

Furgerson, Dorothy M. 192 Lake Orion Review 1988

Dorothy M. Furgerson

Dorothy M. Furgerson of Lake Orion died July 13, 1988, at the age of 65.

Mrs. Furgerson is survived by her husband, Grant H; one daughter, Mrs. Paul (Stacey) Kuhn, of Royal Oak; a grandson, Andrew Kuhn, and a sister, Barbara Lawrey, of Florida.

1 of 2

0020

She owned and operated the Dor-May Gift Shop in Lake Orion for 30 years. She had also owned the Castle Gift Shop in Pontiac for 25 years. She was the owner of the the Yarn Junction Knit Shop in Rochester, and taught knitting for 10 years at the Rochester Community House.

Mrs. Furgerson was a former Girl Scout leader and a former member of the Lake Orion Chapter #340-Order of Eastern Star.

The funeral was Saturday, July 16, at Pixley Memorial Chapel, Rochester. Dr. Timothy R. Hickey of St. Paul United Methodist Church officiated. Interment was at Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Dryden.

Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society.

Furgerson, Dorothy May 292 Oakland Press 1988

FURGERSON, DOROTHY MAY;
age 65; of Lake Orion; July 13, 1988;
wife of Grant H.; mother of Mrs.
Paul (Stacey) Kuhn II of Royal Oak;
grandmother of Andrew Fergus Kuhn; sister of Barbara Lawrey of Fla. Funeral services Saturday 11 a.m. at Pixley Memorial Chapel, 322
W. University Dr., Rochester. Interment Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Dryden, Mi. Friends may visit the funeral home Friday 1-4 and 7-9 p.m.
Family would appreciate contributions to the American Cancer Society

292