COMMENT AND CRITICISM

It was all very nice then, but do you remember what day you observed last Sunday?

Helpful Hints to Home Gardeners. Plant your garden about the time that swimming gets good. Plant as much space as possible. Then write to the city friends and tell them about the beauties of your home and your wonderful garden. Invite them out to enjoy the products. That is all the work on your part that is needed. The visitors will gladly accept the chance of working in the garden and what a garden you will have. This valuable information is included with your subscription at no extra cost.

Now! You are mistaken. L. F. Walter is not running a green house. But he did have a window full of beautiful flowers for sale for Mother's day.

Commencement is on May 31st this year in Clarkston. Twenty-seven graduates will then start out on that rather interesting occupation of wresting a living from the universe. They have much to be thankful for. Things have improved quite a good deal over the last two or three years and their task should be easier. Right now the future is a long-way away all of two weeks. So the intervening time is being spent in parties. . . planning for commencement. . . and who knows perhaps even studying. . . you know even the best students do that.

Now, while you are enjoying your sleepy case of spring fever, is a good time to dream of your advertising campaign to make sales while the sun shines this summer.

Remember Poppy Day Saturday, May 26th

Local Posts to Sell in Clarkston and Vicinity

The memorial poppies which will be distributed here on "Poppy Day," Saturday, May 26, will recall vivid pictures to the minds of the World War veterans who served overseas. The poppies blooming amid the waste and destruction of the battle front, and among the bare graves of the dead left an unforgettable impression on the American soldiers.

When the American divisions drove forward in the great offensives of 1918, they entered a region torn, desolated and trampled by the most tremendous battles of history. Destruction and death were everywhere but amid it all the little wild poppies bloomed on. When machine gun and shell fire took its toll from the American ranks, the poppy was nature's floral offering on the graves of the dead. When the boys returned home they made the poppy the memorial flower of the American Legion.

The making of the poppies is reserved strictly for the war disabled. It offers a means of employment to veterans unable to do other work and not only brings them money for support of themselves and families but aids in their rehabilitation by giving them beneficial, interesting work. The best of working conditions are, of course, provided for the disabled men employed in the poppy project. The number of poppies that a man can make in one day is restricted in order that the workers will not tax their strength. The work is directed in such a manner that it will aid in the physical and mental rehabilitation of the veterans as well as giving them financial benefits.

The money contributed for the poppies pays the wages of the poppy-makers and helps support the Legion's and Auxiliary activities for the welfare of disabled veterans and their dependent families.

Be prepared to do your bit Saturday, May 26.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET FRIDAY

Annual Occasion Takes Place In Clarkston High School

Last Friday evening the Juniors and Seniors of the Clarkston High School assembled at the festive board to enjoy a banquet which is one of the annual functions held at the close of the school year. A real meal was enjoyed.

Following the banquet was a program and dance. George Lawson acted as general chairman and the success of the evening proved that George was "right on the job," and saw that every detail was taken care of. Community singing opened the program, and then Miss Evelyn Spaulding, acting as toastmistress, took full charge. Stanley Spencer spoke for the Juniors. Stanley is quite an orator and is a credit to the Junior class. Robert Reynolds and Miss Lolita Mann favored the assembly with a vocal duet. Miss Mary Kathryn Hammond, the Senior President, gave a short speech. Harold Konzen, a Senior, played a violin solo. Miss Virginia Le Forge gave a reading. Mr. D. M. Winn, the school superintendent, then expressed those words-of-encouragement that are always so beneficial to young people that are about to leave High School and start out to make their way in the world. Mr. Charles Hutton then sang several numbers which were very well received.

At the close of the program Miss Evelyn Spaulding, the toastmistress, presented the Senior class with a large bouquet of yellow roses along with the best wishes of the Junior class.

The school auditorium presented quite a picture, when our sweet girl graduates and our men of tomorrow enjoyed dancing, perhaps the last dance together for some time to come. The girls were very pretty in their fluffy frocks with shoulder bouquets. All in all, the Junior-Senior banquet will be remembered as one of the big events of the school year.

Blue and White Flash Clarkston School News

Winchell's Flash Column

Flash— Annual C. H. S. Junior-Senior Banquet goes off with clockwork precision and from all reports everyone present was satisfied with the glorious event.

Many beautiful dresses seen at the event. Blue seemed to be the favorite color.

Evelyn Spaulding performed her duties as toastmistress very good.

At the close of the dinner the Junior Class presented the Senior Class with a beautiful vase of yellow roses as token of appreciation. The Senior Class responded by thanking heartily the Junior Class.

Ho! Hum! Spring surely must be here. Everyone seems to be retiring from school for a bit. The girls more so than the boys. Girls having to stay at 4.

Flash— Something funny about this Dan Addis—when he gets thirsty in school he doesn't do what the other lads do. Get a slip of permission. Oh! No! He just opens out of the Atlantic Ocean, and then when he has quenched his thirst, he just travels over to the Sahara Desert for something to munch on.

Everyone loafing in the session room. The Detroit Free Press Sport Section seems to be a daily reading periodical with some of the boys in the session room.

Clayton Sonerainte trying to draw people's attention in the type room the eighth hour.

Al Tallenger puzzling over that Class Will.

Mildred S. and those eyes—the "eyes" have it.

Harold Konzen and that fine exhibit of Small Creatures, butterflies, insects and what have you.

Petitions Circulated for G. A. Dondero

Petitions are being circulated by friends and supporters of Congressman George A. Dondero in all parts of the 17th Congressional District asking his renomination to succeed himself as United States Representative in Congress for a second term.

Congressman Dondero, in his first term, has been serving in the House of Representatives in one of the most critical periods in the nation's history since the Civil War. During the two eventful sessions of the 73rd Congress he has endeavored to represent the will of the majority of the people of his district, when that will has been clearly expressed, believing that the office should be truly representative of the people's wishes.

Chapter V.

The coming of spring, however, was destined to change many of their best laid plans and they with other of their homestead neighbors, were much excited over the news of a well known company surveying to extend their railroad lines within three miles of them and right where Henry had bought out the rights of a discouraged homesteader. So there was nothing to do but occupy the other shack also to maintain his rights, leaving John to care for the home and horses.

And right then the two decided on a line of action. With the team they made a trip to the town and purchased a load of staples, darning drawing on their hoarded harvest savings for the venture. Men would soon be on the job and would have to eat so why not be on hand with supplies.

It spoiled their plans to go back to work where they had been in the fall, but they decided to take turns at putting in a crop and tending store, and no doubt they would be able to get plenty of work, a supposition that proved true.

The store venture was a success from its first day and frequent trips were quite necessary for supplies.

"High time this place had a name of some sort," Henry remarked one evening. "What shall we call it?"

Nothing could be decided on, tho it was the main topic for many days, each wishing to honor the other, until a happy thought struck John.

"I'll split with you, Henry, on the name."

"Agreed! What will it be? We've tried every known combination of John and Henry and Bingham and Field."

"Call it Clairfield," answered John, and Henry understood the tender tribute to the girl who was waiting and at once started to mark out a sign with none too perfect letters, but the name "Clairfield" was destined to live on down through the years to come.

Not much chance to be lonely now with crews of workmen rushing in on the road, crops to be put in and hampered by a lack of tools and Henry needed much help in the store.

Plenty of chances to send letters now but no time to write them and Alameda, not forgetting her promise, surprised them with a visit in the early summer, driving out from the town in a buckboard loaded down with boxes and bundles.

Henry was awed and speechless before this dainty bit of femininity and could scarcely stammer replies but soon thawed out when he saw the easy, confidential bantering way in which she and John treated each other and was soon showing her his handiwork which she praised heartily.

Clarkston Club Hostess to County

Oakland County Federation Entertained Friday

The thirty-fourth annual meeting of the Oakland County Federation of Women's Clubs held in the Methodist Church May 11, 1934, with the Clarkston Literary Club as hostess, was attended by about 125 county club women.

Everyone seemed to enjoy the day, including the delicious luncheon served by the ladies of the church during which time the Girls' Glee Club of the High School under Mrs. Hutton's able direction favored the group with three lovely numbers.

The interesting program of the afternoon consisted of a violin solo by Harold Konzen, reading by Mrs. Charles Chamberlain and a vocal solo by Charles Hutton. These were all pleasingly rendered. It was a bit disappointing that Mrs. McLean was unable to be present but the time was well filled by short talks by both Mrs. Keyworth and Mrs. Goodnow of the State Federation board.

At the business session election of officers for the ensuing year took place with the following results:

President—Mrs. F. R. Gross, Royal Oak.

First Vice-President—Mrs. F. A. Tucker, Keego Harbor.

Second Vice-President—Mrs. Geo. Kimball, Jr., Pontiac.

The Mother-Son banquet which the Ladies' Auxiliary sponsored Friday evening at the Waterford school was a success. There were over two hundred served. The speaker, Rev. J. O. L. INSTANT HOT WATER electrically and at new low cost!

A new low rate is being offered for electric water heating. This is a flat annual rate for year round service. You can enjoy automatic electric hot water service for as little as $2.34 a month. You may buy or rent an electric water heater, whichever you choose. Rental rates are low, and if you prefer to buy the heater, convenient monthly terms may be arranged.

You can end all this annoyance and inconvenience by installing an automatic ELECTRIC hot water heater. With an automatic electric heater, you are assured an abundant and constant supply of water, steaming hot, at a turn of the faucet. Day and night, summer and winter, you have hot water instantly when you need it—for bath and for shower, for shaving, for washing dishes, for the laundry, for housecleaning. There is no waiting, no inconvenience. And you do not need to depend on a furnace coil for hot water, which—contrary to general belief—is an expensive method of heating water, due to the coal burned in the process.

How often have you wanted hot water in a hurry, and found only lukewarm water in the pipes? How often have you gone up and down the cellar stairs to light a manually-operated tank, and then waited for the water to heat? How often have you been obliged to heat water on a stove?

CHEVROLET FULLY-ENCLOSED KNEE-ACTION WHEELS 80 HORSE-POWER 80 MILES PER HOUR CABLE-CONTROLLED BRAKES BODIES BY FISHER SHOCK-PROOF STEERING

Drive it only 5 miles and you'll never be satisfied with any other low-priced car

WHY do you suppose Chevrolet keeps repeating, in all of its advertising, "Drive it only 5 miles"? Here's the reason: Chevrolet engineers have tried out all the various makes of cars in today's low-price field. And they have proved to their complete satisfaction the same things that hundreds of thousands of Chevrolet owners are proving in their daily driving: How much more smoothly a car travels with genuine, fully-enclosed Knee-Action. How much more comfortably it handles, with shock-proof steering. How much more restfully you ride, in a Fisher Body car. How much more safely you drive, with cable-controlled brakes. And how much finer performance and better economy are secured from an overhead-valve Six! In other words, Chevrolet engineers know for sure that the Chevrolet ride simply can't be matched by any other in the low-price field. They know it—thousands of owners know it—and you've want you to know it too, before you make your final choice of a low-priced car. CHEVROLET MOTOR CO., DETROIT, MICH. Mrs. Hutton's Room

A lovely and interesting nature study class took place in our room last Monday. It was all very exciting and very unexpected at that special moment. In fact we were having a class in spelling, not even thinking about nature study, when all of a sudden a sharp voice called out in full strength, "Oh, Mrs. Hutton, Look!" Not only Mrs. Hutton but everyone in the room looked, and wonders upon wonders, what did we see? A large beautiful moth just emerging from its cradle.

No use to say that all work ceased and with one accord we all moved toward the piano upon which our little cocoon has rested all winter. No one talked lest the beautiful creature might change his mind and not come out. In fact we even felt like holding our breath, because here was one of God's miracles being performed right before our eyes. Our work remained unfinished for the next twenty minutes as we watched the beautiful moth unfold its wings and gain strength. We love Nature study classes and are trying to figure out how we can have one every day.
