Eric Kramer has loads of hats to choose from on the hat tree in the children's section of the Novi Public Library. Features such as the hat trees for youngsters helped the library post its best record in history during 1982. The library topped the 10,000 mark in circulation for the first time, issuing a total of 102,208 books, periodicals and pamphlets—a 17 percent increase over 1981 and a 191 percent increase over 1978 circulation figures of 53,644. (News photo by Steve Fecht)

Witnesses defend case for proposed Bob Evans

By KATHY JENNINGS

"It's my night to make a record and I'm going to make it."

The comment by attorney Norman Hyman, representing Bob Evans Restaurant, came at least half-way through the 3½ hour proceedings, but it characterized the meeting where witnesses were brought forth to testify preparation for on-going litigation testing the City of Novi's zoning ordinance.

Council members, considering 10 other items remained on the agenda, ultimately asked for the hearing to be continued January 31 when they could fully debate the volume of information presented by Hyman and his witnesses Monday. Any action on the matter was postponed until then.

Consideration of the final site plan for the proposed Bob Evans restaurant was before the council Monday as the latest step in legal proceedings which have gone on more than a year.

Novi's council members rejected preliminary site plans early in 1982, prompting the restaurant corporation to file suit asking that the ordinance used as grounds for rejecting the plans be struck down.

Since then it has been determined the council had no power to approve or reject preliminary site plans and could only act on final site plans.

Bob Evans went before the planning board seeking final site plan approval, but planners reached no decision and sent it to council without recommendation as to whether the plan should be approved or denied.

When council members reviewed the final site plans last month questions regarding calculations used to determine the number of parking spaces for the shopping center were raised. Consulting Planner Charles Cairns was asked to review those calculations to determine whether adequate parking could be provided if the restaurant is constructed.

Parking standards in addition to the issue of whether the proposed building meets criteria requiring architectural harmony with other buildings in the regional center area were addressed Monday.

Cairns initially determined the shopping center could not provide enough parking spaces to meet the requirements of the zoning ordinance if the restaurant were constructed. He calculated that the center at most would be required to provide 1,201 parking spaces and the least it would be required to provide is 1,052 spaces. Differences in the two figures are largely attributable to the manner in which usable floor space in the Service Merchandise store is calculated.

Cairns reported that if the center requires 1,201 parking spaces the city would be short 145 spaces, since only

Teacher's suspension draws slight response

A large, quiet audience last week listened to Novi School Superintendent Robert Piwko officially report to the Board of Education that a Novi teacher has been suspended after being charged with attempting to burn school property.

The board did not act on the information that Russell G. Gardner, a business teacher and wrestling coach at Novi High School, has been suspended with pay from his teaching and extracurricular responsibilities.

Gardner, 39, has been charged with burning of real property and breaking and entering with intent to commit arson in connection with a December 23 fire at the Novi Administration Building. A preliminary exam has been set for January 21.

At the January 6 board meeting, Piwko said he was entitled to suspend

Gardner under rules of the Michigan School Code. School Attorney Frederick Knauer supported Piwko's statement, indicating the school code allowed a superintendent to suspend a teacher in certain instances as long as the superintendent notified the board of that action.

Although board members refused to discuss the issue, the board office was filled with people who turned out for the item; however, only three people spoke on the topic. Addressing the board were Calvin Schmucker, a Novi teacher and president of the Novi Education Association board of directors; Mark Brinker, a Novi High School student; and Gretchen Pugsley, a resident of Novi.

Schmucker asked the board to "consider Mr. Gardner's service with great care in relation to the entire situation." He said the district's teachers were "distressed and saddened" by the events leading to Gardner's arrest but "we realize the seriousness of the situation. Such actions cannot be condoned."

Schmucker pointed to Gardner's 11 years of "faithful service to our community and school district," calling him a "caring teacher who has devoted his time and energy coaching, counseling and encouraging students to achieve their optimal levels."

Brinker, a wrestler, also spoke in support of Gardner.

Gretchen Pugsley supported the administration for taking the "proper action," later saying she was "incensed at the attitude that this is an unfortunate situation. This is not an unfortunate situation—it is a crime."

Pugsley said she felt the situation "really involves me, I feel, because I'm a taxpayer and I support all of these in-situations. "I'm really incensed by this type of situation, because I feel as a taxpayer, I can't afford it. I can't afford an employee of mine (allegedly) breaking and entering a building I own and (allegedly) starting a fire. That puts in a call to an alarm company I pay for; that calls a police department, which I pay for; and a fire department, which I pay for; and then is sent into a court system I also pay for."

A student asked whether the board could consider other action beside suspending Gardner from both his teaching and extracurricular activities.

Knauer replied that there are "many possibilities from this point on," adding that Gardner's suspension was not a dismissal.

Cable service may begin in February

Novi will be turned on to cable television "sometime in February," according to Tom Bjorklund, MetroVision general manager for Oakland County.

The service will first be offered in the Whispering Meadows and Village Oaks subdivisions, where cable currently is being installed, Bjorklund said.

Novi is part of a tri-city consortium with Farmington and Farmington Hills that has awarded the franchise for cable television services to the MetroVision Cable Television Company.

Bjorklund estimated that service will be turned on by January 20 or so for the new system's first subscribers, in Farmington Hills around Twelve Mile and Drake roads. Service will be turned on next in Farmington, Bjorklund said, while the first subscribers in Novi will begin receiving service by mid-February.

"We still have a little work to do before we get the signal to them," he explained. "We've been doing some wiring in the community but we have to build the line from Farmington Hills to Novi. We should be able to wrap that up in the next few weeks."

Bjorklund said wiring in Novi began in mid-December in the vicinity of Nilan and Londonderry in Whispering Meadows subdivision.

He reported that subscription sales would begin about a week before service becomes available. "We haven't begun yet," he said. "We don't start taking orders in an area until about a week before we start hooking up subscribers."

Bjorklund said that residents in the areas where cable service will first become available will be notified by postcard or flyer when service will be followed by visits from company representatives, he said.

Workmen are stringing cable on existing utility poles alongside Detroit Edison and Michigan Bell lines. In areas where utility lines are underground, cable is buried on utility company rights-of-way next to utility cables. The cable is being strung by contractors working for Aebys Services of Knoxville, Tennessee, who are handling aerial construction work for MetroVision. Knight Construction of Troy is the contractor for installation of underground cable.

Bjorklund reported that the company has moved into its new area headquarters in Farmington Hills near Halstead Road and Twelve Mile right on schedule.

"We moved into our building a couple of weeks ago," he said. "It's one story, 7,500 square feet."

The building houses the company's offices and technical area, as well as a soon-to-be furnished television studio.

Problems plague recreation brochure

You think you've got problems, what about poor Bill Scott?

Scott, recreation supervisor for the Novi Parks and Recreation Department, currently is battling two problems.

Number one is the Parks and Rec Department's brochure of winter programs which were supposed to have been mailed to residents last week.

The only problem is that the brochures have not yet arrived back from the printer and the first sessions of several programs already have started.

"I just want everyone to know that we're going to waive the late registration fee until the programs are mailed out," said Scott, adding that the brochures should be in the mail this week.

"No late charges will be assessed until after January 14 because of our mailing problem," he said. "All I can do is say that I apologize for any confusion."

Scott's second problem relates directly to the weather and its effects on the 1983 Winter Fantasy Snow Sculpture Contest. The contest originally was slated for Saturday, January 15, but the date already has been pushed back one week to January 22 by the unseasonable weather.

The contest will be held at Lakeshore Park from noon to 2 p.m. There's an entry fee of 50 cents per individual up to a maximum of $3 for group entries. Categories are most creative, most detailed and most humorous.

First, second and third place awards will be presented for individual entries, while there will be first and second place trophies and individual ribbons in group categories.

Rules for the snow sculpture contest are that props may be used but 75 percent of the sculpture must be snow or ice. No obscene sculptures will be permitted. Scott said water is available and participants should provide their own pails.

And what if it doesn't snow in time for the snow sculpture contest? "We'll just have to play it by ear," said Scott, whose winter programming has not always met cooperation from the weatherman in the past.

Additional information about the winter brochures or snow sculpture contest may be obtained by calling the Novi Parks and Rec Department at 349-1976.

Schools seeking volunteers for spring millage campaign

Novi citizens willing to serve on a millage requirements committee are being sought by the Novi Schools.

Formation of the committee, to be established by the Board of Education, will be the first step toward renewal of 13.5 mills of the district's operating millage, which expired with the December tax collection.

That 13.5 mills represents 51 percent of the Novi Schools' operating budget up for renewal at one time. A tentative special election date has been proposed for Monday, March 28.

Assistant Superintendent William Barr will chair the committee, to be comprised of citizens who express an interest in serving on the panel.

The committee will review the district's financial requirements and help do the ground work required in passing a millage.

Superintendent Robert Piwko asked board members to submit the names of any citizens interested in serving on the committee to the board.

Board President Joel Colliau also urged residents who would like to be part of the millage committee, but who are not contacted by board members, to volunteer for the committee themselves by contacting Piwko at the board offices, 349-1200.

The millage requirements committee is expected to be formally appointed at the January 20 school board meeting, to be held at Orchard Hills Elementary at 7:30 p.m. The board is expected to also approve the date of the special millage election at that meeting.

Novi ready to expand city beach

Work on the latest expansion to the beach at Lakeshore Park should be able to proceed as a result of action Monday by the Novi City Council.

On the beach sand will be extended approximately 30 feet. Smaller foliage will be removed, but the large willows along the eastern edge of the beach will remain.

NOVI-WALLED LAKE NEWS

Novi cagers fall to Brighton five

"It was like both teams were waiting for somebody else to win."

Unfortunately for Ron Flatur, his Novi basketball squad was unable to find the killer instinct and ended up on the short end of a 51-43 contest with Brighton last Friday.

"It was close, basically throughout the whole game," said the Wildcat mentor. "I kept waiting for us to catch fire—but nothing happened."

"Late in the third quarter they (Brighton) pulled away by eight. We had a chance to pull back within five."

The Novi coach noted that his Wildcats had opportunities with free throws and misplays by the Bulldogs, but just couldn't come up with some firepower of their own.

"They wouldn't score for two times down the court and then we wouldn't score for two times," Flatur described the seesaw battle.

"Our defense was good enough to win. I think anytime we hold someone around 30 (points), we should win the game," he added. But the offensive output of his Wildcats negated that defensive effort as they could only find the

Eagle cagers soar

Novi Christian's Eagles are off to their best start in history as they ran their record to 7-0 last week with victories over West Highland and Taylor Center Baptist.

The Eagles had little trouble against West Highland as they turned a 28-22 halftime edge into a 59-34 lead with a 26-12 edge in the third quarter and then coasted to the victory. Tom Hardesty paced the Eagles by scoring 15 points and gathering up 15 rebounds. Dan Yoder with 12 points and Dan Nyquist with 11 also hit double figures for the Eagles.

The victory over Taylor Center, the defending Michigan Christian Athletic Association champs, was a lot tougher, however, as the Eagles played without the services of starting guard Bob Smith and 6-3 center Dave Robb.

In fact, the Eagles trailed until the end of the third quarter when they finally pulled ahead and then utilized a delay offense to preserve the victory.

Steve Caswell and Hardesty tallied 13 and 12 points respectively, while senior forward Mike Quinton tallied all seven of his points in the decisive fourth quarter. Yoder had 10 rebounds to pace the Eagles under the boards.

Coch Linda Botts' Eagle volleyball team upped its record to 5-1 by also registering two wins last week. The Eagle spikers upended West Highland 15-4, 11-15 on Tuesday and then turned back Taylor Center 15-4, 15-3 on Friday.

Warrior five still seeks first win

There's a new look to the Walled Lake Warrior basketball team.

Warrior coach Ted Felegy had to summon help from the junior varsity squad after four varsity players quit over the holiday break, but the newly-reconstituted Western squad demonstrated some hope for the future despite dropping two games last week.

Brighton topped Western 70-59 last Tuesday and Northville edged the Warriors 57-50 on Friday.

"I think there's some hope for the future," commented Assistant Coach Roy Artley after the narrow loss to the Mustangs. "The attitude is a lot better now and these young players are really

Fouls plague Vikes in Farmington loss

Nothing went right for Walled Lake Central's basketball team from the start Friday night.

The Vikings went to Farmington for a Western Lakes conference game, and before the first quarter was over had three big men saddled with three personal fouls.

Scott Norris was added to the casualty list in the second quarter when he tore a ligament in his ankle. He will be sidelined indefinitely.

The end result wasn't any better. A tipped-in shot as the final buzzer sounded provided the margin of victory for the Falcons in a 38-36 contest.

It was a frustrating evening for Central coach Steve Emert and his players. Nothing seemed to go the Vikings' way, he said.

"I felt we played as hard as we possibly could. A lot of things didn't go our way, and we still stayed in the ballgame," Emert remarked.

The Vikings slowed the tempo of the game to neutralize Farmington's quickness. The tactic worked well enough to put Central on top, 23-27, going into the fourth quarter.

The game remained close through the period, even though Jim Krutzezer, who topped the Vikings with 10 points, fouled out with 5:40 remaining.

A jumper by Kevin Beers with 38 seconds remaining tied the game at 36-36. Farmington then held the ball until eight seconds were left before calling a time-out.

The Falcons passed the ball out of bounds on its first pass, but the officials ruled that a Viking player touched the ball before it left the court and gave Farmington another chance with seven seconds left.

Lakeland pins loss on Novi grapplers

Milford Lakeland ruined Novi wrestling coach Eric Center's debut by downing the Wildcats 20-29 last week in a Kensington Valley Conference dual meet.

Center is acting as interim coach for Russ Gardner, who has been suspended with pay because of an incident unrelated to his wrestling duties.

Former Walled Lake Western wrestling coach Carl McBride is assisting Center. John Collins, a Novi alumnus who was a state qualifier on the mats several years ago, has assumed junior varsity coaching responsibilities.

Center, who moved up from the jayvee ranks after three years, gained pins from Darren Beyea (98), Charlie Brown (119) and Bill Case (185) in the close loss to the Eagles.

Novi also won three matches on decisions. Tim Ford (122) defeated his opponent 11-10, while Steve McBride (167) dominated his rival 20-2 but couldn't put

Three Vikings win mat titles at tournament

Maybe the mid-week dual meets don't go the way that Walled Lake Central wrestlers would want, but Viking grapplers sure know how to bring home hardware from the Saturday tournaments.

Three Vikings captured firsts at the Brighton Invitational Saturday. Another duo placed second, sparking Central to a fourth-place team finish. Brighton ended on top, with Haslett second and Piquette third.

John Andrews, an Oakland County champ, continued to excel at 119, as he rolled to first place. His final win was a 7-0 triumph over a Haslett wrestler.

Regan Goins was first at 126 after his scheduled opponent in the finals forfeited. The last winner, county champ Mike Arnold, wasted little time in clinching his victory. He pinned John Penlon of Brighton in 46 seconds to top the 165 class.

Second-place finishers were Andy Chiravian at 132, who

Novi spikers open play by winning two of three

Novi rushed by rival Northville to highlight an active week for the Wildcat volleyball squad. Rick Trudeau's spikers trounced the Mustangs 15-1 and 16-14 in a Friday contest.

The Wildcats also turned back Ann Arbor Greenhills on Thursday. But dropped a rematch with Dexter last Tuesday evening.

Novi jumped out to a 14-0 lead over Northville, with senior Carolyn Lowry delivering 11 straight points including four aces.

The comeback by Northville, sending the second game into overtime, was more the tempo Trudeau had anticipated.

"About five out of the 15 points were because of her spikes," the Novi coach said.

"I thought it would be a close match. We played them earlier in a scrimmage," Trudeau assessed the contest. "They just got off on the wrong foot. We served to one of their girls, saw she was having a hard time and kept serving to her."

The comeback by Northville, sending the second game into overtime, was more the tempo Trudeau had anticipated.

"That's how I expected all three games to go — with someone getting a lucky break."

Trudeau credited the Wildcat defense for the second-game win. Lowry, Missy Hailom and Suzanne Beckman came up with some key digging to keep play going.

"Defensively, we were not flat-footed. We were anticipating things that a good volleyball team is supposed to do," Trudeau said.

Against Greenhills, the Wildcats spotted the Ann Arborites the first game 15-8 before coming back to take games two and three with identical 15-8 scores.

Beckman posted 11 points serving during the three games.

The Dexter rematch did not meet Trudeau's anticipation of returning all of his players from holi-

Buttazzoni sparks Warrior mat squad

Aldo Buttazzoni upped his personal record to 17-0 in leading Walled Lake Western to a third place finish in the 13th Annual Schoolcraft College Invitational Wrestling Tournament last week.

Buttazzoni pinned his first three opponents and then claimed a 4-1 decision over Livonia Stevenson's Tim Templeton in the finals to claim the 167-pound championship. The outstanding Warrior grappler is now 17-0 on the season.

Buttazzoni's title helped Western finish third in the 20-team tourney.

Monroe Catholic Central took top honors with 189½ points, while Wayne Memorial was second with 160. Western collected 142 points in finishing third.

In addition to Buttazzoni's first place finish, the Warriors had one second, one third, three fourth and three fifth place finishes at the Schoolcraft Tourney.

Rolf Henriksson finished second at 112 and won the award for most falls by pinning three of his opponents. Buttazzoni also had three pins, but Henriksson won the trophy on the basis of time with pins in 68, 36 and 57 seconds of his first three matches.

Dave Millitello finished third at 126, one of the toughest weight classes in the state this year, according to Dick Watson, coach of the Warrior grapplers.

Registering fourth place finishes at Schoolcraft were Rick Lohrman at 119, Rob Westcott at 132 and Matt King at 165. Fifth place finishes were registered by Rod Schuh at 138, Matt Turner at 155 and Eddie Pultz at 198.

In dual meet action last week, Western suffered its first loss of the season Thursday when it dropped a tough 37-31 decision to Plymouth Salem. The Warriors are now 4-1 on the season.

The two teams were tied 31-31 after 12 matches, but Salem's Scott Cornunker pinned Western's Scott Stoehr at heavyweight to give the victory to the Rockets.

Western got pins from Henriksson at 112, Westcott at 132 and Buttazzoni at 167, while Milletello took a 9-1 decision at 126. Steve Burnham won 17-1 at 145 and Pultz won 16-7 at 186.

Western will attempt to up its record to 5-1 when it meets Northville tomorrow (Thursday). The Warriors then travel to the 10-team North Farmington Tourney this Saturday.

fell to John Peterson of Brighton, and Tim Ginter, who was pinned by Brian Fuller of Brighton in the final match at 187.

Central dropped a close one on Thursday to league rival Farmington, 33-30, lowering its overall record to 1-5. Several varsity wrestlers sat out the meet as punishment for missing practices during the holiday break.

Central winners included Andy Somervell at 117, Andrews at 119, Goins at 126, Curt Calhoun at 132, Kirk Kinjorski at 155 and Arnold at 185.

Somervell defeated Darrell Tharnish, 19-3; Andrews topped Lenny Pittzell, 9-2; Goins pinned Kevin Desautels, 23-3; Calhoun felled Larry Weens in 1:32; Kinjorski pinned Mike Noles in 5:45; and Arnold pinned John Augustine in 20 seconds.

"Some of the younger kids wrestled up and did well," said coach Randy Hyde. "I'm fairly pleased. We're looking a lot better than we did earlier."

Resident wins top honors in direct selling

For the second time within a year, Nancy Ordowski of Northville has received national honors for outstanding achievement in direct sales. She is one of some 20,000 independent contractors nationwide who sell the fine crystal and decorator accessories of Princess House, a leading direct sales firm.

She and the consultants who work with her throughout Michigan and northwest Ohio were honored for compiling the best record in the nation for sales and introduction of new consultants to the Princess House direct sales during the company's 1982 spring-summer campaign.

Ordowski, a resident of Dundak Court in Northville, was presented a full-sized crystal replica of a sailboat by company executives during an incentive trip to Nassau before Christmas.

She was one of 38 men and women honored for outstanding sales and leadership. Earlier in 1982 she had honored for achieving a similar record during 1981.

Direct sales is reporting a growing industry in excess of $7 billion nationally. The home party sales method used by Princess House and others is a popular sales technique.

NANCY ORDOWSKI

"While many people see direct sales as an excellent way to supplement an existing income, many of these people will eventually turn to the career full-time because of the excellent profit options, flexible hours and high esteem," she adds.

She attributes the popularity of direct sales to the fact that no previous experience or specific level of education is required and only a small outlay of money is needed to start one's own business.

Princess House, a Colgate-Palmolive company, is based in North Dighton, Massachusetts.

DETROIT 538-4700

WOODLAND = DIAGNOSIS + TREATMENT + CARE + CONCERN

Bernard Kohn's persistently upset stomach had been bothering him for several weeks. None of the home remedies he tried had alleviated his discomfort. He knew he should see a doctor for an examination. But Bernard was undecided. What type of doctor should he consult?

Loretta Johnson had recently taken a new job. One of the requirements of her employer was that she undergo a complete physical examination. The problem was, she had no regular physician and had not had a physical in years. Where could she go that would enable her to obtain the necessary exam within the short period of time before she began her new job. And would she have to waste valuable time running to laboratories around town for various tests?

She was delighted that all the necessary tests for her physical, including blood work, x-ray, and urinalysis could be performed on the premises and all in the same day. In one day her physical was completed and Loretta was ready to begin her new job.

When Tom contacted Woodland he was very surprised when the patient advisor suggested he see a doctor of podiatric medicine. HE HADN'T REALIZED THE WIDE RANGE OF MEDICAL SPECIALTIES REPRESENTED IN THE CENTER. Nor had he been aware how effectively a podiatrist could deal with his problem.

Within hours the doctor had examined Tom, had x-rays taken of his feet through the Center's facilities and had diagnosed Tom's problem.

At age 65, Tom Adams was accustomed to having a certain number of aches and pains to face in daily living. But he hadn't anticipated the daily torture he was enduring just from walking. His feet, especially his heels, were killing him! Tom realized he would have to see a doctor before he was forced to give up normal activity.

IN EACH OF THESE CASES, THE PEOPLE INVOLVED WERE EXPERIENCING EVERYDAY MEDICAL PROBLEMS THAT WHILE QUITE COMMON, REQUIRED ATTENTION. AND EACH RECEIVED THE EFFICIENT, THOROUGH AND CONVENIENT MEDICAL CARE THEY NEEDED FROM THEIR NEARBY WOODLAND MEDICAL CENTER.

When Bernard Kohn contacted the Center, Woodland's full-time patient advisor was able to direct him to a specialist in internal medicine.

She explained to Bernard that the internist had the broad diagnostic training and experience to be able to recognize and treat a variety of illnesses that could occur anywhere in the adult body. These could include intestinal problems, for example, or disorders of the muscles or internal organs such as the kidneys, or communicable diseases and many other general physical problems. The internist could also refer patients, if necessary, to another sub-specialist.

The advisor was aware that Bernard was concerned about his condition and somewhat nervous about seeing a new doctor. She was able to assure Bernard about the doctor's qualifications and at Bernard's request was able to tell him something about the physician's background.

Bernard, on the other hand, found the advisor to be quite pleasant and friendly and was pleased that she was so helpful and understanding. He appreciated the time she spent in discussing his problem and helping him to make an appointment with the physician who could best deal with his problem.

For Bernard, an examination and immediate and complete upper gastro-intestinal tests performed inside the Center, confirmed the fact that he had an ulcer. Within the day, his diagnosis had been completed, treatment was started and Bernard was able to obtain the medication the doctor prescribed from the pharmacy inside the Center.

Although Loretta Johnson had never been to Woodland before she was able to make an appointment for that same week with a general internist. And her appointment also, was made with the help of Woodland's patient advisor.

Tom had heel spur's, bony growths on the bottom of each heel that while not life threatening, were painful and disabling.

The podiatrist immediately began a program of treatment for pain relief with the use of medication and supportive taping. He made casts of Tom's feet from which he subsequently made custom-fitted inserts for Tom's shoes that relieved the strain and pressure from the bottom of his heels.

The podiatrist was also able to suggest that Tom register for a WOODLAND MEDICAL CENTER COMMUNITY HEALTH INFORMATION PROGRAM (CHIP) seminar on foot disorders, including subjects such as corn, callouses, bunions and heel spurs.

As part of a regularly scheduled, FREE series about health problems, the hour-and-half long program taught Tom about his condition and gave him complete information about its most effective treatment. And perhaps more importantly, he found out how to avoid future foot problems, particularly for someone his age.

Tom enjoyed the informal film and lecture session presented by a Woodland podiatrist. And he was able to receive immediate answers to some of the questions the speaker had raised in his mind.

Bernard, Loretta and Tom discovered what thousands of other successfully treated patients have discovered about Woodland during its 20-year history. The staff of Woodland Medical Centers are experts in complete health care. They offer quality, complete medical and dental care for the entire family whenever its needed. And the doctors of Woodland back their expertise with the most advanced technology and equipment available.
