Who Is Our Beautiful Girl?

One to Be Chosen for Peach Festival

Some lucky girl will be selected on or before August 11 to represent this town in the County contest to be held August 15 at the county seat, to name a queen to reign over the third annual Michigan Peach Festival in Romeo, September 2, 3 and 4. The Peach Festival this year promises to be one of the biggest celebrations of its kind in this section of the country.

Competition for girls entered in the Queen contest will be spread over the five counties of Macomb, Oakland, Genesee, Lapeer and St. Clair. Any girl in any town in these counties between the age of 16 and 21, who has beauty, poise and personality, is eligible for the contest and stands a chance to win the coveted honor of being the Peach Queen.

The county seat of each of these five counties will enter a separate girl and she will not compete against the County Queen until the final contest in the Romeo High School auditorium the night of August 13, thus giving all girls from county wide towns the opportunity to reach the finals and be a member of the Queen's Court of Honor.

The girls this year may be selected by a committee of representative townpeople or by a public contest using outside judges. The latter method is the most popular. Whatever the method is, however, the lucky girl chosen will be given a trip to the World's Fair in Chicago and a chance to talk over the nation-wide radio hook-up of the National Broadcasting Company and the numerous other honors that go with being Queen of this great Michigan Festival.

MEETING TO TALK WHEAT REDUCTION

Will Be Held in Holly Next Thursday Evening

John Adams, Leonard, Joseph P. Hubbard, Clarkston; Ed. McKinley, Holly; Tracy Houghton, Troy; Wm. B. Van Zandt, Pontiac; Waldo Proctor, Walled Lake, and Hugh Taylor, Ortonville, are the men chosen in Oakland county as members of the organization committee to begin the work of reducing the wheat acreage in this county as requested by Henry A. Wallace, secretary of agriculture.

A meeting for farmers in this district at which members of the committee and K. D. Bailey, County Agricultural Agent, will explain the economic position of wheat and the domestic allotment plan will be held Thursday, August 17, at the Town Hall, Holly, at 7:30 p. m.

The purpose of the wheat production allotment plan is to insure the farmer a price for his wheat which is equal in purchasing power to that of the 1914 wheat crop. This can be obtained only by reducing the production of wheat to a point that guarantees a generous supply for the needs of the people of the United States but that does not create an enormous over supply to demoralize the domestic and the world wheat markets.

There is no danger of reducing the supply of wheat below the amount needed for food and all other purposes. The United States now has a carryover of old wheat of 360,000,000 bushels. This mountain of wheat has overhung prospective rises in the market and avalanches from it have overwhelmed upward price movements.

An abnormally short crop in 1933, a knowledge that the federal government is pledged to assist wheat farmers, and public speculation in wheat futures caused the recent gain in grain prices. A drop of 80 cents a bushel in two days from the high point is ample evidence of the panic that seizes speculators when they stop to think what will happen when the avalanche of unneeded wheat starts pouring into the market.

The Oakland county committee believes that every wheat grower is entitled to a stabilized market for his product and that all business men in this section will benefit from the increased purchasing power that better prices will bring to our farm people.

The plan of the federal government to aid farmers does not single them out for undue benefits. Farmers have carried the burden of supplying the nation's food during the period when they saw their debts increasing with every crop year. A bountiful supply of every food stuff has moved into the nation's market through years when mortgage foreclosures were ever present threats.

Meetings will be held in every wheat growing community in this county and at these meetings members of the organization committee will explain what the government asks and how it promises to reward those who cooperate. Permanent local committees and a county association will be chosen later by wheat growers to supervise the federal plan in Oakland county.

Chevrolet Sales Largest Since 1929

Current July Was 4th Largest in History

The largest July production since 1929, nearly trebling the output for the corresponding month last year, was achieved by Chevrolet when the company built 80,250 new cars and trucks in the month just ended, W. S. Knudsen, president and general manager, announced today.
 This compared with 32,281 built last July and with 81,562 in June of this year, which was the highest production month since early 1931. Mr. Knudsen stated. The current July was the fourth largest July in the 21-year history of the company.
 Not since 1920 has July production come as close to June as this year, Mr. Knudsen said, attesting to much less-than-seasonal slack, now being experienced by the company.

While some seasonal let-up is bound to be felt in August, Mr. Knudsen said he hoped that the sustained high level of retail sales would enable his company again to effect a reduction in the normal average decline from July into the coming month.
 For the first seven months this year this company produced more than 438,000 new cars and trucks as compared with 394,000 for the full twelve months of 1932, the Chevrolet executive stated.

*Based on the latest retail registration figures from R. E. Polk & Company (all states for five full months). Since January first Chevrolet has sold in excess of 370,000 passenger cars and trucks.

People have come to expect Chevrolet to lead the world in automobile sales. But this year Chevrolet has done even more than that. According to the latest available figures, Chevrolet alone has sold almost as many cars this year as all the rest of the low-price field combined!

When a car looms above its field like that, there can't be any argument about it. It must be an all-round better buy. And that's exactly what Chevrolet offers you. Fisher bodies, with the new ventilation system and the strongest and quietest body construction of the day—solid steel over a sturdy hardwood frame. A valve-in-head six engine, unapproached for economy... Cushion-Balanced to blot out vibration... full of snap and vigor—all together the most efficient engine in the low-price field. Then there's Syncro-Mesh with Silent-Second, the Starterator, Simplified Free Wheeling, the Octane Selector, long, parallel-mounted springs—more advancements than we have space to describe. And Chevrolet prices are as low as $445. Don't guess—buy from the leader. Get a car that has been proved sound and dependable by more owners than any other automobile you can buy.

which the maximum of wide-angle action may be photographed without difficulty. It is also equipped with...

"Below the Sea" is not only unusual in its setting, but the story is filled with romance and action.

Ever since the smashing success of their romantic teamwork in "Red Dust" it was inevitable that Miss Harlow and Gable should play a return engagement on the screen, and now they are here in "Hold Your Man" which will be at the Liberty Theatre Sunday and Monday.

Whatever it takes to put romance on the screen, Harlow and Gable have it. Even if for no other reason than its palpitating romance, "Hold Your Man" is a favorite for the movie fans.

But it is replete, by way of further interest, with a stimulating story that has as its climatic background the interior of a women's reform school. Here, Jean discards the finery of her earlier appearances for the starchy denim of a prison uniform. Gable, as the man whose kisses get her in all the trouble, also lands in jail and the ultimate happy ending comes when they are released and started on new paths to happiness.

Sam Wood, always certain of his cast and story, has done a splendid job with the original story by Anita Loos. He has kept up the swift pace he established in the opening of the picture and held tight rein on the obvious impulse to overplay the smashing dramatic moments. It is this brevity and dispatch of dealing with the plot that adds tempo and suspense to the picture.

You will be surprised and delighted to see Stuart Erwin playing a serious and sympathetic role, although not without comedy moments. As the honest chap who wants to marry the gaudy underworld girl, Erwin acquits himself with touching genuineness.

CATTLE FEEDING IS RECOMMENDED

Present Livestock Conditions Give Rise to This Advice

Forced sales of cattle from drought areas have depressed the market on thin stock to a point where there is an excellent possibility for profits to Michigan farmers who have pasture, uncut hay crops, or aftermath from crops upon which cattle could be run...

Most of the distress sales of cattle are being made by western farmers where range conditions have compelled owners to reduce the amount of livestock carried. These cattle are moving to the St. Paul, Kansas City and Omaha markets. Queries should be sent to all these markets to obtain the best possible buy on cattle.

Many Michigan farms have pasture or roughage which will not be used unless the owner buys additional livestock. This forage could be used to carry thin cattle until later when there will be a normal demand for feeder steers.

No one can guarantee future prices, but the College livestock men believe that the present extraordinary conditions in the West have created an opportunity that may be accepted by Michigan farmers. Fair steers will make cheap gains on pasture, and cattle from drought areas should increase in weight rapidly.

Several farmers in one community can cooperate in buying a carload of cattle in cases where no one man has feed enough for the 35 to 50 animals which make up a load. Railroads now give a feed-in-transit rate that can be used on this kind of shipment.

All fruit growers in Oakland County are invited to the tour. Further details will be announced next week.

For Homemakers

Empty baking powder or coffee cans will serve excellently for freezing certain mixtures when a refrigerator is not available, is the suggestion of home economics extension specialists, Michigan State College.

Fill the can about two-thirds full, then cover with several layers of greased wax paper with greased side up. Adjust the cover and seal with two inch wide strip of cotton to prevent salt from the ice to enter. Bury mold in a mixture of three parts ice to one part salt, and let stand for two to three hours.

low are suggested some recipes which may be frozen by this method: Honey Mousse.—Peel two oranges, removing inner membrane with rind, and cut in small pieces. Soak 1 teaspoon granulated gelatin in 1 table-spoon cold water, heat 1 cup strained honey and add gelatin stirring until dissolved. Add the orange, remove from fire, and when cool add 2 cups heavy cream, beaten stiff. Put in mold and freeze.

Maple parfait.—Heat 1 cup hot maple sirup and pour over four slightly beaten eggs. Cook the mixture in a double boiler until thickened. Cool and add one pint heavy cream beaten until stiff. Place in mold and freeze.

Frozen peach whip.—Beat stiff four egg whites, add one-half cup sugar, gradually, to retain air beaten into egg whites. Measure one cup cream into separate bowl, whip until stiff, combine carefully with egg whites. Gently fold into mixture two cups previously prepared and cooled peach puree, made by draining canned peaches and rubbing through sieve. Add 1/4 teaspoon lemon extract, pour into cans and freeze. Unmold, garnish with few cooked peaches saved for purpose and cooked in thick syrup (three parts sugar to one of water) until appear glossy. Dried cooked apricots may be substituted for peaches.

Frozen peach delight.—Cut two cups cooked prune pulp into small pieces. Heat 1/2 cup maple syrup to boiling point, and dissolve 1 table-spoon gelatin soaked five minutes in three table-spoons cold water. Pour syrup and gelatin gradually over four well beaten eggs, beating constantly. Add 1/4 teaspoon salt and prunes. Fold in 1/2 cup whipped cream (may be omitted). Pour into cans and freeze.

The same proportion of three parts of ice by volume to one part salt is used for all recipes. Two to three hours is required for freezing by this method.

THE CLEANEST COOKING METHOD ever devised! AN ELECTRIC range is the cleanest cooking method yet devised. The reason is obvious. A glowing wire furnishes all the heat—pure heat—without smoke or soot or fumes. There is no burning of fuel to leave a black deposit on pots and pans, or to darken kitchen walls and curtains. Electric heat is actually as clean as sunlight. Here is a stove that you can really keep clean. Your electric range will continue to look new, day after day. Many thousand electric range owners in Detroit and vicinity will tell you how clean electric cooking is. And once YOU have enjoyed the deliciousness and healthfulness of electric cooking, you will never again go back to any other kind. Even the cheaper cuts of meats cook to melting tenderness, and there is little shrinkage of weight. This adds to economy and preserves the precious natural minerals of foods instead of losing them in steam. Vegetables cook in their own juices. And best of all you can cook your dinner while you're out for the afternoon! See the new electric ranges at your dealer's or THE DETROIT EDISON CO. NEWS ADS BRING RESULTS

Liberty Theatre HOLLY

"Below the Sea" has the strangest ever to be used in filming of a picture, as more than forty percent of the picture was photographed nearly 100 feet underneath surface of the sea. This picture will be at the Liberty Theatre next Wednesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Fay Wray and Ralph Bellamy are featured in the play.

Saying one of the most important in the play is a giant octopus, hunted after weeks searching off the western coast of Mexico. The octopus was used in the climax of the play, showing the infuriated monster of the deep actually attacking a diving bell in which are members of scientific party studying certain species of oceanography.

In addition to the octopus thousands of tropical fish were loaned to studio by the famous Long Beach aquarium.

A great diving bell, specially designed to withstand water pressure of 100 fathoms, made possible the filming of the under water sequences of production. Built on the principle of a submarine—a shell within a shell—the bell was submerged by use of its own weight, made possible through the use of fins instead of the customary lead. Carrying several persons, the bell is equipped with three heavy glass ports, through

Henry Ford Dearborn, Mich. UNTIL WE LEARNED BETTER Until we learned better, we used to mix wood and steel in our car bodies and wheels. It was the best way to make bodies—then. But the state of the art has advanced. Of course, it is more expensive to make an all-steel body than to make a wooden frame and nail steel panels on to it. The better way involves an initial expenditure of several millions of dollars for new dies, which renders a change very costly. Cars, especially large expensive cars which are produced in small volume, cannot afford this, because the dies cost as much for one car as for a million. That alone explains why all-steel bodies are not used in all cars. But our basic policy from the beginning is to make a good car better, regardless of cost. For example, when we discarded wood-steel body construction, it was not because we lacked wood. We still have some thousands of acres of the best hard wood in America. Economy would urge us to use up the wood first, and then adopt the better all-steel body. But we decided that quality was more important than expense. We weighed the reasons, for and against, before we made the change. We could see only one reason for retaining a mixed wood-and-steel body—nailing the metal on, instead of welding an all-steel body into a strong one-piece whole. That reason was, it would be cheaper—for us. Our reasons for adopting an all-steel body were these: A wood-steel body is not much stronger structurally than its wooden frame. In all American climates, wood construction weakens with age. Every used car lot gives evidence of this. Rain seeps in between joints and the wood decays. A car may have a metal surface, and yet not be of steel construction. Under extreme shock or stress the steel body remains intact—dented perhaps, but not crushed. Steel does not need wood for strength or protection. Wood is fine for furniture, but not for the high speed vehicles of 1933. In the Ford body there are no joints to squeak, no seams to crack or leak. The all-steel body is more expensive—to us, but not to you. By all odds then, steel bodies seem preferable. Wheels also have become all-steel. No one argues that an electrically welded one-piece steel wheel, such as the Ford wheel, needs to be "strengthened" by adding wood to it. The one-piece all-steel body is the strongest, safest, quietest, most durable body made. That is our only reason for making them. August 7th, 1933 Henry Ford

STATE MATTERS OF INTEREST TO ALL

Digest Prepared in the Office of Secretary of State

Definite knowledge of the amount of emergency welfare relief funds which will be available to the various counties from the $12,000,000 appropriation in the sales tax act, will be available sometime next week, according to members of the finance committee of the state administrative board.

First reports and applications for license must be filed with the board of tax administration by August 15. Several days must elapse before these figures are tabulated. If the first month's proceeds exceed $2,600,000 the additional amount will be set aside for the use of primary schools which were given a supplementary appropriation of $15,000,000 if the sales tax collections will bear that burden.

WILL PROPAGATE INLAND LAKE FISH

Rod License Revenue Expected to Provide the Funds

Holly fishermen will be interested in knowing that plans for the extension of the state's activities in the propagation of inland lake fish, chiefly bass and bluegills, are being made by the Fish Division of the Department of Conservation with the inauguration of the general rod license.

Just how much development will result, will depend to some extent upon the income derived from the sale of the fishing licenses, Director George R. Hogarth said. So far it has been impossible to determine this because there are no records showing the number of fishermen of license age in Michigan.

In the past few years when the only revenue provided was from the sale of resident trout and non-resident fishing licenses, the production of lake fish species has not kept up with the production of trout although other lake fish species were also propagated. Now with all fishermen contributing, it is hoped it will be possible to expand present facilities and methods to increase the production of all the more common species of fish, Director Hogarth stated.

Expansion of the pan-fish propagation program is expected to result in extensive alterations in some of the southern Michigan hatcheries to provide for more hatching facilities; and to result in the extension of existing ponds and construction of new ponds. For several years the Fish Division of the Department has been studying systems used in other states in the raising of bass and bluegills; especially in the culture of daphnia, the natural food necessary to successful bluegill and bass rearing, and in feeding of artificial or prepared foods.

"We hope that as a result of the general rod license, the Department will be able to make Michigan as famous for its inland lake fishing as its streams are now nationally noted for their trout," Director Hogarth said.

The blue and white stock V-8 Ford test car powered with Mobilgas with Climatic Control and lubricated with Mobiloil which started a 10,000-mile economy run from Detroit last Saturday over a 400 mile route including Lansing, Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo and Jackson already is showing surprising results in fuel economy. Speeding over hill and down valley, on the open road and in city streets, through the heat of noonday and the cool of midnight, this Ford stock car is attracting the interested attention of thousands of automobile owners throughout this territory.

On its initial trip Saturday, the test car was conveyed by a fleet of 75 Ford V-8s and was met on the outskirts of every important town along the route by the mayor, a police escort, newspapermen and Ford and White Star dealers, and in two places by brass bands.

The car, is being driven by drivers operating in three shifts, and their reports indicate that it is running smoothly and is in perfect condition. At each 1000 mile interval when the Mobiloil has been changed, the crankcase has been found full and the lubricant in good condition.

The purpose of this run, sponsored by Ford dealers and the White Star Refining Company, is to prove the economy of Ford operation and of Mobilgas and Mobiloil under the same kind of driving conditions which the average motorist meets. The only exception is that this car will be put through the equivalent of a year's driving in about fourteen days.
