COMMENT AND CRITICISM

At last I have found out just how good a pot luck supper can be. It seems that to be on the safe side you take enough food for yourself and a dish for the table. And the table dishes turn out to be the prize of the menu. No matter what you want—in fact you do not even have to think what you want—the table dish will satisfy you abundantly.

Did you know? That the Vail medal given to telephone employees is earned by one in ten thousand employees; that this distinction is for meritorious use of telephone equipment outside of regular or required service; that it was awarded to Mrs. Hursfall twice during her stay in Clarkston.

There is a housing shortage in Clarkston. Strikes seem to have abated in the immediate area. Now the main and perhaps the only thing needed is ready money. A call at the bank might fix up this difficulty. In the mean time we welcome the news of real estate transfers—if we are informed by reliable sources, who can be sure of the details.

Sunday, May 9th is Mothers' Day—a day to visit, write or remember your mother. Why say more? If you are appreciative of her many favors for you, you have made plans accordingly. If not nothing we can say will help you.

M. E. Ladies' Aid Met Wednesday

Mrs. L. F. Walter Is Elected President

On Wednesday afternoon the Ladies' Aid of the Clarkston M. E. Church met at the home of Miss Ada Scraec. Election of officers took place with the following results: president, Mrs. L. F. Walter; vice president, Mrs. Margaret Rockwell; secretary, Mrs. A. Urch; treasurer, Mrs. John Mann; flower committee, Mrs. G. Harris and Mrs. Ada Mills.

Miss S. D. Woodward favored the group with a very pretty vocal number and Mrs. C. E. Edwards played the piano accompaniment.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess and the assisting hostesses, Mrs. Ray Clark, Mrs. Percy Craven and Mrs. Elizabeth Ronk.

HOLLY THEATRE

Unforgettably portrayed by the star of "The Informer" and an inspired cast, "Nancy Steele Is Missing," the Twentieth Century-Fox production opening Sunday at the Holly Theatre, presents a powerful drama of vengeful hate balked by its own fury and punished by man's greatest love.

The performances of Victor McLaglen, winner of the Motion Picture Academy award for the best performance of 1935; Walter Connolly, outstanding actor of stage and screen; and Peter Lorre, Europe's one-man chamber of horrors, make "Nancy Steele Is Missing" a tremendous document of emotion-lashing power, filled with tense thrills and strong passions. June Lang and Robert Kent, rising young players, are featured in the film.

The twenty-year span covered by the picture begins in the troubled days of 1917, when America was gripped by war hysteria. The daughter of Walter Connolly, a munitions magnate, sensationally disappears. Shortly afterward, Victor McLaglen, a hulking giant whose knowledge of the horrors of war has embittered him against all those who help to make it, becomes involved in a brawl with police and, because he is accused of being "pro-alien," gets an unnecessarily severe jail sentence.

Taunted as a "spy" by fellow prisoners, McLaglen is made the goat for an attempted prison break, and is sentenced to life. Only a shrewd cellmate, the calculating Peter Lorre, suspects that the huge prisoner is concealing some dark and disturbing secret. When McLaglen is released for good behavior twenty years later, the suspicious Lorre keeps on his trail.

Clarkston Locals

A group of ladies from Clarkston will attend the Mother and Daughter Banquet at the First Methodist Church in Pontiac tonight. The speaker will be Mrs. D. H. Glass, the wife of a former Clarkston pastor. The group will include Mrs. Ada Mills, Mrs. George Harris and daughter, Mrs. Francis Lansing, Mrs. E. A. Urch, Mrs. L. I. Coon and Mrs. L. F. Walter.

Mrs. D. Hursfall Honored Wednesday

Gifts Were Presented by the Community and By Business Associates

On Wednesday evening about 125 friends of Mrs. Doris Hursfall gathered in the auditorium of the school to enjoy supper with her before she leaves to make her home at Walled Lake, 12 miles from Petoskey.

The town folks and those from the surrounding community wished to express to Mrs. Hursfall their appreciation for her eighteen years of untiring service. After the supper a great deal of visiting took place and then Lee M. Clark called the assembly to order and in a pleasing way presented Mrs. Hursfall with a beautiful purse containing a substantial sum of money. Then R. T. Morris of Pontiac, Michigan-Bell Telephone Co.'s Traffic superintendent for this district gave a short talk and expressed the district's appreciation for faithful service rendered by Mrs. Hursfall. He mentioned the fact that Mrs. Hursfall was returning to a district where she had started her telephone work in 1912. He also told about her receiving the Vail medal in 1922 and again in 1927. He presented her with a beautiful pen and pencil from some of the chief operators in the district and some of the office staff in Pontiac and Birmingham. He then introduced Mrs. Badger of Flushing who will come to Clarkston the 15th to take charge of this office.

Mrs. Hursfall then responded with a few words of appreciation for the gifts she had received and also for the many kindnesses and courtesies that had been extended her during her stay in Clarkston.

Those at the supper included Mrs. Hursfall's son, Floyd, of Flint; Mr. and Mrs. Cramer Judd of Pontiac; R. T. Morris, district traffic superintendent, from Pontiac; W. B. Fauser, district manager, from Birmingham; H. Wettkauer, J. H. Strang and J. M. Patterson of the Pontiac office and several district chief operators.

Senior Girls Honor Mrs. Amy

On Thursday evening the Senior Girls of the Clarkston High School gathered at the home of Miss Mildred Butters to honor Mrs. Alfred Amy (Ruth Ferguson) at a miscellaneous shower.

Sixteen girls enjoyed the evening playing Bug and visiting. Dainty refreshments were served and at the close of the evening Mrs. Amy received many very lovely gifts.

HOW TO PROVIDE HOMES FOR BIRDS

They Can Be Rented if You Want to Do That Way

Bird lovers in Michigan are ready to rent homes to bluebirds, robins, blackcapped chickadees, tufted titmouse, whitebreasted nuthatch, house wrens, tree swallows, purple martins, crested flycatchers, flickers, downy woodpeckers, screech owls and barn owls. These are the species in this state which most commonly use nests in homes provided for them.

With the nesting season approaching, forty-eight different species of birds in the United States are searching for the comfortable homes that will be provided for them by men, women and children interested in bird life. In return the birds will cheerfully pay rent both in songs and in warfare on insect life.

A well-built bird house, says J. W. Stack of the zoology department of Michigan State College, is not only durable and rainproof, but it is cool and readily accessible for after season cleaning. Metal should be avoided in bird house construction as it is a great conductor of heat. Preferable is an easily worked wood such as cypress, pine or yellow poplar.

Modest tones, such as brown, gray or dull green, are the most attractive to birds. The houses should be fairly low, should not be put up in dense woods, and should be placed on poles rather than in trees. Whenever possible the opening should be placed away from prevailing winds.

Those who are interested in renting out a bird house or nesting shelf this year, but who have not yet begun construction on them, will find excellent suggestions for building in the 4-H Club Handicraft Bulletin No. 11A revised, of the Michigan State College Extension division.

Clarkston Locals

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ainsley have purchased a lot in the Clarkston Estates subdivision south of town and contemplate building later on this summer.

Mothers & Daughters To Banquet May 12th

There will be musical numbers by local talent and those who attend will not be disappointed. On account of having overflowed crowds in previous years there will be places for 150. That means you must get your ticket early or at least reserve a place by getting in touch with Mrs. A. Urch or Mrs. George Harris who are in charge of the tickets.

The D. M. Winns Are Hosts Thursday

On Thursday evening of last week Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Winn were hosts to the superintendents of the schools in the South Western Oakland County League and their wives at their home. Local Credit Unit Serves Many Farmers

Fred J. Beckman, Secretary-treasurer of the Pontiac Production Credit Association reports 107 loans made during April to farmers of Oakland, Livingston, and Macomb Counties, indicating that members of these Associations are making use of them for financing their operations.

Funds aggregating more than $62,000 were borrowed by members to purchase machinery, livestock, supplies and to build and improve their buildings and fences.

This amount is double the amount borrowed in April 1936 and three times that for the same month of 1935. Mr. Beckman states that a savings of from 5 to 10% has been made by many farmers this spring by using Association money and paying cash for their purchases.

The office of the local Association is located at Pontiac, Michigan with local representatives at other points in its territory to make it convenient for farmers to apply for membership and loans.

Officers of the Association include Albert Luchtman and Harry Green of Macomb County, Ernest Lawson and Clifford Copeland of Livingston County and Smith Green and Fred J. Beckman of Oakland County.

Local Girl Recognized At Annual Convocation

Miss Adele M. Gardner of Clarkston received recognition at the fourteenth annual Honors Convocation at the University of Michigan, April 30, for membership in Phi Beta Kappa, national Scholastic Honor Society.

DONDERO HAS PLAN FOR SAFE DRIVING

Congressman Suggests Program to Lessen Accidents

"If our fair land were to be visited by a plague which took the lives of 36,000 of its citizens in one year and injured 1,250,000 more, we would immediately suspend business, unfasten purse strings, and call to our aid the best medical skill of the nation to deal with it," declared Rep. George A. Dondero, 17th Michigan district, in a recent speech in the U. S. House of Representatives. "We have," he continued, "a plague which is taking its toll of human life and health in the traffic problem, and to some extent we have remained more or less complacent in the face of this ghastly condition. We have a choice to make. We can continue to be potential victims of horrifying accidents, or we can better ourselves by adopting some degree of uniformity in our traffic rules and regulations. We can lessen the scourge by the adoption of reasonable remedies."

To this end Rep. Dondero suggested a comprehensive program of uniform legislation and a campaign of education, including these proposals:

1. Uniform drivers' examinations;
2. Uniform responsibility for damages;
3. Uniform regulations governing speed;
4. Uniform license laws;
5. Uniform inspection of motor vehicles;
6. Uniform regulations governing pedestrian traffic;
7. Uniform enforcement of all regulations;
8. Instruction in motor vehicle operation in schools; and
9. A comprehensive plan for general safety education.

Following up his traffic suggestions with action, Rep. Dondero, in a subsequent session of the House of Representatives, sought to attach an amendment to the bill providing for Federal aid for highways whereby adequate traffic laws would have been a prerequisite to a state's receiving such Federal assistance.

Unusual Program To Be Presented

Charles Hutton of Walled Lake and Leslie Lee of Northville Are the Directors

The Clarkston Choral Club, under the direction of Charles Hutton, is making preparation for presenting soon to its friends the most interesting and unusual performance it has yet attempted. The date is May 28, and the place the Clarkston High School Auditorium. For this concert, the Clarkston group has united with the Men's Chorus of Northville, the Men's Chorus of Plymouth, and the Walled Lake Methodist Episcopal Choir, all well-trained, talented organizations. Both the Northville and Plymouth groups are under the guidance of Leslie G. Lee, director of music in the Northville Public Schools, and are well and favorably known. The Walled Lake choir, directed by Charles Hutton was organized ten years ago and has been a prizewinner in state competitions for seven consecutive contests. They have appeared in many concert programs throughout the state and have given many radio programs. Choral singing, under scholarly and sympathetic direction, can be the means for conveying poetic conceptions so varied and so exalted that the universal hunger for artistic expression is satisfied. With comparatively few exceptions, choral or group singing is set forth by volunteer organizations largely made up of amateurs. These four groups are no exception to the rule. They are made up of people who sing purely for the love of singing and for the outlet and expression it affords them.

For the first time since its organization, the Clarkston Choral Club is charging admission to one of its concerts. Tickets may be obtained from any of the chorus members or may be obtained at the doors. Following is the schedule of appearances: Tuesday, May 25—Plymouth Wednesday, May 26—Northville Thursday, May 27—Walled Lake Friday, May 28—Clarkston

BASEBALL

Clarkston vs. New Hudson
Clarkston played New Hudson on Tuesday, May 4, and had the game well in hand until the fifth inning. Up to that time only four New Hudson men got on base and Clarkston had piled up a 3 to 0 lead; the game seemed in the bag. Then came the big fifth inning for New Hudson scored 4 runs on three hits. The game ended with the score remaining 4 to 3 in favor of New Hudson.

Weakness at the bat and some poor fielding lost the game. In one instance a little smart base running would have won the game for Clarkston. Some of the boys seemed rather over-confident.

Box score:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Clarkston	1	0	0	2	0	0	0

South Lyon Defeats Clarkston

Friday, April 30, on our own field, we were decisively beaten by South Lyon. In the first inning Russell went wild for a while and the opponents scored two runs, but he tightened down and held them runless in the next 5 innings. In the fourth inning Clarkston caught up with South Lyon with runs by Yost and Boyns. In the next inning Gus Yost stole home with the run that put us in the lead. The game looked even brighter when both Newman and McIntyre scored making a score of 5 to 2 in our favor. In the seventh inning, however, things went the other way and South Lyon through an error and the blowing up of Russell started on a rally. Before they were through they scored 7 runs in that seventh inning, leaving us behind to the score of 5 to 9. When it came our last turn to bat, we failed to score.

Box Score:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
South Lyon	2	0	0	0	0	0	7

P. T. A. PROGRAM

The Parent Teachers Association is sponsoring a program to be presented May 14 by the LaFay School of Dancing. The entire proceeds of this program will go to the Athletic Association of Clarkston High School.

Public Speaking Program

The Public Speaking Classes have been working on four one-act plays. One or two of these will be presented to the public on May 21, at 8 o'clock, along with several humorous readings and funny skits in the form of a program which will last from one and a half to two hours. The student director and general manager is Charles Perry. Clinton Russell and Evelyn Walz are assisting him in the organization of the program.

The proceeds of this program will be used to purchase equipment for the stage. The program will be well-worth seeing and the two classes expect your full support.

The admission prices are 10c. for children and 20c. for adults.

One Act Plays Presented by the Public Speaking Classes

"The Golden Hand" under the direction of Charles Perry, was presented last Friday, April 30.

The cast included:
Mr. Bristol, executive, Chester Adams
Mrs. Lewis, another executive.....
Charles Perry

Kathleen Johnson
Mr. Lewis's incompetent secretary....
Marie Tremper
Mr. Jordan's model secretary.....
Evelyn Walz
An Insurance Agent.....Grace Adams
Extras.....Hilda Barnett
Angie Marcora
Caroline Walter

The first scene takes place during lunch hour in the girls' lounge where the usual noon-time chatter of office girls was carried.

The second scene takes place the following morning in the formerly mentioned executive's offices.

"That Younger Generation"

Another play, "That Younger Generation" was presented by the Public Speaking Class under the direction of Violet Coy.

Dramatis personae:
Marion Yost.....Matilda Hayden
Lucille Sommers.....Hattie Morse
Mary Lindsey.....Joy Hayden
Leslie Vliet.....Bob Cory
Clinton Russell.....Paul Royce
Ralph Yost.....Roy Black
Vivian O'Roark.....Sylvia
Mary Cassick.....Lola

The plot of the play centered around the elite family of the Haydens. They very suddenly found their reputation shaken by the association of their niece with a fine but poor family called "riff raff" because they lived across the tracks. The situation was saved and Aunt Matilda became human when her long lost lover returned to find that the "riff raff" was his sister's family.

FROM THE CLASSROOMS

Mrs. Durand

The tenth grade English Class has completed their work on their Library project. The Public Speaking Classes are getting ready to amuse themselves by the study of skits and readings. They have finished their one-act plays.

Miss Wellington

A group of 8th graders have been dramatizing short stories in their class time. They are hoping to learn a large selection of poetry and to work with ballads before the end of the year.

GRADE NEWS

Mrs. Rockwell's Room

Those who won credits in our third grade spell-down on Friday, April 30, were Ronald Jones, Audrey Weichart, Frank Ronk, James Waterbury, Gordon Hemingway and Joyce Lawson.

Children who won in the second grade spell-down were Jean Gundry, Doris Boyns, Mary Marmon, Marion Skinner, Marjorie Collins, James Fuller, and Katharine LaPlant.

Mrs. Vliet's Room

We are writing descriptions of our trip to California. The following is Joel Beckman's description of Wyoming.

"Wyoming, as many of us know, has an Indian name meaning large plains. These plains are between mountain ranges. As we cross them we see large ranches. Some of them are dude ranches where city people go for their vacations.

"How many sheep and cattle we see, and how the little lambs frisk about! Once great herds of buffalo roamed these plains. There are still wild buffalo in Yellowstone park.

"Look over there! Men are cutting ice in the summer! No, it isn't ice. They are blocks of soda for that is soda lake.

"Next comes Yellowstone. Hooray!"

The fifth grade is grateful to the P. T. A. for three interesting, worthwhile books:

Painful Tales by Stockton
Cambridge Book of Poetry for Children
Bird Stories by Burroughs
Everett Hubble is our librarian this week.

Miss Strom's Room

The kindergarten and first grade are planning a Mother's Day party for Friday, May 7.

They are enjoying the new Peter-sham books which were obtained through the P. T. A.

Miss Elzinga's Room

The Sixth Grade walked through the woods Friday afternoon looking for mayflowers and pussy-willow.

Madeline Scribner has moved to Pontiac, where she will attend school. We have journeyed from Spain to Italy in our study of the Mediterranean countries in Geography.

FEATURES

Peeping in at C. H. S.

All the Seniors are trying to determine when Skip Day should be and where to skip to.

Clinton Russell and Howard Boyns were the only out-siders at the 9th grade class party. We wonder what the attractions were!

There are reports that Stan Ash has met a new girl! Her name is Kathleen Johnson and they're getting along famously.

Jean Oxtoby has come back to school to graduate, and everyone is glad to see her again.

Everybody is asking everyone else, "what are you going to wear to the banquet and who is taking you?"

Durward Ash and Betty Clark have been strolling these spring evenings.

One of our schoolmates, Bill Wilson, is ill at the St. Joseph hospital.

Betty Comstock went for a boat ride last Tuesday night. How was the water, Betty?

It seems that Dick Lowrie can amuse himself very much by blowing up a balloon and let it make noise while the air is coming out.

Susan Lowrie has a certain caller every Sunday night.

Violet Coy has that "mother instinct" for she takes interest in aiding little children across the street.

It seems that Gerald Davies is having too much night stuff he is falling to sleep in class.

Students practicing "tripping the light fantastic" for the big Junior-Senior banquet and dance Friday night.

Evelyn Walz has a "love bug" on the front of her dress, but she hasn't been bitten yet.

On Tuesday we had a visitor at our school. It was a little dog who followed some Mary.

Ruth Olson has a new baby brother and Kathleen Johnson is now an auntie.

Pete Secord will make the long trip to Bad Axe to bring back Olive for the Banquet.

Note: This is first of a series of articles on this subject written by members of the 9th grade biology class. Write to the HILLTOPPER and tell us which of them you like best.

Why, We Should have a "Village Dump"

By Irene Walz

Our Biology class has been discussing the subject of having a "village dump" and we have decided to do something about it. Our class president, Frank Russell, appointed a committee of five to see our village supervisor, Mr. Warden, and our supervisor, Mr. Andrews. We talked with them about it and they agree with us and are willing to help us.

The reason we are writing these papers is to ask you if you will cooperate with us. We know we will have your cooperation as well as that of Mr. Warden and Mr. Andrews. We have some very good arguments on the subject and I know you will agree with us when I tell you some of them.

First of all, I want to ask you this question, "Where is the place located that the people throw their refuse now?" You know the answer or you should, right at one of the main entrances of town. I don't think this is very sanitary and I have an idea you don't think so either. Think how much nicer it would be if this place was located out in the country some place where it wouldn't attract as many flies, or other insects. The odors are very offensive, also, in the summer time.

I wonder how many of you would be willing to take your refuse to a place out in the country if we could find a suitable place?

There is something else you should think about also. How are you going to use the property this new dump is to be located on, which has not been decided as yet? If everyone dumps their refuse in a certain place and covers it up well it will not attract as many flies. This would be an advantage too. I hope everyone will cooperate with us in this way as well as the other things.

Mr. Warden has informed us that the officers last year were approached on the same subject but the people were not willing to cooperate. We hope that we will have more luck than they did, and that you will work with us.
