CLARKSTON, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, JANUARY 27, 1939

Odds and Ends

Louis won—in one.

The long delayed snows have arrived. However thanks to our State Commissioner, Murray D. Van Wagener, we are able to use the highways with a maximum of safety.

We are not referring to the chain letter craze of some years ago, but the "send a dime to the President" idea of fighting infantile paralysis, will allow everyone to do his bit.

Speaking of sending a dime—if you want a good time and help in a larger way why not attend the Birthday ball of the President given for Waterford Township at the Old Mill Tavern in Waterford, Friday Jan. 27th. Everything starts at 9:00 p. m. and between dancing and card playing, you should have a good time.

There are laws in this state. There are also commissions with power to make regulations (laws in effect) and the wise person having work in courts will do well to acquaint himself with both laws and regulations. In the same way the Governor seemed to stop the strike of beer drivers in Detroit by using a regulation of the Public Liquor Commission, it might be well for the local prosecutor to acquaint himself with the regulations of the Public Utilities Commission before publicly denouncing local justices. In a case which has received some local notice, the defendant, whose conviction was appealed by the prosecutor may in addition to suffering a fine lose his permit to haul for hire. The fine would have been much easier.

The snow Tuesday smothered a half hearted desire to attend the annual meeting of the Oakland County Bar Association. And now when we learn that the snow drifted four or five feet deep and the lawyers did not get out of the clubhouse where the dinner, was held until after midnight, perhaps we feel just as well that we stayed at home.

The boys who forecast the economic future, Babson, Forbes, Smucher et al., are predicting about a 20% increase in business during 1939. Let's say they are right, and, if for the sake of an argument, what are you doing about increasing your business in that proportion? This is just a suggestion but printer's ink has always helped in such a situation, and The News will help in your case. Think it over. Anyway we are trying for our 20% and if everyone else does the same, we may all be surprised by the good results.

Advised to Destroy 1938 License Plates

Harry F. Kelly, Secretary of State, cautions all motorists to destroy their old 1938 Motor Vehicle license plates as soon as they install 1939 plates on their cars.

Kelly points out that in some instances criminals have picked up cast off plates for temporary use on their own cars in the committing of a crime. The danger of this possibility grows during the last few days preceding a license plate deadline. With thousands of plates being carelessly thrown away, available to anyone who might want to use them perhaps for only a few hours and thus motorists sometimes unwittingly lend aid to criminals who could equip their cars with discarded but undetected 1938 plates.

POTATOES NEED PROPER GRADING

If Michigan Growers Realize Most from Crop

Michigan, with its potato crop ranking second in size in the United States, still finds keen competition in markets within Michigan borders against potatoes from other states because portions of this state's crop are not graded and handled properly.

This condition, reported by H. C. Moore of the farm crops department of Michigan State College, offers hints for growers in Oakland county, says County Agricultural Agent Karl D. Bailey.

In a study of carlots rejected because of lack of proper grading as the potatoes went to market it was found that one car in four rejected under its stated grade is ruled out because of mechanical injury of the tubers.

"This is a phase of production that can be remedied," says Moore. He recently conducted district demonstrations and digging and grading contests in which methods of handling for prevention of injury were stressed.

"One point in which Michigan farmers are improving embraces the use of better seed for field planting," Moore points out. "The state is known throughout the nation as a leader in the production of certified seed potatoes."

"In previous years it was estimated that as much as two-thirds of these better seed stocks went out of the state. For 1938 plantings the state retained about half of its best seed out of 298,000 bushels certified. Production certified in 1937 was 240,000 bushels."

Security Tax Same This Year as Last

There is no change in the 1939 rate of the tax which is imposed for old age insurance under the Social Security Act. This statement was made today by Walter B. Redman, manager of the Social Security Board field office in the Peoples State building in Pontiac.

"The rate this year is the same as it was in 1937 and 1938," Mr. Redman said.

"Workers contribute one percent of their pay in jobs which are covered by the old age insurance plan, up to a maximum of $3000 a year for any one job. Employers are taxed a like amount for each covered worker."

Taxes for the final quarter of 1938 are payable not later than January 31 at the office of the United States Collector of Internal Revenue in Detroit," Mr. Redman added.

Clarkston Locals

Rev. and Mrs. D. S. Large attended the Annual Conference on Social Action in Detroit last Tuesday, where outstanding ministers and laymen discussed the world trends and events. Rev. Large was elected Secretary of this organization of ministers within the Detroit Conference for the coming year.

Clarkston Junior Club Has Had Busy Week

On Friday evening of last week the Clarkston Junior Literary Club enjoyed a party at the home of Mrs. St. Johns in Drayton Plains. The members' husbands were guests. During the evening they had a good time playing "Bingo" with the prizes going to Edward Larion of Clarkston, Edwin Hooper and Daril O'Dea of Drayton Plains, Mrs. Stanley Henderson of Clarkston and Mrs. Daril O'Dea and Mrs. St. Johns of Drayton Plains. Several other amusing and interesting games were played which made the evening an evening of fun.

Dainty refreshments were served at a late hour.

On Tuesday evening the Junior Club held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Harlan Oakes in Drayton Woods.

Roll Call was answered with an "Economy Hint". At the business meeting it was decided to hold a "Homemade Pie Sale" at Waterbury and Terry Market in Clarkston at 2:00 o'clock, Saturday afternoon, Jan. 28th. Phone orders will be taken by Mrs. Edward Larion, phone Clarkston 94. The club made a contribution to the President's fund to fight infantile paralysis.

The hostess served dainty refreshments.

Russian Priest & Choir Conduct Service at Cranbrook

On Sunday, January 29, at 4 p. m. the Very Rev. Anthony Diachenko, rector of S. S. Peter and Paul (Russian Orthodox) Church will conduct Great Vespers in Christ Church Cranbrook, Bloomfield Hills. Fraternal relations have long existed between the Orthodox and Episcopal Churches, but it is still unusual for a Russian priest and choir to conduct service in their own language within an Episcopal Church. The occasion is all the more remarkable because Christ Cranbrook is one of the most beautiful and richly furnished Gothic churches in America, while the choir of S. S. Peter and Paul ranks with the finest Russian choirs and under the direction of Professor I. Donskoy has already attained a wide reputation through concerts and radio programs.

At the close of the vesper service the choir will sing six anthems:

Hear my prayer, O Lord (Psalm 102) Arkangelsky Only-begotten Son..... Grechaninov Truly it is meet to bless Thee..... Serbian Melody Sanctus Tschaikowski The Lord's Prayer..... Kedrov Hymn to the Holy Ghost, Bortniansky

A partial program, containing a translation of the service, will make it easy for strangers to the Russian liturgy to follow the service. Lovers of church music and friends of the persecuted Russian Church will doubtless avail themselves of this unusual opportunity to hear an excellent Russian choir in such a beautiful setting as Cranbrook affords.

FARMERS' WEEK STARTS MONDAY

Will Continue for Five Days at M. S. C., East Lansing

All major facilities on the campus of Michigan State College are in readiness for the 24th annual Farmers' Week Jan. 30 to Feb. 3 as agricultural departments of the college complete details in their plans.

No major phase of agriculture in Michigan will be neglected in the program. From horse pulling contests to the lighter touch of the feet of clog dancers in an entertainment skit, the five days of education and amusement are filled with scheduled events.

In 1938 the event drew an estimated total attendance of more than 50,000 rural persons from all sections of the state.

The 1939 program depends largely now upon the weather man, says E. L. Anthony, dean of agriculture and general chairman for the week, and R. W. Tenny, short course director.

For the men, the meat of the program will center around latest scientific knowledge in engineering, poultry, horticulture, soils, farm crops, animal husbandry, dairying, conservation, forestry, economics, farm management and entomology.

For the women there will be opportunity to watch a coed style review, hear talks and see demonstrations in food, clothing, psychology, home furnishings and home management.

Wednesday and Thursday evenings some of the lighter sides of the week will occur when Demonstration Hall will see a succession of events beginning with a concert by the college military band and terminating each evening with the horse pulling competitions.

Large, in the Methodist Church. Starting two weeks ago, the series on the Gospel of Luke included the theme of "Why Luke Wrote". Last Sunday morning, the sermon was on "What Luke Saw that Others Missed".

The young choir was present with two special numbers, with a duet by Phyllis Boyns and Betty June Taylor. Twenty-four young people were in the choir.

The third sermon will be given Sunday, entitled "A Doctor's View of Jesus", with the series ending on February 5th with a sermon, "What I Like Most in Luke".

Mr. and Mrs. George Harris and Miss Margaret Harris went to Pinconning on Saturday and attended the wedding of Miss Marion Vliet, daughter of Mrs. Alta Vliet of Bay City, and Robert Houghtaling.

Serving Sectioned Apples

By BETTY BARCLAY

Apples can now be cored and sliced by a single motion, through a new stainless steel kitchen utensil. Serving these sectioned apples to guests adds a thoughtful (and novel) touch to the apples-and-popcorn evening at home. To give a very festive air, a tray of sectioned red-skinned apples can be arranged, flanked by wedges of cheese, popcorn or popcorn balls, salt wafers, or nuts. Just a tip: sprinkling lemon juice on the cut apples will prevent discoloration.

Of primary importance, of course, is the convenience of the slicer "gadget" for everyday usage, as it expedites the preparation of apples for sauce, pies, and all recipes calling for apples. This utensil is available through leading grocery stores, who offer it for a very nominal sum with purchases of certain outstanding brands of Pacific Northwest apples. Women who already have slicers are getting them for friends as gifts. Many recipes utilize the slicer-cut apples (cut in eighths) without further slicing. A couple such recipes follow:
Apple-Carrot Casserole
Cook carrots, that have been sliced once lengthwise, until nearly done. Remove water and place with slicer-cut apples in a buttered casserole. Sprinkle about a tablespoon of brown sugar over the top; dot with butter. Bake in moderate oven until apples are tender and sugar has melted through.
Apple-Oatmeal Breakfast Dish
Cook slicer-cut apples in syrup made by boiling one cup sugar with one and one-half cup water for five minutes. Drain, and mix apples into hot cooked oatmeal. Serve with cream and sugar.
Fried Sausages and Apples
Fry sausages slightly. Add slicer-cut apples and fry a few minutes, until brown and tender. Remove sausages, and add one heaping tablespoon of brown sugar for each apple used. Bake apples with syrup formed in pan, and serve with sausages.

Word of Advice to Small Game Hunters

If you are a small game hunter— If you expect to need a gun permit between now and Oct. 1— If you want to save 50 cents— Don't accompany your game kill report to the department of conservation with your small game hunter's license.

The Hilltopper

CLARKSTON IS DEFEATED BY HOLLY!!!

Last Friday night, Clarkston was defeated by Holly by the score of 38 to 22. Clarkston was ahead at the beginning of the half 22 to 13 but at the beginning of the second half Holly began making points. Clark was high point man for Clarkston with a total of 8 points. Downing was high point man for Holly with a total of 23 points.

The second team was defeated by Holly also, the score was 22 to 13. The Holly team led by a large margin most of the game, but our boys did some very good work. We would like to see more young people out to the games, I think it would give the boys more spirit. Don't You???

The lineup for Clarkston: R.F.—Clark L.F.—D.Tee C.—Russell R.G.—R.Tee L.G.—Boyns Substitutes: Fiske, Johnson, Payne and Weston

Basket Ball Tournament by Jackie Parrish There has been much interclass competition among the boys and girls of the High School grades in the basketball tournament.

Each student was out pulling for his grade especially Dick Lowrie—last Wednesday when the Junior girls played the Senior girls and won by a score of 8 to 0. They wouldn't have won if it hadn't been for Dick, for you see Dick led us in a cheer for the Junior girls, "Is my face red?"

The girls champion was determined on Monday January 23. The eighth grade girls won by a narrow margin, but they were out there fighting. A hint to the boys if you need a good tackle for your foot ball team next year, maybe Mary Edgar will help out.

The boys champion was determined Tuesday with the Junior boys coming out on top. And that is the conclusion of our basketball tournament, but cheer up there are more of them to come including the shuffleboard tournament, checker tournament and ping pong tournament.

Specks of Dirt Wed: The first day of tests and nobody here. The roads drifted last night. Oh, for the life in the country!! We wonder why everybody steers clear of working with Iva Sommers in physics experiments. Ask those who have.

We see that Howard Smith is leaving after exams. Will some freshie gals be sorry?

Was Miss Cohen's face red in Public Speaking the other day? Wonder why? Ask Tom Boothby!

Evelyn Davies, hardboiled editor of the "Hilltopper", ought to know better than to ask anybody to write features on a test day.

I wonder if the girls wear ski-pants in school because they are too lazy to take them off or the cold weather. (Personally we think it's just another fad.)

At a student poll here the question was: "Do the boys expect a good night kiss on the first date? It was answered by the sophomore girls in the affirmative, by the juniors in the negative and by the seniors in the affirmative. Irene Walz's explanation of this was: "The sophomore girls don't know how to get around it and the senior girls don't want to get around it."

Is it our imagination that Susy Miller is looking laidalaisical or is it that she just didn't get her Wheaties for breakfast?

Art Clark and Olie Johnson flirt with every girl that use the dictionary 1st hour. Cradle Robbers!!!

This column wishes to thank Miss Wellington and Mrs. Walter for the valued information which makes this column possible: How do they ever get to know so much?

Now that winter has set in all the girls of Clarkston High have acquired very bad cases of chills and find it necessary to ask the boys for their jackets and sweaters. (That's one way to get around it.)

Whom is it that Vivian Dean writes to in type class? For further information see Janet Putnam.

We see that the monitor system is being carried on again this year. We hope it will be as successful as it was last year.

EPWORTH LEAGUE!!!

Last Sunday night we had the most interesting discussion on Crimled by Eugene Hubbard. I wish all the young people could have heard it. All those who were there entered into the discussion and if you had been there I know you would have too. Sometimes we got off the subject a little but when we did everyone went with us and we discussed some of the problems of today and how we would react to them if we were old enough to have a large say in the matter. All of us must remember though that our opinion means a lot in today's world because we will be the next ones faced by these problems.

Next Sunday Harriet Beckman will lead the League on "Smoking". It is going to be very interesting so we want all young people present.

After our discussion Dan Addis led us in a few choruses and benediction.

Grade News

First and Second Grades: Leslie Boyns brought his carpenter's tools to school and we made a feeding box for the birds.

For our Health contest we each made a flag and every morning we pass health inspections we receive a blue star. We wonder whose flag will be first to have all forty-eight stars.

In our Music class we have learned two new songs "Jack Frost" and "The Snow-Man".

Mary Porritt and Imogene Potter are the Monitors in our room this week.

Miss McClaren: The pupils in this room made posters and illustrate the wise sayings of Benjamin Franklin. The winners were Barbara Budrow and Joyce Lawson in the fifth grade, and Katherine LaPlante and Ruth Davies in the fourth grade.

The fourth grade arithmetic class has been studying the ways in which time has been measured. We have studied the hour glass, the sundial, old and new calendars and clocks. We have made pictures to show how the Indians measured time.

Safetygrams

Right here I am going to propose a change in the method of driving automobiles that may seem revolutionary. I should like to see the horn or other warning signals eliminated from every automobile, truck and motor vehicle. I recommend this as a safety measure.

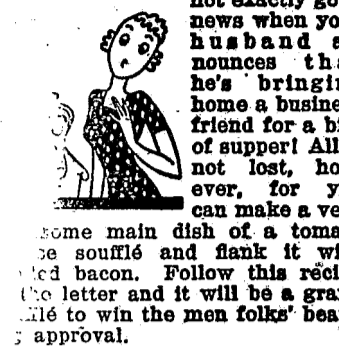

No doubt there will be many arguments proposed against this recommendation on the belief that the horn is absolutely necessary to warn other motorists and pedestrians of an approaching car.

On the other hand, if you had no horn on your car, you would drive with extreme caution and in a safe manner. Rome tried it in certain sections of the city and found a big drop in automobile accidents.

A Souffle Supper For a Flabby Purse

By Frances Lee Barton

THE recent festive season no doubt has left your food budget trifle the worse for wear. So it's not exactly good news when your husband announces that he's bringing home a business friend for a bite of supper! All is not lost, however, for you can make a very fine souffle and flank it with some main dish of a tomato and bacon.

Tomato Cheese Souffle

3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca; 1 teaspoon salt; 1 cup tomato soup; 1 cup grated American cheese; 3 egg yolks, beaten until thick and lemon-colored; 8 egg whites, stiffly beaten.

Combine tapioca, salt, and tomato soup in top of double boiler. Place over rapidly boiling water and cook 8 to 10 minutes after water boils again, stirring frequently. Add cheese and stir until melted. Cool slightly while beating eggs. Add egg yolks and mix well. Fold into egg whites. Turn into greased baking dish. Place in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 50 minutes, or until souffle is firm. Serves 6.

Note: Souffle may be baked in greased ramekins in moderate oven (350° F.) 30 minutes.

Bluepoints for Blue Bloods

By Frances Lee Barton

A hot savory oyster dish is a great comfort to the inner man—and woman—on a raw, cold day. And if you want the assembled family to sit up and take notice you'll walk into the dining room some dinner time bearing a Bluepoint Pie!

In order to match the delicious filling, the crust must be simply perfect. For perfect pie crust, you can depend on that wonder worker, double-acting baking powder.

Bluepoint Pie

2 cups sifted flour; 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder; 1/2 teaspoon salt; 6 tablespoons butter or other shortening; 1/2 cup milk (about); 2 cups drained oysters; 1/2 teaspoon salt; dash of cayenne; 4 tablespoons melted butter.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Cut in shortening. Add milk gradually, stirring until soft dough is formed. Turn out on slightly floured board and knead 30 seconds, or enough to shape. Roll 1/2 of dough 1/4 inch thick; line a 9-inch pie plate, allowing dough to extend 1/2 inch beyond edge of plate. Fold inward even with rim of plate. Fill with oysters; sprinkle with salt, cayenne, and butter. Roll other half of dough 1/4 inch thick; with sharp knife make slits to permit escape of steam. Fit over oysters, pressing edges together with floured fork. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) 30 minutes. Serves 6.

Meet The 'NITE-LITE!' This tiny "night light" for bedrooms and hallways, stairways, etc., brings more convenience than one can imagine—at negligible cost. A little jewel glowing in the dark, it provides just enough illumination to assure safe footing through the room (it is not bright enough to awaken the children) and it plugs into any electrical outlet. You can leave it on all night for about a fifth of a cent. Purchase it at ten-cent stores, department stores, hardware stores and electrical dealers. (We do not sell these lamps.) WHITE COLLARED FARMERS

Proof of the trend to agriculture by city youths is represented in this picture taken in an agricultural engineering laboratory at Michigan State College. These young men, enrolled in short courses, are from the city. At left is Merrill Gottschalk, 20, son of a Detroit doctor. He hopes eventually to own and operate a dairy farm. The other two already operate farms in partnerships with their fathers. Center is John Williams, 26, Gull Lake, farming 160 acres. Right is Frederick Tullas, 30, operating 800 acres of farm land near Monroe.

KENTUCKY DERBY IN NATURAL COLOR

Dramatic Sporting Event Now Showing at Holly Theatre

For the first time in the history of the Motion Picture, the Kentucky Derby will be seen on the screen in full natural color when "Kentucky", the 20th Century-Fox Technicolor production featuring Loretta Young, Richard Greene and Walter Brennan opens tonight at the Holly Theatre for a three day run.

In the many years that newsreel companies have been filming the running of the Derby, no shots have been made in anything but black and white.

The huge Technicolor cameras have now captured every glint of brilliant color to be found in America's premier turf classic. With the aid of race officials and stable owners, Director David Butler was given every facility to make this one of the most dramatic sporting events ever filmed.

"Kentucky", a romance of the Blue Grass country, is said to have captured the glorious tradition of that state and a love-all fire and pride in the glamorous theme of the story. Loretta Young and Richard Greene are seen as the two young lovers who are born to the traditional enmity between their families which has carried over since the Civil War.

Walter Brennan, Academy Award winner, also has a sizable role in the film. He portrays a testy old southern gentleman who knows more about horses than anyone in Kentucky. As Loretta Young's uncle in the film, he turns in what is reported to be the finest performance of his career.

The film was adapted from the famous book, "The Look of Eagles", by John Taintor Foote, who collaborated with Lamar Trotti in preparing the screen play. Darryl F. Zanuck was in charge of production and Gene Markey was associate producer.
