CLARKSTON, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, JANUARY 21, 1938

NUMBER 21

COMMENT AND CRITICISM

It seems that we can skip the village and township elections and hop right into the primaries. Hence the information is being passed around that Frank N. Perrin of Clarkston, with a law office in Pontiac will run on the Democratic ticket against Congressman Dondero. Rumor has it that the U. A. W. will aid his candidacy.

There is quite a little talk about the proposed sale of the old school. Next Tuesday we will see what action there is. Personally the idea of converting the building into a hospital sounds very good.

Have you signed the petition, being passed by the Legion for universal draft? In a few words the bill as proposed would hold prices stationary if war started. It would stop profiteering by the manufacturer (capital does not like it); it would stop high prices for farm produce (farmers do not like it); it would prohibit higher wages for labor (labor does not like it) but it would place the burden of war upon not only the young man who may make the supreme sacrifice, but on everyone. It might even stop war if there was no profit and it certainly is a good idea. Whether it would work is another question but the results as proposed would be "Great, if ye could get them".

Case Warns Motorists Regarding New Law

Indications that many motorists of Michigan are seeking to evade the coming examination for operators licenses are offered from applications received from persons whose present license will be valid for some time to come.

Leon D. Case, Secretary of State, has warned that the state's licensing act prohibits the issuance of a license to any applicant whose present license does not expire in less than six months. Several thousand premature applications have been returned to applicants in the past few weeks.

This process adds to the cost of administration of the license law because of the involvements of the procedure. Credit of 15 cents to local governments for each license has already been posted on departmental books when applicants are checked; in instances where applications are rejected, such credits must be withdrawn. The entire refunding process to the counties is slowed up by the increasing volume of such operations.

Red Cross Sponsors Lay Instructors Course

A Lay Instructors Course in Red Cross First Aid will be given January 31 to February 12 in The Baldwin High School, Birmingham, Michigan.

Dr. W. A. Castles, First Aid Representative of the National American Red Cross will instruct the class according to Dr. Ethan B. Cudney, Chairman of First Aid Committee of the Oakland County Chapter.

The Red Cross is engaged in a nation-wide program of training people with teaching ability as instructors in accident-prevention and what to do following mishaps, before the doctor arrives. Industry, the building trades and the maintenance of power and telephone lines are among the occupations presenting the daily risk of personal injury. Home accidents are also a serious menace.

Lay instructors are qualified by the Red Cross to organize and conduct classes according to a sound program of community education.

The course will only be open to individuals who have completed the Standard Course in Red Cross First Aid.

Dr. Castles, a member of the First Aid Staff of the Midwestern Branch Office of the American National Red Cross, St. Louis, received his Liberal Arts education at Albion, Iowa, Junior College and the University of Iowa. He received his Medical Degree from the College of Medicine of the University of Iowa. Since 1925 he has been in the field of industrial surgery.

Dr. Quinlan Speaks On Dental Hygiene

Clarkston P. T. A. Had the First Meeting for the Year

On Wednesday evening the Clarkston P. T. A. met for the first time this year. There was a small attendance in spite of the fact that an excellent speaker was present.

The president, James Bennett presided. The meeting opened with two selections by five of the High School orchestra led by Orlo Willoughby. Those who played were Dan Addis, clarinet, Alvin Beardslee, flute, Paul Shaughnessy, violin, Art Clark, horn and Betty Ash at the piano.

The president made brief remarks and then appointed his committees. The membership committee is composed of Mrs. John Alander, Mrs. Arnold Mann, Mrs. Walter Ash, Mrs. Chester Fiske, Mrs. Robert Boyns, Mrs. Judd Skarritt, Mrs. Lionel Waterbury and Mrs. Edward Lee Porritt.

Mrs. Kennedy, secretary, told of a program of health talks that might be sponsored by the organization and it was decided to make plans accordingly. The program is outlined in another article in this paper. The Finance chairman, Mrs. Robert Walters, announced a dance on Feb. 18th in the school auditorium. This is to be a "Washington Swing" and extensive plans are being made. The committee is doing real work. They have secured a peppy orchestra, "The Michigan Ramblers". Favors will be a feature and of course refreshments will be served. This dancing party will be different than any ever held here. The auditorium will be transformed into—but why tell everything—the committee would like to have something for a surprise.

Mr. Bennett then introduced Dr. Quinlan who talked on Dental Hygiene. His talk was very interesting and one that all parents should have heard. He described the structure of the tooth and the growth from babyhood until the permanent teeth have fully developed. He also explained why the baby teeth should receive care.

About 9:30 the refreshment committee served and everyone enjoyed visiting while nibbling cookies and sipping tea or coffee.

7:30 TONIGHT

Clarkston Represented At League Institute

A group of Epworth Leaguers from Clarkston went to Flint on Saturday, January 15, to a Mid-Winter Institute which was held at the Court Street church. After registration, the Leaguers had an opportunity to choose the topic in which they were interested. Several of the Clarkstonites chose "Aids To Worship", and visited three churches—Catholic, Episcopal and Jewish—and had some one explain the customs of each to him. Those who chose "World Travel" remained in the church and made a large map. As each country was constructed the customs and problems of that country were explained. In the afternoon they had a get-acquainted court hearing conducted by Reverend Large. Different topics were discussed in the afternoon that would be beneficial to the officers of the League. The program of the evening consisted of a movie, play and a discussion of the morning topics. Sunday school and church occupied Sunday morning. In the afternoon there was a special address to the Leaguers.

George Beardslee, Violet Coy, Leda Miller, Betty Chamberlain, Charlotte Sue Miller, Evelyn Walz and Clinton Russell made up the Clarkston group. Betty Chamberlain was the official delegate.

Students Are Honored At Faculty Reception

Lillian Beardslee of Clarkston Is Among Those Enrolled

Among the 488 who enrolled when Cleary College, Ypsilanti, opened for the winter term on January 4 were several Clarkston students.

The students were honored at a faculty reception, held at the College, on the evening of January 7. After they were greeted by school officials in the receiving line, a get-acquainted dance was held.

The College offers one, two and four-year courses. These are so arranged that the shorter courses become units in the longer. A student may complete a one-year course with the assurance that he will get a position. If he wishes to alternate years of work and study, he may ultimately complete a four-year curriculum, for which the degree of Bachelor of Science is given.

Extracurricular organizations, especially the Men's Union and the Women's League, are drawing the new students into their activities. At the first assembly of the term, new students who have musical ability were urged to join the College orchestra and chorus. First-year students may become members of the publications staff and assist in the editing of a newspaper and annual.

The number of students being placed in positions upon completing their training is considered an indication that the business recession is passing, school officials declared.

Among the students from this district enrolled is Lillian Beardslee.

People are prone to blame accidents on weather conditions. The human being never wants to blame himself for falling to do something that might have prevented an accident.

A study of highway conditions made recently indicated that 75 per cent of the accidents occurred on dry roads. 85 per cent of the accidents happened in clear weather.

Here is an amazing fact—95 per cent of the vehicles involved in all automobile accidents in 1935 were apparently in good condition. We have repeatedly warned that brakes should not be overlooked. Braking power is needed; good lights are needed. These are mechanical contrivances that must be checked regularly to keep the automobile in perfect condition.

But the driver must be in perfect condition also.

CHILDREN IN COURT

Judge Malcolm Hatfield

Juvenile judges, educators, and others interested in eliminating new recruits to the standing army of three and a half million criminals who are preying on honest citizens, hold little hope for the future. In other words, they expect that twenty cents out of every dollar earned in the United States during 1938 will continue to go into the criminal's pocket or be used in an ineffective campaign to halt his operations. Crime will continue to pay in this country as long as nothing is done to prevent boys from becoming delinquent. Why spend billions of dollars annually attempting the impossible task of curbing the hardened offender? The electric chair can never be substituted for the character training that a child must get when he is in the high chair stage.

Character training should be gained in the home and church. With twelve million children outside the church, and indifferent parents neglecting the character training of their children, this responsibility must be accepted by our public schools and universities.

MUST NOT WASTE EXCESS POTATOES

Only By Feeding Can Farmers Collect Diversion Payments

There has been some misunderstanding by both farmers and people who are not farmers in regard to the Potato Diversion Program according to Robert McCrory, chairman of Oakland County Agricultural Conservation Committee. The principal of diverting excess potatoes into livestock feed rather than allowing them to become a direct loss underlies the entire program and no payment will be made in case the potatoes are wasted or destroyed.

Michigan's 1937 potato crop of 26,634,000 bushels is about 2 1/2 million bushels larger than the 1936 crop and about 7 1/4 million bushels larger than the average for the period 1928 thru 1932. Michigan's livestock diversion represents about 15 percent of the increase in production in 1937 over the 5-year average.

The payment of 15c per bushel is made to encourage this principle by the potato producers with the thought that with this encouragement they will feed their lower grades of potatoes and put on the market their best potatoes of which there is an ample supply. The criticism that farmers should not feed their potatoes is just as unjust as it would be to criticize a farmer for feeding wheat or corn to his livestock or surplus milk to his hogs, says Mr. McCrory.

To get this payment the farmer must apply to the County Agricultural Conservation Office. After his application has been approved he must inform the county office of the date he will have his potatoes ready for inspection, and where the potatoes are located. To prepare for inspection the potatoes that are intended for feed must be separated from any potatoes he expects to sell, eat or plant and be in a bin or container in such a manner that the bushels may be computed. A licensed inspector will inspect for grade and amount, and dye all eligible lots. The dye used in this connection is not a poison and is applied in such a manner that no harm can come from its use.

It has to be BIG!

The people of Michigan make an average of 3,265,000 telephone calls a day over the lines of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company—about 2250 every minute. It's a big job to keep this enormous tide of conversation flowing smoothly back and forth . . . to keep good service available at all hours. This job takes 3,916,000 miles of wire. It takes 653,000 telephones. It takes 326 buildings. And it takes a working force of 9300 men and women. In short, it takes a big company to do a big job!

Clarkston Loses to Walled Lake

On last Friday, Clarkston was out-cast by a tall fast outbreking Walled Lake quintet and beaten by a score of 37-19. The same team defeated Clarkston 34-5 last year and is the best team in the league at present.

The game attracted the largest crowd of the season. The bleachers were filled and many stood during the game. Cheers were led by Charlotte Sue Miller, Marion Chamberlain, Irene Walz and Bill Wilson. The orchestra played between halves of the second team game and at the close of it.

This game was a relapse after the tough game Clarkston gave Keejo last Friday. But the boys are improving and probably will make a better showing in their second game with Walled Lake as they have done on several previous occasions.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

Question: What is your favorite library magazine?

La Verne Webber—"I like the National Geographic because it is so interesting and contains much valuable source material."

Arlene McCann—"Time is my favorite because it contains news of the day which is written in such a manner that all can understand."

Evelyn Walz—"I like the Fiction Parade because it contains many interesting stories and poetry."

Marion Beemer—"Popular Science is my library favorite because it has many interesting and new ideas."

Mrs. Durand—"Readers Digest. I enjoy the Readers Digest because it contains accounts of important articles for quick readers."

Miss Wellington—"My favorites are Scribners because of its literary value and the fact that it encourages young authors, and Current History because of its penetrating view on international relations."

Interclass Basketball

In the Interclass games the Senior teams have continued their winning streaks and are still undefeated. Since going to press last week the Senior boys have defeated the Juniors 29-14 and the Sophs 22-5. The Senior girls triumphed over the tenth graders with a score of 12-6.

Among the underclassmen considerable excitement was aroused when the eighth grade boys defeated the Freshmen by a score of 20-18. However this was only offsetting the victory of the Freshmen girls who on the previous day had blanked the eighth grade girls by a 5-0 score.

The Sophomore girls and Junior girls once more played a game resulting in tie. This time each team made 3 points.

In and About C. H. S.

The stirring sound of drums is heard about the school every morning reminding us that our drummers and drum major are practicing.

McIntyre had better be careful—one of these days those fellows from the "bug house" will get him—he's going around school whispering-shouting-yelling: "Ju Ju! Ju Ju! Ju Ju!" Maybe it has to do with Julia Edgar. Weren't you out there all day Sunday, Mac?

Photography Club entries are all in, we hear there aren't many, but that there are some pretty good ones.

No one around school knows the correct wording of that song: "My Mere Mis x'ol! Shane!" That is as much as we know of it. Can anyone help us clear up the matter? Everyone is singing it but no one knows the words.

This is just another suggestion, but how about having request assemblies once more. There's plenty of amateur talent lying around the corridors.

Speaking of lying around the corridor. McIntyre is surely talented at that!

The girls on the staff surely wish that the high school boys would refrain from skiing; everyone seems to be well bumped and scratched.

To quote Clinton Russell: "Women spend half their lives trying to look well, and the other half wondering whether they do or not."

Everyone was in his place at assembly under the new seating arrangement. Dick Tee was very efficient in directing everyone to his proper section.

Alumni who attended the Walled Lake game included Pat DeLap, Angie Marcora, Jr. Waterbury, Durward Ash, Mildred Butters, June Dunston, Margaret Shaughnessy, Reta Halsey, Lyle Rexford, Duane Hursfall, Basil Tucker, Clare Kasmuson, Marion Yost, Eleanor Baynes, Louise Gulick, Gordon Parker, Winnie Miller, Caroline Walter, and Charlotte Spencer.

Mr. Beyns' Sunday School Party had a very nice time at the sleigh ride party given at Phyllis Beardsley's home. After a good old fashioned sleigh ride which gave us all an appetite, we were served a lovely dinner. Later in the evening, progressive bug and fiddle-sticks were played.

C. H. S. is still buzzing with the gossip of the conduct of two upper class boys at a social gathering. Manners are still in style.

The World History Class has decided that there were just too many "Mary's" in the Tudor and Stuart royal families of England. But after all it's a little late to do anything about changing some of those names.

The Safety Patrol is a fine addition to C. H. S. It is hoped that all will give to the boys their wholehearted cooperation.

We think the model boy should have: Art Clark's physique, Dick Gantner's complexion, Frank Russell's hair, Leslie Vlie's eyes, Dan Addis's personality, King McIntyre's clothes, Clinton Russell's brains, Ken Wainman's line, Charlie Perry's teeth, Dick Lowrie's pep, George Beardslee's manners, Russell Wilson's smile, Paul Shaughnessy's music ability and Ralph Yost's athletic ability.

STATE WILD LIFE PROMOTION PLAN

Pupils to Be Enlisted in Essay Contest in Michigan Schools

Who remembers that native of Michigan, now extinct—the passenger pigeon, or the game fish grayling; that once was so abundant and now is found no more?

Throughout Michigan school children in two classes from first thru the eighth grades and from the 9th thru the 12th grades are being told they are eligible to compete for prizes in a statewide essay contest designed to promote interest in wild life restoration in Michigan.

P. A. Herbert, head of the forestry department at Michigan State College and general chairman of the Michigan wildlife restoration week committee, is issuing the challenge to the school children.

"Go back to your elders," he advises, "and find out what the state once had that is no longer abundant in wild life. Some were valuable, others would still be a menace. But we want to know more about old time wildlife history of the state."

Trophies and medals are being prepared for the winners and in some communities special local prizes are being offered. Essays must be submitted to school principals by March 1, to county school commissioners by March 7. Three winning essays in each county are to be in the hands of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, Lansing, by March 14. Winners are to be announced in the finals Monday, March 21.

Leaflets describing the contest are being distributed in schools thruout the state.

HOLLY THEATRE

Walter Winchell and Ben Bernie, those famous feudists who put puns into their punches, are back for the greatest return match in his-tory in "Love and Hisses", coming Sunday to the Holly Theatre. This time the reason for all the barbed wit is the fight over their new sweet-hot from Paris, the saucy and vivacious Simone Simon, who sings operatic arias and popular ballads for the greatest surprise of the year.

This new-idea musical show from hit-making Twentieth Century-Fox features a great laugh-a-second cast, including Bert Lahr, Joan Davis, Dick Baldwin, the Raymond Scott Quintet, Ruth Terry, Douglas Fowley and Chick Chandler.

Brand new hot-and-hissing songs by Gordon and Revel head the musical score, with additional hit parade leaders by Pollack and Mitchell, Raymond Scott, and Zeno and Irwin.

Darryl F. Zanuck, maker of the screen's biggest hit shows, was in charge of production and Sidney Lanfield directed. Lanfield also made "Sing, Baby, Sing," "Thin Ice," "One in a Million," and "Wake Up and Live."

The result is laughs and kisses, music and misses, and a show that's got "ummph!" the new 1938 requirement of musical comedies.

The punning funsters of "Wake Up and Live" get all excited over the talents of a cute little number fresh from Paris, played by Simone. Bernie, the "old maestro," discovers her first, and asks Winchell to help put her over by a "plug" in his column. Because she is Bernie's protege Winchell refuses even to listen to Simone, so the band leader concocts a plot.

The conspiracy works and Winchell's enthusiasm, syndicated in hundreds of newspapers, brings fame to the little French songstress. Winchell doesn't know that she is Bernie's singer until shortly before the "maestro's" new club is to open when Simone reveals her identity and exposes the plot to the columnist.

Winchell thereupon swears revenge on his favorite enemy and the laugh-filled climax presents the most hilarious idea in vengeance since happy endings were invented.

Woven into the continuity are bright musical spots featuring specialty numbers by the Peters Sisters, Chilton and Thomas and the Brewster Twins.

Kenneth Macgowan served as associate producer for the screen play by Curtis Kenyon and Art Arthur, from a story by Art Arthur.

Knickerbocker, after a journey which took him half way around the world, discloses startling findings of terror—yellow and red—threatening the world.

Fishermen's Wives Must "Pay Own Way"

Lansing—Fishermen's wives must "pay their own way" if they go angling for trout this year, but can take other species on their husbands' non-trout licenses.

Under the new fishing regulations which became effective Jan. 1, two types of licenses are provided for, one of which, costing 50 cents, serves both husband and wife while the other, costing a dollar, is good for its purchaser only. In 1937 only one resident fishing license was provided for at a fee of 50 cents and this entitled both husband and wife to fish for all species in accordance with the provisions of the law.

The 1938 amendments provide for a license designated by the department of conservation as a "resident non-trout license" which costs 50 cents and which entitles both husband and wife to fish for all species except brown, rainbow and brook trout. The dollar permit, designated as a "resident fishing license," entitles the holder to take all species of fish including brown, rainbow and brook, but makes no provision for the wife of the purchaser.

Among questions which have been raised regarding the new regulations are the following:

Question: Is the wife of a holder of a "resident non-trout license," fee 50 cents, entitled to fish without purchase of a license?

Answer: Yes, provided she obtains the wife's identification slip which accompanies the husband's license.

Question: What kind of fish may the wife of a holder of a "resident non-trout license" catch?

Answer: All species within the provisions of the law except brook, brown and rainbow trout.

Question: Is the wife of the holder of a "resident fishing license," fee one dollar, entitled to fish without purchase of a license?

Answer: No. And if she desires to take other than brook, brown or rainbow trout, then she must purchase in her own name a "resident non-trout license" for a fee of 50 cents. If she desires to fish for brook, brown or rainbow trout, then she must purchase a "resident fishing license," fee one dollar, which entitles her to take all species of fish.

Question: Does the law provide for the exchange of a 50 cent license for a one-dollar license by payment of an additional 50 cents?

Answer: No. The purchaser of a resident license should anticipate the type of fishing he is going to do.

Another change in the regulations is reduction of the age limit for having a license, from 18 to 17, which applies to non-residents as well as residents.

What Every Driver Must Know

DRIVERS' LICENSES

A new drivers' permit law is effective in Michigan. This article states in the highlights of the revised regulations.

Persons operating motor vehicles must carry their licenses with them. Those without adequate driving experience may obtain 60-day temporary permits, provided they pass the required examination. After obtaining needed driving experience, they take the driving test and get a driver's license upon passing.

A licensed operator must occupy the seat beside anyone driving with a temporary permit.

Drivers' licenses are valid three years from issuance date. If you change your name or address at any time, report it to your police station or sheriff, who will enter it on the license card and notify the Secretary of State.

New York Fair To Honor Press

NEW YORK (Special)—To remind millions of visitors to the New York World's Fair 1939 that freedom of the press has helped preserve the democratic form of our government, a statue dedicated to that constitutional liberty will be erected on the $60,000,000 Central Mall, Grover A. Whalen, president of the Fair corporation, announces.

The statue will depict a partially nude woman, representing "the unadorned truth," watching the passing show of world events and recording history day-by-day. A tribute to the moral standard of the press as a whole is contained in the subordinate figure of a child reading a newspaper.

Freedom of religion, speech and assembly will be combined with freedom of press to suggest that these four factors are the cornerstone of democratic government.

Clarkston Locals

Mrs. Jessie Walter who was seriously ill at the home of her son in Pontiac is now recovering.

Everyone was glad to see Mrs. David McClelland at the dinner at the Clarkston M. E. Church on Wednesday evening. Mrs. McClelland has been very ill for quite some time.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ronk and two sons spent the week-end in Lansing with Mr. and Mrs. Irving Ronk and family. To make the trip more interesting they travelled by train which, in this modern age, is not a common mode of travelling such a short distance.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Miller left on Wednesday for Florida. They took their trailer along and expect to do some sight-seeing on the way down.

STAMPS

While stamp collecting has long served to relieve the monotonous moments of the physically handicapped, it is quite recent that it has become a part of the treatment of the mentally ill.

The New York State Psychiatric Institute and Hospital has made stamp collecting a part of its occupational therapy work. Each child has been given a stamp album and stamps to mount therein. The pride that is shown by the children during the past two years of such activity, have proved the hobby to be an important interest to them.

Their collections too, have been made part of the class work. During the year they select from their albums stamps portraying various peoples, means of transportation, animals, American historical scenes, etc., and tell what they can about them.

Unfortunately the hospital has no fund with which to purchase stamps and so must depend on the generosity of stamp collectors and others who are interested in helping to promote activities of this nature. Those who desire to do so are asked to send stamps to Miss Marguerite Vaughan, New York State Psychiatric Institute and Hospital, 722 West 168th Street, New York, New York.

Freedom of Press

NEW YORK—Portraying "the unadorned truth," this statue will be dedicated to the constitutional right of freedom of the press in the "Four Freedoms" statutory group on the Central Mall of the New York World's Fair 1939.

Shortage Is Faced in Rural School Teachers

"A Teacher Shortage Faces the 5,800 One and Two Room Schools in Michigan," was the subject of an announcement made by Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, Superintendent of Public Instruction, to the Rural School Committee meeting in Lansing this week. 150,000 children attend these schools which are run by 17,000 school board members. Elliott said, "Children in these schools should have just as well qualified teachers as the city and village schools." He said that the State Board of Education would grant tuition-scholarships to 400 young men and women for two-year specialized courses in the State Teachers Colleges. The scholarships will be offered to young people who are qualified and suited for the work in the country districts.

COLOR SCHEMES ON STATE HIGHWAYS

License Plates Show Great Variety as New Year Opens Up

Perhaps at no time in the history of auto license plates has there been such a lavish use of brilliant colors as in the 1938 plates.

Michigan is very gay with black on green and Connecticut also uses the same but it is listed as "aluminum green".

Nine states use black on yellow with a slight variation in the shade; at least 4 states have black on white, ivory or aluminum, while Kansas, Texas and Rhode Island have exactly the same, white on black. Twenty-four have blacks in some form, sixteen have yellow and 8, have green, 6 have aluminum, while blues and reds trail and so on down to one lone purple. Alabama has orange on purple.

With Michigan one of the most popular tourist states, one is apt to meet with cars from any state in a week-end trip but there are always a few neighbors we are apt to see any day in Clarkston. These may be listed as:

Illinois—White on dark green.
Indiana—Red on white.
Ohio—Black on white.
Wisconsin—Black on aluminum.
New York—Yellow on black.
Pennsylvania—Blue on golden yellow.
Ontario—Orange on peacock blue.

OWNERS REPORT 22 TO 27 MILES PER GALLON!

1938 STANDARD TUDOR

22 to 27 miles per gallon of gasoline! That's what many owners are reporting for the 60-horsepower Ford V-8.

That's real economy. And you'll like everything else about this Ford V-8 "60." It's smart looking. Interiors are trim and there's plenty of room for both passengers and luggage. The 85-horsepower engine is available if you want its extra power.

The Ford 60-horsepower V type 8-cylinder engine was introduced last year. More than 300,000 people have bought it. That gives a pretty good idea of its popularity. Besides its amazing economy, the thrifty "60" is dependable and can take the beating of continued hard farm use.

For those folks who want a bigger, finer car with all the traditional Ford economy and dependability—there's the De Luxe Ford V-8. It is built on the same sturdy 112-inch wheel-base chassis but it is equipped with the 85-horsepower engine only.
