COMMENT AND CRITICISM

Perhaps one of the saddest kind of accidents occurring in our present day life is an automobile accident, especially if it is fatal to anyone. Loss of life is always depressing to the ones left to mourn. It is even more sorrowful when accompanied with a shock and an accident happens so quickly that a shock is always present. We try to be careful. We must try to be more careful. Crossing accidents today furnish such a decisive answer to that old question: What happens when an irresistible force hits an immovable object? A speed of 65 miles an hour is a speed of 243,200 feet an hour, 5720 feet a minute; and 95 1-3 feet a second. If this speed is being accomplished by a passenger train, with its tons of weight, it will nigh become an irresistible force, and will cause utter destruction to anybody or anything in its way. We try to be careful as we said before. We repeat that we must try to be even more careful. But the care should not be one-sided. Extra care should be expected and demanded of those moving a train at such a speed. With the almost universal use of automobiles today, one cannot be expected to know at what time a train is due, as even in our childhood days. Railroad crossings should be protected by light systems even if adjacent to a depot—all trains do not stop at depots nowadays. In consideration of public safety, a stop-light system should be erected at the Clarkston Station by the railroad company, and if they hesitate the State department of safety should demand it.

The news item of the past week, concerning the youth swimming in a nearby lake, who dove and tearing his stomach on a stub of an old post hidden in the water, had to be treated at a hospital for his injuries, perhaps has had something to do with the number of complaints given to the News concerning the dock or raft at Deer Lake. Surely it is a fact that old posts do protrude out of the ground sufficient to injure swimmers. As a solution it has been pointed out to the News that four air-tight barrels could easily and cheaply be secured from our garages, some lumber from the old Masonic Temple, perhaps a day's labor and probably a total cost of ten dollars would erect a decent raft, with no more liability to the Village than it now has over the unsafe raft in use.

For Homemakers

The combination of hot weather and the extra changes of clothing needed combine to make wash day dreaded by most women, but the drudgery of the day can be lightened by methods recommended by home economics specialists at Michigan State College.

Hard water is one of the bad features of wash day which can be avoided by the use of homemade water softeners. Trisodium phosphate and washing soda are two of the best softeners and cost the least. Lye and ammonia are not so desirable, and borax is expensive although it is especially suitable for washing wool and silk.

The amount of softener to use depends upon the hardness of the water. Soft water needs none, fairly soft water should be treated with one or two level teaspoonsful of sal soda or one of trisodium phosphate for each 10 gallons. Moderately hard water requires three or four teaspoonsful of sal soda or two of trisodium to each 10 gallons, and very hard water will need five to seven teaspoonsful of sal soda or four of trisodium for each 10 gallons.

The hardness of the water can be tested by adding not over a half spoonful of the softener to the amount of water needed for washing. Permit to stand for five minutes and then dip out and test a pint of the water with one or two teaspoonsful of soap. If suds form, the water is soft enough; if no suds form, add more softener and test again after allowing the softener time to react. When the proper amount of softener has been found, the amount can be recorded and used in the future.

The cost of the softener can not be charged as entire added expense because its use permits the saving of soap, more of which is required for laundering done with hard water.

STATE FAIR PLANS ASSURE BIG EVENT

Improved Economic Conditions To Be Reflected

Plenty of bustle and activity is visible at the State Fair Grounds these days as workmen make ready the premises and buildings for the 36th annual Michigan State Fair, Aug. 30 to Sept. 8.

"We have sound reasons for predicting that the 1935 State Fair will be the finest in Michigan's history," declares George A. Prescott, Jr., secretary of the State Fair Board.

"A Fair, like any other enterprise, should show annual progress—and it certainly will if general economic conditions are favorable.

"Those two basic barometers of Michigan's economic status—automobile output and farm crop income—justify, at the present reading, our optimism.

"The automotive industry is from 30 to 35 per cent more active this year than last. It is the leader in the nation's industrial upturn.

"Michigan's 1934-35 crop income is 41 per cent higher than in the 1933-34 season. This means that our farmers are $40,000,000 richer this year than last.

"We expect to have unusually fine automotive and other industrial exhibits at the Fair this year, and we are offering every possible inducement to farmers to exhibit their championship-calibre livestock and other farm products.

"Awards totalling $65,000 are offered to winners in the various exhibits and contests.

"Livestock and agricultural exhibits can only be entered by residents of Michigan. This restriction encourages the smaller exhibitors to make a bid for prizes. Often they are discouraged from competing when they know they will be opposed by big exhibitors from other states who frequently go on tour with their championship stock and products."

A great variety of "human interest" contests and entertainment features have been arranged by the board of managers for this year's Fair.

Contests include horse-pulling, milking, sheep-shearing, hog calling, husband calling, and many others.

Boys and girls belonging to Michigan's 4-H clubs have readied a great variety of farm products and livestock to be entered in the hope of winning some of the $9,000 prizes offered these junior agriculturists, according to A. G. Kettunen, state 4-H club leader.

As usual the 4-H clubs will choose the "healthiest boy and girl in Michigan."

Approximately $800 will be awarded in the Better Babies contest, conducted by the Michigan State Board of Health in the Woman's Building.

Another attractive feature from the woman's viewpoint, will be the two kitchens—old-time and modern—in the main building which is devoted to domestic science, canning, household decoration, etc. One kitchen will be furnished in the style of 1835. The second will be a modern 1885 kitchen.

George A. Prescott, Jr., secretary of the Fair, has been a member of the Fair Board for the past ten years. He is a son of the late George A. Prescott, one-time secretary of state.

SPRINGFIELD GIRL WEDS KENTUCKIAN

Rites Solemnized Last Saturday Evening

The home of Mrs. Mabel Butler of Springfield was the scene of a very pretty wedding last Saturday evening when her niece, Miss Catherine Conway, daughter of Mrs. Blanche Conway, became the bride of Frank L. Stewart, of Winchester, Ky., and Detroit.

About thirty-five guests from Detroit, Clarkston and Canada witnessed the ceremony which was performed out-of-doors.

The bride was lovely in a blue net gown with matching accessories, and a corsage bouquet of roses, sweet peas and baby's breath.

Her only attendant was Mrs. Charles Gaeta of Detroit, who was matron-of-honor. She was dressed in a pink suit with matching accessories.

Charles Gaeta of Detroit assisted the groom.

A lovely wedding supper was served at a table which presented quite a picture with its miniature brides and grooms and large candelabra.

The happy couple left for Winchester, Kentucky, to spend a couple of weeks with Mr. Stewart's parents. On their return they will reside in Detroit.

HOLLY THEATRE

The way of the United States Government against the master criminals of the nation has been made into a thrilling drama by First National Pictures, and with James Cagney in the stellar role, will open at the Holly Theatre on Sunday.

The picture follows the career of one of these "G Men" from the time he joined the federal service, through his training period, through machine gun battles with gangsters to a thrilling climax in which he finally rounds up, and exterminates, a gang of murderous kidnapers.

Cagney depicts the "G Man" who set the deadly trap for the mad dog of the mobs and brought the "Big Shot", whom no jail could hold, to an ignominious death.

Opposite him is charming Margaret Lindsay.

Ann Dvorak portrays a night club entertainer who is in love with Cagney, but who, when her affection is not returned, marries a gangster. The role affords her another opportunity to sing and dance for which she displayed surprising ability recently in Rudy Vallee's film "Sweet Music".

In her new starring Paramount film, "Goin' to Town", which comes Wednesday to the Holly Theatre, Mae West undergoes the strange and eventful transition from a bronchial-busting cowgirl to the sweetheart of society in Southampton, without losing her poise or her wise-cracking ability.

Mae West's adventures in "Goin' to Town", which presents her in modern clothes, and up-to-date settings, start way back in the cattle country when she inherits the money of a cattle baron, and decides to go after a handsome young Englishman on whom she had an eye for some time.

The pursuit of the Englishman, Paul Cavanaugh, leads her to Buenos Aires where the exciting and humorous horse-racing sequence takes place. Then they go back to the States and Southampton, the stronghold of society.

Mae West marries a handsome young society man to attain position. But the efforts of fortune hunters and the jealousy of her rivals make things hot for her until Cavanaugh returns to the scene to tell her that he had loved her all the time.

VARIED PROGRAM AT MILFORD FAIR

Instruction and Entertainment Both to Be Provided

Oakland County counts among its inhabitants some of the most skilled and most successful farmers and stockmen in the state. As producers of purebred stock, as dairymen, as seedsmen, they take rank among the best in Michigan, as well as throughout the nation.

Their sons and daughters show equal skill in animal husbandry, crop improvement and economic venture. 4-H Clubs scattered throughout the rural sections, backed up by agricultural courses ably taught in nearly every village and small city of the county, form a network of advanced agricultural and social outposts.

The County Fair is primarily designed to provide opportunity for the youth of the county to demonstrate its prowess along economic and home improvement lines. These are augmented by adult producers in many lines of effort.

But no fair would be complete without entertainment and amusement. The management of the Oakland County Fair, which will be held at Milford, August 7-10, promises this in abundance. It will be clean and wholesome, recreational and uplifting.

TRIPLE FUNERAL HELD MONDAY

Services Were for Martin Beardsley and His Two Daughters Who Were Killed in Accident Last Saturday

The whole of Independence Township and in fact, the most of Northern Oakland County was saddened last Saturday afternoon when Martin Beardsley and his two daughters, Viola and Dorothy, met their death at the railroad crossing at the Clarkston station when a west-bound Grand Trunk passenger train struck their car. We are informed that the train which was due at 2:55 was a few minutes late and consequently was traveling at a high rate of speed. The automobile which was carried from the crossing past the station was entirely demolished and the three passengers, as far as can be learned, were killed instantly and their bodies were carried for some distance. Special Deputy Edward Seeterlin was the first to arrive at the scene and he immediately got in touch with the sheriff's office.

Mr. Beardsley was born at Sashabaw Plains Dec. 27, 1887, the son of Robert and Ellen Van Wagoner Beardsley. When he was seven years old the family moved to Seymour Lake, where he has lived ever since, except for about two years spent in the west. In 1911 he married Bertha Divine of Holly. She passed away on Dec. 28, 1934. Mr. Beardsley lived on what is known to a great many people as the Bush farm, which is located on the town line dividing Brandon and Independence Townships. Having farmed in this section for so many years Mr. Beardsley was known to the whole community and had a very large circle of friends. He was an active member in the Seymour Lake Methodist church and had served as trustee for a number of years.

Viola Ruth was born June 30, 1921, and Janette Dorothy was born April 9, 1925. Both attended the Seymour Lake school and were active members in the Seymour Lake Sunday school and also in the 4-H club. On account of their happy and unselfish dispositions they were loved by all of their young friends.

The high esteem in which the Beardsley family is held was evidenced on Monday afternoon when a very large crowd gathered to pay their last respects. A short prayer service was held at 2:30 p. m. at the Ogdan Funeral Home for the relatives, and at three o'clock services were held at the Seymour Lake Methodist church with Rev. C. E. Edwards officiating. The pall-bearers for Mr. Beardsley were William Smith, William Edwards, William Belitz, Alex Solley, Stanley Solley and Lee Porritt. The pall-bearers for Viola and Dorothy were Robert Draper, Harry Edwards, Stanley Irish, Forrest Irish, Harry Porritt, Marvin Porritt, Clark Miller, Glen O'Berry, George Miller, Don Draper, Allan Solley and Donald Sraace.

It was very touching, indeed to see the little girl friends, all members of the same Sunday school class line up as honorary pall-bearers to see their play-mates carried to their final resting-place. What is sweeter and purer than the love of one child for another. These young girls' hearts were saddened beyond words. They lined up as follows, Janet and Honor Stieckey, Millicent and Edna Solley, Betty Draper, Velma McIntyre, Lois Scott, Dorothy Greenwald, Opal Workman, Doris Bantzen, Helena Yoh and Beryl Volland.

Before being taken from the church Mr. Beardsley and his two daughters rested in a bower of flowers. On each casket was a gorgeous pillow and two beautiful sprays from relatives and neighbors, while about them were approximately thirty-five beautiful baskets and twenty or twenty-five lovely sprays.

Interment was in Seymour Lake cemetery.

Three other children survive. They are Ellen, Robert and Frederick, all at home. Mr. Beardsley leaves one brother, Arthur, of Clarkston, to mourn his loss.

Seymour Lake has lost a farmer of sterling character and two young girls who were just enjoying every minute of their lives. They will be missed by the whole community.

It has been officially announced that Michigan is to have a commemorative stamp marking the centennial anniversary of the adoption of the first state Constitution November 1, 1835. The new stamp will appear November 1, purple in color and the same size as our present special delivery. The design has not been selected as yet but the landing of Cadillac at Detroit was the favored design being discussed last year. However there were other good suggestions at that time and among them a map of the entire state as unique in its two peninsulas and bearing the state motto. Regardless of design it will represent our state and few indeed are the native born who are not proud of "Michigan, My Michigan".

The State Historical Society and the Michigan Centennial Joint Committee will submit the design subject to the approval of the Post Office Department. The stamps will be on first day sale at Lansing, November 1, and at the Philatelic Agency in Washington and elsewhere throughout the country November 2.

We are running a sale on MARKERS all this month. Two for $42.50; over 150 to select from in 13 kinds of granite. Don't be deceived; come and see. MILFORD GRANITE CO. Milford, Mich. Office and Works foot Main St.

Here is the most complete cooking appliance of its kind on the market. It will do every cooking operation possible on a small stove.
