

Pearl Johnson

Pearl E. Johnson, 83, of Owosso died on May 14, 2003.

She is survived by her husband William.

She is also survived by her children, Mary Ann Johnson of Seattle, Barbara (Larry) Fisher of Owosso and Frederick (Peggy) Johnson of Palo Alto, California; her grandchildren, Elissa (Jeff) Rowland, Mark (Angela) Fisher, Holly (Alan) Wiseman, Sharon Johnson and Emily (Errol) Johnson; her great-grandchildren, Madelyn, Tess and Anna Kate Rowland, Sylvia Fisher and Dorian (Cain) Johnson; her sister, Susan (Elias) Emmert; and her sister-in-law, Eleanore Willey.

Mrs. Johnson, who resided much of her life in Fenton, was a school teacher. She taught in the Coopersville School system for four years, Farmington Junior High for five years and Lake Orion Junior High for 12 years.

She was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Owosso, a member of the NEA, MEA, United Methodist Women, AAUW and Emily's List.

The funeral service took place May 17 with Rev. Grant Lobb officiating.

Memorials may be made to the Ella Johnson Public Library, Hampshire, Illinois, 60140.

Funeral arrangements were provided by the Jennings-Lyons Chapel in Owosso.