

Corrine DuPuis

Corrine J. DuPuis died on Sept. 17, 2002. She was 88.

The funeral service took place at the Crittenden-Hansen Funeral Home in Remus, Michigan on Sept. 21. Burial was in White Chapel Cemetery in Troy.

She was preceded in death by her husband Ervern and a sister, Arlene Greene of Salt Lake City, Utah.

She is survived by her son, Terry; her granddaughter, Nicole of Blanchard, Michigan; and her sister Mabel Quinn of Grand Rapids.

Mrs. DuPuis was born 11-12-13 on a rural farm in Holton, Michigan. After completing high school there, her family relocated to North Muskegon. During that period, she attended Sherwood Music School (Chicago) then returned to teach piano, professionally.

After World War II, Mrs. Dupuis and her husband settled in Lake Orion (Swiss Village) where she remained a resident for the past 57 years. She taught piano in her home for two decades and was also an avid golfer and member of Indianwood Country Club in the 1960s and 1970s.
