Oak Hill Club Elects Officers

Robert Sutton Is Made President

On Monday night the Oak Hill 4H Club met at the home of the leader, Will Sutton.

Election of officers took place with the following results: president, Robert Sutton; vice president, Billy Allen; secretary, Harriet Beckman; reporter, Eugene Hubbard.

Mr. Hart, the County organizer, was present and instructed the members how to conduct meetings and how to fill out their records for the year.

The group was more than pleased to have nine members sign. The following projects were chosen for this year: Dairy, Swine, Sheep. Anyone interested is urged to request to get started with the group as quickly as possible before the projects get too far underway.

The next meeting will be held April 13th, with Eugene and Robert Hubbard.

Child Study Club Elects Officers

Mrs. Fred Kennedy Is Elected President

The Clarkston Child Study Club met at the home of Mrs. Fred Kennedy on Thursday evening of last week.

Roll Call was answered with "My Pet Peeve". Mrs. Walter gave a very splendid paper and led a discussion on "Emergencies". Mrs. Shotka discussed Roberts Rules.

Election of officers took place with the following results: president, Mrs. Fred Kennedy; vice president, Mrs. Fred Steiner; recording secretary, Mrs. Edward Fuller; corresponding secretary, Mrs. John Alexander; treasurer, Mrs. Walter Ash.

A lovely lunch was served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be on April 8th at the home of Mrs. Fred Steiner.

On Wednesday evening the Clarkston Child Study Club enjoyed a chicken dinner at the Community House at Seymour Lake. The dinner was served at seven o'clock at a table prettily decorated with the Club colors, blue and gold.

After the dinner a short program was appreciated. Mrs. Fred Kennedy led in prayer and this was followed by pep songs led by Mrs. William Shotka. Mrs. Joseph Skinner presided as toastmaster. A song, the words written by Mrs. Shotka, was sung.

On account of the absence of the president, Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Kennedy took her place and gave a short but exceptionally fine address. Then came an "April Fool Joke" by Mrs. Skinner and a "Choice bit of gossip", a poem mentioning each club member, by Mrs. Walter Ash. The group then played Bingo and had a jolly time.

Jr. Literary Club Met Tuesday Eve

On Tuesday evening the Clarkston Junior Literary Club met at the home of Mrs. Raymond Jarvis.

There were seven members answering the Roll Call by naming a place in the United States that they would like to visit.

The regular business meeting was held and then Mrs. L. D. Hemingway gave a paper on "National Forests". This paper was interesting and educational as it took the group into many parts of the United States.

The hostess served dainty refreshments.

The next meeting will be on Tuesday evening, April 13th, at the home of Mrs. Gordon Parker in Drayton Plains.

Mrs. C. Russell Entertains Club

On Tuesday Mrs. Clinton Russell entertained her Contract Club at her home on Deer Lake.

At one o'clock a delightful luncheon was served and during the afternoon two tables of bridge were in play. The honors went to Mrs. F. E. Davies and Mrs. G. A. Walter.

Guests of the Club included Mrs. Milan Vliet, Mrs. G. A. Walter and Mrs. William Watson.

To the Voters

I am using this means to let the voters of Independence Township know that I am asking their support this year for reelection as Township Clerk solely on the merits of my work in the past. I will take care of the office in a business-like manner and to the best of my ability. I have been unable to call on all the voters in the Township because I am a laboring man and have to work for a living like all of us. I have been a lifelong resident of this Township, County, and State and would appreciate your support again in this election. For our many new voters, I would appreciate their discussing my qualifications for the office with some of the older voters. It has also come to my attention that there is a story being circulated that my salary has been raised which is absolutely false. In fact the Clerk receives less now than formerly because under my term of office all chattel mortgages were transferred and are now handled through the Register of Deeds office at Pontiac. The former clerk received a fee of 25c (twenty-five cents) for every entry and for every discharge. When I turned these over to the county there were six hundred and eighteen (618) of them and as all chattel mortgages usually mature within a year you can readily see how this reduced the Clerk's salary.

Thanking you again for your support in the past and I hope to merit your support in the future.

WARD W. DUNSTON,
Present Township Clerk.

NOTICE

Monday, April 5th, is election day. The Clarkston State Bank will be closed.

Literary Club Met Tuesday

The Clarkston Literary Club met at the home of Mrs. Dave McClelland, Tuesday, March 30, with 13 members answering roll call with a Philippine custom. Another bake sale was planned for May 1. Remember the date. Mrs. Lee Clark gave a splendid review of John Galsworthy's book, "The Patrician". The next meeting will be April 13 with Mrs. Charles Bryant.

Mrs. David Newlands Is Hostess Tuesday

Mrs. David Newlands entertained a number of her friends at a luncheon and theater party in Detroit on Wednesday.

A delicious luncheon was served at noon at the Women's City Club and from there they went to the Fox Theater where they enjoyed seeing Simone Simon and James Stewart in "Seventh Heaven".

Those from Clarkston included Mrs. Edward Seeterlin, Mrs. G. A. Walter, Mrs. Clinton Russell, Mrs. Anna Fleming, Mrs. John DeLind, Mrs. Jos. Seeterlin and Mrs. L. F. Walter.

THE HILLTOPPER

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

Question: How did you spend Easter Vacation?

Well, your reporter found that church services on Sunday were attended by most everyone she interviewed with the Sunrise Service claiming quite a few. But for the remainder of the holiday period the interests were varied. Betty J. Clark took care of her cousin on one day. Evelyn Davies looked after the young Huttenlochers on one evening. George Dupee turned interior decorator. Dupee Ash "took a much-needed rest". Roy Spencer said he stayed home to plague his sister and her boy friend on Sunday night. Agnes Diggs helped clean house. Frank Russell built a boat and went crow hunting. Ralph Ware hauled lumber into Detroit. Violet Coy and Doris Morgan colored Easter eggs at Edna Parker's. Dick Lowrie looked in on the Saturday night dance. Dick Tee took in a show and repaired a flat tire. Caroline Walter visited Pontiac, Farmington and Ann Arbor. Howard Boyens, Rochester, and Milton Fiske, Holly, Doris Morgan and Bill Wilson played cards.

FROM THE CLASSROOMS

Mr. Waters

The physics class has been studying the principles of the storage battery and the generation of electricity. They have included in this study the practical methods and uses of transmission. Attempts have been made to find out the how and why of some of the electrical devices we use every day.

Arithmetic classes have been working problems in stocks, bonds and investments.

The biology class has completed their interesting study of the human body and is about to begin the study of the strange little things we call bacteria.

Mrs. Strait

The junior and senior home economics class has been studying banks and their value to us. The girls are now planning model bedrooms.

LOOKING THROUGH THE KEY-HOLE AT PLAY PRACTICE

The last week of Junior-Play Practice is marked by groans and pained expressions from the cast—first they are scared out of half year's growth by the Director's absence on Tuesday morning—what with mumps, going around the way they are, how did they know that it was just a case of swollen glands? Secondly, Earl Lawson was reported to have acquired the measles—how we don't profess to know, but anyway, this report proved to be correct. Leslie Vliet has, therefore, taken over his part and has had a few days in which to learn all the speeches and stage actions to substitute in case Earl doesn't recover in time. Maybe there is a jinx on the class—in which case, we will have to hire a jinx chaser—more of our good money gone.

Practice schedule has been heavy and unrelenting this week: Monday—1:30 to 6:00; Tuesday—4:00 to 6:15; Wednesday—4:00 till well they are going to eat their dinner up to school, and then go through with their first dress rehearsal, Thursday, another dress rehearsal and Friday, GRAND FINALE.

The fireplace has been a problem for every one has widely separated ideas on how and how not to build fireplaces, ("To be or not to be, that is the question").

Charles Perry mounted the ladder sixty eleven times Monday to act as chief picture hanger. ("A man's reach must exceed his grasp or what's a heaven for?")

King McIntyre kept himself busy doing things the exact opposite of "Right"—and thus had to re-do them.

Mary Lindsey and Hammy Newman looked very domestic hanging curtains together.

Phrase heard most frequently this week: "Lord give me strength and don't let me forget my lines".

Seymour Lake

The Easter Sunday Congregation certainly enjoyed Rev. C. E. Edwards very fine Easter message.

The Beardsley brothers have purchased a new Ford truck.

The Arthur Kelly family moved on Saturday into the Solley house on M15.

The Whipple family moved from the Solley house to the Tibbals farm vacated by Stan Solley and the Stan Solleys have moved into their own home recently vacated by the William Drapers.

A spark from the chimney ignited the shingles on the roof of the Porritt house on Friday morning. It was discovered before any serious damage was done. The blaze was extinguished by the neighbor boys, Malcolm Oswald and Giles Speers.

Duane, Virginia and Loyd Betts are recovering from measles.

Grant Benjamin of Detroit underwent an operation for appendicitis on Wednesday.

Ellen, Robert and Fred Beardsley spent Easter Sunday in Holly.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Bailey entertained Mr. and Mrs. Clark Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn O'Berry and small son at dinner on Sunday.

Marion Landeragan was a week-end guest at the Irish home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Edwards spent last Friday in Orion visiting Mrs. Knowles.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller have returned home after a vacation in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Porritt are able to be around on crutches.

Mrs. Richard Snover Is Honored Saturday

Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. Monte Hoard of Oxford and Mrs. Harry Curtis of Leonard entertained at a miscellaneous shower at the Hoard home honoring their niece, Mrs. Richard Snover (Helen Allen) of Pontiac.

There were twenty guests. Appropriate games were enjoyed during the afternoon with the awards going to Mrs. Ben Baker and Miss Ruth Miner.

The bride was the recipient of many attractive and useful gifts.

A delightful lunch was served.

Among the guests was Mrs. Hoard's daughter, Mrs. Marguerite Porritt of Seymour Lake who was able to be out for the first time since an automobile accident six months ago.

Adult Bible Class Enjoys Social Evening

On Thursday evening of last week the adult Bible Class of the Methodist Sunday School met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Fiske on Orion Road for the regular monthly business and social meeting. There were fifteen members present. Plans were made to hold a bake sale on Saturday afternoon, April 10th.

The group had the pleasure of hearing Mrs. William Jones give a couple of readings. The program also included a mock radio program and "Brain Testers". Both of these provided a great deal of fun.

Dainty refreshments were served.

Clarkston Locals

Mrs. James Rowland returned on Saturday from the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital where she underwent an operation. She is staying with her sister Mrs. Edward Larion until she regains her strength.

Dinner guests at the L. F. Walter home on Friday night will be Mr. and Mrs. Leman Cambrey of Flint and Mrs. Charles Lowrey of Kings-ton. After dinner they will attend the Junior Play at the High School. Mrs. Lowrey is Mrs. Ronald Walter's sister.
