UNDER THE STARS OPERA POSTPONED
"My Maryland" Will Begin This Week at Navin Field
 Opera Under the Stars in holding over the musical show "Rose Marie" for a second week automatically moves the dates of the other productions to a week later.
 "My Maryland" was scheduled to open last Saturday, but now it will open this coming Saturday, June 29. This is a very appropriate time in one respect as this show is definitely of a patriotic nature and July 4th, Independence Day, comes on Thursday of this production's week engagement.
 "My Maryland" is a stirring and romantic story of Civil War days dealing with the incident of Barbara Freitche waving the Union Flag in the faces of the Confederate troops. Romberg is responsible for the lovely melodies in this show, and the music ranks along with that of his other compositions, "Student Prince" and "Blossom Time" for its beauty.
 Helen Ford and Bartlett Simmons will be seen for the first time together playing the romantic leads of Barbara Freitche and Captain Trumbull. Leonard Ceeley will play the heavy role of Jack Negly. Nancy Welford, of stage and screen fame, will be seen for the first time, in the role of Sue Royce. Other leading roles will be played by Gracie Worth, Mary Rix, Hope Emerson, Robert Betts, Robert Long, Frank Gaby, Joseph Lertora, Bette Davis and Edith King.
 "My Maryland" is truly an American operetta with much of its music based on old American folksongs, its stirring song, "Your Land and My Land" has served to incite many a patriotic gathering. There are few scenes on the stage today as thrilling as that when the troops swing across the stage singing this number on the way to battle.
 There are many romantic melodies set against the colorful background and costumes of Maryland in the Sixties. Among the songs are "Silver Moon", "Strolling With the One I Love" and "Mother". Sigmund Romberg and Dorothy Donnelly, who created "The Student Prince", are responsible for the lyrics and book of this lovely musical gem.

DOGS NOT ALLOWED TO ROAM AT LARGE
 In an order issued Monday by Dr. C. H. Clark, state veterinarian, Oakland, Wayne, Macomb, Monroe and Washtenaw counties are designated as a restricted area from which no dog can be taken by automobile, train or other means without a permit. Dog owners are also warned that no dogs may be taken on the streets except on leash.

 The order is issued to prevent the spread of rabies to other parts of Michigan. Since Jan. 1 there have been 28 rabid dogs reported in Detroit and three since June 1. In the previous three years no cases at all were reported.
 Permits to take a dog out of the affected area may be obtained only if the dog has been vaccinated within six months preceding the issuance of the permit. These permits are obtainable from the sheriff.

IT'S AS Easy AS THIS..

PUT YOUR WHOLE MEAL IN DUTCH OVEN SUSAN AND plug INTO ANY CONVENIENCE OUTLET

Here is the easiest way in the world to cook the family dinner . . . and have the afternoon for yourself, for shopping or the theater or cards. Simply put your whole meal in Dutch Oven Susan and plug into any convenience outlet before you leave. It will cook a complete meal for a family of six—two vegetables, a roast, potatoes and gravy—while you are out. When you come home your dinner is waiting, perfectly cooked, piping hot and ready for the table.
 Dutch Oven Susan will do every cooking operation possible on a small stove. It will roast all cuts of meat to perfection; it will fry eggs, steaks, chops, etc.; it will bake cakes, pies, cookies, biscuits and muffins; and it will hold half-a-dozen pint jars when canning by the cold pack, hot water bath method. Yet it uses only about as much electricity per hour as an electric toaster. And it is so compact that it can be tucked away in a corner almost anywhere.
 Dutch Oven Susan is available in several styles and sizes—one to fit your needs exactly. The medium size model will roast a 10-pound ham, a 6-pound chicken, or a large leg of lamb. The large size will easily accommodate a 15½-pound turkey. And there is "Small Sister" Susan, an electric casserole, with a two-quart capacity. See this modern appliance on display at all Detroit Edison offices, Department Stores and Electrical Dealers.

For Homemakers

Low producers in the farm poultry flock can help cut the family food budget and home economics food specialists of Michigan State College recommend that such poultry be converted into delicious future meals by preserving them by canning.

Canning chicken requires little effort, and when properly done changes old hens into tender, well flavored meat.

The cut is continued to the pelvic bone and around the vent and the entire side is opened so the entrails can be removed easily.

After the legs and wings have been removed, the skin is opened from the wing opening toward the head and the windpipe, the crop, and gullet are taken out.

Remove the gall bladder from the liver without breaking it, and cut through the thick portion of the gizzard to remove the sack.

To pack, place one thigh, one drumstick, two wings, and the neck and the ribs in the center of the can. Cover with the back and the remaining pieces, add two teaspoonfuls of salt, but no liquid.

Salt the jars and place them in the pressure cooker, leaving the petcock open for seven minutes after the steam begins to escape.

ARRANGEMENTS MADE TO PUBLISH NEW LAWS legislature which were given immediate effect and signed by the governor, thus making them public acts, will have this information available by July 15.

HUNTERS AND TRAPPERS WARNED OF VIOLATIONS

Loss of license for at least a year may be an added penalty for violators of Michigan's small-game hunting and trapping laws.

The general game bill adopted by the 58th state legislature and signed by Governor Frank D. Fitzgerald, amends the game laws as follows:

"That any person convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of this act relating to small-game hunting and trapping shall not, if so ordered by the court, be eligible to secure and shall not secure a small game hunting and trapping license during remainder of the license year in which such person shall be so convicted and during the next succeeding year."

Postmaster-General Farley has been petitioned to issue a 3-cent commemorative to mark the opening of Boulder Dam which is expected to take place late this summer.

REMOTE TOWN NOW JOINED TO OUTSIDE WORLD BY WIRE

Far from the madding crowd, remote from railroads and cross-country highways, is located the town of Franklin, West Virginia, one of the most isolated communities in the country. Franklin is served by a local telephone company, and up to this year, despite the fact that it is the county seat, has had no telephone toll service with the outside world. Now a telephone line is being built between Franklin and Petersburg, about 30 miles away. When it is completed, four public telephone booths will be located in Franklin for the convenience of those desiring telephone communication with the outside world.

"The Real Thing Is Service"

"While of course rates are important, and while everybody wants service at the lowest possible charge, after all the real thing is service. If one had to choose between an unreliable telephone service at a low rate and a dependable and efficient service at a higher rate, can anyone doubt what the answer would be?"

William H. O'Brien, former Director of Telephone & Telegraph Division, Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities

WHITE LAKE

Funeral services for Alfred Brendel, whose death followed an automobile accident last Wednesday evening, were held at 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon at the White Lake church, Rev. George A. Hill officiating. The funeral was so largely attended that many had to remain standing.

The floral tributes were many and very beautiful as was fitting to honor a beautiful life.

Alfred had just passed his seventeenth birthday this month and next autumn would have been a Senior in the Holly High school.

He was a talented young pianist and just before leaving the house on the errand where he met his untimely death, he was playing the piano and enjoying a radio program.

Last Easter he united with the church. He was president of the C. E. society and manager of the Young Men's Athletic Club. He was pianist for the Sunday School and also sang in the choir for the Children's Day program the previous Sunday.

He won the esteem of old and young alike by his gentlemanly deportment.

Burial was in the family lot in White Lake cemetery.
