In 1881 she married Benjamin DeLisle at Metamora. Fifty-two years ago they moved to Clarkston. Mr. DeLisle was a retired druggist. He passed away in August, 1938.

Mrs. DeLisle is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Edward Sugar of Clarkston; five granddaughters, Mrs. Ross Pickett of Grand Blanc; Miss Jeanne Lowrie of Clarkston and Pontiac; Mrs. John Prevo of Flint and Donna and Susan Lowrie of Clarkston; two grandsons, Keith and Richard Lowrie, both of Clarkston; two great grandchildren, John and Richard Prevo of Flint and one sister, Mrs. Anne Laidlaw Linton of Bay

Former Clarkstonian Marries in San Fran.

From California comes the news of the marriage of a former Clarkston young man, Harrison Walter. He and Miss Ruth Jordan were married on Christmas Day. The wedding took place in a Baptist church in San Francisco. Only the immediate family was present and the attendants were Mrs. Hugh McDaniel, sister of the groom, and Mr. McDaniel. Mrs. William J. Murry also attended her son's wedding. The bride wore an Eleanor blue silk dress and wore a corsage of garlenias.

We do not believe in gambling (we have found we are not lucky). We regret that the State of Michigan has the subject of gambling to stir up dislike for the governor as the talk of sit-down strikes stirred up dislike for Frank Murphy. It would be grand to have a governor that at least got by without too much discussion. Or is that asking too much. We would like to have the theme song of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" become the national anthem. Remember: "Heigh Ho, Heigh Ho, as off to work we go."

Everyone will be glad to know that Elaine Porritt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lee Porritt, who has been confined in the University Hospital in Ann Arbor for several weeks is improving rapidly now and there is a hope that she might be brought to her home this week-end.

On Tuesday afternoon Dr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Schurz went to Ann Arbor where he attended a clinic on the diseases and treatment of children's teeth. They returned home on Wednesday afternoon.

Red Cross Directors Literary Club Has Fine Surprise Program Rev. Dwight Large Was the Rep. George A. Dondero has re-

Guest Speaker On Tuesday afternoon the Clarkston Literary Club held their meeting in the parlors of the Methodist Church. Each member was entitled to invite guests and so there was a lovely crowd.

It was the Club's surprise day and the whole program was a surprise and was thoroughly enjoyed. Harold Konzen, in his usual pleasing style, played two numbers on his violin to open the program. The two numbers, Czardas" and "Obertass" are favorite violin selections with a great many people and so the group was more delighted to hear them. Mrs. Frank Perrin was the piano accompanist for Mr. Konzen. Mrs. Soulby, the Club President, then conducted a short business meeting after which Mrs. Ray Clark, the program chairman introduced the speaker for the afternoon, Rev. Dwight Large. Those who have never heard Rev. Large give a book review have missed a real treat. He reviewed the book "Our Town" by Thornton Wilder. He made the story so real that the characters just seemed to live right before your eyes. The day in the little town was being lived right there in the church parlors. Maybe the speaker talked for an hour but it seemed like fifteen with Mrs. William Watson at the piand, sang two very sweet numbers 'By the Bend of the River" and "Luxemburg Gardens". How fortunate

Clarkston folks are to have such splendid talent in their midst. After the program the members and their guests were invited to the refreshment table where Mrs. Francis Walter of Pontiac and Mrs. Josephine Smith poured. About an hour was spent visiting. The club was invited by Mrs. Forrest Jones to meet at the home of her sister, Mrs. Pearl Urch, for the next meeting.

Clarkston Youth Attended Flint Meeting With Much Success Last Week-end

Young people from the Clarkston Methodist Church and the Seymour Lake Methodist Church attended the Mid-Winter Institute last Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, in Flint, directed by Rev. Large. Ten young people were present for the Fellowship Banquet at 6:15 Friday, and Dan Addis represented Clarkston in the Professor Quiz Contest. Three more car loads drove to Flint for the Saturday morning program, consisting of the Four Colleges, in which each student | Ladies' Aid of the Clarkston M. E. could enroll. Saturday evening at Church at the church on Wednesday 8:30, the Clarkston League gave a thirty minute concert on the Lyon's Hall Stage before an audience of 400. Their musical ended in a candle-light number, which was very impressive against the blue curtains of the stage. After the music ,the Motion Picture, of the division, made ice-cream as the "The King of Kings," was shown.

Rev. Large, in addition to the duties as Dean of the Institute, took charge of the College of Public Opinion, in which several Clarkston young people enrolled. Friday evening was spent in arranging a list of questions which the young people were to ask various citizens of Flint the next day. Working in teams of three, 130 Flint citizens, were "interviewed" as to their opinions. The returns were tabulated on a big blackboard before many interested observers. During the afternoon, the same questions were placed before the delegates to the Institute, and their votes were tabulated.

The ten questoins asked were: Do you think there should be an American boycott of Japan? Do you favor the increase of the United States immigration quotas so that more Jews might enter from Central Europe? Do you believe that Flint Public honors for the evening went to Mrs. Schools should have R. O. T. C. units? Do you favor our joining Eng- lins. land and France with armed forces if Features!!!

We see that Betty Taylor and Dick Craven are going "High, Wide and Handsome".

Frank, Dick and Ralph, the musketeers of C. H. S., take utmost pleasure in teasing (or should I say flirting) with Bernice Tallinger. Maybe it's her vibrant personality.

The high school chorus has already started practicing for their operetta and the Junior class has begun to look over the play question. And we notice the gals and boys are straining their voices and dramatic ability to the utmost. Wonder why? We are wondering who will take who to the Senior Prom this year, remember, it isn't very far away.

Imagine the Junior class's embarrassment when the basket they so painstakingly fixed up for Julia Edgar was not assembled and presented until she was well.

P. S. Better late than never. Has anyone ever found Miss Cohen's letter? We wonder-By, the way, she lost another one. Don't you think a Detective Agency would be profitable around here?

Junior Bird being such a nice guy it's too bad he doesn't go for the gals. So they think.

In a moment of weakness, Mrs. Walter overlooked the too obvious fact that Muriel Boyns, Mary Jean Delong and Mary Jane Gulick were sitting at the same table in 1st period session room. Needless to say they are at present miles apart or should I say tables apart.

With mid-semester exams coming on us the apples on teacher's desks are beyond par. Ask Miss Wellington?

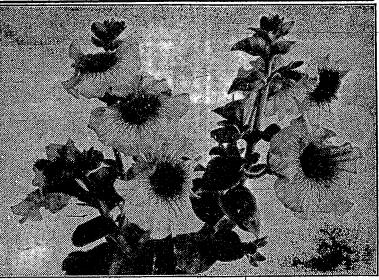

From the many observant eyes of Clarkston High students we gather that Dick Tee and Betty Beach have something in common.
