COMMENT CRITICISM

It is spring and the magazine salesman is again at our door. Yesterday a young man with a collegiate sweater and minus hat started to Geo. King. give us his usual story and was stopped long enough to allow us to inform him of the two salesmen, last Young People Active year, who landed in the prosecutor's office. Not the least bit abashed, this young man stated that he would call on the school authority at once, excused himself, went to the Winn Residence, but didn't knock at the door, from there he cut across the field, passed Seeterlin's and over to Deer Lake-So, I guess he had something to hide or else did not feel that Clarkston was such a good place to try and fake the college student Somehow, without wishing anyone harm, it has nevertheless occurred to me that some of these tricky auto carriers would be in deep trouble if they had to load or unload without and they all had a good time and accommodations-and what would happen if they ever tipped over. And now I know that they are so loaded that the cargo "can take it" without at 8:00 o'clock with the vice-president damage. On Thursday we saw a carrier with a double decker load of new Buicks, one overhanging the truck young people to attend this meeting. hauling the carrier. In attempting to pass a sleepy driver who was using the whole road, the driver turned into the ditch on the wrong side of the road. The weight and probably the speed nearly buried the motor and hood in the bank of the ditch, but the cars were taking it well, in fact I doubt if one had become loosened.

Legion and Auxiliary Met on Tuesday Eve.

Rochester Were Hosts

The Campbell-Richmond Post No 63 of the American Legion and the Auxiliary met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Rosenquist in Roch-

There was a splendid attendance nd both organizations enjoyed very fine business meetings. Many plans for future activities were discussed and when the preliminary details are completed the dates will be announced.

At the close of the evening a deightful co-operative lunch was served. Mrs. James Saylor assisted Mrs. Rosenquist.

HOLLY THEATRE

No matter how much you liked "Naughty Marietta," that musical sensation of 1935, you're sure to like "Rose Marie" even more. Again costarring Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy, this Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production is coming to the Holly Theatre Sunday.

Like its forerunner, "Rose Marie" was directed by W. S. Van Dyke and produced by Hunt Stromberg, who again combined their talents to give this picture one of the finest productions to come out of Hollywood in a long time.

Replete with haunting music, a tender love story, magnificent photography and backgrounds, it is truly the film sensation of the year.

Miss MacDonald plays the name role, an opera star who travels disguised into the wilds in search of her dissolute brother, a criminal from Nelson Eddy portrays Sergeant Bruce, as fine a "Mountie" as ever rode a horse. Assigned to bring the criminal to justice, there is the thrust of personal duty when these two meet and fall in love.

With all its outdoor scenes made against natural backgrounds of surpassing beauty in the mountain-lake country of the Sierra Nevadas/"Rose Marie" is a pictorial work of art. The musical numbers are brilliant-

A strong supporting cast includes James Stewart, Reginald Owen,

Changes Made In School Faculty

Mrs. William Dunston who has been a teacher in the Clarkston school for the past nine years is retiring from teaching and Mrs. William Vliet will have charge of the 5th school term. Starting in September Miss Betty J. Elzinga of Ellsworth, Michigan will have charge of the 5th and 6th grades and also teach music. Miss Elzinga has an A. B. degree and is well qualified for the position.

Miss Ellen Strom of Grand Marais vill fill the vacancy caused by the Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rosenquist of retirement of Mrs. Charles Hutton, who has had charge of the Kindergarten and the first grade for the last six years. The little kiddies as well as the whole community will miss Mrs. Hutton a great deal.

Both teachers are experienced and come to the Clarkston school very well recommended

The Miracle Becomes a Commonplace

This Michigan gentleman takes modern telephone service calmly. He does no marveling over the fact that he can so easily call up a-friend to ask about a sledding party, or to find out tomorrow's assignment in arithmetic.

And yet his father knew a day when it was still considered a miracle that two people, miles apart, could talk to one another just as if they were standing face to face. He can remember when the telephone was a curiosity, when the service was slow, expensive and almost entirely restricted to local use. What changed the miracle to a commonplace? Why did telephones in Michigan, during a single generation, increase from 340,000 to 630,000? The chief factor behind this change was value. A constantly growing usefulness made the telephone a good "buy." Each year additional thousands of people found it worth more than it cost. Every new telephone installed broadened the rangeand value-of the others. The service grew steadily more prompt, more dependable. New uses were found for it. Subscribers learned that it brought them profitable convenience, comfort, protection. And the telephone, meanwhile, changed from a curiosity to an indispensable part of the social and business life of Michigan.

The sincere desire of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company is that each year shall see greater telephone value rendered for every dollar of telephone cost.
