CLARKSTON, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1939

Odds and Ends

This week we start carrying notices of coming elections. First the caucus for Clarkston deserves attention. Clarkston has been well served by its council this last year very well served. We might even remark that the village would be wise to try and secure their services throughout the coming year. So much for the Village but this paragraph must have a moral and let's include one. The Council has done much good: Much of how it has been done is understood . . . and approved. But it would be wise for the officials, whether reelected or whether they stay a year or so to complete a term, to read that portion of the state law that says that council proceedings shall be published. We are not tooting our own horn, altho we would not refuse to carry the proceedings . . . not with prosperity what it is. But we are passing on the experience of our neighbor town of Holly. The Council had been reelected for nearly ten years . . . then charges began to fly. We can forget the charges with the exception of this one but this is so glaring that while it may not really amount to so much will be found very embarrassing to the officials. But it seems the council "did not publish a full and complete copy of their proceedings" in violation of the state statutes made and provided . . . and the officials are branded law breakers with "an ulterior motive". The sac part of this moral is that the council tried to save the amount of taxes the village should pay and are cursed by those very same taxpayers.

Sunday is the anniversary of Lincoln's birthday. Abe had a lot of trouble in his day but any president of the last few years has been bothered by so many minorities that our presidents are continually fighting a civil war with small groups of our citizens. It might be wise to remember that old custom of Americans of "Working together".

Present Day Gambling And Religion Is the Theme of Sermon

Due to recent articles on Gambling in Michigan and the publicity of Detroit Newspapers to the problem, Rev. Dwight Large, minister of the Clarkston Methodist Church, announced from the pulpit last Sunday that he would preach Sunday, Feb. 12th on the theme "Has Religion Anything to Say About Gambling?"

Having finished the annual Bible series of sermons, this year concerning Luke, Rev. Large will turn to a current problem which should be a concern to all citizens. In commenting about the sermon, Rev. Large said, "I am not asking everyone to believe as I do about gambling. Because of the many questions raised about various churches and this form of amusement, someone ought to collect the facts together, and present them in the light of the Christian Teachings. I will give my own convictions as a minister, in the hope that it will help others to reach their own opinion about this problem."

This sermon, and the sermon Feb. 19th, dealing with religion and another current problem, will be followed by the Lenten Services, during which Rev. Large will preach on the theme, "What Can We Believe?" Much interest was shown last month in the four sermons on Luke.

Inter-racial Movie With Clarkston Youth Will Be Shown Sunday 6:30

The Clarkston Epworth League and their friends will have a chance to enjoy the two reel motion picture, "Deeper Than Color" made by one of the classes at the Albion Epworth League Institute last summer. Sunday evening, at the 6:30 meeting of the Epworth League, George Beardslee, vice-president in charge of social service, will present the film.

Several Clarkston young people who attended Albion were enrolled in the class taught by Rev. Large, on "The Negro—What Can We Do?" The class wrote and filmed a story, showing two girl friends in the same town, one white and the other negro. The afternoons at Albion were spent in locating negro children and high school students to act in the movie, taken at the Albion College Athletic Field. All of the 93 members of the class were in the picture, acting as students of "Rosedale High School" at the annual tennis tournament. Among the character parts, Milton Fiske took the role of "gardener", Muriel Boyns, Eleanor Baynes and Kathleen Johnson are "leaders" among the cheering students.

Since the making of the film, Rev. Large has loaned it out to various Epworth Leagues throughout the state, so that it has been shown about every Sunday evening since Oct. 1st. The Dean of the Albion Institute has requested Rev. Large with his class to make another picture, perhaps in color, at the Institute next July.

CAN YOU LOCATE YOUR CAR TITLE?

You Must Have It When Securing License Plates

With the deadline approaching when the 1938 license plates will no longer be legal, Harry F. Kelly, Secretary of State, points out that over 5,000 automobile titles, lost by their owners in the past, are being held by the Department until their owners realize their loss and inquire for them.

If the correct addresses were known, these titles would of course be sent to their owners, but the file of "lost titles" contains only those which postal authorities have returned after not being able to deliver because of faulty addresses given by applicants for titles.

Kelly points out that annually thousands of people are frustrated for a time at least by a frantic search for their car titles, which they must present when they apply for plates.

With well over 1,200,000 motor vehicles still without their 1939 license plates and the deadline set by law at midnight, February 28, Kelly points to an inevitable jam at every Department of State Branch Office in the State at the end of this month. He stresses the fact that the 1937 legislature designated the last day of February as the final date for plate or permit purchase each year and neither the Secretary of State nor any other official of the State or municipal officer has any discretionary power to extend the date permitting the use of 1938 plates. He suggests that those deferring their purchase of plates through necessity make certain at this time that they have their titles available.

Motorists are urged to purchase their plates as early as possible to avoid the discomfort of standing in line. Half-year plates are now on sale at all Branch Offices of the Department of State.

Telephone Company Entertains Employees

On Monday evening the Telephone Company entertained the employees of the Pontiac District at an inter-departmental party at the Cranbrook Theatre. There were about seven hundred in attendance.

Lent Will Be Opened in Clarkston by Religious Drama called "Release"

The Official Board of the Clarkston Methodist Church voted to accept the plan of Rev. Large to open Lent this year with a religious one-act drama, "Release" by Dorothy Clark Wilson. The play will be casted this week-end by Rev. Large who will direct the production. Tryouts for parts will be held Sunday afternoon in the church. There are six parts for men and two parts for women. The play is set in the time of Christ, and the unusual scenery calls for a prison setting.

This play will be one of the ten services outlined by the minister for the Lenten season this year. In addition to the seven morning services on Sunday, and the special Sunday evening service, opening Lent, February 26th, there will be the Sunrise Easter Service conducted by the Epworth League and the Holy Week Service.

It is the plan of Rev. Large to build such scenery for the play that it may be taken to nearby communities during Lent. Costumes will be rented from the Methodist Department of Drama in Chicago. No admission will be charged for this unusual service.

TRADE TREATIES TO HELP FARMERS

This Is View of Department Head at M. S. C.

The pocketbook economics of the recent trade agreements between the United States and Canada and Great Britain hold certain advantages for Michigan producers.

This was the encouragement given during Farmers' Week at Michigan State College in an analysis of the trade agreements by Dr. H. S. Pat-strong, who has no peer as a hot trumpet player, and Maxine Sullivan, the velvety-voiced songstress who specializes in "swinging" folk songs.

Because the Canadian markets are within trucking range of Michigan production centers and because some of Michigan crops have the advantage of an earlier maturing period, Michigan farmers should be in a better position than those in almost any other state to take advantage of many of the concessions designed to operate to the advantage of American farmers.

Dr. Patton pointed especially to horticultural products among those in which the United States counted as concessions in the recent pact with Canada.

He warned Michigan growers, however, that they might experience somewhat greater competition from Canada with Michigan production of products in dairy, livestock, poultry, potatoes, fruits and vegetables. His interpretation of the trade treaty is that the concessions still will be limited by tariffs applying to volumes over the minimums stated in the pact.

Another display of economics offered Michigan farmers as part of the extensive program offered visitors by the agricultural division and the extension service was that of Ransom F. Aldrich, president of the Mississippi State Farm Bureau. He came from Michigan State, Miss., to plead for cooperation in agriculture. Specifically he asked for an understanding of the southern farmers' plight.

Participation in nationwide agricultural programs which would make more certain a greater income for the 2 1/2 million southern farmers would aid the north as well as the south, said the southerner. He prophesied that such an improvement would not only protect northern industry but certain northern agricultural production fields, as well. At present, he said, about half the southern farms still do not have a dairy cow, or any poultry or hogs.

HOLLY THEATRE

"Going Places," Warner Bros. newest comedy with music, starring Dick Powell, will be the Holly Theatre's next feature presentation, starting Sunday. Powell, who has proven himself a top-notch comedian in his recent pictures, "Cowboy From Brooklyn" and "Hard to Get," rises to new heights of hilarity in "Going Places".

Playing opposite Dick in this extravaganza of the Stoopchase is the beautiful Anita Louise. The rest of the cast is made up primarily of comedians including such experts in that line as Allen Jenkins, Walter Catlett, Harold Huber, Thurston Hall and Minna Gombell. The one serious character in the story of any importance is played by the charming Ronald Reagan. And most of the musical entertainment burden is shared with Powell by those two great colored swingsters, Louis Armstrong, who has no peer as a hot trumpet player, and Maxine Sullivan, the velvety-voiced songstress who specializes in "swinging" folk songs. "Going Places", incidentally, is the first motion picture in which she has ever appeared.

Four new songs were written for this production by that reliable team of tunesmiths, Harry Warren and Johnny Mercer. "Say It With a Kiss" is a romantic melody sung by Powell; "Mutiny in the Nursery" is a hot novelty number in the presentation of which Armstrong and Miss Sullivan as well as a dusky swing band and chorus do their stuff. In this number Armstrong and his sizzling trumpet go to town with syncopated swing interpretations of nursery rhymes, and Miss Sullivan interpolates her own version of swing in soft melodizing of such childhood favorites as "Little Bo-Peep" and "Rockaby Baby", and the whole thing develops into a big jam session with Powell and Anita Louise also taking part.

"Oh What a Horse Was Charley" is a comedy number, sung by and danced to by the Messrs. Powell, Jenkins, Catlett and Huber; and "Jeepers Creepers", theme song for a horse—yes, a horse—is sung by Powell and trumpeted by Armstrong.

For Kitchen Artists

By Frances Lee Barton

As many artistic honors are won in the kitchen as in a painter's studio. Every day American housewives are mixing flavors just as skillfully as a competent painter mixes his palette of colors. One of the most subtle flavor combinations at the disposal of the artist-housewife is chocolate and coffee. Your cake recipe will do you good if you adorn it with this unusual frosting:

Chocolate Mocha Frosting
1/2 cup butter; 2 1/4 cups confectioners' sugar; 1/2 teaspoon vanilla; 1/4 teaspoon salt; 1/2 cup unsweetened chocolate; 3 tablespoons strong coffee.
Mix butter; add part of sugar and vanilla, salt, and chocolate. Blend after each additional mix well. Add remaining sugar alternately with coffee, until consistency to spread. Add coffee each addition until frosting is thick enough to spread on sides of two 9-inch layers, or top of 2 doz-8 cup cakes.

Do You Remember Those "Comic" Valentines?
The "comic" remembrances that used to vulgarize every February 14 began with the pagans and happily ended in the Gay 90's with the sourest insults imaginable—but they may have done some good, after all, as you will learn if you read the article on VALENTINE tokens in The American Weekly, the great weekly magazine with the February 12 issue of The Detroit Sunday Times.

Grated nutmeg

Pour the decaffeinated coffee over a pint of ice cream in a punch bowl or big mixing bowl, and blend lightly with an egg beater until the ice cream is partly melted. Sprinkle with grated nutmeg, Vanilla, coffee, or chocolate ice cream combines well with the coffee flavor.

To make decaffeinated coffee by the percolator method, use 1 heaping tablespoon decaffeinated coffee, regular grind, for each cup (1/2 pint) of cold water. Pour cold water into pot. Set percolator basket in pot and put coffee in it. Cover. Let percolate slowly and gently 15 to 20 minutes. (For a 4-cup percolator, use 3/4 cup coffee.)

Valentine Aspic
2 cups solid pack tomatoes
1 teaspoon dried thyme
1 teaspoon salt
6 cloves: 1/2 bay leaf
1/2 teaspoon grated onion
1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
2 drops Tabasco sauce
1/2 teaspoon cayenne (optional)
Small cut of asparagus tips
2 tablespoons gelatine
2 cups canned unsweetened Hawaiian pineapple juice
Simmer the tomatoes with all of the seasonings and the water from the can of asparagus about 20 minutes, or until tomatoes are very soft. Then strain through a fine sieve, pressing through as much of the pulp as possible.

While this is cooking, soak the gelatine in 1/4 cup of the pineapple juice. Over this pour the hot tomato juice and stir until gelatine is dissolved. Add remainder of pineapple juice. Rinse a large heart-shaped mold with cold water, pour in a little of the gelatine mixture and return to the refrigerator to harden. Place the asparagus tips in the center of the mold and add the remaining gelatine mixture. Chill until firm. Unmold on a cold platter, garnish with crisp chives, or watercress and radish roses. Serve with a tart French dressing. This amount will serve 6 to 8.

CHEVROLET 1st in sales IN MICHIGAN 1st in sales in the nation
In 1938 the people of its home state, like discerning people everywhere, said, "CHEVROLET'S THE CHOICE!"
Chevrolet outsold all others because Chevrolet out-valued all others! That's the verdict of discerning buyers, and it will be your verdict, too, when you weigh the many extra-value features Chevrolet is offering. Modern features—important features—exclusive features like Vacuum Gearshift*, Valve-in-Head Engine, New "Observation Car" Visibility, Perfected Knee-Action Riding System†, and Tiptoe-Matic Clutch—features available nowhere.

MUSIC NEWS
There are 63 pupils in the chorus and 31 enrolled for instrumental lessons. Mr. Willoughby hopes to have 30 members in the band by April. The Band is organized and the officers are Milton Fiske as President, Roger Galligan as Vice President, Carmen Clark as Secretary and Treasurer and James Young as Librarian. Nearly $30.00 of new music has been bought for the band and the orchestra which has added both inspiration and enthusiasm to these organizations.

CLASSROOM NEWS
Mr. Thayer:
In first year type class in the last speed test given the highest rate was scored by Irene Walz who got thirty-two words a minute and next highest was Eugene Hubbard who got twenty-nine words a minute.

Mr. Waters:
The Biology Class has started the study of the Human Body. The Physics Class is studying Magnetism and Static electricity.
Miss Cohen:
English 10 Class is learning how to reproduce the words of others precisely and in good form. At present they are re-writing newspaper articles, fables, stories and poetry in their own words.
English 9 Class is studying the different tenses of verbs and is forming sentences in each tense. Public Speaking Classes are discussing courtesy in all phases of everyday life. Introductions, table etiquette, interesting conversations were topics of discussion.

Latin I students are busy translating Latin stories and learning new vocabularies.

Mrs. Walter:
Our Civics course was completed the first semester. In its place most of the Seniors are taking Economics. On Tuesday we elected a new committee to plan our Scholastic lessons. Those on the committee are William Rexford, Dick Ganther, George Beardslee, Roger Galligan and Ernest Hazlitt. George Beardslee conducted the class on Thursday.

In American Literature class we are opening our semester's work with a study of biographical material. We are also enjoying work in our "P. Q." pamphlets which came with our Scholastics this semester.

Mrs. Strait:
The Child Care class conducted by the Michigan Department of Health has been completed and the following girls received certificates: Ruth Belitz, Alita Boice, Carol Beard, Vivian Dean, Agnes Diggs, Betty Jean Drake, Evelyn Jencks, Winifred Murphy, Pearl Olson, Janet Putnam, Dorothy Rouse, Ina Rouse, Mary Stadler, Velma Sylvester, Betty Waid and Elaine Waterbury.

Home Ec. 7—The girls in here are beginning their first work in the food line. The first thing they will study is the preparation of fruits for breakfast.

Home Ec. 8—Blouses of cotton material are being made by the eighth grade girls.

Home Ec. 1—Members of this class are working on a unit in Home nursing which includes such things as correct bedmaking and changing the bed with a patient in it, food for the patient, occupational work for the patient, and first-aid in the home.

Home Ec. 11—These girls are just finishing the child care work with food for the infant and pre-school child and the baby's bath.

TOURNAMENTS
by Leda Miller
Our second Basketball tournament is well under way with the eighth grade girls showing very good playing. The eighth grade girls have won all games they have played so far. The 11th grade boys are also up on top as they haven't lost a game so far and we (Juniors) know we won't lose any in the future either, if the boys don't let us down. The 10th and 11th grade girls game was postponed because we didn't have school the day we were scheduled to play.

Here's what everyone is waiting for—the winners of the table-tennis tournament—well, we won't keep you in suspense long. The winner for the boys was Marion Beemer who played against Milt Fiske, only two games were played as Beemer won the first two. In the girls games Inez Miller was the grand winner and she played against Honor Stickney. We might add the first two games were a little alike, Honor won the first game with a score of 21 to 13, and Inez won the second game with a score of 21 to 13 also.

C. H. S. SCANDAL!!!
During the Senior play a controversy arose as to whether or not a few choice romances of C. H. S. would be rendered in twain. We see they haven't, but there's still chance if you want it.

It seems the girls around Clarkston High have become very economical. They are saving the expense of buying Autograph Books, and are using their blouses.

The girls are all wondering to what beauty salon Dick Lowrie goes. His wonderful manicure has the envy of all the high school glamor girls.

My! MY! Did you know that we have some new books in the library? Or maybe it isn't literature that Dick is interested in every seventh period.

By the way if you were at the basketball game last Tuesday, you would have seen some fancy acrobatics on the part of one of our cheer leaders. During a time-out period our cheer leaders, Irene and Pud, merrily went out on the floor to lead us in a rousing cheer. Irene certainly showed vim and vigor by promptly falling on the floor while she was announcing the cheer. The response to the cheer was certainly spontaneous.

In English 10 the students are learning to paraphrase and put in their own words something that someone else has written. The following poem is Winifred Murphy's version of Arthur Guiterman's poem on Etiquette.

People tell the story of the sparrow and the cat.
The cat was thin and hungry, and the bird was very fat.
With eager, hungry energy, and claws of gripping steel,
Puss jumped upon the sparrow and started to make a meal.
The sparrow never struggled when he discovered he was caught.
(If very slow in action he was really quick in thought.)
But chirped in simple dignity which seemed to fit the case,
"No gentleman ever eats before he has washed his face."
This hint about his manners hurt Thomas like a knife.
For cats always observe the niceties of life:
He paused and licked his paws which seemed the proper thing to do—
While, chirruping derisively, away the sparrow flew!

STAMPS

Saturday, February 18, will mark the first commemorative stamp of the year, previously described in this column, when the Golden Gate International Exposition will open at San Francisco, Cal. This is the first of the year's program and although only four are scheduled, collectors are already making protests against the issuing of so many high value stamps.
The remaining commemorative stamps that have been officially announced are the sesqui-centennial of the inauguration of George Washington as first President on April 30 at New York; the New York World's Fair stamp on the same date and a stamp commemorating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the opening of the Panama Canal on August 15.

In helpless, hopeless hunger at the sparrow on the bough,
Poor Thomas looked longingly, and vowed a solemn vow.
"After this I'll eat my dinner first, then wash myself," and that's the universal etiquette for all educated cats.
The Junior class had a class meeting Tuesday night at 4:00 for the purpose of making plans for a tobogganing party. Each Junior will bring his own lunch, and cocoa will be served. By the amount of toboggans volunteered this party promises to be a success.

LAW QUADRANGLE
A six million dollar donation of a philanthropic graduate of the University of Michigan, who never returned to see the buildings which his generous contribution made possible, enables Michigan law students to "live and work" in the legal atmosphere of the now famous Law Quadrangle.
Gift of William W. Cook, a graduate of the University of Michigan Law School in 1882, the Quadrangle houses, in one closely connected unit, all the physical equipment for carrying on advanced professional study. Within two blocks, covering a ten acre tract, are located administrative offices, libraries, dining halls, and class rooms for
The dominant and typical structure of the entire group is the massive Legal Research Library, shown above at the left, which contains reading and research rooms and space for 275,000 volumes. Built in Elizabethan-Gothic style its four square towers rise to a height of 90 feet and are decorated with the coat of arms of each of the 48 states carved in white limestone. Other units of the Quadrangle pictured above are Hutchins Hall, recitation and administration building, and the Dining Hall.
Additional funds given by Mr. Cook are used for legal research and for law scholarships.

CORRESPONDENCE STUDY COURSES
Over 1,350 Michigan people "went to college" by staying home last year when they took advantage of correspondence courses offered by the Extension Service of the University of Michigan in cooperation with the W.P.A. In addition, 1,330 were enrolled in high school courses offered by the Extension Service.
The map above shows the various centers in Michigan where these correspondence courses have been offered during the last year. Unlike much correspondence study, these courses are organized in groups. The students' work is directed by a supervisor who sends their completed lessons to the University for correction.
Of the 2,683 students enrolled in these courses during 1938-37, 718 were in city study centers, 1,770 in CCC camps, and 195 studied alone. College credit was given to 153 students for work done in these courses during that year.

American Womanhood

NEW YORK—A statue representing "American Womanhood," created by Gaetano Ceccere for the facade of the Home Furnishings Building at the New York World's Fair 1939.

Because automobile drivers in the country have been aroused to the need of safe driving, America reduced its automobile fatalities in 1938 by at least 7,500. Accurate figures are not yet available but the first 11 months of '38 showed that reduction.

All you readers have helped to establish this fine record. The saving of 7,500 lives proves that by concentrated effort a further reduction is possible in 1939.

That is your job. Safety is an individual problem. States, counties, and cities can inaugurate safety programs but actual application of safe driving is the responsibility of the man behind the wheel.

Safety is 99% common sense—accidents are 99% thoughtless hurry. It's smart to drive carefully.

Supper Proceeds To Pay Church Debt

The Davisburg Methodist Church Choir is giving a pancake and sausage supper and a secular concert on Friday evening of this week. The Pals class will start serving the supper shortly after six o'clock. We do not expect to have all sit down to the tables together. We would prefer to have the people come at various times between six and 7:30 o'clock. We can give better service if we are able to serve the supper to small groups. The price of the supper is 50 cents for adults and twenty-five cents for children.

This week the Davisburg community hopes to pay off all that remains of the $1,400.00 debt that was made to remodel the parsonage several years ago. The balance of that debt today is $145.00. It is hoped that the proceeds of the pancake and sausage supper together with special gifts for the purpose will wipe out that debt. Quite a number are paying $5.00 for the tickets for a family group. Gifts of any size will be gratefully accepted for this purpose by Mrs. Clyde Nelsey, the treasurer of the fund, or it can be paid on Friday evening to the seller of tickets at the door of the church parlors.

Facis About the Telephone

The first telephone exchange in Ohio was opened at Cincinnati on September 1, 1878.

At one time, before the development of underground cable, the top of Detroit's city hall served as a support for several hundred telephone wires.

Put down the figure 10, then add 88 ciphers, and you will have the amount the voice is amplified by repeaters on a telephone call between New York and San Francisco.

MICHIGAN—for All Sorts of Winter Sports!

MICHIGAN'S natural facilities for winter sports, perhaps unexcelled anywhere in the country, are worthy of promotion. Thousands of visitors should be attracted here from outside the State, and Michigan residents can be shown that they need not leave their own State to enjoy the finest of winter sports.

All Michigan will profit from such promotion, in which the Michigan Bell Telephone Company wishes to do its part. This is the first of a series of three advertisements, appearing in 250 Michigan newspapers, to promote Michigan as an outstanding winter playground.

The Backyard FLOODLIGHT

What is that noise in the back of the house, late at night? Flip on your backyard floodlight and find out! An inexpensive outdoor light of this sort is really a necessity: It adds immeasurably to your peace of mind, it contributes to safety, and it helps light the garage. A 100-watt lamp bulb in a simple reflector will do the job nicely... and costs next to nothing for the short time it is used. Coming on the low step in your rate, this incidental lighting will probably add as little as 10c a month to your bill. Any electrical contractor will gladly install an outdoor floodlight. (We do not do this work.) The Detroit Edison Company.

ELECTRICITY IS CHEAP!

The more you use, the LOWER YOUR RATE
