In a process that was easier than some council members expected, James Shaw was appointed to fill a twoyear council vacancy in the first round of balloting Saturday. He was sworn into office Monday.

Shaw, 37 and a teacher at Farmington Harrison High School, formerly served on the council from 1975-79. He gave up his council seat in 1979 to run unsuccessfully against Romaine Roethel for the office of mayor.

Council members interviewed five candidates — John Roethel, Michel Duchesneau, Edward Dobek, Arlen Schroeder and Shaw — for the position November 18 and met three days later to make their decision.

ministrators can "pat themselves on or approximately nine percent of total the back" for reducing expenditures in 1981, for keeping the city's millage levy below average and generally for keeping good financial records, according to auditor Tom Doescher.

"This is basically a 'clean opinion," Doescher, of Plante & Moran told the council in his annual audit report Monday. He went on to compliment the city for its financial operation and the cooperation the auditors received from department heads.

The financial statement for the 1980-81 fiscal year showed the city took in a total of $3.8 million in general fund revenues.

General fund revenues are primarily generated by property taxes. This fiscal year property taxes made up approximately 53 percent of the general fund revenues — more than $2 million.

State and federal revenues totalled more than $1 million, or 26 percent of general fund revenues. Licenses and permit fees brought in $400,000 and in-

Novi city council members and ad- vestment earnings generated $348,000 of the building department. general fund revenues.

Doescher said that Novi compares with other communities since property taxes usually make up 50 percent of a community's revenues and state shared revenues are 20-30 percent. "Novi falls in that category."

General fund expenditures, which include monies spent directly on services for local taxpayers, totaled more than $3.2 million. Expenditures dropped from $3.24 million one year ago.

Operation of the police and fire departments represented the largest city expenditures, nearly $1.8 million, or 55 percent of the general fund.

The second largest expense was for general government which includes administrative services such as the assesor's office, finance department, clerk's office and building and grounds. The $944,000 spent on general government was 30 percent of general fund expenditures.

Novi also spent $311,000 for operation

Overall, the city took in $702,376 more than it spent during 1980-81 fiscal year. When added to $704,948 carried over from the preceeding fiscal year the financial report shows the city has a $1.4 million fund balance.

It was explained the city received more revenues than anticipated, driving up the fund balance, because 1980 census figures qualified the city for more state shared revenues than received in previous years.

Approximately $1.2 million of the $1.4 million fund balance has been earmarked to be spent in the 1981-82 budget. Some $800,000 will be used for a number of purposes, including heavy equipment purchases, building department expenses, drain payments and to meet cash flow requirements. Another $403,000 will be used to balance the 1981-82 budget. The remaining $204,000 will be carried over as unreserved fund balance.

New development proposed on west side of Novi Road

Development in Novi's regional center area (around Twelve Oaks Mall) appears to be forging ahead despite interest rates and the general state of the economy.

Michael Ward, an executive vice president with Ramco-Gershenson developers of the West Oaks shopping center, appeared before the Novi City Council Monday with plans for the development of an 12-acre parcel immediately north of the West Oaks shopping center. Ward told The News following his appearance before the council that interest in further development in Novi is based on the quality of the regional center area as opposed to any feelings that the economy will improve in the immediate future.

"I really don't see any great improvement in the economy during 1982, but there continues to be a lot of interest in the area around West Oaks and Twelve Oaks," he said.

"Interest rates are dropping right now, but they'll probably shoot up again in the spring and I don't look for any real economic improvement before this time next year at the earliest."

'We got a lot of calls from people who. want to be part of the regional center area.'

Michael Ward Ramco-Gershenson

Specifically, Ward appeared before the council to ask that Ramco-Gershenson be permitted to proceed with development plans without having to use the city's RC (regional center) zoning district. The city requires submittal of site plans in the RC district before considering rezoning requests for the area.

Ward said Ramco-Gershenson wants extends north to Twelve Mile and is future date.

located along the east side of the proposed north-south leg of West Oaks

Ward said he concurs with the concept of the RC zoning designation, but that he cannot present site plans because he does not yet know what stores will be involved.

"We're talking about such uses as a carpet store, appliance store, nurseries or a movie theater," he said. "They all will be free-standing uses which don't need West Oaks or Twelve Oaks to generate traffic. They're the kinds of uses which can stand on their own and will complement — not duplicate — the existing uses.

"It won't be a shopping center and it won't be a row of shops side by side," he continued. "They type of people we're talking to are all free-standing uses which will have their own identity.

Council members reserved comment to proceed with development of a 12- on Ward's request to set aside stanacre parcel immediately north of K dards which require submittal of site mart in the West Oaks shopping center plan in conjunction with rezoning reand directly behind the Art Van fur- quests. Bob Evans proposes Novi restaurant site cording to the advertising jingle But he soon may be moving one of his restaurants to Novi's regional center area, according to plans revealed to the Novi Planning Board last week. Specifically, Bob Evans representative Wolfgang Doerschlag asked the planning board for site plan approval of a 4,834 square-foot Bob Evans Farm estaurant on a .8 acre parcel on the west side of Novi Road between I-96 and Twelve Mile. The proposed restaurant would be located in front of the West Oaks shopping center. Concerns with the site plan were expressed by Planning Consultant Charles Cairns who said the restaurant does not meet the off-street parking requirements of the city's zoning ordinance. Cairns told planners that the West Oaks shopping center was required by ordinance to have a total of 1,198 parking spaces, but that only 1,165 spaces are shown on the approved West Oaks site plan. Additionally, Cairns reported that the Bob Evans Farm site does not contain sufficient parking to meet ordinance requirements

"They (Bob Evans) propose to meet their parking equirements by using some of the West Oaks parking areas, but in our opinion they cannot do it because the shopping center already contains less than the required number of spaces," he said. "If our (off-street parking) figures are correct, the shopping center is a non-conforming use at the present time because there is insufficient parking."

restaurants. The city has retained the right to address architectural appearance of the building because it has been 'submitted for development under the PD-3 (Planned Developmentcommercial) option in the Regional Center zoning

Cairns suggested that consideration be given to modifying the appearance and materials in the restaurant so it will be more compatible with adjacent uses in the regional center area. Doerschlag responded, however, he will not build in Novi if he is told to change the architecture. "We have 74 Bob Evans restaurants in seven states and they all look alike," he said. "That architecture is our trademark.' Doerschlag also said he has been looking for a site in Novi for the past four years. "We live by our motto," he commented, "we do it right or we don't do

The planners subsequently voted 8-0 to recommend preliminary site plan approval for the Bob Evans restaurant contingent on approval of a landscaping plan and a legal opinion from the city attorney reqarding off-street parking requirements. The motion also called for the site plan to be turned down if the city attorney rules that the parking requirements have not been met. Denial of the site plan will permit Bob Evans representatives to seek a variance on parking requirements from the Novi

When Jesus Gave Thanks Dr. James Luther

Some of your Thanksgiving plans are probably already made. A special gathering, a huge meal, a football game, a party, these things help create anticipation of a pleasant day with loved ones. But, if cept giving thanks. And that's what it's really a When giving thanks, most people readily think of Family, friends, home, country, health, and freedom. These are all natural contenders for our thankfulness.

Jesus was thankful for the simplicity of the Gospel:
"I thank Thee, O Father, ... because thou hast hidden these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes" (Matthew 11:25). Aren't you grateful that His salvation is available to you on the basis of simple faith, and that anyone can understand it? Tell Him about it!

Jesus gave thanks for daily food. When Jesus performed the miracle of feeding over 5,000, He took the little loaves and "when he had given thanks, he gave to the disciples" (John 6:11). You may not take time to give thanks for your food, but Jesus did! He held the bread made from grain that He created, and gave thanks.

Finally, Jesus gave thanks for the cross. Christ's most difficult act of gratitude may have been at the first communion service. "And when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, Take, eat; this is my body, which is broken for you" (I Corinthians 11:24). Jesus gave thanks over the symbol of His coming death! Anyone can give thanks for sunshine and success, but what about crosses and losses?

At this Thanksgiving, let's follow the example of Christ. "In everything give thanks" (I Thess. 5:18), but most of all, be thankful to God "for His unspeakable gift" the Lord Jesus Christ Himself who died to save us from sin.

According to Mahrle, the issue is whether the DNR can supercede the ordinances of local townships. He suggests the DNR should not be able to approve a site for a marina if local government Mahrle says the issue is a "rehash of what we went through a year ago" with a previous request to establish a marina on Union Lake. In April 1980, the beach club - represented by James Hamilton, Thomas Koosis and William Delyon — asked the DNR for permission to operate a marina at the same location. The DNR turned down the application and required property owners to remove the docks that had already been installed there.

At that time, a temporary restraining order was placed on owners of the marina by Oakland County Circuit Court Judge Steven Andrews. The county The township has no current zoning classification prosecutor's office charged marina owners with i legally constructing and operating a marina, viola tions of the state inland lakes and streams acts of 1972. Obviously, the two proposals - both the ring-road and the TC zoning district — are intrinsically related. They work hand-in-hand with each other.

Discussion of the two proposals has been going on for from the overall goals and objecseveral years, but it is only tives. recently that significant progress has been made toward developing a concrete ring-road proposal and a new zoning district to encourage specific types of development in the town center area.

Unfortunately, the impetus for the accelerated pace in recent months has been the arrival of séveral uses in the town center area which are inconsistent with the apparent goals and objectives of both planners and council members for the Grand River/-Novi Road intersection.

Development of a ring-road proposal was targeted as a prioriv item by the council earlier this if it permits "zero lot lines" in the year, but development of a town town center area, according to center zoning district came about only after planners were confronted with requests for a car main intersection.

Although some damage may already have been done to the town center area, there seems to be reason for optimism that recent trends can be reversed and the area can be developed into an asset for the city.

Although the city must hold public hearings before proceeding with a ring-road program, it is interesting that there appears to be considerable support for it among a majority of property owners in both the northeast and southeast quadrants of some interesting decisions in the Development of the TC district is a second issue which should be tackled and resolved with all due haste before the city is confronted with additional development that could detract

Although Cairns has presented the planning board with a proposed draft of a TC zoning district, he noted that the city has to make some important policy decisions before the amendment can be adopted and inserted into the zoning or-

Specifically, Cairns said those policy decisions relate to setback requirements. It is at least a possibility that Novi could someday achieve something that looks like a conventional central business district (similar to Northyille or Plymouth, for example)

If zero lot lines are permitwash and used car lot at the city's ted, buildings could be constructed immediately adjacent to each other, sharing a common wall and thus giving the appearance of traditional central business districts.

> On the surface, it is an attractive possibility. But there are questions about the feasibility of the proposal which will have to be studied long and hard before a concrete committment is made.

> An planning ideal has little value if it has no chance of becoming reality.

the news on the streets, I could never comfortably substitute a cold metal manual typewriter for my soft, feathery pillow (much less sleep sans a stuffed animal). So when the latest barb in the longest war around, excluding the now state-renowned (or is that renounced?) annexation between Commerce Lake and Walled Township, depicted a reporter slumped over a typewriter and noted all the stories "our competition" had

The title is catching on like typhoid in Jackson.) You have to understand, as a reporter, it's fun to have competition. Business people usually enjoy a monopoly situation. But another paper in town keeps you on your toes in the news biz. The other folks (who like to call themselves the Novi Newsweekly in the phone book but never, ever on their own pages) ran that advertisement boasting about all the stories they've written that we've missed. I guess it was supposed to bolster readers' beliefs that they were doing close to, if not, Pulitzer Prize stuff. (Look out, Janet Cooke.) Of course, they never mentioned their lead story one week about the Wolverine Lake dam breaking (we're still waiting), which they call the "damn dam" story around their office so I'm told. They also caught us "sleeping" when they ran a story about how one local city council member had to go to the bathroom before a meeting had ended. We apologize to those of our readers who feel left out because they never saw the story on our pages. Just during the week prior to the November 4 issue we "slept" our way to stories on election results from Walled Lake, Novi and Wixom; hat Commerce's referendum petitions had been filed in the capital; and a couple of stories on the annexation fight in Lansing. Word travels slow in these parts, so I'm told, and out in Union Lake (where insomnia is the key to a good publication) they caught us napping and ran the items in ...

The interesting thing is it works both ways. Sometimes they have. news first, sometimes we do (count on it — parts of this sentence will ... show up in a future ad of theirs). And our perspectives on news coverage aren't the same anyway. While they're more interested in landfills and water quality, we're more interested in annexation proceedings and senior citizen dilemmas. So why the silent war? At least from my perspective, I suspect it's because of some of the encounters we've had when we do cover the same things.

I've had some interesting dealings with the tabloid. One of my favorites was the exclusive interview I got with Peter Parker after he had found a job in Mount Pleasant. Next week, the story ran on the Union Lake pages complete with quotes from my previous article lifted inaccurately. (Some snappy correspondence traded hands between the bigwigs of the two publications over this one.)

Another one of my most enjoyable moments in journalism around these parts came about when one of the Union Lake reporters asked if I was going to write another story about security problems in the Villa because she didn't think it was a story. (Kind of similar to the harrassment I took from her over doing a story on the Springpark flooding. "See what you've started," I was told when residents continued to seek relief of their problem from the city - and my Union Lake "friend" had to write

I, personally, once made the tabloid's pages as "one wag," (all right so I wiggle when I walk) based off a conversation I had in a parking lot after a meeting with one of their reporters, who almost always rolls into her meetings with wet hair (rain or shine). (By the way, I wonder if they heard the rumor that we are buying the New York Times? Nah, me

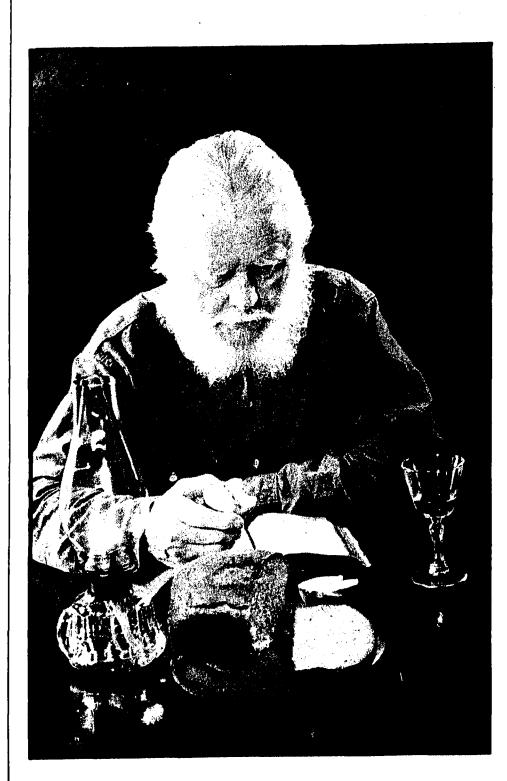

But seriously, they're a fun gang out there. I enjoyed watching all of their faces from publisher to reporter when I showed up to cover their land use seminar with a photographer — and they were caught with their pants (or skirts) down and people had to read about it on our front page. I've also enjoyed the way the non-unioned Union Lake-based tabloid played up a lawsuit with the Pontiac-based daily broadsheet when one of heir section's names were allegedly stolen, but nary a word has appeared about our suing them for claiming the title the Novi Newsweekly (our number's 624-8100 for those of you that keep getting confused).

And I have one last true confession: That couldn't have been any of us at that typewriter — we have little computers that BEEP...BIP...and spit . 3 out messages like "ARE YOU SURE ABOUT THIS?" Sure I'm sure. We're having a good time around here laughing about non-news stories. Remember the Detroit-based evening broadsheet that told you about the shuttle launch that never happened? Out in Union Lake

I've been told by "one wag" they're still waiting for the "damn dam" to break — so they can have the last laugh. I guess that's okay — they've kept us laughing many a Wednesday

Economics influence annex halt support

Support of the countywide annexation moratorium from Oakland County commissioners representing districts including townships was a given — even before the resolution was put to a vote last Thursday.

But why commissioners in districts that are totally city government fell in line as proponents of the moratorium is a question that some advocates of continued annexation proceedings are asking

Commissioner James Doyon (D-10th District), representing Madison Heights and Royal Oak, favored the moratorium so that a study might be conducted for land use in Oakland County. Doyon spoke with Sliger Home Newspapers last Friday, following the board of commissioners' Thursday session, and explained cities are wary of industry eing attracted to outlying areas looking to grow. 'I think what we need to do is look at why we aren't more attractive,'' Doyon said about cities in Doyon verified that prior to the board's vote, he told Walled Lake City Manager J. Michael Dornan that there is trepidation on the part of southeast county cities that more wide open areas such as Walled Lake and South Lyon, both involved in annexation proceedings, may lure businesses away from the municipalities. "I represent an area, as do other commissioners in the south end of the county, where there is prime land available and we already have services,' Doyon said. "One of the major reasons urban sprawl is continuing is that expansion went on without any checking.

The commissioner explained that the county has limited control of growth and expansion under the current planning system.

"If a piece of land in Walled Lake or Novi were to be rezoned, we have no jurisdiction," Doyon noted, adding that townships face at least some type of review by a branch of the county. "We supported the moratorium because we'd like to look at it," he said. "We'd like to come to a com-

Another reason that some commissioners representing cities may be throwing their support behind the moratorium is what Doyon suggested may be a repeat of what many of those municipalities went through in the past.

Former higher tar smokers acclaim MERIT "Best-tasting low tar I've tried."

The most rigorous MERIT research to date has just been completed.

4-B-SOUTH LYON HERALD-NORTHVILLE RECORD-WALLED LAKE-NOVI NEWS-Wednesday, November 25, 1981

Result: MERIT smokers confirm taste a major factor in completing their successful switch from higher tar cigarettes.

MERIT Taste Sparks Switch.

Nationwide survey reveals over 90% of MERIT smokers are glad they switched from higher tar cigarettes. In fact, 94% don't even miss their former brands.

Further Evidence: 9 out of 10 former higher tar smokers report MERIT an easy switch, that they didn't give up taste in switching, and that MERIT is the best-tasting low tar they've ever tried.

Warning: The Surgeon General Has Determined That Cigarette Smoking Is Dangerous to Your Health.

MERIT Beats Toughest Competitors.

In the second part of this study, new tests confirm that MERIT delivers a winning combination of taste and low tar when compared with higher tar leaders.

Confirmed: The overwhelming majority of smokers reported MERIT taste equal to—or better than—leading higher tar brands.

Confirmed: When tar levels were revealed, 2 out of 3 chose the MERIT combination of low tar and good taste.

Year after year, in study after study, MERIT remains unbeaten. The proven taste alternative to higher tar smoking—is MERIT.

SEMCOG reports building decline

Economic problems in Southeast Michigan were again reflected in the number of residential building permits issued for the first six months of 1981.

Last year's record lows were surpassed slightly in this year's first six months as only 3,743 permits were issued, down 4.4 percent from the 3,914 permits issued during the first six months of 1980 which were, in turn, substantially below the 11,428 permits issued in the first six months of 1979.

Central whips Western enroute to district finals

In mauling their first two district opponents last week, first Milford 61-27 and then Walled Lake Western 47-31, Ken Butler's Walled Lake Central cagers forced a rematch of last year's district final confrontation with Brighton. The winner of last night's (Tuesday) district finals moves on to the regionals at Howell.

Last year the Bulldogs forged ahead to a commanding 41-20 lead, but the Vikings engineered a valiant comeback only to fall three points short at the buzzer, 61-58. In their only meeting this year, Brighton

The double post-season victories in tournament play finally elevated the Vikings to an even .500, 11-11, for the first time since early in the season when they were 1-1 prior to an eight game skid. Entering the Brighton contest, the Vikings had won 10 of their last 12 games including their last four in a row. Brighton, meanwhile, was 17-3 and unbeaten (14-0) Kensington Valley

In getting to the finals, Central has now achieved that goal in each of the last five years, advancing to the regionals in Butler's first two years as the girls' coach, 1977 and 1978, only to finish runnerup in

Milford thought it had the arsenal to deny Central's return, but after holding the Vikings in check for the first quarter, the bigger and superior Vikings won out. Playing a man-to-man defense Milford stayed close through the first eight minutes, 14-9, but an 18-6 second quarter onslaught left the Redskins daffy, 32-15 at

"I was really surprised to see them come at us man-to-man," asserted Butler.

Only Fran Cullen could muster up any kind of offense cashing in on a dozen points for the Warriors.

Artley knew it would have taken a super effort to beat Central this time out with the Vikings' improved play in recent weeks (10 wins in their last 12 outings)

"But with Ohio State upending Michigan we thought 'hey, this could be a day of upsets, it could be us," said Artley.

Despite their rather lackluster offensive performance, the Warriors did hang tough with some pretty scrappy defense. Senior guard Bridgett Arens flustered Central on numerous occasions with her pressing defense. Freshman center Val Hall also played well considering she was pitted against All-Everything candidate Amy Rembisz. Hall grabbed 10 rebounds, most of them in the second quarter while Rembisz, saddled with four early all-conference squad.

Hall fouled out in the third quarter, "Of course Central had something to but according to Artley, gained a lot of invaluable experience against Rem-

> "Val was a little nervoùs," said Artley, "but she won't be nervous next year as a sophomore. It's going to be nice having a 6-3 center in there on a regular basis."

Of course Artley plans on employing a host of other girls from Sharon Young's 16-3 Western Six Championship jayvee team — a team that went 8-0 in league play.

Three graduating seniors who won't be around next season are Jill Orcut, Pearl Maguire and Joyce VanVelzor.

VanVelzor, Western's leading rebounder and second leading scorer with a 10.0 average, was recently named to the Western Six All-Conference second team at forward. Cathy Artley, the team's leading scorer with a 14.0 average, earned first team honors at guard. Three Warriors - Cullen, Arens and Mary Wallace - received honorable mention recognition on the

> "The pros average about 28 putts per 18 holes, but of course their greens are newhat tougher to judge than those at the high school level. But that's Scott's strength — sinking the long putt on very tricky greens."

Of all the players Chapple has coached in his 13 years at the helm, the Viking mentor believes Kowalske ranks in the top five or six, which still puts him in pretty good company considering three former Vikings earned All-State

Christmas – a time for recollections

Perhaps it is the recollection of a robin amid the snow-brushed branches on a cold December day. . . or the excitement felt by all when Dad brought

Christmas is made up of as many memories as there are stars in the sky,

For some, it is the memory of a store window, imaginatively decorated with mechanical figures. . . for others, the weeks spent rehearsing carols in the choir loft. . . or, spotting that wished-for bicycle under the tree on Christmas

We may remember those special aromas that emanated from the kitchen just before the holidays. .

We may think back on shopping in the dime store for a long list of friends and relatives, all the while clutching a few prescious dollars in our hand. . . or, the surprise appearance of a friend or relative we had not expected to see one when they secretly knit that special muffler or sweater...others, to the time when a son or daughter performed

Softly falling snow may bring back sisters. . . while others may remember lives forever in our hearts.

Was there a Christmas when a kitten was found under the tree? Or, one when you were alone in another town, and neighbors invited you in?

Perhaps the Christmas that stands out in your memory is the Christmas you became engaged. . . or, the time you received your favorite doll.

Christmas may bring back the joy o a special reunion, long ago. . . or the still-fresh memory of a walk in the woods after a snowstorm. The sights and sounds of Christmas may recall an heirloom that decorated the family tree for so many years. . .the memory of carolers who sang outside your door last year. . .or, the first time you ever read Dickens' "A Christmas

Christmas is time to shop for gifts, decorate the house...and send out greeting cards. Christmas cards are so much a part of the holiday tradition that it's hard to imagine a time when they didn't exist. Yet, it wasn't until 1843 that the first Christmas greeting card was designed by John Calcott Horsley, the English

Since then, cards of all kinds have found their way into the postman's sack. They reflect the sender's taste and interests in many ways, as well as current trends. Today's comical Santa, for instance, is more apt to be riding a mo-ped instead of a sleigh.

There are always many religious themes to be found in yearly card selections — the Madonna and Child, the wise men, manger scenes and the Star

Have you noticed how people are different in the amount of warm memories they have stored up on their family

Building fond family memories requires that time be spent together as a family-playing, laughing and just simply enjoying each other's company.

Some families have already decided to plan for moments together as a unit. They repeat these happy occasions each year and thus, good times become warm family traditions.

It is these traditions which keep a family close even when separated by hundreds of miles or long periods of time. Other families have not yet begun to build their family memories. What better time than the holidays to begin your own family traditions?

One way some families begin is to call the family together for an evening. They make it special with a snack and iust talk about the holiday times they each remember most warmly.

If you're a new family and your respective childhood family traditions are very different, keep some of each other's traditions and begin to build some new ones of your own, which may be totally new or a combination of your different childhood traditions.

lot of money or take a lot of preparation (an important consideration for working parents). The main ingredient in building warm family memories is that it is time spent together doing things everyone enjoys.

To give you some starter ideas, we asked people of various ages, "What is your warmest memory of family times during the holiday season?" These are some of the responses we received.

"The fondest memory I hold during these gatherings is the 'Sing-songs' with one member playing the piano and the rest of us crowding around. We would sing songs from the past and present. Perhaps the voices would not always harmonize but the togetherness was a harmony!"

"The best family times were when we'd ALL have dinner together and sit around the table afterwards and laugh, kid, and joke about growing up—the past. Then we'd all watch slides and make comments."

"The fondest memory I have is when I was a little girl. My family and I would gather together on Christmas Eve to hang our red stockings and then we would leave a warm homemade Christmas cookie and some hot cocoa on a tray before the fireplace for Santa

On Christmas morning before opening any presents we would just check to make sure that Santa ate his cookie and drank his hot cocoa. We'd know by the traces of a few leftover crumbs. We felt warm and happy inside."

"Every year we make cut-out cookies together and decorate them with powdered sugar frosting."

"In our family, we chose a night to decorate the house for the holidays. We'd decorate together as a family and then we'd celebrate this beginning of the holiday season occasion with a special meal. It might be just an old dish fixed in a new way, but it was a special night for all of us.'

"The fondest memory I have of our family times at the holidays is on the first Sunday of Advent when we brought out the advent wreath. We put a dish in the center of the wreath and each night as the candles were lit, we each told the things we did for someone else that

"With each 'good deed' we got to put a stick of straw in the dish to build a manger for the Christ child. When we came back from midnight Mass, we'd run to see if the Christ child (which mom or dad put in after we had left the house for Mass) was laying in our manger. We'd then put Him in the Creche."

"The nicest Christmas I recall is the one where we had friends who were too far from home to be with their families so they would come to our home for dinner, each contributing a dish to the Several persons mentioned the trimming of the Christmas tree. One person especially remembered the fun times of cutting down their own tree.

corn, singing carols and having game

One person spoke of a tradition of exchanging a Christmas tree bulb with a new friend that had developed that year. The bulb was not new but one that had hung on the family tree for many years. The name of the family was taped to the bulb we received.

"Each year when we trimmed the tree, we remembered these friends. This was especially meaningful since we moved often and were separated by many miles from these old friends."

In these times of rising inflation and, for some, unemployment, stress levels tend to increase. One resource that we have which can be multiplied without much cost is family togetherness.

Building warm family memories can help each of us lower the stress level in our lives, particularly during the holidays but throughout the year as

Tree-trimming has lengthy traditions

Of all the preparations for Christmas, probably one of the most delightful is the trimming of the tree.

How did this charming custom begin? Some suggest that the tradition dates back to pre-Christian beliefs in the magical powers of evergreens.

The ancient Romans, for instance, decorated their homes with greenery for the festival of Saturn, or Saturnalia. This important feast was celebrated during December.

The association of trees with Christmas became defined during the Middle Ages, when miracle plays were performed, often in church, to teach stories from the Bible.

In the miracle plays, an evergreen tree was used to depict the Garden of Eden, with apples hung from the boughs to symbolize the forbidden fruit eaten by Adam and Eve.

Although the miracle plays gradually fell into disuse, the evergreen tree remained as part of the holiday tradition in Europe.

Cookies were added to the apples, and yet another form of decoration was borrowed from "pyramid trees" that were also popular during the 16th century:

In the 18th century, sugartrees, trees trimmed with sweet meats, were popular. These gilded nuts and fruits gradually evolved into Victorian glass shapes, precursors of today's or-

It was Prince Albert, consort of Queen Victoria, who popularized the custom of the Christmas tree in However, America was introduced to during the Revolution and by German settlers in the mid-eighteenth century.

Tree-trimming challenges imagination

Here's useful tips on caring for tree

The Christmas tree has been a holiday tradition since the end of the 18th century, but historians say its origins go back much farther than that. "One account puts it clear back in 11th or 12th century Germany," says Harold Davidson, extension horticulturist at Michigan State Universi-

"In one of the mystery plays performed in the churches during the 11th through 15th centuries, gaily decorated fir trees represented the Garden of

"These paradise trees were surrounded by a large ring of lighted candles. Inside this ring, the story of Adam and Eve and the expulsion from the garden was played out."

Sometime during the 15th century, the church authorities suspended the performance of mystery plays in the churches. The people took the paradise trees into their homes.

There the trees became part of the custom of lighting candles on December 24 to celebrate the birth of Christ. The candles were usually placed on a pyramid-shaped stand and decorated with glass balls, holly berries and other brightly colored objects. When the people began to put the candles and other decorations on the paradise trees, the Christmas tree was

"The tradition of the Christmas tree was carried to the New World during the Revolutionary War by Hessian mercenaries with the British," Davidson said. "The custom spread quickly, and by the beginning of the 1800's, had become a traditional part of Christmas

WHEN YOU BRING your Christmas tree home, you can take measures to keep it fresh and attractive. If you decide not to set it up immediately, it will keep better if placed in a bucket of water in a cool, shaded area, sheltered from the wind.

Just before putting the tree in its stand, you should cut about an inch or two of the trunk off squarely at the base. This will allow the tree to take up water more readily.

A tree stand filled with water will help prevent needle drop and will greatly increase the tree's resistance.

Using a bucket of wet sand for a tree stand will also help keep a tree fresh. A pint to a quart of water should be added to the stand each day; keep the water level above the bottom of the trunk.

For safety, the tree should not be decorated with cotton, paper or other materials that burn readily. Wax candles and other types of open flame should be avoided.

Lights and wiring should be checked for worn spots and cracks, and care

YOUR OWN convenience and family customs will determine how long the Christmas tree remains in your home. Christmas trees are brought into the Children will long for these toys

By BOB GRITZINGER

When your little boy or girl sits on Santa's lap this year, odds are they'll be asking for a few toys that were big sellers last Christmas. More likely than not, those toys will be based on popular television shows and movies of the year

Take the "Dukes of Hazzard," for example. Last year there were "Dukes of Hazzard" cars and dolls. This year there are "Dukes" stunt sets, play sets, dress-up sets and race car sets — not to mention "Dukes of Hazzard" wrist racers (which will be very popular).

"Toys based on television shows a

"Toys based on television shows are always very big," said Sharon Kowaleski, manager of the Circus World Toy Store in Novi's Twelve Oaks Mall. Kowaleski said she also expects electronic games to maintain their popularity this year.

Then there's the "Star Wars" collection to consider. Every time the makers of "Star Wars" come out with a new movie — like "The Empire Strikes Back" — the makers of kids' toys bring out a whole new (and popular) line of toys based on the movie's characters and gadgets. This year, toy makers have come out with everything from "snow speeders" to "Taun Taun," whose package describes him as "one mammal with removable saddle and reins." According to Bonnie Gow, a toy department salesperson at the Big Wheel in Howell, a complete line of "Empire Strikes Back" characters, critters and gadgets are available. She

Another popular toy will be "Stomper," a battery-operated, four-wheel drive mini-truck. One "must" accessory for the "Stomper" will be the big hill for the truck to climb (natural-ly)

The toy to buy this year was also the toy to buy last year. Coleco (a company that makes electronic games) came out with the "Strawberry Shortcake" doll

Although most Americans dispose of their trees on New Year's Day or the following day, some, notably in Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands, keep their trees until after the Epiphany.

WHEN YOU VISIT a retail Christmas tree lot, you will, no doubt, want to purchase a good Christmas tree—one that is fresh and appealing to the eye. Of course, size, shape and kind of tree will also be important to you.

Here are some tips for choosing a tree that will stay fresh and green throughout the holiday season:

• Bend a needle on the tree. If it is resilient, the tree is fresh.

• Bump the base of the tree hard on the ground. If the needles do not fall, the tree is fresh. (Some species — spruce, for example — do not retain their needles well. This is characteristic of the tree and does not necessarily reflect a lack of freshness).

necessarily reflect a lack of freshness).
Feel the bottom of the stump. On fresh trees, it feels sappy moist.

The kind of tree you buy — cedar, pine, fir, spruce or other — will dépend on what the local lots have to offer for sale, or what you can cut. Personal preferences play a big part in tree selection

What size tree to buy depends on ceiling height and where the tree will be placed in your home. Some people want a slender tree; others, a larger and bulkier tree. Some people prefer a full, compact tree; others like more open space for ample decoration.

Although most people prefer a well-rounded and shapely tree, you may find it more practical to buy one that is somewhat flat or sparsely branched on one side so it can fit into a corner or against a wall. This type, you will find, is also often more economical.

last year and since then toy stores have been hard-pressed to keep the dolls on the shelves.

"Strawberry Shortcake" comes in three sizes — 3-inch, 6-inch, and a 17inch rag doll, according to Gloria Eggers, the toy department manager at K mart in the Brighton Mall. "Shortcake" and her friends, "Lemon Meringue," "Raspberry Tart" and "Orange Blossom," (to name a few in the collection) all emit the aroma of their namesake scent. The most popular dolls seem to be the smaller varieties, Eggers said.

Eggers said.

All toy department managers have stocked extra quantities of these toys in anticipation of increased Christmas sales, but if you want to be sure that your little one won't be disappointed on Christmas Day — buy now before the rush

Cookie house is family activity

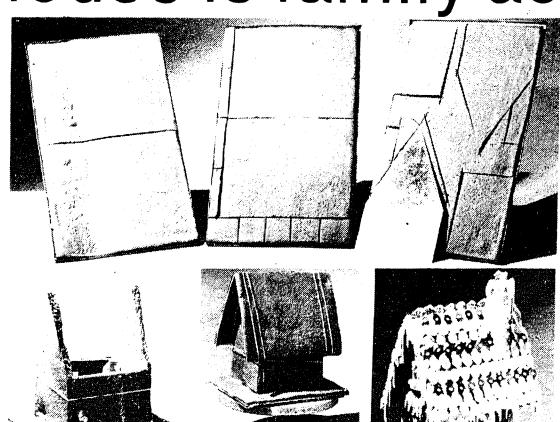

Christmas is the ideal time for family projects like baking a çookie house but if you don't have either the time or inclination to bake, you can still make a charming cookie house by simply using graham crackers and cake decorations.

To make this cookie house, you'll need around 17 graham cracker units (each made up of two squares) a small tube of decorating gel, a small bottle of cinnamon hots, about ½ box of powdered sugar, a can of coconut flakes and a small box of caramel popcorn.

Have the youngsters decorate the crackers to be used for the sides and front and back of the house with doors and windows, using the gel and cin-

(You'll need two units for the front and back, three for the sides.) Make a paste of the powdered sugar by adding water and then carefully join the squares together to create a standing structure of front, back and sides. Join three undecorated units together to form each side of what will eventually be the roof.

Next, join the two roofing sides together at right angles before setting them on top of the standing structure. Make sure "roofing" is secure before setting it in place.

To fill the space left between the roof and front of the house, cut a small rectangular piece of cracker and join it to the roof and front with your paste, fill in the rest of the space with caramel popcorn, again using the paste as a mortar. Repeat procedure for back of the house. Dribble paste generously over the roof, then sprinkle coconut flakes for a snow-topped effect.

The youngsters will enjoy having this 'instant' cookie house to admire especially if they've helped to make it

Much to the child's wonder, a plant at her feet began to bud and then unfold into lovely, white flowers. The little girl quickly plucked the flowers—here was a gift worthy of the Babe.

She placed them at the feet of Jesus. As His tiny feet touched the blossoms, suddenly the petals turned pink.

Christmas offers special tastes

There are the sounds of Christmas. the sights of Christmas and the smells of Christmas.

But what about the tastes of Christmas? Certainly the holiday season provides a goodly share of special tastes which add to the festivities. If you're the type who enjoys cooking, particularly during the holidays, take a look at these special recipes.

BACON BUTTERFLIES

Cut bacon slices in half lengthwise. Using oblong butter crackers wrap a bacon strip once and over around the center of each cracker. Place on rack in baking pan or broiler pan and bake at 250-300 degrees for 50 to 60 minutes.

Bacon will shrink and turn golden brown and crackers will be crispy and flavored with the bacon. They look like butterflies or bowknots.

BOURBON CHEESE BALLS

2 packages (3 ounces) cream cheese ½ teaspoon salt 2 tablespoons bourbon finely crushed cheese crackers

Cream cheese until fluffy. Blend in salt and bourbon. Chill at least 1 hour. Shape into tiny balls with butter paddles. (If using hands, cool by plunging them into icy water to avoid softening cheese while shaping).

Roll balls in crushed crackers. Chill until serving time. Yield: 24 balls.

CHEESE 'N OLIVE BALLS

1/4 pound, or 1 cup grated sharp cheese ¹/₄ cup soft butter 1/2 cup sifted flour 1/4 teaspoon salt ½ teaspoon paprika 24 stuffed olives

Combine and blend first five ingredients as for pastry. Mold some of cheese dough around each olive (do NOT add extra moisture to pastry). Place on ungreased baking sheet. Chill 4 hours. Bake at 400 degrees F. for 10 to

CHEESE CRESCENTS

½ cup butter ½ cup cottage cheese Bacon or horseradish cream cheese spread

Sift flour, cut in fat with a pastry blender or two knives. Fold in cottage cheese until pastry forms a ball. This is the usual pastry method. Roll out pastry until it is about 1/8 inch thick. Cut out rounds about the size of a silver dollar. Spread with one of the cream cheese varieties and fold each

Moisten edges to seal. Bake in a moderate oven of 350 degrees F. for about 15 minutes or until browned. A crabmeat, shrimp or tuna salad may be used in place of the cheese spread, if

The pastry may be stored in the refrigeraor and used only as needed.

CHEESE HOOIES

1/4 pound butter 1/4 pound strong cheddar cheese 2 cups sifted flour 2 teaspoons salt Dash pepper

Grate cheese into butter and cream together well. Add salt and pepper. Work the flour in until well-blended, then knead until smooth. Roll into a long thin roll the size of a 25-cent coin.

Slice, then bake until beginning to brown in a moderate oven at 350 degrees-about 8 minutes. Remove from oven and dust with confectioners sugar-or sprinkle with caraway, celery or poppy seeds.

CRACKER SPREADS

2 tablespoons butter or margarine ½ teaspoon of basil, ginger, thyme or celery salt 12 crackers

Thoroughly blend butter and one seasoning; store in the refrigerator for several days or allow to stand at room temperature for 2 hours. Spread evenly on crackers and broil on aluminum foil for 5 minutes. Serve warm or cold.

CURRY CRISPS

2 tablespoons butter or margarine 1/4 teaspoon curry powder

Use same method as above

2 tablespoons butter or margarine ½ teaspoon minced instant onion ½ cup grated cheese 12 crackers

Use same method as above.

CRACKER PIZZAS

1 jar (5 Oz.) sharp cheese spread 1/4 cup margarine or butter 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce 1 teaspoon oregano 1 teaspoon minced garlic or onion 1/3 cup tomato paste— $\frac{1}{2}$ (6 oz. can) 16 crackers

Optional Crisp bacon bits Canned mushroom slices Sliced stuffed olives Bit of anchovy Browned pork sausage Thin slices of pepperoni

Cream cheese, butter and Worcestershire sauce. Add oregano and garlic or onion to tomato paste. Spread crackers with generous teaspoon of cheese. Add a layer of tomato paste.

Are you looking for ways to save on your electric bill and still decorate your home for the holidays?

Cutting back on indoor and outdoor lighting doesn't have to mean cutting out decorating altogether, according to home economists at Michigan State University.

You can give your home and yard the holiday look without stringing lights everywhere.

For instance, a Christmas tree can be beautiful without lights. Colorful, shiny, sparkling glass or metal ornaments will shine as they reflect light from the table lamps or ceiling fixtures your family normally uses, says Anne Field, a specialist in family resource manage-

You can buy or make these ornaments and enjoy them year after year. Cleaning ornaments with a damp cloth will keep them sparkling.

If you are not quite ready to give up using tree lights altogether, try turning the tree lights on only during certain special evening hours rather than leaving lots of lights burning all evening

Using candles instead of lights is not recommended because of the potential

Underwriters Laboratories (UL), an independent, not-for-profit organization testing for public safety, offers the following safety tips while extending wishes for a happy holiday.

Trees

A fresh tree will stay green longer and be less a fire risk than a dry one. To check for freshness when buying a natural tree, remember:

• Examine for color or scent. A fresh tree is deep green in color and has a strong scent of pine.

• Be sure that the needles do not readily fall from the tree.

 The trunk butt of a fresh tree should be sticky with sap. When setting up your tree, the following rules should be kept in mind:

• Place your Christmas tree in a location away from fireplace, radiator or other heat source.

• Be sure that it is out of your home traffic pattern and does not block a

Used correctly, your fireplace is a source of Christmas warmth and cozy atmosphere. Avoid fire risks by remembering the following rules:

• Before starting your fire, be sure to remove al paper decorations and boughs from the immediate areas.

• Be sure the flue is open. Never set up your Christmas tree near the fireplace; this is a potential fire risk.

 Use a screen to enclose the front of your fireplace in order to confine live embers and sparks to the fire box.

• Use care with "fire salts" which produce colored flames when thrown on a wood fire. They contain certain heavy metals and can cause intense gastrointestinal irritation or vomiting if eaten. Keep away from children.

Most of our Christmas customs are a gift brought from other countries, so there is much to be learned about the Christmas spirit by visiting them.

In North America

Our journey begins in Canada. In passing through this country's contrasting regions, we find Christmas celebrations vary from the folkloric dances of the Innuit, to French and British carols, trees embellished with candles, gifts and a wine-soaked yule

Southbound, in that "land of the posadas," Mexico, families gather for nine consecutive nights to re-enact the first Christmas.

This ceremony of drama, song, and prayer is followed by blindfolded children breaking a pinata. What a scramble to pick up the fallen pieces of trinkets and sweets.

Continuing south, we discover many countries have adopted the posada custom. South American children also put notes beside the manger for the good angels to take up to Jesus. Upon seeing festivities from sunrise to sunset, highlighted by horse racing and Indian dances, you'll know you're

Highlighting an Austrian Christmas is the procession to midnight mass, with lighted candles, singing Austria's own carol, "Silent Night."

In Africa

Christmas has long been an important occasion in Ethiopia. Following the old calendar, it occurs January 6th.

On Christmas Eve, people pray and chant outside the church until dawn. At 4 a.m., priests lead the people into church services. Christmas day is celbrated with gifts for children, dancing and feasting.

In Ghana, the advent season begins four Sundays before Christmas, and refers to Christ's coming. One can only admire the homes adorned with flowers and palm branches, and candle-filled palm trees.

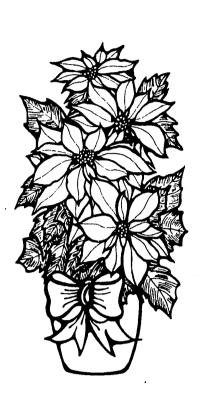

Although in recent years it has gained significance. Christmas is not a grand scale holiday in Asia, except for Japan. Commercial stores have fostered many U.S. customs such as gift exchanging and turkey dinner. Similar to Santa is "Hoteiosho," believed to have eyes in the back of his head. In Bethlehem where it all began, Christmas is purely a religious ceremony, not encompassing the festive spirit found in other countries. Not much change can be seen in this Judean town, which helps our imagination to visualize life in Christ's time.

In Australia

If you're not dreaming of a white Christmas, then book your reservation for Australia.

Here, people head for the beach or park on this usually hot day, which is followed by Boxing Day.

In many churches and homes, during the four weeks before Christmas, wreaths with candles are displayed to remind the faithful of the approaching

These decorations are known as Advent wreaths, symbolizing the eager awaiting of mankind for its Redeemer. Originally, the Advent wreath may have been part of pagan observances. Tribes in northern Europe would display cartwheels decorated with greens and lights in their homes during the winter season. The custom became Christianized in time, with the wreath's circular shape symbolizing God's unending nature, and the evergreens symbolizing His unchanging nature. There are four candles on the wreath, one for each week of Advent.

Three of the candles are violet in color, as a reminder of repentance and longing for the Savior. One candle is rose colored, smybolizing joy and hope in the coming of the Messiah. All the candles are tied with purple ribbon, again as a symbol of longing and repentance.

In some homes, the family will gather around the wreath on the Saturday evening before the first Sunday in Advent, four weeks before Christmas.

The ceremony is repeated with two violet candles on the second Saturday: on the third Saturday, two violet candles and one rose candle, a joyful sign of the nearness of the holiday, are lit; on the last Saturday, all four

Learn how to cope with holiday stress

The hectic pace you may keep during the holiday season as you try to accomplish many things at once can make you feel stressed, but there are several easy ways to relieve the ten-

"If properly managed, the business can be fun and exciting," says Donna Manczak, a health education specialist for the Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service.

"You don't have to feel tense and uncomfortable."

The tasks you have to accomplish won't seem so insurmontable if you make a list each day of everything you have to do, and then prioritize each item. If you can, save the day before the festivities to catch up on last-minute

"Some people consume a lot of caf-feine, through coffee or tea, to keep them going when they have a lot to do," Manczak says. "In excess, caffeine can make you feel more stressed than you were before. You're better off to sooth yourself by drinking something warm without caffeine, such as herbal tea.

"Listening to soothing music and keeping lights low while you work will also help your body relax."

Tension is often expressed through insomnia. Try to develop a regular sleeping schedule even during irregular holiday activity, and adopt some type of ritual, such as reading or taking a bath before bedtime. Your body will adjust to these cues and you may sleep with less difficulty.

Regular exercise during the day may also help you sleep better at night. However, strenuous exercise immediately before you go to bed invigorates, rather than relaxes, your

"Twenty minutes of vigorous exercise, such as taking a brisk walk or jog on a cold day, helps you feel relaxed and refreshed." Manczak says. "It also helps you burn up the extra calories you eat during the holiday season," she

Headaches are often the result of tension. You may unconsciously contract your face and neck muscles until they hurt. This can often be relieved by relaxation. Sit and drop your head slightly, then rotate it a few times in Another quick relaxation technique is tensing your whole body and maintaining the tension for several seconds. Slowly release the tension, and your muscles will feel more relaxed then they did before the exercise.

If you are anticipating an experience or situation that will cause you to be nervous, prepare for it mentally. Determine what specifically about the situation will cause your anxiety. Rehearsing your reactions can help you cope with the event more effectively and with less stress.

Decide what you can do to eliminate the situational aspects which could make you uncomfortable. Determine those aspects over which you have control and make plans to influence them.
