vi looks up to Southfield

By CHRISTOPHER J. KOZLOWSKI staff writer

In light of this week's public hearing concerning amendments to the city's master plan, it appears Novi officials are moving ahead with plans to allow mid-rise structures to be built in the city. The 100-foot height allowance is being proposed in areas zoned for conference center development. Although officials believe such developments would produce a jackpot in direct and indirect economic dollars to the city, some residents have expressed concern that Novi may some day become a high-rise community, losing its residential priorities and becoming another Southfield - a city which anti-high-risers typily as a minimetropolis bursting at the seems with constant traffic headaches and little aesthetic appeal.

But not everyone believes the way in the City of Southfield has been planned was a mistake. And, according to Tod Kilroy, Southfield deputy director of planning, the qualities which make up Southfield were planned for quite intentional-

Much like any other modern-day suburban community, Kilroy said Southfield officials planned for the city to be as it is today by master planning and anticipating specific types of developments in specific locations of the city.

Building height in Southfield is regulated much as it is in Novi and any other city. Everything from residential housing to light industrial structures are built to code. The city does, however, have one zoning category with unlimited height restriction. The unlimited height, as with any other stipulation in the city's ordinances, is dictated by the location of the planned development, Kilroy said.

"The master plan for Southfield was put together in the mid-'60s and the design of the city was pretty much set forth, as far as the location of the town center and other large office complexes," Kilroy

"The district that has, in effect, unlimited height allowance is called the regional center district, and it applies to the town center area and the American Motors Corp. site on Northwestern Highway.

"The height of the building is the function of the amount of parking and the setbacks that are required on a particular site," Kilroy said.

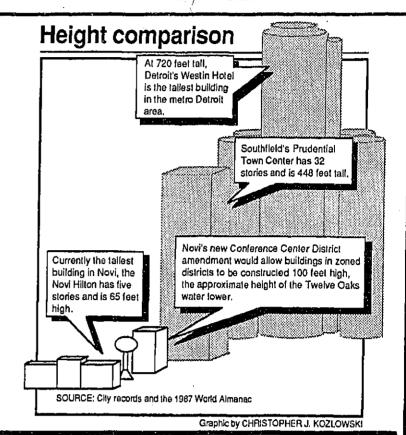

"The constraints of the site and the amount of parking will regulate the height of any particular structure.'

According to city officials and residents opposed to raising height restrictions in Novi, one of the biggest reasons they object to high rise buildings is the amount of traffic such structures generate.

According to Kilroy, Southfield officials anticipated the kind of traffic its high-rise strucutres would draw and is currently making progress at reducing the burdens encountered while traveling through the city at peak hours.

"There was a conscious effort to plan for those office buildings to be here on the part of city officials, and

Dog days

The beginning of August signals the start of the summer dog days, and Shawn Martin, 11, took that seriously. Shawn took his neighbors dog Spaz, for a refreshing paddle in Walled Lake near South Lake Drive during the most recent wave of 90 degree temperatures. Although things have cooled down slightly, Shawn and Spaz should get plenty of hot weather suitable for swimming before the month is done.

Millage system works as city growth climbs

By ANN E. WILLIS staff writer

Novi Planning Commissioner Ernest Aruffo had a point to make.

Speaking during the audience participation segment of the August 3 Novi City Council meeting, Aruffo said he wanted the council and public to be aware that Novi is a unique community where dedicated millages, duly approved by the voters, really lower taxes in the end.

Aruffo showed that the city's rising State Equalized Valuation (SEV) has helped lower the cost of these special millages much earlier than expected.

Aruffo presented the council with two repo followed the progress of the civic center bond issue, approved by voters in 1985. Aruffo was chairman of the civic center committee.

In the first report, Aruffo had compiled 1985 figures given by Bendzinski and Company, a municipal financial advisory company, showing the millage requirements necessary to raise the estimated $7,326,800 needed to build the city's civic center.

The company projected a 2.38 millage requirement in 1986, a 2.10 mills requirement in 1987, 2.08 in 1988, 1.95 in 1989 and 1.82 in 1990. These millage projections were based on SEV figures of $482.040 million in 1986, $496.501 million in 1987, $511.396 million in 1988, $526.738 million in 1989 and $542,545 million in 1990.

The company had used a 3 percent growth rate in the SEV for the first 10 years of its projections.

However, the city's actual SEV growth has far exceeded those projections, according to the figures compiled by Aruffo. Aruffo said the city's 14 percent SEV growth in 1987 raised the city's SEV to $594 million - the figure projected in the 1985 study to be reached by the city in

The city's current 1.26 mills rate for the civic center, is far below the projected 1987 millage rate of 2.10.

The actual general obligation unlimited tax bond rate for the city, according to Aruffo, is 1.83 mills in 1986, 1.26 mills in 1987, 1.26 in 1988, 1.18 in 1989, and 1.10 in 1990.

City eyes illegal sheds

By ANN E. WILLIS

Lakefront property owners in Novi, some of whom are involved in a debate over the city's lakefront development project, have something else to worry about.

The city, through its ordinance enforcement department, is considering a crackdown on illegally-built structures in the lake area. The concern began when the building department investigated a complaint of an illegally-erected shed on an open lakefront lot. According to a letter written to the council by City Attorney David Fried, an open lakefront lot is a lakefront lot without a residence. "Many of the lakefront lots are owned by the same property owner who owns the corresponding lot across the street from the lakefront (East Lake Drive or South Lake Drive). Accessory structures such as sheds are not permitted on such open lakefront lots because the Zoning Ordinance only permits accessory structures on the same lot

Fried: 'Accessory structures such as sheds are not permitted on such open lakefront lots . . . '

as the principal use to which they are accessory," Fried's letter said.

"In addition," the letter reads, "the Zoning Ordinance requires that water frontage lots maintain an open unobscured yard on the water side, allowing an exception only for boat wells."

Further complications arose, Fried told the council, when the ordinance enforcement officers sent to the initial complaint were told it wasn't fair to enforce one shed when there were others in violation in the area

According to Fried, the officers found 28 sheds on open lakefront parcels during a survey of East Lake and South Lake drives.

"In addition, Officer Swope and Mr. Saven (ordinance enforcement officers) observed lakefront lots vehicles stored in improper locations," Fried reported. Fried asked the council to review the problem and offer comments prior to a systematic enforcement in the area.

with litter and debris, unlawful fences, picnic shelters contructed in lakefront areas, and recreational

"There should be a public relations approach so that they know we're going over there - before we go gangbusters," Fried said.

City Manager Edward Kriewall told the council that many of the older sheds were "well done" and it was the newer "temporary ones that were of real concern."

Kriewall suggested the matter be referred to the Ordinance Review committee and that the committee take a tour of the area staff writer In what may be a case of mutual admiration for the way they do business, city officials and skate board enthusiasts joined together to discuss potential conflicts inherent in the pursuit of the sport and came to the conclusion that Novi does not need an ordinance regulating skateboard use, at this time. The topic originally appeared before the city council and was referred to the Ordinance Review committee for further study. According to Mayor Patricia Karevich, a member of the committee, she immediately decided to get input from some of the city's most knowledgeable sources on skateboarding - high school students.

Karevich went home and told her son she was interested in getting inbut from some skateboarders, and found that the skateboarders had some interest in talking to her as well, since word of the skateboard review had already hit the streets.

Skateboards win reprieve

"I told my son I wanted a couple of kids to help the committee review the situation and possibly write a skateboard ordinance," Karevich said. "He told me some kids had already told him 'I want to meet with your mom.' "

Three Novi High School students, Jayson Gilbert, Roger Evans and Chris Gee were asked to meet with committee members. "They did a neat job," Karevich said. "It was nice having them in there. They were exposed to a process that was good for them and it was good for our image."

The committee had two sample ordinances with them when they met, and Karevich said the three kids were "aware of ordinances around the state."

The one thing the high school students wanted to be sure of, Karevich said, was if skateboarding was prohibited in most public areas, it would be allowed in one specified area.

After reviewing the available information, the committee decided not to recommend the institution of a skateboard ordinance, Karevich

"We don't feel we have a problem. Anything that comes up can be taken care of," Karevich told the council during the August 3 meeting.

Other neighboring cities, such as Plymouth and Northville, have instituted skateboard ordinances limiting the area in which skateboards can be used.

"We've had very, very few complaints about skateboards," said Novi Police Chief Lee BeGole. "I do not see it as a major problem at this time. Skateboarding popularity has Continued on 12

SCHOOL BELLS RING: Don't look now, folks, but it's already Aug. 6 and the start of the 1987-88 school year is less than four weeks away. New teachers will report for an instructional day on Thursday, Aug. 27, and all teachers will report for a work day on Monday, Aug. 31. Students in grades 1-12 will report for a half-day of classes on Tuesday, Sept. 1. All students, including kindergartners, will report for regular classes on Wednesday, Sept. 2.

PEACE MARCH TO NOVI: Members of the Michigan Peace March for Global Nuclear Disarmament, consisting of upwards of 75 people, marched from Plymouth through Northville to Novi on Wednesday, August 5. According to participant and Novi resident Gerald Haran, the marchers had asked the Novi Board of Education and the Novi Parks and Recreation Department for permission to camp on city land. Both turned the marchers down, citing city ordinances prohibiting overnight camping on public land. The marchers spent the night at Novi's Church of the Holy Family.

SPEED BUMPS/HUMPS: Residents of South Lake Drive can breath a little easier. The city will be putting in the remaining speed bumps/humps on South Lake Drive "any time now," according to City Manager Edward

Two of the now-infamous 'schlumps,' a combination of a bump and a hump, are already in place, and the city will add five others to slow down traffic on the residential road.

FALSE ALARM FUND-RAISER: Don Dominick, president of the Novi Firefighters Association, reports that unknown telephone solicitors are calling Novi residents and asking for donations to the Novi Firemans Associa-Dominick said the association "never has and never will conduct such a fund-raiser" and has notified the police department of the scam. FIRE MARSHALL ADDITION: Bill Conn is the newest addition to the staff of the Novi Fire Department. Conn joins the department as fire marshall, a position recently added to the department during the 1987-88 budget

Conn originally joined the fire department as a volunteer in 1978. He earned a BA from Western Michigan University in 1974 and enrolled in the Illinois Institute of Technology where he majored in fire protection and safety

Conn graduated with honors and spent two years with the Marathon Oil Company. He rejoined the Novi Fire Department in 1985. He then joined Masco Insurance as a fire protection engineer before joining the department

ILLEGAL PARKERS BEWARE: During the Novi City Council's July 20 session, a concerned citizen addressed the council on the issue of parking in the shopping center at Ten Mile and Meadowbrook Road. According to the citizen, the handicapped parking markings have been gradually fading from the parking lot and the signs are bent and hard to read. Needless to say, less-than law-abiding shoppers have been taking advantage of the situation and parking where the more deserving belong. City officials noted the gentleman's comments and promised to do

We are Covenant For Peace, a group that writes to you often and vigils for peace at your firm, Williams International Corporation, at Welch and Maple Road in Commerce Township. We are committed to ending the proliferation of nuclear weapons, seeing the arms race as a horrible threat to life on our planet. We are all Christians, motivated by the Gospel call of peace.

As we have stated in previous letters, we believe that you and your employees are good, moral citizens who are also concerned about peace.

Again we ask that you dialogue with us about this mutual concern and about the feasibility of converting vour firm away from military contracts, in particular nuclear weapons technology. So much of your research, development and production is for the F 107 cruise missile engine and for the advanced cruise, which we believe especially contribute directly to the spiraling arms race.

Certainly such a peace conversion to 100% civilian production should take place without loss of your employees' jobs. Your firm contributes much to the welfare of the community.

Our request is that you dialogue with us about this conversion and that you dialogue in public forums with citizens in the surrounding communities. Peace is not a private matter, and what you do at Williams International affects all of our lives.

Dialogue with you and your employees, Mr. Williams, is an important part of the process of peace, that interconnects with the efforts of our superpower governments to work out mutual disarmament. Increasingly, the leaders of many churches are condemning the arms race and are calling on citizens and our governments to enter the vital process of ending this nuclear madness.

Could we come together to pray for peace, as one of the forms of dialogue between us?

> Sincerely in the cause of peace, Covenant For Peace

Pre-Need Planning Eases The Pain Of Death

Oakland Hills Memorial Gardens New Chapel Mausoleum

The death of a family member rarely allows time to make important decisions about burial plans. The worst time to try to make those decisions is when a family member has just passed away. Plans made in advance assure the wishes of all family members, are often less expensive, and certainly less traumatic to all concerned. Talking about death right now can make your life a lot easier, right now.

Recent approval of the Marriott Hotel on Northwestern Highway and uncertainty about the sale of Northland Inn have raised questions about the future and ultimate capacity of hotels in Southfield. The city has 2,500 available hotel rooms ranging from full service to budget. Two hotels with a total of 600 rooms are under construction.

City planners note the number of hotel rooms in Southfield has doubled in the past five years. The rapid growth is related to office development which has reached 22 million square feet of space. Economic Research has proposed to determine if the city has reached the saturation point in hotel rooms. what the ideal mix of full service and budget facilities should be, if there's been a shift in preferences to which the market must react, what the existing problems are, and if the city should act as a partner in future hotel develop-

CONSTRUCTION IN SOUTHFIELD is once again headed for the $100 million mark, but no apartment buildings have been started in 1987. Through May of this year, the city has issued some 346 building permits at a value of $48.8 million compared with 324 permits at $53.6 million for the same period last year. Joseph Sutschek, director of building, housing and redevelopment, reported that residential and commercial alterations are far ahead of 1986. Single family permits have a total value of $1.1 million compared to $790,000 last year, while commercial alterations total $12.7 million as compared to $6 million in 1986. In terms of apartment construction, Sutschek said the fact that no new projects have been started this year is probably temporary until the 1,570 permits built in 1985 and 1986 are fully absorbed by the market place.

A FORMER NOVI HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL is the new president of the Farmington Board of Education. Helen Ditzhazy, who served as Novi High School principal in the late 1970s and early '80s, was elected to head the board at the annual organizational meeting.

'Assessments favor residents'

By BRIAN PERKINS

The current system of setting assessments favors homeowners more than commercial/industrial property owners, according to City Assessor John Merrifield.

Speaking at the monthly meeting of the Novi Chamber of Commerce, Merrifield indirectly answered charges of inequitable assessment methods leveled by Novi City Council Member Nancy Covert earlier this

"The present system favors the residents more, not commercial or industrial property," Merrifield said. "So when you come down and say that residents are paying more than their fair share, they are not.

"They are being treated as the law dicates, and we follow that law very Merrifield explained procedures for establishing assessments and answered questions from the audience comprised primarily of Chamber members. "Let me start by saying that anyone who feels their assessment is too low can meet me later in my office," Merrifield said.

Although he did not refer specifically to the report submitted by Covert, many of Merrifield's comments seemed to be in response to charges leveled in her report.

Covert said her study had found that residential assessments were fair and up-to-date due to frequent sales which are recorded and updated by the county on a quarterly

"Despite all of Novi's commercial growth, approximately 48 percent of the taxation burden continues to be borne by residents living in singlefamily homes and condominiums," Covert said.

In terms of commercial assessments, however, she said assessors have more discretionary powers since sales are less frequent and often hidden by the parties involved in land transactions.

SEV figures show planning viability

Novi Planning Commissioner Ernest Aruffo made some interesting observations when he appeared at the August 3 Novi City Council total of all the assessments on real and personal property.

Aruffo admitted a certain selfserving aspect to his report. As chairperson of the Civic Center Committee, Aruffo recalled that he had told citizens their proportionate share of constructing the $7.327 million civic center would decrease as the city's SEV increased. The figures, he told the council, demonstrate that he was correct.

Aruffo referred specifically to figures prepared for the city by a municipal financial advisory company prior to the start of the civic center millage campaign. Basing its millage requirement projections on a projected 3 percent annual growth rate in the SEV for the first 10 years of the bonding proposal, the company estimated that the 1987 SEV would be $496.501 million and the 1987 millage requirement for the civic center would be 2.10 mills.

However, the city's actual SEV growth has far exceeded those projections. The 14 percent increase in SEV in 1987 raised the city's SEV to 594 million, a level which the initial study projected the city would not reach until 1993. As a consequence, the current millage rate for the civic center bonds is 1.26 mills — far below the projected 1987 rate of 2.10 mills.

Further, the 1987 SEV does not include the assessment increases which will be added to the books in the years immediately ahead when construction of the Town Center. West Oaks II shopping center, Lakepointe Office Center and approximately 16 residential subdivisions have been completed.

Aruffo submitted a report which Development demonstrated that the city's rising State Equalized Valuation (SEV) has helped lower the financial burden on Novi taxpayers. A city's SEV is the the philosophies prevalent in the Master Plan is that the city's commercial development should be centralized in the Grand River/Novi Road/I-96/Twelve Mile area as opposed to being strewn up and down major roads (Ten Mile, Grand River and Novi Road). The concept was to permit the predominantly residential areas south of Grand River to flourish free of intrusion from commercial development.

> Another prevalent philosophy was that Novi should be master planned in such a way as to provide a secure financial future — for the city, for the school district and for residents in terms of tax burden. The individuals who formed the Master Plan — city council members and planning commissioners — were armed with information that singlefamily residential development is a 'loser'' in terms of cost-revenue analysis. In other words, it costs cities and school districts more to provide services than they receive in tax revenues from single-family

In as much as a strong singleanother major philosophy of the creators of the Master Plan, considerable attention was paid to providing sufficient non-residential tax base to support the highly-desired single-family areas, thereby maintaining municipal and educational services at a high level without placing too great a burden on the individual taxpayer.

Although the information presented by Aruffo was never purported to be all-inclusive, it does tend to demonstrate that the objective of a financially-viable community is be-What these figures tend to ing achieved as provided in the demonstrate is a financial affirma- Master Plan.

Aruffo's report to the council on the status of the Civic Center millage also gave the city charter-makers a big pat on the back.

Aruffo brought out the fact that the citizens of Novi are inherently involved in the processes of the city. Aruffo gave a rundown on how members of the Civic Center Committee studied the need for a new structure, developed a financing plan for that structure and sold other city residents on that plan via a vote for a dedicated millage. He then showed how that plan proceeded exactly as expected.

The city is structured around such citizen participation. Novi's charter limits the amount of general fund millage the city council can levy at 6.5 mills. Any needs which cannot be met by that millage must be developed by the citizens and voted on accordingly.

The system is a smart one from everybody's perspective. An involved and knowledgeable citzenry is the best resource a city can have, and citizen 'need-finding' committees and follow-through.

subjects as the storm water retention problem, street maintenance, and buildings such as the police station, library and civic center.

In each case, the committees have painstakingly examined the problem, researched solutions and developed proposals for financing. The final judgement has then been left to the voters of the city.

A system such as this produces a grass roots public relations committee of citizens who have worked on the project and believe in its solution. Residents are much more likely to vote for a millage that is researched and presented by the people who live next door — who share their concerns and questions.

Not all city problems result in millage solutions. Not all city problems can be solved by citizen committee. But Novi has a unique tradition of relying on its citizens. The city is planned to make use of its residents in every way, and special committees such as the Civic Center Committee are the best way to insure Novi has it in abundance. Separate honest and thorough participation in Northville the other evening, noticed a family walking slowly home with ice cream cones dripping down their hands. Two little girls in shorts skipped ahead of their parents. The taller of the two girls suddenly broke away, pulled the smaller girl's pigtail, and ran away, giggling wildly. The

Smiling at real life drama

Not too long ago I was dozing in the sun by the pool. A woman was lying on a chaise lounge near me, with a headset on. It was quiet and hot — when suddenly this woman bolted upright and screamed "The Tigers won — they won it in the ninth, we're in second place." Then she laid back down.

These little flashes of daily life make me stop for a while and usually make me smile. When I was leaving work, instead of gunning out of the parking lot in hopes of making the light, I stopped and watched this perfectly normal family. That day down by the pool I laughed, and instead of lying there worrying about work or the fact I had no clean clothes, I thought about how something like a Tiger win could force people out of their normal 'private space.'

All these rather normal mundane parts of my life flashed through my mind as I tried to answer a friend's inquiry. One of my college buddies makes an annual visit and her first question is always "So what's new?" Because I write for a living it naturally follows that I never write letters and most of my friends have learned to live with never quite knowing what city or what job

But this year when Julie asked to be updated on a year of my life, I faltered. "What's new? — Nothing much." I've learned slowly that most people outside of my immediate family do not care to know the routine items that make up a year of settled existence.

Let's face it, I'm a reporter for a suburban newspaper. For the most part I deal with stories on development. Try telling people about the great berm story you wrote last week, or the titillating account of last week's council meeting. They tend to remember suddenly they have a plane leaving for Ohio in 10 minutes that they just can't miss.

I spend my days interviewing the people around here. That may mean talking to a Girl Scout, or an expert on sewers, or an irate homeowner. It may mean trips to exciting spots like the parks and recreation building, the library and city hall. My days are relatively routine, with deadlines and meetings — just like most of working America.

I enjoy those chats with Girl Scouts and I like talking to homeowners. I'm getting used to city hall coffee and I'm adjusting to terms like 'solid waste.' But let's face it, it doesn't make for exciting playback to a person who remembers the days when a typical week for me might have been a climb up a mountain, a game of mud football and a cross-country car trip.

So I've settled down and become a part of suburban routine. So I can't regale my friends with pithy stories about life in the fast lane. There are bits and pieces of real life drama going on all around me and for now I'm content to sit back and enjoy it.

A couple of days ago I was walking my dog through Novi. It was hot, but then that goes without saying these days. Five teen-age boys were playing basketball on a court nearby. Their shirts were off and they were sweating as they battled each other for the ball. Their concentration was on each other and they were more interested in shoving shoulders and hitting wrists than in getting the ball in the basket. They seemed to think, despite the fact the tallest one was all of 5'8", that dunking was something they should try — and try — and try. They were not getting a whole lot of shots in.

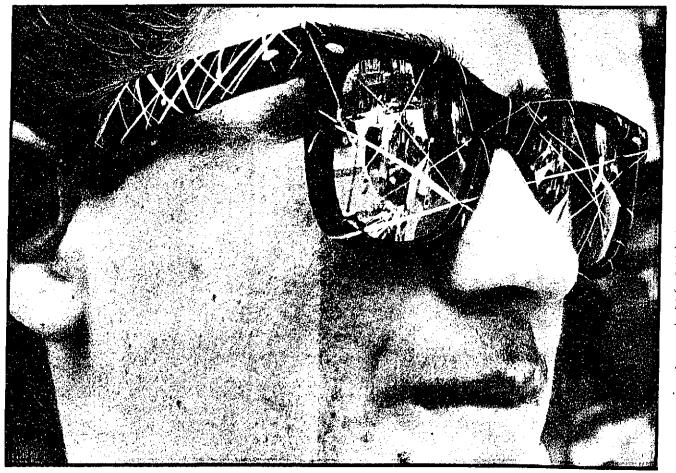

A couple of teen-age girls were sitting watching the game. One of them, a tall, long-legged pretty girl, couldn't take it any longer. She joined the boys and while they were busy tripping each other, stole the ball, wove between the flailing legs and made an easy, effortless lay-up. Then she went and sat down.

The whole thing made me smile.

Good guess misses the mark

"Bet I know what you wrote your column about this week," she declared at the breakfast table, a gleam in her eve and her voice swollen with

I figured she might get off lucky guess. Besides, it was too early in the day to start an argument by ignoring her, so I decided to humor her and went along with the little game.

"Okay," I said. "What do you think it was?"

"It was about the signs at the Detroit Zoo," she announced triumphantly. "I could see the wheels in your little mind turning when it happened, and I just knew that's what you were going to write about.

"Remember," she continued, "You were pretending you were the big hot-shot editor and complaining about the spelling mistakes in the signs at the zoo because you saw the word 'browse' and said it should have been 'broughs.'

"And I had to tell you that 'browse' was correct because I had read the sign at the African plains exhibit that said how animals like to tear the bark off trees and other little shrubs. And that when they do that it's called 'browse,' and the new director at the zoo has placed all this 'browse' in the exhibits because the animals like it and it's good for their nutrition.

"And then you had to admit I was right. Me, a little old social worker, telling the big bad editor that what he thought was a spelling mistake wasn't really a spelling mistake at all, but that if he had read all the signs he would know about 'browse' and wouldn't get all upset when he thought the person who wrote the sign should have used the word 'broughs' instead.

"That's what it was, wasn't it? I just knew you were going to write about that in your column. I'm right, aren't I? Come on, admit it. Tell me I'm right."

"Actually, light of my life," I said slowly when she paused long enough to give me a chance to respond, "I wrote about how the Tigers always seem to play better when I do the crossword puzzle on the bed."

Plans proposed

Not surprisingly, preservation of trees and wetlands as well as recreational parkland acquisition are two key themes I'm hearing from

Novi certainly has been a leader in its sensitivity to environmental causes due in large part to volunteer however, we have a long way to go to turn a vision of Novi with open spaces and parklands into reality.

I propose that city planners consider recommending to council lowering residential densities to 1.6 dwellings per acre (i.e., per the simpler solution to eliminate study Master Plan's R2 zoning district). A small reduction in large lot sizes could be the incentive for developers to preserve open space neighborhood parks as envisioned in the Master Plan. The key is to lower densities now and "beef up" the Residential Unit Development (RUD) and Planned Unit Development (PUD) sections > of Novi's zoning ordinance. Secondly, I propose public parkland acquisition with some of Novi's allocation of state revenue sharing funds (i.e., some $300,000) coming to us over the next year. I would look to the parks and recreation department and its board of commissioners for input on this mat-

Much of Novi remains to be developed. We have enough perhaps more than enough - commercial, industrial and multiple residential uses. It is time to focus on single family development with open space neighborhoods preserving stands of trees and sensitiv areas. It is also time to purchase areas for what a few vocal residents may parents attend the August 13 school parks and recreational activities

We've Gotcha Covered!

Keep that great GM feeling with genuine GM parts

When we install your vehicle's exhaust system, you will never have to pay for a new exhaust system . . . or part of one . . .

Total Exhaust System Protection

The Lifetime Muffler System With a Guarantee Like No Other

SYSTEMS

When you buy a muffler system from us, you get value unrivaled in the automotive repair industry. Because, unlike many others, we guarantee the entire exhaust system - not just the muffler, but the pipes, the resonator and attaching parts, the catalytic converter, the WORKS — for as long as you own your vehicle.

And, it dosen't matter how old your Ford or Lincoln-Mercury car or light truck is. Or where you bought it. Once we install any part of your exhaust system, if any of those parts ever have to be fixed again, we'll fix them free. Free parts. Free labor. Who else can offer you as much?

Go With Dealership Service Quality

It makes sense to have your exhaust system replaced by the people who sold you your vehicle. We KNOW Ford and Lingoln-Mercury vehicles - and we stock and install products that are designed specifically for your vehicle.

Our premium quality replacement mufflers, for expample, feature:

 Rust-resistant metals (Galvanized and aluminized) Internal drainage systems Mechanical joints Spun-locked heads

 Spot welded partitions Great corrosion resistance

Quality Pipes and Accessories Too

Mufflers are just one part of the exhaust system Pipes and accessories are equally important parts of the system because they connect and hold it together. When you replace a muffler but not a worn pipe or accessory, the system may not hold together or perform properly. Your Service Technician, one of our exhaust system specialists, can advise you on the condition of your vehicle's overall exhaust system. Should your vehicle require them, we install top quality pipes designed for precision fit and long service life. And we use only the highest grade clamps, adapters, gaskets, flanges and hangers — so your system stays together and secure to your night. We also understand that you probably work very hard to get yourself back on you feet. . . HILLTOP FORD doesn't think you should be penalized for it. ### Hutchins takes 4th in 40-miles

There were some serious runners among the 14 participants at the "Goat Farm International Ultramarathon" from Monroe to Novi on

But the biggest surprise of all was the fourth-place finish turned in by Northville's Todd Hutchins. The 28year-old runner, with hardly any experience in normal marathons of 26 miles, covered the 40-mile course in just five hours and 48 minutes. His time was only 25 minutes behind the first place finisher - Jim Maganus of Southfield, who has over 60 career marathons under his belt.

when I did. During the run, Hutchins ran into a severe rainstorm, and, although it was an effective way to cool-off, it provided some problems.

"We had severe rain about halfway through," he said. "Running in wet shoes and socks was probably the most difficult thing for me. But it was cloudy and cooler, and that certainly. According to Hutchins, after a hot

AT LAST.. A MUTUAL FUND THAT CAN GROW IN BEAR MARKETS AS WELL AS BULL MARKETS

The National Strategic Allocation Fund designed to harness the energy of the changing business cycle

The Classic Business Cycle Each Phase Calls for a Different Strategy Rapid economic growth, low interest and inflation Our portfolio of U.S. equities is favored. Stable Growth Moderate interest rates, dollar may weaken Our portfolios of U.S. and International Equities are favored. Inflationary Growth Full employment, rising interest and prices Our portfolio of Precious Metals should be strong > Recession/Deflation Rising unemployment, lower prices, no growth, credit squeeze Our portfolio of Fixed Income securities is most likely to flourish.

Look at the diagram of the classic business cycle. Each phase favors one or two types of investment while other types might languish or even fall. Expert market timers can shift their holdings as the cycle changes, trying to capture the upward momentum of each phase.

The new National Strategic Allocation Fund does all this for you. It has 4 portfolios instead of oneand shifts the bulk of its assets into the portfolios that are best for the current market climate

Welcome Back!

from School Board President, Robert Schram

As president of the Novi Board of Education, I am proud to have the privilege of officially welcoming back all our students and staff to the 1987-88 school year.

The past year was a very successful and productive one for our students and for the Novi Community School District. Our students have again excelled both academically and in the extra-curricular activities. In addition, Novi High School was recognized nationally for the program it provides to both the students and the community.

The coming year will be challenging for all of us. We need to make sure our students continue to achieve at a high level. In addition, we need to continue planning to be sure that, as a school district, we meet the needs of a rapidly growing city and population.

Educational achievement and planning for the future can only be successful with the continued concern and involvement of students, teachers, and parents. It is this partnership of involvement that has brought academic success to our students, and it is this involvement that will assure the continued high standards of education set by the community.

I look forward to a very successful year for all our students and staff!

A Safe Bus Ride . . . A Team Effort

Because our district transports a large percentage of our students, the safety of the students while riding the buses is one of our prime concerns.

Aside from the mechanical condition of the bus fleet, the drivers are key factors in transporting students safely to school and home. It is their responsibility to maintain order on the bus, while at the same time watching the road and traffic in every direction and maneuvering the bus through busy rush-hour traffic. This is an impossible task for bus drivers to accomplish alone.

The responsibility for the safe transporting of students must be shared by students, parents, and school personnel.

Therefore, we urge you to share the following with your children.

School District:

- Operate transportation service in accordance with the laws and regulations of the State of Michigan.
- 2. Employ skilled bus drivers.
- 3. Educate pupils regarding traffic and transportation safety.
- 4. Deny students who willfully disobey bus safety rules the privilege of riding the bus.
- 5. Make periodic surveys of bus equipment, bus routes, and the observance of safety practices by drivers and students.

Students:

- 1. Be on time at the bus stop.
- 2. Stay off the roadway.
- 3. Always obey the driver.
- 4. Stay in seat while bus is moving.

- 5. Do not throw objects either on the bus or out the windows.
- 6. Keep hands and head inside bus at all times.
- 7. Keep silent while crossing the railroad.
- 8. Use only the front door of the bus.
- 9. When crossing the road: a) Walk in front of bus and wait for driver's signal to cross;b) Look both ways before crossing;c) Walk do not run.

Parents:

- 1. Keep an eye on the children.
- 2. Support school authorities in demanding proper student conduct at bus stops and while on the bus.
- 3. Review and discuss with your child the importance of safe conduct.

Discipline Procedure:

- 1. Unsafe behavior is cause for a driver to issue a "Bus Safety Violation."
- 2. FIRST TICKET: Student's copy must be signed by parent and presented to the driver before child will be allowed to board the bus.
- SECOND TICKET: Parent must arrange a conference with the child's principal and ticket must be signed before child will be allowed to board the bus.
- 4. THIRD TICKET: Parent must arrange a conference with Dr. Barr, Assistant Superintendent, before student will be allowed to ride the bus again.
- 5. FIGHTING ON THE BUS: The "Third Ticket" procedure will automatically be followed before student will be allowed to ride bus again.
- 6. APPEAL PROCESS: Student or parent may appeal to the next highest authority.

By working together, parents, students and school personnel can make every effort to maintain safe bus standards for the continued safety of all children.

Bus Schedules

Bus schedules for the 1987-88 school year will remain the same as last year. Parents are strongly encouraged to discuss bus safety rules (above) with their children.

If you have questions or would like further information regarding bus routes, please contact Ginny Burnham, Transportation Director, at 344-8314.

District Immunization Guidelines

Exclusion Date: October 1, 1987

The law in Michigan requires that all students be adequately immunized. Records for all entering kindergarten students and students enrolled from outside the district will be assessed. Notice will be sent to parents or guardians if there is no immunization record upon school entry, or if records are incomplete.

Students not in compliance with Michigan immunization requirements will be excluded from school on October 1, 1987 until documentation of immunization is presented. Parents may sign a waiver if they have a religious or other objection to immunizations, or they may provide a statement of objection for medical reasons which has been signed by a physician.

Michigan law requires that all students be immunized against the diseases listed below:

Immunizations can be obtained from your physician, or at the following Oakland County Health Division Clinics:

Novi Project Find

The Novi Project Find is a cooperative effort involving school personnel and the Special Education Parent Advisory Committee. Project Find provides information to parents about early warning signs of possible handicaps in seeing, hearing, walking or talking. Services to referred preschool children (birth-age 5) also are provided by the Special Services Department. These include speech and language evaluations and social and intellectual assessment.

Other special evaluation services for preschoolers can be arranged through the Special Services Office. Speech and language therapy and parent counseling are provided to eligible preschoolers at their neighborhood schools. Special preschool program placements, when needed, are coordinated through the Special Services Office.

Additional information about the Project, or how to refer a child, can be obtained by calling the Special Services Department at 348-1200.

Community Appreciation Day September 18, 1987

Community Appreciation Day has been a tradition in the Novi School District since 1980. The day is scheduled in conjunction with the first home varsity football game of the season. The school district takes this opportunity to invite the Novi community into the schools to say thank you for their continuing support.

Community members will again be invited to lunch in the school(s) of their choice on September 18th. Informational flyers and reservation slips will be sent home with elementary students prior to Community Appreciation Day.

The past two years the Food Service Department has sponsored an All-You-Can-Eat Fish Fry before the evening's free football game. This year will be no exception! Dinner will be served in the High School Commons from 5:30 pm to 7:30 pm on September 18th. Ticket prices and the complete menu will be announced shortly before the event. Tickets will be sold in advance.

After dinner Novi residents are encouraged to show their support of the Novi Wildcats by attending the football game free of charge. Musical entertainment will be provided by the award-winning Novi High School Marching Band. Novi will be battling Lake Orion at 7:30 pm in the season's home opener.

For further details about any of the above events, call the Communications Office at 348-1200.
