Edward Hardenburg

Edward Hardenburg, Jr., 67, of Houston, Missouri, formerly of Lake Orion, died on May 8, 2006.

He was the son of Edward K. and Marion (Duckert) Hardenburg, and was born on Sept. 25, 1938 in Lake Orion.

Ed enlisted in the US Army on Nov. 21, 1958. When he was discharged on Nov. 17, 1960, he was transferred to the US Army Reserves. He finished his enlistment in the Reserves on Aug. 13, 1962. He was stationed in Velsic, Germany.

Ed worked for General Motors on an assembly line. He retired in 1991, and moved with his wife to Willow Springs. He lived there six years, before moving to Houston, MO in 2001.

He was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by his wife, Nancy of the home; three sons, John William Steinbach II of Davisburg, Edward George Hardenburg of Oxford, and Gilbert Luebke of Davisburg; and one daughter, Gwen Marie Steinbach of Grand Blanc.

He is also survived by one brother, Richard Hardenburg and wife Vicky of West Branch; one sister, Maxine French and husband Don of Rogers City; and one brother-in-law, George and wife Joyce Warnock of Cabool, MO.

Ed enjoyed woodworking and doing special projects with and for Cindy and Danny Hartman. He liked going to check the height of the river after a rain, and made many unique bird houses in various designs, to give to special people.

He liked making homemade elderberry wine, and found new enjoyment in the local horse pulls, rodeos, fish fries and Bar-B-Ques.

Ed was baptized on March 7 at the First Christian Church by Jeff Moore and Allen Tyger. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him.
