Porritt Dairy Adds A New Product

Stillicious, a Vitamin "B" and "G" Chocolate Milk Drink Is Finding a Growing Market

Edward L. Porritt owner of the Porritt Dairy is now serving his customers a new drink called Stillicious, Vitamin "B" and "G" chocolate drink containing yeast.

Drink is an entirely new product that many of the larger manufacturers of yeast have been trying to make for years but have been unsuccessful. Now the product has been made and its big point is that it has all the vitamin B and G content of the yeast you buy at the grocery stores, yet it has no taste or odor. It is good served hot or cold-not only to children but to adults as well. You are invited to try this milk today.

Clarkston Schools Opened Tuesday

Enrollment Very Nearly Sets Record for the High Attendance

.Vacation days are over for the youngsters of this community and the schools are open and serving what may be the best attendance for this school.

The High School has 170 pupils while 148 pupils are enrolled in the grade department. The Senior Class now numbers 29.

Classes are now regular and assignments are being given just as though school had not been closed.

And the next procedure is the election of class officers, and the selection of the staff for Hilltopper, the school news department of Clarkston News.

OLD TIME BARN PARTY AT HARTLAND AREA

On Saturday evening, September 12. the Hartland Area will have unique social function. The completion of a new large barn on the Crouse Farm suggested to J. Robert Crouse and the farm manager, W. D. White, the possibility of a real old time barn party to properly initiate this beautiful building. They are inviting all residents of the area, young and old, to come. There will be a kindergarten for the little tots, directed games and Mickey Mouse movies for the boys and girls: folk games, music, dramatics and decorating the barn; special lighting is being arranged; appropriate refreshments will be served; and a real crowd and grand time is anticipated.

HOLLY THEATRE

Barbara Stanwyck and Robert Taylor form the screen's newest romantic team in "His Brother's Wife", which comes to the Holly Theatre Sunday. Taylor comes into his newest leading roles following such hits at "Private Number", "Small Town Girl" and "Magnificent Obsession."

The new picture also features Jean Hersholt, Joseph Calleia, the screen's leading "bad man", John Eldredge, Samuel S. Hinds and Phyllis Clare.

"His Brother's Wife" tells of a young scientist about to embark on his first scientific expedition. On the eve of leaving New York for the tropical jungle, Taylor, the young uating class in Waterford will attend scientist, goes on his final fling and meets Miss Stanwyck in a gay gam-

For ten days their romance progresses and Taylor decided to forsake the expedition, remain in New York and marry Miss Stanwyck. He is dissuaded from doing so by his brother, and he accompanies Hersholt into the jungle to trace the cause and find a cure for fatal spotted fever.

Meanwhile, to avenge herself, Miss Stanwyck marries Taylor's brother and forthwith deserts him. The young scientist's love for the girl lures him back to New York-to find her married to his own brother.

To solve the marital puzzle, Taylor takes the girl back to the jungle so that the brother can divorce her. When the divorce is granted, Taylor renounces the girl and orders her to return to New York. The spotted fever campaign is successful and Taylor and Hersholt believe they have reached a solution to their scientific problem. The two scientists need a volunteer willing to be infected with the disease. The girl suddenly inoculates herself and the young scientist fights desperately to save her life-and their love is reborn.

The story has been placed in two extremely interesting yet contrasting settings-the gay, happy night life of New York and the sordid and suffocating heat of a dense South American jungle.

ONONONONONONONONO Real Character, plus Successful Business Experience, Distinguish This Qualified Candidate.

Pormer Pontiac Postmaster Joseph (Joe) W.

Republican for COUNTY CLERK

Joseph W. Greenhalgh is the logical choice for County Clerk. He operated his own business for 14 years in Pontiac. Successful business men have proven that private business experience can be applied to county offices.

While Postmaster at Pontiac, Mr. Greenhalgh installed economies and performed his duties so well that he was given an efficiency rating of 92 by U. S. officials. This was one of the highest accorded any Post-master in the U. S.

As hundreds will affirm Joe Greenhalgh holds the respect of the entire community. His private affairs have always been handled in a manner that will not bring criticism or reflect upon the county because of his association with it.

Joe Greenhalgh believes that the salary of the office is sufficient and is willing to serve his term at the present figure whereas the present clerk made a statement that he voluntarily reduced his own salary, but, at a later date he demanded from Auditors and was paid the amount of his back salary. (Warrant No. 4668, May 18, 1985)

Mr. Greenhalgh is a tax-payer and believes that all fees should be paid over to the County. Under the law no compulsion can be brought to bear to force the return of certain fees, marriage license fees for instance. However Joe Greenhalgh pledges that he will make a monthly accounting and turn over to the county ALL FEES.

Washtenaw County Republicans Present

George P.

as their Candidate for Nomination for

State Senator

from the Twelfth Senatorial District

There has existed in the Schatorial District a gentlemen's agreement between the Republicans of Oakland and Washtenaw Counties to alternate the office of State Senator between the two counties. Since this agreement has been in operation, Oakland has had the office eight times and Washtenaw seven times. In 1984 it was Washtenaw's turn to present a candidate. However, since the late Senator Moore had not completed his work the Republicans of Washtenaw County willingly supported Mr. Moore and helped return him to the senate for a third term. The Republican voters of Washtenaw County now feel that in all fairness its candidate should be nominated and in supporting Mr. McCallum, Washtenaw knows that it is presenting a man well qualified to discharge the duties of this important office.

Mr. McCallum was born in Michigan and has lived in Michigan all his life. He has had legislative experience, having heretofore served in the Michigan legislature. The problems presented by taxation are not new to him as he has long been a student of taxation and in his private capacity is head of an organization on taxasion and in his private capacity is most of and other real owning large acreage of agricultural, timber and other real estate holdings. He has given much attention to the question of financing Michigan's educational system. He has been a practicing attorney for over twenty years.

In view of Mr. McCallum's qualifications and agreement between the Republicans of the two counties, we earnestly request the Republicans of Onkland County to support and vote for Mr. McCallum in the primary election.
