COMMENT AND CRITICISM

Much has been said in favor of the so-called Townsend Plan. As you know this idea is the one that embraces the idea of giving everyone who is past working age or dependent upon someone the sum of two hundred dollars a month. . . . with the provision that they must spend it during the month. Of course the two hundred is to be given by the government.

Frankly there is to be some kind of insurance for the aged. . . . an idea that has been accepted by countries the world over. . . . but we know of no country that has ever had such an idea to work with as the Townsend Plan, which, according to the following figures, gives us something to think about.

Population of U. S. . . . 124,000,000
Eligible under Townsend . . . 50,000,000
Old Age Plan . . . 74,000,000

Those barred from working by provisions of Child Labor Law, and those in Government employ . . . 60,000,000

Unemployed . . . 14,000,000
Leaving to produce Nation's goods . . . 13,999,998

YOU AND ME, and I'm all worn out.

TWO NOTED STARS COMING TO HOLLY

In Screen Play to Be Seen at Local Theatre

Two of the most talked of stars in Hollywood come to the screen as a new co-starring team in the picture, "Reckless", which opens Sunday at the Holly Theatre. They are Jean Harlow and William Powell.

The picture is one of the most thrilling and colorful ones in recent months. It is the story of a beautiful blonde dancer who rises from a back-country carnival dancer to the golden lights of Broadway, a dancing star who becomes a nation-wide sensation, who marries a playboy with millions, who captures society by her charm.

Miss Harlow appears for the first time as a singing and dancing star, appearing in the dazzling musical numbers written by a host of well-known composers, headed by Jerome Kern.

William Powell plays the role of Ned Riley, the promoter of everything from flea circuses to bearded wrestlers, as only Powell can play it.

Franchot Tone again comes to us as the millionaire playboy, who first wins Miss Harlow's heart, and whose suicidal act drags her from the pedestal of fame into the mud of scandal.

As a whole, "Reckless" is crowded with plenty of color, life, beauty, music and gaiety. Producer David O. Selznick and Director Victor Fleming have forgotten nothing in their efforts to make the film one long to be remembered.

In it are included such dependable players as May Robson, that Grand Old Lady of stage and screen, who plays Miss Harlow's grandmother; Ted Healy and Nat Pendleton, who supply the majority of the humor as Powell's constant minions; Rosalind Russell, well remembered on the New York stage, and who has been climbing faster as featured film actress than any other recent recruit to pictures; little Mickey Rooney, and Henry Stephenson, who portrays Tone's father.

HOW TO OBTAIN SEED TO PLANT FOR BIRDS

With the demand for the food patch seed mixture increasing, the Game Division, Department of Conservation, advises those who have planned food and cover projects for game birds to send in their orders at once.

Applications for the desired seed supplies should be sent to R. W. Bennett, Michigan Farm Bureau, at 221 North Cedar street, Lansing.

The seeds sell for 11 cents a pound in lots under 25 pounds and 10 cents a pound in lots over 25 pounds. The three percent sales tax and transportation costs are additional.

Only 4,000 pounds of the seed mixture were obtained this year, according to the Game Division. Last year approximately 3,800 pounds were distributed by the Farm Bureau. The Game Division will send instructions on planting of food patches to any person requesting them.

Poppy Day to Be Saturday, May 25th

The Local Organizations Will Ask Your Support

How long is public memory and how enduring national gratitude? This question will be answered here on Saturday, May 25th. It will be answered in bright red poppies worn over the hearts of all who remember and are grateful to those who sacrificed their lives in the nation's defense seventeen years ago.

The women of the American Legion Auxiliary will distribute the flowers on the streets. They remember. Some of their own lie in the poppy-studded battle cemeteries in France. Ever since the war they have been devoting their energies to aid those left dependent, to help those who came back disabled, and to carry on in peace for the cause of American democracy. And on Poppy Day they will give their services so that the rest of us may show that we, too, remember.

Nearly 30,000 new names will be on the scroll of America's dead defenders when the nation honors its war dead on Memorial Day this year. World War veterans have been dying at the average rate of 80 per day during the last year. This high death rate among the veterans gives Poppy Day, May 25th, heightened importance. Almost every veteran who dies leaves a widow and children and few leave sufficient means to provide for their families.

The money, whether pennies or dollars, that you put into the coin boxes of the poppy workers on Poppy Day will be expended in the welfare of these needy families. Thus the little poppy will give you an opportunity to prove that your memory and gratitude for the sacrifices made for America during the war still endures by enabling you to honor those for whom you can do no more and aiding those yet within reach of human help.

Be generous on Poppy Day.

Mrs. Hutton's Room

We feel real proud of the children in our room. They are able to recognize on sight 12 different Michigan birds. We have been making a special study of the most common birds, and find it very interesting.

Our room has been decorated this week by real Spring flowers from the woods. We are teaching the kiddies which spring flower to pick and which not to. The following woodland flowers are becoming very scarce, and should not be picked: The trillium (lily), the lady-slipper or wild orchid, and the lovely trailing arbutus. Other wild flowers may be picked if one is careful not to pull up the roots. Let us all help to protect these woodland beauties. We want them with us always. It is one of the things that makes the Spring of the year so lovely.

Both teams failed to score in the 2nd, but in the last of the third Taylor let down and three singles, plus several errors allowed 2 more Brighton runs to score.

Opening the fourth inning Yost singled and scored on Mann's triple, but Mann died on third as the following batters failed to connect.

In Brighton's half two more singles and two errors increased Brighton's lead to 5-1. In the 5th Second Molder doubled, scoring Sevier, Rexford sent one deep in left, scoring Molder, and getting to third when the ball was not fielded. Wilkins was pulled from the pitching assignment and Todd was shifted from short to pitcher. His work at short had been outstanding as he held a half

Guest from Lapeer Presented with Pick-Axe

Last Sunday Mr. Frank Yeager had as his guest, his grandson Frederick S. Yeager of Lapeer. It seems that many years ago Mr. Yeager was the recipient of what might be termed an "heir-loom" in the family, a pick-axe made by his grandfather, Joshua Brown, a blacksmith in New York State in the early days. Mr. Yeager decided that his grandson would appreciate having something made by his great-great-grandfather and so on Sunday, Frederick Yeager received the pick-axe.

Mr. Frank Yeager, although 82 years old this month, is his own house-keeper and thoroughly enjoys having company. He was quite thrilled at making this presentation on Sunday. On Tuesday he got another thrill when a farmer 3 miles north of town brought his horse to town to be shod. He had the work done by Mr. Yeager and was quite pleased when the job was finished. Mr. Yeager said the work did not hurt him, he was all right and the horse felt fine.

Red Cross Class Proves Interesting

Again, a group of 14 enjoyed the very instructive lesson given them at the Red Cross class on Wednesday morning by Mrs. Ann Hecox at the home of Miss Florence Hubbard. The lesson which was "bathing the patient while in bed, and changing the bed while the patient is in it", was one of interest, because usually one thinks of this procedure as a real task. However, as Mrs. Hecox says, "it is all in knowing just how to go about it." There is a right way and an easy way to do most things and any who attended this class on Wednesday should be able to give a bed-bath. The next class, next Wednesday morning at 9:30, will be held at the home of Mrs. Fred Steiner on Orion Road. The lesson will be on "poultices". This is a subject that every woman should know something about.

BABY CHICK SHOW AT STATE COLLEGE

Will Be Held Four Days, Beginning on May 14

The eighth annual baby chick show to be held at Michigan State College May 14, 15, 16 and 17, is expected to attract more than 7,000 chicks from hatcheries in many states.

The Michigan show has become the largest of its kind in the world. Any one may exhibit at this show. Entrance must be 25 chicks, sent by mail to reach the College before Tuesday noon, May 14. Classes for turkeys, ducks, and pheasants are open for competition, as well as classes for all breeds of chickens.

Judges for the show will be well known poultry experts, G. S. Vickers, University of Ohio, and J. A. Davidson, Michigan State College. Eight awards are made in many of the classes. Prizes will be ribbons, trophies, poultry equipment, and poultry feeds.

As with most other agricultural shows, the exhibits year after year tend to improve and to result in a better quality of market stock. Chicks have to be uniform in size, representative of the breed, and show good vigor to win in the show. Those same points are necessary in chicks which are to be raised to place in the laying house or to be sold for broilers.

All chicks entered in the show will be sold at auction Friday, May 17, beginning at 1:30 P. M. These auction sales have become popular in the past few years with poultry raisers living near the College.

FEDERAL HELP MAY GO TO COUNTY DRAINS

County Drain Commissioner Earl L. Clark says he is looking forward to the early granting of money by the federal government to Oakland County for use in the construction of drains. Drainage work in the county has been practically at a standstill during the depression and new work and cleanout work on existing drains is badly needed. Several projects have been submitted under the public works program now under consideration and county officials are hoping to receive the approval on some of them within the next few weeks.

GOOD TIME HAD AT P. T. A. PARTY

A Fine Program is a Feature of the Evening

All who attended the P. T. A. card party last Thursday night had a delightful time.

The school auditorium was beautifully arranged as a garden. This was the work of Miss Virginia Le Forge and Mrs. Walter Barrows. The easy chairs along the edge of the garden were very inviting especially one of those sun chairs with a bright canopy which invited Mr. B. F. Miller at intervals throughout the whole evening.

The program was varied so no card player had a chance to get sleepy. Several piano numbers by Gerald Gervais of Royal Oak received hearty applause. Gerald is not quite twelve years old and is a marvel at the piano. His selections were all classical and very difficult, but he played them all with the ease of a music-master. Those who missed hearing him missed a real treat.

After a few more card games, Mrs. Charles Chamberlain of Royal Oak favored the group with a few readings. Mrs. Chamberlain is well known here and her readings are always enjoyed.

Another artist on the program was William Freeman of Pontiac, a whistler, and could he whistle. He whistled several numbers and whether or not he was appreciated was evidenced by the clapping of hands which made the rafters ring.

The cards used at the tables were the table prizes. The door prizes which were many were donated by the town merchants. The distributing of the door prizes created a great deal of fun. One gentleman, who drives a Pontiac car, received a Chevrolet accessory, another gentleman got a box of rouge, one lady, who wears lovely long tresses, received a ticket for a hair cut, another lady got a ticket for a shave and so on. Yes, you missed a good time if you missed this party.

A lovely lunch of Italian potato salad, bread and butter sandwiches, cookies and coffee was served and was a fine climax to a delightful evening.

The P. T. A. members who worked to make this party a success wish to thank all the donors for their generosity and all those who attended for their support.

 Mrs. Ida Hayden had a misfortune happen to her when she opened her home on Wednesday before Easter. She was alone from Wednesday evening until Friday before she could go to the home of Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Huey. The gas from the furnace was so terrible that if it hadn't been for the window being opened she would have been asphyxiated. The Hueys called her daughter Mrs. Robert Allen of Birmingham and they came for her. She isn't over the effects of the accident yet and is still with her daughter. The home had been closed all winter. Waterford friends were indeed very sorry to hear of the misfortune but thankful it was not any worse.
 The special meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Waterford Church held at the home of Mrs. Harry Harrup on Friday night decided these plans. Owing to conflicting dates on the evening of May 3rd at Waterford which had been planned for the Mother-Daughter Banquet those present decided it was best to definitely postpone the event and the banquet just won't be. It was also planned on making the regular Auxiliary Day on May 2nd the same as usual with pot luck luncheon at one o'clock instead of the afternoon meeting as had previously been planned. Arrangements were also made for the trip to the Detroit News on May 13th. This meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. O. D. Anderson.

"Dad, I passed my last exam today!"

Across plains and mountain ranges, hurdling rivers and towns, a human voice speeds along a wire. And so incredibly swift is its flight that even while the words are still sounding in a far-distant room, the voice is flowing into a Michigan home, a welcome guest—and a familiar one.
 From a miracle, long-distance communication by telephone has developed into an integral part of every-day American life.
 "It is the quickest way to relieve anxiety; it is an unequalled means of sending congratulations or condolences; it can reunite scattered members of a family; it can bring together friends who have been parted by the intervening miles.
 There is no way of estimating the human value of this modern necessity; for there is no way of measuring the joy and reassurance and satisfaction which—by the mere lifting of a receiver—can be derived from the sound of a well-remembered voice.
 It is a tribute to modern telephone service that such long-distance communication by word of mouth is no longer considered something at which to marvel. In a few short years the miracle has become a commonplace. It is now accepted as a matter of course even by those whose memories go back to a day in which long-distance conversation was utterly unknown.
 One of the functions of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company is to supply this modern necessity to the people of Michigan; and to supply it at the lowest rates that will adequately provide for the maintenance and improvement of the service.

For Homemakers

The modern "sugar and molasses" cure for spring rheumatism and that tired feeling is plenty of Vitamin C in the diet, according to home economics nutrition specialists at Michigan State College.

At this particular season, canned tomatoes are the best source when fresh fruits and vegetables are not available. A tomato juice cocktail seasoned with horse radish, onion juice, salt and pepper will help stimulate the lagging spring appetite.

For Sunday night supper, a tomato jelly mold with cheese will prove very tasty. To one level tablespoon of plain gelatin add 1/4 cup cold water and let it stand five minutes. Cook together and then strain 1 1/2 cups tomato juice, one tablespoon scraped onion, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon celery salt, and one tablespoon vinegar. Add the softened gelatin to the hot juice and after the mixture has cooled, partially fill individual molds with it. Make the cheese balls by mixing 1/4 pound of cream or cottage cheese with two tablespoons chopped olives or pickles and place on one jelly in each mold. Cover completely with more tomato jelly. To serve, unmold on a lettuce leaf and garnish with salad dressing.

Canned apple sauce or sauce made from the stored apples which have become somewhat shrunken and dried may be used in graham apple torte, in the diet, according to home economics nutrition specialists at Michigan State College.

or 1 1/4 cups toasted bread crumbs and 1/4 cup brown sugar may be substituted for the cracker crumbs. Two-thirds of this mixture is packed into a pie tin, which is then filled with three cups of rather thick sweetened apple sauce, flavored with lemon juice or favorite spices. The rest of the crumbs are sprinkled on top and the pie baked in a moderate oven for half an hour. When cool, the torte may be cut into generous wedges and served like any pie. It may be garnished with whipped cream.

GOOD HOG PASTURE ADVISED BY STATE

College Experts Tell How to Reduce Production Costs

Plenty of good pasture for hogs will enable Michigan farmers to keep down the cost of producing pork, according to the animal husbandry department at Michigan State College.

Alfalfa is the best pasture if it is available. Feeding trials run at the college when feed prices were a trifle higher than at present proved that an acre of alfalfa pasture saved $29.16 on the amount of grain needed to bring pigs to market condition. Ordinary red or alsike clover makes good pasture but does not furnish continuous feed during the summer.

Rape is nearly as good as alfalfa for hog pasture and has the advantage that it can be seeded the same year that it is pastured. It is usually ready to pasture four months after seeding. Use six to eight pounds of seed on good soil and sow broadcast. On poorer soils, two to four pounds of seed can be sown in rows, and the rape can be cultivated two or more times to keep down weeds.

An acre of rape will furnish pasture for 15 to 30 pigs.

Rye, bluegrass or timothy will furnish pasture until the rape is ready. Hogs will eat any green plant that is palatable. The pasture reduces the amount of grain needed and furnishes protein which replaces a part of the protein supplements usually purchased.

Hogs on pasture have a much better chance of avoiding infestations of internal parasites than animals confined in dry yards. There also appears to be a better condition of health in hogs on pasture, in addition from the freedom from parasites.

LESPEDEZA NOT SUITED FOR HERE

Farmers Advised Against Planting It For Forage

Many farmers are unusually interested in forage plants to use for emergency hay crops for 1935. Because of the wide publicity given Korean Lespedeza for the last several years, considerable interest has been aroused.

Trial plantings of Lespedeza were made by Herbert Baynes, Clarkston, and Porter Bennett, Milford, in 1933, but the results were not promising. Plants made very small growth. Trials conducted by the Michigan State College in other sections of Michigan have likewise proven unsatisfactory.

Prof. H. C. Rafter, Farm Crops Department, Michigan State College, has this to say regarding Korean Lespedeza:

"With reference to Korean Lespedeza, in all of the trials which we have conducted in Michigan, the growth has been very small. The ordinary Korean will not dependably mature seed in this state so that it is very unlikely that it will reseed itself. It is this natural reseeding that makes this crop so valuable in the South, where also much larger yields are secured.

"At the present time, we are not recommending any of the Lespedezas for Michigan conditions. The mere fact that the seed is cheaper than alfalfa does not warrant a farmer using the crop when he can get no returns from it."

STATE MATTERS OF INTEREST TO ALL

Digest Prepared in Office of the Secretary of State

Enforcement of the operators' and chauffeurs' registration act throughout the state has brought nearly a thousand drivers of automobiles under the severe financial responsibility act for the mere offense of being unlicensed, records of the Department of State show.

While the offense of driving an automobile while unlicensed is a mere misdemeanor, it so happens that one of the many provisions of the financial responsibility act is that anyone convicted of driving an automobile without a license shall be deprived of his right to drive until he qualifies under the act by filing evidence of ability to meet damage claims up to $11,000.

Orville E. Atwood, Secretary of State, believes this act is too severe in this respect. House bill No. 340, now in the house judiciary committee, would remove this offense from the list of those coming under the act. Louis R. Morony, director of the motor vehicle division, points out that public opinion against an otherwise meritorious law is being aroused because of the heavy and mandatory penalty which is imposed by those convicted of the relatively minor offense of driving a car without a license. Further, because of the requirement that licenses must be renewed every three years, the possibility that drivers may be unintentionally without a license increases as time passes.

Increase in collections of the automobile weight tax continues to attract attention in the Department of State. For the first three months of 1935, a total of $8,599,274.15 was collected, showing a gain of about 45 percent over the collections for the first quarter of 1934, when $5,927,299.80 was collected. Gasoline tax collections did not show a correspondingly large gain, but indications are plain that the use of gasoline will show a measurable increase later, because of the increase in the number of cars on the highways. For the first quarter of 1935, gas tax collections netted $4,234,906; for the corresponding period of 1934, the net total was $4,082,766.12.

329TH FIELD ARTILLERY WILL HOLD REUNION

The attention of all former members of the 329th Field Artillery, Custer division, is called to the 4th annual regimental reunions to be held at the Fort Shelby hotel, in Detroit, on Saturday and Sunday, May 4 and 5, according to E. J. Hanna, of Harbor Springs, publicity director and editor of "The 329th Barrage", regimental newspaper.

Registration will begin at noon on Saturday. Banquet and program at 6:30, followed by dancing in the ballroom. Sunday will be stag day. Party for the ladies at Greenfield Village at 1:30. Battery meetings from 2 to 3; regimental business meeting and election of officers at 3; a stag party with entertainment in the Spanish Grill at 8.

The 329th is one of Michigan's best known service outfits, being recruited from all parts of Michigan and serving valiantly in active warfare in France. On its return from France on the Leviathan, it was met by Governor Sleeper in New York harbor.

The officers of the association are George R. Loree, Penobscot building, Detroit, commander; Ernest A. Atkins, Royal Oak, vice commander; Alfred L. Burns, Detroit, adjutant; and Oscar Brady, Battle Creek, chaplain.

THE PURPOSE OF DEPOSIT INSURANCE

WHEN Congress created the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation its primary objective was the protection of depositors. This Corporation began insuring deposits January 1, 1934. It is a permanent organization.

It now insures deposits in a great majority of the banks. As a result, millions of depositors enjoy a degree of financial security heretofore unknown. When you have money on deposit you know for a certainty that your deposits up to $5,000 are fully safeguarded against loss. Deposit insurance is for your protection.

THE PURPOSE OF ADVERTISING

TO sell, and make a profit for you, just as the Deposit Insurance advertising has made a profit for the banks.

ing of the new five billion work relief bill recently. Of the five billion appropriated by Congress for its work relief program, three hundred million is to be used for "educational, clerical and professional persons". Due to the fact that the Freshman Colleges have proved themselves to be worth while, it is quite likely that Michigan's share of the three hundred million will be used for maintaining the Colleges. In fact, educational leaders of other states have studied and investigated the Michigan Freshman Colleges with the idea in mind of establishing similar institutions in their respective states. Thus, we see that Michigan once more leads the forty-eight states in improving and extending its educational facilities.
