COMMENT AND CRITICISM

"Our forefathers (including George Washington) brought forth a New Nation." And because he was the leader the name of Washington will live as long as we remain a nation. Every nation must have its heroes, and will be thrown at them by "modern" thinkers from time to time. Thank them then for what they accomplished if you cannot thank them for the manner in which they did it, but do nothing to disturb the main idea that in their time they were heroes.

Oh! Oh! and have we learned a lesson. This week we met Judge Morley in Beattie Bros. salesroom and desiring a word in private ushered him into a private office and closed the door. Our "conference" ended, I started to open the door and found that in closing it had locked from the outside. Whereupon yours truly "yelled a yell" that was heard over the noise in the garage and was released. Thinking it over we can imagine the feelings of anything caught in a trap.

And the caucuses are next Monday and Tuesday. If you do not attend one or the other, do not be sure if you have to blush once or twice now and again, when in knocking the newly elected incumbent, someone asks you if you were present the night his name was chosen.

Clarkston Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Miller entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ben Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Miller and daughter, of Clarkston, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chamberlain, of Royal Oak, at dinner last Thursday evening. After dinner several neighbors came in and pleasantly surprised Clark who was celebrating his birthday.

The degree team of the Brandon Grange initiated six members into Independence Grange of Clarkston last Friday evening. The evening was started with a cooperative dinner at 7:00 o'clock.

Liberty Theatre HOLLY

Production of a Broadway musical comedy from the inception of its first chorus rehearsal is shown in intimate and colorful detail in "Dancing Lady", which will be shown at the Liberty Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday, with Joan Crawford and Clark Gable co-starring.

First, backstage scenes show all the jumble and confusion of preparing a big show, chorines practicing in sketchy costumes of all sorts, the stage bare of scenery, principals and producers wrangling and tangling in temperamental rows. As the story unfolds the show is gradually whipped into shape and, eventually, the complete performance with gorgeous scenery and costumes is presented just as it would be in a big Broadway theatre.

Paramount's "Too Much Harmony" the first musical hit of the new 1933-34 season, makes its local appearance on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Liberty Theatre. In the stellar role is Bing Crosby, who was most recently seen in Paramount's "Big Broadcast" and "College Humor".

In supporting roles are Jack Oakie and Skeets Gallagher, the famous comedy team who wowed audiences in "Close Harmony" several years ago; Judith Allen; Harry Green, famous stage and screen dialectic funster; Lillian Tashman and Ned Sparks.

The story, moving in and out of a theatrical atmosphere, relates the adventures of a group of show people rehearsing for a forthcoming musical comedy. Bing Crosby, star of the show, is engaged to the fascinating gold-digger, Lillian Tashman. He meets Judith Allen while on a trip in the West, thinks she has great stage possibilities and makes her a member of the show, and promptly falls in love with her. The situation becomes embarrassing when he discovers that Judith is virtually engaged to Jack Oakie, part of her act. Oakie and Crosby come to blows, then to an understanding, and the final scenes end the novel plot in unusual and satisfactory fashion.

Eight new song hits by Arthur Johnston and Sam Coslow are introduced in the film.

IN COMMEMORATION of a great name we offer our tribute to the inspiration of the man who bore it—WASHINGTON. It was his influence that shaped our country to the great ends it has accomplished—his wisdom that directed its people into paths that have led to increasing power. In the light of such stamina, such foresight as was his, this country can not fail to rise to ever greater heights and glory.

SENIOR LITERARY CLUB HAS MEETING

About fifty members and guests of the Literary Club met Tuesday evening at the Methodist Church. A very interesting travel talk was given by Miss Myrtle Shore of Pontiac on her travels through Italy. Miss Shore had colored moving pictures to illustrate her talk. Miss Ada Hiller, of Pontiac, sang several solos accompanied by Miss Ballard at the piano.

After the program tea and cakes were served from tables decorated in Valentine colors. Mrs. Lucy King and Mrs. Jones presided at the tea tables.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Louis Walter in two weeks.

Clarkston Locals

Miss Ellen Beardsley spent Wednesday afternoon visiting at the home of Miss Margaret Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. Bird Cooley were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Teggerdine.

The Independence Grange held a supper and initiation last Friday evening in the Grange Hall. Six candidates were initiated at that time with about seventy-five members present. A good time was reported by all.

Mrs. Glenn Wills and daughter, Letta, of Pinconning, are spending a few days with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Jones.

Mrs. Edward Lee Porritt and Mrs. Russell Walter entertained eight guests at the home of the latter on Tuesday evening at a bridge party. Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Waterbury won high score and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Howland low.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bossarditt, Mrs. William Zuhke, Miss Evelyn Roduchel and Doris Reynolds spent Sunday in Flint visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. George Marshall and daughter, Frances, and David Stewart spent Sunday visiting in Big Rapids.

Mrs. O. Gardner and daughter, Adele, spent last week visiting in Clarkston.

Howard Newbanks, of Ferris Institute, spent the week-end with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Belitz and son Harold spent Sunday at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Belitz.

Mrs. C. E. Suppiss, of Auburn Heights, and Mrs. C. M. Young and family of Pontiac, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Chamberlain. The day was spent in celebrating the birthday of Miss Ruth Jane Chamberlain.

The Ladies' Aid of the Clarkston M. E. Church is sponsoring a fish supper on February 23, to be served by the men.

Blue and White Flash Clarkston School News

Walt's Flash Column
Editor's Note: Some mysterious but clever student has suddenly appeared to play stooze for Walter Winchell. I have tried every means of preventing this publication, but this phenomenal power has taken the liberty to do just that thing. Somehow I have let this irresistible force gallop over my brain, which in turn has forced me to publish this column.

Flash:
I'm here to roast and toast you
And make you out a liar;
To throw you back and forth,
From frying pan to fire.
So don't get sore
If I pull a crack or pun;
Remember that this column
Is only written in fun.

Flash: Phyllis Whitaker seems to be taking a course in "The Application of Feminine Wiles" from that able instructor, "Mae West", else why those notes the fifth hour.

Miss M. S. is running Mae a close second, watch your step Bert—it's that way you know.
If Loleta Mann wasn't friendly to this column I'd unload the dope about her budding fifth hour romance with that strawberry blond gentleman. Who is he? You guess.

She? Sure has a filthy left lead hasn't she Bud. Oh boy! some shiner!
Bill Parker, latest contender for the barber pole brilliant striped cravat, which he was wearing last week.

Is Mildred Butters bashful, Brother? Oh, No! I wonder why.
By the way ask Wanda Clemens to repeat that joke, that was a lulu. Enough said.

Mrs. Beardsley's Room
Quite a number of our boys and girls were absent during the severe weather last week.

Evelyn Davies received the honor of spelling down the room, Friday.

The pupils have made attractive Valentine posters in their art classes.

The Sixth Grade are very much interested in their new History books, "Our Beginnings in Europe and America."

We are planning to have a Valentine box.

Mrs. Rockwell's Room
Children who received credits from our spell-down on Feb. 9 were:

Third Grade—Richard Shaughnessy, Inez Mae Miller, Barbara Andrews, Richard Lawson, Donovan Shaw.

Fourth Grade—Billy Miller, Arnold Mann, Doris Reynolds, Donald Smith, Sheldon Baker, La Vern Hoyt.

Our children enjoyed a Valentine box on Wednesday afternoon. They also made a pretty Valentine to celebrate the day.

JUNIOR LITERARY CLUB NOTES

On Wednesday night of last week at 8 o'clock the Junior Literary Club held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Frances Scott. Two new members were voted in. Two exceptionally interesting papers were read and discussed, the topics being "Immigration Laws" and "Foreign Born Citizens Who Have Become Famous Americans." Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

St. Valentine's Day Celebrated By S. S. Class

The Bible Class of the M. E. Church held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Louise Walter. Mrs. Ray Clark and Miss Virginia La Forge were assistant hostesses. There were twenty-two present. Mrs. Emily Beardsley had charge of the business meeting. Miss S. Woodward favored the group by singing two solos and Mrs. Frank Perrin in her usual pleasing style played a piano solo. Miss Virginia La Forge gave a talk on "How St. Valentine's Day Originated." Games in keeping with the date were played and at the close of the evening dainty refreshments were enjoyed. Mrs. Charles Hutton and Mrs. Emily Beardsley presided at the tea table.

LADIES' AUXILIARY HOLDS MEETING

On Thursday evening the Ladies' Auxiliary of the American Legion held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. James Saylor, of Waterford. There was a goodly number in attendance. Dainty refreshments were served. The date, time and place for the next social event will be announced later.

Shower for Children's Billet Held Last Friday

Last Friday the ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary were entertained at the home of Mrs. Percy Craven. A very dainty dessert was served at 1:30 and cards were the diversion for the afternoon. Five hundred and bridge were played. Miss Louise Dunston won the bridge prize and Mrs. Lyle McLaughlin, of Waterford, won the five hundred prize. A goodly supply of washcloths and handkerchiefs were donated by the ladies to be sent to the Children's Billet at Otter Lake.

THE COMMUNITY CHORUS NEEDS YOU

Have you taken time off to attend the Community Chorus on Monday afternoon at the High School at 4:15. There is a place for you and even if you do not sing your presence would be a big help. Other communities support just such a proposition as this and surely Clarkston is wide awake enough to be in line with the rest of them and in fact to be just a trifle in the lead. There are from twenty to thirty who attend every week. Next Monday let's make this number from fifty to sixty. Take this notice personally and be at the school next Monday at 4:15 p. m.

Clarkston Locals

Mrs. C. G. Fiske attended the Rire Sanderson Matrons' Club held in Holly at the home of Mrs. Freeman this week.

Miss Eloise Miller is visiting this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Miller, Jr., of Ypsilanti.

Mrs. George Searles and Mrs. Kenneth Shaw were Pontiac callers on Tuesday.

On Wednesday night of this week the Junior Literary Club held a Valentine party at the home of Mrs. Marion Terry. Sixteen members and guests dressed as children met at the Terry home for dinner at seven o'clock. After dinner games were played. The first prize was won by Mrs. Lauren Miller and the second by Miss Mary Jacobus. The games caused much merriment and all enjoyed an evening's fun.

Mrs. Clare Hopkins entertained her five hundred club on Monday evening at her home. Mrs. Frank Dunston won high score and Mrs. Judd Skarritt low.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hosner and children, of Pontiac, spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy C. Allen.

Mrs. Fred Burr entertained the Ladies' Aid Society at dinner on Wednesday. Mrs. E. V. Bailey and Mrs. L. C. Porritt were assistant hostesses.

BOY SCOUTS OBSERVE 24TH ANNIVERSARY

Event Featured by Address by President Roosevelt

This week marks the 24th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America, an organization too well and favorably known to need any comment. Saturday, Feb. 11, at noon, The Boy Scouts of America were honored by an address given over the air by President Roosevelt especially for that order.

This is an honor the boys are proud of, as not many organizations have had so great a man single them out of the great many, and appeal to them for help as brother to brother.

There have always been "scouts" and heroes among the great explorers and navigators, the Crusaders and Knights, and from the code of the latter much of the Scout Law has been taken. Too much honor and credit cannot be given to a pioneer scout who saw the need and was a tireless worker to build up the organization into what he had visioned it—nearly a million of the boys of America.

Dan Beard was the son of a pioneer artist who lived much in the open and was known as the crack shot of the Ohio valley, and so was practically born a "scout", for living on the edge of the wilderness made for health, strength, self reliance, ready to face any danger, finding their way by the sun and stars, interpreting the signs of the forest, the foot tracks of animals and men, ever ready to do a good turn without thought of recompense, but with a sense of honor and duty.

His boyhood was spent in Covington, Ky., then a beleaguered city, where he was leader of a gang of boys who called themselves "The Boone Scouts", with a secret camp on the banks of a little creek where they became experts with the bow and arrow and could equal any Indian at throwing a tomahawk. Emulating the scouts of history and fiction in outdoor activities and virtues, thinking, acting and dreaming as only a boy can, yet their sense of honor was so great that a proven "liar" was ostracized from camp. Even in his academy days Beard returned to this boyhood rendezvous.

Graduating as a civil engineer, he spent several years in the open and then secured a position with a map publishing company that took him from New Orleans to Upper Michigan and it was while in this work that he saw the lack of playgrounds for children in cities and towns and began to champion the cause of boys who were always a source of pleasure and inspiration to him.

In 1905 as editor of "Recreation", in planning something of interest to the boys, and no doubt recalling his own boyhood, he founded an organization of scouts. Later he associated with another magazine taking with him his scout idea and calling them "The Sons of Daniel Boone".

In 1907 President Theodore Roosevelt endorsed his work and the names of great fighters or those highly honored for service were used on merit badges of felt and sewed on the sleeve.

In 1908 the scout movement was organized in England by Gen. Sir Robert S. S. Baden-Powell, and about the same time the movement here was gaining national importance with organizations under Daniel Carter Beard and Ernest Thompson Seton, and in 1910 incorporated into The Boy Scouts of America and chartered later under an Act of Congress.

The boys are organized into patrols and patrols into troops under the charge of a scout master with an assistant and local troop committee who act as advisory board.

The aim is to bring out the ability of the boys to do things, train them in scout craft, teach them patriotism, courage, self-reliance and a hundred virtues. Every summer thousands of Boy Scouts spend a week or more in camp where the boys are under rigid standards of safety and health and all are taught to swim with much emphasis on life saving.

Their motto, "Be Prepared", is interpreted as being able to rescue a companion, ford a stream, gather firewood, help strangers, distinguish right from wrong, serve his fellow men, his country and his God—always to "Be Prepared".

The organization has plenty of real American ideals before them, scouts in every sense of the word, unequalled in picturesqueness, and heroes such as a boy loves to worship; Washington, who could ride a bucking horse and travelled miles of wilderness alone; Roosevelt, who dressed in buckskin and explored unknown lands; Daniel Boone and Kit Carson, trail makers, pathfinders, guides, hunters and trappers; Davy Crockett, pioneer hunter and hero of the Alamo; Gen. Sam Houston; Buffalo Bill Cody and many others.

Obituary

Mark W. Caswell
Funeral service for Mark Wakeman Caswell, 62 years old, who died Monday of a heart attack at his home on Airport road, was held at 10:30 Thursday from the Voorhees Chapel with burial in Milan.
Mr. Caswell was born Feb. 16, 1871, in Milan, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter Caswell. He came to Waterford township in 1913 and purchased a farm which is now part of the Pontiac Municipal Airport. He had been an active Republican for years in the township and was a former highway commissioner and highway overseer. Mr. Caswell had been ill most of the winter.
Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Laura Caswell; three sons, Guy and Grant, both of Pontiac, and Bry, of Cass City; two daughters, Mrs. Clarissa Vermett, of Milan, and Mrs. Blanche Mullen, of Pontiac; and one brother, William, of Milan.

SHORT TERM LOANS

MADE AVAILABLE
To Farmers by Organization of Production Credit Association
Capital of $25,000.00 was placed at the disposal of the Pontiac Production Credit Association, Feb. 12, 1934, by the Production Credit Corporation of St. Paul, to enable the local association covering the counties of Oakland, Macomb and Livingston to begin operations.
This is only a portion of the capital that has been subscribed by the corporation. The balance of stock subscribed will be paid for as needed in the course of business. The capital that has been subscribed has been chiefly invested in government securities which will be placed with the Intermediate Credit Bank of St. Paul, as additional security to the notes and mortgages which the Intermediate Credit Bank will discount for local borrowers through the Pontiac association.

A portion of the capital has been provided as an operating fund for paying current expenses of the association.
The Pontiac Production Credit Association is a local cooperative organization of farmers who have united to form the association to procure short term loans for general farming purposes, similar to 88 other associations that have been organized in North Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan. Each has been capitalized for an amount deemed sufficient to provide all the capital needed in its territory after a survey of conditions by the Production Credit Corporation of St. Paul. It will provide funds for feeding or fattening of livestock, for production of poultry and dairy products, fruits and other farm crops.

The farmer-borrowers will each subscribe for stock at the rate of $5 for each $100 they borrow, and this will also be invested in securities. The difference between the stock subscribed by borrowers and by the corporation is that the borrowers' stock has the exclusive voting power, and the corporation's stock has preference in case of liquidation of the local association. Both share equally in any dividends that may be earned.
Fred J. Beckman, of Clarkston, president of the Oakland County Farm Bureau, who has been named secretary-treasurer of the local association, will take applications from farmers for short-term loans secured by chattel mortgages.

Japan is now asking for volunteers for certain death. Recruiting will start for men prepared to act as "human torpedoes" in naval engagements. Japanese Naval engineers have perfected a new type of torpedo fitted with a steering gear and having room for a steersman who would be in the torpedo when it was launched and could easily guide it to its mark.

Missionary Meeting

The Missionary meeting was held with Mrs. C. J. Sutton at the parsonage on Thursday afternoon with a large attendance. Mrs. Clayton Purdy had charge of the program which was as follows:

Opening song, "The Light of the World Is Jesus".

Prayer by Mrs. A. T. Stewart.

Song by Mrs. L. G. Rowley and Mrs. Floyd Wilson.

Review Study: Chapter 1, "The Never Failing Light"—Mrs. Fred Stocker, Chapter 2, "The Basis of Brotherhood"—Mrs. William Brown.

A demonstration with lighted candles by Mrs. Purdy came next, with the Apostles: Headstrong Peter, crucified head downward, Rome, A. D. 66; Helpful Andrew, tied to cross like letter X in Patras in 1st Century; Ardent James, beheaded at Jerusalem by Herod Agrippa, A. D. 44; Loving John, at an old age died a natural death at Ephesus between A. D. 95-100; Reformed Matthew, slain by sword in 1st Century; Ob-scure James, thrown from temple and stoned to death, A. D. 65; Narrow Thaddeus, shot to death by arrows in Armenia, A. D. 80; Slow Philip, hanged on a pillar, A. D. 80; Quick-witted Bartholomew, flayed alive in Armenia, A. D. 71; Doubting Thomas, slain in India with spear in 1st Century; Enthusiastic Simon, crucified in Persia, A. D. 107; False Judas, hanged himself, A. D. 33; Matthias, who supplied silver in place of Jesus, was said to have been stoned first and then beheaded in first century; Paul, beheaded at Rome, A. D. 66.

Through contact with Christ they became Christ-filled personalities, earnest, fearless, missionary, and willing to die for their faith. As we read this lesson it is quite interesting to note that of all these men of God John alone died a natural death, the rest dying violent deaths. Yet we when we accept Christ expect that life for us should run very smooth with no trials or worries. But even with the death of these men the light did not fail but there were others to carry it on. So it has been up to our own day, where we have wonderful examples of it shining in the darkest places.

Prayer from the Prayer Cycles followed.

Study continued: Chapter 3: "Modern Trends toward Paganism", by Mrs. Frank Jones. Chapter 4: "The Cause of the Common Man", by Mrs. Chris Kellar.

With Mrs. C. J. Sutton reading a prayer every head was bowed and every heart was consecrated to their task.

The business part of the meeting followed and refreshments were served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. A. T. Stewart and election of officers will be held for the coming year.

Prayer by Mrs. A. T. Stewart.

ents required. Stir while cooking until the mixture is stiff, then cool and pour into balls with the hands. The amount given will clean one small room.

For washing painted walls, a solution containing one cup of sal soda, one cup of ammonia, one cup of vinegar, and one gallon of warm water is suggested. The solution is applied with a sponge and is rinsed off with clear water. A sponge may be used for the rinsing of rough plaster, while a cloth is suitable on other surfaces. Equal parts of borax, gold dust, and corn-meal, mixed thoroughly, and put in small amounts on a damp cloth will be found satisfactory for removing spots from a painted wall.

GIVE YOUR FAMILY WATERLESS ELECTRIC COOKING TRIAL RANGE

—TRY THIS MODERN METHOD IN YOUR OWN KITCHEN ON A NEW TRIAL RANGE

If you have never used an electric range, you will not believe it possible to cook vegetables with only half a cup of water without burning them. But it is true. And the reason why waterless cooking is so healthful is this: When you cook vegetables in a great deal of water, the water soaks up flavor and precious minerals from the vegetables. Then this flavor-laden and mineral-laden water is poured down the sink, thus wasting the very things you pay for. An electric range is different. You do not have to BOIL FOODS AWAY to cook them. Foods cook to melting tenderness in their own juices. Vegetables are steam-cooked instead of being boiled, and precious minerals and healthful natural elements are conserved.

We want you to try modern waterless cooking in your own kitchen. We want you to enjoy electric cooking without making any investment or being under any obligation. So we have arranged a special trial offer. We will install an electric range in your kitchen without initial charge, and let you use it for six months, removing it without charge if you do not like it. During the trial period, you pay for the service as registered by your meter, plus a monthly charge of $1 for the range. If you decide to keep the range, your monthly payments will be applied toward the purchase price. If you decide that you do not want it, the range will be removed at our expense. Send in your application for a trial range today!

Thursday evening, Feb. 8, fifty relatives and neighbors pleasantly surprised Mr. and Mrs. Clark Miller in their new home. The evening was enjoyably spent playing bridge, pedro and games by the younger ones. Refreshments were served and afterward a purse of money was given to the young couple. This was the second surprise of the day as the day was Clark's birthday and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Miller, of Clarkston, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Miller and daughters, Charlotte Sue and Leda Ellen, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chamberlain and sons, Bud and Cal, of Royal Oak, enjoyed a surprise birthday dinner at six o'clock with the Millers at their home.

BOY SCOUTS

It is to these that the scouts of today turn, emulating their honesty and virtue, doing their good turn daily, reverencing sacred things, able to take care of themselves in any emergency, taught to be leaders and able to take command, a staunch support to the nation and a promise of outstanding citizenry.

Quoting from Dan Beard, "It staggers the imagination to think what a nation of Scouts means—a nation of sturdy, courageous, resourceful, clean living, high-minded Americans."

As a fitting conclusion of this article we reproduce in full President Roosevelt's address:

"Fellow Scouts:
"I am happy to participate in the twenty-fourth anniversary celebration of our organization, the Boy Scouts of America. Nearly a million of us are mobilized at this time in all parts of the country as a part of the program for this week of celebration. Home and farm patrols and troops of farm boys are joining with their brother Scouts in the big cities.

"In front of the City Hall in San Francisco, and it is 9 o'clock in the morning there, thousands of Scouts join with other thousands in the Hippodrome in New York in carrying on the cause of world-wide brotherhood in scouting.

"As most of you know, scouting has been one of my active interests for many years. I have visited hundreds of troops in their home towns and in their camps. I know, therefore, from personal experience the things we do and stand for as Scouts.

"We have ideals. We are a growing organization. We believe that we are accomplishing fine American results not only for our own membership, but also for our families, our communities and our nation.

"Summed up in one sentence, the aim of scouting is to build up better citizenship. I believe that we are contributing greatly to that objective.

"I am especially happy today to extend personal greetings and congratulations to the Scouts and leaders who have earned the President's award for progress in the year 1933, as a part of the 10-year program. It is appropriate that we are planning for the celebration of our silver jubilee, the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America, which will culminate in a great national jamboree here in the nation's Capital in the summer of 1935.

"Of course it would be physically impossible for us to have the whole membership of the Boy Scouts of America, a million strong, come to Washington at one time, but I much hope that it will be possible to have every nook and cranny of our nation represented.

"As a preliminary to our silver jubilee, and in line with the emphasis on service for others which we have always stressed, I suggest to you that it is time once more for us to do a national good turn.

"As many of you know, we are doing everything possible in this emergency to help suffering humanity. I called upon the Federal Emergency Relief administrator, Harry L. Hopkins, to tell me what kind of a national good turn would be of the greatest service. He has recommended that during the balance of the month of February every troop and every Scout do everything possible in their separate localities to collect such household furnishings, bedding and clothes as people may be able to share as gifts to those who greatly need them.

"Therefore, I ask you, under the direction of your own local officers, and in conference with the representatives of the Federal Relief Administration and other local social agencies, to gather up such of this material as may be available for distribution.

"I am confident that the American people will generously co-operate and respond. Indeed, I am hoping that in many cases they will telephone or send letters to the local Scout offices to offer their help to carry through this national good turn.

"Already I have received offers of co-operation from governors of states, from mayors and other community leaders. May you carry out this new service and rededicate yourselves to the Scout oath.

"I ask you to join with me and the Eagle Scouts and our president and chief Scout executive, who are here with me in the White House,
