in. In the errors followed. And suddenly the game was tied 6-6.

"Sure I was thinking of last year," Shonta admitted in the dressing room after the game. "Who wouldn't be? All I could think of was here we go again."

But this time the game had a happy ending. And credit for that ending is directly attributable to Jeff Moon and Dale Griffith.

It was Griffith who led off the sixth inning immediately after the South Lyon had tied the score and the finest centerfielder promptly socked a high fast ball some 375 feet over the fence in centerfield to give the Mustangs a 7-6 lead and silence the previously jubilant South Lyon bench.

And it was Moon who scored the third out in the almost-disastrous fifth inning by striking out Joe Stephens with the bases loaded and then proceeded to hold the Lion bats quiet over the next two innings to preserve the victory.

The triumph gave Northville the district championship and the right to proceed to the regional tournament Saturday at Ypsilanti High School.

The Mustangs are now one of just 16 teams left in the state Class B Tournament and, should they make it through the regionals, they will be one of four teams who will meet at Wyoming High School June 17 to battle it out for the state crown.

Sharing the hero's role with Moon and Griffith in the Mustangs district championship was Randy Oginski, the sophomore sensation who was brought up from the junior varsity three weeks ago only to become the leading Northville hitter.

Oginski was hitting a paltry .227 with the jayvees, but he has absolutely thrived on varsity pitching, clipping the ball at close to a .450 pace.

The Mustangs earned the right to meet South Lyon for the district championship by taking a 6-1 decision from Stockbridge in the morning and without a doubt the hero of that game was Oginski.

Jack Armstrong and Frank Merrivell combined couldn't have done better.

Clyde Whitaker, the Stockbridge pitcher, had retired the Mustangs in the first two innings when Oginski came to the plate to lead off the third. And Oginski promptly put an end to both Whitaker's no-hitter and shutout as he unbound and clubbed the ball over the fence at the 303 marker for a round tripper.

And that's not all. John Sherman and Steve Sarkeian opened the fourth inning with singles and Oginski then brought them both across the plate by hammering his second consecutive home run in almost the identical spot.

All in all Oginski accounted for four of the Mustangs' six runs.

Northville went into the district tournament expecting its toughest challenge to come from Stockbridge in the 10 a.m. first game, but it just didn't work that way.

While Oginski was providing all the offense that was needed, Jeff Moon was hurling one of his finest games of the season. The big left-hander scattered six hits, registered 11 strikeouts and was never in trouble.

The championship game figured to be a breather. South Lyon, a team that won just four games all year long and finished dead last in the Southeastern Conference, was paired against Ypsilanti Lincoln, the team that finished seventh in the SEC with winner slated to provide the victim for Northville's championship. The Lions earned that dubious privilege by beating Lincoln 6-5 in spite of six errors and nine strikeouts.

Once the championship game got underway, it seemed the predictions of an easy victory were accurate.

for the school site would have to come out of the general fund, Spear said, "unless we can negotiate an agreement to extend the July 1 deadline."

Other funds in the bond issue are earmarked for renovations of existing facilities at all six school buildings in the district, options on future school sites and preliminary steps in the bid before bond proceeds would be used to finance and construct new elementary, middle and high schools.

During the first three years, funds raised by the mill would be used for simultaneous construction of the centers and afterward to operate the centers.

Approximately 20 percent of the juniors and seniors enrolled in Northville High would be eligible to attend the area centers.

School board members unanimously supported the millage request at their May 22 meeting.

Continue Study Of Fire Service

"We haven't reached any decisions yet...we're still gathering information," according to Trustee Richard Mitchell, chairman of the township board's special fire department study committee.

Mitchell indicated Saturday it will be "quite some time" before the committee's study is completed and its recommendation is made to the township board.

Members were to interview a spokesman for the Michigan Department of Natural Resources, the Oak Park public safety department, a former Plymouth Township fire chief, and the Northville fire chief and city manager.

The committee to date has met with spokesmen for the Michigan Department of Natural Resources, the fire division of the Michigan Department of Natural Resources, the Oak Park public safety department, a former Plymouth Township fire chief, and the Northville fire chief and city manager.

"It takes a minimum of two years to build an elementary school, three years for a middle school and four years for a high school," he explained.

Spear said he "favors support of both local issues, even though it forces the school board to proceed one year at a time with future planning of the district. That is not desirable but it is understandable considering "Blockbusters," Gerald Green. One by one, tenants of a rent controlled walkup in Manhattan's Upper West Side, learn the meaning of fear and helplessness when their home is to be replaced by a luxury high-rise.

"A Portion for Foxes," John McIvaine McClury. Novel takes place in the fox-hunting country of Virginia in the 1960's when the old and in some ways still lovely aristocratic traditions of the past were beginning to show a seismic side.

"The Blue Knight," Joseph Wambaugh. Filled with explosive drama and authenticity that propelled "The New Centurions" to national acclaim, this is a story of many kinds of love, the abiding of it and the consequences.

Readers in Northville will now have access to the monthly magazine "Rosicrucian Digest."

Mrs. Betty Kupske of 318 Yerkes Avenue, a local member of the Rosicrucian Order (AMORC), has received notification from the Grand Lodge in San Jose, California, that the magazine will be available each month in the library.

without the millage we cannot offer all existing opportunities and cover the expansion of student enrollment, staff and wage increases in accord with set guidelines."

If the millage question passes, Spear said he favors retaining the six-hour day at the high school and extra-curricular activities.

Although extra-curricular activities will cost more than the $90,000 one mill will raise, the superintendent said the "athletic department is reviewing its budget and it can operate on less funds than it currently does."

He noted that "We can't do for one mill what we said we'd do for 1.5 mills, but the six-hour day and extra-curricular activities are top on the list of priorities."

Two key items included in the $750,000 bond issue are corrections in the welding facilities at the high school and payment of $45,000 for the 10-acre school site at Highland Lakes.

Spear said that if the bond issue is defeated, "the welding program will be seriously threatened. If we cannot add to the existing shop to correct the problem of inadequate air for welding, the health department has said we cannot continue the program next year."

With no local proposition appearing on Monday's ballot (last year a 5-mill proposal appeared), officials are not looking for a heavy turnout. Nevertheless, with an increasing number of registered voters on the rolls because of new housing developments in the community, the turnout could top last year's vote total.

Not all voters in the City of Novi will be voting in the Novi school election since the city is composed of several school districts. Those living in the southern section of the city will be voting in the Northville election (see story on Page 5-A) and those in the northern sections will be voting in the Walled Lake election (see story elsewhere on this page).

All electors in the Novi School District will cast their votes at the Novi Community Center.

Students Get Closeup of Nature

During this spring season hundreds of area students and adults were treated to guided tours at Kensington Metropolitan Park near New Hudson.

General theme for the guided walks, which concluded last week, was "Nature's Response to the Spring Season."

Although the spring guided tours and instructional sessions have ended, the park's large Nature Center and its nature trails remain open for those who may want to enjoy a unique experience within the metropolitan area.

As the guided tours ended, spring's freshness was rapidly turning into an explosion of color and mature growth.

At left students begin a tour along one of the park's nature trails. Miss Patricia Eising, supervising naturalist at Kensington, gives students some background information about the growth found in the park. (center left); while some geese enjoy a lazy swim, a mother tries to coax her three youngsters to the water; and below students take notes on what they find along the trails.

Michigan Fun

Pageants, Fairs Slated in June

Everything's coming up "spring" in Michigan—in June, according to the Michigan Tourist Council.

Art fairs, flower festivals, fishing contests and boat races dominate the month's 30 days. Extra special events for the month include the Bavarian Festival at Frankenmuth, the Muzzle Loaders Festival, Greenfield Village, Dearborn; the Miss Michigan Pageant, Muskegon and the Gold Cup Race at Detroit.

In the art department, Flushing will hold their Art Fair on June 3 and Grand Haven's downtown sidewalks will be adorned with chalk art for their Side Walk Art Contest. Kalamazoo and Augusta hold Art Fairs on June 10 followed by Milan's Arts and Crafts Fair June 11. An Outdoor Art Exhibit will be held in Irving Park, Battle Creek, June 17 and the YWCA Art and Craft Festival days are 24 and 25 and the Artraine pulls into Lapeer on June 25. Races will reign supreme June 12-18 at the Jackson Country Rose Festival, Jackson and again June 17 and 18 at the Rose Society Show, Westmain Mall, Kalamazoo. While Kalamazoo shows off their prize roses, Mackinac Islanders will be holding their Lilac Festival. Not showing favoritism of any kind, South Haven holds their Spring Garden Show June 24, with entries open to all varieties.

Visitors to Frankenmuth's Bavarian Festival, June 11-17, will enjoy a variety of daily activities plus special events scheduling during the week long celebration. Following the opening parade on Sunday, June 11, the center of activity will be Heritage Park. For flavor there will be bratwurst and sauerkraut and polka bands to keep things on a lively note.

The flash of muskets, the roar of cannon and Gatling gun intermingled with stirring tunes of the fife and drum bring back American frontier days at the Muzzle Loaders Festival, Greenfield Village, Dearborn, June 17-18. Hundreds of colorful costumes, frontier scouts and Civil War soldiers add authenticity to this impressive, and popular, annual event.

There's more to beauty than just a pretty face as the 35 contestants for the title of Miss Michigan will verify. The four day pageant will be climaxed on Saturday June 24, at 8 p.m. in the L. C. Walker Arena, Muskegon. The winner will then go to Atlantic City to vie for the glamorous title of Miss America.

Competition of a different sort, for an equally coveted trophy, takes place Sunday, June 25 at the running of the Gold Cup Race for unlimited hydroplanes on the Detroit River. These are the world's fastest propeller-driven powerboats. The race attracts boats, drivers and owners from all over the United States and thrilling is the byword.

Other events scheduled between June 1 and 15 include a Fishing Derby at South Haven; Michigan State Speed Championship Roller Skating at Midland; Flea Market and Antique Sale at Wyandotte; Grand National ATV Racing Championships, Marquette; and the Great Muskegon River Canoe Race from Ewart to Big Rapids. Saginaw will host the Antique Auto Festival and there will be an Antique Auto Tour from Grand Rapids to Kalamazoo. Battle Creek will hold a Little Folks Fair and the Tawas River Canoe Race will be held at East Tawas.

During the last half of the month, Rockford holds their Start of Summer Celebration and it will be Red Cedar Jubilee time at Williamston. The 5th Annual Invitational Women's Track and Field meet will be held in Midland June 17. This is an AAU sanctioned track meet for girls and women and one of the largest outdoor meets of its kind.

Father's Day events feature a Fishing Derby at Bergland and Boat Drag Races at Ypsilanti, followed closely by the Michigan Amateur Golf Tournament at Charlevoix June 20-24.

Winding up the month will be the International Festival at Pontiac featuring ethnic gifts, food, entertainment and craft demonstrations; the Memorial Race from East Tawas to Port Huron and back; National Amateur Archery Championships at Grayling and the Seaway Festival at Muskegon.

It's a full month of fun for the whole family in all directions. For a free listing of dates and events scheduled for June through October, 1972, write for a copy of the Michigan Calendar of Travel Events available from the Michigan Tourist Council, Lansing, 48925.

HOW IMPORTANT IS AGRICULTURE IN MICHIGAN?

Did you know how important agriculture is in Michigan? To you and as a food shopper? Agriculture is the second largest source of income in Michigan, which ranked 5th or higher among the states in production of 19 foods in 1971: 27% over one quarter of all Michigan citizens derive some part of their income from agriculture. Yes, only one out of a hundred Michigan citizens operates a farm, while each one provides enough food for 45 people.

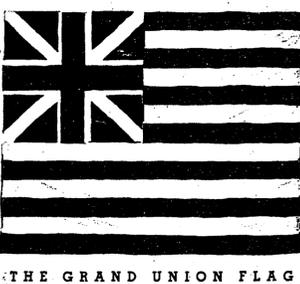

For years Michigan has been known for its shiny, red apples, and you'd have quite a job of polishing the apple if you tackled the whole 1971 Michigan crop of 70 million pounds. We rank 1st totally in Jonathan and Spies and in total processing. We are also 3rd on the list in the production of carrots and celery and yield, color and uniformity are improving every year.

So, have fun selecting your own Michigan menus from Michigan's abundant agricultural harvest. The suggestions given are only the beginning—almost all the foods you eat are or could be—grown in Michigan!

Old Symbols Wave in Flag Of United States

THE GRAND UNION FLAG

FIRST STARS AND STRIPES

FIFTEEN STARS AND STRIPES

Symbols represented in the American flag, which next week is spotlighted on a day of national observance, are not, as many believe, originations of this nation. Like so many of the symbols of mankind, they may be literally as old as the Egyptian pyramids.

The star: a symbol of the heavens and the divine goal to which man has aspired from time immemorial.

The stripe: symbolic of the rays of light emanating from the sun.

Both may have their origin in the banners of the astral worshippers of ancient Egypt and Babylon, according to historical research.

What's more they were subsequently represented on the standards of numerous other nations of the world long before their adoption in this country 200 years ago.

And even today they are represented on the flags of several other nations of Europe, Asia, and the Americas.

Earliest settlers of this country preferred other kinds of symbols for their flags which they felt better represented the struggles in the wilderness of a new land.

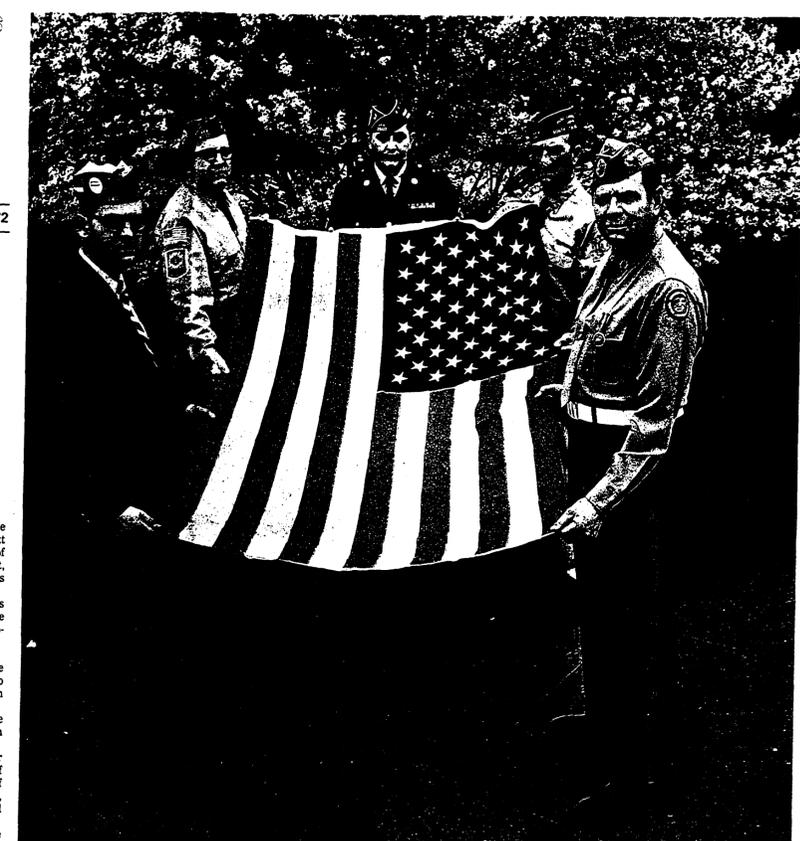

That's why beavers, pine trees, rattlesnakes, anchors, and various like insignia with mottoes such as "Hope," "Liberty," "Appeal to Heaven," or "Don't Tread on Me" showed up on the different banners of Colonial America.

First colonial flag to have any resemblance to the present Stars and Stripes was the Grand Union flag, sometimes referred to as the "Congress Colors."

It consisted of 13 stripes, alternately red and white, representing the 13 colonies, with a blue field in the upper left hand corner bearing the crosses of St. George and St. Andrew, signifying union with the mother country.

This flag was first flown by the ships of the colonial fleet in the Delaware River in December, 1776. It became the standard of the Continental Army a month later, and of the Marines and the American Bluejackets that same year.

Many Americans still believe that Betsy Ross made the first flag, although historians dispute this story. Another disputed story is that the first Stars and Stripes displayed in the face of an armed enemy was at Fort Mifflin on August 3, 1777.

June 14: Salute to Stars and Stripes

OLD FRIEND—When local area servicemen speak of their "dearest, oldest friend," they're talking about the banner that waves from porches, buildings, ships and wherever this nation is represented. Preparing for observance of Flag Day next week Wednesday (June 14) representatives of area service organizations gathered at Kensington Metropolitan Park recently. Shown here (left to right) are N. J. Schollett of Novi, commander of the American Legion, Lloyd H. Green Post 147; Jerry Rotta of Northville, commander of VFW Post 4012; James Ball of South Lyon, senior vice-commander elect of VFW Post 2502; Commander Ed Spill of South Lyon; and Herman Runkis of Brighton, State Marine Corps Commandant and chairman of the Michigan Board of Commandants.

Taps of Civil War Era

Scribbled Notes 110 Years Old

When the Civil War general scribbled a few notes on an envelope, he had little idea that the music he had written would live so long or choke tears from so many generations of people. But that's exactly what General Daniel Butterfield did that July morning, 110 years ago. And the irony of it all is that Butterfield wasn't trying to create a moving score but rather simply trying to find a substitute alert to tell troops to snuff out the lights and hit the sack. What he produced was a thing eventually called "Taps." It was intended to substitute for the then existing final call of the day, titled "Extinguish Lights," which Butterfield found too formal. Taps was first played by Private Oliver Norton, brigade bugler for the 83rd Pennsylvania Infantry. Though unpublished, the music spread rapidly to other union posts, and soon it was adopted in the camps of both the union and confederate armies. And after the war it is said to have had a healing affect on the split still existing between the two armies. It reportedly brought tears to the eyes of veterans of both forces during memorial services years later at Gettysburg, where a soldier played it spontaneously on Little Round Top to quell animosities that

Bulletin Offers Help

Bugged by Pests?

Each spring homeowners are "bugged" by insects pests attacking trees and shrubs. Controlling these pests often becomes a baffling task for the amateur gardener.

According to entomologists at Michigan State University, effective pest control is based on proper application of the appropriate chemical at the correct time. Although no chemical will adequately control all pests, a combination of several applied periodically can provide an all-purpose spray and relieve some of the homeowner's headaches.

A mixture of sevin, malathion, and kelthane, applied on a regular schedule and in accordance with the label directions, provides general plant protection. However, warn the specialists, all-purpose sprays are generally more expensive and will not control all insects. Certain pests will require special treatment.

For information on specific chemicals and their rates of application, see your local county extension agent or write to the Bulletin Office, Michigan State University, P.O. Box 231, East Lansing, Mich. 48823. Ask for EB-534, "Controlling Pests of Trees and Shrubs."

Benefits Of Trees Explained

The trees which grow around America's homes contribute to our survival in a number of different and unexpected ways, according to the American Association of Nurserymen. Some of these are described in a popular pamphlet produced by the AAN entitled "It Depends On You" — a handbook for individual action in the environmental crisis.

Members of the American Association of Nurserymen point out that the selection and placement of trees for today's homes requires forethought and information about the various trees available. Most modern homes are served best by medium sized trees with a maximum height of 30 to 40 feet at maturity and a total spread of about the same dimensions. If a tree is placed properly in the yard, and separated from the house by a distance equal to half its spread, it will cast shade on part of the roof and sides of the house either in the morning or afternoon.

To provide the best shade and cooling effect, the placement of the trees should be in relation to the east-west path of the sun, and its position in relation to the house itself will be determined by the direction the house faces and the rooms to be shaded. The best source of information and guidance is your local landscape nursery or garden center.

Trees, which provide cooling shade during hot summer months and shed their leaves to let warm sunlight through in winter, also serve as Nature's most effective dust traps and sound barriers, the nursery expert says. Twelve million tons of particulate matter (the dirt in the air we breathe) are released into the atmosphere of the United States every year... and trees, shrubs, vines and flowers act as natural traps for this airborne matter.

The hairy leaf surfaces catch falling particles and keep a steady rain of dust and dirt from saturating the air with solid pollutants. In fact, trees are such effective dust trappers that the city of Los Angeles washes its trees periodically with a detergent solution.

Trees play an important role in reducing the noise pollution around us, too. Heavy street traffic registers a noise level of 70 decibels. Proper landscaping with the use of trees can reduce that noise about 60 percent according to a University of Nebraska study—to cut the sound of a heavily-traveled highway running past a home to the level of a suburban street in the quiet of evening.

Aside from the shade they offer, trees contribute another cooling effect through their evaporative processes. The evaporation from a single properly-watered tree produces an estimated cooling effect of more than a million BTUs—equal to 10 room sized air conditioners operating 20 hours a day.

The environmental handbook, "It Depends On You" is available free at many nursery garden centers, or may be obtained by sending 50 cents to the American Association of Nurserymen, 230 Southern Building, Washington, D.C. 20005.

Commission Gets Award

The National Society of Professional Engineers has chosen the Oakland County Road Commission to receive the 1972 Government Professional Development Award.

The award was presented to Paul McGovern, chairman of the Oakland County Road Commission, at an award luncheon held at Boyne Highlands, May 18.

The award is presented each year to the government agency in Michigan that has contributed most to the advancement of engineering employment practices. The award presentation reflects the National Society of Professional Engineers' desire to publicly recognize and honor the government agency most progressive in implementing professional employment policies for engineers.

from the Pastor's Study Soaring Like An Eagle

PSALM 103 Bless the Lord, O my soul: And all that is within me, bless his holy name.

Soar like an eagle! Who can soar like an eagle? The true child of God can! For he has been born again to a "lively hope" through the Gospel of God.

It's pretty evident that we have topped the little red schoolhouse. Ideas we had about economics, science, race and education (ideal), have come and gone. New ideas are broaching the surface of life and thundering over us.

But one idea remains steadfast. It is the idea that God loves man and man, and that He cares about what happens to our lives.

Are shouting television newscasts and bold headlines overwhelming you? Then you need an open mind and a steady faith. God's love is for you. Your church where you find out about it. Try it next Sunday. It will help you grasp an old idea, even if it is a new one for you.

Representative Seeks Re-election

House Republican Leader Clifford H. Smart (R-Walled Lake) has announced he will be a candidate for re-election to the Michigan House of Representatives from the 24th District.

"Because of the many serious problems in education, including the financing of educational operations, and because I believe this issue will be of prime importance during the coming session, I have made my decision to seek re-election.

Smart is completing his fourth two-year term in the legislature, and his first term as Republican Leader in the House. The recognized educational expert in the House of Representatives, Representative Smart served as Chairman of the House Education Committee during the 1967-68 session, and currently is the Republican Vice-Chairman of the Education Committee.

At the same time, Smart indicated his willingness to be a candidate for re-election as Republican Leader. "This caucus is working together as a unit in the best interests of the general public better than I have ever seen it work in the past eight years I have been in the legislature. As a minority voice, we have attempted and I believe have succeeded in insuring that good legislation, is a proper function of the minority. "I also believe we have demonstrated good faith with the public in our efforts by pointing out the failings of this legislature. We firmly believe that we can return reason and decorum to the legislative operation, and feel that we have earned the right to be given the opportunity by the voters in 1972 to gain control of the Michigan House of Representatives.
