CLARKSTON, MICHIGAN FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1932

WHOLE NUMBER 168

DOSEVEL WINS PRESIDENTIAL VOTE

REPUBLICAN TICKET WINS IN COUNTY

DEMOCRATIC STATE OFFICERS LEAD

Franklin D. Roosevelt piled up a gigantic majority that was evident in the early returns and continued as count on votes came in from all over the nation. One Republican state after another deserted the Hoover camp until, by Thursday morning, only six states were reported as definitely aligned for him. They were: Delaware, Maine, New Hampshire, Connecticut, Pennsylvania and Vermont. Even Michigan and Minnesota were carried by Roosevelt.

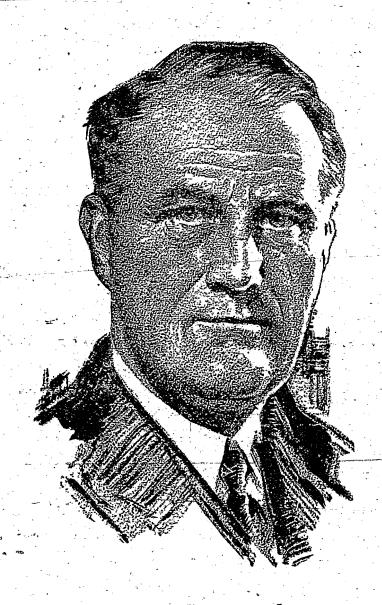

On the state ticket, likewise, Democratic candidates were holding the lead on the morning returns. Oakland County vote, for county candidates seemed to be holding steadily Republican. George Dondero was maintaining a lead of about 3600 and Roy Reynolds had about the same margin. Other county candidates were averaging a lead of about 2600.

Many of the contests will be decided by the returns from Pontiac City and twenty-second ward of Detroit, which returns were not all included in the morning reports, as well as many rural counts not yet in. One of the close contests is between Judge Dan McGaffey and Samuel Patterson.

Local Vote Large

A record vote of 735 votes was polled in Independence township. Of these 155 were straight Republican tickets and 206 were straight Democratic, the balance being split tickets. This was the largest vote in the township's history.

Much interest centered about the race between Dan McGaffey and Sam Patterson, both former rural residents. Patterson received a decided majority in this vicinity, as is shown in the detailed vote carried in this issue.

Wet Amendment Is Upheld Locally

The first of the amendments, commonly known as the Red, White and Blue amendment, was upheld in the local vote, together with four of the other proposals submitted. Proposal No. 2, limiting the amount of taxes assessed against property, also received an affirmative vote. Amendment No. 5, specifying whether the Governor could pardon life-term prisoners, received an affirmative vote, as did amendments No. 6 and 7. The oleomargarine act was defeated in Independence Township, but carried in Groveland and Brandon Townships.

Let's Go

ON TO PROSPERITY!

With election over, some of us are happy, some of us are sad, some of us are disappointed, some of us are glad. NEVERTHELESS—let's keep on that path toward prosperity Let's stand by the majority who wanted the elected leaders, and let's not have any kicking. Let's not be sour grapes. The men elected are our leaders, acknowledged, and he us accept them as such and help tliem bring our nation back to nor Hoover start lus on that Now let's help Roesevel keep us on the way.

When Men and Women Are All Created Equal

There is always much agitation when the saying is mentioned that "men are created equal," but Tuesday and election shows us that for one day, at least, or for the time it takes to vote, that ALL men are equal.

As we watched the polls in the village, in neighboring townships, in Pontiac, the thought was ever recurrent as the lines formed before the booths. There were rich men, poor men, beggars, perhaps thieves, docmerchants, chiefs. There were ladies of society, ladies of the servant group, rich men's darlings, stenogs, clerks, authors, artists, members of every form of occupation and un- truy the wifter nesting places of in- The boy worked for me a long time the Chevrolet, and I drove two blocks occupation.

The farmer who came with ragged overalls, whose farm has several heavy mortgages that c tion of the pests. cannot be met, whose crops brought him no profit, his vote was as good as that of the president of the United States itself. The little maid's vote was equal to that of the fair lady whom she served. The bootblack's vote was just as good as that of the president of the bank in which he ropped his fifty cents a week.

So for at least ten minutes, al men are equal-at voting time.

Former Villager Is Bride of Detroiter

Miss Alice Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Leroy Davis of Boise Idaho, became the bride of James Harley of Detroit at the home of her parents October 29, according to word received here by friends.

The Davis family will be remembered by many friends here. They spent all of their life near Clarkston and for years resided on the farm now owned and occupied by the Will Scrace family. They are intimate friends of Mrs. Alice Urch, Mr. and Mrs. William Pierce, members of the George Miller family, the Glen Ellis family and the Russell Maybees.

Following the ceremony the couple left Idaho for Detroit, driving thru. The groom is a graduate of Michigan University and is employed in De-

This second bandit, Leo Bogert, roung lad of 24, was comprehended last Thursday afternoon. A group of two carloads of officers, accompanied by the unidentified youth who had first exposed the bandits, left Pontiac at four o'clock that afternoon to find end guest of her daughter, Miss Bogert. The cars drove to Lapeer in a ziz-zag manner to avoid attracting attention, and at Lapeer they were joined by State Troopers. They stopped at North Branch and questioned his brother and found that he was living in Vassar.

Arriving at Vassar, they found Bogert absent from his home. After searching around the town a while they found his roadster in a yard and the group swooped down on the house, guarding every entrance and window. Two troopers and a deputy entered the front door while other officers entered other places. gert had just come down the front stairs and was at once seized and placed in one of the cars. In the meantime the brother with whom of ficers had talked in North Branch drove up, was questioned and re-

Bogert denied knowledge of the obbery but deputies found $1600 in damp bills in his pocket. From then on he admitted the guilt and talked freely. His story tells best just what happened from their side and is given as follows:

"We met at a garage in Lake Orion, where I was employed, at 2:30. We left about five and with a Chevrolet we had stolen from Pontiac during the afternon from Perry avenue and Huron street. Ben drove the stolen car and I drove my own roadster to a woods near Clarkston where I parked it in a spot sheltered by bushes but easily accessible to a road. From there we drove to Clarkston in the stolen Chevrolet, parking it near the bank. We entered together, armed with .38 calibre revolvers furnished by Dillion. Ben leaped

"We drove at once to the woods about a mile and a half from Clarkston where we abandoned the Chevrolet and fled in my Ford roadster.

"We drove out Perry road as far as the Silver Bell dance hall, turned left and ended up in the Bald Eagle Mountain section. There we divided the money and I got $2500 and Ben said he thought he got better than $3,000. We then drove back to Ben's place in Pontiac. I had on his suit, so I put my own on, put my share of the money in a suit case and Ben the money in a shed at my brother's house, two miles west of Kingston,

Looking In On The Team

I think that last Thursday was the last time any of us had a chance to look in on the team of '32 and it was sure worth looking at. The local boys outplayed Holly at every turn. They made 17 first downs to Holly's one and best of all they beat Holly with a score of 19 to 7.

The boys didn't make such a good start this year but they sure came thru to a flying finish. Next year they ought to start right out flying and keep it up all year. There will only be two letter men lost this year.

A general assembly was called Friday, at one, in honor of the team. It was opened with community singing. Then Mr. Waters gave a little speech at the end of which he asked the departing players, Lynn Rexford and George Holmes to rise. They were given a big hand. Then little speeches were given by fellows that represented the players in each class, Marthy for the Juniors, DeWitt Clinton for the Sophomores, and Ralph for the freshies, and according to the way the boys talk we will have a championship team or a group of disap pointed players.

Thirteen men will receive letters this year: Lynn Rexford, George Holmes, DeWitt Clinton, Stanly Irish, Floyd Hersfal, Jack Huntly, Tom Parnel, Bob Reynells, Harve Porritt, Kenneth Marthy, Basil Tucker, Ralph Grate, and Gordon Jones,

Thrifty Advertising

If you're looking for BUSINESS, why not look for it? Put the old law of averages to work and advertise. Thrifty advertising is regular and persistent, and can not fail to build your business.

People want commodities. They need service. They are going to get both somewhere. Are you making positive effort to bring their business to you?

Advertising is like talking to a parade. Every time you stop; a section of the parade goes by without hearing your story. Tell it quick-tell it often-be thrifty with your advertising and then your advertising will pay.
