Odds and Ends

The Country Photo Club announces its first annual outdoor competition at Clarkston, Mich., Sept. 24 and 25. If interested you can secure an entry blank from Frank Webb, Jr., R. F. D. No. 1, Clarkston. This should be interesting to those interested in photos and amateur photography.

Now that the road to the school is completed the News must lay off that subject, admit that the road is a dandy and start looking for something else to improve.

There are just five dictionaries left. Hurry if you want one and the News for a year for only $1.39.

POTATO HARVEST IS APPROACHING

Demonstration Is Scheduled Near Here on Sept. 21

Farmers in this vicinity expect to harvest a big crop of potatoes this fall. There was a large acreage planted as usual and while early weather conditions were not the best, late rains have been of immense advantage to growth and maturity. It will soon be time to begin digging, which means that in some, perhaps most, rural districts school will be closed for a time to allow the pupils to work in the fields.

Appropos to the potato digging season, the Agricultural Extension service of the Michigan State College has arranged for a series of digging and grading demonstrations on farms in the Lower Peninsula for the week of September 18.

The nearest one in this section will be held at the farm of Carl Dittman, one mile west and 1 1/2 miles south of Dryden, on Thursday, Sept. 21.

Two phases, harvesting and grading, are to be stressed in these farm programs which start at 10 a. m. There are to be exhibits of machinery lined up for the visitors. In the contests, one is to determine speed and efficiency in field picking. The other for adults and juniors is in grading. Prizes of $50 in cash are to be awarded each day. In educational work in the programs, stress is to be placed upon prevention of harvesting injury, proper grading and suitable storage. New ideas in storage indicate ideal winter temperatures are not below 40 degrees Fahrenheit, warmed up to 50 or 55 degrees just before use.

HOLLY THEATRE

Robert Taylor and Hedy Lamarr arrive as the newest and most fascinating romantic team of the screen in "Lady of the Tropics", opening Sunday at the Holly Theatre.

For the first co-starring picture for two of the most dynamic personalities to skyrocket to fame in motion pictures in recent years, a love story was chosen that has been elected as ideal for their respective abilities, with Taylor seen as a young American adventurer and Miss Lamarr as a mysterious beauty of the East.

The setting of the story takes place in the heart of the Orient, where wanderers of all races, irrespective of caste, meet and mingle, seek love and sometimes die. As the love between Taylor and Miss Lamarr progresses, it takes them to the colorful harbor of Saigon, the "Paris of the East", along its teeming river docks, into the interesting quarters of the natives, their cafes and shops.

Taylor plays young Bill Corey, penniless American, who meets and falls in love with Manon, a beautiful half-caste, portrayed by Miss Lamarr, whose dream is to flee from Indo-China where no race recognizes her, and become a white woman. Joseph Schildkraut, as Delaroch, throws all obstacles in her path because he also loves her, and even her marriage to Taylor by Father Antoine, played by Ernest Cossart, fails to thwart Delaroch in keeping her bound to Indo-China. Miss Lamarr, after Taylor has voiced distrust in her, finds the solution in a tensely dramatic climax.

"Lady of the Tropics" was directed by Jack Conway who last directed Taylor in "A Yank at Oxford". Important roles in the supporting cast are filled by Gloria Franklin from the New York stage, Mary Taylor, the well-known society girl who made her film debut as the star of "Soak the Rich", Charles Trowbridge, Fred Eric Worlock, Paul Porcasi, Margaret Padula, Grace Hayle, Elise Cavanna, Cecil Cunningham and Natalie Moorhead.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lucas of Sioux Falls, S. Dakota, spent last Friday night at the L. F. Walter home and immediately after her sister's wedding on Saturday they left for New York.

N. Y. A. Will Help Students at U. of M.

Any young person in this community who wishes to enter the State University and desires financial assistance through the National Youth Administration work program should write to the office of the Dean of Students at Ann Arbor for detailed information. Administrators of the program have tried to make each job as educationally valuable to the worker as possible, so that the work will serve more than a mere financial purpose.

Students working under the NYA program receive the prevailing wages for student labor. The average monthly earnings of students must not exceed $15 under the provisions of the program, while any individual undergraduate student cannot receive more than $20 per month.

To obtain work under the NYA students must be American citizens between the ages of 16 and 24 inclusive. They must show need of employment to remain in the University and the character and ability necessary to carry on work outside their regular classes. Each student participating must carry at least three-quarters of a full-time program of study in the University.

EUROPEAN WAR IS OF LIVE INTEREST

Wherever a few people are gathered together in Clarkston these days you may count on it the topic of conversation is the war in Europe and how it will affect the United States.

President Roosevelt assured the people of this country in his talk on Sunday night that the government would do all in its power to keep out of war. The President stated that he had seen war and he hated it and many veterans in this district heartily agree with him.

Grocery stores have been busy this week dealing out supplies, principally flour and sugar, in quantities, to customers who are fortifying themselves against price boosts. However, the Federal Government is taking action to prevent profiteering and there is no danger of rationing as long as the United States is not drawn into the conflict.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Davies were among the guests at a house party at the A. R. Saunders' summer home at Gaylord for the week-end and Labor Day. They returned to Clarkston on Tuesday evening.

Methodist Ladies' Aid Met Wednesday Aft.

A Sale of Baked Goods Was Planned for Saturday, Sept. 16th

On Wednesday afternoon the Ladies' Aid of the Clarkston Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. William Pierce with about seventeen present. Mrs. Pierce was assisted by Mrs. Marguerite Miller, Mrs. David Miller and Mrs. Bradley Miller.

At the business meeting it was decided that the general Aid would hold a sale of Home Baked Goods at the G. A. Walter store on Saturday, Sept. 16th starting at 10:00 a. m. Everyone in the Aid is asked to help and make this a grand success. The proceeds will be used to defray expenses on repairs to the parsonage which will include new floors in the upstairs rooms. Plans are being formulated for a chicken supper and Fall Fair to be held some time in the near future. The committee for the menu includes: Mrs. Forrest Jones, chairman, Mrs. Marguerite Miller, Mrs. Elizabeth Rockwell, Mrs. Carrie Walter, Mrs. Margaret Rockwell, Mrs. William Gulick and Mrs. John Mann. Other committees will be appointed. Rev. Pailthorp who was in charge of the Devotionals also spoke about plans to raise money to purchase an organ for the Church. He suggested having small money banks for each family into which each would drop a penny after each meal. The money would be collected each month and be deposited in an organ fund. This procedure would continue until the centennial in October, 1940 and by then there would be enough money to pay for the organ. He explained how this plan had worked successfully in other communities. The Aid is going to consider the plan and action will be taken at a later date.

Mrs. Forrest Jones gave an interesting talk on her recent trip west. Mrs. William Jones favored the group with a reading.

At the close of the meeting dainty refreshments were served at small tables.

With the District Commander and three of his staff present, the officers of the Campbell-Richmond Post No. 63 of the American Legion were installed last Thursday, in the Opera House. INCREASE IN MILK PRICES ANNOUNCED

By State Milk Board
Milk producers in this area are now analyzing what improvement in circumstances may reasonably be expected from orders issued by the State Milk Board for the Detroit Marketing Area.

Dr. F. D. Walmsley, Market Administrator, states that the total benefit value cannot be accurately computed until reports are available to indicate the volume of milk. Many distributors are affected who have made no report previously.

F. M. Skiver, Secretary of the State Milk Board and Chief of the State Dairy Bureau, has estimated, based upon figures obtained from the Michigan Milk Producers Association, that the 18 cent increase on Class I milk, effective September 1, will apply to approximately 60 percent of all milk, or on about 36 million pounds out of a possible 60 million in the entire market. Put in terms for all milk, the increase from $1.90 to $2.08 on 60% of the milk may be estimated at approximately 11 cents per hundred.

Producers are also calculating how much their net price will gain on account of the reduced freight rates and complete payment at scheduled prices for all milk as used. The decrease in transportation will affect the larger part of the supply. The so called freight rates or distance differentials are lowered by the order from the prevailing schedule of 14 cents up to 27 cents to a range of 12 to 19 cents. This amounts to about 5 cents per cwt. as an average. Combined with an 11 cent price increase, this helps average net price 16 cents. Dealer equalization as a method to insure full payment also affects the major supply. It eliminates the pool fee deduction required to pay all producers alike. If rated at 6 cents, as has prevailed in recent months, its removal helps net price that much, which brings the probable gain to 22 cents per hundred.

The State Board has made no ruling for consumer prices which will continue to be set by the dealers unless an order is later put in force covering that part of the business.

The George Lindsay family has moved into the Barry house on West Washington Street.

MAN MADE MICHIGAN RAIN PROVES FEASIBLE

Thousands of Michigan farmers in 1939 have viewed this large capacity "water gun" in operation as engineers at Michigan State College demonstrated its effectiveness of various crops when irrigation could improve vegetation, fruiting or other growth. In this extension service to Michigan agriculture this past summer, however, it seemed peculiar that the appearance of the water gun seemed to be a call for a deluge provided naturally by the weather man. Crowds at East Lansing, Hartford, and Lake City witnessed these rainfalls as well as the work of the irrigator. Here is a scene where water from a creek north of St. Johns is being soaked up out in the field by mint plants. Rain fell a few hours later.

An accident resulting in the painful injury to four persons, three of which were small children occurred Monday night at 9:30 o'clock when a car driven by Arthur L. Stegner of Detroit ran into the rear of a parked car on the Andersonville road in front of the Waterford Market. The parked car belonged to Edward Skelton of 6334 Andersonville road and in the car were the three Skelton children, Dale, 10, Richard, 8, and Hazel, 4, who were all bruised about the head and were taken by Sam Felice, proprietor of the Waterford Market, to a Clarkston doctor's office. The parents of the children had just entered the Waterford Market to make a purchase of some ice-cream for the little folks when they heard an awful crash and looked out to see their car had been knocked about 30 feet from the impact of the other car. Both cars were heading west and the Stegner car contained one or two women passengers and the driver. The driver received an injury to his nose. Stegner was placed under arrest on a tentative drunk driving charge but was first removed to General Hospital for emergency treatment for cuts and bruises. Little four year old Hazel Skelton received more severe injuries than the others and the last report was that she was suffering a painful spinal injury. Both cars were towed away for repairs.

Those attending Sunday School Sunday at the Waterford Church were rewarded with a beautiful sight—a large blue vase containing a huge fan-shaped bouquet of peach colored gladioli stood on the table in front of the pulpit. These gorgeous flowers were from the funeral of sixteen year old Marjorie Jane Monroe, who passed away in North Hollywood, California the first of last week and whose body was brought to Pontiac for burial, which took place Saturday. The deceased, her widowed mother and her brother lived near Waterford, just prior to going to California, last November. The only teakettle of its kind in AMERICA!

You've never seen a teakettle like this one. It is an educated teakettle... one that shuts off the electricity if negligence permits it to boil dry. When the water boils too low, the connection plug pops out—and it can't be replaced until the kettle has cooled off. But aside from this desirable feature, the teakettle has other unique advantages. Made of polished aluminum and spotlessly clean, it can be used anywhere in the house—in the kitchen, the laundry, the sick room. Simply plug into the nearest electric outlet. A special high-speed element heats water in a few minutes—from one to four quarts. You will find this teakettle a great help in your household... it will save you time and steps. And with reasonable care, it should last a lifetime.

Free Demonstration!
 The afternoon of September 7, on our Sales Floor in Pontiac you may see a free demonstration of Oven Canning—the effortless, easy canning method. You will enjoy seeing the fine results so easily obtained.
 Old fashioned canning really was a mess, wasn't it? A hot steamy kitchen—spills, and boil overs—steam everywhere. Even some so-called modern ranges due to uneven heat, ups and downs of temperature — caused boil overs with oven canning.
 Only Modern Gas Cookery, with its even heat, gives the ideal conditions for oven canning. With the Modern Gas Range oven canning is easy, steam free, effortless, cool, and simple. With less hours in the kitchen, you are assured of perfect results. Come in and see the actual demonstration.
