COMMENT AND CRITICISM

Now that the Tigers have taken 3 games out of a 4 game series with the Yankees, let's calm down and get back into shape for something else. incidentally, and you can believe this, people even gave up their Sunday golf to stick close to the radio for Sunday's game. Fred Kemper of Silver Brook Golf Club told me so.

My nephew, aged 11, is very much dissatisfied with our police department. He sat in our front yard, close to the street, for two hours Saturday evening, waiting to see Floyd stop some car for an infraction of any law, take your choice, but it was no go.

It's summer time and the old swimming hole at Deer Lake is drawing its quota. Some good swimmers, some in my stage of the game, paddling like a side-wheel lake steamer, and making about a mile an hour, some dandy divers, some with a lake-off like an aeroplane, without the happy landing, but over the week-end the bouquet goes to a young lady. I understand she comes from Clarkston. She was GOOD. Her stunts consisted of two acts, or rather two ways of doing one good stunt. One was to tip her chin in the air and start walking across the raft. Of course she took one too many steps and the water just naturally came up and slapped her face. Her other act was to stand on the edge of the float, watching the others dive and losing her balance she would fall backwards into the water. Both actions were so natural, and seemed such a surprise to her. . . . were I a movie operator I would hire her in a moment. . . . she has the making of a wonderful comedian.

Driver Is Uninjured But Train Is Disabled

Car Goes Down Embankment But Remains Upright

Another accident has been added to the list of Michigan's automobile accidents. Last Friday morning Donald Allen, 1810 Williams Lake road, narrowly escaped death when his car collided with a speeding Grand Trunk passenger train near Waterford. The train was disabled but Allen was not injured. Allen was driving west on the Williams Lake road. The baggage car of the train grazed Allen's machine, tearing off the fenders and door handles on the left side. The machine then slid down a twelve foot embankment but remained upright. The impact with the railroad car disabled the breaking system of the train, the engineer bringing the train to a stop three-quarters of a mile away, stated Deputy Wiley. The steel steps of the baggage car were torn off. The train proceeded into Pontiac very slowly.

Farm Managers Give Hose Demonstration

Irrigation Project Is Given a Good Work-Out

On Tuesday the Farm Managers association met on the MaGee farm on the Dixie for an irrigation demonstration, picnic supper and program, together with business meeting. This farm is operated by David McClelland, of Clarkston. The Michigan State College was in charge of the demonstration, being represented by H. H. Musselman, Professor of Agricultural Engineering, and one of the leading proponents of irrigation on farms in Michigan. Mr. Musselman informed the News that irrigation in the average case would increase the yield of potatoes 75 to 100 bushels per acre, and could be done at a cost low enough to make the expense a wonderful investment for the farmer.

Considering that the soil was so hot that the heat penetrated the soles of one's shoes, it was easy to imagine what damage would be done to the crop of potatoes, if rain was not forthcoming. As most of the managers had planted fields, which were high and very dry, and in which the seeds were apt to burn in the ground, interest in the demonstration was much in evidence.

Mr. Musselman in relating to the News the history of irrigation, in Michigan, dated back five years. At that time in the experimental station of the college located at Lake City, it was found that something would have to be done to save the potato plantings. For lack of water they were burning in the ground. Water was pumped into the fields and helped, but there was a waste and to be successful, all waste had to be eliminated. Then under Mr. Musselman's direction a hose made out of 10 ounce canvas was tried out. This hose allowed water to seep thru and into the ground, around the roots, where it would do the most good, with practically no waste. Dating from the first the method has grown in favor with farmers located near lake or river water.

Now the college is experimenting with shallow wells, where the water can be pumped at a rate of 50 to 75 gallons a minute. On the way here from East Lansing, Mr. Musselman inspected a well near Holly, capable of this amount. There certainly is no doubt as to the value of the irrigation system, at least as it is practiced by Mr. McClelland. We were informed that a gallon of gasoline would run his pump for about a day, pumping over 100 gallons of water a minute. Pumping this pressure into a hose 200 feet long, at the demonstration, the soil was so dry that the water soaked into the ground nearly as fast as it seeped from the hose.

Such has been the demand, by farmers, for pipe to bring the water from the source of supply to the irrigation spot, that some are finding it difficult to secure used pipe. The cost of the hose ranges from 6 to 10 cents per foot.

For one of those "before and after" pictures one should see the field of Mr. McClelland, where irrigated and where he had not yet reached.

CLARKSTON CLUB ENJOYS PICNIC

Ortonville Ladies Hostesses at State Park, Wednesday

Wednesday was a perfect day for a picnic and the Ortonville State Park was an ideal spot. Twenty ladies of the Clarkston Literary Club drove to the park, where they were guests of the Ortonville Club. A 1:00 o'clock picnic dinner was served and all present certainly did justice to a good, square meal. In the afternoon a well planned program kept the crowd amused. The Clarkston group returned later in the afternoon and will have pleasant memories of the fine day they spent at Ortonville.

Clarkston Loses Game With Dairy

Leave Field When They Think Empire Is Unfair

Clarkston Independents were defeated last Sunday by Oakland Dairy Jr. at Beaudette Park, Pontiac, 5 to 4. Clarkston left the field of play in the 8th inning after they thought they were robbed of many close decisions by the Pontiac umpires. The Clarkston team played a clean game of baseball and would have won they believe with efficient umpiring. Clarkston plays a Fisher Body league team of Flint Sunday, July 22, at High School Field, Clarkston, at 3 P. M.

Chapter XX
At this same moment a visitor had entered the hall and stood gazing about, taking in the scene, his mind, too, going back to only a few years ago when his mother always came to this bazaar, and now in loving memory he came, not to buy but to leave a substantial check. Tonight he wished he might make a few good-will purchases, but what? His eye caught the lace-maker and he wondered what country she came from. He and his mother had travelled much and lace was her hobby. She would have revelled in this booth, he thought. Clever idea, anyway! Why not buy Mrs. Pearson, his faithful old housekeeper, some cuffs and collar?

Chevrolet Shatters All Monthly Records Since 1931

Chevrolet's record-breaking sales continued their advance in June, shattering all monthly records since May, 1931, and achieving the highest June total since 1929, officials of the Chevrolet Motor Co. announced today. Retail sales for the month, as compiled from dealers' reports, were the basis of the announcement.
 The showing is considered especially notable in light of experts' predictions that automotive volume in general would fall off some 12 per cent during June. Instead of receding, Chevrolet sales showed a gain of more than 12 per cent. Dealers credit Chevrolet's new low prices, which took effect June 2, with upsetting the prediction so far as Chevrolet is concerned, and paying the way for this substantial increase.

COOL TO PUT A

IN YOUR KITCHEN on Trial* . . . .

PROVE FOR YOURSELF THAT ELECTRIC COOKING IS COMFORTABLE COOKING

You have probably heard a great deal about the advantages of an electric range—the feature of COOLNESS, among others. Here is your chance to see for yourself how surprisingly comfortable your kitchen is—even in the warmest weather—when you do your cooking electrically. You can use the electric oven for baking or roasting and it will not noticeably raise the temperature of the room. This is because the oven is well-insulated and semi-sealed. There is no stovepipe to carry the hot air from your oven through the kitchen, heating up the atmosphere, as in a fuel-burning stove. And on the surface units, the heat goes directly from the electric element to the cooking utensil. All of the heat is used for cooking; little can escape into the room, and there is no hot flame to heat the surrounding air and make the kitchen uncomfortable.

Electric cooking is COOL cooking.

* We want you to try an electric range in your own kitchen. We want you to enjoy cool electric cooking without making any investment or being under any obligation. So we have arranged a special trial offer. We will install an electric range in your kitchen without initial charge, and let you use it for six months, removing it without charge if you do not like it. During the trial period, you pay for the service as registered by your meter, plus a monthly charge of $1 for the range. If you decide to keep the range, your monthly payments will be applied toward the purchase price. If you decide that you do not want it, the range will be removed at our expense. Since this trial plan was begun a short time ago, over 2500 of our customers have taken advantage of this offer. Send in your application for a trial range today!

We can increase that business further by telling out-of-state friends about Michigan's vacation advantages and by spending our own vacations here.

And, no matter which part of Michigan you visit this summer, banish worry by telephoning home and office frequently. Call ahead for reservations, or to tell friends you are coming. Long Distance calls will add but little to the cost and much to the enjoyment of your vacation.

All Ford V-8 DeLuxe Models Have Always Been Equipped With Shatterproof Glass Throughout

Roaring across a highway intersection near Jackson, Michigan, at a speed of more than 60 miles an hour, a large automobile sped through a red traffic light and crashed broadside into a Ford V-8 sedan driven by Robert B. Farquharson, Toledo, Ohio. Farquharson was only slightly bruised, and the body of the car withstood the terrific impact of the crash without serious damage.

No glass in the Ford V-8 was broken, although the other car suffered broken glass and severe damage. The impact was so great that the Ford V-8 was pushed sideways some distance on the highway, but the strong body withstood the crash.

lars. She wore them and he would ask the saleslady to select them.

Eleanor was intent on her task, her thoughts far away, when a voice at her side called her back to reality and the bazaar.

"Good evening. May I ask what country you are a native of?"

Looking up, startled for the moment, a strange feeling passed over her and for a brief instant of time she saw her father beside her. The vision passed and a very well dressed man was there asking a question.

Smiling now, and with the easy manner her business work had taught her, she answered lightly:

"Up-state born, but city by adoption."

Both were smiling now and the man continued:

"But your costume! I was completely deceived. My mother and I visited many native lace makers, but I do not recall this one."

"It's a secret," she said gaily. "The skirt is from Hungary, the blouse from Sardona, the bodice and cap are from Brussels, and the shawl is one my great-grandfather, Captain Parker, brought from the Orient. Assembled, I represent."

"Before she could finish he added: "Aaachne! I'm sure she could not weave any finer."

A snap on the back and a voice joined in: "Who are you, young man, to talk of banishing our fair lace maker? Or was she turned into something? My mythology is poor tonight."

"Hello, Swan, introduce me and I'll not banish your clever saleslady but rather buy her out."
