Army Corps of Engineers studies black spruce bog

By DAVID RAY

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers is expected to announce July 1 whether it will assume jurisdiction over the controversial black spruce bog located at West Maple and Haggerty roads in Commerce Township.

Stephen Rosman, chairperson of the Citizens in Opposition to M-275, which worked with EMEAC against the freeway project, and now a candidate for the Democratic nomination for state representative in the 24th District, also told The News that he had asked the corps what, if any, jurisdiction it had over the bog in a March 27 letter.

Residents to petition to repeal EDC law

Construction worker Kim Camack at Central High

A petition drive aimed at the repeal of a recently enacted Walled Lake ordinance that created an economic development corporation (EDC) will be launched by the end of this week, according to a city resident.

Mrs. Hamilton said that, while there recall drive against council members who favored the EDC, a final decision is "still up in the air."

Under the City Charter, the signatures of not less than 25 percent of Walled Lake's registered voters as of the last city election must be obtained on the documents "within 21 days before the date of filing the petition with the clerk."

Meanwhile, the council also "acknowledged, but declined" an offer of a $50,000 gift to the city from Stuart Frankel, a partner in the Walled Lake Commons which plans to build a 100,000-square-foot Kmart shopping center at West Maple and Pontiac Trail.

Frankel brought the EDC concept to the attention of the council in May, and has indicated that his firm will apply for income tax-exempt revenue bonds to finance the shopping center.

For new building Ex-Cell-O eyes tax break

The Ex-Cell-O Corporation has asked the Walled Lake City Council to create an industrial development district so the company may apply for a 50-percent reduction in property taxes on a proposed $3-million administration building.

Thomas J. Stuart, assistant corporate controller of Troy-based Ex-Cell-O and the McCord Corporation, said the firm's first choice for the headquarters facility will be in Troy.

Stuart and Bays said that the exemption certificate provision, which was included in the 1974 state Plant Rehabilitation and Industrial Development Districts Act, was intended to stimulate economic development and provide a more favorable business climate to keep Michigan corporations from moving to other states, especially those in the Sun Belt.

Work on Central addition continues after delay. A two-week walkout by pipefitters and a continuing strike by sheet metal workers may have delayed completion of the Walled Lake Central High School renovation and addition project up to a month, according to Walled Lake Deputy Superintendent Roland J. Langerman. The entire renovation and the new addition, which is funded under a $3.9-million federal public works grant, was scheduled to be completed by next spring. The Industrial Arts wing was to be completed by July 19, but Langerman said that could possibly be delayed an extra 30 days by the strikes.

Local police wrestle with new fireworks law

By KEVIN ALLEN

The Michigan State Police may have their hands tied by the controversy surrounding Governor William Milliken's ban on fireworks, but local police agencies say for the most part they are following the governor's directive.

Spokespersons for the Walled Lake, Novi and Wixom police departments said officers are enforcing the Milliken ban as well as local ordinances regarding the sale and possession of fireworks.

The ban imposed by Milliken makes it illegal to sell or possess firecrackers designed to produce audible effects, which have a pyrotechnic composition exceeding 50 milligrams. Also banned are visual effect fireworks which exceed the 50 milligram pyrotechnic composition set by state statute.

Roman candles, sky rockets, bottle rockets and rockets with sticks are also illegal.

In general, any firework that bears the label "Class C" on the package is forbidden under the Milliken dictate. The only permissible fireworks are lady fingers, cone fountains, sparklers and some firecrackers which are not more than one and one-half inches long.

Actually, fireworks which exceed the .772 grains pyrotechnic cutoff amount have always been illegal in Michigan due to federal statute. However, since state law is not in conformity with federal regulations on fireworks, the state enforcement, it was ruled by the courts, did not have the authority to block the sale of fireworks.

The precedent was set in May of 1976 when U.S. Judge Wendell Mills ruled in favor of North Central Distributing Incorporation in its suit against the Michigan State Police. In awarding a decision to the fireworks wholesaler, Mills issued a permanent injunction against the state police, forbidding the agency from enforcing state firework laws when the pyrotechnic composition was less than two grains.

"It is really up in the air," said Novi Chief of Detectives Dick Faulkner. "We have, however, talked to the prosecutor's office and it has indicated to us to enforce the law as it is written."

Faulkner said Novi did have some businesses selling the illegal fireworks, but a tour of the community by police officers received "100 percent cooperation" in banning sales.

Faulkner said possession charges were being dealt with on an individual basis, depending on the nature of the offense.

"If an officer is driving down the street and sees some kids playing with firecrackers, he might just confiscate them and give the kids a warning, but if

Standard presents plan

Commercer triggers alarm

The Standard Industries and Haggerty Investment Companies have revised their plans for development of some 486 acres bounded by West Maple, Haggerty and 14 Mile roads in Commerce Township.

According to Daniel Lublin, president of the Detroit-based Standard Industries, the proposal now calls for 127 acres of single family residential zoning for a total of some 660 units; 147 acres of multiple residential, including 105 acres of preserved land surrounding a controversial black spruce bog that would be used for density only, leaving about 42 acres for the construction of approximately 1,000-1,500 apartment units in a five- or six-story seniors complex; 105 acres of multiple residential for the construction of some 850 apartment units; 40 acres each for light industrial and single family residential, although the residential will not be developed in the near future; some 10 acres at the corner of Haggerty

Corps studies wetland

A decision on whether to assume jurisdiction of the area under the Army regulations will be made by district engineer Colonel Melvin Remus.

The Haggerty Investment Company, owner of most of the bog area, and other property owners were to have been advised of the corps' decision "a day or two before the announcement," the spokesperson said.

In a May 25 letter to Rosman, Remus said "a preliminary determination has been made" that the bog wetland area was above the headwaters of the Rouge River, which is subject to the cubic flow requirement, and added, "Therefore, filling activities in this area would be permitted under the nationwide permit" as outlined in the regulations.

Remus said he directed his staff to "begin the wetland study to provide a recommendation so that I may make such a decision (on the need for a nationwide permit), if appropriate."

Wixomites seek input on complex

Wixom residents will have a voice in the development of almost 400 acres of land west of the downtown area on Pontiac Trail, according to developer Paul Holt.

Holt, of Holt Construction and Development, represents a "joint venture" group that purchased the land about 10 years ago. The group now wants to develop the land, but would like input from the citizens as to what should be built there.

"Ideally, we'd like to have a nice, club recreational facilities," said Holt, "but we thought we'd kick it around a little and have the people tell us what they think they would like."

Holt stated that the property is currently zoned light industrial (M-1) and added that he would seek rezoning, when it was decided what would be built there.

Possibilities for development include a golf course, racquetball facilities, or condominiums.

"It's way too premature to say just what we plan on building," said Holt. "We'd like to hear what other people have to say and then we'll go from there."

Holt was expected to request the citizen input at last night's Wixom City Council meeting, after our press time.

Appointments delayed by policy dispute

The Walled Lake City Council last week tabled action on the appointment of James Donnelly to the Parks and Recreation Commission member because the nominee was not a registered voter, as required by the City Charter.

The delay in approving Donnelly's appointment sparked a debate between Mayor Gaspare LaMarca and Councilman Thomas Brookover, who made the motion to table.

Brookover noted that the council in the past has referred applicants for appointive posts to the respective boards and commissions for an interview, and added that he had not received background information on Donnelly until the night of the council meeting.

"I think it would be unfair to the planning commission and Mr. Donnelly not to have them get together for an interview," the councilman said.

LaMarca replied that he had suggested Donnelly's appointment to Commission Chairperson Ken Tucker, but added that the planners had a late meeting and were unable to discuss the nomination.

The mayor also said that it is a bad policy to ask boards and commissions to review applicants because "they could get together and decide to put only their friends" on the panels.

The informal recommendation policy could lead to a "little dictatorship" by board and commission chairpersons, LaMarca added.

Before submitting Donnelly's name to the council, the mayor announced that Plan Commissioners Lannie Galyon had resigned from the panel. Council members had talked about removing Galyon from the commission because he hadn't attended a meeting in about a year.

LaMarca said that, with Galyon's resignation, there have been two openings on the commission for a year.

Mayor Pro Tem William Staman said he didn't think the council should make the appointment procedure a "big production," but added that nominees should be referred to the boards and commissions as a courtesy.

Councilman James L. Scott said that most recent appointments have been made without an interview.

Noting that Donnelly was the only applicant for the post, Scott said the council "shouldn't be wishy-washy. Give him a chance to serve."

Donnelly, a building trades worker who lives at 1392 Delta, asked how long the appointment would be delayed, and suggested that the council should have a rule on the appointment procedure.

EPA sets session Super sewer workshop to be held

A workshop on the proposed alternative to the super sewer wastewater treatment project will be held sometime during the first week in July, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) regional headquarters told Commerce Township officials this week.

Commerce and Novi officials have expressed their concerns over one super sewer alternative that calls for high groundwater, potential recreational uses and the lack of high speed roads signaled environmentally sensitive areas that warranted further study.

Doug Ehorn, an EPA project officer, said the federal agency will study other alternatives for wastewater treatment facilities for the area from Plymouth north to Commerce, and possibly White Lake, such as expansion of existing facilities.

However, Commerce officials said two weeks ago that the very reasons cited by the EPA for proposing the elimination of Oakland from the super sewer were the same reasons they had for agreeing to buy capacity in the system.

Commerce Supervisor Robert Long has said that, unless an acceptable plan for wastewater treatment is implemented, the township could be cited for pollution of its lakes or streams. The Oakland County Health Department already has brought several potential problems to the township's attention, he added.

"Our lakes and streams are our major asset," Long said.

He added, however, that Ehorn, when he proposed the workshop, said there was some merit to the township's and Novi's concerns.

"Ehorn said they would discuss the ramifications of their alternatives at the workshop," Long said.

A draft environmental impact statement (EIS) on the project and its alternatives is expected to be ready by August 4, Ehorn has said, while a public hearing on the EIS has been tentatively scheduled for September 7.

Meanwhile, the Commerce Township Board, at a special meeting scheduled for last night (after our press time), was expected to consider a contract that obligates the township to pay for phase two engineering of the super sewer system.

Long said there have been some problems with the contract, but the Wayne County Department of Public Works (DPW) had resolved several questions raised by local units of government.

The Novi City Council has approved the engineering contract, although the pact hasn't been presented to the Walled Lake City Council.

Dial-A-Ride woes caused by county

We hate to say we told you so, but, "We told you so."

We are referring, of course, to the continuing confusion over local payment for the Lakes Area Special Dial-A-Ride van.

The Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority (SEM-TA), which operates the 12-passenger van, several months ago asked five Lakes Area communities - Commerce, Novi, Walled Lake, Wixom and Wolverine Lake Village - to adopt a contract that called for, among other things, local payment of about $130 a month to cover one-third of the net operating expenses of the Special.

A proposed contract was later amended, at the request of the local communities, to set a December 31 cutoff date, if the Oakland County Advanced Reservation Transit (OCART) system, which is destined to replace the Lakes Area Special, is not in operation by that date.

Four of the five communities have approved the pact, while the Wolverine Lake Village Council tabled action at its meeting last month.

Now comes word that SEMTA will drop the village from the service on July 13, if the council does not approve the contract at its July 12 session.

All of this confusion and the threat to drop the much-needed service to the village can be placed directly on the doorsteps of two Oakland County officials, Commissioners Dennis Murphy and Robert McConnell, who told the local officials that they shouldn't have to pay for the Special since it replaced a full-size bus that was cancelled due to poor ridership.

Murphy and McConnell also told the local officials that the county might pick-up the local share of the Lakes Area line out of its surplus funds, prompting the Village Council to table the contract.

TED FRIER

YES . . .

Stripped of its parochial dogma and petty religious differences, morality is simply the complicated effort to move humans from an ego-centered existence to one of caring for the other guy.

I am afraid we don't make the grade. It is becoming more and more clear that we are a nation of special interests, of self-interests, of the "me generation."

Meanwhile, SEMTA assistant general manager Dan Morrill has said that the regional transportation agency hasn't changed its policy that requires one-third funding of the net operating costs for its Dial-A-Ride programs.

Morrill added that SEMTA would be perfectly willing to allow Oakland County to pay the one-third local share for the Lakes Area Special, although a contract with the county probably would be required.

We would urge Commissioners Murphy and McConnell to immediately request their colleagues on the county board to approve funding for the Lakes Area Special out of the county surplus.

That way, SEMTA will be dealing with only one entity - the county - instead of five separate units of government, eliminating the possibility of future misunderstandings that could jeopardize a much-needed transportation system for residents of transit-poor western Oakland County.

Further, we would urge the county and SEMTA to enter into a contract as soon as possible to begin the long-awaited OCART system.

Over and above this, however, Bretz has shown himself to be an extremely knowledgeable planner. His expertise in planning matters has enabled the city to avoid many potentially undesirable situations.

His abilities have been particularly important during the past nine years when Novi was confronted with the onslaught of development from the east.

Bretz once commented informally that he believes every man owes a portion of his life to his home, his church, and his community.

A father of two children who has been extremely active in his church, Bretz has more than fulfilled any self-imposed commitment to his community with conscience and integrity.

His contributions will be missed.

Speaking for myself

America morally bankrupt?

JIM HAYNES

NO . . .

Morality can be defined as conformity to the rules of right conduct, moral or virtuous, which society dictates.

I believe, however, that the concept of America's low morality is an illusion created by a giant mass media industry, which will do anything, say or print anything, that will attract the attention, and ultimately, the money, of the public.

We must also realize that some of our morals are changing. To judge all of today's morals by yesterday's would be a mistake.

The question has been raised, are we as a nation morally bankrupt? Well, no, but we may have over-extended our credit a bit.

Novi high-rise complex proposed

Continued from Novi, I Elaine Pickle said she thought the citizens should be allowed to make the decision on whether they wanted such a development in the city.

At present, the OSC district has no restriction on the height of buildings. The new proposal calls for a five-story limitation on OSC-1, and a ten-story limitation on OSC-2.

Ex-Cell-O asks city for tax break

Continued from Walled Lake, I "The procedure is very popular," he said. "It has meant a lot of corporations by providing tax incentives to keep them from moving to other states."

Stuart said Ex-Cell-O was requesting the development district designation for its entire site, but emphasized that the tax break would apply only to the new facility.

Confab delegates selected

Mayor Pro Tem William Staman and Mayor Gaspare LaMarea have been named as Walled Lake's delegate and alternate delegate, respectively, to the Michigan Municipal League's (MML) annual business meeting on Mackinac Island.

Councilman Don Lee was selected as an "alternate alternate" in case either Staman or LaMarea can't attend the September confab. In response to a question from Dennis McCoy, a city resident, the mayor said the cost of the conference would be about $200, including 17 cents a mile for the trip to Mackinac.

McCoy, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for state representative in the 24th District, said he didn't think the city would benefit from the two-day session, and added that newsletters and other information should be provided to the council. LaMarea said the conference would be worthwhile, and added that city officials "learned a lot" at an MML legislative meeting last winter.

City buys ring cutter

Novi ringwearers can sleep easier now. The Novi Fire Department has purchased a ringcutter, which is guaranteed to get a jammed ring off your finger quicker than you can yell, "Help!" Novi Fire Chief Art Lenaghan said the new ringcutter is at Novi Fire Station One, located in the Novi Police headquarters. The ringcutter slides under the ring and files the jewelry in two. Lenaghan said the department had a call a few weeks ago to remove a ring from a resident's finger, but unfortunately, the department did not have the tool, so the resident was sent to Botsford Hospital.

But the problem no longer faces Novi residents. Got a ring stuck on your finger? Call 349-2222.

Unbeaten path to championship

Cardona's captures Novi softball tourney

Cardona's Pizza showed off a little more of the stuff that's been making the top men's team in Novi's slow pitch resident softball league last weekend. Exploding for an average of more than two runs per inning, the unbeaten American Division powerhouse stormed past five straight opponents to capture the annual Class C Novi Men's Invitational Tournament. Cardona's won Sunday's championship game with a 12-run outburst in the fifth inning, helping them overcome a 2-0 deficit and beat Farmington Hills, 12-3.

Inning while John Osborne, Bob Pfeiffer, Harvey Demery and Rich Elie added one single apiece. Farmington Hills closed the scoring with a solo home run in the sixth. Cardona's, currently 9-0 in Novi's resident softball league, had opened their tourney run with a 16-13 victory over the Mustangs of Novi's open league. Sparked by Hartman, Ayotte, Pfeiffer and Dery the winners jumped out to a 13-6 bulge in the first four-and-a-half innings of the game and survived a late rally by the Mustangs. Hartman went 5-for-5 in the game, including a two-run homer in the first, while Ayotte added four hits, including three-run blast, and had five RBIs. Pfeiffer contributed three hits and three RBIs and Dery a single, a home run and two RBIs.

Area pigtail girls will begin travel

There's another Pigtail league up and about in the area these days. The Inter-Lakes girls' slow pitch traveling league, sponsored by Novi Parks and Recreation, began its first season of competition last week with a slate of six games. Open to girls 18 and under, the league consists of teams from Novi, Walled Lake, Redford, South Lyon, North Farmington and South Farmington. The season lasts until early August, with about 15 games scheduled for each team. In last Saturday's openers Novi edged Redford 10-7 while Walled Lake suffered a 17-1 drubbing at the hands of South Farmington. Walled Lake, coached by Lou Campbell, had to fight back from a four-run deficit for its win at Redford. Trailing after three innings, the local Pigtailers bounced back with a run in the fifth, four more in the sixth and three in the seventh. Bobbi Wilkens got Novi on the scoreboard with a home run in the fifth. After taking a 7-4 lead with a six-run outburst in the top of the sixth, though, the local girls saw Redford tie the game with three runs in the last of the sixth. Refusing to fold, Novi put the game on ice with three more in the seventh on leadoff singles by Wilkins and Kim Selep, a two-run double by Brenda Campbell and a run-scoring single by Denise Burnham. Selep, who went all the way on the mound for the winners, then retired Redford 1-2-3 in the last of the seventh. "The girls played just absolutely super," Campbell commented, noting that the team hadn't even been organized until the night before. "To think they came out on Friday night without ever having played a game together, and then went out and played like that — it was impressive."

Walled Lake, meanwhile, leveled their record at 1-1 with Monday's shutout against South Lyon. Fletcher Cathy Fuson threw a five-hitter and led the team's offensive attack with a 2-for-3 performance. Lee Mein's two-run double in the fifth broke a scoreless tie, sending Bobbi Brewer, who'd doubled to lead off the Novi, coached by Lou Campbell, had to fight back from a four-run deficit for its win at Redford. Trailing after three innings, the local Pigtailers bounced back with a run in the fifth, four more in the sixth and three in the seventh. Bobbi Wilkens got Novi on the scoreboard with a home run in the fifth. After taking a 7-4 lead with a six-run outburst in the top of the sixth, though, the local girls saw Redford tie the game with three runs in the last of the sixth. Warriors' Young takes timeout from coaching

Walled Lake Western girls' basketball coach Sharon Young has announced that she will temporarily resign from coaching the sport next fall. Young announced her decision last Friday and gave her reason for the temporary resignation. "I'd like to work on my master's degree," said the coach. "I've put it off for over five years and I've really got to get back to it. This doesn't mean that I won't coach in the future, if they want me, but I won't be coaching basketball this fall." Young plans to pick up work on her master's degree at Eastern Michigan where she stopped her studies about six years ago. Young held the reins of the Warrior girls' varsity basketball team since 1973, when the sport was switched from winter to the fall. During her five years as head coach, the Warriors produced four Western Six championships and two district championships. Her 1975 and 1976 teams finished with 19-3 and 19-2 records respectively. Her 1977 squad suffered the pangs of the semifinals, with Hartman smashing a solo blast in the fifth that proved to be the game winner. They won the winners' bracket and earned a berth in the title game with an easy 18-1 victory over Walled Lake's Lakeside Lounge. Dery paced the triumph with two home runs, a single and four RBIs while Ayotte added one home run and five RBIs. Frantz and Pitt added two-run blasts for the winners. Ayotte, a teacher and junior varsity basketball coach at Novi High this year, was named the Most Valuable Player of the tournament afterwards. In 19 trips to the plate during the five-game series Ayotte batted .675 (10-for-15), had four home runs, 14 RBIs, three sacrifice flies and scored five times himself. Bob Pisha, a Novi resident who competed with Bosco Party Store of Farmington Hills, was the top home run hitter of the tournament with six. Besides Lakeside Lounge and Cardona's, two other local clubs advanced beyond the third round of the three-day, 16-team double elimination affair. The Mustangs, after dropping their opener to Cardona's, advanced all the way to the losers' bracket finals before dropping a 4-2 heartbreaker to Farmington Hills. The Novi Jaycees, meanwhile, dropped their opener to Walled Lake's Brandenburg but bounced back for two victories before losing to the Mustangs, 8-4, in the losers' bracket semis.

Novi's Jeff Laverty swings over a Berkley pitcher's curveball

Colonels' bad fielding results in second loss

A sixth inning defensive lapse led to five unearned runs which sent the Novi Colonels to their second defeat in the Inde-Water League this season.

Danny Paris Appliance, aided by three Colonels errors in the fateful sixth, became only the second team in 23 tries to edge the Colonels in the open league, winning the opener of last Wednesday's double-header, 9-8.

The Colonels came back to play errorless ball in the nightcap and won, 16-7. Their 21-2 league record is still good for first place, with Danny Paris second at 15-4.

John Varvari was the Colonels' hitting star in the opener, smashing three safeties, while Sam Antonazzo, Paul Deimling and Rod Lyons each collected a pair. Antonazzo and Deimling also homered.

In the nightcap, the Colonels collected 24 hits, with pitcher Rod Lyons collecting four and scoring four runs. Lyons also stole home while time was in during an appeal play.

John Varvari, Marv Gross, Ray Koenig and Rod Lyons all smacked three hits apiece with Koenig smacking two round trippers and Gross smacking one. The Colonels received a buy Monday night, but still hold a somewhat comfortable five game lead.

Novi legionnaires drop two of three decisions

Novi's American Legion baseball fortunes took a turn for the worse Monday. After getting off to an impressive 3-1 start in its maiden season, the local club scraped a 10-2 shellacking at the hands of Berkley, playing what coach Tom O'Bravovic termed "sloppy baseball."

"We just didn't come ready to play," O'Bravovic said, noting that the team broke down in its pitching, hitting and defense.

The local club got off to a 1-0 lead in the first inning but then fell apart in the third, giving up five runs after blowing a one-out double play opportunity that would have ended the inning. Novi committed six errors in all during the game and scraped up just three hits — one each by Steve Weber, Keith Crosslin and Brad Oyster. Pitcher Rick Faulkner took the loss.

Up until Monday's game, though, Novi had looked anything but a sloppy team, particularly defensively. Last Wednesday they dropped a 4-3 heartbreaker at Waterford, losing the game in the last two innings after getting off to a 3-0 advantage in the third. Faulkner capped the three-run rally with a run-producing triple, but Waterford came back to score twice in its half of the third, once in the sixth and once in the seventh.

Woody Sidham went all the way on the mound, giving up just two walks and seven hits but taking the loss.

Two days later the local squad edged Milford, 2-1, behind the five-hit pitching of Jeff Laverty.

Laverty went the distance for his second straight victory, striking out four and walking none. He retired 11 of the first 12 batters he faced.

Novi's first run came on a successful one-out squeeze bunt by Brad Oyster after Weber had walked and gone to third on a single by Faulkner.

They made it 2-0 in the fifth when Pat Dewan's double off the fence scored Bill Bishop, who'd led off the inning with a single, from first base. Milford's lone run came in the bottom of the fifth.

Golf tourney slated

The Walled Lake Recreation Department is looking for all golfers interested in participating in its sixth annual open golf tournament this summer.

Saturday, July 8, is the day of competition in medal play at White Lake Oaks golf club on Williams Lake Road in Union Lake.

The top five men and women medalists in the open will represent Walled Lake Schools in the five-member team Michigan Recreation Parks Association State Tournament this fall.

The entry fee for the qualifying open on July 8 is $11 for men and women, and $6 for youths.

Trophies will be awarded to the top two golfers in each division.

Any further questions on the open tournament should be directed to Randy Kibloski at 624-0202.

Senior bowlers enjoy weekly afternoon lanes

Every Thursday afternoon the Novi Bowl comes to life in a scene similar to a little kids birthday party.

And although the "kids" present are a little more mature, the fun is still the same when the Novi area senior citizens get together for their weekly afternoon of bowling.

Between 12 and 18 senior bowlers participate in the Thursday open bowling offered by Novi Parks and Recreation and the Novi Bowl.

"It's a lot of fun," said seniorite Elizabeth Smith. "I think it's a real good program."

Like Smith, most of the senior citizens had past bowling experience, while others are bowling for the first time in their lives.

Mary Price, for instance, rolled her first bowling ball ever in the new Novi program, and she hasn't missed a week.

York's Pavilion brings home another trophy

Union Lake's York's Pavilion finished second in the 32-team Class A Grand Blanc Tournament last weekend, dropping its final two games to touring champion Waterford Little Caesars.

York's won five games before being bumped by Caesars, starting with a 15-3 mercy win over Grandwood Apartments of Flint.

McGuilvary Buick of Grand Blanc was York's second victim in an 11-3 thrashing.

The local's third game was a 13-4 victory over Mid-State Insurance. Martin

Lester Case (in back), Lee and Orville Pelton all rolled high games

Although her 172 average has dipped to 160, she enjoys getting back into the game.

"I hadn't bowled in five years," she said, "and I just decided to come out and do it again. It's really enjoyable

Tennis tournament week away

The deadline is drawing near for registration in the sixth annual Walled Lake Community Education open tennis tournament for the week of July 10-14.

Competition will be structured into divisions by sex and age groupings. There will be singles, doubles, and mixed doubles competition in each age classification.

Adults will play their matches even-

Trudeau's .524 may look good, but others hit better, farther

Norm Cash is another local with the Caesars

Off the Bench

Commerce Township resident Norm Cash probably won't be remembered for his athletic prowess on the softball field.

And any knowledgeable fan knows that old Stormin' Norman is hardly playing at all, much less popping the ball out of the park for the Detroit Caesars.

But the amazing thing is, old Norm is still a celebrity. He still gets the loudest ovations of any team member.

In last weekend's doubleheader win over the Chicago Storm, the former Tiger didn't even get in the game until the sixth inning of the opener.

And old Norm responded with an old dipsy-doo softball flip at first base that ended in a fumble—and the crowd loved it.

It didn't look like Cash was going to hit in the sixth-inning but a two-out rally kept the Caesars alive and old Norm was swaged up to the plate.

He smiled and pointed to the right field fence with his bat, and then drew a walk on five pitches without swinging.

"They must've been afraid of me," he said after the game. "Naw, don't print that, I just got lucky."

Between games, Norm autographed a number of softballs and programs along with the rest of the team, but you kind of get the feeling that Norm was the real novelty.

Sure, Jim Northrup was out there in left field, and he even singled in a run, but he wasn't quite the personality old Norman was.

Norm is playing on the Caesars to draw fans, and those who saw the game for the first time (better than one out of three attendance) should go away smiling. Maybe they'll come back for another doubleheader, this time to see the championship caliber of softball the Caesars play, not Norm and Jim.

At least that's the way the Caesars look at it. And it makes sense to me.

Police release drawings of two knifing suspects

In Novi
Northville Township police have released composite drawings of a man and a woman who they believe stabbed and beat an area couple last month after they stopped to aid a motorcyclist.

bleeding from a wound on the back of his head.
Investigation by Wixom Police, responding to the scene, revealed that Allred had not been struck by a vehicle. Reports indicate the front tire of the bike possibly veered from the side of the road onto the shoulder.

Police sketches of knifing suspects

The Jokers, who deny that any club members were responsible for the attack, staged another party Saturday night which drew less than 100 people and heavy police scrutiny.
Northville Township and Novi City patrol cars cruised by the clubhouse about every 15 minutes and two plain clothes Novi Police attended the party which was uneventful, said Township Police Chief Ronald Nisan.

Preliminary examination by doctors indicate Allred suffered a fractured skull and concussion.
Remaining in a state of semi-consciousness through Monday, Allred has been unable to shed any light on the accident, police said.

Foreman crashed head-on into the car driven eastbound by Mrs. Miller. Witnesses further stated the Miller vehicle appeared to pull toward the shoulder of the road to avoid the collision.

Historical words

'Mightier than sword'

By JAMES CNOCKAERT
It is a curious case in American history that persons are often remembered more for what they said than for what they did.
Even more curious are the instances where persons have become famous because of what others have said about them.

St. William's Church celebrates 50th anniversary

By NANCY DINGELDEY

It was the Feast of St. William, a special Sunday for parishioners of St. William's Catholic Church, Walled Lake.

Gathering for a distinctive Jubilee liturgy Mass celebrated by John Cardinal Dearden, Archbishop of Detroit and 15 other priests, St. William's parish marked its 50th anniversary as a church.

Former pastors, who served the church through the building years, were on hand to celebrate the occasion as well as 12 sisters who were on the staff of St. William's School. They came from scattered points in the nation to mark the day.

The parish has its roots deep in the history of Walled Lake. It watched the scene change from a population of summer residents to a bustling, growing community. It watched as the first summer masses outgrew a parishioner's home and into the first church building in 1929.

It watched the church grow from a mission served by the pastors from Our Lady of Victory Church in Northville to the establishment of a full year schedule of services in 1937.

During those years, the country had gone through the boom of the twenties and suffered the depression of the thirties, but the parishioners of St. William's remained constant.

During its early years, summer masses were held in O'Flaherty's grove near Pontiac Trail. Marked with such special meaning, the property was given to the church by the family and became the site for the first church of St. William. Later, the old farm house was deeded to the church and served as the rectory for 22 years.

In 1939, the total income of the parish was $5,700. It recorded 83 family memberships, seven baptisms, four marriages and two deaths.

The face of Walled Lake was changing from one of summer resorters to permanent residents. By 1946, plans were made by the growing parish to establish a school. In 1949, ground was broken for the school, which opened its doors for the first time in September, 1950 for 160 students.

As the population grew, so did the school. It expanded in grades served and in size. The original church building, too, was quickly outgrown. Thoughts were set to erecting a new church building rather than expanding upon the old.

In October, 1955, the first Mass was celebrated in the new St. William's Church. The old church building, now Zepf Hall, was used as a gymnasium and parish hall. By 1958, building was under way for St. William's convent. A rectory was completed in 1961. Further additions were made to the school, bringing it to 16 classrooms plus offices.

By 1965, the school reached its zenith with an enrollment of 625 students staffed by a faculty of eight sisters and nine lay teachers.

But changes were taking place in Rome. Besides church reform, cultural factors at work in the society of the mid-1960's had a powerful affect on many people.

By 1971, because of financial difficulties at St. William's and a decision of the Archdiocese, St. William's School doors were closed. The school, operating for 21 years, had reached over 9,300 children.

Recovering from the event, the former school building became of full-time Religious Education Center for children and adults. New emphasis was put on adult education. Courses in theology, liturgy and morality became integral parts of the program.

The Parish Council, already established, was activated with the concept of team ministry introduced. The parish grew and still continues to grow. The school building has become a center for a wide variety of community programs aimed at the total community, not just those at St. William's. It became, and has remained, a viable part of the Walled Lake scene.

Through its first 50 years, St. William's has seen good times and bad, growth and depression. But it carries a heritage from yesterday to carry to the tomorrows.

Old and New

Parishioners of St. William's Catholic Church in Walled Lake celebrated the church's 50th anniversary Sunday at a special jubilee mass conducted by John Cardinal Dearden of Detroit and a number of former pastors. Many of the festivities were held in Upper Zepf Hall (left), the original church building. Pictured above is the present church building. The jubilee was celebrated on the Feast of St. William.

State awards

Three volunteers cited for service

Kathy Crawford of Novi, Lillian Spencer of Wixom, and Ronald Sevold of Union Lake have something in common. The common trait which links the three together is their penchant for service to others — volunteerism.

All three were honored recently by the Greater Michigan Foundation for their contributions to the spirit of service to mankind. All three were saluted as outstanding citizens of Michigan.

Mrs. Spencer and Sevold received two of just 10 Volunteer Leadership Awards presented throughout the state while Mrs. Crawford received one of the 25 Governor's Minuteman Awards.

Sevold was honored for a long list of volunteer service projects that ranged from his activities with the Southfield Arts Council and Chamber of Commerce to his work with a local homeowners' association.

Count," a state-wide Jaycee Auxiliary program which serves hospital pediatric units. She is also a board member of the Southwest Oakland County Chapter of the American Cancer Society.

Mrs. Spencer, the first woman mayor of Wixom, received a Certificate of Honor from the Michigan Academy of Volunteer Leadership. The awards committee said Mrs. Spencer was an "inspiration" to others and lauded her "dedication, energies, and guidance."

The awards committee noted that Mrs. Spencer has worked with both young people and senior citizen groups over several decades. She has been active in the Wixom Chamber of Commerce, the League of Women Voters, and her church. She served the City of Wixom both as a member of the Zoning Board of Appeals and as a city councilwoman prior to her election to the office of mayor in 1977.

Her involvement with the state Cattleman's Association and various 4-H groups in Michigan were also cited by the awards committee.

Mrs. Crawford is the founder and state chairperson of "Make Today for the Arts and, more recently, the Lakes Area Council for the Arts. Sevold also serves on the Oakland County Michigan Week Committee and on the Board of Governors of the Greater Michigan Foundation.

Fireworks, picnics

Area communities mark 'Fourth'

The Fourth of July will be celebrated in grand fashion as local communities this week announced their plans for special events and activities scheduled for America's birthday.

Fireworks will conclude these activities in at least two locales, while the Village Oaks Subdivision in Novi is planning a family outing on Sunday, July 2. Wixom and Walled Lake will host day-long activities, while Wolverine Lake Village will feature an afternoon boat regatta.

The following is a run-down of the activities planned in the Lakes Area. Walled Lake: Walled Lake's Fourth of July festivities will include a potluck picnic, games and contests, a fireworks display and a softball game pitting taxpayers against the city's tax spenders.

The celebration will begin at noon in Sims Park with the softball game between the taxpayers and the people who spend those tax dollars, including elected and appointed officials and city employees.

"This is an opportunity for the taxpayers to get their licks in," Mrs. Brookover said. Registration for the games and contests will be accepted from noon until 1 p.m. in the Sims picnic shelter. The contests include a sack race, pie eating, a balloon toss, various relay races and a fishing derby for youngsters who will be able to display their angling skills on the Sims pond.

Prizes will be awarded at 4 p.m. in the shelter. Participants are being asked to provide their own food and beverages, Mrs. Brookover added.

Capping the day's activities will be a fireworks display at Walled Lake Western High School at sunset. The fireworks are being sponsored by the Walled Lake Area Jaycees and local businesses.

The Jaycees are accepting tax-deductible contributions to help defray the cost of the fireworks display. Donations may be sent to the Walled Lake Area Jaycees, P.O. Box 335, Walled Lake 48088.

Flag raising ceremonies at noon will kick-off activities in the Wixom City Park, located north of the V.P.W. off Leona Lake Road. Residents are invited to bring blankets, chairs, a picnic lunch and spend the day.

Scattered throughout the afternoon will be a variety of children's games planned by the Birch Park Subdivision. In addition, two magic shows featuring

Summer Youth Center schedules opening in Novi

A full range of activities awaits Novi Summer Youth Center on Wednesday, July 5. Held in the old Novi Elementary School on Novi Road, the program is under the auspices of Novi Youth Assistance.

On Thursday, July 6, the center will feature mime and clown make-up with students invited to participate in the greasepaint application. The center will be open from 1-10 p.m. with the special activity planned for 6:30 p.m.

The identification cards enable seniors to receive discounts ranging from four to 40 percent on a variety of merchandise from over 850 participating merchants in Oakland County. Eligible seniors must be 60 years of age and reside in Oakland County.

A Tale of Two Families

One family has always lived in luxury. Money is no object to them.

Another family lives on a close budget. Like most families they have to place a limit on what they spend.

One day either family may need our help... and each will receive the same thorough service.

Novi students named to dean's list

Named to the dean's list at Madonna College for high academic achievement during the winter term just completed were six Novi students.

Staffed by seven members, the center is under the direction of Juanita Hakala.

Also named to the list were: Barbara Herc, gerontology; Mary Newkirk, legal assistance and Sally Parker, medical technology.

Dean's list students at Madonna must earn a grade point average of 3.25 or better.

The whole theme of the center is learning by doing," she commented, adding, "we also hope to develop some life-long career interests."

Funded through a private grant from United Community Service, hours on opening day will be 11 a.m. until 5 p.m. Students may drop-in for refreshments and investigate the offerings of the program.

The Twelve Oaks Mall in Novi has joined the list of camera locations for the Oakland Livingston Human Service Agency Senior Discount Program. It will be available to senior citizens who wish to have their photographs taken for ID cards on two days.

We're Glad You Asked!

Harry J. Will Founder HARRY J. WILL Funeral Homes, Inc.

WHO, ME RETIRE?

There are hundreds of reasons for retiring. Here are just a few. 1. Your personal finances are adequately sufficient so you may live comfortably the rest of your years, but you want to change your lifestyle. 2. You're energetic and alert at age 62 as you were at 40, but company policy requires retirement at age 65. 3. You're over 55 and the pressures and stress of the job are beginning to "get to you".

You'd be glad of a less demanding schedule. If you even think about retiring you should start planning your retirement now. If you would like some basic information on "how to retire", stop in or phone us. Your questions and comments on this and other subjects are welcome—in private or publicly through this column.

Novi BPW fetes new officers at installation dinner

By JEANNE CLARK
624-0173

A very impressive installation ceremony was conducted on Thursday evening at the Holiday Inn to honor the new officers, who are: president, Ruth George; vice-president, Helen Stabler; secretary, Nellie Parsons; treasurer, Brenda Peterson; and Georgia Larson, parliamentarian. They were installed by Maybelle Shon, the past District IX director.

Plans were made for three members to attend the National BPW Convention to be held in Puerto Rico on July 18-22. Next month's meeting will tentatively be a picnic supper and pool party on July 27. Again, the new officers extend a very warm invitation to any woman who is gainfully employed in the area to join the group.

Novi Friends of the Library

The summer reading program is underway under the direction of Stacy Chaudoin at the Novi Public Library on Ten Mile. When you visit the library be sure to look for the Strawberry Patch for anyone registered from the first to the fifth grade, and for anyone in the "Read to Me," look on the Raindrop Poster. The Friends are most appreciative of the books that have already been turned in for the fall book sale and will be meeting soon to sort them out. They can be dropped off at the library and for further information contact Cora Cook at 474-6979. The movie on Friday will be for preschoolers, kindergarten or first grade at 10:30 a.m.

OLHSA

The center is continuing through the summer with special activities including the regular ones. On July 3 the exercise group will be under the direction of Joe Paja who is also a volunteer. On Wednesday the group will be doing mini-oil painting with volunteer Frances Fleishman. The seniors are especially grateful this week to Helen Galarowic who donated several beautifully hand knitted lap robes for distribution to ill seniors. The staff at the center would like to encourage anyone in the community who has odds and ends of yarn to drop them off at the center. Mrs. Galarowic plans to knit more robes for use at the Veterans Hospital in Allen Park.

North Novi Civic Association

Members are reminded that there will be no more meetings of the association until fall. They had a very successful flare sale last week. There will be a park clean-up day in the future. Anyone wishing information can contact Mary Kotvrch at 624-4663.

State offers hints on care centers

Now that summer is approaching and small children are out of school, parents are looking for summer day care.

If you are one of them, the 4C (Communicated Coordinated Child Care) and the Department of Social Services are the places to call for information.

Both the Council and DSS Licensing Department have lists of providers which they can make available to the public. The 4C Council, additionally, can provide personal information such as the hours that the homes are open, ages of children, suggestions as to what questions to ask and what to look for when visiting a potential child care home, and, in some cases, recommendations.

The 4C phone number is 858-6169 and the DSS number is 858-1604.

In addition to providing information on child care providers, the 4C Council:

- is a clearing house for employment in the field of early childhood;
- provides health, nutrition, child care and parenting information;
- gives monthly updates on issues, resources, activities and programs;
- investigates the needs of children;
- runs programming and child development workshops.

Howard & Lois Green

Capitalize on walls as backgrounds for decorative accents. Make the most of the areas available by installing a series of shelves-built-ins or free-standing pieces of furniture especially made to serve as showcases for small "treasures". The French have a word for this particular piece of furniture - etagere - and they vary its style to suit a room's other furnishings. Ordinary bookcases, cabinets with glass doors, improvised shelving and all of these can serve your purpose, provided they are in harmony with other furnishings of the room. . . keep in mind that using all or most of a large wall in such a manner would make it the "focal point" of your decorating. Using a smaller amount of wall space this way could constitute an accent if not a major decorative feature.

At GREEN'S CREATIVE HOME CENTER, 107 N. Center St., 349-7110, we can show you many lines of top names in wallcoverings at great discounts.
