

Lewis D. Hanoute, the 76-year-old owner of Al Hanoute Chevrolet-Buick, and one of Orion's most active community-service members died last Thursday, February 12 of cancer.

A long-time resident of Lake Orion, "Al" Hanoute purchased his automotive dealership at 209 N. Park Blvd. in 1955 from L.C. Anderson Inc.

Among the awards earned by Mr. Hanoute was the March of Dimes Service Award, and the 1976 "man of the year" award.

He was president and major contributor to girls and boys (Small Fry) baseball league, established the Al Hanoute golf tournament at Clarkston Hills and donated the "Bronze Boot" football trophy for Oxford and Orion high school competition.
