Ross opposes property taxes for schools

By KATHY JENNINGS

If it were up to him, the property tax would be eliminated as a means of funding education. State Senator Doug Ross (D-Royal Oak) told residents last week at a special Novi school board meeting to discuss tax-cut legislation pending in Lansing.

"If it were up to me, and I know there is no agreement on this, the state would state income tax," Ross told the group.

"The property tax is lousy. It doesn't to pay and there is no way that anyone is ever going to agree on the value of a have failed. home, so everyone is constantly angry," Ross said.

Ross explained a portion of the state income taxes paid by Novi residents go to other school districts, while property taxes go to the local district. He also explained that districts receive state funds based on the amount of millage they levy so that a district where a millage has failed would be entitled to less state funds.

Ross also told the group property taxes have become an issue in Michigan because over the past 15 before the state legislature that also years state aid to public education has declined.

Foster care home license blocked on Lleweyln site?

By KATHY JENNINGS

It appears that the licensing of an adult foster care home at the corner of Meadowbrook and Lleweyln may be averted as a result of a recent application for the licensing of a second home in the area.

An application has been filed for an adult foster care license at 41720 East Eight Mile where a mentally retarded man is being cared for. The home would be what is known as a "family home."

If approved, licensing of the home could effectively block establishment of a proposed group home at 41386 Lleweyln in Meadowbrook Manor Subdivision. The home has been proposed for six emotionally disturbed and developmentally disabled adults currently institutionalized at Clinton

The City of Novi has notified the Michigan Department of Social Services that it does not recommend licensing of the Meadowbrook House because it is "located less than 1,500 feet from an existing similar facility or another proposed facility."

State law provides there must be a minimum of 1,500 feet between licensed adult foster care facilities, unless the local municipality should decide to allow the establishment of two homes closer than 1,500 feet.

Geneveve Lopez of the State Department of Social Services confirmed facilities within 1.500 feet of one

She said the family-home application would take precedence over the propos- ly. He was taken into the home as a up home license because length of time it has been there.

"I'm now waiting for direction on that has been operating as an adult foster care home for several years. The city has responded that they feel there proposed facility and issuance of a all the criteria we feel would insure a license for the group home is not recomright now it doesn't change our plans," Krupka said. "It seems logical that the first one to file for a license would be the first ones to be licensed. If the first one is licensed it would be up to the city to decide whether it would consider a variance for the second home. If the license falls through then the second license would be considered. It stands to reason the first one to file should be the first one to be considered."

But Lopez said the family home would be considered for licensing first because it has been in existence.

Residents of Meadowbrook Manor Homeowners Association, who have opposed establishment of a group home, have come out in favor of the licensing of the family home.

Ken Wysocki, president of the association, reported the group favors licensing of the home.

"We have opposed the establishment of Meadowbrook House, a foster care facility for the mentally ill, proposed by Clinton Valey Center for a number of reasons. However, we have never been opposed to the concept of community placement for the mentally retarded. In fact, our research has led us to conclude that community placement can be very beneficial to individuals without adversely affecting the com-

Wysocki says conditions the Roderick Krupka of Clinton Valley homeowners association believe are community placement department said necessary of the successful operation of adult foster care homes include Social Services licensing procedures management of the home by a live-in that would allow the existing unlicensed operator and a residential population of one or two persons.

Wysocki urged the city to support licensing of the existing home which has "proven itself by its many years of successful operation.'

Leonard Randolph sustained injuries to the left side of his face, neck and left shoulder when he was shot with a 12 gauge shot gun.

Police have charged 32-year-old Edward Selman of 21399 Beck in connection with the incident.

Novi police reported that before the incident the man, his cousin and her husband had been drinking at a Northville bar where an argument began. They went home, the argument continued and threats were made, according to police reports.

According to police, Selman then fired one shot of a 12 gauge shot gun at point blank range at Randolph, striking him in the head and chest. Police reported the shot removed a portion of the man's law.

Novi police were called to the scene at 2:55 a.m. They met Northville and Northville Township police, who were originally called to the scene, at the Selman residence.

When police arrived Selman had already left the home, according to reports. He later was found by police in the back seat of a Northville police car. While police were inside the home, Selman allegedly let himself into a Nor-

According to the supervisor, State Senator Doug Ross (D-Oak Park) organized the meeting with Brickley and he also may sponsor a joint resolution considering a moratorium on annexation in Oakland County until the matter can be studied.

"We are asking for a moratorium so things can't get too far out of hand," Long said. "If things continue the way they are, every township in the county will have to incorporate (to protect itself from annexation)."

In fact, Commerce Township has filed for incorporation with the boundary commission. Long said the incorporation is viewed by the township as an effort to protect itself from further annex-

Commerce officials are hoping for action on the moratorium prior to October 29 — a date which could be a "death blow" to townships trying to keep their land from growing cities.

On October 29, the boundary commission will review seven annexation questions; among them, it is slated to approve the findings of the commission and order the proposed annexation of territory in Commerce to Walled Lake, according to commission chairman While time appears to be running out

Services mark death of Bill Reimer

Funeral services for William J. Reimer of Walled Lake were held October 15 at Richardson, Bird and Lynch Funeral Home in Walled Lake. Mr. Reimer, 70, died October 10 of cancer.

The son of Joseph F. and Evelyn Rasmussen Reimer, Mr. Reimer moved to Walled Lake 60 years ago this month. A graduate of Walled Lake High School, he grew up on a farm on West Maple Road and was the oldest of 10 children. Mr. Reimer worked for the Walled Lake Consolidated Schools for 24 years before retiring from his job as a maintenance foreman in 1978. He was a former Walled Lake City Council member, a member of the parks and recreation commission, Multi-Lakes Conservation Association and the Walled Lake Senior Citizens. Mr. Reimer also was a driving force in the Commerce Township Area Historical Society, which has

It reads, in part: "Bill Relmer's passing will be a great loss to the Walled Lake community where he lived most of his 70 years. And at the end of the landfill argument is the airstrip question and, for those who choose to look even farther, the potential upsurge in the economic climate of southwestern Oakland County.

Which will it be? The landfill or the airport?

It may already be too late for the nearby communities, even united, to sway the county decision. In what one local official has termed as the fight between "the big boys and the little kids," the larger governmental forces in Pontiac may hold the upper hand.

Bound for playoffs?

Despite what happened out at the Silverdome Monday, the Lions are still below the .500 mark. Michigan's Wolverines are falling far short of expectations. And nothing much was expected from Michigan State in the first

So where does the local gridiron enthusiast look for thrills, excitement and quality football this year?

The answer is simple — Novi High School.

After dropping their season opener, Coach John Osborne and his Novi Wildcats have put Mogether five straight victories and are on the verge of a Kens-Ington Valley Conference championship and a possible shot at the MHSAA Class B playoffs.

Novi has not qualified for the state playoffs since 1976 when the iteam was led by quarterback Randy Wroten and running back

The 1981 edition of the Novi team is almost a mini-version of the no-name Miami Dolphins, as Osborne utilizes virtually all his players in a true team effort. The strategy has proven successful, however, especially on defense where the Wildcats have posted three consecutive shutouts.

Qualifying for the playoffs this year will not be easy, however. Four teams stand ahead of the Wildcats in this week's MHSAA regional ratings and only the top two squads qualify for berths in the postseason tournament.

The Wildcats will need all the support they can get. And, since the last three games of the regular season are all at home, it might be particulary nice if more community residents turned out to cheer on our local heroes.

I'm going to do something risky. I'm going to confess a deep, dark, terrible secret right here in public. Here it is: I like electronic games. Also known as COADs, short for coin-operated amusement devices and sometimes as TOADs when one has to put a token in the front to get them started.

And if it's not enough to admit that I — an employed college graduate - like pinball machines and COADs. I'll up the ante and make it worse. I even like arcades. Just last week, in fact, I went into an arcade where there were rows and rows of those amusement devices. And you may not believe it, but nobody tried to sell me heroin or other drugs. Nobody harrassed me while I was hanging out there. I didn't even get pregnant.

All I did was play the games. Furthermore, that was what all the other people in the arcade were doing too, which is probably why they weren't bothering me and trying to get me in trouble by offering illegal drugs for sale. They were minding their own business. The arcade was clean, well-lit and going there did not entail associating with seedy characters. Basically, it was fun; it was harmless. Okay, I'll admit I'm taking a dramatic approach to a discussion of pinball machines and electronic games. But this subject needs a little exaggeration on the other side of the issue. So often lately, the extremist talk has been coming from people who seem to be frightened of electronic games; and fear tactics nearly always come into play when area officials get together to debate their pinball ordinances.

Without identifying anyone, I've heard a lot of talk from officials who don't know quite why they don't like electronic games. They just know they don't like them. And they don't want them in their town.

For the record, I think these people sincerely want what's best for their communities. But when it comes to regulating COADs and, worse still, arcades, selective blindness sets in. Amusement devices are taking a bum rap from a lot of people — officials and just plain citizens alike - who are upset about what they think are the trappings connected to COADs.

These people suggest that as soon as an amusement machine is plugged in somewhere bad things happen. The place becomes a hang-out and is plagued by robberies. Drugs are sold, teens socialize and pretty soon girls are getting pregnant all over the place. Sorry, but I just can't buy it. There is nothing inherently wrong with coin-operated amusement devices. There are sometimes problems with management in places where the machines are — just like there are sometimes problems with management in places where there are no machines. Let's be realistic, when problems arise in places where people gather to play COADs it isn't the machine's fault; it's management's fault. Repeat: It is not the machine's fault. Frankly, I am angered by the contention that people who like COADs are trouble-makers. I know many people who like to play electronic games; none of them looks for trouble when they're pumping quarters into machines. In fact, I've never even heard any stories from people that they did get into trouble in arcades or near machines. About the worst thing I've heard of happening is that kids spend their whole allowances playing Pak-Man or Space Invaders. As a matter of fact, I've spent a few dollars more than I should have on occasion, too. (Heck. Pak-Man is the only game I can beat my brother at; I've got to keep practicing.) But how much money I spend and how many tokens I buy or how much time I spend in an arcade is up to me.

No one is forcing me to go there. And a desire to play an electronic game is not going to make me go out and steal

If I had an electronic game outfit attached to my borrowed television, I'd probably go congregate in front of that instead of making a nuisance of myself in arcades. I know that's one place I wouldn't have to worry about being offered drugs ... or worse.

A golden anniversary citation has been awarded to the Brodhead-Farmington Hills Post 2269 of the eterans of Foreign Wars, according to Harry lutschke of Novi, chairman of the post's 50-year

The post and auxiliary are celebrating their golden anniversary Saturday (October 24) at the post home, 23414 Orchard Lake Road. National, state and county VFW representatives and local dignitaries will be on hand to mark the post's anniversary, Kutschke said.

The post was named after Colonel Thornton Brodhead, who will be remembered during the ceremony, along with past commanders and past presidents. Brodhead served in several Mexican campaigns and at one time owned the Detroit Free Press and served as its editor. He also served as postmaster of Detroit and in the Michigan Senate. Community service projects of the post include poppy sales, Memorial Day services, parades and helping needy families at holidays.

GERI'S HALLMARK celebrated its grand opening Saturday, October 10. The new store, located in Brookdale Square at Nine Mile and Pontiac Trail in South Lyon, has something for everyone, according to owner Geri Krolicki. Some of the store items include cards, gift wrapping, candles, jewelry, seasonal candy, stuffed animals, desk accessories and Christmas items. The tentative store hours are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Wednesday and Saturday; 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Thursday and Friday and 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sundays. Master Charge and Visa, as well as personal checks, are accepted.

THE METRO-DETROIT Miss National Teen-Ager Pageant, which will be a preliminary to the state pageant, is being held at the Plymouth Hilton Inn on Northville Road November 20-22. Awards for the competition are an all-expense paid weekend to compete in the 1982 state pageant, a $200 cash award, a $4,000 college scholarship to Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida, and trophies for winner, runners-up, community service, photogenic and congeniality winners. All contestants will be nominated to Who's Who Among American High School Students and thus qualify to compete for its $51,000 in scholarships.

Contestants must be 13 to 18 years old as of August 15, 1982. Interested girls are invited to contact the state directors Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Scarborough at Box 2838, Pensacola, Florida, 32503.

MARILYN DONOVAN of Rizzo Realty, Inc., Gallery of Homes has closed over $1.4 million in sales during the first three quarters of 1981. A company spokesperson stated that since joining Rizzo Realty one and one half years ago, Donovan has sold over three million dollars of real estate. Anthony V. Rizzo, president of the company, believes that it may be among the highest if not the highest average volume ever attained by any Northville salesperson.

"Considering the market is supposed to be in a depression Marilyn's production is amazing," Rizzo stated, "but if you known Marilyn, then it really is no surprise. I could go on with superlatives extolling Marilyn, but her record speaks eloquently, especially in a sophisticated community such as Northville."

Novi's stalwart defense not only stopped Lakeland's quarterback on this play — but the entire Eagle attack as well. The Wildcats have hutout their last three opponents and have not yielded a touchdown

NOVI-WALLED LAKE NEWS

Wednesday, October 21, 1981

Harriers prepare for regionals Warrior cagers split pair

Records fall for Novi tankers Vikings fall on gridiron

Takes KVC lead Novi levels Lakeland, 23-0 By DAVE JOHNSON Make no mistake - Novi's 23-0 victory over Lakeland last week was no upset. The Wildcats are for real. With the Kensington Valley Conference championship on the line and possibly a shot at the state playoffs, the opportunistic Wildcats converted three Lakeland turnovers into three touchdowns en route to a convincing triumph over a tough Eagle squad. The victory leaves the Wildcats (5-0 in the KVC, 5-1 overall) all alone in first place atop the KVC standings, one full game ahead of second place Lakeland (4-1, 5-1 overall). "I wouldn't say it's my greatest thrill in coaching," commented Novi coach John Osborne, "but it's certainly up "We knew if we just played our game and laid it all out on the field," continued Osborne, "we'd come out of this Novi's game - as it has been all year was defense. The shutout was its third straight following 14-0 and 22-0 triumphs over Brighton and Pinckney. And with the exception of a safety yielded at South Lyon, Novi's defense has held its opponents scoreless for 19 straight quarters. Not since Howell reached paydirt in the first quarter of Novi's home opener September 19 has the Wildcat defense allowed a six-point play. All totaled, Novi forced eight Eagle turnovers - four on the ground and four more through the air - against a team 5-0 coming into the game and a candidate for the Class A playoffs. "We beat a good football team," said Osborne. "Fortunately we got some catch-up."

Playoff picture shaping up

Despite Novi's key 23-0 victory over Class A Lakeland last week, the Wildcats remain in fifth place in their quest for the Class B - Region 3 All four teams ahead of Novi won their games last week as well, so the Wildcats won't move up. Only the top two qualify for the playoffs. So going into this week's Hartland contest, the top five slots for the Region 3 playoffs remain: 1.Avondale (6-0); 2.Marysville (6-0); Farmington Harrison (5-1); Marine City (6-0) and Novi (5-1).

Lakeland's initial turnover came Dave Williams pounced on a loose ball Osborne, "Saturday's win over breaks early and they had to play before many of its overflowing on the Eagles 29 yard line. homecoming supporters even reached which inevitably leads to more which inevitably leads to more which inevitably leads to more where on third down, junior halfback time." first quarter, junior defensive back Vince Meo galloped 15 yards for a 7-0 Make no mistake.

On the day, Meo sparkled with 66 yards on 13 carries to increase his team-leading rushing yardage to 207 yards on 35 carried for a 5.6 average. Senior quarterback Chris Caudell leads the team in scoring with 28 points. Three of his points came on the heal of a first quarter 73-yard, 10- play drive af er the Eagle punter had pinned Novi at its own eight yard line. The field goal covered 36 yards and gave Novi a 10-0 lead early in the second quarter. Lakeland got the ball back on the ensuing kickoff, but turned it over again on second down with Vince Buzolits recovering at the Eagle 16 yard line. Novi wasted no time in getting into the end zone as Caudell lofted a third down 14-yard scoring strike to Williams for a commanding 16-0 lead. Caudell missed the extra-point attempt, nowever, for only the second time all Novi rounded out the scoring on its next possession after John Pilch fell on yet another Eagle fumble at the 20 yard line on Lakeland's first play from scrimmage following Caudell's ensuing

This time Caudell hooked up with senior receiver Mark Moran on the first play for the final 23-point margin. With the victory safely in the bag, the Wildcats return home for its final three contests against Hartland (Friday), Milford and Northville. However, if Novi hopes to keep its first-place KVC status and a shot at the playoffs, it can't look past the Hartland

Lakeland would not have meant a Young Central harriers boast one of the best teams around

Don't ever play cards with Brian McKenna — we haven't really accomplished that much." country coach could hold a royal flush in his hand and his face wouldn't show it.

Going into Saturday's regionals in Flint, McKenna boasts one of the most talented teams in the state, a stacked deck — but he won't show his hand. "There are at least three other schools which could win our regionals," replied a most modest McKenna, "so we can't even start thinking state. Anything can happen in the regionals, so we'll just have to wait and see.' Of the 10 teams in Central's regional, McKenna sees the strongest challenge coming from Walled Lake Western, Rochester and Milford. And with Milford winning the Oakland County Invitational two weeks ago, they, in McKenna's opinion, are the team to beat. "We feel as a team we can win Saturday," projected McKenna, "but it's going to take our best efforts from the entire team to do it." With 10 teams participating, only the top two can advance to the state meet. And according to McKenna, getting to the states is what the entire season is

"It's nice to win your league and various invitationals during the year," said McKenna, "but all the fun stops now. It's time to get serious. This is what you've gone through dual meets and invitationals

"When it's all over," continued McKenna, "nobody asks how you did in September. They don't care how you did in your league. They ask 'did you go to the states?' And if you did they ask 'how far s unless we place first or second in the regionals, their favor. You can bet on that.

you'll lose your shirt. The Central girls' cross- Nevertheless, Central, en route to its 6-1 dual meet record, has impressed many a foe including Livonia Stevenson last Thursday (Ocotber 15). The Vikings outdistanced the Spartans 27-30 with Central's top three harriers placing one-two-three.

Of all the contestants who played the football contest this week, only winner Bruce Martin had the foresight to pick one of the biggest upsets during the Martin, a Northville resident, was the only entrant to pick unranked Arkant sas to upset top-ranked Texas, and it was this win which gave him the $10 first

In all, Martin had a total of 16 winners. His only losses were Milford Lakeland, Michigan and Wisconsin. Chris Odom, also of Northville, grabbed the $5 runner-up spot with 15 winners. He also thought Lakeland, Michigan and Texas would win as well as Western Michigan, which lost to Miami of Ohio. However, Odom was one of eight persons to think Michigan State would shock Wisconsin, 33-14. S. Paul Zuby of Farmington Hills, Karen Brining of Northville and Charles Eubanks of Northville all had 14 winners. But Zuby nipped Brining and Eubanks on the tie-breaker for the $3 third-place prize. In other key games, only two people picked Iowa to upend Michigan; 10 went with Toledo over Central Michigan; 18 with Lakeland over Novi and 15 with Miami of Ohio over Western. This week, 10 contestants had 13 right, 14 had 12 winners and 12 had 11 right.
