Clarkston Literary Club Observes Patriotic Day

Mrs. Alice Urch Was the Hostess

On Tuesday afternoon the Clarkston Literary Club met at the home of Mrs. Alice Urch.

Roll call was answered by sixteen members and one guest with a current event.

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Souby, after which the following program was presented in keeping with "Patriotic Day". Five minute papers were given on "Independence Hall" by Mrs. William Kyle; "The Tomb of the Unknown Soldier" prepared by Mrs. Carrie Walter and read by Mrs. F. Walter; "The Smithsonian Institute", prepared by Mrs. Rose Teggerdine and read by Mrs. Josephine Smith; "Jefferson Davis Monument", by Mrs. C. Souby; "The Story of Our Flag", by Miss Ada Sprace. Mrs. Eli Fisher presented her paper on "Robert Burns" which she was unable to give at the previous meeting.

The meeting adjourned to meet on Feb. 28th with Mrs. Lee Clark.

Lenten Drama Postponed to Sunday, March Fifth, With Cast Working

The Lenten Play, "Release", directed by Rev. D. S. Large will be given Sunday evening, March 5th, one week later than previously announced. In a special Evening Service, this play will be the first in Clarkston directed by Mr. Large. The cast includes Eleanor Baynés, William Parker, George Beardslee, Carmen Clark, Kenneth Grate, Dan Addis, Milton Fiske and Richard Craven.

The first meeting of the cast will be Saturday morning at 10:00. Other practices have been arranged for Sunday afternoon, Feb. 19; Thursday evening, Feb. 23rd; Sunday afternoon, Feb. 26th; Wednesday evening, March 1st; Thursday evening, March 2nd; with final rehearsal for Saturday evening, March 4th.

The production staff will be announced next week.

FACULTY CONCERT AT HARTLAND HALL

Area Event Will Take Place Next Sunday Afternoon

Patrons of the Vesper Concert Series will be given the opportunity of hearing the members of the Hartland Music Hall faculty in the role of performing artists Sunday, February 19, at 3:30 P. M. Every member of the faculty is not only a very good teacher, but a finished performer as well, so listeners can be assured that the program will prove musically interesting.

Georgia Drexler, violinist, will offer a group of solos with Inez Musson at the piano. Miss Drexler is a former star pupil of Dr. F. Melius Christiansen at St. Olaf College from which she graduated with a degree of Bachelor of Music. Since then she has had a varied teaching and performing career throughout the middle west.

Inez Musson, soprano, will sing a group of solos with her sister, Veronika Boyes, as her accompanist. Both artists are well known in the area and have a host of friends who will be anxious to hear them once more. Mrs. Musson's voice continues to grow in quality and power and she will give a very delightful group of songs.

Lester McCoy, tenor, will sing with Bernice McCoy at the piano. Since coming to Hartland two years ago Mr. McCoy has done considerable singing in the surrounding territory in addition to his full schedule as Director of Music Activities in the Hartland Area. He also received his Master of Music degree with a major in voice from the University of Michigan this past summer.

In addition to these soloists as organization of thirteen singers of the Hartland Area will make their initial appearance. This group of people meet together once a week to study the fine and difficult art of unaccompanied singing. They are singing a very interesting group of choral numbers which will most certainly be enjoyed by everyone.

Remember, there is no admission charge and we would be happy to welcome you to the friendly atmosphere of the Hartland Music Hall for an hour of music.

Baptist Ladies' Union Met Last Week

On Thursday afternoon of last week the Baptist Ladies' Union met at the church.

There was a short business meeting followed by a program featuring the subject of "Mary and Martha". The group enjoyed songs and poetry pertaining to these famous sisters. Rev. Walter Ballagh gave a brief talk.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Ballagh.

The meeting adjourned and will meet again on March 9th in the church.

Home Extension Club Met Tuesday Afternoon

Mrs. Jos. Hubbard Was Hostess

The Clarkston Home Extension Club met at the home of Mrs. Joseph Hubbard on Tuesday afternoon.

There were ten members and one guest, Mrs. Levitt, present. The regular business meeting was held and it was decided to meet at the home of Mrs. John Shaughnessy on Feb. 28th. The lesson on "Reconditioning Furniture" was finished. Dainty refreshments were served.

Large Crowd Attends Valentine Tea

Konzen's Orchestra Was a Program Feature

The Valentine Tea held at the Clarkston M. E. Church on Wednesday afternoon was enjoyed by a large crowd.

Konzen's orchestra played several selections and the Perrin twins, Jean and Eugene, favored the group with a song and a reading. The guests had a good time visiting and then dainty refreshments in keeping with St. Valentine's Day were served at a table attractively decorated with a potted plant and white tapers in crystal holders. The open faced sandwiches, the Valentine cookies and the heart-shaped candy mints added to the attractiveness. Mrs. Dwight Large and Mrs. L. F. Walter poured.

The A. D. cleared approximately $15. Another feature of the afternoon was a sale of home-made candy.

Mrs. F. E. Davies, Mrs. Anna Fleming, Mrs. Harold Bauer and Mrs. John Breaky had charge of the refreshments and Mrs. Frank Perrin and Mrs. Orlo Willoughby were responsible for the program.

Child Study Club Met Wednesday Eve

Rev. Walter Ballagh Was the Speaker

On Wednesday evening the Clarkston Child Study Club met at the home of Mrs. John Alander. There were nine members and seven guests present. Roll Call was answered with a Bible verse.

The regular business meeting was held and it was decided to hold the next meeting, March 1st, at the home of Mrs. Willis Ross in Springfield.

The speaker of the evening was Rev. Walter Ballagh. His talk was exceptionally interesting and all present felt that they could have listened to him for another hour.

Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

HOLLY THEATRE

Item to be thankful for: Bing Crosby is back! Dean of the famous radio Music Hall, unchallenged monarch of croon, and certainly one of the big deans of motion picture favorites, Bing will come Sunday to the Holly Theatre in his latest offering, "Paris Honeymoon" and it is by far and away one of the finest motion pictures in which he has this far appeared! For four reasons:

First, because Bing does a straight acting job in the picture, without depending upon his lyric genius too much—although he does sing some swell new tunes. Second, lovely Shirley Ross, with whom Bing has already appeared in "Waikiki Wedding", and who has won nationwide acclaim for her recent performances in "The Big Broadcast of 1938" and "Thanks for the Memory", is with him again!

Third, charming little Franciska Gaal, whom you will remember as the little Dutch girl in "The Buccaneer", is on hand again in a sweet little comedy role which will carry her right into your hearts. And fourth, there are four hit tunes which will get your toes and lips going. Make a note of their titles, because you'll be singing 'em soon: "I Have Eyes", "The Funny Old Hills", "You're a Sweet Little Headache" and "Job-alai".

And there's more. There's Akim Tamiroff, who has impressed us in the past with his character portrayals. We have seen him as a pirate king, as a gang leader, as a Cossack, and in many other roles. It has remained for "Paris Honeymoon" to reveal him as a master of high comedy—and from where we're sitting it looks like we've got a new and great comedian in the making. Then there's Edward Everett Horton, who delivers his usually highly satisfactory performance as a gentleman's (Bing's) gentleman, and Ben Blue, in a comedy role.

"Paris Honeymoon" is the Odyssey of a young American millionaire, played by Bing, head over heels in love with a gay divorcee, played by Miss Ross—until he meets a little peasant girl, Miss Gaal, who falls in love with him. It happens in Paris and in an ancient castle in a princely still unknown to Messrs. Rand & McNally, called "Pushalnick", where Tamiroff is not only mayor, but chief real estate operator, owner of the local caravansary and dealer in political offices. He, also, is in love with Miss Gaal.

Young People Invited To Valentine Party

A Valentine Party will be sponsored by the young people's group of the Clarkston Baptist Church in the church parlors on Saturday night, February 18th.

The program will be supervised by Mr. and Mrs. Morrow and will include a short devotional period. Miss Ivy Slater will be responsible for the evening's entertainment.

All young people are cordially invited to attend and have a good time.

Mrs. Alice Urch Gets Pleasant Surprise

Last Friday afternoon Mrs. Alice Urch was pleasantly surprised when eight of her neighbors called at her home to help her celebrate her birthday.

The afternoon was spent visiting and lovely refreshments were served. The group presented Mrs. Urch with a beautiful cineraria and wished her many more happy birthdays.

Applicants Requested To Use Care

Confusion still exists among many workers who apply for social security numbers, according to Walter B. Redman, manager of the Pontiac office of this Federal agency.

"Employees could save time for themselves, their employers, and our office staff if they would be more careful in filling out their applications for account numbers," Mr. Redman suggested.

"Out of a total of 1253 applications for original account numbers received by the Pontiac office during the last three months, 414 of the applications received by mail had to be returned for corrections."

The most frequent errors he listed in three groups: Ages not in agreement with dates of births; initials given instead of full names, and married names of mothers listed instead of the maiden names. During the last 9 months, corrections and name changes were handled by the office here.

CLARKSTON DEFEATS NEW HUDSON

HUDSON 30-29

by Tom Boothby

Clarkston defeated New Hudson last Tuesday in a terrific battle, the final score being 30 to 29. Frank Russell and Howard Boyns making the winning baskets at the end of the last quarter. The game was the closest one of the season Clarkston winning by one point. The last quarter in which most of the points were made kept the fortunate spectators on the end of their seats. This game has most certainly shown that our boys are darn good when they want to be. It is regrettable that with such games as these that there is not a greater attendance. Come on Clarkstoners, now's the time to show your school spirit.

Clarkston was defeated by Walled Lake 11-44. It was a terrific game but they were just too good for us. We are ashamed to admit this because we know that our boys can do as much as anyone else. They just need more school spirit, they have got to have some one to cheer them on. Why don't we show them we want them to win by coming to the games. The second team of Clarkston won their game with Walled Lake. More power to you, boys.

JUNIORS ARE PICKING PLAY!

by Jackie Parrish (a Junior)

In the near future you nice people around and about our fair city of Clarkston will be visiting the High School to watch us Juniors in action.

So as to be ready for you, Ralph Ware, our president, has chosen a committee to read plays and select one. If my guess isn't wrong, judging by the people on the committee, I'd say you were all in for a bit of laughs and gay comedy. Those on the committee are: Irene Walz, Evelyn Davies, Maxine Boadway, Owen Payne, Frank Russell and Ralph Ware.

Some of the plays they have been reading are "Introducing Susan", "Aunt Abby Answers an Ad", "June in January", "Enter the Hero", "Through the Keyhole", "Apron String Redef", "Marry Before Midnight", "Absent-minded Professor", and "Red-headed Step-child". It looks like "June in January" and "Enter the Hero" are the most favored by the committee. Now don't tell anyone—you know just confidential like. The verdict will be reached this week on Friday—And until then I'll be seeing you.

Tall Tales
As told to FRANK E. HAGAN and ELMO SCOTT WATSON

The Unfinished Story

CHARLES M. WALKER tells tall tales because of silent hours with feeding sheep in the Big Horn mountains of Wyoming. But, strangely enough, his favorite yarn concerns the heart of Chicago instead of the great open spaces.
"In 1928," Charlie tells, "downtown Chicago had numerous banks and many bank vice presidents. Despite their numbers, however, some of the latter were obsessed of self-importance. It is one of these I sing.
"He lived fashionably on the north shore, commuting daily to the loop. One crisp morning he discovered the family cat dead at his back door. It was only 18 paces to a small garden but the banker revolted at being seen burying a cat. He wrapped the carcass in oiled paper, intending to cast it into the Chicago river which he always crossed downtown.
"Two friends joined him at the river's edge, which meant that the parcel was cached in an empty safe deposit box at the bank.
"Homeward bound, the banker retrieved his demised animal, planning quick interment on recrossing the river. Once again, however, friends accompanied him. He boarded a crowded train, placed his ghastly parcel in a luggage rack.
"At his station, the banker seized a brown-paper parcel and bolted. Swallowing pride, he decided on burial in the garden. But when he opened the parcel there was revealed a T-bone steak which an unknown but soon-to-be-shocked commuter had selected."

Right Good Butter

VERMONT is noted for its maple sirup but it ought to be noted also for its dairy products—that is, if Uncle Joe Stokes' cow had ever become well-known outside of the little town in the Green mountains where he lived. She was a mighty fine cow, but Uncle Joe had a lot of trouble with her one time or another. Always wandering off somewhere, she was just chock-full of curiosity.
One day when the door of Uncle Joe's ice house was open she strolled into it, and when the wind blew the door shut she was trapped. He didn't find her for three days, and when he did he had to put on fur mittens to milk her. Then, blamed if she didn't give nothing but ice cream!
Uncle Joe's family was getting tired of nothing but ice cream for dessert, when finally the cow seemed to thaw out a bit. But the next day she wandered over to a marble quarry. When the men blasted out a big slab of the stone the explosion shook her up so that for the next week she didn't give anything but butter.
But fine butter it was—cool and firm and hard. Then a hot spell came and Uncle Joe was afraid the butter might spoil. So he took it down to a shady nook and put it on a big stone. Up, up, up went the thermometer that day and Uncle Joe began to worry about his butter. Finally he went down to look at it.
"Well, sir," says Uncle Joe, "I found that that stone had melted and run away. But the butter was all right."

Clothes and the Man

WHEN Walter Howey and Frank Carson, widely known newspaper executives, "teamed" on the Chicago Herald and Examiner years ago, their after-business adventures made history.
At five minutes past three one morning they strolled happily on Randolph street, having been persuaded to participate in a game of chance and profiting handsomely thereby.
At Clark street a ragged stranger approached. Instantly, Howey peeled $20 from his roll and showed it to the derelict.
"This is yours," orated Howey. "Just remove your clothes. Cross the street and touch the county building."
The unfortunate hesitated. He was lost.
Stepping gingerly, he removed all but b. v. d.'s, appraised the apparently deserted streets, and weakened, Howey pressed the money into his hand. "Take it," said the editor. "All you gotta do is touch the building."
As the victim, grabbing the $20, reached the county building, Carson yelled for the police. One of Chicago's finest appeared magically. "Catch him," screamed Carson, pointing. "That fellow's crazy!"
Nine seconds later the naked man, clutching $20 tightly, turned a corner in advance of the policeman, firing wildly. "Think of it," gasped Carson. "More money than he's seen in months, but naked. And not even a pawnshop open."
The sequel, heard infrequently, is when Carson arrived home an hour later his apartment was jimmied. A complete outfit of clothing was missing. Costlier objects were untouched.

Last Word in Convenience

The desire to make a car reflect its owner's individuality is a potent factor in the average motorist's choice of accessory equipment. And it would be hard to find a more thoroughly "personalized" car than this new Chevrolet in which Mary Pickford is shown applying a touch of makeup. As if the handy illuminated vanity mirror were not enough, the car has a special kit of Miss Pickford's own famous beauty aids, now on the market under her name. The container, holding lipstick, rouge, powder and cream, folds neatly up into the glove compartment when not in use. Inset shows close-up of vanity case.

Three Lemon Pie Tricks

By BETTY BARCLAY

"Come for dessert."
Lemon pie speaks its message without words.
The hostess, however, who serves it, writes this invitation on her calling cards, together with date and hour for an afternoon of bridge, gathering a dozen friends to finish luncheons begun at their own homes with a closing dessert at hers. With dessert, she offers a beverage—here a cup of tea, served with lemon. The game over and prizes awarded, guests go home in time to prepare dinner for tired husbands, their own appetites unimpaired.
The same suggestion may be used for a dinner dessert, where a hostess does not have facilities to serve a large dinner party. Men come for these desserts, necessitating a careful choice. Lemon pie is "tops" with masculine America and always welcome.
Three simple tricks in cooking make this lemon pie a reputation builder for the hostess that serves it. Trick one—add lemon juice and egg to pastry mix—result, flaky crust of a superior tenderness.
Trick two—cook filling first, then add freshly squeezed lemon juice after the cooking flame is out—result, a filling fragrantly fresh in flavor. Trick three—add a little lemon juice to the meringue—result, a more tender, easy-to-cut meringue. Full recipe directions are as follows:
Sunkist Lemon Meringue Pie
Bring to a boil in saucepan on direct heat:
1 cup water or milk
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon grated lemon peel

Add:
5 tablespoons cornstarch, blended with
1/2 cup cold water
Cook over low heat until thickened (about 5 minutes), stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add separately, mixing well each time:
2 well beaten egg yolks
1 tablespoon butter
6 tablespoons lemon juice
Four filling into an 8-inch Sunkist Pastry shell. Top with Sunkist Meringue. Brown in moderate oven (325° F.) for 15 minutes.
Sunkist Pastry
Sift together:
3 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon salt
Cut in:
1 cup shortening
Add:
1 slightly beaten egg, combined with
3 tablespoons lemon juice
Add gradually:
Ice water—just enough to bind dough together
Roll pastry out thin and line pie plates. Bake in hot oven (475° F.) for 15 minutes. (Makes three 8-inch single pie shells. Keep unbaked dough in refrigerator until needed.)
Sunkist Meringue
Beat until frothy:
2 egg whites
Add gradually:
4 tablespoons sugar
Continue beating but only until egg holds its shape in peaks. Fold in:
1 teaspoon lemon juice
Cover pie.

Mrs. Erwin Greer of Pontiac is conducting a meal planning course to meet in the church each Tuesday afternoon at 1:30. The next lesson will be "use of milk in the diet". These meetings are under the direction of the Red Cross.

The Community United Presbyterian Church Choir members are very grateful for the donations from Whitfield, Walter & Dawson. They donated the pancake flour. Mr. and Mrs. Doby donated the maple syrup for their supper tonight in the church.

A house warming was held for Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Doble last Saturday evening. Four tables of 500 were played during the evening. A lovely pot luck supper was served later in the evening. The young couple was presented with a lovely coffee table.

The fourth church night cooperative supper will be held Wednesday night, February 22nd. At 6:30 in the church dining-room. Two of the elders will have charge of the program. Everyone is invited to these helpful meetings.

The Young Temperance Union met with Mrs. Lelia Bailey at her home on Richivan Ct. last Tuesday evening. The discussion was "What Alcohol Is and What It Does". Lovely refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

The W. C. T. U. meeting will be held with Mrs. Ray Shell on Sashabaw Rd. next Tuesday afternoon, February 21st, at 1:30. All members come and if anyone is in arrears please take care of same at this meeting as all subscriptions must be sent to headquarters before March 1st.

The supper held in the Community United Presbyterian Church last Wednesday night was well attended. Rev. W. C. Ballagh of the Baptist Church at Clarkston delivered the message on "Stewardship". Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Johnson of Pontiac rendered a duet "Take up the Cross and Follow Me".

A Pancake and Sausage Supper will be served tonight, Friday, Feb. 17th, in the dining room of the Community United Presbyterian Church, starting at 5:30 and continue until all are served. The choir under the direction of Dr. L. G. Rowley is sponsoring this supper and the money earned will go towards new robes. Everyone is invited.

A lovely pot luck supper was given in the School Auditorium for the Girl Scouts and their mothers on Monday night, Feb. 13th, followed by investment services. Girls receiving tenderfoot pins were Bertie Lou Bachelor, Rose Marie Hosner and Irene Hutchinson. The girls presented with 2nd class badges were Eileen Brinker, Lois Jane Robb, Shirley Pauline See and Inez Gilchrist. A lovely program followed.

Safetygrams

Some drivers feel that their ability to get out of a tight spot is a demonstration of skill. They drive recklessly, heedless of traffic rules, feeling secure in the knowledge that they know how to handle a car.

A driver may get a thrill from getting out of a tight spot by quick and expert handling of his car, but he should not boast about it or get "cocky", because a good driver rarely gets into a tight spot. He is always careful on the approach to intersections, schools, crossroads, and other places where there is a possibility of his meeting other drivers.

The anticipation of an accident at these spots is the practice of all good drivers.

It's smart to drive carefully.

STAMPS

Items and News of Interest to Collectors

Periodically the rumor would arise that baseball was to be honored with a stamp and then the report would be vigorously denied, protesting that such an issue would not be feasible in any way. Now, out of a clear sky, with no petitions or requests, comes the announcement that baseball is to have a commemorative this summer.

Alfred Doubleday is credited with originating the first game of baseball in Cooperstown, N. Y., in the summer of 1839. This is disputed by some authorities but evidently the Postmaster General, James A. Farley, himself an ardent baseball fan, accepted Doubleday and the first day sale will be held at Cooperstown.

Two designs are being reviewed and an official announcement will be made there is a much talked possibility of the stamp being a tribute of Christy Mathewson, baseball's number one immortal. Babe Ruth has been mentioned but federal regulations prohibit the portrait of any living individual appearing on a postage stamp.

The Hilltopper

on the 17th of March. Don't forget it.

Bill Wilson likes the upper class girls very well—when he's stuck with his Modern Business.

The results of the party the Juniors had (not a class party) are very evident—too much so—at least Jackie, Jeanette and a few others complain of bruises and bumps.

Tom Boothby is going to do some real acting in the Operetta. That is with the help of Milt and Dick, Fiske and Tee, respectively.

Lost: one good upholding dignity—Inquire to Miss Cohen. (Oh, these little innocent patches of ice!

Julia made a very stern Monitor except with the Seniors but who could make a Senior do anything!

The Second Act is being learned by the Operetta Cast (or is it?)

If you really want to laugh you should see Mr. Waters daintily fingering the piano keys (with one finger) while he and Mr. Thayer and Mr. Willoughby practice for their trio for the request program.

THE JUNIOR PARTY

by Betty Taylor

The Juniors had a party and it proved to be a great success, at least most of the Juniors think so. There were quite a few Juniors sporting beautiful cuts and bruises around school as you have probably noticed.

They met at school at 7:00 and then started for Edgars. When they got to Julia's it seemed that her dad had quite a nice fire (or should I say three) and they started their fun, speaking of tobogganing, it seems that Owen Payne came so close to the bonfire that he didn't have a hard time keeping warm. Dick Lowrie seemed to like the thrill of gliding into a tree which didn't prove as disastrous as it could have been. Then came the treat of the evening consisting of hot cocoa and a wicker roast. Everyone enjoyed himself and some went home in the best of spirits although they had many discomforts (Geez What!).

GRADE NEWS

Mrs. Beardslee's Room

Our boys and girls are having a Valentine Box and Party Wednesday. We have made Valentine Borders and Patriotic posters and emblems in our Art Classes.

The song we learned this week is "Marching". Our attendance is improving as many of the boys and girls who were ill are back with us again.

Miss McClaren's Room

The pupils of our room have been interested in learning about the ways in which blind people read. We have a copy of "My Weekly Reader" written in Braille and published by the American Printing House for the Blind at Louisville, Kentucky. The paper is three times the size of our newspaper and contains an explanation of all the letters and words used in the paper.

SIXTH GRADE

We begin our new semester with an enrollment of 40 pupils. Don Wolfe is a new Sixth grader, and Bob Rowland has returned after an absence of three weeks, due to illness.

Each morning we spend the first few minutes of our Arithmetic period taking a speed test. Pupils are keeping individual graphs of their scores to determine weaknesses. Special practice cards will be used by those who need them.

We are working on a group of four large poster puzzles for our room. These panels depict incidents in the lives of Washington and Lincoln. A committee has been chosen for each panel.

A new club is being formed in our room—the C3 Club. The first two C's stand for the club motto, "Courtesy and Cooperation"; the third for a deep, dark secret—the club password. All who practice the motto may become members. There are already twelve members.

Last Monday the class received Language contracts to be completed in two weeks. Several enthusiastic members worked hard and finished them in one week. Since Contracts are a new experience there will be others who will put the task off too long. It will be a good lesson in planning ahead. In March there will be another one to complete.

HILL AUDITORIUM

Home of Michigan's famous Choral Union and May Festival concerts, which have made Ann Arbor one of the leading musical centers of the Midwest, Hill Auditorium has entertained the most brilliant of America's and Europe's musical artists.

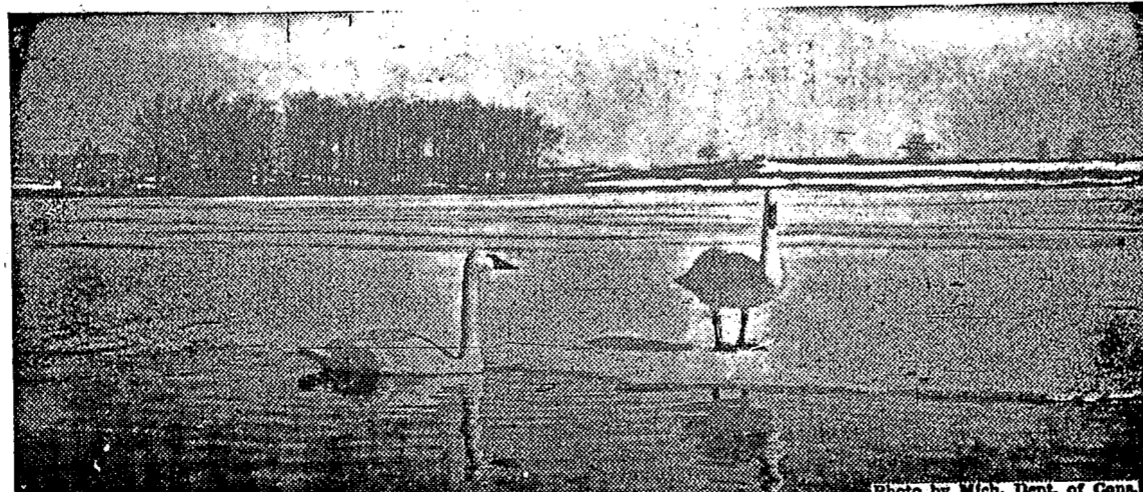

The Auditorium, dedicated in 1913, was the gift of the late Regent Arthur Hill, of Saginaw, who received a degree in Engineering from the University of Michigan in 1865. In addition to its use for concert purposes, the 5,000 seat auditorium has been used for various other education, scientific and religious lectures and gatherings.

Embodiment of a triumph in the science of acoustics, the red brick, ivy covered building is constructed so that even a whisper from the stage can be heard in the farthest corner.

A few of the artists appearing at Hill Auditorium during the 1938-39 Choral Union Concert Series are Lawrence Tibbett, Kirsten Flagstad, Yehudi Menuhin, Jose Iturbi, and the Budapest University Chorus.

A Must-be-eaten Dessert

By Frances Lee Barton
A most delightful and modern version of a traditional festive holiday pudding is one which is molded in gelatin and, of course, served cold. It is a most fitting end to a party dinner — yet it is so light that not one of your guests will decline it with the regretful plea

Jellied Holiday Pudding
1 package cherry flavored gelatin; 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon; 1/2 teaspoon cloves; dash of salt; 1 pint hot water; 1/4 cup brandy; 1/2 cup chopped raisins; 1/2 cup chopped cooked prunes; 1/4 cup sliced citron; 1/4 cup broken walnut meats. Combine gelatin, spices, and fruit well and dissolve in hot water. Cool and add brandy. Chill. Whipped cream, slightly thickened, fold in just before serving. Turn into mold. Chill until firm. Unmold with whipped cream or favorite sauce. Serves 10.

Family Life of Bob White
The family life of the Bob White is ideal. Both parents are equally concerned with rearing the brood, and if the female is killed, the male will care for the young unaided until they are well grown. In fact, the domestic instinct is so strong in the male that "bachelor" Bob Whites have often been detected in the act of kidnaping of a young brood and carefully rearing them to maturity.

Sail-Skate and Ski- IN MICHIGAN!

SPLENDID natural advantages entitle Michigan to wider recognition as a fine winter playground; for probably no State offers greater inducements to ice-boaters, skiers, skaters and toboggan parties.

Michigan's centers of winter sport, well distributed, are reached by fine transportation systems. And the State Highway Department does an excellent job in keeping the highways open in all kinds of weather.

This advertisement, appearing in 250 Michigan newspapers, is one of a series which the Michigan Bell Telephone Company is publishing to help promote our State's outstanding attractions for lovers of winter sports.
