

Cole, George E.

The Lake Orion Review
December 30, 1998
Wednesday

George Cole

George E. Cole of Saginaw died on Dec. 24, 1998. He was 86.

He is survived by his wife Catherine.

He is also survived by his children, retired Col. Richard (Lynne) Cole of Apply Valley, California and Mary Olive VanMatre of Kettering, Ohio; his grandchildren, Stephen (Colleen) VanMatre, Lynne (Scott) Pattison, Sandra Ishmael, Michael VanMatre, Elizabeth VanMatre, Matthew VanMatre, Caroline (Craig) Brown, Richard (Carrie) Cole, Robert Cole; his nine great-grandchildren; and many special and supportive nieces and nephews.

OVER

Mr. Cole was born in Lake Orion. He attended Central Michigan University and was employed with the City of Saginaw Traffic Engineering Department, retiring in 1973.

He was a member of St. Mary Cathedral Parish where he served as a Boy Scout Master and usher and worked on the funeral dinner committee.

He was a member of the United Commercial Travelers and the YMCA.

Mass of Christian Burial took place Dec. 28 at St. Mary Cathedral with Reverend Kenneth Untener and Sr. Honora Remes DC officiating. Burial was in Mt. Olivet Cemetery.

Funeral arrangements were made by Deisler Funeral Home.