COMMENT AND CRITICISM

We agree with you perfectly. It was a fight and the results were different than we had expected. But we have yet to hear anyone who was not pleased with the way things turned out. Not but what Louis is looked upon as a coming fighter, but a set-back now and then is good for one and the last fight will probably teach Louis the error of some of his fighting ways and improve his style. Provided, always, you are interested in seeing one improve to the extent that with a few blows he can knock another human unconscious.

And now the National Convention of the Democrats (we refuse to join so many papers who are calling it a circus, because we refuse to believe that anything having to do with the conduct of our government is a show or anything else of an amusement nature) is in progress at Philadelphia. We are pleased to note that the Democrats are standing squarely behind the "New Deal", and are making an issue of that stand. After all the majority is supposed to rule and it will be interesting to find out whether the majority of the people of these United States are following the school of thought which is represented by the present administration or whether the majority wants to "ditch both the "Old Guard" and the "New Deal" and substitute a "New Deck".

And now for that "Third Party". When Caesar started to mobilize his army, when Napoleon created his saviors of France, when Hitler became the actual ruler of Germany, the man force was recruited from people who did not believe the organized rule was in existence. There are those who honestly believe that their plans are better than those of the material being used to construct the platforms of the solid organized parties. Maybe so but America is rather hard on third parties and independent candidates. In fact, such an organized party as the socialists have gathered few votes because the population believes that it is better to try and pick the better of the two parties than to waste a vote on confidence for the new party.

We make this explanation to save our face when that time comes that we solicit political ads, and our explanation consists of the statement that some people will be undecided as to how they will vote right up to election time and it pays to advertise to reach them—but if you want to save yourself many violent headaches, decide NOW how you will vote and forget the whole matter.

We regret our inability to check this rumor but it seems that Officer Kimball stopped into the gas station operated by Frank Petty and asked some aid of Frank. While Frank was aiding, a speeder went thru Clarkston and instinct caused Floyd to give chase. When he stopped, two miles along the way, Frank got off the rear of the car and rode back in the car to town.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Were Hosts Sunday

Kneale Reunion Held and Anniversary Celebrated

Last Sunday relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Spencer gathered at the Spencer home on North Main Street for the Kneale family reunion and to help Mr. and Mrs. Spencer celebrate their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

About forty-three guests enjoyed the pot-luck dinner that was served at two o'clock on the spacious and beautiful grounds at the rear of the house. The remainder of the afternoon was spent visiting and as these events only happen once a year they all had plenty to talk about.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer received some very lovely gifts and the best wishes of all their guests. Among the gifts was a gift of silver from their sons and daughter.

Guests were present from Detroit, Pontiac, Davisburg, Waterford and Andersonville.

Starrings Celebrate 53rd Anniversary

Members of Family Meet and Have Picnic Dinner

Last Sunday was a happy day for Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Starrings. Their children and their families and her sister and her husband assembled and helped them celebrate their 53rd wedding anniversary.

About three o'clock in the afternoon the group went from the Starrings home on Orion Road to the State Park at Ortonville and had a lovely picnic dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Starrings were presented with some beautiful gifts. As it was Father's Day as well Mr. Starrings received some personal gifts from the children.

Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Starrings and son Douglas of Rochester, and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Starrings and family, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Starrings and family and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Starrings and family, all of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Miller of Clarkston.

During the day Mr. and Mrs. Starrings were surprised and delighted when Mr. and Mrs. Henry Howser of Ann Arbor made a short visit. Mrs. Howser was one of the little girls who was present at the Starrings wedding. Of all the guests at the wedding there are only five still living.

Dr. C. J. Sutherland Attends Reunion

14 of the '91 Class Meet at Ann Arbor

Last Friday Dr. C. J. Sutherland went to Ann Arbor and attended the reunion of the medic class of '91.

There were 101 graduates in this class and of this number only 42 are left and 14 were able to attend this meeting. These reunions are held at Ann Arbor every five years.

It was a busy day and a happy day. They enjoyed a noon luncheon and then held their regular business meeting and in the evening a very lovely banquet was held. Each one present gave a little talk and letters from the absentees were read.

Many former Ann Arbor graduates are finding time to visit the college town this year consequently they are having the largest attendance of alumni members at the reunions that they have had in the last ten years.

Barnhart-Williams Church Wedding

Miss Ernestine Barnhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Barnhart of Drayton Plains, became the bride of Charles H. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams of White Lake, on Friday, June 19th, in the Community United Presbyterian Church at Drayton Plains.

Palms, ferns and baskets of garden flowers decorated the altar and Rev. C. J. Sutton performed the ceremony in the presence of a large group of friends.

The bride on the arm of her father and bridal party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March played by Mrs. L. G. Rowley. Miss Barnhart chose for her wedding gown a white flat crepe and wore a veil of tulle which fell from a wreath of wax orange blossoms and a spray of tiny orange buds was worn at the V neck of her gown. She carried a shower of Ophelia roses, white and tearose snapdragons.

Miss Fern Hockey of Oakland Lake, maid of honor, wore a lovely yellow organdie over yellow satin, and a large yellow hat and white accessories. Her corsage was of the same flowers used for the bridal bouquet. Betty Barnhart, niece of the bride, was the ring bearer and wore a pale pink taffeta.

Osmun Barnhart, brother of the bride, acted as best man. "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly" were played following the service. June and Junette, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Osmun Barnhart acted as ushers.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served in the church dining room. Mrs. Carl Kruger, Mrs. Floyd Wilson and Mrs. Ransom Robb were in charge of the dinner.

The couple left immediately for a boat trip to Niagara Falls and Buffalo, and on their return will reside at 2742 Riverside Drive.

Mrs. Williams was born in Pontiac and is a graduate of the Pontiac High School in the class of 1935.

LICENSE PLATES GO AT HALF PRICE

Date for Beginning of Sale Is Next Wednesday

On Wednesday, July 1, automobile license plates for 1936 will go on sale at half price. The plates will be available from that date on at the Department of State and all branch offices throughout Michigan. J. Lee Montgomery, branch manager at Holly, will be ready to serve applicants on the date specified.

Cars that have been on the highways with 1935 plates have been equipped with 1936 half-year permits or "stickers". Cars placed in operation on the highways prior to July 1 must be equipped either with half-year permits or with 1936 plates purchased at full price, it is pointed out.

Owners of cars which have been equipped with half-price "stickers" have had at all times the privilege of purchasing 1936 plates upon payment of the balance of the 1936 license plate tax. But in any event, all operated motor vehicles must be equipped with 1936 license plates by midnight, July 31. No extension of time can be granted without express action by the legislature, and none was granted last year.

All motorists are urged to replace their "stickers" with 1936 plates as soon as possible, as an accommodation to themselves. It is not physically possible to accommodate everyone in one day, or in several days. Motorists are asked to have their "sticker" registration certificates with them when they apply for their 1936 plates.

An indication of the certain volume of application for plates is given by the fact that on June 18, a total of 446,145 motor vehicles were equipped with "stickers".

Coming Events

June 26th—Friday evening the Ladies' Aid of the Andersonville Church will sponsor a silk sock social at the church house. Serving will start at 6:30 o'clock. Everybody is invited.

District Meeting Held Last Thursday

Local Group Presents Comedy Skit

Last Thursday the Royal Neighbors held their district convention at the Board of Commerce in Pontiac. The Pontiac group was host.

The business sessions opened at ten o'clock in the morning and at two in the afternoon. Mrs. Jessie L. Mitchell, chairman of the board of supreme managers, Mrs. Carrie Wait of Flint and Mrs. Marie Wyss of Pontiac, district deputies were special guests.

The Flint and Pontiac camps put on ritualistic work in the afternoon and following the banquet in the evening a very fine and varied program was enjoyed. A group from Flint presented a fancy drill and then enacted Amos and Ruby's wedding. This was real funny and furnished many good laughs. A group of Pontiac women put on a mock wedding and this kept the crowd in an uproar. One of the Pontiac juvenile members favored the assembly with a roller-skating act and a tap dancing act.

Both numbers were greatly appreciated. Of course the ladies from Clarkston had to do their bit so they presented a short comedy skit which sent some of the audience home with aching jaws. It was the old story of the three maiden ladies who decided they would like to get married and all three fell in love with the deacon much to the disgust of the members of the Ladies' Aid society. The three maiden ladies were Mrs. Clarence Smith, Mrs. Edward O'Roark and Mrs. Kennedy while the part of the deacon was played by Mrs. Percy Craven. The Ladies' Aid society consisted of Mrs. Walter Ash, Mrs. Ben Comstock, Mrs. William Belitz and Mrs. Ray Anthony, all of Clarkston and Mrs. Barnes and Miss Hangee of Waterford. Mrs. John Shaughnessy was a very competent colored maid. This group had a good time doing their part on the program and they thoroughly enjoyed the other numbers.

Floyd C. Ainsley Visits for a Day

Is Honored at Family Dinner at Glenn Kerton's Home

Last Tuesday Floyd C. Ainsley of Seattle, Wash., arrived in Clarkston and stayed long enough to say "Hello" to all of his relatives. The home of his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kerton was his headquarters.

In the evening a delicious dinner was served to the members of the family, including his father, Clarence Ainsley, and Mr. and Mrs. David Beals and daughter of Williams Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ainsley and family of Clarkston, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ainsley of Pontiac.

Other guests who arrived later in the evening and enjoyed a few happy hours were, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kerton of Detroit and Mrs. Florence Miller of Clarkston.

Clarkston Locals

Miss Gertrude Bird of Ypsilanti has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hubble announce the engagement of their daughter, Eunice to Arnold Irelan of Pontiac. The wedding will take place some time this month.

The Bible Class of the Clarkston Methodist Sunday School went to the State Park at Ortonville and had a delightful picnic. They left town about 4:30 and on arriving at the Park they met Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Edwards, who enjoyed the picnic supper and a few social hours with them.

HOLLY THEATRE

There have been lots of pictures that were hailed as favorable comparisons to "It Happened One Night". It is admitted, however, that none really came up to the high standard of romantic comedy that Capra set with that prize-winning film.

Now, with his inimitable magic touch, Capra has brought forth another "It Happened One Night", a gay, charming Cinderella story called "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town", which is playing next Tuesday at the Holly Theatre with Gary Cooper and Jean Arthur in the leading roles.

Gary Cooper is said to give a performance that will make fans sit up and take notice. Always a great favorite with the movie-going public, Cooper in this film emerges an entirely fresh personality, full of charm and good-humor.

Jean Arthur, who plays the feminine lead opposite Cooper, continues to fulfill every expectation of her boosters. In the short space of a year, Miss Arthur has clambered up the ladder to stardom with startling rapidity. In "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town" she cements her future as an important screen personality.

"Mr. Deeds Goes to Town" tells the story of Longfellow Deeds, a rustic young man who suddenly falls heir to $20,000,000 and goes to New York City against his will to claim his money. The adventures that befall him are said to make for some of the choicest hilarity the screen has seen in years.

He gets mixed up with a girl newspaper reporter; goes out on a roaring drunk; feeds doughnuts to a horse to see how many the animal will eat before asking for a cup of coffee; dashes madly around the city streets in his underwear; tries to give his entire fortune away to needy farmers; and manages to get himself arrested as mentally incompetent.

On Monday, Miss Virginia Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Clark, received her bachelor of science degree in home economics at Michigan State Normal College commencement in Ypsilanti. Miss Clark graduated with a high standing. She will teach, next year, at Sand Creek near Adrian.

Geddes-Coe Rites Read Last Friday

Last Friday evening at eight o'clock at the Central Methodist church in Pontiac Miss Alda Mary Geddes, daughter of Mrs. Howard Fairman, became the bride of Orson Coe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coe of Walled Lake. Rev. Dunning Idle officiated.

The bride who was given away by her father, George Geddes, was gowned in white organza and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses and baby's breath. Her only attendant was Mrs. Edna Newton of Detroit as bridesmaid. She was dressed in pink organza and carried a bouquet of pink roses and delphinium.

Mr. Coe was assisted by Edward Whipple of Clarkston.
After the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home on Whittmore St. in Pontiac.

The couple left for a motor trip in the east and on their return they will reside in Clarkston.

Hospital Tag Day Saturday, June 27th

Miss Nell Barry Is Chairman in Clarkston and Vicinity

Again on Saturday we will have brought to our minds those verses in the Bible that tell us to do good unto all men and let us not be weary in our well-doing for "whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap". Some time during the day one of the tag-day workers for the St. Joseph Mercy hospital clinic will knock at your door or stop you on the street and ask for help.

The workers feel quite confident that you realize what a worthwhile work is being done by this clinic and they know that you are willing to do what you can to help purchase medicine and equipment that these "Angels of Mercy", the nurses and the doctors may relieve the sick.

Those who helped in former years will be proud to know they had a part when they learn that according to the 1935 clinic report 4360 children and adults were taken care of in some way in the clinic. Of this number 273 of these were children who received medical care; 441 children had eye tests and were furnished with glasses; 676 children had ear, nose or throat treatment; 371 received dental attention; 438 crippled children received medical aid; and 216 clinic patients were admitted to the hospital for treatment for various diseases.

These figures have been given to you because the workers feel that you are interested in knowing just what good your contribution is doing. What could be more satisfying than the fact that you helped make the way easier for some sick person.

The workers in Clarkston and vicinity are; Miss Nell Barry, chairman, Mrs. G. A. Walter, Mrs. L. F. Walter, Mrs. Joseph Seeterlin, Mrs. Edward Seeterlin, Mrs. F. E. Davies, Mrs. Durand Ogden, Mrs. Wm. H. Stamp, Mrs. Wm. Watson, Mrs. G. D. King, Mrs. W. S. Barrows, Mrs. C. W. Russell, Mrs. Milan Viet, Mrs. H. LaVigne, Mrs. John DeLind and Miss Edna Alger.

CENTENNIAL YEAR WILL BE OBSERVED

Davisburg Plans Big Event on Saturday, August 8

Davisburg will become host to her friends and descendants of her first settlers on Saturday, August 8, in a Centennial celebrating the arrival of the pioneers, Cornelius Davis and his son-in-law, Isaac J. Losee, who settled there one hundred years ago.

For nearly fifty years descendants of the two pioneer families have returned annually for a "Davis Cousins picnic." The community has also for several years manifested the lure of friendships which have been distinctive of the locality by holding numerous well attended Homecomings. This year all the groups have combined for a grand Centennial, with preparations under the general chairmanship of Will Garrison, assisted by Mrs. Addie Line and Floyd H. Losee. Other committees are:

Finance: Ward Rohm, chairman; Brydon D. Horton, Floyd H. Losee, Manley D. Davis.

Memorial Tablet: Eli J. Davis, Floyd H. Losee, Will Davis.

Mrs. C. E. Cooke is chairman of the large committee preparing the program.

Davisburg, like much of Oakland county, was settled by New Englanders, who, in the early 1830's, contracted the "Michigan Fever." While improved means of travel in late years have brought changes to these parts, there are still many who can trace direct relationship to some of the first families in and about Davisburg, who, besides the names of Davis and Losee included Fuller, Gross, Stannard, Walls, Day, Bigelow, Frisbee, Friday, Sargent, Green, Watson, Foster, Bronidge and others.

A feature of the Centennial will be the unveiling of a memorial tablet honoring the two pioneers. The tablet is to be placed on a boulder taken from the original Losee homestead which will have a site near the town hall in Davisburg. Frank G. Ely, former Davisburg merchant, now of Pontiac, will give the dedicatory address.

While a complete program will remain for later announcement, it is assured that the picnic dinner in the grove at Davisburg Park will not be the least among the attractions at the Centennial.

The strawberry season in this locality was greatly shortened by the cold weather and lack of rain.

Waterford

Last Friday evening a very pretty wedding took place at the Waterford church at eight-thirty when Miss Florence Ethel Eddy became the bride of Howard George Peterson of Ferndale. Rev. Howard Jewell officiated.

Miss Eddy was given away by her father, Thomas Eddy. She looked lovely in a gown of white crepe and carrying a bouquet of roses. The matron-of-honor, Mrs. Gordon Boeneman, was gowned in blue.

The groom was assisted by Gordon Boeneman.

The church was uniquely decorated. Roses and ferns were used in profusion and the only lights were those at each side of the altar and the one on the piano.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddy are residents of Ferndale, but the bride's parents are spending the summer at Williams Lake.

The Good Will Club was delightfully entertained on Friday at the home of Mrs. J. R. Blakeslee. At one o'clock eight guests enjoyed a two course luncheon served at an attractive table centered with California poppies. In the afternoon the president, Mrs. H. B. Mehlberg, conducted a short business meeting. Plans were made for the July picnic to be held at the home of Mrs. Judson Grow at Maceday Lake. After the business meeting a program, arranged by Mrs. F. M. Thompson, was presented. Papers on the lives of people of note were read by several of the members. The characters mentioned were, Edgar Guest, Madame Curie, Edison, Bess Streeter Aldrich and Anne Campbell. The members were sorry that Mrs. F. M. Thompson who had prepared the program was unable to be present on account of illness.

Mrs. Byron Howland is in Ann Arbor for a two weeks stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Cassius Carter of South Drive, formerly of Birmingham, were hosts at a dinner party on Mrs. J. Gibson is in General Hospital, Pontiac, where she underwent a serious operation last Thursday.

Tommie Furmon is quite ill with scarlet fever at his home in the O'Dea house on Central Ave.

With the recent death of Col. E. H. R. Green, son of the financial genius, Hetty Green, many stories have come to light concerning his stamp collecting activities. His collection is estimated at triple the value of the late Arthur Hind's, and many of his purchases were almost uncanny as to their future values. He never exhibited his collection and avoided any publicity concerning his stamp activities. In later years he purchased only mint copies but had many sidelines. At times he would buy hundreds of dollars worth of booklet panes at the postoffice, taking them apart in search for plate numbers on the margins. The blanks he turned over to the Seamen's Bank for postal use.

He possessed a noteworthy collection of Match and Medicine Stamps and an unusual collection of inverted centers of U. S., British America and Nicaragua.

Although he had done very little collecting in the past ten years he was always interested and philately feels that it has lost an important member.
