Former Pastor Finds Success as Author of Several Books

by Kathy Rush

He spent twenty-two years of his life devoting time and energy to the ministry. Four years ago, with experience and inspiration on his side he became a full-time writer. His name is Roger Campbell, former pastor for the Waterford Community Church.

Though never enrolled in a class, writing is a natural talent of Campbell's. "What actually got me started," he explained was "a subject of concern to one of the young people of our church. Thinking many other people might be curious, I did research, wrote an article and submitted it to a magazine." Shortly afterwards Campbell received an acceptance letter -- a letter than altered his lifestyle.

The books Campbell has authored are a potpourri of topics that sweep from subjects dealing with different facets of Christianity, weight control and criminal restitution. Although the books are dissimilar in subject, they do have a common theme; discovering a solution, through Bible study, to the problems faced in life.

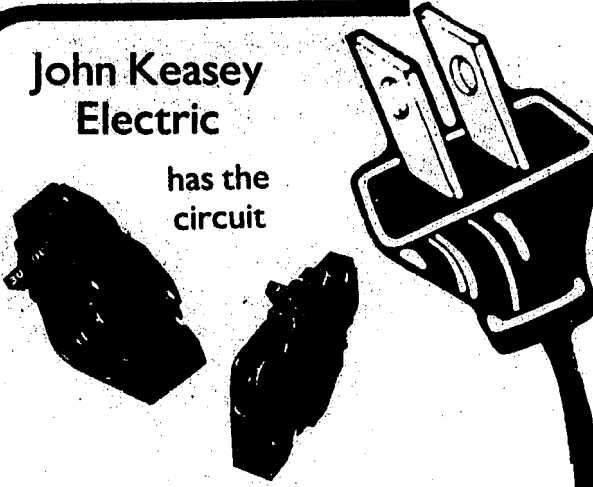

"Justice Through Restitution-Making Criminals Pay", written by Campbell has gained the attentions of State Representative Claude Trim and sufficiently influenced him to introduce a resolution to the legislature following the guidelines of Campbell's work. The book takes the position that it's a "terrible waste of taxpayers money to imprison lawbreakers who are not violent; that instead these people should in some way pay back the victims against whom these crimes have been committed."

In his research Campbell found that "it costs about $25,000 a year to keep an individual in prison. This does not make sense when the crime was only maybe a $200 robbery. It's a terrible fine for the taxpayers to have to pay. Also, with a program of restitution, repeat crime is only 10 percent as compared to 50 percent without it."

Of his latest effort entitled, "Weight! A Better Way To Lose", Campbell said, "I believe the Bible contains the principles to solve every problem in life. I had been in the ministry nearly twenty years before I realized

editor's note -- Holly vs. Ma Bell

This week The Reminder's Kathy Rush and Mike Wilcox present the results of an extensive researching effort involving Michigan Bell Telephone and its many unhappy customers in Davisburg and Holly.

The story unfolds on Page 7.

The unfortunate aspect of this entire fiasco, however, is that most of its probably could have been avoided with a better public relations effort from Bell.

The story is familiar. Bell the giant conglomerate, ignores the complaints and cries of several citizens from tiny Holly and Davisburg. The citizens get mad and are now trying to slay Goliath.

It's happened before to Bell. Other communities have taken them before the Public Service Commission, but only one, a small community on the Western side of the State, has won. So despite Holly's angry warnings, Bell is relatively sure of themselves.

But why even fight it out in front of the PSC. A great deal of resistance exists because of the discontinuance of Wide Area Local Service (WALS) in 1977. Bell claims that was replaced with the optional and better Circle Calling System.

Unfortunately few people know about Circle and Bell has not made a big effort in publicizing it.

Then too, Bell has got to consider Holly's unique geographical relationship, being situated halfway between Flint and Pontiac, and not being able to call either without a toll.

But most of all, the complainers make a big deal about the lack of concern Bell employees exhibit when they register a complaint. Customers have told us of countless times they've called and received the runaround. To Bell's credit, The Reminder did not experience that problem. They were most cordial with us. But, then we're a newspaper. A better job of public relations and handling customer's complaints would go a long way in helping smooth out the problems that exist now.

DO I THANK PEOPLE FOR COMING TO THE VISITATION?

It is not socially required for your friends to come to funeral visitations in your behalf. They are there to support you and they just want you to know they care.

But, of course, most people do like to be remembered for their friendly gestures, so it is nice to remind them of your appreciation when you see them.

On the other hand, when your friends send flowers or food, acknowledgements are in order. For this purpose, we and other funeral directors provide tasteful acknowledgement cards so you can send them "Thank You" notes.

If there are other such questions in your minds, by all means come in or phone us. We will be glad to answer you as best we know how.

a sizeable segment of my congregation was struggling with a serious problem that seemed unrelated to Bible truth. Alcoholics could be made sober. Drug addicts could be delivered. Prostitutes made pure. But the overweight appeared to be omitted from divine assistance. The more I thought about that the more sure I was that it could not be true."

"As I studied the Scriptures that I felt might be related to the emotional and physical needs of the overweight person, I became convinced that the Christian life-style set forth in the Bible would, over a period of time, solve the dieter's dilemma. We therefore offered a weight-loss class in church; this book is a result of the success of that class."

Almost daily, letters arrive at the Campbell household ordering his weight loss book and/or tapes that were recently developed for class use. Along with orders are a flood of letters that praise the book and thank him for writing it.

Marsha Faull, of Texas wrote saying, "The tapes are so good to play while I do my work, and such an uplift. Thank you and I sincerely appreciate your ministry."

From Mt. Clemens, Michigan, Diane Wilson wrote, "I am so glad God inspired you to write it. In fourteen weeks we have two people who have lost over fifty pounds each, as a class we are over the eight hundred pound mark."

Other works of Campbell's are "Israel's Final Holocaust", co-authored with Dr. Jack VanImpe, "They Call Him the Walking Bible", the biography of Dr. Jack VanImpe, "Let's Communicate", and "Herbert W. Armstrong and His Worldwide Church of God".

Holly vs. Ma Bell -- A Battle for Better Service

Davisburg Fragmentation Hurts Community Says Howarth

by Kathy Rush

How would you like to live in a community where you cannot call your child's school without paying a toll; where you cannot call any hospital or nursing home toll free; where you cannot reach any major department store, or the state police, or your local churches or ministers in your local dialing area?

"It's totally lacking in logic...Michigan Bell suggests we make our telephone calls either early in the morning, or late at night to cut down on long distance calling costs. Now isn't that a helpful suggestion? We run a business here with normal 9 to 5 business hours," says the disgruntled Nancy Howarth, Certified Legal Assistant to Davisburg attorney and husband Leonard Howarth.

Nancy, along with countless others, has been waging a battle since 1972 against the Michigan Bell Telephone Company and the Michigan Public Service Commission which regulates Michigan Bell in Lansing. After eight years the results of their efforts have been disappointing.

The problem facing Holly-Davisburg residents is summed up by Nancy Howarth in this way. "Although lumped into the Flint directory with 13 other Genesee County communities, Holly is the only exchange listed there that does not have toll-free service to Flint." Holly subscribers can only call 634 and 629 (Fenton) numbers toll-free for a calling area of approximately 15,000 numbers. It was pointed out that Fenton subscribers have access to approximately 250,000 toll-free phone numbers, at a much lower monthly charge.

"Davisburg is further fragmented," Howarth continued, "because the Davisburg area includes telephones in the 625 (Clarkston) and 887 (Milford) directories. Davisburg community services, including the Springfield Township Hall, Fire Department and Library, as well as some business people have found it necessary to install 625 telephones in addition to the 634 line to better serve the area. This is an expense that most residential customers cannot justify."

"We did enjoy a service called Wide Area Local Service for the period of December, 1968 through April 1977, which enabled us to call 28 local cities at a reduced rate. The Michigan Public Service Commission ruling replaced this system with something called circle calling," explained Howarth. Though this system was supposed to reduce phone bills, Howarth claimed that neither she, nor anyone she knew, had enjoyed a lower phone bill as a result of this system.

Residents are now hoping to institute a system called Extended Area Service which would divide the Holly area into two sections attaching the northern end of the area to the Flint phone service. The southern area, including Davisburg, would connect with the Pontiac area phone service. "The loss of revenue that Michigan Bell would incur, not the lack of technology is the reason for deterrent of Extended Area Service," added Howarth with an air of discontentment.

"I'm the person that will go out of my way to get change for a quarter to make a call on a pay phone."

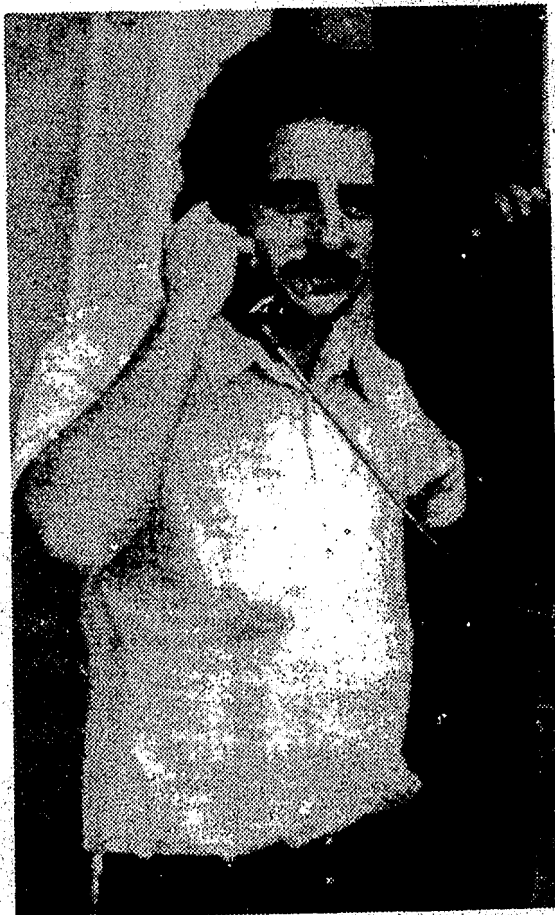

Nancy Howarth

Studley Leads Holly Opposition

"This time I've got the ire of the people...if I could just continue to keep them upset," says Roger Studley, Holly Party Shoppe owner and township trustee. Studley is also leader of an organization trying to get Extended Area Service (EAS) for Bell Telephone customers in the 634 exchange.

"There are so many injustices here yet

Bell Officials Insist EAS Not Practical

by Mike Wilcox

Jack Souder, General Rate Planning Supervisor and Len Singer, News Relations Supervisor, both of Michigan Bell, say to give the Holly Area (including Springfield 634 exchanges) Extended Area Service (EAS) would be too costly for both the company and the average phone user.

To the company, said Souder, it would cost at least 1.3 million dollars to give Holly and Davisburg exchanges extended service to Flint and Pontiac.

But in addition to that, Holly residents would be jumped from the second lowest rate group in the state to one of the highest, increasing rates by an average of a $1.35 a month. Souder explained that the rate groups are based on the number of telephones in an exchange. Holly currently has a mere 5400 phones, thus qualifying them for the lower rate.

Then too, said Souder, "We try to keep our Holly toll rates low. In many cases they are the lowest in the United States. For an example, in any one of the neighboring exchanges, they can make a one minute call for ten cent." On weekends, he added, the cost for the first minute is only four cents.

In reiterating his company's opposition to EAS for Holly, Souder said that decision was based partly on research and surveys Bell has conducted in the area for the past four years.

Each of the surveys, claimed Souder, pointed to one steady pattern. The number of people calling to Flint and Pontiac didn't warrant the need for EAS.

Bell's latest survey of Holly people calling to Pontiac shows on the average, a Holly family calls the Pontiac exchange 5.1 times a month at an extra cost of $1.55. However, 45 percent of the customers never call that exchange in a month's period. 40 percent don't call Flint, either.

Souder points out, though, that Bell realizes the community has undergone many changes since the exchange boundaries were set in the late 1940's. At that time it seemed natural to lump Holly and Fenton together. Now, said Souder, if boundaries were to be changed, Bell might think differently.

Rather than EAS, Souder suggested customers that make a lot of calls outside the exchange should consider the Circle Calling Service or the Foreign Exchange Service.

Circle Calling offers a 30 percent discount off of normal rates for calls within 30 miles except during weekday mornings. The charge is only a $1.07 a month.

Circle Calling replaced the ill-fated experimental Wide Area Local Service (WALS) that was operated in Holly and other test areas in the state from 1968-77. It was ill-fated because it was not self-supporting. Circle is optional, thus pays for itself.

But many Holly and Davisburg phone users remember WALS rather fondly and resented its discontinuance. Souder said Bell realizes that, but feels Circle Calling is a better option, although probably not enough people know of its existence.

The second option, Foreign Exchange, would allow a phone user to hook-up a private line to another exchange. But the cost is 90¢ a mile for the line plus the cost of hardware. Souder estimates a person with a Holly exchange would pay $34 extra plus $6 for local service, too. Still, for customers, who make dozens of toll calls a month to a single exchange, Souder suggests this would be a viable option.

nothing is ever done to improve the situation," Studley added. "I've written letters to Governor Milliken, State Senator Kammer, State Representative Trim and countless letters to Michigan Bell itself. Public officials can take time to dedicate buildings and so forth but they cannot look into why this system does not work. It's not that our officials have not been notified of our situation. They just don't seem to care."

Michigan Bell argues that EAS would not benefit the majority of the residents in the 634 exchange. Michigan Bell statistics show 40 percent of the people do not make calls to Flint. However, Studley maintains that the reason for this is because people can call Flint using a public pay phone and talk as long as they want for 20¢, whereas, if they use a home phone they must pay by the minute.

According to Studley in 1976 he was approached by Bell officials who informed him that if he would donate the use of a portion of his land where his party store is located, it would enable Holly residents to call Flint toll-free. Studley gave his consent and the Founded by Luis Riffeser over four generations ago in Santa Christina, Italy, the House of ANRI began as a communal workshop for local artisans and woodcarvers. Over the years, the House of ANRI has earned a reputation for creating the finest, most sensitively crafted woodcarvings in the world. These delicately carved and handpainted ANRI wood figurines reflect centuries of pride and generations of talent, making them a collector's favorite. Genuine ANRI woodcarvings are available exclusively through Schmid in our collector's gallery.

"highest level of switchgear" was installed. After four years, Flint is still a long-distance call from Holly. Studley believes that the switchgear need only be reprogramed, but says Michigan Bell claims there must be added trunk lines - a cost of over $300,000.

Studley believes that there is a contradiction in the statements of Michigan Bell, 1. That the majority of residents would not benefit from EAS, and 2. That there must be added trunk lines to accommodate the extra service required from the installation of EAS.

Imposition?

"Community of interest," a phrase used by the Michigan Public Service Commission (MPSC), (the agency in Lansing that regulates the activity of Michigan Bell Telephone Company) can be defined by where residents of a community shop, bank, work and play.

To make a formal complaint before the MPSC they maintain that "an imposition on the normal daily living" must be demonstrated.

Roger Studley along with the contingent have developed such a list of examples.

1. Children cannot be called by the school as the school district is divided into the following telephone exchanges which can't call 634: 694-5, 627, 625 and 887.

2. Can't call the local Judge in Waterford - 623.

3. Cannot call Road Commission Garage. Cannot call County offices in lower county.

4. Can only call Road Commission, Register of Deeds, or some County offices between 8:30 and 5:00 Monday through Friday and not on Holidays.

5. Cannot call Dog Catcher.

6. Ministers cannot call Parishoners.

7. Children cannot call School acquaintances.

8. Can't even call the Time 234-1212.

9. Can't call the State Police - 332-9132.

Say You Saw it in
The Reminder

10. Can't call the F.B.I.

11. Can't call any hospital, Rest Homes.

12. Can't call any Doctor who specializes in services not available in 634-629 area (or Surgeon).

13. Can't reach the Service Department of any major department store - Sears, Hudson's, Penneys.

14. In Springfield Township two numbers (1-634 and 1-625) had to be installed to call the Library.

Guided by Mrs. Hunter and Mrs. Basinger of the Historical Society, the project involved a tour of the old homes and buildings in town, in which the children looked for different architectural elements.

Independence, Clarkston Voters Say No to Fire Millage

The proposal set to voters in Clarkston and Independence Township last Tuesday would have made the township and village special assessment districts for fire department funds. This plan would have taken the fire department out of the general budget and tax rates set annually by the township board, up to a maximum of 10 mills. The plan was defeated though, by an unexpected vote count of 1,361-641 in the township and 172-70 in Clarkston. The Headlee and Tisch amendments were ascribable to the fire department's efforts in changing the funding plan. They feared the fire budget would become as easily tax limited as non-essential services. The new proposal would have protected the fire funds from such action.

Police Levy Continued in Springfield

Voters in Springfield Township renewed the assessment of one mill for police protection in Tuesday's election. The five year levy was passed by a 365-176 vote count; more than a 2-1 margin. Springfield along with Holly and Rose Townships signed a two-year contract with Oakland County Sheriff's Department in which all three townships will share two deputies. Springfield will pay $23,496 during the first year, and $25,152 for the second. Springfield Township also agreed to having an additional deputy solely patrol the township. This will cost the township $35,232 as compared to the $53,000 they paid last year for two deputies.

Republicans to Meet

The Independence Township Republican Club will meet May 29 at 7:30 at Spring Lake Country Club.

Smalley Candidate for County Commissioner

Charles Smalley, 55, and a resident of Independence Township for 27 years, is seeking the position of County Commissioner of District No. 3. Having recently retired after 30 years, from the U.S. Postal Service, his decision for seeking this position is to represent all the people of this district on a full-time basis. In his 30 years in the Postal Service he was Union President for 10 years and a Union Officer for 22 years. He was elected and served on the Clarkston School Board for 4 years. He served 3 years in World War II and is a disabled American Veteran.

Smalley said he is totally against the true fifty percent value on homestead taxes as now levied. He would be in favor of a tax system that would be in accordance with every citizens ability to pay, making less burden on senior citizens living on fixed income. He is very much in favor of General Motors building in Orion Township as it would be a great asset to the State and job security to our residents now and in the future, he added.

Smalley is a member of the D.A.V., V.F.W., Cedar Lodge No. 60 F & A.M. and the Oakland County Sportsman Club.

Broomfield Seeks Re-Election

Congressman William S. Broomfield (R-Birmingham) announced he will seek re-election in the fall general election.

Broomfield said he plans an active campaign for himself and to bring about a change in the White House and in the leadership of Congress.

"I can't recall a period when we faced so many critical problems both at home and in the field of foreign policy. We are suffering from a lack of leadership, and we desperately need a new direction from the Executive branch and the Congress. We have had one-party control of Congress for nearly 30 years, and it's time for a new majority," Broomfield said.

Broomfield is the ranking Republican on the House Foreign Affairs Committee and is a member of the House Committee on Small Business. He has served in Congress since 1957.

Kingsbury will host its 24th Annual Old Time Fair, Sunday, June 1st from 12-5 p.m. Once a year the white fenced school yard is transformed to give its visitors the old fashion charm and excitement of a country fair. Kingsbury mothers have been busy these past months creating handmade items for the country store such as: painted children's furniture, baby quilts, stuffed animals, patchwork pillows and potholders, mobiles and much more.

An authentic country auction will take place at 2 p.m. with country auctioneer Bud Hickmott auctioning antiques, furniture, sports equipment and other items.

Visitors will also have a chance to win a 3 lb. ingot of silver, and two cases of liquor. Kingsbury school house quilted bed cover made by mothers of the students will also be raffled at the fair.

Kingsbury School is located at Hosner and Oakwood Roads in Oxford. For more information, call 373-2500.

Parks Millage Renewal on August Ballot

The Oakland County Parks and Recreation Commission, at its regular meeting on May 7, unanimously voted to recommend that a one-quarter millage renewal be placed on the ballot for the August 5 local election.

The action is subject to approval by the Oakland County Board of Commissioners.

The proposal calls for renewal of a one-quarter millage, or 25 cents per $1,000 equalized valuation property tax. The current millage expires December 31, 1981.

In the last vote in 1976, the millage was approved by Oakland County voters by more than a 2-1 margin.

"Because there is no regularly scheduled election in 1981, the parks and recreation commission felt it best to seek approval for the millage in 1980," said Lewis E. Wint, parks commission chairman.

"We did not want to call a special election since it would cost extra money for the taxpayer," he added.

Wild Foods Study at Independence-Oaks

A "Wild Foods" public interpretive program is scheduled for June 6, at Independence Oaks County Park in Clarkston.

The program will last from 7:00 p.m.-8:30 p.m.

Participants will meet at the Twin Chimneys Shelter then venture out onto the hiking trails, guided by parks naturalist Kathleen Dougherty.

"They'll learn to recognize many of the wild foods of the area, like cattail hearts, dandelion or mustard greens, and lamb's quarters," says Dougherty.

"Some of the plants we look at as weeds have culinary possibilities," she adds.

Participants must pre-register by phoning 625-0877.

Mayor Announces County Executive Candidacy

Madison Heights Mayor George Suarez has officially announced his candidacy for the Democratic Nomination of Oakland County Executive. In announcing his candidacy, Suarez said, "I believe that the voters of Oakland County deserve an alternative to the pre-selected candidates. Currently, government at all levels represents not the people who elect them, but a small, select group tied to special interests.

"Whether we talk about subways for Detroit or tax relief for the entire state, the voters are tired of voting 'NO' only to be told that a few self-styled leaders have decided that they know better what is best for the State."

Pidgeon Seeks Congress

James M. Pidgeon, 31, announces that he will seek the Democratic Nomination for Michigan's 19th Congressional District.

Pidgeon, a Bloomfield Hills attorney, formerly served as a legislative assistant to retired Congresswoman Martha W. Griffiths of Michigan's 17th Congressional District.

In announcing his candidacy, Pidgeon stated, "Without doubt, the primary issues facing this country in 1980 are inflation, energy and confidence in government."

"Despite the fact that young families cannot afford to purchase their first homes, or even afford to heat the homes they have, I believe the overriding concern of the American people is the feeling that our government cannot do that which is necessary to remedy the problems facing our nation.

"Even worse," Pidgeon stated, "government policies, lofty in purpose, all too often prevent implementing the very goals they were designed to achieve. I hope to change that."

In announcing his own goals, Mr. Pidgeon stated, "The American people want the same things out of life that our grandparents did. We want a decent home for our families, a good education for our children, a fair wage for the work we do, and a chance to succeed in life according to our ability and our efforts."

Bar Association Honors Whitlock

Retired Captain Charles T. Whitlock (left) of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department, Civil Division, was honored during a dinner held at Oakland Hills Country Club May 13.

Oakland County Bar Association President, Michael Hutson (right), presented Whitlock with the Bar's Distinguished Service Award on behalf of the Bar's 2100 members. The award states "presented to Charles T. Whitlock in recognition of more than 30 years of dedicated service to the citizens of Oakland County."

Special presentations are made at the Bar's annual dinner meeting each year to those members of the community who have distinguished themselves in the course of their employment.

Whitlock, of Clarkston, who retired from the Sheriff's Department in January, authored a handbook entitled "Guideline for Civil Processes". The book has been widely acclaimed as the first practical guide on civil process in the State. It is used by lawyers, court officers, enforcement officials, lay persons and also serves as a teaching manual for deputy sheriffs.

CHIROPRACTIC IS THE MOST RECOGNIZED NATURAL HEALTH CARE IN THE UNITED STATES. IF YOU HAVEN'T CONSIDERED CHIROPRACTIC CARE FOR YOUR FAMILY, PERHAPS IT'S TIME TO FIND OUT ABOUT THE SCIENCE AND ART OF HEALING WITH CHIROPRACTIC.

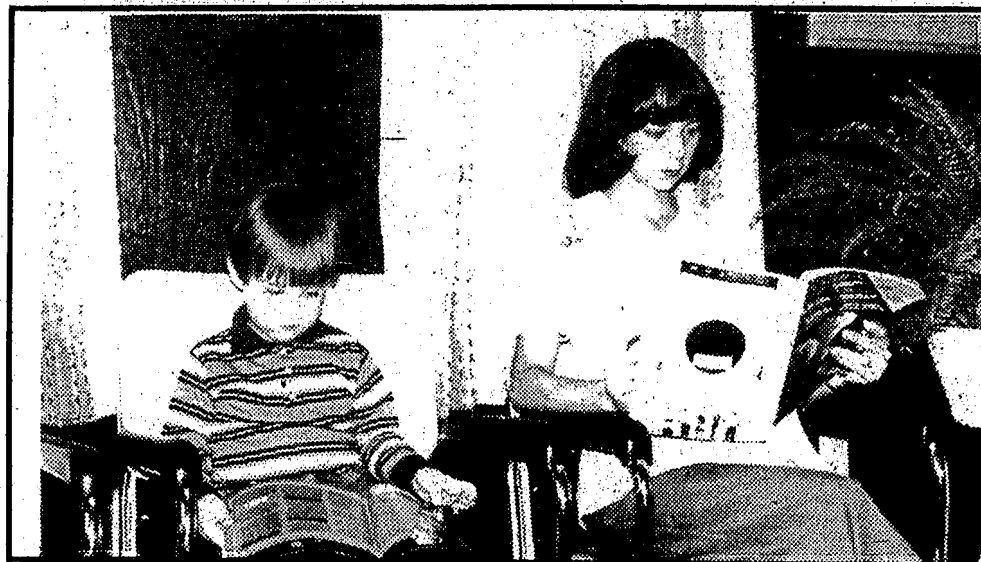

Dr. John Dettloff explains how the nervous system controls your body's health and what you can do to protect it.

Why Should I Become A Chiropractic Patient?

Through scientific research and clinical observation, chiropractors have learned that slight displacement of vertebrae causes pressure on nerves and interferes with vital nerve energy resulting in disharmony and disease in the body. No other health system is so specific or acts in such perfect harmony with nature's healing power. Chiropractors are trained to locate and correct the spinal cause of disease.

Do You Have To Have Faith In Chiropractic To Get Results?

No! Chiropractic is a scientific way of removing the cause of disease. The body does the healing. A chiropractor's job is much easier if he has the faith and confidence of the patient, but it is not absolutely necessary.

Most often, patients never have to wait more than a few minutes before being seen by the doctor.

Can Chiropractic Help My Condition?

Yes, the power that created the body can heal the body. If the body is free from nerve impingement and there is an uninterrupted flow of nerve energy from the brain cell to the tissue cell, a state of normal health can exist. Sickness begins when there are spinal displacements impinging nerves and interfering with the normal nerve energy flow from brain cell to tissue cell. Chiropractors locate and correct the spinal cause of nerve interference. The body has a tremendous capacity for healing and remaining healthy once nerve channels are free.

Are Chiropractic Adjustments Painful?

No...Gentle, spinal adjustments are painless. Chiropractors are specially trained to locate and correct displacement in the vertebrae with little or no discomfort. After spinal displacements are corrected, the body will feel more active, giving you that healthy, happy feeling.

With X-rays Dr. Dettloff can precisely determine where a vertebral problem exists.

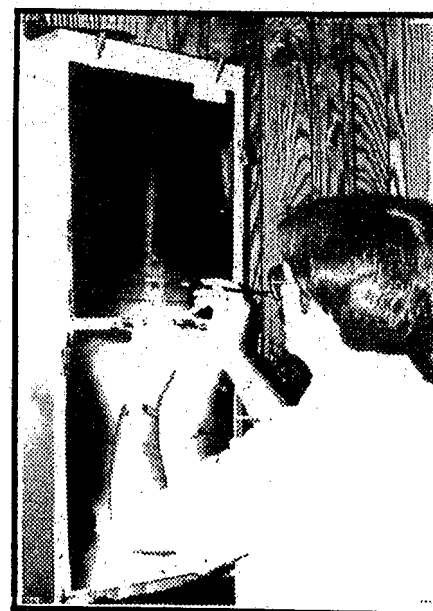

Spinal adjustments are gentle and painless. Children especially enjoy visiting the chiropractor.

Why Do Chiropractors X-ray?

X-ray to the chiropractor is like the blueprint to the builder. The chiropractor uses X-ray to help him locate the exact vertebra that is causing the patient's condition. After the analysis has been made, the necessary adjustment can be given to return the displaced vertebra to its normal position.

How Long Do I Have To Stay Under Chiropractic Care?

Once you have regained good health as the result of a spine that is free from nerve pressure, you would want spinal examinations regularly to insure continued good health.

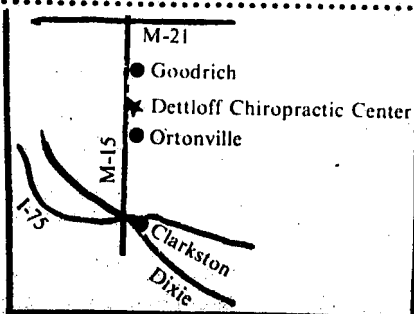

An expert Radiographic Analysis is part of the procedure for locating a structural problem so that a proper correction can be administered.

How long will it take to obtain results?

In a short period of time, you will begin to feel relief. Some conditions, however, may not respond as rapidly as others because these conditions have been developing over a period of years.

It takes time for ligaments, muscles, tendons and disc structures to return to their normal position so they are able to hold the vertebrae in its correct alignment. In the early state of health restoration, there will be a tendency for the vertebrae to return to the old abnormal position. Then additional adjustments may be needed before the abnormal spinal condition is corrected. Once the vertebrae have been adjusted, freeing vital nerve energy to all parts of the body, the process of recovery comes quickly and naturally. The longer the spine remains in correct alignment, the more rapidly the body can restore itself to health.
