COMMENT AND CRITICISM

We once knew a man who was too stingy to take the newspaper in his home town and always sent over to borrow his neighbor's paper.

One evening he sent his son over to borrow the paper, and while his son was on his way he ran into a large swarm of bees and in a few minutes his face looked like a summer squash.

Hearing the agonized cries of his son, the father ran to his assistance, and in doing so ran into a barbed wire fence, cutting a handful of flesh from his anatomy and ruining a $4.00 pair of pants.

The old cow took advantage of the hole in the fence, got into the corn field and killed herself eating green corn. Hearing the racket, the farmer's wife ran out of the house, upsetting a four-gallon churn-full of cream into a basket of kittens and killed the entire flock. She slipped on the cream and fell downstairs, broke her leg and a $19 set of false teeth. The baby, left alone, then crawled through the cream into the parlor and ruined a $40 carpet. During the excitement the daughter eloped with the hired man and took all the family savings with her.

The moral is that every man should be a subscriber to his home paper.

It is a pleasure now and then to forget the cares of the world and listen to our subscribers. Our thanks, then, to a loyal reader who sent in the above item.

HOLLY THEATRE

Going far afield for a picturesque setting for a movie, Warner Bros. this time chose Iraq (which used to be Arabia) as a locale. They placed a British garrison there, had its members surrounded by wild natives, and offered the problem of how the soldiers and their officers and wives were to be saved—if saved they might be.

"Another Dawn" is the name of the picture. It is scheduled to open on Tuesday at the Holly Theatre. Add to that situation the fact that Kay Francis is the lady most chiefly concerned—and that the two men who love her are Errol Flynn and Ian Hunter—and both have a chance to save her and the garrison—and you have the ingredients of real drama.

Errol Flynn is said to surpass his performance in that history-making movie, "The Charge of the Light Brigade." And it is said, too, that Hunter (once the idol of all the matinee girls in London) has the best opportunity that has come to him since the Warners imported him to play the Duke of Athens in "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

There are mountains and deserts and a lot of fighting and some extremely daring airplane flying in "Another Dawn", the producers declare. Also a stirring climax when the time comes for one or the other of Miss Francis' adorers to save the garrison.

Besides the three stars, the cast includes such excellent players as Frieda Inescort, Herbert Mundin, Billy Bevan, Clyde Cook, Mary Forbes and G. P. Huntley, Jr.

CHILDREN IN COURT

Judge Malcolm Hatfield. An unusual case was recently referred to the juvenile court in which an adolescent girl displayed a pronounced hostility toward the church, school, and public officials.

A careful investigation by an officer of the court revealed that the girl's parents had on numerous occasions ridiculed the appearance of certain teachers, ministers, and police officers in her presence. Consequently, her respect for these institutions and law and order was greatly undermined for she felt that religion was a racket and the average public official a grating politician.

The wise parent upholds the church and school teacher in all she says even though she has made a somewhat hasty decision. It is far more satisfactory to approach a teacher privately and frankly discuss a grievance than abuse her in the child's presence. Once a youngster learns that the home, school and church stand united, she will think twice before she breaks the rules of either.

Clarkston Choral Club Has First Meeting

Orlo Willoughby Is the New Director

On Monday evening the Clarkston Choral Club held the first meeting for the season at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Huttenlocher.

At seven o'clock a lovely pot-luck supper was served. There were about twenty-eight enjoyed a delicious meal and a happy hour or more of visiting before the business meeting was held.

The president, Mrs. Henry Woolfenden, conducted the meeting. The group was sorry to hear Charles Hutton make the announcement that he would not be with the Club as director this year. Mr. Hutton in a few words told how much he had enjoyed working with the Club and complimented the members on the progress they had made. He asked everyone to cooperate with the new director, Orlo Willoughby, and said he was happy to think that the Club was able to get a director with such musical ability. Mr. and Mrs. Willoughby were introduced and welcomed. Several items of business were discussed and decided. New members will be welcomed at the school next Monday evening at 7:30 when the first rehearsal will be held.

Mrs. Charles Hutton was present and gave the Club's music to Mrs. Willoughby, the newly elected librarian. The group enjoyed singing some of the old numbers with Mr. Hutton leading.

From all appearances the Club is starting a new season with renewed vigor. New members are invited to enroll before any new music is ordered. To those who have a love for music especially singing, the hour spent at the school each Monday evening is a real pleasure.

Clemens Road, Pontiac, with 15 members present. Mrs. George Kimball, Jr., of Waterford, president, called the meeting to order following a co-operative luncheon.

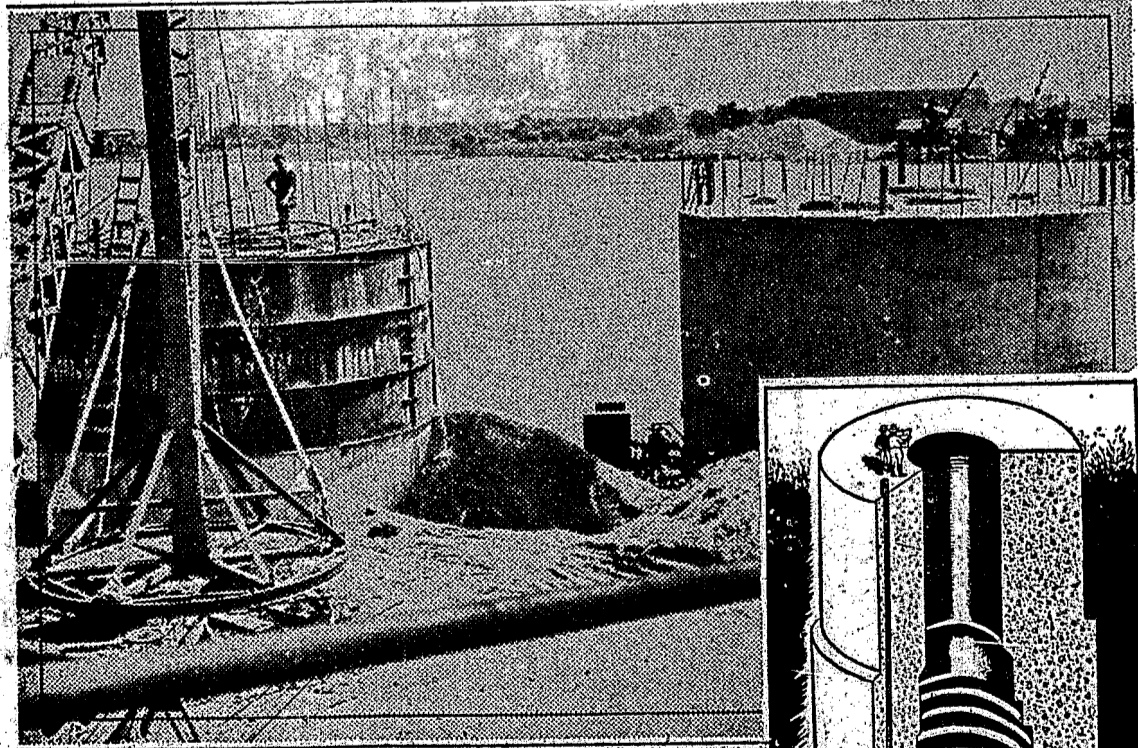

Mrs. Reame Bailey, field worker and executive secretary, in talking over the work of the League with the board, stressed the tremendous need for protective work among girls in the county, this being the first aim of this organization to give friendly protective advice and care to girls, always with the idea of keeping any from the publicity of the juvenile court, where possible. Mrs. Bailey spoke of the appreciation expressed by parents and girls for what the League had done for them. Forty-four cases are now being looked after with strictest confidence.

In the general discussion following a financial report this organization which has been carrying on this work for 16 years, expressed fears for the efficiency of its work in a possible curtailing of its income from the county. No other agency is organized to do the particular kind of work the Girls' Protective League does and never has there been greater need.

There were a few guests from Pontiac and they entered into the fun. It was very amusing to see the boys and girls eating crackers and then trying to whistle.

HUMOR

Customer: I want a book for a boy seven years.

Clerk: Studious, or normal?

Manager to Clinton Russell, waiting at the head of an escalator: Lose something, sir?

Clinton: Yes, I dropped a dime on these stairs and I'm waiting for it to come up again.

Howard Boyns (home from the first day at school): Mother, the teacher asked me a question today that no one else in our class could answer.

Mother, proudly: What was it, son?

Howard: Our telephone number.

Motor cop, to Mr. Waters, (our Math. Prof.): So you saw the accident, sir. What was the number of the car that hit the poor man?

Mr. Waters: I'm afraid I've forgotten, but I remember noticing that if it were multiplied by fifty, the cube root of the product would be equal to the sum of the digits reversed.

Dr. Shurz: What kind of filling do you want in that tooth, Arthur?

Art Clark: Chocolate, please.

She: How gracefully George Beardslee eats corn-on-the-cob.

He: Yes, he is piccolo player on the school orchestra.

Dan: It's all over the school.

King: What?

Dan: The roof.

Safetygrams

What would you do in case you happened upon a serious automobile accident and found one or several occupants bleeding profusely from cuts?

Most people would rush to call an ambulance or a doctor, or hurry the injured to a hospital.

But, how about those precious moments when you are waiting for the doctor or are enroute to the hospital? Are you capable of administering first aid to stop the bleeding?

Many, many precious lives could have been saved if someone at the time of the accident had been familiar with the simple method of stopping bleeding by applying pressure with the fingers at certain points on the body, depending upon the location of the injury.

You can get pamphlets or bulletins on this subject from your local drug store, library, boy scout leader, or from your insurance company.

A reflector lamp Means GOOD LIGHTING!

Make sure that the lamp you buy has the reflector under the shade and you need never worry about whether or not you will have good lighting. These reflector lamps are scientifically designed to assure easy, comfortable seeing.
 Every reflector lamp has a translucent bowl under the shade to filter the light and remove glare. The bowl serves to diffuse the light and give good distribution both upward and downward. Part of the light is reflected to the ceiling to provide general illumination. The white lining of the shade is one of the features designed to give you the most light for the money. A reflector lamp furnishes a soft, restful light that enriches the color and beauty of a room and its furnishings, and provides scientific protection against glare and eyestrain.
 There is a reflector lamp styled to your needs—priced to fit your pocketbook. See the wide assortment of these smart new lamps today.
