

Johnston, Myrtle V.

Lake Orion Review
May 15, 1991

1062

Myrtle V. Johnston, formerly of Lake Orion, died in Tucson, Arizona on May 6, 1991. She was 77.

She is survived by her husband David.

She is also survived by her daughters Roberta Brown of Fountain Valley, California and Mariiyn Frank of Tucson, Arizona; her step sons William Johnston of Galesferry, Cn. and David Johnston of Chesaning; 10 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Mrs. Johnston was an active member and financial secretary of Immanuel Presbyterian Church in Tucson. She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star #284 and #340, the Lake Orion Macabees and the Pythian Sisters #228 and #60.

A memorial service is scheduled for May 17, 2 p.m., at the Lake Orion United Methodist Church. Internment is in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Funeral arrangements were made by East Lawn Mortuary, Tucson.

Johnston, Myrtle V.

JOHNSTON, MYRTLE, V.; age 77; of Tucson; passed away May 6, 1991; survived by husband David of Tucson; step-sons William C. Johnston of Galesferry, CN and David J. Johnston of Chesaning; daughters Roberta Brown of Fountain Valley, CA and Marilyn Frank of Tucson, AZ; 10 grandchildren; and 3 great-grandchildren. Mrs. Johnston was the financial secretary and active member of Immanuel Presbyterian Church, member of the Order of the Eastern Star #284, and Pythian Sister #228. Memorial service Thursday, May 9, 1991, 2:00 p.m. Immanuel Presbyterian Church, Tucson. Interment White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy. Arrangements by East Lawn Mortuary, 5801 E. Grant Road, Tucson, AZ 85712

Handwritten initials

Oakland Press 1991

Myrtle V. Johnston, formerly of Lake Orion, died in Tucson, Arizona on May 6, 1991. She was 77.

She is survived by her husband David.

She is also survived by her daughters Roberta Brown of Fountain Valley, California and Marilyn Frank of Tucson, Arizona; her step sons William Johnston of Galesferry, Cn. and David Johnston of Chesaning; 10 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Mrs. Johnston was an active member and financial secretary of Immanuel Presbyterian Church in Tucson. She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star #284 and #340, the Lake Orion Macabees and the Pythian Sisters #228 and #60.

A memorial service is scheduled for May 17, 2 p.m., at the Lake Orion United Methodist Church. Internment is in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Funeral arrangements were made by East Lawn Mortuary, Tucson.