HOLLY THEATRE

A whiff of lavender, the sight of a once-loved book, the taste of "penny candy"-such are the little inconsequential things that can bring back the past to many of us in a rush of memory. . But there is one thing dependable above everything else to work this result, and that's the popular song.

So bound up in the individual romances of our daily lives are the heart songs and hit songs of yesterday and today that just overhearing a familiar refrain opens the gates of memory. This was one of the reasons for the popularity of the recent film, "Alexander's Ragtime Band". To this nostalgia, also, is largely due the acclaim which has greeted the newest entertainment highlight from Darryl F. Zanuck and 20th Century-Fox, "Rose of Washington Square". The romantic stars of "Alexander's Ragtime Band"-Tyrone Power and Alice Faye-are joined by Al Jolson in "Rose of Washington Square" which opens today at the Holly Theatre.

Among the many familiar milestones of melody heard in the production are "My Man", "Toot Toot Tootsie, Goodbye," "April Showers" "Mammy", "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows", "Ja-Da", "I'm Just Wild About Harry", "California, Here I Come" and "Avalon". In addition is the newest hit from Gordon and Henry Mehlberg in charge. Classes Revel, "I Never Knew Heaven Could Speak".

But the music serves only as highlight of the stirring, deeply human romance that is the central theme of the picture, a true-to-life story that is summed up simply in Rose's declaration: "Listen: I love this man from here to breakfast! Want to make something of it? He's tricky! So all right, he's tricky! He's hurt me? So what? I love him! He's my man!"

Livestock farmers in Oakland county should make a careful inventory now of the amount and condition of pasture available for the next three months, suggests G. A. Brown, head ors, in the following order: Clarks- of the animal husbandry department at Michigan State College. This should be followed by plans and preparation for additional pasture if it will be needed.

"For sheep and hog pasture," says Professor Brown, "perhaps the best crop to be sown in June is Dwarf Essex rape. On the heavier solls this is usually broadcast at the rate of six to seven pounds an acre. On lighter soils the seed frequently is drilled in rows 28 inches apart and cultivated. "For cattle pasture the most satisfactory crop for June growth is Sudan grass broadcast at the rate of 25 ounds an acre.

"Beef cattle especially will do well upon mature grass pasture if there is abundance of it. Sheep and swine differ and require fresh, succulent green feed throughout the season if satisfactory gains are to be made."

Where permanent grass pastures are depended upon to carry the flock, it is considered advisable to provide some rape pasture on which lambs can be weaned in July or early August. This is especially good practice if second crop alfalfa or clover is not available right after weaning. Livestock which marks time o and August can prove a serious loss to the owner, yet Professor Brown's

The children will be enrolled as usual; but will progress by easy steps or levels from one objective to the next without consideration of a whole grade or class. Many small groups will work out of one large group, involving approxi-mately 110 pupils. Improvement over the old system is seen in that the new program will provide for greater in-dividual attention—a vital factor in giving little folks a proper start in school. It is expected that a much broader background will be attained by providing the pupils with more facilities for their activities. Pupils wil' not be forced to attain set standards within a given time, particularly in regard to reading achievement, thus eliminating the feeling of failure and frustration which sometimes engen-ders unhealthy habits. Instructors have been hired with especial thought to their training and experience in the new type of work and it is believed the program will prove a decidedly forward step in the elementary school field.

The list of tenth grade pupils to be graduated this month includes: June Batchelor, Helen Bauman, Dorothy Dorman, Lorraine Felice, Lyman Girst, Lillian Green, Robert Mehlberg, Gerald Monroe, Virginia Orr Katherine Rochm, Betty Smithson, Barbara Schenck, Barbara Thompson Glenna Walter, Robert Wagner, Clay-ton Weaver, Harold Weill, and Madeline Widing. Case History No. 73

John Jones married. He had never handled a paint brush in his life. Now, he has to watch the pennies. There was a kitchen table and some chairs his folks gave him. He came to us. We told him how to do the job with the least effort and expense. You ought to see that kitchen today.

Case History No. 19

James Doe is a painting contractor. He had an opportunity to bid on the decoration of a large, new building. It was the biggest job he ever tackled. He needed advice about financial arrangements, prices and estimates. We gave him all the information he wanted. He won the contract and is on his way now to other large, profitable jobs.

P.S. Each of these men used Pontiac Varnish Company paints. They know they are applied more easily and give more coverage per gallon. Mr. and Mrs. Jones like the way their kitchen furniits color despite repeated cleanings. The painting contractor has been complimented on the way his paint withstands wear and tear.
