Farmers Take Stand on Seven Amendments

At a meeting of the delegates from Farm Bureau members, Elevator Managers and Farm Bureau Insurance agents held at the Independence Grange Hall in Clarkston on October 19th, a general discussion of the amendments to be voted upon November 8th resulted in the farm group taking a very definite stand.

The meeting was presided over by J. S. Mitchell, President of the Oakland County Farm Bureau. A rather free discussion of the various proposed amendments was made, after which they were voted upon.

Amendment No. 2 providing for the limitation of taxation to 11/2% of the assessed valuation was given unanimous support.

Amendment No. 3 providing for the reapportionment of representation received a negative voter

Amendment No. 4 providing for exemption of $3000.00 property taxation also known as the Homestead Exemption Amendment received a negative

Amendment No. 5 providing for voting precincts received an affirmative vote.

Amendment No. 6 to require the Governor to provide the legislature with a report on all reprieves and pardons was given an affirmative

Amendment No. 7 providing only tax payers vote on issues providing for the expenditure of money received an affirmative vote.

The referendum on Act 55 of the 1931 legislature that refers to taxing of oleomargarine received an affirmative vote.

At the conclusion of the meeting, it was moved and supported that Po-mona Grange, County Farm Bureau and the Farmers' Clubs elect a delegate to a county legislative committée. Farm leaders present at the meeting were: Ray Shults, Holly; Joseph Pittenger, Milford; Edward F. Cook, Davisburg; B. 9. Holden, Wixom; James S. Mitchell, Holly; Arthur Wendell, Holly; Will King, Davisburg; James Downey, Holly; Wellington Van Riper, Holly; Alex Solley Clarkston; Fred Beckman, Clarkston; Herhert Baynes, Clarkston; W. Roy Thompson, Holly.

Ferndale Beat Local

The Ferndale team proved to be the Tibbett In Recital best team the Clarkston Independents have met this year. The winning points were scored by Ferndale by a field goal scored through a fumble by the home team and recovered by Ferndale on the 30 yard line. The score was Ferndale 3, Clarkston 0. Whatever chances the home team had, were ruined by the many fumbles that were made by the home boys, according to the manager. It was a good, hardplayed game. Next Sunday the Bertrum Athletic Club of Flint plays here. This last is the last home game for the Independents. Game is called for two o'clock.

Entertain Friends

A few of the many friends and former parishioners of the Rev. C. E. Edwards of the Strathmoore M. E. Church of Detroit, who appreciated his services very highly while with them, attended the morning services at the Clarkston M. E. Church last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Worsley sang a duet during the service. Others pre sent were Mr. and Mrs. Lou Jenser and son, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Helyoke and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hillman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tapert and family, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pfeile and family, Mr. William Gray and Mrs. Louise Gray and family of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pritchard and family of Royal Oak, Mr. and Mrs. George Jones and family of Birmingham. - After Sunday School a pot luck dinner was enjoyed at the church by these friends, including Rev. and Mrs. Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. C. G Fiske and family.

The afternoon was spent in visiting singing, solos and readings. Rev Ed wards expressed his appreciation of the love and friendship the friends had shown by coming to see him and closed with a prayer, after which everyone joined hands and sang "Blest Be the Tie That Binds." These friends left congratulating the local Clarkston, is a student at a business people on the appointment of Rev. college at Santa Rosa, California, acanad Mrs. Edwards to our community.

Township Poor Plan Begins January 1st

Supervisors Defeat County Plan

The decision of the Board of Sup rvisors of a year ago to return to the township system of caring for the poor withstood a determined effort to defeat it at the meeting of the Board last week. A two thirds vote, or 35 favorable votes, would have been necessary to reverse the vote of last year and continue the present county plan of caring for the poor. Of the 47 voting, 32 were in favor and 15 opposed. John Bradley of Holly township was one of those opposed to continuing the county plan.

This means that, unless the effort, being made to have it reconsidered brings fruit, each township will become responsible the first of the year for taking care of its own indigent.

Ben DeLisle Has 75th Birthday Celebration

Ben DeLisle, well-known villager, has passed the seventy-fifth mark, and celebrated—the occasion last Friday evening. Mrs. DeLisle and her daughter, Mrs. Ed Sugar of Pontiac, were hostesses at a dinner party. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Homer Lowrie, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Oliver of Pontiac, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sugar, George Walter and Frank Howland. Mr. DeLisle was the recipient of many birthday cards, and a number of fine gifts. After the dinner, the evening was spent at cards.

Ben DeLisle secured work and moved to a farm four miles east of Clerkston when he was a young man. He worked there for four years then moved to Metamora. While there he studied drugs and learnd the business and fifty-one years ago he was married to Ellison Easton at Metamora. The couple then returned here, where they have made their home since. Mr. De-Lisle worked in Smith's Drug Store here and later in a drug store in Davisburg, where he was employed during the World War. He then retired. The couple have two daughters Mrs. Homer Lowrie and Mrs. Ed

The community wishes many more dale Beat Local of these happy birthdays to "Uncle Ben" as he is generally known about the village.

Lawrence Tibbett, who will be heard in recital in the Choral Union Series, in Hill Auditorium, Ann Arbor, Wednesday evening, November 2, has earned musical immortality in four fields; opera, concert, radio and the movies. Last season his concert tour covered 19,450 miles and everywhere was acclaimed in most enthusiastic terms. At every city, north, west, east and south, there was the same enormous outpouring of enthusiasts. His magnificent achievements brought from a multitude of critics the most superlative enconiums, as: "He grows greater and greater", "He deserves to stand with the great singers of all times", "A recital that was a revelation", "There is no baritone in the world like Tibbett", "A glorious singer with a glorious voice", etc. Last June he sailed for Europe for the first time, for he is American born, American trained and his spectacular career has been made in America. Although he was in demand for appearances in the great European opera houses and under the most discriminating concert auspices, he did not go abroad to sing, but to enjoy his first extended vacation. Upon his return to America a fewweeks ago, he was met at the dock by many press representatives and his interview was sent over the wires and published in the newspapers from coast to coast.

Trapping Season to Open November First

Michigan trappers are preparing their equipment for the opening of the 1932 trapping season, Tuesday, November 1.

The first of the three muskrat trapping zones opens Tuesday. This zone includes all of the upper peninsula. It will be followed November 15 by the opening of the season in the middle zone which is all of the lower peninsula north of the north line of Townline 16 and west of Saginaw unchanged from last year, and licenses are again being sold by conservation officers. Trappers are compelled to attach a metal tag listing their names and addresses on each trap. The opossum season opens Novem= ber I and closes December 15. Persons trapping opossum are also required to have their traps marked with metal tags bearing the names and addresses of the owner.

Muskrat trapping regulations are

Separate seasons govern hunting and trapping raccoons, For hunting raccoons there is no open season in the upper peninsula but hunting is permitted south of the Straits from November 1 to 15.4 Raccoons may be trapped in the lower peninsula north of the north line of Townline 16 from November 15 to 30; and south of Townline from December 1 to 15....

While mink are not on the list of protected fur-bearing animals and may be hunted at any time, they may be trapped only during the open sea son on muskrats.

When the state law made it compulsory for a second pro-bate judge, Dan McGaffey again went before the supervisors and volunteered to do the work of this second judge.

He voluntarily took over conveyance of children to the University Hospital which saved the county $5,000 a year.

As early as 1929, he reduced office overhead more than $2,000 per year.

And today, despite a 5 times increase of work, he is running the office with the same amount

We Thank You

The committee which did so well with raising money for the P. T. A. Milk Fund wishes to express their gratitude and appreciation to the community for its fine response and cooperation in the selling of the bitterweet. The committee, composed of Mrs. John Shaughnessy, Mrs. A. B. Wompole; Mrs. Elizabeth Ronk and Mrs. Iva M. Miller, cut, tied and sold bittersweet and took in $20.86. The community also wishes to tell this committee what a splendid bit of work they did and that we all appreciate it.

Bud and Calvin Chamberlain of Royal Oak spent the week-end with the Bradley Millers.

Miss Mary Miller spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Miller.
