NEW DEER AREA OPENS THIS SEASON

Information for Benefit of Hunters Heading North

Anticiating a heavy influx of deer hunters into the newly-opened west Michigan counties, the department of conservation will assign a special force of 40 conservation officers to the region to handle matters of routine patrol and law enforcement.

The force will be made up of local conservation officers, free-lance officers from other regions, fire wardens and towermen who have had experience and training in law enforcement and will be under the direction of Russell J. Martin, regional supervisor of Mt. Pleasant. It will have its base of operations at the Baldwin district conservation headquarters where additional dormitory facilities now are being prepared.

Conservation authorities at Lansing believe that the 13 counties and parts of five others in west Michigan which are to be open to deer hunting this season for the first time in years already have a full quota of deer hunters assured.

In view of the number of hunters expected to go into this region, it is doubtful whther the shooting possibilities will average any better, or even as good, as in many other places in the northern deer country.

"We know of a number of men who originally planned to hunt in Lake or Newaygo or Mecosta counties, for instance, who have sinced changed their plans and are going back to their usual hunting areas," says H. R. Sayre, chief of conservation law enforcement. "The presence of large numbers of hunters seems objectionable to many individuals."

A CHARACTER SKETCH OF CLARKSTON

By Betty E. Chamberlain Editor's Note—This character sketch of Clarkston was written by a member of the American Literature class. After studying Washington Irving each member of the class wrote a character sketch in imitation of his style.

Undoubtedly you've never heard of Clarkston and you decidedly know nothing of its whereabouts. But it is in existence and thrives mightily to this very day and hour at a spot—a very small one approximately thirty-five miles distant, crooked as the Dixie Highway goes, from Detroit, the center of the United States automobile industry.

Geographically speaking, however, the obscure Michigan village lies snug- as that proverbial "bug-in-arug", at the foot of a long range of hills which our older-young folk, who coasted down it in winters gone past, fondly called "Sunset Hill"; and by its side trails a creek that seems to have no definite destination, running Mrs. H. Bauer and Mrs. E. A. aimlessly and senselessly through and around the outskirts of the village, sending missionary tributaries to the Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. Har- three lakes on the east, west and boasted an honest-to-goodness mill, owned and operated by one of the seated at small tables and a lovely first settlers. HOLLY THEATRE

Singing, dancing and dimpling her way once more into millions of hearts, Shirley Temple's new Twentieth Century-Fox triumph, "Dimopens Sunday at the Holly ples". Theatre.

Hailed as Shirley's wonder show and featuring swingy new song hits and brand new dance steps, "Dimples" is heralded as the outstanding hit in the little star's parade of brilliant triumphs.

An exceptional cast, headed by the irrepressible and inimitable Frank pital. Morgan, supports Shirley in the film, with Helen Westley, Robert Kent Astrid Allwyn, Delma Byron, the Hall Johnson Choir and Stepin Fetchit prominently featured.

Replete with laughter, romance and drama, "Dimples" tells the story of a lovable little street minstrel, Shirley, and her incorrigible but irresistibly funny guardian, Frank Morgan.

.The film opens with Shirley leading a group of young sidewalk minstrels through songs and dances. As they conclude their performance Morgan pushes through the crowd and starts off the "contributions", This is how he and Shirley eke out a precarious livelihood.

Morgan has a penchant for other people's belongings and his nimble fingers fasten on anything of value with which they come in contact. His peccadillos eventually lead him into trouble but he goes scot free through Shirley's winsome smiles and pleas. With Shirley mothering and caring for the irresponsible scamp, the film moves through its highly entertaining story, climaxed with Shirley being cast in the starring role in a presentation of "Uncle Tom's Cabin". With Morgan and Stepin Fetchit contributing hilarious laughter, Robert Kent, Astrid Allwyn and Delma Byron youthful romance, Helen Westley and Berton Churchill providing stirring drama, and Shirley better than even her previous "bests", "Dimples" is the greatest in the succession of Shirley Temple pictures.

Darryl F. Zanuck selected William A. Seiter director and Nunnally John-PANY, Detroit—Vinewood 1-5810. son associate producer for the film.

Drayton Plains

On Monday afternoon, November 9th, in the School Auditorium, the Drayton Plains Branch of the Needlework Guild of America held its Ingathering. Four long tables covered with garments from infants' wear to adult wear were on display, besides dresses ranging from 2 years to eight being displayed on hangers. In all over three hundred articles were received besides a money donation. Fine work has been done by the Jun-Mrs. Charles Williams. They have made three complete "Baby Layettes". The officers and directors of the Needlework Guild are very proud of their work this year as no donations were solicited outside of Drayton Plains.

The Ingathering was held in conjunction with the P. T. A. and about one hundred were in attendance. A line was formed and the members of the P. T. A. and Guild passed by the tables where lay the gifts of the members of the Needlework Guild.

At the opposite side of the room the new teachers of the school staff were lined up and were introduced by Miss Margaret Lockhart and Mrs. Oscar Ream, after which the guests were served tea with Mrs. Claude Shoupe and Mrs. Arthur Ray as hostesses. At 2:30 the meeting was called to order by Supt. C. A. Gordon, as the resignation of the president Mrs. Kenneth Oakes had been sent in. The new president Mrs. Cecil Marrow was introduced and took charge of the meeting. FOOTBALL

Clarkston played their last football game for the 1936 season at Walled Lake last Friday but lost, 21 to 0. Walled Lake made their first score in the second quarter on an automatic safety by a blocked punt which rolled into the end zone netting two points

Clarkston never threatened to score but got deep into Walled Lake's territory on completed passes. Wainmen gave the Clarkston rooters a thrill by hitting the line on a spinner play which gained thirty yards, but was tackled by the Walled Lake safety man. Clarkston's running attack which functioned so well in the first two quarters was slowed up and stopped by Walled Lake's superior power in the line and reserves.

In the third quarter a Clarkston back fumbled the ball as he was crashing into the line. The ball flew into the hands of a Walled Lake player who had a clear field and went for a touchdown. The try for the point failed. Also during this third quarter one of Clarkston's co-captains, Yost, was removed from the game with a serious shoulder injury.

Walled Lake's man power kept pounding at the Clarkston team until there were no reserve men to send in for Clarkston. Against the now weakened team Walled Lake pushed over two touchdowns in the fourth quarter to go on to win 21 to 0. Clarkston was outweighed and outplayed but never outfought and gave a good account of themselves in the first three quarters. The lack of reserves was the greatest weakness.

Next year Clarkston should have a very good team as there are only two Seniors on it, Irish and Denton. The rest of the players have had a lot of give a good account of themselves next year.

Quarterback-Newman. Substitutions were: Lawson for Tee, Bird for Rexford, Wainmen for Newman, Denton for Secord, and Mc- pencil." Intyre for Yost.
