CLARKSTON, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1937

NUMBER 1

COMMENT AND CRITICISM

The first really warm weather of the summer and school starts Tuesday.

Today starts the last three day week end of the summer—Saturday, Sunday and Monday. Traffic has been heavier this summer and you can look for an exceptionally crowded condition these three days. Be wise. Drive carefully.

I am wondering how many boys made a choice of their lifelong vocations this vacation. We say boys because girls are more interested in housework. Of course some ideas will be replaced but many impressions received this summer will be the foundations for future successful lives. Personally when I used to visit my uncle's farm, during harvest, I wanted the biggest elevator in the world.

I like to follow good advice. When someone tells me that I should relax during hot weather, I am strongly inclined to believe them. But after too long a relaxation, you can feel very warm thinking of how to fill your allotted space in a column.

However we have managed to get this far and if you have been interested enough to read this far perhaps we are by for another week, and let's not worry about it anymore.

COUNTY GETS MORE ROADSIDE TABLES

Eight Additional Accommodations Placed for Tourists

An expansion of the state highway department's roadside development policy during the past year has resulted in the placing of eight roadside picnic tables along state highways in Oakland County this summer.

The state highway department has announced that more tourists than ever before are using the 1,500 roadside tables that have been placed throughout the state. This is a total increase of nearly 600 tables over last year. The tables are located at convenient points along the trunklines where outstanding views or a particularly shady spot are available. At many of these spots, stoves and wells or springs are also provided.

"Counts taken at typical roadside picnic parks and letters we have received from tourists from all parts of the nation indicate that these extra services are deeply appreciated," said State Highway Commissioner Murray D. Van Wagor. "Registrations also show that hundreds of Michigan motorists are using these picnic facilities as well as tourists from outside the state."

There are eight points in Oakland County where picnic facilities have been provided by the highway department. A list of them showing their location and facilities follows:

M-59, 6.2 miles west of Pontiac, 1 table; M-59, 2.4 miles east of Highland, 1 table; M-87, 4.8 miles east of Holly, 1 table; US-10, 6.3 miles south of Grand Blanc, 1 table; M-15, 6.7 miles north of Clarkston, 1 table; M-24, 5.3 miles south of Orion, 1 table; US-24, 4.1 miles south of Pontiac, 1 table; US-16, on Farmington cut-off, 1 table.

Studios of Fine Arts Offers Juvenile Training

Selected by a leading motor picture producer as the outstanding talent training institution of Oakland County, the Dusenberry Studios of Fine Arts is now the accredited Motion Picture Franchise holder for Oakland County which of course gives this city, Clarkston, an exceptional opportunity, for its juveniles.

The Dusenberry Studios of Fine Arts, teach all the different instruments of the orchestra and band and have some of the finest instructors in the country. The studios also teach all types of dancing such as, Tap, Toe, Ballet, Chorus, Ballroom and Novelty Exhibition.

This is the first time promising juvenile talent has ever had such a marvelous opportunity, declared Mr. C. Henri Dusenberry, Managing Director of the Studios. He says that one or more pupils each year will be selected to appear in one of the National Talent pictures produced in Hollywood.

Those seeking a professional career will find the gates of Hollywood easy to crash with this new method of bringing talent, the talents of the juvenile, to the personal attention of Hollywood Casting offices and Motion Picture Executives.

The Dusenberry Studios of Fine Arts is happy indeed to have the privilege of presenting this opportunity to residents of Clarkston. No doubt there are many future celebrities right here in our own community. They merely needed the proper training and right connection for them to win recognition. If we can contribute to their success, we shall feel we have been of real service to this community.

22nd Annual Reunion Held Last Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Coon Were Hosts

The Johnson family held its 22nd annual reunion last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Coon in Clarkston. There were 56 present.

At one o'clock a pot-luck dinner was served. The garage was transformed into a dining-room and was prettily decorated with garden flowers.

In the afternoon a business meeting was conducted and the following officers were elected: president, Mrs. Roy Hill of Grand Blanc; vice president, Mrs. Elizabeth Lounsberry, of Elsie, Mich.; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Alta Vliet of Bay City; historian, Mrs. Florence Detwiler of Flint. One very novel feature of the afternoon's program was the family tree prepared by Mrs. Detwiler. The trunk and branches of the tree represented the older Johnson generations while the leaves were the children. It was a unique idea and everyone was greatly interested.

The oldest member present was O. C. Johnson, 79 years old, of Flint, and the youngest was Nancy Lou Meyers, 13 weeks old, of Grand Blanc.

All present were pleased to see Mr. and Mrs. Worden Green and daughters, Betty, Eileen and Maxine and son, Lyden, of Fruitland Park, Fla. The Greens had not been able to attend the reunions for the past twelve years and after such a lengthy absence they had a great deal to hear and to talk about.

Guests were present from Detroit, Flint, Grand Blanc, Bay City, Elsie, Swartz Creek, Florida and Clarkston.

Next year the reunion will be held in the Dryden Community Hall.

HOLLY THEATRE

Something new in murder mysteries brings Jack Oakie to the screen as an amateur detective in "Super-Sleuth", with Ann Southern co-starred. Unlike the usual run of mystery pictures, this story makes no secret of the killer's identity. He is established early in the story, and the suspense of the picture is derived from the attempts of the murderer to slay Oakie, who believes him to be his friend.

Brittle dialogue, farcical comedy, dizzy romance and exciting physical action are combined to offer the two stars one of the most unique of screen vehicles.

Oakie is cast as a famous screen sleuth whose hobby is bragging about his ability to solve crimes even off the screen. After receiving a "poison pen" warning and witnessing the murder of another screen star who is mistaken for him, the would-be crime solver decides it is high time to show up the police by capturing the criminal himself. His colossal conceit decides a ruthless "celebrity killer" to add Oakie to his long list of movie star victims.

Throughout the ensuing series of thrilling and hilarious incidents, romance is born between the boastful bloodhound and the studio publicity woman, and persists through vicissitudes to the whirlwind finish.

Directed by Ben Stollf, "Super-Sleuth" features a cast which includes Eduardo Ciannelli, Alan Bruce, Edgar Kennedy, Joan Woodbury, Bradley Page, Paul Guilfoyle and Willie Best.

"Super-Sleuth" is coming to the Holly Theatre Sunday and Monday.

CHILDREN IN COURT

Judge Malcolm Hatfield

Five boys stood in court yesterday afternoon and confessed that they had stolen several hundred dollars' worth of brass from the city and various manufacturing plants. Two electric traffic signal lights valued at eighty dollars were destroyed so that a few pounds of brass could be secured.

During the course of the trial it was learned that the brass had been sold to several junk dealers. When the boys were confronted by the junk dealers they readily admitted that they would not have stolen the traffic lights if it had not been possible to dispose of the brass they contained.

The parents of the boys, together with the city officials and representatives of the manufacturing firms immediately joined forces in asking the prosecuting attorney to bring suit against the junk dealers.

OLD CARRIAGE MEN TO HOLD REUNION

Former Durant-Dort Employees to Gather at Copneconic Lake

Employees of the old Durant-Dort carriage company at Flint, the "little General Motors" of 30 years ago, will hold their sixth reunion at Lake Copneconic in northwest Holly township, Saturday, Sept. 11.

From practically every automobile plant in the state will come executives who started their career with the Durant-Dort company.

Charles W. Nash, chairman of the board of the Nash-Kelvinator Corp., has written, "I haven't missed one yet. I'll be there."

W. C. Durant, founder of General Motors Corp., will come from New York for the reunion. John D. Mansfield will come from Canada where he is an executive in a Chrysler plant there.

The picnic this year has special significance since it marks the twentieth anniversary of the last buggy turned out by the plant in 1917.

There probably is not a person living in Holly today who worked in the Durant-Dort plant, for transportation then was slow and did not permit employees to live far from their places of work.

While the spotlight will be on the motor executives coming from outside the city, Flint will be well represented. A. B. C. Hardy, one-time vice-president of the wagon works and later Durant's right hand man in building up Durant's motor kingdom, is now retired and living in Flint, devoting much of his time to handling the business of Hurley Hospital.

Fred Aldrich, secretary and treasurer of the company, now supervises Red Cross activities and helps out with Flint's Community Chest drives.

They have all traveled a long way since the automobile ruined the buggy business 20 years ago, but on Sept. 11 at Lake Copneconic they will be just the "old Durant-Dort gang" again.

Alfalfa is one plant that needs to have a chance to get ready for winter. S. T. Dexter, college specialist in farm crops, explains that much of the winter damage to alfalfa is the result of improper fall management.

Even September pasturing is not advised. After a cutting is made, or while alfalfa is being pastured, the new growth that shows up is at the expense of food stored in the roots.

Avoid cutting or pasturing alfalfa in September, Dexter advises farmers who plan to use a field the following year.

POLICE DIRECTORY IS AGAIN ISSUED

Telephone Company Gets Out Fifth Annual Edition

The fifth edition of the Michigan Police Telephone Directory, published as an aid to law enforcement officers in their war on crime, is being distributed to local, county, state and federal authorities throughout Michigan by the Michigan Bell Telephone Company.

The new issue of the directory is eight pages thicker and somewhat more comprehensive than previous editions have been, containing additional information and listings, as well as designations to indicate the 22 police offices that are connected with the Wayne County Police Teletype System.

Listed in the directory are the names and telephone numbers of the heads of all Michigan municipal police departments; sheriffs of the state's 83 counties; commanding officers of all of the 34 State Police posts, and the several Federal law enforcement bureaus or branches in Michigan.

Inserted in the book, also, is a map, lithographed in colors, which shows the layout of the Wayne County Police Teletype law enforcement network, and the location of the teletype-writers connected with it, together with the call numbers of the 22 machines.

Detroit and Rockwood State Police posts, the Wayne sheriff's offices, Detroit, Police Radio Station on Belle Isle, and the Police departments of Detroit, Dearborn, Ecorse, Wyandotte, Flat Rock, Plymouth, Highland Park, Hamtramck, Grosse Pointe Park, Grosse Pointe Farms, Grosse Pointe City, Grosse Pointe Shores, Lincoln Park, Melvindale, Northville, River Rouge, Trenton and Wayne.

From one of the prominent motor vehicle police in an eastern state came the statement that the majority of accidents can be traced to the driver who is violating the law.

To some drivers law observance doesn't seem to mean anything at all. This type must be forced to obey the laws. Education has no effect upon them.

Tall Tales

As told to: ELMO FRANK E. and SCOTT HAGAN WATSON

The Duel That Failed

O. S. CLARK of Attica, Ind., went to the Texas Panhandle when it was wild and woolly. There he met Clay Allison, a famous gun-fighter who told him about the strangest duel he'd ever seen. It was between two frontiersmen who didn't like the color of each other's hair. So they agreed to fight it out with long rifles—stand back to back, then each take ten long steps, turn and begin firing.

The duel began. Each with his right eye drew a bead on the other's left eye—it wasn't sportsmanlike to shoot out the other man's right eye and thus spoil his aim. They fired at the same instant but neither bullet took effect.

They shot a second time—a third—a fourth—and a fifth. Still nothing happened. In fact they kept shooting until each man had used up 20 cartridges. "There's something spooky about this," said one. "Shore is!" said the other. "Maybe we ain't supposed to kill each other."

"Reckon we'd better call it off and shake hands," suggested the first. "Suits me!" said the second.

They started toward each other, each one taking ten long steps so they would meet face to face where they had parted back to back. As they met and clasped hands, one exclaimed "Ouch! Something's burnin' through my boot!"

They looked down. There on the ground was a pile of melted lead. The mystery of the bullets that failed to kill was solved. So accurate had been their aim that their bullets had met midway with such terrific force that they melted each other and dropped to the ground. Clay said he knew this was true because he saw the place on the ground where the melted lead had been and there wasn't a speck of grass growing there.

Facts About the Telephone

An average of almost 3,000,000 telephone calls are made every day in the State of New Jersey.

The last issue of the Boston and Vicinity Telephone Directory is the largest Boston directory ever issued.

Commercial radio telephone service has been inaugurated between Japan and Siam.

There are two types of teletype-writer equipment. One prints received messages on a letter-sized page, while the other prints on a continuous paper tape 1/4 of an inch wide.

The British Post Office, which operates Great Britain's telephone service, is making experiments with ultra-short wave radio telephony to determine the feasibility of establishing telephone service between the mainland and the Orkney and Shetland Islands.

Safetygrams

I have often wondered how rural communities select the drivers of school buses. Is this done in a sort of indifferent way and is the job given to anybody?

Every school bus driver should be selected for dependability, good habits, his knowledge of the rules of the road, and a tested ability to drive a bus properly. No driver under the age of 21 should be hired to drive a school bus.

Every driver should be provided with a set of rules which he must observe to the letter. His is a heavy responsibility, and the continuance of his employment should depend on his hearty and faithful acceptance of this responsibility.

No bus driver should drive a school bus for more than 10 hours in any 24 hour period.
Go slow—be safe.

Adventure Is Coming In The American Boy

Readers who like adventure and the lure of far places will find plenty to please them in coming issues of THE AMERICAN BOY Magazine. They'll read, for instance, of seamen and sabotage and San Francisco water-front trouble; of daring adventure in the world of pseudo-science, and of a feud aboard a plunging, rolling battleship.

They'll read, too, of excitement aboard a transport plane blaring over jungled Mexican mountains, and of stranger planes that are not bound to earth but swing through the noiselessness of space. Readers can follow a young ex-mountie as he searches for clues in the wild northlands, and Tierney, the pie-eating detective, on the trail of city criminals.

A new feature in THE AMERICAN BOY is picture pages that tell stories. Pictures, for instance, that vividly show a day in the life of a coast guardsman, and how an Eskimo husky sled dog does his work. They transmit the thrill of battling a hundred pound, water-churning tarpon. Tips on how it's done are also given pictorially—ranging from how to run a broken field to how to be correct in a ballroom!

NOTE: Subscription prices of THE AMERICAN BOY will be raised in the near future. Send your subscription order at once to take advantage of the bargain rates now in effect: one year at $1.00 or three years at $2.00. Foreign subscriptions 50c a year extra. Send your name, address and remittance to THE AMERICAN BOY, 7430 Second Blvd., Detroit. On newsstands the price is 15c a copy.

Another Philatelic novel has appeared, the second story to be written featuring stamps. The story is well written and up-to-the-minute, reference being made to the much discussed stars on the collar of General Lee's uniform on the four-cent Army stamp.

The novel "Lost Covers" is written by Edna Turpin.

According to a recent survey stamp collecting has increased fifty per cent in the past five years at Toronto, Canada. Many schools have taken up the hobby and the collectors range from the very young to very old.

Oven Canning
Is Now So Easy and Sure

I even sterilize the jars, tops, and rubbers in the oven by setting the heat control at 275 degrees. That's not hot enough to injure the rubbers, still it does kill the germs. Then after cleaning the berries or whatever I'm going to can I place them in the sterile jars filling with boiling syrup, of about half and half sugar and water, to within one inch of the top. Then I place the rubbers in position, screwing on the tops, or adjusting only the upper clamps, but not sealing them tight. Place the jars in the oven, set at 275 degrees, set the timer for 30 to 45 minutes, depending upon the kind of berries, and relax. When the timer rings the canning is done. The jar tops are then immediately sealed securely and are ready for storing.
