Mrs. Ainsworth Wyckoff, Mrs. Albert Merten and Mrs. James Lambert were joint hostesses last Friday evening at the Lambertson home at a miscellaneous shower honoring Mrs. Rex Buchanan, who before her recent marriage was Miss Elmyra Hall. A very pleasant evening was spent. The hostesses served dainty refreshments and the guest of honor received many lovely gifts and the best wishes of all of her friends and relatives. The guests included Mrs. Charles F. Hall, Mrs. Harold Buchanan, Mrs. Fred Bixby, Mrs. Lloyd Grignon, Mrs. Arthur Walter, Mrs. August Jacober, Mrs. Joseph Helman, Mrs. Angus McCaffrey, Mrs. O. L. Stegman, Mrs. Ernest Blimka, Miss Charlotte Hall, Miss Lucille Hall, Mrs. Harold Walter, Mrs. Jessie Walter of Clarkston, and Mrs. Lorenz Kennel of Detroit.

The Bible Class of the Waterford Sunday School held its April meeting at the Church on Tuesday evening. There were 26 present. The hostesses were Mrs. James Saylor and Mrs. John Miller. The meeting was opened by the class president, Rev. Howard Jewell. Group singing with Mrs. Howard Burt at the piano was enjoyed. Roll Call was answered with a Bible verse on "Judge". For each meeting Rev. Jewell prepares a set of three questions to be answered by the class. This proves very interesting and helpful. The lesson from the 4th chapter of 2nd Corinthians was presented by Henry Mehler. The recreation period was in charge of Mrs. Emeline Hurd and Mrs. John Watchpocket. Refreshments were served at a long table prettily decorated with yellow and white. The Roll Call for the May meeting will be answered with a Bible verse on "Trust".

The April meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary was held in the Church parlors on Thursday of last week. There were 29 seated at one long table decorated with bright spring colors. The hostesses were Mrs. H. B. Mehler and Mrs. Lucretia Householder. The meeting opened with songs led by Mrs. Clifford Wood at the piano. Mrs. P. L. McLaughlin, the president, presided. The Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison. Plans were made for the Penny Supper to be held at the Church on April 29th. The Willing Workers circle will have charge. Mrs. John Meyers, Mrs. John Miller and Mrs. Howard Mortimore were named as hostesses for the May meeting. At the May meeting the members will turn in the money they have earned by serving dinners to their friends. The amount of $1.00 each or more will likely be realized. Roll Call was answered with "Things of Interest for April". For May the Roll Call will be answered with a poem or household hint. Mrs. Clifford Wood and Mrs. Fred Briggs joined Mrs. John Gillespie, Mrs. H. B. Mehler, and Mrs. Earl Schwalm submitted their report and the following officers were elected: president, Mrs. Ainsworth Wyckoff; vice president, Mrs. Earl Schwalm; 2nd vice president, Mrs. John Gillespie; 3rd vice president, Mrs. Emeline Hurd; secretary, Mrs. James Stites; assistant secretary, Mrs. Floyd Winslow; treasurer, Mrs. A. W. Emery; flower committee, Mrs. Howard Mortimore, Mrs. Otto Duguid and Mrs. Arthur Babbs. Plans for painting the Church steeple and laying the carpet in the Church were discussed and committees were named to have charge of each project.

The annual business meeting of the Dixie Ann Circle was held at the home of Mrs. A. D. Smith on Thursday. Election of officers took place. Mrs. Sydney Kubersky who recently underwent an operation at the Cottage hospital in Grosse Pte. was sufficiently recovered to return to her home here on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parmenter of Andersonville Road returned to their home this week after staying at the home of relatives in Pontiac for a time while they were on a Florida trip.

Mrs. Etta Campbell spent the weekend with her children at the farm home on Airport Road before returning to Grand Rapids to stay another month at the Annis home. Mr. and Mrs. Annis are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter.

Mrs. Irving King had the great misfortune to be injured when the horse she was leading, stumbled and threw her breaking two bones in her arm. Dr. L. G. Rowley was called and he took her to the hospital to determine the extent of her injuries.

Mrs. P. L. McLaughlin, past president of the Ladies' Auxiliary, named the following committee to have charge of the finances for the painting of the Church steeple: Henri Buck, chairman, Henry Mehler, Donald Williams, George Carter and P. E. McLaughlin.

The annual business meeting of the Church will be held on the last Friday in April. Mrs. John Watchpocket, Donald Williams, and Rev. Howard Jewell were named as a nominating committee to work with the pastor, Rev. S. W. McFalls.

The attendance at the Sunday School on Sunday was 141. The banner class was the Bible Class with an attendance of 25. The Primary Class ran a close second with 24 present. Rev. McFalls teaches the Bible Class and Mrs. Mehler the Primary Class. The Children's exercises in the Sunday School on Sunday morning will start at 10:15. Mrs. Ainsworth Wyckoff assisted by Misses Anita Harris and Virginia Rousch will have charge of the program. A special invitation is extended to everyone.

Miss Anita Harris and William Pollard spent Sunday in Vassar at the home of Rev. J. W. Jacobus. They enjoyed seeing Mrs. Leon Meader of Brookline, Maine, who is spending a few weeks with her parents. Mrs. Meader will be remembered by many in Waterford as she was a former teacher in the school here.

Second Grade: We find our science class very interesting.

Our April calendar is used for a weather chart, showing weather conditions and changes from day to day. Our baby snails are growing fast. We can watch them now and see them plainly without the magnifying glass. They are very fond of lettuce. The crocus border is finished and makes us think of spring. We know they are the first little flowers to peep up through the snow.

Third Grade: The third grade opened a cocanut last week that Marion Emery brought to school. She treated the children to some of it. The children are making a chart of petroleum products.

Fourth Grade: The members of the fourth grade have been telling their reading class about story books they have enjoyed reading.

Fifth Grade: The fifth graders have been making booklets about teeth in hygiene class.

Eighth Grade: We are having debates on certain topics in our Civics class. These topics are for and against prison labor, prison reforms, and capital punishment.

The boys and girls baseball teams have their first games on Wednesday. We will play Drayton Plains at Waterford.

General News: There will be a box social at the Waterford School, on Wednesday, April 20, sponsored by the tenth grade. It will be open to the public. We invite one and all to come.

The school spelldown to determine the school champion was held last Friday in the Waterford High School Auditorium. The winner was Pauline Prator of the seventh grade and the runner-up was Audrey Wood of the eighth grade.

The Waterford School pupils will have an Easter vacation of ten days from April 15th to April 24 inclusive. The tenth grade class held a tea for their mothers on April 7th.

Plans for graduation were discussed but as yet no definite plans have been formulated.

Jean Kratt, a former member of the ninth grade, has moved to Hancock, Mich.

The Declamation contest for the district was held April 8, in the Waterford Community Church. The winner was Morris Milmet of Holly and the runner-up was Felicity LaFortune of Drayton Plains. The winner of the oratory was Preston Lilley of Hartland and the runner-up was Wilbert McKeachie of Holly. The program was as follows:

Acme News Pictures
Alexander-Graham Bell Grosvenor examines the "graphophone" in the Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D. C., which his great-grandfather, inventor of the telephone, deposited there 56 years ago. Behind him stand Charles G. Abbot, Secretary of the Smithsonian, and Mrs. Gilbert Grosvenor and Mrs. David Fairchild, daughters of Alexander Graham Bell.

"There are more things in heaven and earth, Horatio, than are dreamt of in your philosophy."

As these words issued from a talking machine in the Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D. C., not long ago, the company there assembled realized that what they heard was coming to them out of the distant past.

More than half a century ago, in 1881, these words had been cut on wax—the first speech transcription so made—by Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, his cousin, Chichester A. Bell, and a young assistant, Charles Tainter.

For various reasons concerning patents, the record and an instrument upon which it could be reproduced, also the invention of the Bells and Tainter, had been enclosed in a sealed package and deposited in a vault of the Smithsonian, with instructions that it was to be opened only on the consent of the three parties involved.

Both of the Bells are now dead. Tainter, who lives in California, and is 84 years old, had recently given such consent, as had Mrs. Gilbert Grosvenor and Mrs. David G. Fairchild, daughters of Dr. Bell. Perhaps it was the spoken words of Dr. Bell himself that issued from the talking machine. Mrs. Fairchild declared that, although she could not recognize the voice as that of her father, the Shakespearean line was such as he might have selected. Not less typical of the inventor of the telephone, who possessed a sense of humor as characteristic as was his love of the classical, were the words which followed: "I am a graphophone, and my mother was a phonograph!" It was like Dr. Bell, his daughters recalled, to make this whimsical acknowledgment of the graphophone's debt to its predecessor, the phonograph of Edison.

So great was the improvement made by the Bell-Tainter method of recording, which consisted of cutting or engraving the sound record in wax, rather than merely indenting it in tinfoil or some similar pliable material, that a decision of a Circuit Court later paid them this high tribute: "Bell and Tainter made an actual, living invention which the public are able to use."

But nearly four decades were to elapse before the world was to see the development of improvements that are features of the phonograph of today. About 15 years ago it became apparent that the wealth of experience which telephone engineers and scientists had accumulated while improving methods and apparatus for the transmission of sound would be invaluable also in the further development of the recording and reproduction of sound. As a result of research in the Bell Telephone Laboratories there was announced in 1925 the great advance of electrical recording, by which most of today's phonograph records are made.

In 1931, recording was further perfected and a new method of reproducing developed. Both are now used extensively by radio broadcasting stations for electrical transmissions.

NOW is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their Lawns and Gardens.

SCHOOL NEWS

"Plain Jane" by Jay Tobias has been chosen as the annual sophomore class play. It will be directed by Mrs. Raye and presented on May 20th in the school auditorium.

Nature Chats

At this time the National Committee for Wildlife restoration is calling national attention to the need for creating bird sanctuaries and waterfowl breeding places.

The American Crossbill

The American Crossbill belongs to the Finch family and is called the Red Crossbill. The cold severe weather that we have been having has brought the red crossbill to this part of Michigan.

The Hilltopper

BOYS OUT FOR SPRING SPORTS HAVE STIFF WORKOUTS TRACK

The boys out for track are beginning to show the results of their practice and many have bettered their own records this week. In the running events we find the most competition.

BASEBALL

Mr. Thayer has had the boys working very hard for the last few days to get in condition. The boys are to have a scrimmage game with the town team this week.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

Question: "What did you think of the Junior Play 'The Eyes of Tlaloct'?" Arlene McCann, Junior: "As a member of the cast I would be a bit prejudiced with my opinion."

Rita Wilson, 7th: "I thought the cast did their parts very well and I also thought that the scenery was very realistic for the time and place of the play."

Ruth Belitz, Freshman: "I thought that it was very interesting because it was a different type of play. We have never had this kind before so it made it more exciting."

Violet Coy, Senior: "I thought the play was exceptionally well given and all the characters took their parts very well."

Virginia Tondy, 8th: "It got me all worked up and made me jump up and down because it was so scary."

June Taylor, Sophomore: "I thought that it was swell and that the characters played their parts very good and they also acted very natural."

Alice Williams, Senior: "Oh, it was grand! When I praise one character I think of another but, I know that they all were grand so it is hard to say which I liked best. We will certainly have to hand it to the Juniors for a really fine play."

GRADE NEWS

The fourth and fifth grade pupils gave a surprise birthday party, on Monday afternoon for their teacher, Miss MacLaren.

All the pupils had a very enjoyable afternoon. The main attraction for the party was an amateur hour in which most of the pupils participated.

CLASS ROOM NEWS

The senior Economics class goes around looking most glum. Mrs. Walter has been teaching them to balance bank statements. The class really has to work to get the little digits to agree on assets and liabilities.

From the chemistry laboratory come "Oh's" and "Oh, what a pretty color!" and other similar exclamations. The students are performing flame tests and the compounds form very beautifully colored flames.

The Shorthand class have finished their Gregg Numerals and are working in the Speed Studies row. They are beginning to take dictation at a faster rate of speed.

The English Literature students have begun their study of prose writers of the Victorian period. This past week they have studied Dickens, Eliot, Thackeray and other novelists. Several of the students "met" for the first time the great literary characters Becky Sharp, David Copperfield, Micawber, and Maggie Tulliver.

HARRIET BECKMAN ENTERTAINS

The guests arrived at about 11 o'clock on Friday night and talked about the play until hamburgs were announced. When the platter was brought in all the boys made a dive for the center of the table. Jerry Davies was the champion eater as most of the time he had one in hand, one in his pocket and one on his plate.

FEATURES

Dick Tee, as Mr. Thayer's policeman, is checking up on unruly typists. The system now in use takes off 5 points for misdemeanors of different sorts.

Maynard Schofield was seen leaning on his locker, one foot hooked over the other, gazing soulfully up at Mary Williamson—Oh, sweet mystery of love!

Well now that the grass-fire siege is nearly over, we can settle down and watch the green grass sprout up and stop worrying (?) about the possibility of the school catching on fire.

Speaking of alternating weather, snow or stuff, four of our high school boys—a senior, a junior and two freshies—were in swimming March 22.

The seniors this last week have been worried as to whether the juniors made enough on their play to pay for something better than canned beans and victrola music. P. S. The worries are over. The Seniors will be well fed.

Tarzan and little Suzie were seen together the other noon in the halls, in Mr. Waters' room and the type room, Art looking very strong and masculine in comparison.

What little girl couldn't have any date this week because she stayed out too late one night? Naughty, naughty, you must obey your mother!

"MOTHER IS ALL BETTER, THANK YOU"

It is generally conceded that America leads the world in the quality and extent of telephone service. Important factors in this supremacy are the efforts of the Bell Telephone Laboratories, "to find a better thing or a better way," and the experience and skill of the Western Electric Company, the manufacturing department of the Bell System. Because of our association in the Bell System, every improvement so produced is made available promptly for us in Michigan... a continuing assurance of high-quality telephone service at reasonable cost. That is why Michigan's telephone service is as fine as any telephone service in the world. And that is why your telephone... although it can connect you with any of 35,000,000 other telephones all over the civilized globe... retains such simplicity that even a child finds it easy to use. Advices Purchase of Inspected Plants

Lansing—Purchasers of plants and nursery stock were warned today by John B. Strange, commissioner of Department of Agriculture, to avail themselves of the full protection of the insect pest and plant disease law by insisting upon state inspected plants and shrubs. Failure to insist upon inspected merchandise may result in considerable disappointment to the purchaser, the department head declared.

"As far back as 1875, the necessity of inspection of plants and shrubs was recognized, the legislature at that time passing the original law requiring inspection of certain horticultural products. I believe," said Commissioner Strange, "that the legislators at that time desired to see Michigan horticulture advanced along sane lines, that the opinion existed at that time that this advancement could be accomplished if the plants the people received were apparently free from dangerous insects and diseases."

"Michigan is one of the leading users of horticultural products in the nation and it would be well for purchasers to keep in mind two things. First, that Michigan has a very rigid climate and plants should be selected that will endure and, secondly, they should demand state inspected plants and shrubs."

The standards of inspection prevailing in Michigan are the highest of the nation, according to Commissioner Strange.

Another change has been made in the presidential series that should meet the approval of every American citizen, that of including a picture of the White House in the series on the four and one-half cent value. This will make it necessary to change the order as previously given and the portrait of President Monroe will appear on the five cent issue instead of the 4½. Also a 22 cent denomination has been added which will bear the portrait of Grover Cleveland.

According to latest reports the one-half cent Benjamin Franklin stamp will be on sale at Philadelphia, May 19; the one cent George Washington at Washington, D. C., on April 25, the one and one-half cent Martha Washington on May 5, and the two cent John Adams, on June 3, 1938. It is not definitely known if the others will follow in numerical order but here is the most recent list:

There will also be a new airmail stamp issued May 14, during National Air Mail week. This will be the same size as the one in present use but will be in two colors, a blue border and red center against a white ground. The central design will depict an American eagle in flight. The first day sale will be at Dayton, Ohio, the home of the Wright Brothers and where their first plane was manufactured, also at St. Petersburg, Fla., where the first passenger flight was made.

NOTICE

To Taxpayers of Springfield and Independence Townships:

There will be a meeting of the taxpayers of these townships at the Town Hall in Clarkston on Thursday, April 28, at 8 p. m., at which time a representative from the County Treasurer's office will be present to discuss and explain the approaching State Tax sales. All interested are urged to be present.

Public condemnation of convicted drunken drivers is reaching high proportions. And justly so.

Is there any reason under the sun why a man should be permitted to drink more liquor than he can control, step into a high-powered automobile, and drive recklessly down our highways, injuring and killing people? There is none.

It is regrettable that in many cities and counties throughout our nation enforcement officers and even courts have been somewhat reluctant to enforce laws to protect citizens of their communities from these drunken drivers.

Licenses of drunken drivers should be revoked. No man who has been convicted of drunken driving should be permitted to drive an automobile. The use of our highways is a privilege. It should be considered so and not abused.

Do you want to SAVE MONEY?

The Standard Coupe

The Standard Ford V-8, with 60-horsepower engine, gives you a lot of car for a little money.

300,000 new owners acclaimed the "thrifty 60" last year. Hundreds a day are buying it in 1938. Why?

Because it is priced low—includes essential equipment without extra charge—and goes farther between filling stations than any Ford car ever built. Owners all over the country report averages of 22 to 27 miles on a single gallon of gasoline.

But economy isn't all the story by any means. The Standard "60" is built with the same precision as the De Luxe "85," and has the same 112-inch wheelbase chassis. It is easy to look at and ride in —as well as easy to buy and run. There's a Ford dealer near you.
