

Bowerman, Burton Charles

Lake Orion Review

Burton Charles Bowerman of Spruce, formerly of Lake Orion, died on April 5, 1997. He was 72.

He is survived by his wife Barbara.

He is also survived by his children, Amy (Marshall) Stevens of Spruce, Melodee (Bruce) Rupert of Afton and Cherie (Rick) Meyers of Lake Orion and his grandchildren, Nathan, Nicholas and Erin.

Mr. Bowerman was self employed in the aquatic and bait business for many years. He owned and managed the Bourbon Barrel Hunt Club in Imlay City until he retired. He was a true outdoorsman and his spirit will live on the lakes and woods he loved so well. He will be missed by many.

A memorial luncheon is scheduled for April 27 at the Ossineke Eagles Club in Ossineke.

Memorials may be made to the Ossineke Eagles Club, 6848 N. US 23, Spruce, MI 48762.
