TWENTY-FIVE CENTS

Novi mayoral primary slated for Tuesday

Novi voters will go to the polls Tuesday to select the mayoral candidate Number One, 25850 Novi Road they think should appear on the November general election ballot.

Martha Hoyer, John Roethel and Robert Schmid are vying for the two positions on the November ballot. Voters can vote for just one of the three candidates. The top two vote-getters will square off in the mayor's race this

Voters can cast their ballots between 7 a.m. and 8 p.m. at the following polling places:

• Precinct 1, Fire Station Number One, 25850 Novi Road; • Precinct 2, Novi Middle School

North, 25299 Taft Road: • Precinct 3, Novi Public Library. 45245 Ten Mile Road

• Precinct 4, Lakeshore Park Community Building, 601 South Lake Drive • Precinct 5, Orchard Hills Elementary, 41900 Quince:

• Precinct 6, Novi Fire Station • Precinct 7. Village Oaks Elementary, 2333 Willowbrook; Precinct 8, Chateau Estates Clubhouse, 42000 Carousel.

Absentee voters have until 2 p.m. Saturday to cast their ballots. Voters who will be out of town election day also may vote in person at city hall Monday until 4 p.m.

The mayoral primary will be the only decision voters will make Tuesday. A primary is being held to eliminate one of the candidates because the city charter requires a primary whenever there are more than two candidates for a single vacancy. A primary for the city council race is not necessary because there are just five candidates for three open seats. Both Hoyer and Schmid currently serve on the city council and have two

If either of them is elected mayor, a vacancy on the council would occur. City council members would have 30 days after the vacancy opens to appoint a person to fill the unexpired term. The three contestants are competing for the seat which will be vacated by Romaine Roethel after her present term expires in November.

She was elected mayor in 1977 and reelected to a second two-vear term in 1979, but will not be a candidate this year. She is scheduled to assume the national presidency of the American Legion Auxilary in August.

When push comes to shove there's no one better to have on your side than a grandson, Carl Klopp found as he rode the merrygo-round in the Orchard Hills Elementary playground. Grandson John Hanson got a kick out of sending his elder relative for a spin as he and grandpa proved playground equipment doesn't

The six died Wednesday, July 22, when their blue 1978 Ford van collided with a North American Van Lines semitruck in a 21/2-mile long construction zone on the Ohio Turnpike in Lorain County. A fifth daughter, Kelli, 12, remains hospitalized in Lansing's Sparrow Hospital.

Ohio State Police said the accident was the third deadliest ever on the Ohio Turnpike, which opened in 1952.

Memorial services for the Griffins, who had been every bit as active in Brighton as they had been when they lived in Novi, began Sunday, July 26, with a youth service at 7 p.m. and a Rosary at 8 p.m. An all-night vigil followed until the Funeral Mass of the Resurrection began. Burial was at the

The Griffins left their Brighton home at about 3 a.m. Wednesday, July 22 on their way to visit Mr. Griffin's sister and her family in New Jersey, said Dennis McNamara, Mrs. Griffin's brother.

According to Ohio State Police Sergeant B.J. Lodrick, the Griffin van was eastbound about a half-mile from the end of the two-lane, undivided construction zone, eight miles west of the Elyria exit, at 5:50 a.m. when Mr. Griffin apparently fell asleep and the van drifted into the westbound lane.

St. Patrick's Church was filled with people, many of them from Novi, wishing to pay their final respects to the family which had won their respect and admiration.

"You just had to know them to understand," said Pat Gleason, another longtime Novi resident who has helped establish a memorial fund in honor of the family.

By KATHY JENNINGS

Novi's three mayoral candidates explained their qualifications and reasons for seeking the office when they met with residents from the Country Place Condominiums last week.

The meeting — the only candidate's night preceding Tuesday's primary election - drew approximately 65 persons interested in the campaign statements of Martha Hoyer, John Roethel and Robert Schmid.

Hover told the group that the city council has learned from mistakes it has made in developments such as Country Place.

"This is a growing community and as a result we face problems. Because we've learned from our mistakes we have an updated master plan, are revamping our zoning ordinance and all our ordinances are being revised. We hope we've found the remedies that will mean newcomers don't go through the problems you've faced.'

She went on to say she believes the city needs a program that will allow it to prepare for problems "through a natural process," rather than merely react to problems as they arise. "We have so much going on we are constantly reacting — we're putting out fires," Hoyer said.

She also told the group she believes the Novi of the future will be like a cross between Farmington Hills and Northville. "We have to work with what already exists and plan from that point. We can't go in the direction of West Bloomfield because our existing development isn't like West Bloomfield's. What I envision is that we shouldn't become a Southfield or a Can-

"We can prevent that with the controls supplied by our ordinances. restrictive building codes and careful planning. Our master plan provides a very good blend of every type of zoning for establishing a total community."

Hoyer went on to say that over the past four years she has been involved

The rules, which become effective August 4, are designed to provide park employees with grounds for dealing with patrons who are exhibiting "misconduct."

Novi council members recently voted 5-0 to approve the park rules.

Parks and Recreation Director Tom O'Branovic said the rules will become more important to the parks department as it manages more park areas. The regulations were compiled after researching rules used by parks departments in other communities and adap-

"A lot of problems in a park stem from personal misconduct that occurs when a person has too much to drink." O'Branovic said. "But we haven't had major problems with drinking. So under our regulations drinking is not allowed where it's posted that consumption of alcoholic beverages is prohibited. We're confident that people can handle the situation," O'Branovic said. He noted that other regulations deal

To handle such situations the rules provide that: "No person shall play any musical instrument, radio, mechanical record, tape player or any other device in such a manner as to cause the sound ... to interfere with the enjoyment of the park by others."

Novi officials have been looking at ways to improve the Thirteen Mile/Novi Road intersection after being told by the Oakland County Road Commission that major changes in the intersection will be necessary before a light can be installed. City Manager Edward Kriewall recently told the

Wixom police Serving the Northville, Novi and Wixom area for 3 generations have new recruit Tom Fisher finished at the top of the class, but he's just now beginning to benefit from it.

The 27-year-old Redford Township resident started work Monday as the first part-time police officer on Wixom's 12-man force. At least one and possibly two more part-time cops will later join the department, according to Wixom Police Chief Phil

Fisher scored the second-highest on an entrylevel police examination designed to rank applicants for law enforcement jobs. The test, offered through the Michigan Municipal League, was taken last year by aspiring policemen who hoped to be nired by local departments.

Test results were averaged in with a series of oral nterviews and other screening techniques, said Leonard, who noted he has hired three policemen since August 1980 who placed among the top 10 on Fisher, who was ranked number eight overall, was preceded in Wixom by Jim Osborne in October and Clarence Goodlein in August.

Fisher is a 1979 graduate of the Wayne County Sheriffs Police Academy and received an associate degree in criminal justice from Henry Ford Community College. He graduated from Redford High He is employed as a lieutenant by Fairlane Town

Center Security and has worked part-time as a policeman with the Northville Police Department. Fisher will begin solo patrols after a few weeks of on-the-job training, Leonard said. The hiring of Fisher is the first phase in a pilot program initiated by the Wixom Police Department, Leonard said. Scheduling of the part-timers will augment the department's full-time force by helping out with vacation time and emergency By hiring the part-time officers, the chief explained, the department will be able to keep two officers on duty at all times, which is sometimes difficult because of vacations, emergencies and scheduling The part-time officers will not be scheduled to work any shift alone unless a full-time officer or supervisor is working, Leonard said. Infortunately, even finishing in the top 10 of prospective policemen like Fisher did doesn't guarantee being hired as a full-time officer. Leonard noted that it's difficult to break into police work because even though more officers are needed by many departments, costs of taking on additional personnel prohibit new hires. Practically speaking, recent new officers in Wixom were brought in as replacements for individuals who left or retired, not to fill new positions.

That means there's no guarantee Fisher will ventually be made a full-time officer in Wixom. hould an opening occur, Leonard said, Fisher could be considered for the job.

Novi's mayoral candidates respond to election issues

The three mayoral candidates in next Tuesday's Novi primary were asked by the Plymouth-Northville-Canton-Novi chapter of the League of Women Voters to respond to four questions with a maximum limit of Thé four questions were: 1. Discuss the impact of the newly-revised master plan. 2. What are the prime problems facing Novi today? - 3. What alternatives could you support to property tax as a main source of support for the city? 4. How would you view your role as mayor in a city-manager form of government? Here are the candidates' responses.

JOHN ROETHEL Age 61. Holds BS degree in mechanical engineering from University of Detroit, attended U.S. Naval Reserve Midshipman School at Columbia University and holds Juris Doctor (law degree) from Georgetown University. Employed in Office of the General Counsel, Ford Motor Company, as patent attorney. Has served eight years on Novi Planning Board (six as chairman) and 11/2 years on Novi Zoning Board of Appeals He and his wife Romaine reside on Brookforest Drive.

ROBERT SCHMID

Age 50. Holds BA degree in economics from Hillsdale College. Employed as a divisional superintendent by State Farm Insurance Company; formerly a teacher and coach in Hudson School District. Elected to the Novi City Council in 1975 and re-elected in 1979. He and his wife Kay have three children and reside on Summit Drive.

. Aim: Balanced zoning districts with proper ratios of zoning types for development of "total" community - necessitates a good number of city initiated to bring zoning map within close proximity of master plan in problem areas. New plan reflects decreases in multiple, heavy industrial and com-

2. A. Sewer Capacity: Rapidly approaching peak. Must have super sewer or alternative for increased capacity or abrupt halt to all development B. Ordinance Enforcement: Expansion needed, one officer cannot handle all temporary violations that could become permanent problems. C. Storm Drainage: Capabilities of existing courses and retention and detention basins. Viability of preserving floodways for future drainage and

3. In all candor - none. Being a strong believer in home rule and local control prohibits my acceptance of reliability on another agency for funding for provision of services to our residents. Your city officials have attempted to practice frugality, i.e. .8 mills less than maximum allowed under Headlee levied for general fund in 1981-82 budget. Most proposals appear upon scrutiny to be a shift rather than a cut.

3. Per charter, the mayor shall be presiding officer and chief executive officer of the city. The mayor is presiding officer of the council with equal of chief administrative officer of the city. In our particular situation, the mayor's role is also one of public relations and lobbyist as developing communities are struggling to hold their own in a "Save our Cities" political at-

1. As a member of planning board, worked for five years to provide a plan for balanced development of industrial, commercial and residential development. Objective was a tax base in which high tax yield properties (office and industrial) will balance negative yield residential properties that require services costing more than taxes collected on them will provide. Plan also reversed 2:1 ratio of acreage planned for heavy industry versus light industry to 1:2 ratio.

2. Provision for adequate storm water drainage, sewage disposal, waste disposal and road development. These all depend on the development of Novi's image and influence with county, regional, state and federal agencies that long have suffered from a "Where the hell is Novi" syndrome.

3. No viable alternative has been presented by anyone to date. I do not favor a city income tax nor can I support any plan that requires the state to make up losses to communities resulting from property tax reduction schemes. A property tax "indexed" to link tax rates to the effect of inflation on property values would be my preferred approach.

4. Charter states mayor is chief executive officer of city, more than merely the presiding officer at council meetings. The city manager is the administrative officer. Therefore, the mayor has the duty of political management of affairs of public policy as determined by the city council. This requires the mayor to be an active participant (and intruder, if necessary) into the affairs of various regional bodies whose main objectives. often appear to be to reduce the power of local government and its electorate to control the future growth and development of the community. To mention a few — SEMCOG, SEMTA, EPA, DNR and numerous other agencies not

The mayor must be an ombudsman for the citizens with the city manager and his department heads. The mayor must be a lobbyist for the city with county, state and federal legislators who frequently will carry on a dialogue with only the top elected official of the city.

1. As a Councilman since 1975, I have encouraged the development of a new master plan. Original drafts designated convenience centers spread throughout the city. I was opposed to this concept. Through public hearings, strong opposition by myself and others, the plan was revised removing all but one designated convenience center.

I remain opposed to that designated area because it infringes on established residential areas. With that exception, I feel the new master plan will provide a viable commercial and industrial base, allowing for a centrallylocated business district while maintaining the desirable residential areas in a rural setting. As in the past, I will fight against any ill-advised attempt to alter the master plan.

2. As in all communities challenges to provide adequate storm and sanitary sewer facilities as well as other services are present. Our professional administrative staff is addressing these issues and attempting to plan for the future growth of Novi.

As mayor I will continue to lead Novi in facing our greatest challenge that of providing proper ordinances to insure quality commercial, industrial and residential development to assure a balanced tax base. Only through these efforts can we provide the financial security and quality of life our citizens desire in a community that will stand the test of time.

3. There have been a number of proposed alternatives to property tax as a source of revenue. Frankly, I don't have the answer. I support efforts to reduce property taxes. Schools and other governmental agencies take the greatest percentage of our taxes. As your mayor I will continue to seek efficient use of and increased productivity from designated tax monies, while maximizing benefits to the citizens.

4. The mayor is to provide strong and effective leadership in proposing coninput in creating policies and forming guidelines and should establish personal contacts with legislative representatives at all governmental levels. I have the time, commitment and demonstrated abilities to provide that

Roethel takes the position

Robert Schmid is the best choice when Novi voters go to the polls in Tuesday's mayoral primary election.

It is a tribute to the city that three strong candidates — Martha Hoyer, John Roethel and Schmid — are vying for the top legislative position. All three candidates are intelligent, qualified individuals who have strong records of service to the city in a variety of capacities.

We have no doubts that any one of them would be a good

It was reached only we feel it would be a mistake to after observing all three canback off on the high ideals espousdidates extensively over the past ed by Schmid out of fears that six years and discussing their development will not take place. current platforms and philosophies with them at length.

The decision to endorse Schmid is based on his consistency in espousing a philosophy of high standards which we believe is not only most consistent with he interests of the people but also represents the wisest strategy for the development of Novi.

Let's look first at the other two candidates. Indicative of our respect for Martha Hoyer is the fact that we have previously endorsed her for county commission. In this particular race, however, we do not feel she is the

She is a strong candidate because of her experience at the county, regional and state levels as well as her involvement in the city over the past six years. She has a logical, rational approach to problem-solving that will serve the city well if she is elected.

On the other hand, we do not feel her vision of what the city can become is as well-defined or as comprehensive as that of Roethel, the husband of the current mayor, is making his first bid for elective office after almost a decade of service on the planning board. If elected, he has said he will provide better followthrough on council policy which we view as an area which needs improvement.

Although we have utmost respect for his intelligence, we have major philosophical differences with him on what is best for the city and its residents.

Specifically, our serious concerns with his candidacy relate to his assertion that Novi should follow the trend of the country and move toward less restrictive ordinances and regulations.

After the fact

It's primary time in Novi, and that means it's time for endorsements. You look at the candidates, what they stand for and what they stand against.

You talk to them, attempting to clarify their viewpoints on the issues and ascertain their qualifications for the job. And then you sit down to try to figure out who should be endorsed.

It's a heavy responsibility ... one that we do not take lightly and one that we attempt to attack in such a matter that nobody — whether they agree or disagree with what we have to say - will accuse us of not having devoted time and energy to fulfilling that responsibility. In the first place it should be said that this newspaper believes strongly that it has a responsibility to make endorsements. Not every newspaper in this country makes endorsements. But every responsible newspaper does. A newspaper that does not have an editorial page, that does not take stands on issues relevant to its coverage area, is no newspaper at all. The editorial page is the heart of a newspaper. But there are times, I must confess, that it would make life a whole lot easier if we did not make endorsements. Individuals who strongly support one candidate over another can become absolutely incensed if the paper's viewpoint disagrees with their own. In a two-person race, for example, the best you can hope for is that 50 percent of the people will think you're a real, bright fellow. The other 50 percent will be convinced of your innate idiocy.

In a three-person race (such as Novi's mayoral primary) the best you can hope for is that 33 percent of the people will think you know what you're doing — the other two-thirds will be convinced that you're a victim of early senility.

Although feelings run hard over endorsements, the whole process has led to some fairly amusing stories over the years. There was one individual who used to plead for the paper's endorsement. When he didn't get it. he's distribute flyers urging people not to let the paper distributed flyers which proudly boasted of the paper's

When I turn left when my wife says right, my destination remains about the same. Only the route to get there changes. And you'd be surprised how many pleasantries wait along different paths. Sometimes there's a deadend and, of course, a painful "I told you so" from my sidekick. But more often than not it's mfortable travel.

The middle of the road is okay sometimes. It's generally faster. But freeway travel often is boring, and, in the kind of congestion we experienced in Washington D.C. recently, it can be just awful.

I travel political people about the same way. The route may change but the destination remains about the same.

Right now I've traveling Reagan and it's surprisingly pleasant. Enroute I may hit the freeway at the Billions for Defense junction and then, if the congestion gets unbearable, swing off at the ERA exit. But for now this route's comfortable, and I've seen no deadend signs.

It's not that Leslie Harding isn't satisfied with being pastor of only one church. Sharing duties at St. Anne's in Walled Lake and Holy Cross in Novi simply gives him a chance to branch out and reach

A native Canadian, Harding arrived in Walled Lake nearly eight years ago to assume duties at St. Anne's. Ironically, Harding has been in the ministry even longer than St. Anne's has been around; the church celebrated its 20th anniversary

Since that time, the parish has continued to grow and is now comprised of about 55 families. In the early '70s, at about the same time Harding came to Walled Lake, the congregation joined forces with

Holy Cross because a large portion of parishioners were from that area. Now the Novi group is even larger than the Walled Lake congregation. Although Harding is optimistic that St. Anne's will continue to grow, rumors persist that St. Anne's may eventually consolidate with Holy Cross. Those suggestions are stoked by the fact that another church that presently rents St. Anne's for Sunday worship actually meets for services more often than St. Anne's parishioners. But Harding isn't about to let St. Anne's slip away. He's considering the possibility of buying land in Commerce Township, where an Episcopal church would be more centrally located for members of the congregation, who come from all over the Lakes area and even north of Pontiac. "It's only a dream," Harding admits. "But we think we can serve a wider community from a more central location. We're small, but it's a very

You can travel a long way on asmall cast and few props. That's what these four Novi Christian School students discovered recently when they took an original one-act play to Rutgers University in New Jersey and came home with a national prize. Starring in the drama were (left to right) Debbie Treganowan, David Carter, Elizabeth McMillan and Shelly Kobosh. Kobosh also wrote and directed the story of a girl and three dolls. The group won state honors for the play during competition at Adrian College sponsored by Accelerated Christian Education Incorporated and then went on to the national contest at Rutgers. ### It's a big taste of Scandinavia

A taste of Scandinavian culture, food and music highlights the Nordic Festival Friday through Sunday at the Hart Plaza on the Detroit riverfront. Opening ceremonies begin at 6:30 p.m., with flags of each of the represented countries, together with the United States flag and a Marine Color Guard, being presented. "Hardy people of the North invite you to attend and have a taste of Scandinavian culture through puppets, storytellers, mimes and films," say festival committee members. "Visit the cultural gallery to see some of these, and the displays of Lapland, The Scandinavian Symphony and a Scandinavian stamp collection." Swedish pancakes, Danish sausage, Norwegian meatballs, Icelandic fish and Finnish pasties are but part of the ethnic foods to be offered. In the area of music, says the committee, there's folk musicians, folk dancers (Hoijakat from Farmington Hills, Michigan and the Scandinavian Dancers from Columbus, Ohio) in their colorful costumes, and other entertainers to provide a musical taste of Scandinavia.

Puppets present delight at mall

Hip Squeak Puppets, delightful creations of Hollywood's Lisa Marshall, performs "Alice in Wonderland" at Twelve Oaks Mall today and Thursday.

Cuddly, larger than life hand puppets, the Hip Squeakers have enchanted children of all ages coast to coast with their musical versions of children's classics.

The puppets perform on a unique stage which is completely controlled by foot. The state, with its moveable face, narrates the show. Everybody has a good time "booing" the villain and applauding the hero, led by the flashing audience participation signs.

People-puppets and foot controlled puppets are introduced so there are often three, four or more puppets on stage at the same time. Hip Squeak Puppets are a one of a kind puppet show and the show is free.

Show times: 11 a.m. and 12:30, 2 and 3:30 p.m. Additional information: 348-9400.

FIRST FEDERAL Savings of Detroit has become the first savings and loan association in Michigan — and the first outside California to top $4 billion in assets, it has been announced.

The figures represent steady business growth and a merger with an outside savings and loan association. Assets increased $317 million during the first six months of 1981 to achieve the new record level of $4.002 billion. During the six months ending June 30, deposits increased $245 million, and now stand at $3,219 billion. Interest paid to customers during the first half of 1981 reached an all-time high of $168 million.

Investments in mortgage and consumer loans increased $206 million for the period. First Federal's mortgage loan portfolio totaled $3,382 billion as of June 30.

GUARDIAN INDUSTRIES Corporation (NYSE) of Novi has: reported results for the three months ended June 30, 1981 which were at record levels for the 24th consecutive quarter.

Revenues in the second quarter were $96 million, 39 percent higher than the comparable three month period in 1980. For the first six months, revenues were $179.1 million, an increase of 28 percent over last;

Second quarter performance principally reflects a higher volume of business throughout the company's glass operations. The contribution from the company's Glass Manufacturing Division was a particularly significant factor. Improvement over the previous year also was recorded in the company's Architectural Glass Division during the quarter. As a group, glass sales were 36 percent higher in the second quarter of 1981 compared to 1980. Photo processing revenues were up nine percent in the second quarter, although profits continued to be negatively impacted in part by lower prices received for reclaimed silver in the photofinishing process. Engineering fee income, which began in the second half of last year, continued to be a positive factor effecting this year's per-

In a new opinion, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that "additional safeguards" are necessary for the waiver of counsel during interrogation, once an accused expressed his desire to have an attorney. More must be shown than mere "voluntariness" in the defendant's willingness to resume conversations with the police. The defendant's waiver must be a "knowing and intelligent relinguishment of a known right," and the accused, himself, must initiate further communication.

Green Thoughts

Were I a tree I would be rooted deep in elemental clay My soft transparent cells would seek the water drops in dark, earthwormy ways, slowly transmuting mineral laden dew for the corky channels of my trunk. Meanwhile my leaves would layer toward the light, and organelles of green turn fiery thrusts, sent ninety million miles through sterile space, into the sugar gleams of life.

Mid-summer, the daytime temperature is around the upper 80s to 90 degrees. Sunny, calm, hot, bumid, muggy kind of a day, perfect for catching,

I will admit that I do a lot more bass fishing than any other, but there are probably as many anglers that are just as devoted to catching the ever popular

All lakes, in and around Livingston County (and the Lakes Area), are full of bluegills, but the trick is locating and catching the large slab-sized 'gills. During the mid-summer daytime hours, look for the big 'gills in deep water, as much as 15 to 20 feet. They will school around deep structure along with some smaller bluegills. The large bluegills are usually a foot or so off the bottom with the smaller ones suspended just above, a few feet higher. So you'll want to get your bait down quickly before the little bait stealers have a chance to bite.

In my opinion, the best all-around bait for big bluegills is a chunk of nightcrawler. Many fishermen swear by crickets, but I've found a fat piece of crawler is irresistible to the larger 'gills, even more than a regular earthworm.

As I said before, the bigger fish are right off the bottom, so you'll want to keep your bait at the same depth. I suggest rigging a 1/8 ounce sinker dropped a foot below a small number 10 snelled hook. This will keep the bait a foot off the bottom. Use a light monofilament line, no more than four-pound test and a sensitive ultralight rod. Sensitivity is important because these larger bluegills are very light hitters. They didn't get that big from being dumb. Take a big chunk of nightcrawler, about half, and make sure to cover the hook, especially the point. Drop this rig vertically off the drop-off and let it go

West Oakland Y sets swim courses

Learning to swim can be as easy as a parent/tot class or a class with no walking down the block.

That is the idea of the West Oakland YMCA backyard swim program, which for over 10 years has been bringing lessons to the people, rather than people to lessons.

Using pools donated by residents for a few hour period daily, the YMCA expects to teach over 500 children and teen-agers basic swimming skills through pre-lifesaving.

Youngsters in Walled Lake, Commerce, Milford, Highland and White Lake townships will benefit from the program, which allows the West Oakland YMCA to teach swimming without owning a pool.

Water safety is very important, stressed West Oakland YMCA director Fred Lindholm. The classes are designed to allow anybody to save themselves in the event of a water accident.

"The number one thing we teach is the safety swim. A person falls in a pool, turns around, swims to the side and climbs out," he explained.

Just that knowledge alone can save a person's life, he said.

Thirteen different pools are used for the two-week long sessions that make up a class. In that time a group will receive eight 30-45 minute lessons, with two make-up days available in case of Classes are sponsored for children from two-years-old and up. Special adult and lifesaving classes are also sponsored by the Y.

Skills stressed in a particular session depend on the skill level of the group members. Pre-school groups (ages 2-5) are split into four groups. Beginning students at that age can be registered in parental involvement. Intermediate pre-schoolers have the same options. Six classes are available for older youngsters, ranging from beginning lessons through advanced swimming and pre-lifesaving skills.

Two instructors, Joan Anderson of Highland and Bernadine Mahar of Milford, are responsible for running the YMCA programs. Both have lifesaving, cardio-pulmonary resuscitation and water safety instructor certification.

In all classes, water safety and lifesaving techniques are discussed. What techniques are used depends on the level of the group.

The object is to be able to save somebody, perhaps by throwing in a flotation ring or reaching into water with a stick, without endangering yourself, remarked Lindholm.

There are three sessions left this summer of the backyard pool program. Registration is still open for all levels. Time and location requests are filled on a first-come, first-served basis.

To register, contact the West Oakland YMCA, 685-3020. The fee for classes is $11 for YMCA members and $16 for nonmembers. Lifesaving fees are $18 and $25 respectively.

be enough to determine a division last week. championship.

But it wasn't enough in the West Division of the Wixom Parks and Recreation Department's Men's Softball League as O'Dell Chiropractic Center and Jimmy's West Maple Gardens both put together 14-7 records during regular-season play to share the lead and set up a climactic sudden-death,

And when it was all over, O'Dell Chiropractic had held on for a spinetingling 10-9 victory and the division crown. "It was a heckuva game," reported Dick Spencer, veteran managerpitcher for the O'Dell squad. "We built up a big lead in the early innings, but they came back strong and we had to hold on to win."

You'd think a 21-game season would one-game playoff for the championship
