People living in most of the Montgomery Ward Homes in the McFarland Subdivision have been given notice to vacate the places by the end of this month. What this is for we know not but we are up on our tea-table very attractive gossip.

The other day the question came up as to who owned the truck recently purchased (by whom?) to serve as a chemical truck in fighting fires. No one seemed to have any information, that is correct information, on the subject and I was asked to explain details. My explanation was that if the Council Proceedings had family moved to Clarkston. been published according to law everyone would have known. Without forcing our ideas may we present this question. Every family in this village takes one, two or three papers a day for general information; every individual in the same district keeps advised of his own financial standing; all should be, and are interested, in the way their tax money is spent, and still unless they go to council each meeting they know nothing about this important subject. The cost would probably be (based on the number of tax receipts) just a few cents a year per family. Please understand, we are not kicking about neighboring school how the money is spent (I believe Clarkston and one other town have the lowest tax rate in the state, so there is no room for objection there). If you are willing to add a few cents a year to your tax bill to be kept advised of the official proceedings instead of relying on rumor why not tell the village dads about it.

On Tuesday evening the Clarkston Junior Literary Club met at the home of Mrs. Charles Rockwell.

There were 12 members and one guest, Miss Ailene Haviner, present. After the regular business meeting several splendid papers were given. Mrs. Russell Walter gave a very interesting paper on "Madonna of the Chair" by Raphael. Another one which proved very instructive was "Holland's Social Life" given by Mrs. Robert Jones. Mrs. Earl Terry then told the story of "The Gleaners" by Millet. A paper on "Painting" was given by Miss Mary Jacobus and one of "Life in Cuba" was given by Mrs. Howard Lord. HOLLY THEATRE

Teaming two of the greatest figfingers on weak spots in their proures on the screen today in a story that is literally the great American drama and a cross-section of average life in this nation, "Ah Wilderness!" Eugene O'Neill's great drama of family life, adolescent love, and the march of the years, comes Sunday to the Holly Theatre.

Wallace Beery stars as Uncle Sid the lovable, ineffectual inebriate, one of O'Neill's most human characters, with Lionel Barrymore as the father, Nat Miller, the roles played on the stage respectively by George Cohan and the late Will Rogers.

The cast, hand-picked, is as un usual as, the gripping story itself. The two high school lovers are played by Eric Linden and Cecelia Parker. Lily, the pathetic aunt, is played by Aline MacMahon. Charles Grapewin, veteran character actor, Mickey Rooney, boy comedian of "Midsummer Night's Dream", Frank Albertson, Spring Byington, Helen Flint, Bonita Granville, Edward Nugent, are others, in the list of > > Facts and figures were given and discussed by Mr. Gale and Mr Wrenn, city engineer of Pontiac. A general bond would be issued by the government which would be self liquidating. At the present time the Government would grant 45% of the cost by PWA work and 55% would have to be borrowed. The latter to be paid in thirty years. It is estimated that the system would cost one hrundred and seven thousand dollars. This would include pumps tanks, mains, meters and fire hydrants. There would be two pumps, one located at North St. and the other at Clintonville Rd. For emergency, one pump is run by gasoline and the other by electricity. If at any time one or the other pump gives out the other pump is ready. Surplus water would be kept in storage tanks in case of fire, and it also puts the pressure on the water in the mains using less electricity.

It was also estimated that it would cost $34.00 to the property owner to run water from the main to the house, also a minimum charge of $3.00 per quarter for the average home, which pays back the 55% debt. Petitions were given out so that all who are in favor of the water system can sign.

A Visit to a Dancing Studio Last Saturday afternoon I visited there at C. H. S.? the dancing studio of Babe Kelley. There were about twenty young stars, all of whom were learning to tap dance. Mrs. Kelley has been busy lately in an effort to make ready her more advanced students for the Fisher Body Minstrel Show. There were many attractive girls in training for the forthcoming show, and they all are working hard to make the show a success. We all wish them luck.

Art in Domestic Science

The Domestic Science seamstresse are making towels of every color and description. The girls are also embroidering on one end of the towel, with no two designs alike. As for the use of the towels, the girls are either putting them into a hope must have overlooked our janitor !!! rest or giving them to their mothers. Their next project will be pajamas, which will probably be seen on the beach this summer.

Help the Teachers

I wonder if any of you have no ticed the group who flock to the library every hour of the day and every day of the week for books and magazines. Everybody fights for the new magazines when they come. Many times there are four or five people at the library all at once. Many times the teacher has asked them to ask permission to go to the library but many students do not pay a great deal of attention to her. Let's all co-operate in this room since we are the highest grade in the home session room. Perhaps others will follow suit.

The current magazines for boys and girls contain much interesting information as well as many good stories. These magazines usually have a separate section for contributions of poems, stories and drawings by the boys and girls. For these, prizes are sometimes given to the best in each group. This teaches the children to write neatly and to punctuate and spell correctly. There are also historic events that keep the boys' and girls' minds alert to the world and its doings. Occasionally there are anecdotes or funny stories. In these magazines there are plans for parties and the games and menu to go with them. They advertise the leading products which are to our especial benefit. There are many recipes which are always the best. As you turn the pages you will find things to make and sometimes some tricks to play on your friends. Some of the most popular of these magazines are "St. Nicholas," "Playmate." "Child Life," "Hygeia," "Children's Activities," "Tiny Tow-"American Boy," "Youth's er." Companion" and "American Girl." Elaine Waterbury.
