COMMENT AND CRITICISM

For twelve long years . . . Harding, Coolidge and Hoover . . . it was believed by most of the people and was the continual topic of our late National Humorist Will Rogers, that the Democratic party was dead . . . and then came Tuesday. Washington scored the only perfect electoral vote . . . and there were not so many votes in his time. The President, a democrat, was re-elected by a vote which represented 97.7% of the electoral vote . . . and we have 531 votes now. So time has proved that the people and the late Mr. Rogers erred. Be not too hasty in burying the late lamented. There is not doubt that there has been a new deal dealt the democratic party and the public liked the deal. And the republicans may in time also acquire new and perhaps advanced ideas and repeat the record in a comeback. A republic needs two parties otherwise it becomes a country under a single ruler. Even James Farley thanked the republicans for helping make the issues clear. But right now the country wants "Roosevelt Progress" so altogether till next campaign, at least, "Onward with Roosevelt".

The campaign is over. We cannot influence the vote now. The News does not try to influence votes, it presents facts and asks the reader to think for himself—this policy pays in friendship, (4 new subscribers this week). In fact an attempt to get votes now would be as futile as John Hamilton's speech after the votes were in, but with the smoke of battle cleared away lets glance at the record. How often we wish for a successful man to seek office . . . and when we find one . . . the late Sen. Couzens . . . we boil him in oil because he is not a party man. What business would succeed if all the workmen quit work in the middle of the afternoon to ask the boss to hire him another day . . . and still we demand that our office holders spend the last six months of the term seeking re-election. We demand that the candidates spend time, money and effort to work for us . . . and then sit back and call their work a "Show" a "Circus" and a "Spectacle". And when they do get the job, even if . . . as it happened a few years ago in Detroit . . . they steal the job . . . we say "Oh that's politics". It's all a great joke . . . figure out who the joke is on.

The words of the republican chairman John Hamilton as he approached the "mike" to concede the election "We who are about to die" brings us to another subject. Politics for 1936 have marched on. We have rewarded the man who saved the country in 1932. Now let's think of those who at least thought they were saving the country in 1918. They too believed they were about to die . . . many did. Wednesday is a legal holiday to commemorate the end of the world war. Larger towns will hold parades. Clarkston will celebrate with its annual Armistice Dance in the school auditorium . . . naturally it will be bigger, better, jollier and more interesting. Help the boys with their worthy work, rejoice with them that the war is over, and pray with them that these United States of America will never go to war again.

Death Takes

Joseph Jossman

Funeral Service Was Held Wednesday

Last Sunday afternoon Joseph A. Jossman passed away in the Pontiac General Hospital after a four days illness.

Mr. Jossman was born in Detroit, Sept. 11, 1861, the eldest son of Esidore Jossman who came to this country from Germany in 1855 and was for many years a merchant and banker in Clarkston. Joseph Jossman was in business for a time in Goodrich and in Clarkston. In 1888 he purchased a produce business in Oxford and operated it until 1910 when he retired from active business. From 1917 to 1921 he was a member of the firm of Caughey and Jossman in Detroit. Fifteen years ago he moved from Oxford to Orchard Lake where he lived for four years before moving to the home at Pine Lake. He lived in Oakland County his entire life.

In 1882 he married Clara Robertson of Clarkston and to this union was born one son, William R. Jossman of Pontiac.

He is survived by his wife and son, three grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. Hawley Chandler of Detroit and two brothers, Ralph E. of Detroit and Henry R. of Pontiac.

Funeral service was held in Pontiac on Wednesday afternoon with burial in Roseland Park cemetery.

Nov. 6th—Friday night—The Independence Grange will sponsor a dance in the Clarkston Opera House. There will be good music and refreshments will be served. Everybody is invited.

Bernice McFarland Weds in Savannah

Last Sunday afternoon Miss Bernice McFarland, daughter of Mrs. Agnes McFarland, formerly of Clarkston, became the bride of Seneca Traver, son of J. Traver, of San Diego, Calif. The ceremony took place in Savannah, Ga.

The bride was gowned in white satin and wore a veil held in place by a dainty little cap. She carried a bouquet of white roses and valley lilies. She was attended by Miss Helen Tindall, of Clarkston, as maid of honor, who wore a cream satin gown and carried white mums. Miss Beverly and Miss Marjorie McFarland acted as bridesmaids. They wore white georgette and carried baby mums.

L. R. McFarland, brother of the bride, assisted Mr. Traver. George Green and James Royal, of Savannah, acted as ushers.

A reception was held after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Traver left on a two months trip to San Diego, Calif. On their return they will reside in Savannah.

Mrs. Traver graduated from the Clarkston High School in 1931.

Clarkston Choral Club Has Social Evening

On Monday evening after the usual Choral Club rehearsal the group met in the auditorium of the High School and enjoyed a few social hours.

Some amused themselves playing card games while others had quite a good time discussing the election which was to take place the following day.

Shortly after ten o'clock refreshments were served from a long table attractively centered with vegetables and fruit. While the refreshments were being enjoyed Mrs. Butters, president of the Club called upon each member to tell the story of how they earned the dollar which had just been paid to the treasurer, Robert Jones. Of course some of these stories were amusing and afforded a good laugh.

The Club has made a very fine start this season and every member is urged to be present at every rehearsal. Remember the separate rehearsals at seven o'clock and the general rehearsal at seven-thirty each Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Woolfenden Are Hosts Saturday

Last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Henry Woolfenden entertained a number of their friends at their home at Big Lake.

At seven o'clock a Boston Baked Bean dinner was served at the large dining-table which was centered with fruit.

Hallowe'en decorations were used throughout the house and the Hallowe'en spirit prevailed for the entire evening. Appropriate games were played with prizes going to Mrs. Charles Hutton and Paul Kambold.

THE HILLTOPPER

School Election
Although the arguments were fierce and hot, the balloting in the mnck election conducted by the Senior Civics Class went off peaceably.

There were only four parties on the school ballot, Republican, Democrat, Socialist, and the Third Party. In the Presidential race, Roosevelt won by 88 votes to Landon's 71, Thomas' 3 and Lemke's 2. The school was strongly Republican in the choice for governor giving 107 votes to Fitzgerald, and only 53 to Murphy. In the race for the United States Senator, 95 expressed preference for Brown, 59 for Brucker, and 1 for Ward. Draper Allen's 85 votes to Dondero's 70 gave him a slight edge in the Congressional race. McCallum and McGillis each had 66 students supporting them for the State Senator position. Adams polled 98 votes to Long's 47 for the position of Representative. County officers were mostly given to the Republicans. The Republicans received 14 offices out of the 24, while the Democrats only received 8, the Socialists 1. There was one tie.

One hundred and seventy four ballots were cast, seven were disqualified due to wrong marking.

This mock election was sponsored by the Senior Civics Class, under Mrs. Walter's direction. All students of the Civics Class had part either in preparing the ballots, serving on the election board or in counting the votes.

Roosevelt Landslide

President's Triumph Is Greater Than His Victory Four Years Ago

MICHIGAN ENDORSES THE NEW DEAL

Frank Murphy Elected Governor, Prentiss M. Brown United States Senator, and All Other Associates on the Ticket Victorious; Oakland County Chooses Split Ticket; Roosevelt Wins in Independence

The national election on Tuesday was an unprecedented victory for the Democratic candidates for President and Vice-President. As this is written, Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, President Roosevelt is assured of 519 electoral votes out of a total of 531, and may have captured New Hampshire's four votes. Maine and Vermont are the only states sure to go for Landon in the electoral college. President Roosevelt's popular plurality over Gov. Landon will exceed his plurality over Hoover in 1932. The total vote in the nation is expected to reach 42,000,000, by far the largest on record.

Reports on Congressional results are meager but indicate that the Democrats will increase their already top heavy majorities in both Senate and House.

In Michigan President Roosevelt's majority undoubtedly will be larger than in 1932, when it was 131,806. He led the ticket, closely followed by Prentiss M. Brown for U. S. Senator, and all Democratic candidates for state offices from Governor down were winners. In the Congressional contests the Democrats will gain at least one seat and possibly three. The complexion of the State Legislature is undetermined but can hardly fail to follow the outcome on other candidates.

In Oakland County the results are as follows:
Republicans: Howarth, Sheriff; McGaffey, Judge of Probate; Allen, Clerk; Sparks, Treasurer; Hampton, Circuit Court Commissioner; Kimball and Voorhees, Coroners; Democrats: Morris, Prosecutor; McLaughan, Register of Deeds; Holman, Circuit Court Commissioner, and Adams, State Representative.
As we go to press Dondero is leading Allen by a scant lead.

The Hallowe'en Party sponsored by the Men's Club and Boy Scouts No. 52 last Saturday, October 31st, was a huge success. The crowd gathered early and there were games for all ages. A treasure hunt, scavenger hunt, apple eating contest, both in the tub and on string, made heaps of fun.

The Home Demonstration Club held an all day meeting in the church parlors last Wednesday. The last lesson on Legal Phases of Home Management was given by the leaders, Mrs. Maurice Young and Mrs. Frank Jones. The meeting was opened at 10:00 o'clock with singing of the club song.

Hilltopper

(Concluded from page one) their new Language Work Books this week. They are interesting and very helpful.

Children who won credits in our third grade spelldown on Friday, October 30, were: Joyce Lawson, Jack Taylor, Gordon Hemingway, Frederick Dalton, Tyrus Pinchback, and Frank Ronk.

Those neither absent nor tardy during October: Marjorie Collins, Barbara Craven, James Fuller, Marcia Porter, Ida Mae Slief, Sara Nell Watkins, Lorraine Pinchback, Harold Kennedy, Joyce Lawson, Frank Ronk, Joyce Scribner, Shirley Terry, Audrey Weichert, Tyrus Pinchback.

Miss Elzinga's Room Almost everyone at our Hallowe'en Party on Friday was in costume. We served refreshments and everyone enjoyed himself.

To the Girls This year Miss Wellington is going to coach Girls' Basketball, and we're all going to cooperate. But wouldn't it be keen if we had more girls out? You bet it would, that's what makes a team. Of course, everyone can't be on the first team, we all have to "bench" at some time and it might as well be when we first start playing.

When one is assigned a position she appreciates it more if the competition for it has been strong. Having the girls that were on the team last year and the girls that are available this year we ought to have a bigger and better team. Won't you come out and try, girls? The girls that played last year are selling candy at noon so that they might earn money to buy new suits, which they need badly.

SPORTS Football Game Last Friday Clarkston played football with Brighton and lost by the score of 6 to 0. Clarkston played a very good game but Lady Luck wasn't with us.

Substitutions were Wainman for Newman, Bird for Rexford, Walker for Secord, Lawson for Tee, McIntyre for Yost.

Brighton kicked off to Clarkston's 10 yard line and the ball was caught by Yost who returned it to the 20 yard line. Clarkston tried the sleeper play, Yost to Russell, but it failed as the pass wasn't very good.

Brighton started a series of line plunges which finally resulted in a touchdown. They tried to place kick for the extra point and failed, keeping the score at 6 to 0 in favor of Brighton.

Clarkston was in possession of the ball most of the game and made 6 first downs to Brighton's 3. They just failed to have that punch for a tally. Many times if the Clarkston man had caught the passes they might have resulted in touchdowns.

Clarkston played a good clean game and is practicing for the hard game they expect with Walled Lake Friday. This game will be played at Walled Lake.

The lineup was: L. E.—Russell. L. T.—Clark. L. G.—Tee. C.—Boyns.

R. G.—Rexford. R. T.—Irish. R. E.—Duppee. Q. B.—Newman. H. B.—Yost and Secord.

CLASSROOM NEWS Mrs. Durand

The Latin Class is reading (in Latin) of the old Roman school and it is very interesting to note the contrast between the school of today and that of the old Romans. While the Tenth grade English class is tangled up in subordinate clauses, the ninth grade class is trying to feel its way through the uses of the verb "to be".

Mrs. Walter The Tenth grade World History Class has made maps of Early Italy. The two American History classes have learned the Preamble to the Constitution. The Senior Civics class has been busy taking charge of the mock election. (We wish that we were in Civics class).

Mrs. Strait The Seniors and Juniors are starting construction work according to their ability. Some are making very pretty wool dresses and some prefer silk. The ninth and tenth grade class has started the unit in their books on lunches.

Miss Wellington The Civics class are making their own work books on the citizen and his community. The English classes are taking up the study of poetry. This is only for those who like poetry. They are beginning with the works of John Masefield.

Mr. Waters The Biology class is spending its time in giving special reports, trying to develop in the students confidence and poise when speaking before a group. The Physics class has been studying the laws of gravitation and falling bodies.

Mr. Bauer Bookkeeping students are taking the form of the working sheet, used in the preparation of financial reports. They will begin work on their first practice set in the near future. The set involves the recording of actual business transactions and the preparation of reports at the close of the fiscal period.

Features FLASH: The Senior play "Miss Jimmy" deals with the laugh provoking adventures of Jimmy who enters the dormitory of an exclusive girls' school in search of a dress. Sounds interesting!

The seniors seem to have some trouble devouring sandwiches during play practice. What's the matter Mildred with your sandwich? Is it only bread and butter? Last year's affairs that are all off now—Howard and Betty, Gus and Laura, Durward and Angie, Lester and Violet, Clinton and Marie, Ham and Evey, June and Pete. Did Lester get his bit of ice cream cone on Hallowe'en night? We wonder.

Clinton Russell in "Big Business"—speculating in fire crackers on Hallowe'en, buying at 5c a package and selling at 2 1/2c a piece. Why does Dorothy suddenly like to do dishes since a certain boy moved out in the subdivision? What Senior enjoyed annoying the election board during election?
