Free Advice

If I was asked advice to give About the world in which we live, I think that I inclined would be To tell of things concerning me. Don't ever live a serious life, Or take much part in bitter strife. Don't build too much in anything, For only sorrow it will bring.

The more and better that you build The more your dreams you have fulfilled. The more somebody else will find You have, just what he'd had in mind.

You'll find he'll go to any end (It matters not if foe or friend) To tear your little castle down, And strew the wreckage on the ground.

So says I to you, take this advice— If you are serious just think twice. When things go up they must come down.

As sure as this old world is round, The higher up our dreams are built, The more we hate to have them wilt. So never very serious be.

Just keep light hearted, gay and free. —R. G. B.

Child Study Club Met Wednesday Eve

Mrs. Frank Lewis Was the Hostess

On Wednesday evening the Clarkston Child Study Club met at the home of Mrs. Frank Lewis. Roll Call was answered by telling of a favorite vacation snapshot.

The regular business meeting was held and plans were made for the Club as a group to attend the State Federation to be held in Mt. Clemens on October 12th. An interesting paper was given by Mrs. Wade Dean on "Vacations—Negative and Positive".

In order that everyone would take a part in the meeting each was given a slip of paper on which was typed a splendid thought or suggestion on "Habits" and "Obedience" and these were read by the members.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Markle on Holcomb St., on October 18th.

At the close of a profitable evening the hostess served dainty refreshments.

F. H. A. Financing Comes to Clarkston

Clarkston's first F. H. A. financed home got under way Thursday morning, when Bert Auten, the successful bidder broke ground on lots 34 and 35 Robertson Parke Lake Subdivision for the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Robinson.

Clarkston Girl Weds Goodrich Man

On Friday evening, September 22nd, Donna Elizabeth Lowrie, daughter of Homer Lowrie of Clarkston, became the bride of William Russell Yerkey, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Yerkey of Goodrich. The marriage rites were read at the home of Rev. Roy Johns at Montrose.

The bride wore a two piece navy costume with matching accessories and a corsage of gardenias and roses. Her sister, Miss Susan Lowrie, was her attendant. She wore a cuff of black and white and a corsage of sweet peas and roses.

Mr. Yerkey was assisted by his brother, Donald.

Following the ceremony a supper was served at the Bridgeport Inn. The couple then left for northern Michigan. On their return they will make their home in Flint.

Junior Club Started New Season on Tuesday

The President, Mrs. Stanley Henderson, Was Hostess

The Clarkston Junior Literary Club at the home of Mrs. Stanley Henderson met at the home of Mrs. Stanley Henderson and four guests, the sponsor, Miss Ada Scrace, Mrs. Chas. Quinn, Mrs. Howard Lord and Mrs. Robert Jones, present. Mrs. Quinn was later welcomed as a new member.

The Roll Call was answered with "The name and character of a book I have read during the summer." The newly elected officers presided.

The regular business meeting was conducted and ways and means of making money were discussed. Miss Ada Scrace read the parliamentary law.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday evening, October 17th at the home of Mrs. Harlan Oakes in Drayton Plains.

At the close of a very lovely evening the hostess served dainty refreshments.

The Hilltopper

SENIOR PLAY NEWS

by Jackie Parrish

Surprise!!!!!! It is "Senior Play" time again and like all other senior classes of Clarkston High School and schools all over the U. S. we are striving to present the best senior play ever to be presented at Clarkston High School. Our class president had appointed a very capable committee to read plays and to select one for us to present. Those on the committee are as follows: Evelyn Davies, Mary Jean DeLong, Maxine Broadway, Eugene Hubbard and Russell Morgan.

NEW HUDSON DEFEATS CLARKSTON 13 TO 0!

Clarkston was defeated for the second time this year by a score of 13 to 0. It looked as if the game would be called because of rain but it finally let up enough so that it could be played. New Hudson got both of their touchdowns early in the game, but the last half Clarkston held them so well they were only able to make one first down.

The line up for Clarkston was: LE—Kline LT—Johnson LG—Skarritt C—Shaughnessy RG—Morgan RT—Lowrie RE—E. Ross QB—Russell HB—Ross HB—Bird FB—Cubley

CLASSROOM NEWS

Mrs. Walter:

The senior civics class has had two student teachers for their Scholastic discussions—Irene Walz and Eugene Hubbard—and from reports, the class had a very good discussion.

The new committees for posting clippings include Frank Russell, Vera Sylvester, Russell Morgan, Mary Jean DeLong, George Leucheman, Rena Sparling, Evelyn Davies, Irene Walz, Junior Bird and Julia Edgar.

The clippings should include information on war, neutral countries, United States Neutrality, Propaganda, etc.

The American History class is studying events leading up to the American Revolution endeavoring to see how laws were passed from the viewpoint of the British Empire at that time as well as from our own viewpoint.

The 8th grade American History is still studying the founding of the colonies.

Miss Cohen:

The ninth graders are studying the four cases of nouns and pronouns and the ways in which each is used.

Each pupil in the tenth grade English class has handed in an original short story. Now the class is beginning the unit on functional grammar.

Latin II class is translating the story "Ceres and Proserpina" a favorite story in ancient mythology.

Speech I is beginning a unit on bodily action and is practicing pantomimes. Each member is to make a scrap book illustrating the different kinds of action as produced by the face, arms, legs, trunk, etc.

Mr. Waters:

The class in algebra have completed their preliminary work on formulas and graphing and are now in a study of the theory of equations.

Biology classes have completed the study of Unit one which gives many of the tools to be used in the study of the rest of the year. During the warmer weather we had the opportunity to collect and observe the living things outdoors. With colder weather coming the work will be largely in the text book and reference books in the library.

Mr. Thayer:

Some of the Modern Business students did not have their work books which put them behind, but they have them now, and are catching up in their work. The class is studying banking.

The Commercial Law students are still studying contracts. They are on the chapters entitled "Termination of Contracts" and Sales.

Speed tests were begun for the second year students in typing.

The shorthand students are studying the rules concerning the letter "s".

Seventh grade Arithmetic class is just getting started with Mr. Thayer as their teacher. The large group has been divided and Miss Wellington has the other group.

Miss Wellington:

We were very glad to be able to divide two of our seventh grade classes—the arithmetic and English sections. Mr. Thayer is taking the arithmetic group and Mrs. Strait the other English group. Now that our classes in our two hardest subjects are small we shall expect to do great things in the seventh grade.

American Legion Sponsors Membership Drive

The 17th District, of which the Campbell Richmond Post is a member, is striving to put their membership out in front by the first of the year. Of course every Post must help and an award is being made to the Post which reaches the highest percentage of its membership quota by Jan. 30, 1940.

The local Post invites every person who is eligible to become a member to attend the next meeting on Oct. 17th.

The District meeting is being held in Ferndale tonight, Oct. 6, and every member is urged to attend and hear what went on at the Convention in Chicago.

Oak Hill Ladies Have Busy Days

The ladies of Oak Hill have a good time remembering birthdays. On Thursday of last week about fourteen of them gathered at the home of Mrs. Leslie Alward and helped her to celebrate her birthday. They spent the afternoon playing hearts and as a fitting climax to a lovely afternoon they had a delicious lunch.

On Tuesday the group went to the home of Mrs. Cora Beckman in Ortonville where she was celebrating her birthday. At one o'clock they enjoyed a lovely cooperative luncheon and a delightful afternoon was spent visiting.

Clarkston Locals

Many here will be interested in knowing that the plans have been completed for the annual Ferris Institute Homecoming for 1939. Odell Lamb, Alumni Secretary, has been elected general chairman and Dr. E. M. Clark of Ferris Institute and John Buck of Big Rapids will act as marshals of the day. Jack Davis, Band Director of the Institute and Ralph Rose, President of the Men's Union, will have charge of the music and bands. The affair will take place Friday and Saturday, October 20 and 21.

things in the seventh grade. The eighth grade English class has made a very brief study of parliamentary law and is now ready to organize as a class.

Our sophomore geography class is studying the coffee industry of Brazil. Mr. Willoughby:

This year's seventh grade Shop class has started out nicely with new aprons and many new students. They are organized well and are using moveable lettered aprons for the foreman janitor for 1 week.

Each week they are changed to another person alphabetically. All students are now working on "squaring a block".

Mrs. Strait:

Home Ec. 7—We have done our first cooking now that we have planned our breakfast unit. We have made apple compote.

Home Ec. 8—We have been planning school lunches that would contain proper foodstuffs especially vitamins and minerals. Now we will propose a suitable school lunch.

Home Ec. 1—During the last couple weeks we have been canning peaches, pickled pears, chili sauce, tomatoes, tomato juice, and grape jelly. This week we have been working on letters. We are making plans for our project.

Home Ec. II—The Girls in Home Ec. for the last two weeks have been studying about cool harmonics, decoration and structural design and lines of garments. We have been studying about style of patterns for short, tall and average height girls.

For the second year of Home Ec. the girls have to work on a woolen garment. This week we have started to cut and put together our garments. They include suits, shirts and blouses, and woolen dresses.

Home Ec. Club News:

We had our first meeting a week ago Wednesday. The meeting was called to order by our present Jeanette Vliet and the general program of the year was given by our secretary, Malvina Smith. The other officers are treasurer, Dorothy Rouse; vice-president, Aleta Boice, and historian, Arlien Williamson. We were very happy to have twenty members this year and we hope to make this a more successful year than previously. Plans are now made to sell candy at school each noon hour.

GRADE NEWS

Miss Martini:

The Students are having a grand time planning for Halloween. They have been drawing Jack-o-Lanterns and singing songs about them.

Russell Hubbard brought a Jack-o-Lantern and we learned a song and a poem about the Jack-o-Lantern. We also tried to draw some pictures of it.

way last Friday, when Waterford played a practice game here with Lake Orion. Although they were defeated we feel that we have a strong team this year and hope that we will be able to retain the speedball trophy.

The first regular speedball game will be played here with Drayton, on Wednesday, September 27.

The Girl Scouts held their second regular meeting Tuesday in the form of an outdoor hike and wiener roast. They decided on having Tuesday as their regular meeting day.

Wanted: one 4-H leader is the cry sent out by all those who are looking forward to joining the 4-H organization this year. Our leader from last year is unable to be here this year. However, the club held its first meeting and elected officers. Lois Burt, who has been a member for several years, was elected president. The other officers are: Doris Bunker, vice president; Evelyn Chase, secretary-treasurer; and Margaret Daily, reporter.

The eighth, ninth and tenth grades held their first class meetings last week.

The tenth grade officers are Leonard Eakle, president; Richard Portwood, vice president; Max Peeples, secretary; Lee Steele, treasurer, and Howard Burt, class representative. We see that the boys have an overwhelming majority in the class this year.

The ninth grade officers are Robert Schmitt, president; Katherine Wildey, vice president; Billy Wagner, treasurer and Joyce Steele, secretary.

The eighth grade officers are Harold Wood, president, Whyoma McEvers, vice president, Helen Smith, secretary, and Jimmie Sutton, treasurer.

Class piano lessons are being offered to anyone who wishes to take. These lessons will be connected with our school work.

There are nineteen new scouts who have joined this year. This number will make it necessary to establish another troop.

High School News
 The speedball game Tuesday pleased both our team and the spectators. Our boys played Drayton Plains and won 20 to 5. This is the first league game of the season.

A test was given to the ninth grade Latin class Tuesday.

The tenth grade Latin class had a test Wednesday. The marks have not been revealed to the students as yet.

The geometry class had a test and the marks didn't seem satisfactory to either Mr. Burt or the students.

There will be a hot lunch at the school Wednesday. We enjoy these very much as they give the students a chance to have something hot to eat.

The Girl Scouts had a nature hike Tuesday. They collected leaves and are going to make scrap books to keep them in. They have two new leaders. They are Mrs. Watchpocket and Mrs. Shaver. There are twenty new scouts.

There was a roller skating party Saturday afternoon at Lake Orion. It was not very well attended as most of our students prefer to skate during the evening.

A picture show was held for the benefit of the students Wednesday, September 27.

Grade News
 The children in the primary department have aided in making curtains to brighten their activity room.

The primary pupils have a bowl of goldfish which they have named. When they came to school Monday morning, they found that one of their pet goldfish, named Spotty, had died over the week end.

The third graders in their study of Indians are constructing a tepee. They are also making baskets and clay bowls.

Cornelia Brien, a fourth grader, is missed by her classmates for she has moved.

The fourth graders are making a study of Pueblo Indians. An Indian house was brought by Duane Olson. Indian dolls are being dressed, and mats are being woven in this study.

The sixth graders are making maps, pictures, model villages, movies and plays in their study of Africa and Eurasia.

Tuesday the girl scouts had a nature hike. The main study during this trip was leaf study and a classification of different leaves. They intend to make nature scrapbooks. Patricia Stites was elected the seventh grade class representative.

A set of rules on school conduct is being drawn up by the representatives from each grade.

The sixth, seventh and eighth grades combined to make a baseball team last week when Mrs. Sanford brought her Oak Hill boys over for a game. Harold Wood started on the hill for Waterford but was relieved by Buddy Kratt after becoming a bit wild in the fourth inning. Buddy's left handed pitches completely baffled the opposition for the remaining two and one-third innings. Waterford took the decision by the close score of 7 to 6.

Due to classes being held until 11 o'clock in the Auditorium, the ladies who wish to help in this work will meet after the 11 o'clock hour. Any lady is invited to come and help sew for this worthy cause.

Drayton Plains School

The Boy Scouts of Drayton Plains have a display illustrating Scout camping on the bulletin board. Eugene Bachelor is in charge of the project.

On Tuesday morning the milk delivery began. This is a project which begins in October and lasts throughout the winter months. The Borden Co. of Pontiac is handling the delivery this year.

The Speedball team played their first game at Waterford last week. The second game was played at Drayton with Dublin as the opposing team this week.

The children in the 4B, under the instruction of Mrs. Grace Bentley, have been studying about the North American Indian. They were very much interested in the way the Pueblo Indians made their dishes. After making a study of the method they followed, the children have tried their skill in making a dish from the red clay. So far they have shaped and smoothed their dishes. Some of them have etched a design, others are painting designs upon them. Their next step will be to bake, glaze, and reheat their wares. They will then be ready for use. Eldon Hale brought a clay dish made by the Pueblo Indians and also a beaded necklace. Helen See brought an Indian picture and book. Lucille Hangsee brought a cup and an Indian book. John Latimer brought an arrow head. Mrs. Gesch brought a fist hatchet and an arrow head. Lawrence Westover, Stanley Wood and Joyce Cooper also brought arrowheads. Bobby Motley brought a picture, an Indian hatchet, and some tanned deer hide. Ruth Ann Robb brought a wood potato masher and a button box. Jimmie Reid also brought an Indian hatchet. And Nancy Nelson brought a selection of shells.

Junior Green is a new student in the 4B room. Robert Morgan is the first on the Dental Honor Roll. The children have new desks and they are trying to keep them in perfect condition.

HOLLY THEATRE
"The Friendly Playhouse"

Friday-Saturday, October 6-7—
Double Feature Program — Anne Shirley, James Ellison in "SORORITY HOUSE"; George O'Brien in "TIMBER STAMPEDE".

Sunday-Monday, October 8-9 —
Baby Sandy, Shirley Ross, Mischa Auer in "UNEXPECTED FATHER"; Selected Short Subjects.

Tues.-Wed.-Thurs., October 10-11-12—Basil Rathbone, Ida Lupino in "THE ADVENTURES OF SHERLOCK HOLMES"; Latest March of Time.
Coming next week—"When Tomorrow Comes"; "The Rains Came".

HOLLY THEATRE
Sandy has done it again!
Proving that her first screen appearance in "East Side of Heaven" wasn't a fluke, Hollywood's newest baby star rises to even greater heights in Universal's "Unexpected Father", which opens Sunday at the Holly Theatre.
Sandy, who again plays the part of a boy as she did in her first success, is easily the highlight of this entertaining picture. But she doesn't supply all of the entertainment by any means. Mischa Auer, who is with her for the second time, furnishes plenty of laughs in his role of a theatre doorman. And the romance is beautifully handled by Dennis O'Keefe and Shirley Ross.
Briefly, the story is about an orphaned baby who is taken in by a group of theatre employees. Their decidedly unconventional methods of taking care of him and their rivalry for her smiles result in real grade A entertainment from start to finish.
The brunt of the baby's care falls upon Auer, who tackles his task in an even more ingenious manner than he did in "East Side of Heaven". But Sandy doesn't seem to mind his methods. She gurgles with delight, proves that she is growing up by walking and even speaks a few words—daddy, mama and bye-bye.
Joy Hodges, Dorothy Arnold, Anne Nagel and Anne Gwynne form a quartet of chorus girls who assist in taking care of Sandy. Donald Briggs turns in a fine performance as the over officious theatre manager who wants to marry Shirley Ross. And Richard Lane is very convincing as the theatrical agent.

Michigan State Games Will Be Broadcast
Football fans of Michigan and surrounding territories will again have an opportunity to hear a play-by-play description of all Michigan State College football games, as guests of Oldsmobile and the Oldsmobile dealers of Michigan.
All games on the current schedule of Michigan State College, including those at home and those played abroad will be broadcast over the Michigan radio network. Carl Gensel, again this year, will give a running account of each game and Michigan's favorite announcer, Harry Heilman, will be present with him to broadcast, in his own inimitable way, the color and highlights of each game.

Drayton Plains
The Ladies' Missionary meeting will be held next Thursday evening in the Community United Presbyterian Church at 7:30. The Junior classes of boys and girls will give their entertainment under the direction of Mrs. A. A. Solomon and Mrs. Grace Barnhart.
Newest Indictment Against the Filthy House-Fly
Blamed again! The house-fly, besides carrying the germs of tuberculosis, typhoid and other diseases, also carries the germ of leprosy, according to science, but as long as this country keeps its automobiles, dry climate and present living habits, it is fairly safe, an article in The American Weekly with the October 8 issue of The Detroit Sunday Times will point out. Be sure to get The Detroit Sunday Times.

This teakettle saves you time

You'll use this teakettle many times a day . . . for washing, shaving, cooking, making tea and coffee, for the baby's bath, for sterilizing, for the laundry and countless housecleaning tasks. It will save you time and steps, because you can use the teakettle anywhere in the house. Simply plug it into the nearest electric outlet. Equipped with a special high-speed element, the kettle heats one to four quarts of water in a few minutes. A unique feature is the pop-out plug: It safeguards the element from damage if negligence permits the kettle to boil dry. The connection plug pops out automatically and shuts off the electricity at once.
