"Growing Interest On Debts", Farmer's Problem

"It is the constantly growing and pyramiding interest on debts that sinks many farmers and some such scheme where both the farmer and the mortgage holder shares whatever the land can produce seems a necessity" according to Alex Solley, president of the Oak Hill Farmers' Club.

There is one significant factor in the local situation. The farmers involved in mortgage troubles realize there are two sides to the question.

"Most of the mortgages on our play. by small banks in surrounding villages," according to Mr. Solley. "We realize that we cannot wipe out these investments without manufactures or dine, Mrs. Guy Walter, Mrs. Ed Stewart, Mrs. George Fleming, Mrs. John Haupt, Miss Viola Alger and communities just as our neighbors and bankers realize that only by keeping us in business can they save their investments and keep us all going. It must be a cooperative

According to Mr. Solley the mortgages on most farms were granted when incomes from the farms justi-

"Now prices are so low," he said, "that the same land must triple its production, at least, to make the same income and even then the best farmers have difficulty making any more than interest and many of course cannot make even that.

Don't Ask Cancellation "We have not asked cancellation, but we do ask more time for principal payments and many of our members believe a voluntary reduction in interest rate would be a sensible thing." Most of the mortgages are at seven per cent interest.

"We have one suggestion which might give our members some relief." he said. "When we rent farms the tenants take two-thirds of the total crop and the owner gets onethird, from which he pays taxes, depreciation and perhaps gets a profit if it has been a good year.

"Some of us believe that the mortgage holder would be taking the ight course if, when a farmer could not pay his interest, the holder accepted one-third of his total income and applied it against that year's interest charge, and cancelled the remainder of the interest so the farmer could start with a clean slate the following year. The 1930 federal census records that of the almost 3,000 farms being worked in Oakland County, 38 pe cent were mortgaged for a total of $1,946,000. It is safe to assume that many mortgages were not reported, just as it is probably true that few new mortgages have been issued

Coach Waters made frequent substitutions and tried various combinations. There seemed to be little difference who was playing or what position he was playing. The plays all clicked, and the basket shooting Tuesday in Pontiac on busines. was far above average.

South Lyon was able to score only two points in the first half. In the second half they counted three times to bring their total to 5 against 19 for Clarkston. Varsity Wins

At the first whistle of the varsity game, Clarkston turned loose an offense that had the South Lyon team completely bewildered. They passed to the right place at the right time | and then dropped the ball thru Ve basket. Back to center for the tipoff and then the same thing over again. With Clarkston controlling the ball most of the time, South Lyon was fortunate to score their three points during the first period. Clarkston made 10 points in these first eight minutes. That's better than a point a minute, and if anyone happens to ask you a point-a-minute team is something very, very rare!. Sad to say, but this brilliant attack ended with the first play of the second quarter. Marthey shot from the center of the floor, and Reynnells followed in high over the heads of the guards, and tipped the ball in the basket. That was the last point made in the period. In the second half, Taylor of South Lyon made the first basket. Holmes followed with a basket. A nice follow-up by Reynnells for two points. White took a rebound of the South Lyon, goal and a three-way pass end-od-with Marthey scoring from under the basket the passage. the basket. He repeated and the third quarter ended 20 to 5 for Clarkston. This was another point-a-minute perio l for Clarkston. In the final period. Holmes missed several close shots. He was coming in fact for the basket, but was shooting n little too soon. White, playing at back guard, slipped down under the basket on a play that enabled him to make his second counter of the game. Both teams made seven points in the final stanza and the game ended Clarkston 27, South Lyon 14,

Just Smile By Mrs. Eli Fisher

This world is in a turmoil, There are troubles here and there;

Because times are depressing, ls no cause for you to grouch, Just smile and say how lucky-That I am to be about.

We know these times are not the But pining doesn't pay.

Smile and plod along, my friend, You'll find it the wisest way. It is easy to be pleasant,

When life flows like a song, But give to me the one who smiles When everything is wrong. Why trouble others with your woes

Just keep on smiling as you go There's a ray of light somewhere. For smiles that each one scatters,

They, too, have trials to bear.

Along life's broad highway, May bring a flood of happiness To a weary soul each day.

State Horticultural Society to Meet

Many fruit growers in Southeastern Michigan are looking forward to the dates of February 21-22, the Spring meeting of the Michigan

State Horticultural Society.

The discussions at the two days meetings to be held in the Roosevelt Hotel, Pontiac, have to do with current problems of major interest to fruit growers. Several orchard men who have had good success with cer-tain practices are to report to the group. The discussion by local growers cover the following: Experiences in Dusting Apples, by Russell Evarts of Lapeer; Selling Fruit to Truckers, by George Faulman, of Romeo; Developing Home Sales, by C. J. Hill and David Carter, of Romeo; Care in Harvesting, by Don Button, of Farmington; Merchandizing, Fruit, by Ed-Grimmer of Farmington; Utilizing Air-Cooled Storage, by W. R. Bristol, of Almont. ers cover the following: Experiences Bristol, of Almont.

Several members of the Horticul-ture Department at the Michigan State College are on the program to give talks covering various phases of the fruit industry. These topics in-clude the following: Cultural Practices With Strawberries That Get Results, H. D. Hootman; The Business Depressions and the Price Level, Herman Wyngarden; How Soils Influence

When a team gains possession of the ball and keeps it - they win! Coach Waters must have been impressing this fact on the minds of the members of the squad, because that's exactly what they have been doing the last two games - and they won them both.

There were three plays in the South Lyon second team game that were deserving of comment. In the second quarter, Soulby was dribbling fast for the goal, followed by a guard. Just a few feet from the goal, he suddenly stopped and let the guard run by, and then made the basket. A little later in the game, Parker intercepted a pass in the center of the floor, pivoted around the guard and dribbled under the basket for a field goal. Just before the final gun, Porritt dribbled to the center of the floor, stopped, and dropped a beautiful long shot thru the hoop.

Wilbur Budd Hulick, employee of telegraph company, suddenly found himself without a job. His depart ment had been wiped out. A friend found him a job jerking sodas. This was right up his street. In no time at all, he was the soda jerkingest soda jerker in town.

One day, a radio executive saw the champion in action. He became very interested in the young man and asked him if he had ever had any musical experience.

"Yes," said Budd, "I used to pass out programs for Arthur Pryor's band concerts."

This wise crack won for him an audition, and eventually a job as announcer and entertainer with the Buffalo Broadcasting Company. There he met the Colonel.

One day, while doing stand-by duty, Budd found it necessary to fill in a fifteen minute program when a chain program failed to come thru. He dashed frantically into the office of F. Chase Taylor (The Colonel) who was also an entertainer over the same station. The Colonel seized a folding organ and they dashed to the microphone to ad lib for fifteen min-

The rest of the story is old. They were such a success that the act continued. Later they went to New York and received a contract from the Columbia Broadcasting System. Today, their ideas are the most original and amusing of any act on the air. All nonsense, but the kind of nonsense one likes to hear.

Mrs. B. C., of Williams Lake writes to say that "something should be done about the old gags that Eddie Cantor is using." She also objects to Eddie panning Rubinoff and George Jessel. ### Clarkston Home News | Rat Banquet Will Stop Huge Loss in County

Arrangements for the big countywide rat banquet on March 17th are almost completed. The county agent of the Oakland County Farm Bureau reports that many persons are taking advantage of this opportunity to get rid of rats, and that orders for the special rat baits are pouring into

If everyone in the county having a rat infestation will cooperate in this campaign, many thousands of dollars will be saved by farmers and other persons. It is estimated that the labor of 200,000 men is required every year to produce the food and property destroyed by rats in the United States. It is hoped that this campaign will reduce Oakland County's share of the $200,000,000 loss each year in this country. In many of the campaigns conducted in New England, farmers have reported an average loss by rats of $40 a year. The use of special campaign baits seems to have been an excellent investment. Increase Rapidly

The rat is one of the most prolific breeders among mammals, havingto 10 litters a year with an average of 10 young to the litter.
